Those sententious proverbs, or old saws, which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Sarsaparilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of a new and original style of display advertising both pleasing and effective. The Hood firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filtered down through centuries. Another charming thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are using.

OBITUARY.

THE LATE MRS. WALTER BAPTIE.

Mrs. Walter Baptie, one of our oldest residents, died this morning at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. John Bickle, Wolseley street, after a rather lingering illness, in her 87th year. The deceased lady was a native of Scotland and came to this country many years ago, her late husband having conducted a blacksmith shop in Peterborough in its early days. Mrs. Baptie has been a resident of Peterborough from time to time for several years, and was a lady of strong character. She was a Presbyterian in religion. She took a great interest in politics and was very decidedly Liberal in her principles. She read much and was better informed upon political matters than the average woman, or man, for that matter. She leaves behind several children—Mrs. John Bickle, Miss Agnes Baptie, and Mr. Douglas Baptie, town; James and Peter Baptie, Lakefield, and Walter, of Everett, Washington, U.S. The funeral takes place on Monday, at 2 o'clock, from Mr. Bickle's residence, Wolseley street.

THE LATE MRS. JOSEPH LUNDY.

The death took place Friday morning of Ellen Fannin, wife of Mr. Joseph Lundy, at the advanced age of 70 years.

The deceased lady, who was born in Dublin, Ireland, has been a well-known resident of the town for many years. For the past three months she has been afflicted with gangrene of the stomach, and was a great sufferer up to the time of her death.

The deceased lady leaves behind her a husband and three sons, Frank of Depew, N.Y., and Messrs. William, Frank and Richard, of Peterborough.

The funeral will take place from the family residence on boundary (south of Chamberlain street) on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to St. Peter's Cathedral, and from thence to the Roman Catholic cemetery.

Mr. Jas. Ashburn, of Keene, it is said will commence building as soon as the season opens.

MR. LeBRUN'S GOOD LUCK.

Some Interesting Particulars of the Great Sale of Doull & Gibson in Montreal — Mr. LeBrun's Lucky Portion.

If goods well bought are half sold, Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co's portion of the great Doull & Gibson's stock of wholesale clothing will soon be turned into cash.

Mr. LeBrun was fortunate in remaining over until the last hours of this sensational sale, and without going into particulars as to the quantity he bought, he would like to have it understood that his purchases consisted of some of the best lines of the stock, and at the lowest drop of the auctioneer's hammer.

Mr. LeBrun was also very fortunate in carrying off several lucky parcels of superior trimmings, linings, tweeds, etc., at less than half the usual wholesale prices. These lines will enable him to give exceptionally close figures in making up custom work in his ordered clothing department.

While in Montreal Mr. LeBrun also struck some rich bargains in new spring neckwear, fine shirts and other lines of gentlemen's furnishings, which will be put on special sale next week, along with the rest of his fine purchases of men's suits, spring overcoats and waterproof coats.

ALPHABETIC REFORM.

Mr. J. Coyle Brown's Scheme of Reform of the Alphabet Endorsed by the Educational Convention.

At a joint meeting of the Public School, Inspectors', Training and Kindergarten Departments of the Ontario Educational Association held in Toronto on the 4th inst., Mr. J. Coyle Brown moved, and Mr. J. H. Knight seconded:

"That the present Board of Directors of the Ontario Educational Association be a committee and associated with the Honorable the Minister of Education, to consider the propriety of changing the names of c, g, h, w, y, z, oo, au and aw, ou and ow, oi and oy, ch, ph, qu, sh, th, wh, ei, gh, ng and tch, so as in each case to make the name correspond with the function, or main function, as the case may be."

The motion was carried by a large majority.

Mr. Brown, in speaking to his motion among other things stated that our alphabet may be considered as consisting of twenty-six single symbols and seventeen compound symbols, in all forty-three. Of these no less than twenty-three are wrongly named, that is, the name of each of the twenty-three is such as to give no assistance in pronouncing words, until by a long, tedious and otherwise perfectly useless association, the name calls up the function.

The letter c is, after s, the most frequently used letter in the alphabet. It has two main functions, that of k and that of s. Taking the English language as embracing about one hundred thousand words (a very low estimate) more than nine thousand begin with this letter when it has the k function, and only about nine hundred when it has the s function. In median positions the proportion is in all probability about the same. As a final letter it has always the k function. At least twelve thousand words are made unnecessarily difficult to the learner by the wrong name given to this one letter. It should be called ke, except when followed by e, i, or y, when it is really se. Care, core, cure, claim, crime, and enough to follow to make more than nine thousand all beginning to the ear like ke.

G begins more than three thousand words, and of these about twenty-five hundred begin like ge (as in geese). Gate, gear, globe, grind, grog. The name je does not contain its proper function, but one that it has in common with j. It is often like j before e, i, and y. This rule is not absolute as in the case of c.

H begins about four thousand words and not one of these begins like the name aitch. We should get a name for this letter as we get one for for b, by adding e to it. This will give the name he. Every word in the language beginning with this letter when it is not silent begins like he. Haste, heal, hire, hope, hut.

W is initial (in the case of about 3,500 words. It is unnecessary to state that not one of these begins like doub, le or u. When used as a vowel it is the equivalent of oo more than of any other sound. This suggests that oo should be added to it to form its name. We thus get woo. Wear, weave, wild, worn, all beginning like woo; and dew, few, hew, spew, all ending like woo.

Y, like w, is used both as a consonant and vowel. When used as a vowel it is generally the equivalent of i. Hence i should be added to it to form its name, yi. About 250 words begin with this letter, all like yi, not one like wi.

If it was proposed to call b, bed, or d, ded, every one would see the absurdity of the proposal. There is little more reason for calling the last letter of our alphabet zed. The last letter in the name is a useless appendage and should be left out. The letter should be called ze. Zeal, zero, zone, zig-zag.

OO, which some call o, o, and others double o, should be named oo as in ooze. Tool, stool, room, broom, groom. It has other functions, but this is its main one and should determine its name.

AU should have a name as in aught, Paul, Saul, Maud, cause, clause. AW should have a name as in awl, caw, haw, maw, fawn, drawl. Here we have two vowel symbols with the same function. They cannot be distinguished by name as consonants can. This is of little consequence, as the pronounciation of a word follows from one as well as from the other.

OU as in out. Rout, pront, sprout, house, mouse, souse, grouse, bound, hound, wound, ground. There are perhaps 500 words in which this combination occurs. The great majority are regular. In a considerable part of the others ou is like oo.

OW should have the same name as ou, as in owl. Down, brown, crown, frown. In many cases w lengthens o, as in grown. OI and OY have the same function and should have the same name. Oil, boil, coil, soil, spoil; boy, coy, hoy, Boyle, Hoyle.

CH should be named che, as at the beginning of cheese. Chain, cheap, chime, chore, church, choose, chouse. With the combination initial 66 per cent. are regular. In 28 per cent. ch is like c, as in chasm, chaos, and Greek words generally. In 6 per cent. ch is like sh, as in chaise, chaperon, and French words generally. Che contains the main function of ch and hence should be its name.

Ph has the same function as f and should be called fe. Phone, phiox, phrase, Philip, philosophia.

Qu, as in queen, should be called kive. Quail, quote, quire, quaver. quoit, squeak.

Sh should be called she. Shale, shear, shine, shop, shun, shawl, shoot, shred, shrill, shrive.

Th has two functions proper to itself alone. These are heard at the beginning of theme and these, from which the names may be deduced. Thank, thimble, thistle, thread, thrill thrust; this, that, those, thine, thou, thus.

Wh has its function perfectly shown at the beginning of wheel, from which we get to name whe (hwe). Wheat, whale, while, which, whether, whither, whorl.

Ck should be called cek. Back, reck, kick, stock, struck, quack, quick.

Gh as a terminal should be called af. Laugh, cough, rough, chough, enough.

Ng should be called eng. Bang, length, string, strong, flung.

Tch, as in fetch, should be called etch. Hatch, stretch, switch, crotch, scotch.

Ch and tch have the same function. The former is called che, and the latter etch. F, gh, and ph have the same function and are called ef, af, and fe, respectively. C, k, q and ck have the same function and are named ke, ka, ku and ek respectively. These nine symbols are thus distinguished by name. They cannot be distinguished by pure phonics.

Wherever the foregoing proposed names are different from those suggested by others, the teacher will, I think, find them an improvement. They are adapted to whatever method of teaching may be employed; the alphabetic, the look and say, or the phonic. They naturally grow out of the phonic, and phonics will never be as effective as it ought to be until these names are adopted. How ridiculous it is to introduce a letter as k- and afterwards call it se; and another as h- and afterwards as aitch, another as w and afterwards name it double u-; a compound symbol w as oo and afterwards call it o, o, or double o; another as f- and afterwards pe, aitch; and so on with twenty-three symbols out of the forty-three which constitute our English alphabet. It is no wonder that progress in the art of reading is slow, uncertain and unsatisfactory; that children averaging ten and a half years of age are still in the second reader; that only about forty per cent. of all the pupils attending the public schools of Ontario are beyond the second reader; and that the great majority of the pupils leaving our public schools are unable to read in the proper sense of the term. When is a person able to read? When he or she can take up a book or newspaper never seen before and so render an ordinary paragraph as to understand and enable those who are listening to understand. When this point has been reached the person may be said to be able to read, but at no point below.

What results will follow the introduction of the proposed names? 1. The time required to master the art of reading will be materially reduced. Children will be able to read as well at nine years of age as under present conditions at twelve. 2. Spelling will be wonderfully simplified. It will largely cease to be the painful drudgery it is at present to both teacher and pupil. 3. Many things now taught can then be learned. In this way the labour of the teacher will be lessened, and the pupil vastly benefitted. Two boys pass the same examination at the same age, and come out equal. The one has been taught, the other has learned. The one has been stuffed, the other has mastered the subjects himself. Are these two boys on the same plane? No; other things being equal, the latter will run away from the former. 4. To foreigners and natives whose mother tongue is other than English it will prove a great boon. It will enable them to acquire a knowledge of the language much more readily. To Ontario this is a matter of no small moment. There is a considerable non-English speaking population in the east, north and west. The sooner these master English the better for THEM, the better for US. Looking beyond our own province we see people from many lands and speaking many tongues flocking into Canada. We want to make these people one with ourselves. In order to do this we must teach them our language. With this in view, we ought to render its threshold, the alphabet, as effective as it can be made without altering the written or printed page.

Our Gracious Sovereign rules on every meridian, and on every parallel of latitude. Her subjects speak almost every human tongue. What a grand work it will be to assist in consolidating these into one vast whole! In giving to these one channel of thought and intercommunication! I know of no pedagogic movement so likely to be efficacious in this direction, as the one embodied in the motion which I have the honor to propose.

When Elizabeth was queen, when Shakespeare and others were writing for all time, there were only about five millions who spoke the English language as their mother tongue. Now there are one hundred and fifteen millions who thus speak it. It has embalmed in it the best thoughts of the English speaking people, and much of the best thought of all peoples. It is largely the language of commerce and is rapidly becoming the language of diplomacy as well. In 1898, three fourths of all the letters passing through the world's post offices were in that language. If any existing language is to become the language of the world, that language is the English. The politicians have been trying their hand at influencing the action of the Motherland. Much is heard of Preferential Trade and Imperial Penny Postage. Let the friends of education in this Province of Ontario try their hand in the direction I have indicated. The effects will reach much further and accomplish incomparably more for the Empire, and for human kind, than Preferential Trade or Imperial Penny Postage.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED

And is Being Permanently Cured Daily by Clarke's Kola Compound—Here is What a Hamilton Lady Says:

Mrs. Gilbert, 105 Rebecca street, Hamilton, writes: "I suffered from a bad form of asthma for over nine year, and, notwithstanding all the doctors could do for me, got worse and worse, so that my neighbors looked for my death at any time. I spent money lavishly in the efforts to get relieve, but all to no purpose. For six weeks at a time I could not get up or down stairs, and was in a miserable condition. My daughter, who clerks in a drug store, had heard a good deal of Clarke's Kola Compound, and urged me to try it as a last resort. I paid $2 for a bottle, but that is nothing for it is worth more than that for every teaspoonful. Two doses gave me splendid relief, and after using one bottle, I am a marvel to all who know me. I am doing my own work, can get around as well as ever, and feel like a new creature. Clarke's Kola Compound has been a Godsend to me, and I look upon it as a marvellous remedy. You may use this testimony as you see fit, and I shall be glad to give fuller particulars to any one inquiring. I gratefully endorse Clarke's Kola Compound."

ORCHARD AND GARDEN.

The quince can readily be propagated by cuttings.

Give the house plants as much light as possible during the day and darkness with a lower temperature at night.

Wounds on trees that are likely to rot should have the air excluded in some way. Shellac or white lead may be used.

Scatter wood ashes in the orchard. They contain the elements mostly needed to make healthy trees and good fruit.

In sowing beets, carrots and parsnips it is a good plan to mix a few radish seed with them so that the rows may be seen.

Young and thrifty trees of moderate size are always better than overgrown ones, but always avoid a small, stunted tree.

Shrubs that bloom early on wood of the previous year should not be pruned in early spring, if abundant blossoms are wanted.

Old bones and old shoes contain a large per cent of plant food and can be used to a good advantage by burying them among the roots of fruit trees.—Exchange.

IN DUNGEON DEEP.

A PERILOUS INCIDENT IN A WORLD GIRDLING TOUR.

Which Goes to Show That if Adventures Are Hard to Find They Are Equally Hard to Get Out of When Once Found.

"Adventures are pretty hard to find when you are looking for them," said my friend the traveler as he lighted a fresh cigar. "In company with a friend of mine, Jack Barney—maybe you knew him, mighty good fellow—I took a bicycle trip around the world once and arranged to send a weekly letter to my home paper. Well, sir, that was the deadest and flattest trip I ever took in my life. Not a ripple in it, barring quarrels with guides and hotel keepers, and the letters grew so tame it is a wonder to me they were ever used. It was in China that Jack one day says to me:

" 'See here, old man, we've simply got to put some excitement into this trip. Now, I propose we have an adventure this afternoon.'

"Naturally I was willing, and when we got back to the hotel I wrote it up. We were going through the Street of Seven Moons when upon a balcony, set back in a huge inclosure, we saw the most magnificent beauty I have ever laid eyes on. She was of European extraction without question, as we could see clear from the street, although dressed in Chinese garb, and we involuntarily stopped to look at her. As we did so she motioned us, with an evident sign of distress, to come to her, and without a moment's hesitation we scaled the stone wall and entered the open door on the ground floor, noting before we went in that the woman was leaving the balcony. She met us at the foot of the stairs and came running to me, sobbing, with her hands extended, and grasped mine.

" 'Oh, sirs,' she exclaimed, 'I see you are Americans, and I know you are brave! For the love of heaven rescue me from this dreadful place!'

"At that moment I felt myself suddenly seized from the rear and saw that Jack, too, was in the grasp of two stalwart coolies. We made a desperate resistance, but an unavailing one, and we were taken into a rear room, where we were horrified to see them uncover a circular well, into which it was their evident intention to thrust us. Here we made another terrific struggle, but the odds were too greatly against us, and we were thrust one after the other into this dark and ill smelling chasm. It was rather deep, but a heap of fine dust, among which we later distinguished half crumbled bones, broke our fall, so that we lay stunned only for a little and then awoke to the full terrors of our position. The walls, we found, were perfectly smooth and offered no foothold of any kind, and, worse than all, we could tell by certain sounds above that they were building over the iron plate above with brick and cement.

"We were to be starved or suffocated, whichever came first. Already the air was stifling, and our breath seemed to fairly scorch our tongues. Oh, it was horrible!"

My friend paused in reminiscence for awhile, and at last I reminded him that I was greedily interested in his tale.

"How on earth," said I, "did you ever manage to get out of there alive?"

"We didn't," he said. "There was simply no way to do it. We tried and tried to figure it out, but at last we gave it up.

" 'It's no use, old man,' Jack said to me as he sat across the table. 'We've got it too strong. Let's just cut it out and go on to Hongkong.'

"So that's what we had to do, and we never sent that letter at all."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE FLAG OF STARS.

Oh, not alone the eager south—
Alone the steadfast north—
Saw with wet eyes beneath spring skies
Our flag of stars go forth!
Oh, not alone the elder east.
Nor the young hearted west,
Smiled high with pride where side by side
The nation's children pressed!

But north and south and east and west
The mountain and the plain,
The prairie and the desert,
Yielded their flower again.
East and west and south and north
The flower of the land,
Hearing the mother's call, went forth
To stand at her right hand.

We be many hands in labor,
But one arm for the right;
One blood to shed, one heart till dead,
One good sword for the fight;
We be many tongued and minded,
But one mind and one tongue
When once wide sent through a continent
The nation's word has rung!

Then northern tongues sing "Dixie"
Beneath the ancient flag,
And the southerner dies to rebaptise
His own the "Yankee rag!"
Brothers—to keep for freedom's sake
The flag of stars unfurled
Beneath the stars of heaven—to make
The starlight of the world!

No Right To Ugliness

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents, at J. Lynch's drug store.

A FAMILY AFFAIR.

The Drummer Had an Easy Thing and Knew It.

"If that drummer ever puts up at this house again, I'll try to make his stay interesting," said the clerk of a hotel in one of Michigan's liveliest towns as he scowled at a bellboy who was trying hard not to laugh.

"He came in here the other day and, after registering, turned the page back and looked at the names of the day before. 'Say,' he said suddenly, 'I have discovered a funny thing in the last few days, and that is that there are more persons registering under the name of Brown than there are under the name of Smith. I don't know whether the Brown family is more numerous or whether they travel more than the Smiths, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that there are more Browns to be found on the hotel registers than there are Smiths.'

" 'That hasn't been my experience,' I answered, 'and you will find that it isn't true at this hotel, for there are six Smiths registered here to one Brown.'

" 'You don't know,' he retorted. 'Now, to prove what I say and make it more interesting, I will wager you that by the time I'm ready to leave tomorrow there will be more Browns on the register than Smiths.'

"I thought I had an easy mark, so I took him up. He proposed that I should buy him a 25 cent cigar for every Brown whose name went down on the register, and he would do the same for me when the name was Smith.

"That was agreeable to me, and I simply chuckled to myself, for I knew of at least two Smiths who were due and who would undoubtedly be here before the drummer left.

"Well, in less than ten minutes it began to rain Browns. I never saw so many Browns together in my life. The hotel register began to look like a record of the Brown family. Every few minutes the drummer would call around, check up the register and demand the cigars coming to him.

"The truth came out at last. That miserable drummer had discovered that there was to be a reunion of the Brown family in this city, and, learning that most of them were going to put up here, he sprung his scheme on me to get his smoking for a month for nothing, and, as if that wasn't enough, he has just sent me a collect message reading, 'Done up brown!' ".

The young woman seemed to feel an impulse to turn her head, and she yielded to it.

Immediately behind her in the hurrying crowd she saw a man whose glittering eyes were fixed with a maniacal glare upon the glossy braid of hair that hung down her back.

"So, sir," she said, with a self possession rare in one so immature, "you are watching for a chance to cut and run, are you?"

For a moment longer he gazed at the shining braid, and then he turned away.

"'Tis false!" he muttered.

And he vanished in the crowd.—Chicago Tribune.

MRS. G. UNDERHAY'S CASE.

Confined to Bed for 14 Months a Helpless Invalid---Her Spine was Affected--Could Move Neither Hand nor Foot--Doctors said she would die.

That was 15 Years Ago--She's Strong and Well To-day--Burdock Blood Bitters Made a Thorough and Permanent Cure.

No one to look at Mrs. Underhay's picture, which we give here, would think that fifteen years ago she was a woman who was so far gone that she was given up to die by her medical advisers.

The story of her wonderful and permanent cure by Burdock Blood Bitters would seem somewhat romantic could it not be readily confirmed by writing the lady herself, who at the present time is postmistress, and keeps a store at Widder, Ont., and is well known to a wide circle of friend in Lambton Co.

The following is the statement Mrs. Underhay gave of her case Dec. 16th, 1893.

"About three months before my last child was born, which is nearly nine years ago now, I could not move a foot either in bed or out, and continued so for about eleven months after he was born.

"The trouble started with a dreadful pain in my hip, so that I could not be moved without screaming, and to raise me up hurt me so much I could not stand it.

"My spine was affected in three places, which made me so that I could do nothing for myself, not even lift my little babe out of the cradle to save him, and from my long confinement in bed my back was one solid sore from my shoulder down. I was living in Brown City, Mich., at the time, and the doctors there told me I might live for five or six years, but I would never walk again.

"My father then came over for me and brought me home, and I can recollect so distinctly how every jar of the train seemed like killing me.

"After being in Widder for a while, a gentleman who was travelling for Burdock Blood Bitters, called to see me and said he believed that remedy would cure me. He seemed to understand my case so well that it encouraged me to try B B. B. I do not know how many bottles I took in all, it was quite a number, but every bottle brought me nearer health and strength, so I continued to use it until I was perfectly well.

"About two years after this my husband died, and I was left with six children to support, the eldest of whom was only 15 years of age.

"I had to work hard to keep myself and family, yet so complete had my cure been, that I never felt any indication of the old trouble returning.

"I firmly believe that I own my recovery under God, to B. B. B., as nothing else could have saved me."

The following letter recently received, shows how complete and permanent the cure made fifteen years ago has been:

Mrs Underhay writes "I am keeping the Post Office and grocery store here at Widder and with the exception of a fall I had recently, which hurt my knee, I have been the picture of health ever since I was cured 15 years ago, by Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I thank God for that medicine, for I don't believe I would have been alive to-day only for B. B B.

"Everybody who knew me when I was sick, even the doctor himself, thought it a miracle to see me walk again, as no one ever expected me to be able to get out of my bed, and looked for me to die like many another who has been afflicted as I was.

"If anybody wants to writes and ask me any questions about my case I will only be too glad to answer them."

Can anyone read the foregoing account of Mrs. Underhay's transformation from a helpless bed-ridden invalid, to a strong, healthy, active woman, through the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, without being convinced of the wonderful power this medicine has over diseases of the severest nature?

Can anyone with ailments such as constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache, boils, pimples, rashes, eczema, sores, ulcers, tumors, scorfula or any disease of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or blood, afford to fritter away money on any other remedy than B B B?

No other can cure so promptly, and no other in the world has so many "permanent cures" to its credit as B.B.B.

WRITES A LETTER ON DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

He says: My wife was most terribly afflicted with protruding piles, and contemplated a surgical operation. A friend of ours recommended the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and less than one box effected a complete cure. We were so pleased with the ointment that I tried it myself, as I have been troubled with an unsightly skin affliction which covered the lower part of my face.

For 25 years I suffered untold agony, and was treated by the best medical skill in the United States. I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment worth its weight in gold for piles and skin disease.

Sufferers are at liberty to correspond with the above address and will obtain full particulars regarding the great cure.

SOCIAL LIFE IN NEW ORLEANS.

They Who Once Taste Its Pleasures Never Forget the Charm.

"The question that confronts the creole today," writes Harydele Hallmark of social life in New Orleans, in The Ladies Home Journal, "is, 'Will the money of the Americans rule the city socially in the beginning of the twentieth century?' While money rules less in New Orleans than in any other city of its size in the United States, still a certain amount is absolutely necessary for a person to keep up the exterior of a gentleman's position Yet people of good family and very limited means do hold the best social positions, because they have learned to give up the chaff and spend their money on the wheat.

"Again, people of no influence, as New Orleans counts it, but who have plenty of money, tact and social qualifications, can obtain and have obtained good standing Blood and money together are good Money and refinement are not a specially favored condition, as are the two others, for storming New Orleans society but any of the three qualifications alone would have a hard time of it. Narrowing it down, it remains that money alone cannot enter New Orleans society today. Refinement alone cannot, but blood—well, it has held and does hold the lead.

"The atmosphere of New Orleans society, as this century draws to a close, is conspicuously Parisian in manner, ardently American in loyalty to the old flag, warm hearted to the visitor, reserved in its inner life, pleasure loving and childlike in its gayety. It offers to one, in its social as well as its physical life, the heart of a ripe, red pomegranate. He who tastes never forgets the charm. He never forgets the red roofed houses, the chimes of cathedral bells, the entresol where lives la belle creole, the folk songs on a guitar, the melodious swing of French voices, or the dark, luxurious beauty of the women."

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Was Mr. E. N. Stowell, but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Brockville, March 27.—When an eminent physician notifies a sick man that his case is hopeless and that he must die, he is it may be taken for granted, in a pretty bad way.

That was the position of Mr. Ed. N. Stowell, of this city, not long ago. He had suffered all the agonies of Bright's Disease for several years. The ablest physicians had pronounced his case hopeless, and he had begun to "set his house in order," when a friend urged him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box put new life in him seven boxes cured him. Now his friends hardly know him for the same man. Score one more for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Watkins' Club Inheritance.

"I don't see," said Mr. Mulberry, "why you women have that Mrs. Watkins in your literary club. The rest of you are bright enough, but she's as dull as dull can be."

"It's this way," answered Mrs. Mulberry. "Mrs. Watkins' great-grandmother's half sister's second cousin by marriage could trace her descent from Chaucer. So, you see, after all, with such literary claims, we couldn't very well leave Mrs. Watkins out."—Harper's Bazar

HE MADE IT.

But the Englishman Didn't Appreciate the Joke.

"Talk about getting tired of the sunny south gag!" said the cigar stand man in an up town hotel. "It was nothing at all to one I had to put up with while the cold wave was waving. Y' see, there's very little room back here, and I have to keep the cash register on top of the steam radiator. While the blizzard lasted the heat was on all the time, day and night, and the register naturally got hot.

"So I proceeded to dish out specially warmed specie for change, and with that my troubles began. A customer would pick up a coin, look surprised and then wink the other eye.

"'Just made it, eh!' he would ask. And of course I was expected to make some playful remark about having a counterfeiting plant back of the cigar case.

"After the jest had been bandied to and fro some 500 or 600 times it began to get slightly stale, but each fellow thought it was brand new, and when I failed to grin he set me down as a stupid ass. At last I got desperate and concluded I'd anticipate the blow. A big Englishman sauntered up, and, feeling morally certain he'd spring the joke, I got in ahead of him.

"'I just made this,' I said, handing him a nickel that fairly sizzled. He looked blank.

"'Ah—part of your—er—profits, I presume?' he replied.

"'No,' says I, determined to make him see the point or perish in the attempt, 'I made it—stamped it out on my little machine. How d'y like it?'

"He frowned and pushed it quickly away. 'I beg pardon,' he said, 'but really I'll have to ask you to give me something else. I couldn't be a party to anything like that, doncherknow.'

"I tried to make him understand that it was simply a joke, for I didn't know how soon he might go to the police about it. But, pshaw! It was a hopeless job.

"'I cawn't see anything comic in the plain statement that one is engaged in counterfeiting,' he insisted.

"'Neither can I,' I replied, 'and that's exactly why I made it.' That happened to be the actual truth, but it gave a final twist to the situation that floored the Englishman completely.

"'Then you consider it comic to get off something comic because it isn't actually comic in the least,' he repeated in great bewilderment. "'Pon me word,' says he, 'this American humor is too deep for me!'

"I restrained myself and allowed him to escape alive, but I'm going to have the gore of the next man that starts a continuous performance joke in this hotel!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

His Wants Briefly Stated.

A citizen who was not on the recent relief committee received the following letter from an old negro who had formerly been in his employ:

Marse Bill:

Her Kind of Wife.

The subject under discussion was wives, and one woman thought she knew a perfect woman from a man's standpoint. "Being a woman," she said, "I know exactly what sort of a wife I would like if I were a man. It would be one who would never say, 'I told you so,' or, 'You are not getting any younger, dear,' or, 'You d-d-don't love me as you used.' It would be one who would never stay at home and sit up for me when I went to the club, but would take her own pleasure in a reasonable way; one who wouldn't want her mother, her aunts, her sisters and her cousins to stay with her, nor have a family party on Christmas day, nor expect me to go to church when I wanted to do something else, nor sniff when I bring home my chum Smith to take potluck. I would have a wife who never got old, nor had tempered, nor jealous when I talked to Mrs. Blarneyton; one who never said silly things, who always looked bright, capable and better looking than other men's wives; one who dressed on nothing a year; one who never had a flirtation and was always well. That is all, I think." There was silence for the space of half a minute and then—well, she wished she had not been so sure of her ability to define a good wife.—Elmira Telegram.

Opinions of Women.

Confucius says, "Woman is the masterpiece;" Herder, "Woman is the crown of creation;" Voltaire, "Women teach us repose, civility and dignity." Richter says, "No man can live piously or die righteously without a woman;" Beecher, "Women are a new race, recreated since the world received Christianity." N. P. Willis thinks "the sweetest thing in life is the unclouded welcome of a wife;" Michelet remarks that "woman is the Sunday of man, not his repose only, but his joy, the salt of his life." Voltaire also said, "All the reasonings of man were not worth one sentiment of women;" Saville, "Women have more strength in their looks than we have in our laws and more power by their tears than we have by our arguments."

A Candid Suitor.

What a brute! That is what is said of the man who abuses his horse, but the man who abuses his body finds help and encouragement on every side. His mother makes him some of that good old-fashioned mince pie, his daughter gives him hot biscuit, and his wife follows with delicious ice cream. Presently the man has that unpleasant feeling in the stomach which is the beginning of a dyspeptic condition. His nerves become unstrung, and he makes mother, wife and daughter miserable with his moodiness. His liver is torpid. His blood is being poisoned by the impurities which the broken-down organs are incapable of taking care of. He is in just the condition to receive the germs of any disease. He is a shining mark for the germs of consumption. To that disease too, he becomes a victim one day or another, unless saved by the use of such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This will put him on his feet again. It is a tonic and appetizer, a blood purifier, a liver invigorator, a nerve restorer, a strengthener for the weak, a cure for weak and bleeding lungs, bronchitis, lingering cough and kindred ailments, which if neglected or improperly treated lead up to consumption. Perhaps you think no medicine can cure so many ailments, but when you remember that all these diseases start in the stomach and nutritive system, and that "Golden Medical Discovery" corrects that fault or derangement at the starting point, it isn't so strange after all that it does so much.

Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., writes: "I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Prior to September 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September 1897, to take the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

A LESSON IN COOKING.

How a Hobo Served Up a Dish of Roast Chicken.

"The first time I ran away from home I learned a trick or two that was worth the while," said a well known business man. "I started ont on several unauthorized tours of adventure before I reached years of discretion, but the first is most vividly impressed upon my memory. Three of us kids caught a freight train and got some 60 or 70 miles away from home before the first nightfall. Then we didn't know where to spend the night. Several attempts to quarter ourselves in empty box cars on the side track of a little village only resulted in our being chased away and threatened with arrest, so we went to the outskirts of the place and built a fire on the bank of a little creek. Here we made ourselves as comfortable as possible and one or two of us had actually dozed off for short naps when a regular hobo, a good specimen of the real article, happened along and wanted to know if we had anything to eat. Of course we hadn't.

"'Well,' he said, 'if you fellers'll ketch a chicken I'll show you a trick that'll be useful to you.'

"It didn't take us long to catch the chicken and bring it back. The veteran member of the nomadic fraternity wrung its neck, jerked off its head, cleaned it and going down to the creek wadded it up, feathers, feet and all, in a big ball of yellow clay. This he rolled into the fire and scraped the burning embers up around it. The clay soon hardened, and we could see it among the wood coals gradually becoming a bright cherry red. When it did so, the cook rolled it out again, let it cool a little and then broke it open with a stone. The feathers had stuck to the baked clay and a clean, inviting chicken was ready to be served. All the moisture that in ordinary baking is lost had been kept in by the bricklike inclosure, and the morsel that fell to my lot was the juiciest and sweetest I have ever eaten."

The icebergs of the two hemispheres are entirely different in shape. The Arctic bergs are irregular in form, with lofty pinnacles and glittering domes, while the Antarctic bergs are flat topped and solid looking.

BENT GLASS.

More Used Now Than Ever—How It Is Formed Into Shape.

Bent glass was at one time more commonly used for showcase fronts than for anything else, but it has come to be employed for a variety of purposes and it is now used far more extensively than ever before. Its use in store fronts is becoming more and more familiar, very large plates being bent for this purpose. It is now used more than ever before in the construction of buildings for dwelling purposes, in windows on rounded corners and in towers; it is used in coach fronts; it is used in the rounded front china closets and in making glass cabinets. Either plain glass or beveled glass may be bent, and to any curve.

For gas use and another glass in many sizes is now bent in many forms. The number of molds required for current use in a glass bending establishment is large, and the accumulated molds number thousands.

Glass is bent in a kiln. Glass melts at 2,300 degrees. The heat employed in bending is 1,800 degrees. No pyrometer would stand long in that heat. It might last an hour, but it would not last a day, and so the heat of the kiln is judged from the color of the flame and other indications. By long experience and observation the expert glass bender is enabled to estimate the heat in this manner with accuracy. Smaller pieces of glass are put into the molds in the kilns with forks made for the purpose. The great molds used for bending large sheets of glass are mounted on cars, so that they can be rolled in and out of the kilns. The glass is laid upon the top of the mold over the cavity and it is bent by its own weight. As it is softened by the heat it sinks into the mold and so is bent into forms. It may take an hour or two to bend the glass, which is then left in the kiln from 24 to 36 hours to anneal and cool. Glass to be bent, of whatever kind or size it may be, is put into the kilns in its finished state. The great heat to which it is subjected does not disturb the polished surface. Despite the exercise of every precaution more or less glass is broken in bending it. Bent glass cost about 50 per cent more than the flat.—New York Sun.

THE SAMOAN MATTER

British Government Has Made a Popular Appointment.

MR. ELLIOTT, C.B., COMMISSIONER

British Arrangement Made With the King of the Tonga Islands—An American Flying Column Sets Out to Sweep the Lake and Conquer the Philippines—Cable News.

Washington, April 10.—The appointment of Mr. Charles N. Elliott as Samoan commissioner gave much satisfaction in Government and diplomatic circles, as Mr. Elliott is a member of the Embassy Staff, and during his brief service here has made many friends.

Mr. Elliott has the reputation of being one of the brightest lights among that school of young Englishmen who have attached themselves to the British foreign service during the last decade. He is an Orientalist of high repute, and has in a brief space of time acquired an experience in dealing with the half civilised races that will, without doubt, make his services of value to the Samoan Commission.

Charles Norton Elliott was born in 1861, the son of Rev. E. Elliott of Millbrook, Jersey. He was educated first at Cheltenham and was elected a scholar of Balliol College, Oxford, in 1879, and a fellow of Trinity in 1884. His diplomatic service began July 24, 1886, and has been during that time extensive and most creditable.

Plain-Speaking German Emperor.

London, April 10.—The Berlin correspondent of The Standard says: "After receiving Mr. White, the American Ambassador, and Sir Frank Lascelles, the British Ambassador, last week, and explaining to them Germanys' attitude regarding Samoa, Emperor William sent instructions to the German Ambassadors in London and Washington to the general effect that Germany considers the new government of Samoa illegal, and the action of the British and Americans a clear violation of the Samoa Act. The report of the behavior of Admiral Kauts toward the German cruiser Falke has given umbrage throughout the empire; and it is considered certain that if the report is confirmed the United States will readily admit Germany's right to satisfaction, and will repair Admiral Kauts's errors. It is hoped, however, that the accounts are exaggerated.

The Independence of Tonga.

London, April 10.—A despatch to The Times from Melbourne says that private advices have been received from the Tonga Islands that the captain of the British warship Tauranga and the British Vice-Consul recently concluded an arrangement with the king of the islands, binding him not to part with his sovereign rights or to cede, sell or mortgage any of his territory to any foreign power. Great Britain will guarantee the independence of the kingdom.

Fighting Expedition Sent.

Manila, April 10.—At nightfall on Saturday night Generals Lawton and King launched an expedition of three gunboats, with 1500 picked men in canoes, in tow of the gunboats. The object of the expedition is to cross the lake, capture Santa Cruz and sweep the country to the south.

The expedition consists of eight companies of the 14th Infantry, three companies of the 4th Cavalry, four of the North Dakota Volunteers, four of the Idaho Volunteers, two mountain guns and 200 sharpshooters of the 14th Infantry. At the mouth of the Pasig River the men will be transferred from the canoes to the three gunboats, the Laguna de Bay, Oesto and Napinda Santa Cruz. The objective point of the expedition is at the extreme end of the lake.

M. LOUBET'S GALLANTRY.

French President Honored His Mother on His Official Tour.

Paris, April 10.—One episode in President Loubet's journey throws all else into the shade, and that is the meeting between the mother and her son. In the midst of the official procession the President suddenly espied his mother seated in the little terrace garden overlooking the street. The President, who was in full evening dress, ordered his carriage to stop. He sprung to the ground, exclaiming: "For the moment I cease to be President!" He ran up the steps and was through the side gate leading to the garden before his mother was aware of his presence. He clasped her in his arms, kissing her over and over again, while tears filled not only their eyes but the eyes of the hundreds of witnesses of the tender, simple scene. The Paris correspondents accompanying the President on his tour all refer to the incident in their telegrams, pronouncing it the most notable occurrence of the journey.

The Britishers in Egypt.

London, April 10.—The report of Baron Cromer, the British Agent and Consul-General in Egypt, is looked upon as being a wonderful story of progress and the triumph of administrative foresight and military vigor. He advocates extending the railroad from Khartoum through Abuh-Hara to Godarif and Kassala, to Suakim, and thus tap the territory about the Upper Nile, which Sir Samuel Baker called "the granary of the Soudan." The British agent also makes a significant remark, that "school statistics show that French is dying out as the language of the middle classes and English has already largely taken its place."

Millionaire Weddings.

London, April 10.—A so-called "up-to-date" rector of the city church of St. Mary-at-Hill, in the centre of Billingsgate, announced that his sermon last evening would be on "millionaire marriages," with particular reference to the Vanderbilt wedding, accompanied by lime light views of the Vanderbilts' New York mansions and the interior of American millionaires' residences. In his sermon the rector dwelt upon the worthlessness of worldly goods, contrasting the gorgeous surroundings of the Vanderbilts' and other millionaires with the lilies of the field.

France Shows Her Power.

Toulon, April 10.—A French evolutionary squadron, consisting of six battleships, nine cruisers and eight small craft, sailed on Saturady for Cagliari, the capital of Sardinia, where an evolutionary demonstration will be made and the squadron will fire a salute to King Humbert. Admiral Fournier, who is in command of the squadron, is the bearer of an autograph letter from President Loubet to King Humbert.

The Queen Will Officiate.

London, April 10.—The Queen will lay the foundation stone of the new South Kensington buildings in May or June, with elaborate ceremonies. A melancholy interest is attached to the affair, as Her Majesty is determined that it shall be her last appearance under similar circumstances in public.

Another Stage Beauty.

London, April 10.—Miss Blair, a daughter of the Dowager Duchess of Sutherland by her first husband, the late Capt. Blair, has decided to go on the stage, and will join Wilson Barrett's company. She is a tall, handsome girl.

To Occupy Kow Loon.

London, April 10.—It is announced that Great Britain will formally occupy her new territory of Kow Loon, adjoining Hong Kong, on April 17.

Risked the Lives of Patients.

Berlin, April 10.—Dr. Bosse, the Prussian Minister of Education, has ordered an investigation into Prof. Foerster's charges that many scientists, including those of the Breslau University clinic and the German hospitals, indulge in dangerous experiments with patients. The charges involve some scientists of world-wide reputation and the best-known polyclinics and hospitals, some of the experiments mentioned being with cholera and other deadly germs.

THE SUNDAY PAPER IN LONDON.

The Bismarck Article in the First Issue of The Daily Mail.

London, April 10.—The first issue of the Sunday edition of The Daily Mail contains a statement by Dr. Schweninger, for many years Prince Bismarck's physician, in which he relates the old Chancellor's thirty years' struggle with death. While hunting in Sweden in August, 1857, he fell from his horse, experiencing thereafter a slight pain in his left leg. He visited a quack doctor at Heidelberg, who ordered the application of a plaster before proceeding on his journey home by train. The chief ingredient of the plaster was Spanish fly. The Prince awoke in the night in violent pain. He tore off the plaster and disclosed a deep wound, which was perfectly black. A burning inflammation developed, and it was thought that amputation of the leg would be necessary. Special treatment caused temporary modifications of the pain, but it recurred frequently until his death. His physicians on several occasions told him he was within a hand's grasp of death.

TO VISIT IRELAND AGAIN.

Duke and Duchess of York Again for Erin's Isle.

Dublin, April 10.—The Duke and Duchess of York will this week pay their second visit to Ireland within two years. They intend to attend a number of public functions.

On their arrival in Dublin on Monday they will become the guests of the Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, Earl Cadogan, and will attend the Punchestown and Leopardstown races, the vice-regal ball at Dublin Castle, the Dublin Society's cattle show, and will also pay a short visit to the Marquis of Ormonde, at Kilkenny Castle.

The Prince of Wales has left Cannes and is now on his way back to England.

Nearly all of the other prominent people are leaving the Riviera. As the season is drawing to a close the trains from Nice and Cannes to Paris are filled with passengers, and all the berths of the sleeping cars have been secured for the next three weeks.

London, April 10.—The Daily Telegraph's Vienna correspondent says: "Most unfavorable news has been received in official quarters from Macedonia. The insurrectionary feeling is increasing, and suspicious movements are being made along the Bulgarian and Montenegrin frontiers.

THE ANDREWS FIRE.

Evidence of Incendiarism in Threatening Letters.

CONDITION OF THE INJURED.

Butler Foley Under Police Surveillance—A Policeman Sent for by Mrs. Andrews a Few Hours Before the Flames Were Seen, But Dismissed Mysteriously by a Servant.

New York, April 10.—Despite reticence on the part of the police, facts became public Saturday which make it appear that the fire which on Friday destroyed thirteen persons was of incendiary origin. It transpired that a few hours before the flames were seen a policeman was sent for from the Andrews house, and was mysteriously dismissed by a servant, who said he was not wanted. Letters threatening the lives of the Andrews and the children were found. It is believed that the motive for incendiarism was revenge, and that the affair rose out of a quarrel among the servants. Until some arrests are made it will be practically impossible to unravel what now seems to have been a plot.

The letters made charges against Mary Flanagan and the butler. The writer said in part: "I hope you and Mrs. Andrews don't think for one moment that I am reconciled or pacified with Mary Flanagan, for indeed I am not, and what is further, I never will until I get my revenge. I feel that I have given warning enough, and I am going to fix her for life, and because you and Mrs. Andrews did not give heed to warning, I'm going to fix you, too. I'm going to make someone throw something in your nurses' and children's faces that will disfigure them and eat all the flesh off the bone. This I will do for spite, because you did not let Mary go as I told you to. You had just as well let her go first as last. You will have no girl alive when I get through with her."

With the exception of Jennie Burns, all the injured were reported to be doing as well as could be expected. For the Burns girl there seems no hope. Both the police and the fire department officials were today investigating the cause of the fire and some wild stories of plots and incendiarism were afloat. All the police would say was that they had Andrew Foley, butler to the Andrews, under surveillance. They think that he knows more about the fire than he has told. Further than to add that there were many bickerings among the Andrews servants, the police were reticent.

The butler, Foley, made the statement to-day that Mrs. Andrews sent for a policeman to guard the house shortly before midnight on Thursday. His story is somewhat rambling, and the police say that he has made several contradictory statements. Foley's assertion is not borne out by the other servants as far as can be ascertained.

RUSSIANS FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

If the Provincial Government Will Give Them Coast Land.

Vancouver, B.C., April 10.—Canadians generally were recently much interested in the arrival in the Dominion of nearly 4000 Russians, the majority of whom have settled in Manitoba. There are, however, still 9000 of 4000 of these people who are anxious to escape to Canada, from the land of the Czar, and it may be that they will settle in British Columbia, says the London correspondent of The News-Advertiser. A deputation headed by Mr. Arthur Bergstrom of Hango, Finland, recently waited upon Mr. W. Walter the Agent-General for British Columbia, and asked him if the Provincial Government would grant them land on the sea coast. The deputation impressed upon Mr. Walter that they did not want their passage money paid or any Government grant, beyond the land, and as most of them had a little money they expected to be able to pay their way. Mr. Walter requested the deputation to put the request in writing, when he would forward it to the Provincial Government.

KANG-YU-WEI.

Chinese Reformer Who Is Fleeing for His Life in Canada.

Victoria, B.C., April 10.—Kang-Yu-Wei, the Chinese reformer, who was deposed and has since been pursued by the Empress Dowager, has arrived here on the steamer Idsumi Maru from Yokohama. He is on his way to London, where he hopes to find a harbor of refuge. Kang-Yu-Wei, as chief commissioner and secretary of the Board of Public Works, was responsible for the reforms initiated under old regime. When the Empress Dowager deposed him a price was put on his head. He fled and got on the British ship Ballarat. Although pursued by Chinese boats he reached Hong Kong. Thence he fled to Tokyo. He is in mortal terror of his life and fearful of assassination, even at the hands of his countrymen here.

The Spanish Language Decreed.

Madrid, April 10.—The following despatch from Manila is printed here: "Aguinaldo has issued a decree, directing that Spanish shall be the official language throughout the archipelago, and protesting against the American pretension to force the use of English on the natives who do not know it."

Furious Fight Between Boys.

West Point, N.Y., April 10.—A fierce battle occurred at Highland Falls at a late hour last night between candidates for admission to West Point as cadets on the one side and boys of the village on the other.

The trouble began with a hand to hand fight, and the crowd soon increased to such an extent that stone-throwing took the place of fists. Several of the candidates were more or less injured, and the most seriously hurt was U. S. Grant, the third son of General Fred D. Grant.

The services of all the doctors in town were required to dress the wounds of the injured. Hostilities continued for nearly an hour.

Montreal Man Arrested.

Boston, April 10.—Alfred R. Goslin of New York, formerly of Montreal, has been arrested here, and is confined in jail. The arrest was made on a process in a civil suit brought by Edwin C. Holman of Boston against Goslin and William R. Paddock to recover $16,500, which he alleges he gave them to use for him. The action grows out of the dealings of Holman with the brokerage firm of Stewart & Paddock, who have offices in New York and Boston. He speculated in stocks, bonds and grain. Goslin is fighting the case.

Gave Him $1,000.

Winnipeg, Man., April 10.—Mr. F. W. Jones, who has just retired from the superintendence of the section of the C.P.R. west, was presented on Saturday with a purse containing $1000 and silver plate valued at $200, by his associates on the road. He has accepted a position with Mann & McKenzie on the coast.

Marion Brown Not Worrying.

London, Ont., April 10.—Marion Brown, the condemned murderer, was visited yesterday by Rev. Dr. Robert Johnston. The prisoner is in much better spirits than a few days ago, and does not appear to be worrying over his fate.

Will Take the Boat, But No Troops.

Wellington, N.Z., April 10.—The Imperial Government has accepted the offer of the colony to despatch a boat to Samoa, but the troops offered are not required.

"One Good Turn Deserves Another."

It is so easy to go through life doing good and helping to make others happy. A lady who had been ill with a complication of troubles, having been thoroughly cured and now enjoying perfect health, felt it a duty to tell her friends that the specific that brought her back to health was Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Thus, after Hood's had served her well, she felt it deserved a good turn at her hands. Thousands tell the same story of blood purified and health restored. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit peculiar to itself.

Sick Headache—"For a long time I was troubled with sick headaches. Different medicines failed to give me relief. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my husband having been cured of salt rheum by it, and soon it made me feel like a new woman." MRS. ROBERT MCAVEE, Deerhurst, Ont.

Impure Blood—"My wife suffered with pain and distress from an affection of the throat caused by impure blood. She was almost in despair when she turned to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Six bottles of this medicine completely cured her." JOHN WECKHAM, Galt, Ont.

Back Ache—"My mother had severe pains in her side and back. She was obliged to give up work. A friend persuaded her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon she was able to do her work, free from pain and had a good appetite." MAGGIE MORGAN, Masonworth, N. B.

No Strength—"My whole system was run down. I was weak and could hardly get around to do my work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using five bottles I found that my strength had returned and appetite much improved." MRS. KELLEY, 318 Dufferin Street, Toronto, Ont.

Nerve Food—"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration. She suffered from headaches. She became weak, low-spirited and her appetite was poor. I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured her of all her ailments." G. BELLAMY, 321 Hannah St., Hamilton, Ont.

BROCKVILLE BYE-ELECTION.

Both Liberal and Conservative candidates have been placed in the field in the Commons bye-election in Brockville to fill the vacancy caused by the lamentable death of the Hon. J. F. Wood. The Liberals have brought out Mr. W. H. Comstock, a highly respected citizen—a gentleman of large business experience and capacity—a gentleman in every way well fitted to give an important riding satisfactory representation. The Conservatives have thought it wise, to select—at any rate they have selected—Hon. Peter White of Renfrew. While Mr. White's parliamentary expeience is recognized as an element in his fitness for a representative of Brockville, it is quite off set by the fact of his being an outsider, with no possible personal knowledge, such as a representative should possess of the needs of the riding he aspires to serve. While Mr. Comstock may lack the parliamentary experience his opponent should possess by virtue of his past services, Mr. White utterly lacks that intimate knowledge of the wants of the riding, of its pecular needs, of its people, he lacks that personal and material interest in the riding, which will enable Mr. Comstock who possesses all those things, to intelligently work for the benefit of Brockville as no outsider, however capable in a general way, can or will do. Mr. Comstock, in the very probable event of his return will always be on hand, and personally accessable to his constituents. Without one words of disparagement to Hon. Mr. White, it does strike us, at this distance, that the Conservatives have shown a deplorable lack of local loyalty in selecting an outsider as a candidate. A town of the importance of Brockville, which has heretofore found among its own citizens, both on the Liberal and Conservative sides of politics, the most capable representatives that have been sent to the House of Commons or Ontario, Legislature, has certainly not exhausted the panel of such men; and it seems remarkable that amongst the many clever and capable Conservative citizens of Brockville there cannot be found one gentleman worthy of being selected as a candidate. THE EXAMINER does not wish to be understood as condemning non-resident representation per se; but where a capable local man is available for the position of candidate, he should, except for very grave reasons, have the preference. The selection of an outsider by the Brockville Conservatives argues it seems, one of two things—that there is no local man considered fit to uphold the Conservative banner, or, if such a gentleman exists, he declines to take the risk of defeat at the hands of so able, well qualified and popular a candidate as Mr. Comstock, who has the ability, time, leisure and means to serve the riding and to personally interest himself in the promotion of its interests.

WITH TEMPER AND JUDGMENT.

The Monetary Times, a journal of recognized independence, has this to say of Mr. [illegible]'s speech re the Yukon charges:—

known to possess. If there has been disappointment in the case of anyone whose capacity and conduct previously had the guarantee of experience, who is to blame? Major Walsh, whose previous value as an officer of the Mounted Police does not admit of doubt, resigned his new position in the Yukon at his own request; and he now defies anyone to prove the charges of immorality and drunkenness which have been made. It is scarcely a sufficient answer to objection against them, that the mining regulations were drawn up under a previous administration, but it may be allowed its weight as as a plea in abatement. On the whole, it must be admitted that Mr. Sifton has made a good Parliamentary defence, as good as it is possible to make in the absence of evidence, taken on all the contested points, before a commission, a Parliamentary committee, or, what would be better still, a court of justice."

OUR SPRUCE.

In considering the timber problem of the country, spruce wood constitutes a most important factor. There is no available spruce in the United states west of New York, except a limited amount in West Virginia, a patch of 50,000 acres in Michigan, owned by Niagara paper mills, and a similar area in Wisconsin. It is therefore fair to consider the question of preserving the spruce forests as applying mainly to New England and New York. In the State of Maine there are 420 timber townships, but all of the townships accessible to large rivers are entirely denuded of their valuable timber. In New Hampshire, at the present rate of cutting, the bente Forestry Commission has said that the entire forest resources of the state would be exhausted in twelve years. The State of New York by constitutional amendment, has prohibited the cutting of timber of any kind in a territory covering 4,000 square miles, setting aside the Adirondack Park, which contains 2,807,760 out of 3,686,806 acres of available spruce area in the state. An appropriation of $1,500,000 has been made recently for the acquirement of additional forests. Forestry associations have been organised in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Colorado, Utah, Ohio, Kentucky, Minnesota, Texas, North Dakota, Wisconsin and South Carolina, and forestry commissions have been established in Maine, New Hamshire, New York, Colorado, Wisconsin. There are now thirty forest reservations, embracing an area of 60,000 square miles, and extending over large portions of thirteen states and territories. Three commissions in New Hampshire have reported that the present methods of lumbering, if continued, will entail baleful scenic, climatic and economic results, injuring health, property and occupations of all citizens, impairing the industrial development of the State and rendering intermittent the flow of the rivers, which are most important to agriculture and manufacture. The interests of the public generally, as distinguished from those of a class—lumbermen—require the conservation of the forest resources—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Our neighbors are, none to soon, commencing to deal with the timber question in a practical way, and the reports of the various commissioners now at work are not encouraging. The journal from which the above is extracted, takes a very gloomy view of the situation, and the portion of its review as quoted above gives a fair idea of the tone of the entire article. It plainly states that, as the forests of the republic have been denuded of their timber, and as a "lumber famine," as it styles it, is imminent, the source of supply to which the Americans must look lies in the forests of Canada. The necessity of our carefully conserving what is left us becomes the more pressing as the extinction of the American lumber progresses, and the steps taken by our Provincial authorities with that object in view, will meet with general approval. It is regrettable that they were not taken sooner. The particular reference, in the quotation above, to spruce is especially worthy of attention. The Ontario Commissioner of Crown Lands, in his recently issued report, says that "It appears from information in possession of the Department, that the Hudson's Bay slope has immense forests of spruce, which timber is daily increasing in value, and it may well be that that region will, in the end, prove our most valuable timber possession." It is safe to anticipate that we shall see a raid on this "possession" in the future by our neighbours, and it is to be hoped that the motto "Canada First," will be kept well before the Provincial authorities, in connection with the subject.—Ottawa Free Press.

HIAWATHA.

From Our Own Correspondent.

On Wednesday of last week, the little daughter of Mr. Robt. Davis, stage driver of Hiawatha, was getting into the waggon when the horses started; she fell between the wheels, and the hind wheel passed over her chest. Dr. Shaw found several of the ribs cracked. She is recovering nicely now.

Some of the ratepayers of school section No. 11, who have been using the Indian school building on the Reserve close to that section, are applying to Inspector Brown in the interest of a new school building in their own section.

The Indians had a council Friday night, and decided to write to the Indian department, protesting against the breaking of the lease of the Reserve school house to section 11, which is for ten years, and has eight years yet to run. The Indians and some of the whites of section 11 are agitating for the building of a new school house on the present site for the purpose of a union school for the Reserve, and the adjacent ratepayers in school section 11.

Chief Robert Pandeush, of the Hiawatha Reserve, accompanied by his son, Johnston Pandeush, the next in right, intend going to England to visit the Great White Mother, the Queen, in 1900. The former chiefs of the Pandeush family were invited by the Queen to pay such a visit, but they were prevented by illness. The journey will probably be made in June of next year. They will stay about a month and will pay their way to England, but Her Majesty will entertain the visitors at Windsor Castle and pay the expenses of the return voyage. They will appear before Her Majesty in Indian costume. When the Prince of Wales visited Hiawatha in 1860 he had a long pow-wow with the then reigning chief, Capt. George Pandeush, who was a captain during the war of 1812, and was in the engagement at Chrysler's Farm and at Queenstown Heights. He and his son, Mosang, served in 1837, and were at the skirmish at the Windmill, near Prescott. The Prince took home the photographs of the chief and his son. Paintings were made from them, which now hang in the Hall of Buckingham Palace. Captain George Pandeush had three medals presented by King George III for services in the war of 1812-14, and in 1846 he received [illegible] the Queen for services in 1837, and in 1860 the Prince of Wales presented him with another.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. Agnew's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headache. THE IRISH ELECTIONS.

The Nationalists Own the County Councils—The Unionists Were Very Heavily Beaten.

London, April 10.—The results of the first Irish County Council elections under the new Local Government Act are arriving slowly. It is known that 300 Nationalists and 53 Unionists have been elected. The results in Dublin County were 13 Nationalists and 7 Unionists; Kilkenny, 20 to 14; Kings' County, 20 to 1; Mayo, 6 to 0; Westmeath, 21 to 2; Derry, Carlow, 20 to 0. Miss Charlotte Barrington, the only woman candidate, was elected in Limerick. Lord Mayo received only 19 votes in Wicklow, and Lord Castletown only 12 votes in Cork. Labor candidates won 11 of the 16 seats in Limerick District.

GAINS FOR WORKERS.

Both Unionists and Nationalists Went Down Before the Army of Determined Workingmen.

New York, April 10.—The London correspondent of The Times says: "Returns of the Irish County Council elections are not yet nearly all to hand, and they will not be completely available for several days, but enough is known to justify the remark of The London Times' correspondent that "Unionism has been annihilated in Munster and Connaught, almost totally extirpated in Leinster, and badly wounded even in Ulster." The Unionists of position and property and with a life time of experience in public affairs, have been defeated by the wholesale. Even many of the better class of Nationalists have been beaten by labor candidates. The Council elections, in spite of everything foretold to the contrary, have been fought solely and wholly upon political lines, and the result is an overwhelming victory for Nationalism. In Kildare, Lord Frederick Fitzgerald, a landlord and Tory, secures an election as the only Unionist among seven Nationalists, by reason of his frank appeal to the Rebellious traditions of the people. He issued a placard calling upon the voters "To remember the traditions of Lord Edward Fitzgerald."

"Even their enemies cannot fail to sympathise with the Irish landlords in their position to-day.

"A specially well-informed Irish correspondent wrote yesterday: 'Whatever may be their fate in the elections now pending, the landlords will in the end, if they are only true to the cause of Irish nationality, be welcomed with open arms to take their natural place as leaders of the nation.'"

Progressing Towards Unity.

The Tribune's London correspondent says: "Politics have been at a low ebb, except in Ireland, where some progress is making in the direction of the restoration of unity to the Nationalist party, and where the first election under the Local Government has placed the tenant farmers on top and the landlords at the bottom. Mr. Dillon's overtures for re-union have not yet been accepted by Messrs. Redmond and Healy, but his attitude is so patriotic and disinterested that they will be placed in a false position unless they meet him part way. Already there are signs that the Nationalists will make use of the new councils as bridges for entering Dublin Castle and proposing the creation of a central administration in touch with all local bodies. That would be a close approach to Gladstonian Home Rule, with a body modelled after the London County Council substituted for the national parliament."

The Pope Is Sowly Dying.

London, April 10.—A Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail says: "While the Pope's health has improved, few deny that his life is slowly ebbing away. Cardinal Parocchi, Bishop of Porto and Santa Rufina, and Vicar-General of His Holiness, in an interview, said that, in spite of the advices of his physicians, the Pope, if his strength will permit, will meet the Sacred College on Tuesday, to receive the congratulations of that body on the anniversary of his coronation. He even intends to attend the service in St. Peter's on Friday."

Biography of the Pope.

London, April 10.—Mr. F. Marion Crawford has undertaken already to write the biography of the Pope, and is now at work upon it at his beautiful residence at Sorrento. His recent work, "Ave Roma Immortalis," has met with great favor in Vatican circles, since it describes the sacred city in a spirit of enthusiasm and reverence. He is regarded as a biographer who will be able to write a memoir of the most statesmanlike of recent pontiffs, which will not only have a sterling literary quality, but will also be well received by English-speaking Catholics. His relations with the Vatican are so close that he will have all the requisite facilities for obtaining secret information and completing his work with the least possible delay.

Who Will Be the Next Pope?

London, April 10.—Cardinal Vaughan's secretary describes the report published in The Paris Matin, that the Cardinal was a candidate for the succession to the Papacy, as a piece of impertinence, and denounces the journalism that gave it birth. "If any Cardinal should suggest himself as a candidate," the secretary said to-day, "he would be despised by all Catholics and his pride visited by God's damnation. We do not live in the Middle Ages, when worldly ambitions reigned and plots and conspiracies could be carried on. The voting is now done conscientiously and at God's instigation. No one can tell beforehand who will be God's anointed to fill the highest position in the world."

IRISHMEN TO BE RELEASED.

The Pleasant Fate of Three Political Life Prisoners.

Dublin, April 10.—The Government has decided to release the three Irish political prisoners, Mullett, Fitzharris and O'Hanlon, serving life sentences in Maryborough Jail for participating in the Phoenix Park murders.

A deputation from the corporation of Dublin, headed by the Lord Mayor, went to Dublin Castle in state on Friday and presented a petition for the release of the prisoners. The Lord-Lieutenant replied that he had resolved to release them, but could not fix the date. It is generally expected that the prisoners will be set at liberty within a short time.

Had Not Been Introduced.

London, April 10.—The Stella disaster furnished an incident typical of Englishmen beyond everybody on earth. Three drenched survivors, after riding for 15 hours across an upturned boat, were picked up and sent to their destinations.

The reporters chanced to meet one and got his story. They asked for the names and homes of his companions and he answered: "I do not know. I did not ask. We hadn't been introduced."

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, but not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, billiousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

A NEW INVENTION!
The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This convention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

Put Your Finger on Your Pulse

You feel the blood rushing along.

But what kind of blood? That is the question.

Is it pure blood or impure blood?

If the blood is impure then you are weak and languid; your appetite is poor and your digestion is weak. You cannot sleep well and the morning finds you unprepared for the work of the day. Your cheeks are pale and your complexion is sallow. You are troubled with pimples, boils, or some eruption of the skin. Why not purify your blood?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

will do it. Take it a few days and then put your finger on your pulse again. You can feel the difference. It is stronger and your circulation better. Send for our book on Impure Blood.

If you are bilious, take Ayer's Pills. They greatly aid the Sarsaparilla. They cure constipation also.

Write to our Doctors.

Write them freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Telegraphic Briefs That Contain Much of the Day's News.

England won the international championship football match on Saturday at Birmingham by a score of 2 to 1.

The London correspondent of Paris Le Matin says that the successor of Pope Leo XIII. will be Cardinal Vaughan, Archbishop of Westminster.

Two out of the four murderers at Dawson City have died—the oldest of the three Indians and the boy. In the cases of the other two a further respite has been granted.

A telegram from Montreal says that the Consumers' syndicate of New York, with $500,000 capital, is organizing to engage in the Canadian domestic and foreign meat traffic.

Alice Sancal, aged 3, and Alberta Lachapelle, aged 2, fell from a bedroom window on Saturday into the street at Montreal and the first died from her injuries. The other may recover.

The entries for the great Horse Show to be held in Toronto Armouries on Thursday, Friday and Saturday next are already full, and in harness, saddle horse and hunting classes are ahead of the record.

On Saturday the French ambassador at Washington, M. Cambon, presented President McKinley, for the American people, two magnificent sevres vases from the late President Faure to commemorate the opening of the Franco-American cable on 17th Aug. last.

The next Ponton trial may be held in Toronto. The case was argued on Saturday, but Justice Robertson withheld judgment until he had consulted his brother judges. Mr. Osler had mentioned Toronto, and if the Crown gets a change of venue it will have to supply the funds for the procurement and the payment of all witnesses for the defence.

JUSTICE FIELD DEAD.

One of the Four Famous Sons of David Dudley Field.

Washington, April 10.—Justice Stephen J. Field (retired), of the U. S. Supreme Court died here at 6.30 last evening, from ailments incident to old age. Judge Field was 83 years old. At the time of his retirement, two years ago, after serving 34 years, he had been in bad health for some time, but his ambition to serve on the Supreme Court bench longer than Chief Justice Marshall had induced him to refuse retirement, although long past the legal age, until after his term had exceeded that of the first chief justice.

Stephen Johnson Field was born at Waddam, Conn., Nov. 4, 1816. He was the son of David Dudley Field and one of four brothers who became so famous—David Dudley, Cyrus W. and Henry M. Field being the other members of the quartet—that their names are known throughout the world. In 1859 he became Chief Justice, succeeding Chief Justice David S. Terry. In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and he held that position until his retirement on Dec. 1, 1897.

ME'S DOWN ON THE FRENCHMEN.

Consequently He Set Fire to the French Lobster Factory.

St. John's, Nfld., April 10.—Graham Taylor, a settler of Bonne Bay, on the west coast of Newfoundland, has confessed that he set fire to the French Lobster Factory on St. John's Island, intending to provoke a crisis in the treaty shore question. He has been arrested on a charge of arson. When under examination before Magistrate Avery of Bonne Bay, Taylor declared that it was time the Frenchmen were cleared off the coast. He gloried in his deed, and asserted that no Newfoundland jury would ever convict him. The affair has created a great sensation here and serious trouble is expected with France as a result of the act of incendiarism.

THE FAMILY TROUBLE

Sir Mackenzie Bowell and the Bolters May Meet.

OLD SCORES MAY BE SETTLED.

The Quarrel Between the Bowell and the Tupper Factions May Be Again Fanned Into Flame at Brockville —Very Interesting Situation Centering Around Hon. Peter White.

Ottawa, April 10.—The candidature of Hon. Peter White in Brockville shows signs of fanning into flame the smouldering embers of the quarrel between the Bowell and Tupper factions that began four years ago and that reached its height in the eventful days at the commencement of 1896. Hon. John Haggart and Hon. W. H. Montague have been much together during the past week, and have decided to take the stump in Brockville, whither Sir Mackenzie will repair this week with the same object in view. Mr. White heard only yesterday that Messrs. Haggart, Foster and Montague intend to visit the riding, and news of his strong objection to the proposed course has already reached Ottawa. Mr. White, though his position as Speaker of the House of Commons at the time of the bolt in 1896 prevented his publicly expressing his views on the desertion of the seven colleagues of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, agreed in private to enter a reorganised Cabinet, with Sir Mackenzie as Premier, as Minister of Finance. To his intimates Mr. Speaker White was unsparing in his denunciation of the action of the renegades, and when, through the offices of Sir Frank Smith, who acted as conciliator and intermediary between the factions, Messrs. Foster, Haggart et al. re-entered the Administration, Mr. White saw no reason to change his opinion of their action, although his conduct in office of course gave no indication of his personal antipathy to the seceders. It was at the suggestion of Hon. Mr. White and his friends that Sir Mackenzie on Friday last accepted an invitation to take part in the Brockville election campaign; indeed there is every reason to believe that in any event gratitude to Hon. Mr. White would have prompted him voluntarily to do so. Word of this fact reached Messrs. Haggart, Montague and Foster on Thursday, and they immediately decided to go into the riding. Sir Mackenzie's friends say that he is the last man in the country to be frightened out by his late enemies, and that the latter, if they persist in their intention to meet him in the riding, may have some home truths told them concerning the inner history of the "bolt" and of the conspiracy which preceded it. Though Mr. White was ready to enter Sir Mackenzie's reconstructed Cabinet, he stipulated that the remedial bill would be abandoned, a concession which the then Premier would not make. It is on this fact that Messrs. Haggart, Foster and Montague rely for a defensive case with the Conservative rank and file if Sir Mackenzie carries out his threat to greet their appearance by disclosures as to their action in 1896.

REV. MR. SELLERY FAINTED.

Sensational Occurrence at the Central Methodist Church at Woodstock, Ont., on Sunday Night.

Woodstock, Ont., April 10.—The large congregation at the Central Methodist Church was thrown into a state of the wildest consternation last night, occasioned by the pastor, Rev. S. Sellery, falling in a faint in the pulpit. Mr. Sellery was preaching as usual, when he suddenly stopped speaking and put his hand to his forehead. His face became very pale. "My friends," said he in a halting tone, as he held on to the pulpit, "a strange fainting spell has come over me, something that only happened to me once before in my life. I must sit down."

He immediately fell forward over the pulpit. His eyes rolled and he grasped convulsively with his hands, as a person trying to save himself from drowning. Immediately half a dozen men dashed up the pulpit stairs and caught Mr. Sellery just as he was falling backwards. Dr. Odlum was among them, he being in the congregation. The stricken pastor was laid on the pulpit sofa, while women screamed and the greatest confusion prevailed.

After the doctor had worked over him for a minute or two, Mr. Sellery opened his eyes. Immediately he remembered what had happened and asked them to tell the congregation not to go away. He soon sat up and wanted to go on with his sermon, but the doctor would not allow it. To cover the confusion, one of the men in the choir sang a solo. Mrs. Sellery was in the congregation and assisted those who were attending to her husband.

His Life Was Saved

M. J. B. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken by Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and am now well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. 50 cents and $1 00, at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store, every bottle guaranteed.

LOSS TO MASSEY-HARRIS CO.

A Sunday Fire in Petrolea by Which the Big Firm Suffered.

Petrolea, Ont., April 9.—This morning about 2 o'clock fire broke out in a frame building situated on Main-street, known as the old Oil Exchange Hall. The building of late was turned into a warehouse in the rear and small stores and offices in the front. The building was totally destroyed. Mr. Knight, harnessmaker, occupied the same store, but saved all his goods, except his working tools. Insurance small. Messrs. Jopp and Young, horse doctors, had an office in front. Their loss was small.

Mr. J. W. Downer, agent for the Massey-Harris Co., occupied the rear of the building, and had it pretty well filled up with all kinds of machinery. He managed to save a small amount of the implements. Insurance small. The fire was confined to the one building by good work on the part of the fire department. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Dawson Mails Twice a Month.

Malone, N.Y., April 10.—A letter just received from H. A. Turner of Dawson City, dated March 1, gives late news regarding the chief city of the Klondike. It says a regular bi-monthly mail service has now been established, under the direction of the Northwest Mounted Police, over the Pass to Skaguay. The last mail out was ten days on the way, but on one of the in-going trips the fast time of 8 days and 1 hour was made. This was accomplished by travelling day and night and changing men and dogs at every police station along the trail.

Jumped Into the Canal.

Brantford, Ont., April 10.—On Saturday afternoon G. Ceace, painter, Northumberland-street, walked to the G.T.R. bridge, which crosses the canal, took watch and money out of his pockets, laid them on the stone abutment, placing his hat over them, took his coat off and jumped into the canal. The firemen, with the lifeboat, picked him out and sent him to the hospital.

MARCH TRADE RETURNS.

Sir Louis Davies' Plan to Train Canadian Fishermen for the Navy.

London, April 10.—The March trade returns show the following changes in the imports from Canada in Canadian bottoms, i.e., from Halifax and St. John, compared with the returns of last year: Increases, cattle, £7000; corn, £5000; bacon, £6000; hams, £11,000; butter, slight; pulp, £7000; timber, £8000; lumber, £24,000. Decreases, wheat, £18,000; flour, £11,000; peas, £2000; cheese, £32,000; fish, £13,000; horses, £1000.

The reports which have been cabled over of Sir Louis Davies' plan for training Canadian fishermen for the Imperial navy creates wide interest here. Developments are eagerly awaited.

Gamblers Jumped at It.

London, April 10.—The week's chief gambling was done over the new electric call board erected in the Stock Exchange. Formerly a stentorian waiter shouted out the names of brokers whose clients were waiting outside. Now an experimental board has been erected. It is covered with white ground glass with squares on which are black figures from one to fifty, representing that number of firms. When a brilliant electric light shines behind a figure a representative of that firm knows that a client is waiting.

The idle brokers immediately saw speculative possibilities. A bank was formed and odds at first of 44 to 1 were offered against a particular number. Then it was seen that certain numbers showed frequently, and the odds against them were shortened. A chance on odd or even numbers is quoted at even money. The figures are mostly off, and the bookies are now making a shade in their favor. As the call board is proving a success from the point of view of the stock exchange arrangements, its uncertainties are sure to provide constant opportunity for speculation.

Justin McCarthy's Eyesight.

London, April 10.—Justin McCarthy, suffering from a double cataract, underwent a preliminary operation this week in a private hospital at Margate for removal on the right eye. He stood the operation admirably. He will be six weeks under treatment before both cataracts are removed. His health was wonderfully restored by a long stay at Westgate-on-Sea, and he looks forward to returning to London and his Parliamentary duties when the operation is completed.

Cheese Boxes for '99

I am again in a position to manufacture CHEESE BOXES on a large scale, having built a large, New Factory, convenient to C. P. R. station; the old machinery having been burned last summer, I have replaced it with New and Up-to-date Machines for making Cheese Boxes and cutting Shingles. This factory has a capacity of 100,000 boxes in one season, placing it in a position second to none in the province.

I have already between two and three hundred cords of Bolts on hand to be cut into headings before the season opens.

All orders for Boxes sent in early will receive prompt attention.

MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat Is Still Sagging—Liverpool Was Firm, But Chicago Futures Dropped—Prices.

Saturday Evening, April 8.

Liverpool wheat futures to-day advanced ¾d per cental.

Paris wheat advanced 15 centimes, and Paris flour 10 to 15 centimes to-day.

Chicago wheat futures continued to droop to-day, despite the circulation of crop damage reports, which are evidently taken with a grain of salt. The May and July options declined ¾c a bushel, and closed at about the bottom price of the day.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264 95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing market caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	$2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3.70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4.35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9.00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7 50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5 20
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jos. Landy took place yesterday afternoon, and the large attendance testified to the high esteem in which the the deceased lady was held. The remains were taken to St. Peter's Cathedral, where service was conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, after which the funeral proceeded to the Roman Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. T. Cahill, A. Morton, T. Corkery, J. P. Bryson, M. O'Brien and A. McGarrity.

A Peterborough Boy Returns

Mr. Will Martin, well known in town, has returned to take a position in the crockery department of C. B. Boatley's store. Mr. Martin is an experienced hand in this line of business, having been engaged for some years in China Hall here, and afterwards in Toronto with the warehouse china store, known as "Pantechnicon," and latterly in a wholesale crockery house. Since Mr. Boatley determined to enter more largely into the crockery and china business, he has found it necessary to increase his salesmen, and Mr. Martin's addition to the staff will enable him to serve the public with greater satisfaction.

THE LOSS OF FIVE DOLLARS.

A Complicated Case in Court This Morning.

At the police court this morning Edward Allen, who was charged with purloining $5 00 from Geo. Booth, of Burleigh, came up for hearing.

It appears from the evidence that both parties had been having a social time in a town hotel, and, it is alleged, Allen had asked Booth for the loan of some money. Booth says he handed him a five dollar Dominion Bank bill to get changed, and Allen he declares never came back with it.

It was further shown by the evidence that Allen had purchased groceries the same evening in a town grocery, and had produced a five dollar bill similar to the one it is alleged Booth gave him in payment for his purchase. The prisoner was defended by E. B. Stone, and Mr. R. E. Wood looked after the Crown's interests.

The magistrate sent the prisoner up for trial.

SUNDAY FIRES.

The Brigade Called Out Twice on Sunday.

The fire brigade had a run out Sunday afternoon to a residence on Elm street, where a burning chimney had created a great deal of unnecessary excitement.

Shortly after ten o'clock Sunday evening fire broke out in the residence of Mr. Wm. McMaster, who resides in the south end. It appears that the occupants were away from home at the time, and the house and contents were badly damaged before the firemen subdued the flames.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cox have returned home from Clifton Springs.

Mr. Dunlop, of the Bank of Commerce, has been transferred to Winnipeg.

Mrs. Wm. Lannin, London, Ontario, is spending a few weeks visiting friends in Peterborough and Ashburnham.

Miss May Roberts, of Toronto, formerly of town, who has been spending Easter holidays with friends here has returned home.

Mr. Wm. J. Paterson has successfully passed, with honours, the first year's examination in medicine at Queen's University.

Miss E. Braden, of the Canadian Viavi Co., has gone to Havelock and Norwood for a month in the interests of the Company.

Miss Katie Overend, who has been spending her Easter vacation with her parents, left this afternoon to resume her studies in Loretta Abbey, Toronto.

Mr. Sparham Sheldrake, of Lakefield, and Miss Marie Shaw, daughter of the late George E. Shaw, of Peterborough, were married in Toronto on Tuesday last by the Rev. W. Patterson.

Mr. D. W. Dumble went to Cobourg Saturday to attend the funeral of his nephew, J. F. Dumble, son of Mr. J. H. Dumble, "Dromore," Cobourg. The young man died at Huntsville, Muskoka.

His Worship Mayor Davis, president of the Trent Valley Peat and Fuel Company, and Mr. W. J. Sims, manager, left for Welland this morning to make investigations into the operations of the Welland Peat Company.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Mrs. Seward, at the offertory in St. John's last night, sang a solo in a very acceptable manner.

The members of the Catholic Literary Association, to the number of seventy, attended Holy Communion at 8 o'clock mass in St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday.

Rev. Dr. Cade, of Millbrook, occupied the pulpit of the Mark street church at the morning and evening service Sunday, and preached two powerful and eloquent sermons.

Sunday morning in St. Paul's church, Rev. Dr. Robertson, Superintendent of the Northwest Missions, delivered a forcible and eloquent sermon on the progress of mission work in the Northwest.

At the close of Mr. Rautenberg's sermon in St. Andrew's church last evening, Rev. Mr. Robertson addressed the congregation on the missions in the Northwest and their needs.

At the evening service in St. Andrew's, the choir sang a beautiful arrangement of the hymn, "Now the Day is Over," Miss Falconer taking the solos very effectively.

In George street Methodist church on Sunday evening the anthem "Sing and Rejoice" was pleasingly rendered, the solo (soprano) being nicely taken by Miss Clara Bellegham. The sacred solo entitled "The Heavenly Song," by Gray, was very beautifully sung by Miss Clara Bellegham during the offertory.

Death of Wm. Burns.

The death took place on Sunday at the family residence, Dalhousie street, of Mr. Wm. Burns, in his thirty-first year. Deceased was a well-known riverman, and had met with an accident some months ago, at the North Shore, from which he never recovered.

WELL-KNOWN CURLER KILLED

MR. J. A. McMILLAN OF LINDSAY THE VICTIM OF AN ACCIDENT.

Was Caught in the Belting—One of His Legs Ground off Above the Knee, and Bruises Inflicted Which he Could Not Survive.

Lindsay, April 9.—A fatal accident occurred here last night in the Sadler, Dundas & Flavelle Milling Company's flour mill. Mr. John A. MacMillan, an employee of the firm, known all through Canada and the United States as a curler, was caught in a belt and terribly crushed before the machinery could be stopped.

One leg was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated immediately, near the thigh. The other leg was bruised and his side injured. The accident happened just at midnight, when the mill was about to shut down for Sunday, and it is supposed that in trying to slip the belt off the shaft before the machinery stopped he slipped in some manner, and the belt caught and hurled him, with great force, against the ceiling.

Mr. J. D. Flavelle, the manager of the company, was hastily summoned, and did everything possible for the injured man. MacMillan was carried home on a stretcher and died at 6 o'clock this evening. MacMillan will be remembered by the curlers throughout Ontario and Manitoba as the popular vice-skip of Mr. J. D. Flavelle's rink on all its expeditions to Toronto, Winnipeg and St. Paul, Minn. He was one of Lindsay's best and most popular curlers, and everone is deeply grieved at the sad occurrence.

[The announcement of Mr. MacMillan's sad death as a shock to his host of friends in Peterborough. "Jack," as he was familiarly known was a general favourite with the local curlers, and it is probable that a number will go to Lindsay to attend his funeral.

THE ARREST OF WRESTLER DOYLE.

How It Was Accomplished in Lindsay.

The following from the Lindsay Post gives further particulars of the arrest of wrestler Doyle. In Friday's issue of The Evening Post, there appeared an item stating that wrestler Doyle, of Peterboro fame, had passed through Lindsay on his way east. So our reporter was informed by a railway man, but the festive sport must have slipped off after the train left the station, because Chief Bell recognized him this afternoon about 2.30 in front of the Veitch house. It was not an ordinary everyday nod-and-pass-on recognition, either, because it so happened that the Chief was extremely anxious to meet Doyle, owing to the receipt of a card from the Police of Little Falls, N. Y., offering a reward of $100 for his apprehension, and it is safe to say that the joy was very one-sided. Doyle was promptly arrested, and the Chief's summary action attracted the attention of a great crowd of spectators.

Quaint Sayings.

It is interesting and instructive to read bright and well constructed advertisements. Messrs C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, must have been at a great feast and taken everything home with them. They are using a bright selection of quaint old sayings and proverbs as the starters in a series of clever advertisements, wherein the proverbs are neatly turned and paraphrased to fit the subject matter. The public like this breezy advertising, as it reminds of other proverbs and opens up discussion.

Hear Rautenberg, in his lecture illustrated by powerful lime light views, to-night, in St. Andrew's church. Admission 15 cents.

A PIONEER LAID TO REST.

Funeral of the Late Mrs. Walter Baptie.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of the late Mrs. Walter Baptie took place from the family residence, Wolseley street, to the Lakefield cemetery. The pallbearers were Mr. J. H. McWilliams and Mr. Robb. Graham, Lakefield, Mr. Andrew Fairbairn, Smith, Mr. Northy, Mr. Alfred Johnston, Peterborough, and Mr. John Record, Ashburnham. The large attendance testified to the very high esteem in which the deceased lady was held.

Margaret Carruth, widow of the late Walter Baptie, who pre-deceased her nearly 40 years, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, Aug. 22, 1812. She sailed from Glasgow on May 8th, 1831, and after a voyage of five weeks and two days landed in Montreal. The voyage up the St. Lawrence to Prescott took nine days, the passengers taking turns in towing the craft up the rapids. She remained one year in Brockville and sailed by the first boat of the season on April 1st, 1832 to Cobourg and went thence by wagon to Cavan, where she stayed all night with an acquaintance, and the next day set out through a bush road for 15 miles to her parents in Ashburnham. She did not know on her arrival that she had been travelling on Sunday. She was married to Mr. Walter Baptie, Aug. 16th, 1833. At that time Peterborough contained five stores and neither brick nor stone dwellings. Some idea of the value of land in Peterborough at that time may be gathered from the fact that during Mrs. Baptie's early stay in the town, the block bounded by Hunter, George, Simcoe, and Water streets, changed hands twice, the first time the "consideration" was a gallon of whiskey and the second an old fanning mill. In 1851 the family removed to Smith. Mrs. Baptie's last illness was of about a year's duration and she bore her great sufferings with Christian patience and fortitude. Her favorite hymns during her illness were "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Sands of Life are Sinking."

FOOTLIGHTS.

"Our Boys" Well Under Way.

Theatre-going people will soon have an opportunity of witnessing some of our local talent at Bradburn's Opera House. The far-famed play "Our Boys" is to be produced here early in May. The rehearsing is well under way, as the third act is about to be taken up.

FARMERS' SONS AND STATUTE LABOUR.

To the Editor of The Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I observe that Mr. Stratton had an amendment before the Legislature making clearer the liabilities of farmers' sons to perform statute labour. As the matter has been of considerable interest to many in this township, and as there are conflicting opinions on the subject, will you kindly explain the nature of the proposed amendment and what the law is now?

Yours truly,
FARMER'S SON.

Doure, April 1st.

[In 1877, in order to give the franchise to farmers' sons, it was provided by Chapter 97 of the statutes passed in that year that every farmer's son resident on the farm of his father or mother should be entitled to be entered, rated and assessed on the assessment roll in respect of such farm in the manner indicated in the act. It was also provided that a farmer's son so assessed should be liable in respect of such assessment along with his father or mother, as if he were actually the owner. But in order to prevent any uncertainty upon the question, and to prevent any reduction in the amount of Statute Labour to be done in consequence of such assessment, it was expressly provided by Section 84 of the Statutes of 1877 "that every farmer's son rated and entered as such on the assessment roll of any municipality, shall, if not otherwise exempted by law, be liable to perform statute labour, or commute therefor, as if he were not so rated and assessed." This statute was limited to those farmers' sons who owned their farms, and a tenant farmer was not entitled to be assessed. The provision as to the performance of Statute Labour was carried into the Revised Statutes of 1877 and into the Consolidation of the Statutes in 1888, and again into the Revised Statutes of 1897, into the consolidation of 1893 and lastly into the revised Statutes of 1897 as sub-section 1 of section 109, the wording being precisely the same from the consolidation in 1877 down to the consolidation of 1897, and clearly showing the intention of the Legislature that farmer's sons should be liable to preform statute labour whether they were assessed for the farm or not. In the year 1891, chapter 45, section 6, the following provision was introduced:—"Every tenant, farmer's son, bona fide resident on the farm of his father or mother, shall be exempt from statute labour in the same manner as if he were the son of an owner and jointly assessed for the property upon which he resides, as provided by section 2 of the Franchise Assessment Act, of 1889." This section was apparently passed upon the idea that the law already exempted farmer's sons from doing statute labour where they were assessed for the farm, but such was not the fact. This last sub-section was carried into consolidation of the act 1892 and the revised statutes of 1897 as sub-section 2 of section 106. The result was that the two sub-sections stood side by side the one making a farmer's son where the farmer owned his farm liable to preform statute labour, notwithstanding the son was assessed as owner, and sub-section 2 exempted a farmer's son from doing statute labour where the farmer was a tenant, thus putting a less burden upon the tenant's son than was put upon the sons of an owner. The Act introduced by Mr. Stratton and passed at the Session just closed, repeals sub-section 2 and leaves sub-section 1 standing as before, by which it is declared that every farmer's son is liable to preform statute labour whether or not he is assessed jointly with his father as a farmer's son.—ED. FROM DARKNESS TO LIGHT.

Mr. B. Rautenberg Tells the Story of His Conversion to Christianity.

There was a very large congregation assembled in St. Andrew's church last night to listen to the story of Mr. B. Rautenberg's life—his passing "From Darkness to Light"—his lapse from Judaism to rank infidelity, and his conversion to Christianity. Mr. Rautenberg was born in Germany in 1862 of orthodox Jewish parents. He exulted in being of the stock of Abraham from which sprang that incomparable man, Jesus of Nazareth. After having been educated in Jewish learning, at the age of fourteen he came to America. After various experiences and a successful business career, which through evil companionship ended in appropriation of the funds of a bank in which he was employed, he fled and landed in Toronto. After his arrival in America, he ceased to be a Jew and became a rank infidel. Five years ago he again gave way to the gambling mania, and used his Belleville employer's money and became an outlaw in Canada as he was in the United States. He took occasion to strongly denounce the vice of gambling, which was, he asserted, common in the town; it was played continuously in the hotels of this town and the people would, he feared, some day, realise it in a terrible manner, in the disgrace of some now respected and unsuspected young man as had happened in many cases the speaker recited. Speaking of the terrible temptation of gambling, Mr. Rautenberg instanced a young bank clerk whose trial for robbing a bank has excited all Canada, and the speaker asserted that a young man who plays poker was capable of robbing a bank. It was at Chatham, New Brunswick, where he was as a commercial traveller, he came under conviction of his sinfulness and at length he accepted Jesus of Nazareth as his Saviour, and his whole life was changed. His home became happy, he arranged to pay back the money belonging to others he had squandered, and he had helped his father who was living in Germany in poverty, and to whom he had never written for ten years previously. Mr. Rautenburg's recital was very interesting. During its course, he intimated that on Friday night, in St. Andrew's school room, he would deal more extensive with the subject of gambling. Previous to his address the speaker's son, Bernie Rautenburg, sang a sacred solo in a very pleasing manner for so young a boy.

A CLERGYMAN REMEMBERED.

Departure of Rev. John Gibson, of Norwood to Thornhill.

Rev. John Gibson, M.A., of Christ's church, Norwood, has been appointed rector of Trinity church, Thornhill, and on Wednesday evening both Mr. and Mrs. Gibson were waited upon by the congregation of Christ's church, Norwood, who presented them with an address and a handsome clock. The choir of the church also presented Mrs. Gibson with a beautiful silver bon bon dish, and the Sunday school presented Rev. Mr. Gibson with a pretty silver paper knife and blotter.

Rev. Mr. Gibson left for Thornhill on Friday morning.

DUMMER WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Sarah Stinson and Mr. Frederick Gardner.

The wedding took place in Dummer on the 26th ult., at the residence of Mrs. Richard Stinson, of her daughter, Sarah, to Mr. Frederick Gardner.

The ceremony was celebrated by Rev. Mr. Rogers, in the presence of about seventy invited guests. The bride was attired in a dress of pale blue cashmere, trimmed with cream satin, and was attended by Miss Bella McLean. Mr. John Gardner acted as groomsmen.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents, among which was a handsome gold watch from the groom.

A Team of Horses Drowned in Sandy Creek on Saturday.

Mr. S. Haskett, of Harvey lost a very fine team of four-year-olds on Saturday while crossing Sandy Creek. He drove down to Lakefield by way of Buckhorn, but coming home decided to try the ice. All went well until he came to the creek, when the team dropped through the ice and were drowned.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, Apr. 10.—Although Quebec is called "the Gibraltar of America," and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney Disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out, every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain St., was attacked by Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He need only three boxes, and is now well and strong in every way.

Highest. Lowest.

On looking over the weather register for April of last year, the following entries were noticed:—On the 7th of the month the watering carts were out allaying the dust, which had become unpleasantly plentiful; swallows made their first appearance on the 9th; frogs were heard piping on the 10th; by the 12th lawns were turning green and by the 19th they required the services of the lawn mowers. In April of '97 lawns were quite green on the 7th, and a steamer made a trip to Rice Lake on the 13th. It will thus be seen that this spring is a backward one.

THE PROFESSOR'S BABY.

Medical Students Provided a Surprising Array of Presents For It.

"When I was a medical student in the University of Pennsylvania," said the doctor, "the boys celebrated an interesting event in the domestic life of one of the professors in a unique way. The news that the favorite professor was a happy father reached the students on Thursday morning, and that afternoon and evening there were consultations held all over the university buildings, and sundry dimes and quarters were collected by two or three of the students, who constituted a sort of finance committee. Every Friday morning the professor gave a lecture to the students in the amphitheater. The subject for the lecture that week was 'The Relation of the Sympathetic Nervous System to the Nerve Centers of the Brain,' and half an hour before the time set for the lecture every man in the class, which numbered about 350, was in his place waiting for the fun to begin and glancing now and then toward the three long operating tables in the center of the room.

"Promptly at 10 o'clock the door opened and the favorite professor entered the amphitheater. He carefully closed the door behind him, then with a self conscious clearing of his throat turned toward the class. At the first glance his jaw fell, while every one of the 350 fiends in the seats above began to yell at the top of his lungs. Spread out upon the three long operating tables were about 150 baby's toys and furnishings of every kind and description. There were rattles by the dozen, Noah's arks, dolls of all sizes, a toy cooking stove, a baby carriage, an embroidered flannel petticoat, a nursing bottle lying in a graduated glass, a pair of little blue kid shoes and other things too numerous to mention. After the first shock of surprise and embarrassment, the professor was game. He thanked us, in a speech peppered with five syllabled words, for our thoughtfulness in thus providing for the future needs of his offspring, but he observed, after a careful examination of the various instruments of infantile delight spread out before him, that we had forgotten one thing, a bottle of paregoric. Then he yawned in a way suggestive of midnight vigils and turned his attention to 'The Relation of the Sympathetic Nervous System to the Nerve Centers of the Brain.'

"But he was not allowed to proceed beyond the first sentence or two. His attention was drawn to the blackboard, where some student of artistic tendencies had drawn an elaborately decorated design in red, white and blue chalk, 'Is Marriage a Failure?' The poor professor, seeing that there was no possibility of a serious lecture that morning, entertained us for about ten minutes on the text posted on the blackboard; then, after inviting us all to visit the newcomer in the immediate future, he marched off to the music of 350 voices singing, 'Go to Sleep, My Little Pickaninny' and 'Daddy Wouldn't Buy Me a Bowwow.'"

AN ENCHANTED PITCHER.

The Relic of a Fatality, It Is Preserved by Superstition.

About five miles from Aiken, S. C., on the Charleston dirt road and in sight of the railway, is a little place that was first christened Polecat, but afterward changed to Montmorenci, the French for that odorous little animal. Many years ago a young woman came with her pitcher to draw a bucket of water from a well at Montmorenci and set the vessel in the hollowed top of a stone post that some of the railroad men had moved there. While drawing the water a flash of lightning came that struck the chain to which the well bucket was attached, and the woman was killed in her tracks. Her remains were removed, but the pitcher was left just where the dead girl had set it. To this day the pitcher remains in the same place, and, so far from being removed, it is said that no living hand has ever touched it save its owner's, although near the side of the public road.

But the most wonderful thing is the superstition attached to the pitcher. There is an indescribable influence surrounding it that prevents its touch. Hundreds of people have gone with the firm determination of lifting the pitcher, but when they approach it a strange repugnance comes over them, and they hurriedly depart without carrying out the object of their visit.

One night a bully in the neighborhood, while under the influence of whisky, made a bet with some friends that he would go and bring back the pitcher. He left to do so, but soon returned as pale as a sheet and empty handed. "Boys," he remarked, "no person alive can lay hands on that pitcher, and I wouldn't attempt it again for the whole of Aiken county."

He refused to tell his experience and said he would not talk about it. Other parties have gone to see it, but met with the same repulsive feelings.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE NIGHT CLERK'S STORY.

A FACE LIKE CHALK.

A very bad attack of the Grippe one year ago last winter left my system in a very weak state and my nervous system completely unstrung. After getting over the dangerous stage of the disease I naturally expected to gain strength, but, unfortunately, did not do so. On the contrary, my blood became weaker. I daily lost strength and vitality, and my nervous system became so weak that it was a constant source of suffering both day and night. I lost appetite, the sight of food nauseated me, the weak state of my system caused shortness of breath and unnatural action of the heart, such as fluttering and violent palpitation, and my face was like chalk. I was in this condition and constantly getting weaker when I began taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I had read the books they distributed and their advertisements in the papers, and thought, "Well, I have taken so much medicine without benefit it is useless to spend any more money. However, I finally made up my mind. It is a forlorn hope; I can but try. If I am not benefited I will not be hurt. So I bought one box and received great benefit therefrom, so continued their use, and to-day am a well man in consequence; my blood is strong, my face has the ruddy hue of health, my appetite has returned, I sleep well, I have not the slightest indications of nervousness or heart trouble, and from a sick, weak, nervous man Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have transformed me in six weeks to full health and strength." I am yours very truly,

The Barry dock (London) directors have accepted American tenders for the construction of several locomotives. They assert that they will get quicker delivery at a price $500 less per engine, with equal workmanship.

Demoralization was everywhere and millions upon millions dwindled away in a brief space of time on the New York stock market on Friday owing to the manipulations of the many big trusts organized in the past few months.

During the month of March the emigrations to Canada from British ports were 1,845 English, 12 Irish, 140 Scotch and 1,168 foreigners. The emigrations to Australia numbered 948, to the Cape 1,288 and the United States 9,751.

While sawing wood with a steam saw at Neepawa, Man., Thursday, John McPhail was instantly killed by the saw breaking and a piece striking him on the head. James Stevenson had his right arm almost severed at the shoulder, and the fingers of his left hand badly cut by another piece.

The deposit of $500 in the Brockville election case was on Friday taken out of court. This proceeding was the last of 40 similar ones in connection with protests which did not go to trial. Brockville has the last record of this anomalous course, for by the amendment of the election law in the last session of the Ontario Legislature protests entered must be tried, all "saw-offs" having been made illegal.

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Was Mr. E. N. Stowell, but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Brockville, March 27.—When an eminent physician notifies a sick man that his case is hopeless and that he must die, he is it may be taken for granted, in a pretty bad way.

That was the position of Mr. Ed. N. Stowell, of this city, not long ago. He had suffered all the agonies of Bright's Disease for several years. The ablest physicians had pronounced his case hopeless, and he had begun to "set his house in order," when a friend urged him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. One box put new life in him seven boxes cured him. Now his friends hardly know him for the same man.

His Absent Companions.

At a banquet given in Rochester two of the expected guests were unable to be present. The order of seating happened to be such that a particularly jovial and companionable gentleman sat with one of the vacant chairs on each side of him. The empty chairs and first course of oysters were left in place for some time in case the expected guests arrived. The solitary gentleman therefore could move neither to the right nor to the left, but amiably beamed throughout the repast, seemingly none the worse for his enforced isolation. After the banquet some one innocently asked him:

"How did you enjoy yourself, old chap?"

"First rate," he replied briskly enough. "I sat next to a couple of fellows who weren't there."—Rochester Herald.

VAN IS SAVING HIS RAILS.

C.P.R. Knows Too Much to Put Heavy Rails on New Earthworks.

Montreal, April 8.—Sir William Van Horne, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was asked yesterday by your correspondent if he had read The Rossland Miner's charges regarding old rails on the Crow's Nest road. This was his reply:

"When the Crow's Nest line is fully completed, it will be just as good as the best sections of the main line, but we have learned better than to put our heaviest rails on new earthworks, where they would be damaged during construction and early operation. On a great part of the Crow's Nest line the heaviest rails are already being laid, and the rest will follow in due course, and as soon as we deem it wise to put them down."

The Canadian Pacific will soon begin enlarging Windsor station. The present floor space is 50,404 feet, which is to be increased to 109,181 feet. Another storey will also be added to the building.

MARKET REPORTS.

Liverpool Wheat Fairly Steady—Chicago Dropped a Full Cent—The Latest Prices.

Liverpool, April 8.—Wheat futures yesterday were depressed early, but recovered and closed at Thursday's final figures.

Chicago, April 8.—The wheat market was comparatively dull and heavy yesterday. Crop damage reports are still to the front, but they failed to stimulate the market. Futures receded about a cent, and closed near the bottom.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, April 8.—The run of live stock at the cattle market here yesterday was large—65 car loads, composed of 1,100 cattle, 125 sheep and yearling lambs, 50 calves and 1,000 hogs. The quality of fat cattle generally good, several loads of well-finished export cattle being offered. On account of the heavy deliveries of Thursday and yesterday, which amounted all told to 115 car loads, the feeling was decidedly easier in the morning. But considering the heavy receipts, there was a fair trade, and a large number of cattle had changed hands by noon.

Liverpool, April 8.—These figures ruled at the close yesterday: Spot wheat, No. 1 Cal., 6s 4d; Walla, 5s 10d; No. 1 Nor., stock nearly exhausted; futures, red winter quiet at 5s 5½d for May, and 5s 5 3-8d for July. Maize steady, at 3s 4½d for new and 3s 6½d for old spot; futures 3s 4¼d for May, and 3s 4 5-8d for July. Flour, 17s 6d.

British Cattle Markets.

Montreal, April 8.—Later advices received Monday only served to corroborate the downward tendency of the market, owing to the increased supply of stock, but prices have not changed materially since, namely: Choicest States steers 12c; Canadians 11¾c. Glasgow market is very unsatisfactory, the margin being so close that a shipment is just as likely to go one way as another.

Mean.

Old Barkins dined with his newly married daughter last Sunday. He said: "They had leg of mutton, and it was good stuff, I'll allow, but after I had one helping she need not have said to Tom, 'The remaining piece would be just enough for your dinner tomorrow, dear, wouldn't it?' I didn't want their rubbishy mutton, but I didn't like the remark, and in the afternoon, while we were picking our nuts, she said, 'Tom, those chestnuts cost 2 shillings a hundred.' The mean little cat! And I gave her a check for £100 on her wedding day! I hate such ways!"—Pick Me Up.

A Predicament.

"Hoot, mon!" shouted the Scotch contractor, who is putting up a fine house in the suburbs. "I canna manage wi' yez! Gang home, mon."

Proper Pride.

"In what respect," said the tourist with the notebook, "is your city remarkable?"

"Well," answered the resident after some thought, "there are a great many points worth mentioning. But you might start in with the fact that we haven't had any poisoning mystery."—Washington Star.

Triumphs over the Worst Forms of
KIDNEY... DISEASE

The wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills adds to the fame of the great doctor whose name is familiar in almost every home as the author of the world famous Recipe Book.

Scores and thousands of grateful men and women have been rescued from the miseries and dangers of kidney disease by this greatest of all kidney cures.

Mr. D. C. Simmons, Mabee, Ont., writes: "My kidneys and back were so bad I was unable to work or sleep. My urine had sediment like brick dust, I was compelled to get up four or five times during the night. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and concluded to give them a trial. I have only used one box and am completely cured. I was a great sufferer for 18 years, but my kidneys do not bother me now. I enjoy good rest and sleep and consider Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills a boon to suffering humanity."

HE HANGED HIMSELF.

His Second Wife and Family Had Left Him the Day Before.

Kingston, Ont., April 8.—At 7 o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of William Monoghan, York street, Monoghan's dead body was found suspended by a rope from the ceiling. At noon Thursday Monoghan's wife left him, taking her three children with her, and this act is thought to have preyed on his mind. The family came to the city one month ago from the country. Monoghan secured work only Thursday, consequently the family were in very destitute circumstances. Years ago he was in prosperous circumstances on a farm a short distance from the city, but through dissipation he lost his farm and wealth.

Thursday night he took supper with David Teele. After going home he secured a clothesline, passed it through a stovepipe hole in the ceiling, tying it over a piece of cordwood. The other end he fastened around his neck, stood on a chair, and then kicked it away. He was twice married, leaving four grown-up children by his first wife and three little children by his second wife, who was Miss S. J. Gamble of Smith's Falls. He was about 63 years old.

Report of Baron Cromer.

London, April 8.—The report of Baron Cromer, the British agent and consul-general in Egypt, to the Foreign Office, "Egypt and the Soudan in 1898," was issued last night. Under the heading of "Railways," the report alludes to the Atbara bridge contract, awarded to a Philadelphia firm, a fact which has aroused considerable feeling in British engineering circles, and says: "The time of delivery was an even more important consideration than the price. An English firm offered to deliver the work in six months and a half, at a cost of $42,450. The American firm's tender was $32,500 for delivery in 42 days."

The report adds: "I have no doubt these facts will admit of some explanation wherewith I am unacquainted. They appear, however, to merit the attention of bridge builders in Great Britain."

HAS GRIPPE LEFT ITS MARK

ON YOUR CONSTITUTION?

Do you feel weak, nervous, listless—Lack strength and energy?

Take a few Boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills—They'll make you Strong and Well Again.

"Haven't felt right since I had the grippe," is an expression one hears on every hand just now.

This terrible scourge leaves in its train weak hearts, shattered nerves, impoverished blood, and a general rundown, debilitated condition of the system.

Thousands of people throughout Canada are just now needing the timely assistance of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. This remedy has a wonderful way of strengthening, invigorating, and building up the health after la grippe or any serious illness.

Mrs. Eliza Cook, who lives at 109 Palmerston Ave., Toronto, says:

"Seven years ago I had the grippe, followed by inflammation of the lungs. I have been afflicted ever since with heart trouble. To walk any way fast would make me gasp for breath, and many a time I have had to stop on the Street to regain my breath.

"I had smothering feeling at night, and my nerves were unstrung. Anything annoying or worrying me produced extreme weakness, and would set my heart beating so fast that I thought I was dying. I would become so nervous as to tremble like a leaf.

"I began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills some time ago, and have been getting better ever since. My nerves are much stronger, I can walk without difficulty, and the palpitation, fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath, and nervousness troubles me no more.

"I gladly recommend these pills as the best medicine I know of for heart and nerve troubles, and the after effects of grippe on account of the great good they have done in my case."

Nerves...

Wasted and Shattered by Worry or Overwork are Revitalized by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food

"Nerves"—what a world of meaning this word has to scores of thousands of women who, through the strains of social life and the worry of home cares, are fast approaching the grave.

Nervous headaches, dyspepsia, irritability by day, restlessness and sleeplessness by night. Pains and aches in the body, derangements of the organs peculiarly feminine, loss of energy and ambition, despondency and despair.

These are some of the symptoms known to the woman of exhausted nerves. These are symptoms which entirely disappear when Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food is used.

By creating new, rich blood and nerve tissue this great food cure of Dr. A. W. Chase restores and revitalizes the wasted nerve cells, puts new vigor and vitality into the system and frees woman of many ills which are due to exhausted nerves.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food cures by the building-up process, which makes the body round and plump, and restores the glow of health to the pale, sallow cheek.

A TIMELY MOTION.

It Cured an Actor of the Habit of Reciting Shakespeare.

"No," remarked the actor, "no, I do not wish to accept an engagement to go with your Megatherian Shakesperian interpretation aggregation to do the provinces of the far west."

"Why not?" exclaimed the astonished manager. "It will be the chance of your life. The people out that way are simply exploding with pent up yearns to hear the works of the master dramatist interpreted by such artists as I am enlisting in our great aggregation."

"Let them explode," insisted the actor with imperturbable coolness and adamantine firmness. "I don't join any combination whose business it is to interpret the master dramatist for the yearning desires of the people of the wild and woolly.'

"Why not? You must have a reason.'

"I have. Listen, and I will tell it thee About ten years ago I was in a company doing a repertory for the edification of various western towns, villages and hamlets, and as a natural consequence the ghost had paralysis and quit walking. It was going to be our turn next unless relief came, and it was suggested that, as I was a legitimate, I give a Shakespearean recital at the rooms of the Wildcat Gulch Literary and Mental Improvement society, the gate money, after expenses, to go for railroad tickets. I was only too glad to assist my fellow sufferers and at the same time do a turn at the legit., so I read up a bit on Bill the Bard and in the evening appeared to give a number of selections, including Hamlet's soliloquy. I had done two numbers with great credit, I thought, and then appeared to do the soliloquy. It was to be my supreme effort, and in my most impressive manner I began: 'To be or not to be; that is the question,' when a rough old miner with two guns rose in the front seat.

"'Well, stranger,' he said, 'of that's the question, I move that you ain't.' It was seconded with a whoop, and if there hadn't have been a back window handy I don't know what would have happened. Since then, my kind friend, I have sworn never to attempt any more Shakespeare for the enlightenment of the provinces of the far west.'

Doctors Testify.

There is strong testimony by eminent physicians of wonderful cures made by Dr. Chase's Family Remedies—particularly Dr. Chase's Ointment.

A Momentous Document.

"You haven't been doing much in affairs of state lately," said the Spanish citizen.

"Haven't, eh?" answered the cabinet official. "We've been at work on one of the most important state papers in our recent history. We've bestowed all the care we could command on a receipt for $90,000,000, and we are lying quietly in wait for fear we may lose the chance to use it."—Washington Star.

SOME INNS IN ASIA.

A Description of the Queer Institutions Found in China.

The inns are the inns of the east—the inns that prevail everywhere in Asia, though the average tourist does not see them. Let me describe one of these Chinese inns. Turning sharp off the main street of the town and passing through a gateway in a mud wall you find yourself in a courtyard. One side is occupied by several rooms for guests. At one end of each room, filling about a third of the space, is a matted dais raised about two feet high. But under the dais is a fireplace of brick. On the dais is a small table standing about six inches high.

The travelers spread their bedding on the dais and sleep there, or they squat cross-legged on the dais and eat their food from the six inch high table that rests there. The larger portion of the room, the space not occupied by the dais, has a floor of beaten earth, and it may contain a table or a couple of chairs, or it may contain nothing. Its purpose is to store the travelers' baggage or merchandise. On the other three sides of the courtyard are tables for the pack animals and a kitchen used by every one.

As the inn is enlarged to meet increased traffic there may be added to it additional courtyards, or corner places, or long alleys, as the proprietor is able to buy or lease ground. But the principle of the extension is the same as that of the original design. The inn lets to the traveler stable accommodation and a place where he may lay his bedding, and it provides him with the use of a kitchen and a well. That is all in theory. The traveler must bring, and often does bring, his own food and forage. He ought to draw his own water and himself boil it. But in practice and under pressure of traffic the inns have fallen into the way of keeping for sale a quantity of forage and of food, such as mutton, fowls and eggs, and the caretakers or servants of the inn supply water drawn from the well and boiled over the common fire.

At every Chinese inn we stopped at boiling water was brought as soon as we alighted, in order that we might refresh ourselves with tea, which we were supposed to have with us, and if we hadn't tea, as by outrunning our baggage, the tea was promptly supplied and afterward paid for by our servant when he settled the bill. For that purpose the payments were all in copper cash, each being of the value of a halfpenny.

All the inns at which we stopped between Peking and Kalgin were built of beaten mud. The stables and the mangers were of the same material. Wood, which is dear, was only in use for doorways and window panes. The latter were latticed, and the lattices were in part blank and in part papered over. As the weather got colder more and more of the lattices would be papered up, until in winter fresh air would be practically excluded. My custom was to examine the window frames, and if I thought there was not enough air space I made as much more as I thought fit by poking holes in the paper with my walking stick. No objection was made, for paper is cheap.—Arnot Reid

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills Were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., Apr. 3—There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives, to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Mass Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

The Managed Husband Is Worthless.

Helen Watterson Moody believes that the husband who can be managed is not worth managing. "and there is no better principle," she adds, in The Ladies' Home Journal, "for both husband and wife to adopt in adjusting themselves to the new relation than that of trying to do each by the other what men are accustomed to call 'the square thing.' Many a woman understands 'managing' a husband better than she does doing the square thing by him, and many a man understands and practices doing the square thing by other men who would be affronted if he were to be told that, judged by his own business standards, he habitually dealt unfairly with his own wife.'

He Did Likewise.

"It is possible that the Chinese have little appreciation of our humor," said a woman whose visiting card bears four names to identify her, "but I have my doubts. A few days ago I hired a Chinese cook. He was a dapper little fellow and before I instructed him in his duties I said:

"'What is your name?'

"'Wun Lung Lee Sing,' he answered, or something like it.

"'Too long,' said I. 'I will call you John.'

"'Velly well,' said he. 'What your name?'

"'I am Mrs. Augusta de Whilliger von Bumhausen Jones,' said I.

"'Too long,' said he. 'I call you Mrs. Tommy,' and he did. His face was childlike and bland and I am not yet convinced that he didn't intend to make a joke."—New York Sun.

Nature and Art.

Uncle Ephraim Rayfense—Why, that's a perfect picture of my old hoss! What'll you sell it fur, mister?

Artist (who has been sketching in the neighborhood)—Well, when that painting is finished it will be worth $100, anyhow.

Uncle Ephriam—Ain't there goin to be nothin else in it?

Artist—No, nothing but the horse.

Uncle Ephriam—Well, you can't sell it anywher's around here fur no $100. Everybody knows I've offered the hoss himself, time an ag'in, fur $15, an take it out in trade.

No Right To Ugliness

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents, at J. Lynch's drug store.

AN HONEST ARTIST.

He Would Not Paint a Lie Even For a Napoleon.

There was no love lost between the Emperor Louis Napoleon and his cousin, Prince Napoleon, whom the Parisians called "Plon Plon." The prince used to make abusive speeches against the emperor, which people were only too ready to repeat to him. "Let him alone," Louis Napoleon would reply. "He is too well known. No one would turn me out to place him on the throne."

The emperor was correct, for no one said a good word about "Plon Plon." He was commonly believed to have shown the white feather in the Crimea and never exposed himself where the lead was falling. An English lady, who in her young days mingled with French society, tells in her "Foreign Courts and Foreign Homes" a story as discreditable to Prince Napoleon as it is honorable to a French artist.

While the artist was painting the historical picture of the battle of the Alma, which the emperor had ordered, Prince Napoleon called at the painter's studio to make known to him the facts. On leaving he said he wished the prominent figure in the battle to be himself mounted on his white charger. He sent the horse to the artist so that he could paint its exact portrait. When the picture was finished and invitations were sent out for a "private view," the white charger was seen, a prominent figure in the battle, but without a rider.

On hearing of this terrible omission the prince sent an aid-de-camp to ask the reason. The honest artist said the horse should remain if the prince wished, but no rider would be on it. "Tell the prince I have never yet painted a lie." The hint was taken. The prince ordered the horse to be rubbed out.

Sausage Links.

"Yes," said the yellow dog, "I believe after death we enter into another sphere of action. I think I'll be a golf player."

"How do you figure that out?" queried the black and tan.

"Oh, I'll be in the links."—Philadelphia North American.

SWEET AND PRETTY.

The Present Lady Tennyson, Who Is Vice Reine of South Australia.

Lady Tennyson, wife of the Hon. Hallam Tennyson, son of the late poet laureate, who has been recently appointed governor for South Australia, is a sweet faced Irish girl. She was a Miss Audrey Boyle of the celebrated Cork family of that name and niece of Hon. Mary Boyle, one of the first Lord Tennyson's oldest and most trusted feminine friends.

Lady Tennyson was only 19 when she first met her future husband. The silent young man was much taken with the lively Irish girl. Without saying anything of his intentions he begged Miss Mary Boyle to bring her niece down to Farringford on a visit, and after seeing the excellent effect she produced on his father and mother he asked her with great diffidence to become his wife.

They were married in Westminster abbey, Miss Mary Gladstone being one of the bridesmaids. Mrs. Hallam Tennyson has a pleasant, sensible face, and her kindly ways made her a welcome sunbeam among the nervous, sensitive people with whom her lot was cast. The Hallam Tennysons have three children, all boys, to take with them to their new home in Australia.

Mr. Jos. Carrol has recovered from his recent illness and is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson have taken up residence once more here after spending the winter in Lakefield. Mr. Wilson is going to run the cheese factory again this season and commence operations about the first of May.

Miss Phelan of Lakefield is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Kearney.

Mr. Richard Heard has purchased the property, situated north of Mr. Matthew Young, and has erected a dwelling house on same. Mr. A. McNaughton built a house on his property which is adjoining Mr. Heard's.

Navigation is opened between here and Lakefield and the steamer Sunbeam made her first trip up here on Thursday the 16th inst. Seeing the steamer arrive here, the inhabitants were once more reminded of summer. Although the ice is out of the boat channel between here and Lakefield, it will be some time before the ice is out of Clear Lake.

Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles.

PUNISHING AN EDITOR.

The Curious Method Adopted in a South American Country.

Curious methods of punishing indiscreet editors are in vogue in some countries. In "South American Sketches' Mr. Crawford describes the interesting experience of an editor who had been unfortunate enough to give offense to the ruling powers by the freedom of his criticisms.

The editor was arrested and confined in a narrow passage between the cages of two jaguars, notorious for their bad tempers and their intense dislike for human society.

The intervening space was so regulated that neither of the ferocious animals could get its paws quite to the middle line between the cages, so that a spare, active person, if very careful to follow the classical advice about the advantages of steering a middle course, might manage to pass without special injury, though the achievement would be both exciting and dangerous.

Our editorial friend happened to be stout, and therefore was the more easily reached by the occupants of the cages. As if to add insult to injury, he was given a chair on which to sit and at the same time was furnished with a copy of his own paper, the issue which had brought him into trouble, in order that he might meditate upon its contents.

He tried to sit motionless and bolt upright, feeling those sleepy, cruel eyes fixed upon him. At the slightest movement or the rustle of the paper uneasy mutterings arose from the cages, and a paw would stretch stealthily toward him. Leaning quickly to the other side, he was sure to be met by the ugly claws of the second jaguar. It was a case of Scylla and Charybdis.

Every few minutes the jaguars became wildly excited and clawed fiercely at the shrinking editor, who, do his best, could not escape those rending toe nails. His clothing was torn to shreds, but except for a few scratches he was not really injured.

William Ward, a C.P.R. switchman, Toronto, fell beneath a train at the foot of Church street on Tuesday morning, and had his left arm badly crushed. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where the arm was amputated.

MEETS ONCE IN FOUR YEARS.

Preparations for the 25th Anniversary Pan-Presbyterian Council.

Washington, D.C., April 10.—The Executive Committee appointed at the meeting of the Pan-Presbyterian Council at Glasgow four years ago to make preparations for the meeting which is to be held in Washington on Sept. 27, 1899, will assemble in the First Presbyterian Church in Richmond next Thursday. The Rev William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., of Philadelphia, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the United States, and the Rev. William Caven, D.D., LL.D., President of Knox College, Toronto, are in charge, and have arranged a program of exercises for the council at the Washington meeting, in which they desire the approval of their colleagues.

Historical Themes.

As this meeting will be the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Pan-Presbyterian Council, and the close of the century, the reports and addresses will be somewhat of a historical character. Some of the chief themes will be: "The growth of the influence of Calvinism in missionary work and national life," "The results accomplished and the progress made by the Presbyterian Church during the century," "The comparative influence of different religions upon life, society, politics and morals," "Practical matters in modern development of church work," "Special characteristics of the Presbyterian system," "The relation of the church to sociological questions."

Jaggers'Rival at New York.

New York, April 10.—James Elsey, the London messenger boy, who left London April 1 for California, to rival the recent trip of Jaggers, the messenger boy sent to Chicago, arrived here last evening on the Cunard Liner Etruria. The lad was met at the dock by a representative of a Broadway tourist agency, and, after being photographed, was rushed to the Christopher-street ferry. He left later for the West over the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road.

Elsey, who is 16 years of age, was dressed in his messenger uniform. On his head was perched a little round English cap, bearing the number 118. Elsey was sent to this country by Henry McCalmont, member of Parliament for Newmarket in the Conservative interest, and well known as a sportsman. He is to deliver a letter at an address in Hanford, California.

A Much-Named Man.

Lindsay, Ont., April 10.—Chief of Police Bell of Lindsay made an important arrest here Saturday of one Robert Reakes, alias Alonzo Thompson, alias Frank White, alias Colline, alias Doyle, wanted at Little Valley, Cattaraugus County, New York, by Joseph E. Hassard, sheriff, for grand larceny on a bench warrant. A hundred dollars reward is offered for his arrest. Reakes is a professional wrestler. He was arrested while walking in company with his wife on the main street.

Mr. Maclean Rapidly Recovering.

Toronto, April 10.—It was four weeks yesterday since Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., met with his accident by a trolley car. The fractured thigh bone has made a good union without any loss in length, and the doctors hope to have him out of bed before the end of April. Mr. Maclean's general health is excellent, and he seems to be rather enjoying his forced holiday under the blankets.

HE HAD A BAD HABIT.

And It Made Him a Poor Insurance Risk In Kentucky.

The manager of a life insurance company had the floor.

"Life insurance companies," he was saying, "are as particular about the people they already have on their lists as they are about getting them on in the beginning. They are rich, of course, but they are no more anxious to take in a man who will die of disease within the first year or two than they are to take in a perfectly healthy man and have him hazard his life by taking personal risks in dangerous pursuits or by travel in unhealthy countries.

"I remember a funny instance that occurred once while I was living in New England. One of our $10,000 men had a way of calling a man a liar in the most careless and indiscriminate manner and with only the merest or no provocation. One day he was in our office and casually mentioned the fact that he was going to make a trip to Kentucky.

"'When?' inquired the manager alertly.

"'Next week.'

"'On business or pleasure?'

"'Going to buy a pair of horses.'

"'Um—er—er!' hesitated the manager. 'Before you start I wish you would stop in and see me.'

"'What for? Want me to buy a horse for you?'

"'No: I want to arrange about your policy.'

"'What do you want to arrange about it? Isn't it all right?'

"'Yes, as long as you stay in this country. But if you go down to Kentucky we'll have to advance the rate until you come back.'

"'Well, what in ——,' began the policy holder hotly, when the manager interrupted him.

"'Don't fly the track, my dear fellow,' he said gently. 'It's all right here and the rate is satisfactory to us; but, by Jove, we can't give you the same rate and let you go to Kentucky and call men liars like you do in this section. Not much! We haven't got $10,000 policies to give away like that, and you oughtn't to expect it.'"—Washington Star.

A SCENE OF BUTCHERY.

The Slaughter That Came With the End of the Janisaries.

On the 15th day of June, 1826, the whole corps of the janizaries in the capital assembled, overturned their camp kettles (the signal of revolt) and advanced upon the seraglio. With his own hand the sultan unfurled the sacred "sanjak sherif" and called upon the true believers to rally round their dischah and caliph, and the zealous Mussulman citizens rushed from all quarters and rallied under the sacred symbol. The ranks of the janizaries were raked with grape and solid shot by "Black Hell" (a nickname for Ibrahim, general of artillery) and his gunners as they pressed through the streets, compelling them to fall back to the Etmeidan, where they defended themselves with extraordinary fierceness, slaying great numbers of their assailants. The artillery, supported by the marines and the bostangi, pressed forward and compelled them to retreat to their barracks, where they offered desperate resistance to the assault.

From every street cannon thundered on the walls without intermission, the building was soon in flames, the walls torn and battered down by grapeshot, and the janizaries, overwhelmed by ruins, shot and flames, perished in their burning and blood stained barracks. For two days the gates of the city remained closed, and with relentless vigor every corner was searched for such janizaries as had escaped the general massacre, and when found they were hastily executed. Nearly 20,000 janizaries were destroyed on this memorable day, and many thousands were afterward put to death in the various cities of the empire, and thus not one of the number under arms was left to tell the tale.—Self Culture.

MRS. C. W. HOUGHTON, STEWART, ONT.,

Considers Laxa-Liver Pills the best remedy for Sallow Complexion, Sick Headache and Constipation.

More people every day joining the great army of those who prize Laxa-Liver Pills as the best remedy for all diseases and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels.

MRS. C. W. HOUGHTON, Stewart P.O., Ont., has this to say about these wonderful little pills:

"I have used Laxa-Liver Pills and I can say with all confidence that they are the right thing. I had a very sallow complexion, and suffered quite often from Sick Headache. Since I started to use the little pills my complexion has become clear and healthy, the headaches disappeared, and my bowels are perfectly regular. I do not hesitate to strongly recommend them to anyone suffering as I did."

If you suffer from Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache, take a Laxa-Liver Pill before retiring. It will work while you sleep, without a grip or gripe, and make you better in the morning.

AMERICANS ADVANCE

And Capture Santa Cruz With Slight Loss to Themselves.

INSURGENT DEAD NUMBER 68.

The Fighting Was Quick and Sharp After a Tiresome Job of Navigating the Tortuous Pasig River—Description of the Assault on the Town—Gen. Otis' Official Report.

Manila, April 11.—Santa Cruz was the Filipinos' stronghold on Lake Laguna de Bay, and it fell into the hands of General Lawton's expedition after some sharp, quick fighting. The expedition started from San Pedro Macati at dusk on Saturday, intending to capture Santa Cruz by assault at daybreak, but in navigating the shallow, tortuous Pasig River, perhaps through the cunning of the native pilots, who were not anxious to see the Americans successful, several boats grounded and it was nearly dawn when the troops reached the lake. The expedition then steamed cautiously forward, the Napidan and the Cesta a mile ahead and the Laguna de Bay guarding the rear.

In Sight of Santa Cruz.

Rebel signal fires, however, were lighted on the mountain top, giving warning of the approach of the troops. It was noon before the white church towers of the city appeared in the shadow of the great volcanic mountain on a marshy plain dotted with occasional groves. A casco—a square-ended, flat-bottomed boat—with a force of 200 picked sharpshooters, under Major Weisenberger, mostly belonging to the 1st Washington Regulars, was run into a shallow inlet about five miles south of the city. Then a few shells were sent towards the entrenchments of the rebels at the edge of the woods, sending the enemy scampering inland. Then a number of Americans jumped into the water and wading for about 100 yards crept forward and formed in line, covering the landing of the remainder, which finished about 5 o'clock. The three troops of the 4th Cavalry, dismounted, were sent ashore on a dangerous marshy point, directly south of the city, under fire from the enemy's trenches.

The Assault on the Town.

At sunrise yesterday the assault commenced. The American line south of the city stretched two miles inland, and, with its left sweeping the shore, it moved north, while the 4th Cavalry men on the point advanced toward the city, pouring volleys upon the trenches. Simultaneously the gunboats hovered along the shore, shelling the woods ahead of the troops and driving the Filipinos inland. The gatlings cleared several trenches. The whole brigade was divided into squads of twelve, and the fighting was carried on in the old-time frontier fashion from behind trees, crawling through bushes or rushing across the open. The trenches that were not cleared by the gunboats gave considerable resistance when the lines were nearing the city and the Laguna de Bay and Cesta bombarded them for an hour in the hope of making them too warm for occupancy, but did not succeed in clearing them entirely. Gen. Lawton, with the 14th Infantry, approached a narrow iron bridge across a creek on the south border of the town. Here a company of Filipinos was intrenched across the stream, and behind a stone barricade at the entrance of the bridge. The Americans rushed forward in single file, in the face of galling fire, demolished the barricade with their hands and drove the enemy from the trenches, killing a dozen. The Filipino soldiers in the town, secreted in various buildings and firing from the windows, gave the invaders an interesting hour. A considerable body of Filipinos fled northward, crossing open marshes, but the gatlings poured upon them a deadly hail, until they disappeared in the woods, a dozen being slain. Major Weisenberger deployed the sharpshooters along the shore, and they crept against the enemy in the woods, driving them toward the mountains.

Gen. Lawton established headquarters at the elegant palace of the Governor. Within an hour the town was patrolled, and all looting rigidly prevented. On the marshes north of the town were found 40 dead Filipinos, some terribly torn by shells, and many others wounded. A surgeon who traversed the field counted 90 killed.

The gunboats yesterday afternoon have been searching the Santa Cruz River for shipping. To-day the expedition will push forward, the Americans having destroyed miles of telegraph lines, cutting off insurgent communication east and west.

Gen. Otis' Report.

Washington, April 11.—The following despatch was received from General Otis at Manila yesterday:

Lawton's command captured Santa Cruz, chief city of Laguna de Bay, yesterday morning; casualties, six wounded; insurgent troops driven, leaving 68 dead on the field, and large number of wounded; a considerable number captured. Lawton will pursue westward.

Two Kansans Wounded.

Manila, April 11.—The rebels along the railroad fired at a scouting party near Malolos yesterday, wounding two members of the Kansas regiment.

The War Will Be a Long One.

Though hundreds of Filipinos are daily returning to their homes and are desirous of resuming peaceful pursuits, and though the proclamation issued by the United States Philippine commission has given an impetus to this movement, the war is far from ended. One of the foremost American generals said recently: "We will see 100,000 soldiers in the Philippines before the Americans control the islands," and a majority of the army are of his opinion.

Troops Getting Tired of It.

A majority of the United States volunteers are eager to return home, and "we did not enlist to fight niggers" is a remark that is constantly heard. While braver work than they are doing is impossible to find, there is small glory in guerilla warfare, the dangers and hardships of which cannot be appreciated at home. The volunteers construe their enlistment "to the close of the war" to apply to the war with Spain, and wish to be "relieved by regulars."

The Horse Show on Thursday.

Toronto, April 11.—The Armouries presented a busy scene yesterday morning, and the contractors are hard at work building the large grand stand, decorating and laying out the tan bark ring for the show, which begins on Thursday morning and will be formally opened on Thursday afternoon with an address to His Excellency the Governor-General of Canada, who will be present.

His Excellency and the Countess of Minto have signified their intention of being present at all the performances for a time at least. On Thursday evening the ladies' musical ride will be given for the first time.

Fifty Cent Gas.

New York, April 10.—The movement to secure municipal ownership of gas for Greater New York is progressing splendidly. It is conceded by everybody except the gas magnates themselves that the departure will be made; the only question now is one of time. The syndicate contemplates charging 75c, but is prepared to charge 50c if the old companies begin a rate war. The success of nearly every large city in England and Scotland in furnishing cheap gas to its citizens has proved the value of municipal ownership of the gas franchise, and it is high time the greatest American city took this forward step in governmental progress.

Willis Cattle Bill Killed.

Albany, N.Y., April 10.—In the Senate to-night Senator Willis' bill providing that cattle imported into the state shall be examined and passed by a veterinary created an extended discussion, it being attacked by Senator Mackey, who said it would kill an important industry in the western part of the state. Senator Ambler moved to recommit the bill, with instructions to strike out the enacting clause, which was carried by a vote of 28 to 10, thus killing the bill.

Young Pearcey Died.

Kingston, April 11.—The young man Henry Pearcey, struck on Sunday by a Grand Trunk train near Gananoque and brought to this city for treatment, died yesterday. He was brought out from England eight years ago by those interested in the Marchmont Home, Belleville, who will take charge of the interment. The young man was aged 17. He did not regain consciousness.

Why Did He Do It?

Winnipeg, April 11.—William Leask, a well-known resident, who lived six miles north of Dominion City, fatally shot himself yesterday morning at his home. Circumstances point to a case of suicide. Deceased, who was about 48 years of age, leaves a wife and one child.

Premier Hardy Takes a Rest.

Toronto, April 11.—After the labors of the session Premier Hardy requires a rest. He left yesterday morning, accompanied by Mrs. Hardy, for Atlantic City, N.J., where he will remain for two or three weeks.

Samoan Commissioner Appointed by the United States.

GERMANY WILL NOT APPOINT.

Britain's Representatives to the Czar's Peace Conference—Spain Will Pay Philippine Interest—Gen. Gomez Reinstated—Another Tangle in China—Nationalism's Overwhelming Victory.

Washington, April 11.—The President has selected Bartlett Tripp of South Dakota, formerly minister to Austria, as the U.S. representative on the Samoan joint commission.

Germany Is Hesitating.

London, April 11.—Germany, according to the Berlin correspondent of The Standard, will not appoint the German member of the Samoan commission until her protest has been answered by Great Britain and the United States.

Britain's Representatives.

London, April 11.—It is officially announced that the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, and the British minister at The Hague, Mr. H. Howard, have been appointed British representatives at the peace conference called by the Czar, which is to meet at The Hague on May 18. They will be assisted by Vice-Admiral Sir John Fisher and Major-General Sir John Ardagh, as naval and military experts, respectively.

Spain Will Pay the Interest.

Madrid, April 11.—The Queen Regent has signed a decree granting a credit for the payment of the interest and the redemption of the Philippine bonds.

Gen. Gomez Reinstated.

Havana, April 11. — Gen. Maximo Gomez was notified last night by the Cuban army representatives from Pinar del Rio, Havana and Matanzas provinces, that they had reinstated him as commander-in-chief. The Cuban generals of Santa Clara province under Jose Gomez, the Civil Governor of Santa Clara, adhered by telegraph to the action of the western provinces.

Another Tangle in China.

London, April 11.—The Shanghai correspondent of The Times says: "The negotiations between Sheng-Ta-Jen, Director-General of Chinese railways, and the American syndicate regarding the Hankow-Canton line are at a standstill on a question of financial control, similar to that which was raised over the Niuchwang Railway."

Nationalism's Overwhelming Victory.

Dublin, April 11.—The complete returns of the Irish County Council elections are now to hand and show an overwhelming victory for Nationalism, the Nationalists having elected 544 candidates as against 119 Unionists, tho representatives of landlordism and Toryism.

Our Trade With Britain.

London, April 11.—The statement of the Board of Trade for the month of March shows a decrease of £1,920,400 in imports and an increase of £1,474,100 in exports. The statement shows the following changes in trade between Great Britain and Canada for the first three months of the calendar year:

Imports from Canada—Wheat, decreased £18,500; cheese, decreased £89,500; fish, decreased £161,000; maize, increased £23,000; bacon, increased £25,000; hams, increased £39,000.

Exports to Canada—Cotton piece goods increased £23,500; linen, increased £15,000; woollen goods, £12,500; wearing apparel, £18,000.

Duke of Connaught's Declaration.

Gotha, April 11.—In the Diet yesterday a declaration from the Duke of Connaught, brother of the Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, was read, in which the former announced that he was prepared, in view of the death recently of Prince Alfred of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha, son and heir of the reigning Duke, to assume the Government of the Duchy should a contingency arise.

Monument to Elizabeth.

Paris, April 11.—A beautiful monument to the memory of the late Empress of Austria was unveiled at Cape Martin, in the Riviera, on Saturday, in the presence of a large assemblage. The monument represents Empress Elizabeth seated on her favorite horse jumping a fence. The Austrian Consul read an ode, composed for the occasion by Mme. George de Montgomery. The last two verses of this ode are engraved in golden letters on the granite base.

A $20,000 Collapse.

Montreal, April 11.—The four-storey building on Commissioners street occupied by Messrs. Benoit & Son collapsed last evening, with the result that an old employe named Philip Dulude was badly, if not fatally, injured. The premises, which were built three years ago, appear to be a total wreck, and the damage is stated to be $20,000.

Fooled With a Revolver.

Hamilton, April 11.—Clarence Haines of Lyndon, while fooling with his father's revolver last evening, accidentally shot himself through the right side and lung, and his death is expected at any hour. The bullet has been successfully extracted by Dr. Gibson, but his injuries are such that he cannot live.

Joseph Barnes Drowned.

Simcoe, Ont., April 11.—Three lads of this place went fishing yesterday afternoon a short distance from the town. Their boat capsized and one of the boys, Joseph Barnes, was drowned. The body was recovered.

Innisfil Treasurer Short.

Lefroy, April 11.—On Saturday the Innisfil treasurer was given until May 1 to make up the deficit of about $2,500, he having agreed to secure the council in the meantime.

"To Do Ill Costs More Than to Do Well."

This "wise saw" might properly read, "It costs more to BE ill than to BE well." The source of all health is rich, strong blood. It is to the body what the mighty streams are to the earth. If the blood is pure, the body thrives; if the blood is weak or impoverished, then every pulse-beat carries weakness instead of strength.

Why make the cost of living more than it need be? Purify your blood and give your constitution a chance to do its level best. The only perfect blood purifier and vigor-maker in existence is the world-famed Hood's Sarsaparilla. It brings good, perfect health. It never disappoints.

Erysipelas Sores—"After scarlet fever a running sore was left on my nose. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured me. My brother was also relieved by it of erysipelas in his face." ELLA COURSER, Burden, N. B.

Bowel Trouble—"My mother, Mrs. John Ried, suffered with bowel trouble for four years and tried different doctors, but obtained no relief until she began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured her." LIZZIE REID, Tracy Station, N. B.

A Good Medicine—"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family as a spring medicine and used Hood's Pills for biliousness and found both medicines very effective. For impure blood we know Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine." E. S. PELTON, publisher Bee, Atwood, Ont.

Loss of Appetite—"I was in poor health, troubled with dizziness, tired feeling and loss of appetite. I was completely run down. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and after awhile I felt much better. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up." LIZZIE A. RUSSELL, Old Chelsea, near Ottawa, Que.

Dyspepsia—"For twelve years I was dyspeptic and broken in health, had terrible pains in my back and was unable to work. When I had taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I recovered my health. I always recommend it." J. B. MASON, 362 8th Street, Oswego, N. Y.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1899.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, April 8.—Tuesday last has been the great day in the House of Commons this week, and the sitting that day was made memorable by the speech of the Minister of the Interior in reply to that of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper and in explanation of the policy of the Government in the administration of the Yukon. It was a speech that may be described as historic in a double sense—it embraced a history, full, frank and complete, of the development of the Yukon and of the policy of the Administration in connection therewith from the hour the present Minister took office, and it will stand in the history of parliamentary debate as an exceptionally able, lucid, and convincing address. As described in a sentence by the Globe next morning, the attitude of the Minister was that of a clear-headed business man telling a plain story. He wasted no time in recrimination, he passed, as worth but small notice, the small personalities and contemptible innuendoes which were plentifully sprinkled through Sir Hibbert Tupper's harangue, and with the remark that he cared not for the manner of the attack nor for the lack of substance or foundation it might have, he proceeded to take the bill of indictment, count by count, and wherever there was enough definite statement to identify the parties concerned or to give an inkling even of what the accuser was hinting at the story was relentlessly turned inside out, and documentary evidence of the most conclusive character produced to show how utterly unworthy it was of a moment's evidence.

Who Are These Men?

Briefly to run over the fulmination of the member for Pictou (Sir Hibbert Tupper) which for want of a better name I dignify with the title of an indictment, what does it all amount to? First, the officials appointed were said to be incompetent with no better qualification than that they were party hacks. Here Mr. Sifton showed that Major Walsh was appointed on account of his long and excellent service for a quarter of a century in the Northwest Police, and Mr. Fawcett was made gold commissioner on the advice of the Serveyor-General in whose office he had been many years. Mr. F. C. Wade, who went out as law officer of the Crown, was recognized as a man of high legal attainments, while his personal character and moral rectitude were vouched for fully and frankly by so unbiassed a critic as Mr. W. J. Tupper, younger son of the leader of the Opposition. Major Bliss, with a record of long and faithful service, familier with accounts and also a military man, was peculiarly suited for the duties of Controller of the finances, "though he was a Conservative," as the Minister facetiously remarked. Messrs. McGregor and Orr, mining Inspectors, were chosen largely on account of their robust physical qualities of endurance and their knowledge of sub-arctic life and travel—their main duty was to collect the royalty, and the fact that this has been done without the slightest ruction in face of the Opposition assertion that any attempt to collect would lead to bloodshed, this fact was surely sufficient evidence of the wisdom of the selection.

Such were the chief men on the "emergency staff" as the Minister aptly described it, the men who were sent up in a hurry, and in the absence of any definite information of what was needed, or any data upon which to base an idea as to what was likely to develop. These are the men whom Sir Hibbert Tupper called "unscrupulous scoundrels," who "robbed and tyrannised," and "acted in every respect dishonorably and corruptly."

The Permanent Staff.

Later on the Administration was permanently organized and Mr. Ogilvie was appointed at its head amid the unanimous acclaims of all parties (this was before the Conservatives discovered that he chanced to be distantly related by marriage to the Minister). His colleagues were Captain Steel, "than whom a finer officer never sat in office saddle," Mr. Girouard ex-M.P., the Registrar, Mr. Lithgow, the Comptroller, and Mr. Meddin, Inspector of Mines; half of these were originally Conservative appointees to the Service and all had special qualifications for the duties they were called upon to perform. The same was fearlessly declared by the Minister in regard to two late appointments, viz:—those of Mr. Senkler, of Nelson, B. C., as gold Commissioner, and Mr. W. H. P. Clement as legal adviser, and the House was with him enthusiastically when he added "Never in the history of Canada have appointments been made with more care, and with more general approbation."

It was of this carefully selected staff, all with splendid records for good service and personal integrity, that the wild stories of the last six months have been circulated, and it is small wonder the attack is falling so flat.

The Charges Dealt With.

Of the long and beautifully vague string of accusations made, the Minister proceeded to take representative items, and ruthlessly puncture them, one by one. It was alleged that constables on the guard at the post office took bribes to secure letters out of turn—efforts had been made to trace a case of this kind, the men had been changed and so forth, but complaints continued, "if detectives on the spot could not discover the culprits, how in the name of common sense," asks the Minister, "do you expect me to stop it?"

It was alleged that liquor permits had been secured by party heelers for friends, and that the Minister had caused liquor to be stopped at the boundary until his friends who were going in with "the ardent," could catch up. As to the last half of this, Mr. Sifton showed he had no friends interested; the name of Mr. Philip, his late law partner, had been mentioned, Mr. Sifton proved that the partnership was dissolved when he became a Minister of the Crown, and moreover Mr. Philip had not taken a gallon of liquor into the Yukon anyway. As to the allegation that permits were secured by influence, the Minister produced the full list granted, and showed that the charge was without a shadow of foundation. Certainly requests had been made but had without exception been refused.

It was further alleged that the records were kept secret "apparently to compel the public to pay for information." The records said the Minister, were kept by Mr. Fawcett, according to regulations drawn by the late Government. There was no secrecy of any kind practised. Owing to the tremendous rush of business and the absence of authentic surveys and other data, it had been an absolute impossibility to supply all the information sought. The service was being improved all the time but when it was proposed last session to employ government surveyors to survey claims, Hon. Mr. Foster had objected and declared that parparties must survey their own claims. Had this been done the confusion bad as it was, would have become intolerable. The further charge was made that claims had been recorded over the heads of bonafide prospectors. In reply the Minister showed that where instances of this had apparently occurred it had been proved the confusion was the result of the aforesaid absence of authentic surveys, which led to different descriptions being filed of the same claim, and further that wherever such cases were proved, full investigation had followed and the rightful claimant given his rights.

Officials Staking Claims.

The allegations that officials had staked claims was next taken up. When the first staff went into the country the old regulations made by the Conservative Government were in force and Capt. Constantine was the first official to stake a claim, six months before the present Government came into power. In the specific case of Mr. Wade, he was in no way connected with the staking or recording of claims, and the Minister had told him, and very properly told him, that there was no regulation to prevent him holding a claim. He had never given a general permission to the officials to stake claims, but on the contrary had recommended that they be forbidden to do so. "Our only fault," added Mr. Sifton, "was that we had not foresight to undo the mischief done by the regulations of the late Government."

Space will not permit me to go over more of the interminable string of hearsay accusations, but a perusal of Mr. Sifton's splendid vindication will show all were successfully disposed of, and that the records fully sustained him in his declaration that the administration had been conducted with "care, forethought, diligence, promptness and circumspection."

A Special Advantage.

Dr. Wills' English Pills Do Not Produce Griping or Nausea.

Constipated people usually suffer from weak stomach, and have found the large majority of medicines in liquid and pill form to produce nausea and sickness.

Dr. Wills, the celebrated English physician, years ago came to the rescue of those who suffer from deranged digestion and constipation. His now celebrated pills have become the popular remedy with people who cannot tolerate the harsh and purging remedies that some use with such little success.

Dr. Wills' English Pills quickly remove all waste and poisonous matters from the body; they tone the liver and kidneys, and impart true digestive vigour.

For the cure of constipation, Dr. Wills' English Pills are recommended and guaranteed by over five hundred druggists, who are prepared to refund the money if relief is not obtained.

Be sure and get Dr. Wills' English Pills for constipation; your druggist is prepared to tell you all about them.

PANA, ILL., AGAIN.

White and Black Miners and Deputy Sheriffs Mixed Up in a Serious Melee.

Pana, Ill., April 11.—In a riot which broke out at 10.30 a.m. yesterday, on the main street, in front of the telegraph office, between white and black miners, in which deputy sheriffs took part, five men and one woman were killed. Eight persons were wounded, several so seriously that they will probably die. The killed are: Xavier L. Roog, Frenchman, union miner; Frank Coburn, white, son of ex-Sheriff Coburn; three unknown negro miners and one negro woman.

Wounded: William Kuhn, proprietor of the Klondike Steam Laundry, shot through both legs; Albert Vickers, white miner, shot in right arm; Cyrus Strickler, groceryman; George Gillen, farmer of Rosenmund, left arm shot off; Clara Felix, servant at the Harrison Hotel, shot in back, condition serious; Mrs. Henriett, wife of a union miner, right arm shot off; Frank Hansworth, delivery boy, shot in head, will die; Henry Steppino, negro miner, shot through body six times, likely to die.

The trouble began the night before when 100 deputy sheriffs were called out into the Flatham and Penwell mining districts to protect several families of negros who were endeavoring to load household effects preparatory to leaving for Iowa and were being prevented by the negro guards armed with rifles furnished by the Pana Coal Company who claimed the goods the negroes were moving were company property.

The deputies were fired upon by unknown persons, supposed to have been negroes and private guards at the Penwell mines, and fully 200 shots were exchanged. The fighting terrorized the citizens of that section, and Chief Deputy Cheney sent a special detail of deputies armed with rifles, who succeeded in restoring quiet before daybreak. Several negroes were arrested, charged with inciting riot, and yesterday's rioting began while they were on trial.

A WOODSTOCK CASE.

MR. MASA WILLIS TELLS OF HIS ESCAPE FROM KIDNEY DISEASE.

Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—He Used Other Medicines but got Little Good from them—Cured by Four Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Woodstock, Ont., April 10.—There has been a great deal of discussion in this city during the past two weeks regarding the truly remarkable case of A. N. Wideman, of Duntroon, who was cured of Inflammatory Rheumatism by Dodd's Kidney Pills, after his doctor had failed to cure him, and his recovery was not expected.

During it all not one voice had been raised to say that the story of the Wideman case was not strictly true. Dodd's Kidney Pills have effected too many cures in Woodstock for that.

But the talk about Mr. Wideman's case has brought forward another grateful citizen, who boasts of having been cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

This gentleman is Mr. Masa Willis, of 295 Dundas street, and he tells his story thus:

"For several years I suffered severely from Kidney Disease, pains in the back, etc. I used various medicines but got little benefit from any of them.

"My son had used Dodd's Kidney Pills with excellent effect, and he advised me to try them. I acted on his advice and am happy to say I am thoroughly cured.

"I used only four boxes of this grand medicine, but I needed no more Now I always keep a box in my room, as I beleive Dodd's Kidney Pills are a first-class family medicine."

Dodd's Kidney Pills, only sure cure for Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Urinary Troubles, Female Complaints, and all other Kidney diseases, are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, or sent on receipt of price by The Dodds Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

THE WEST INDIES.

Some Facts Concerning the Business and Political Situation by a Just-Returned Canadian.

Montreal, Que., April 11.—Mr. W. B. Chapman, who has done a great deal to enlist Canadian capital in electric enterprises in the British West Indies, has just returned from a business trip to Barbados, Jamaica and Trinidad.

The people of Barbados, he says, are very grateful for the £5000 voted by the Canadian Parliament in aid of the hurricane sufferers, and Mr. Chapman says that there is a rapidly growing feeling for annexation, not to the United States, but to the Dominion.

In Demerara, which has been suffering in common with all the sugar colonies, the outlook has greatly improved and he volunteered the information that the electric lighting and tramway franchises in Georgetown and elsewhere in the colony had been lately acquired by Canadians, and their full development is near at hand.

Trinidad is very prosperous, and Mr. Chapman in speaking of Port of Spain, the capital, said: "I found here a very strong feeling in favor of closer trade relations with Canada, and many leading merchants expressed the desire to have a branch of one of our Canadian banks established amongst them, as they say that their banking facilities are not at all sufficient for the volume of trade carried on."

The Political Situation.

He also makes an important declaration as to the political situation in the British West Indies. "I must say," he began, "that the reports given in the New York papers as regards discontent, political troubles and prospects of a revolution in the British West Indies, are all made out of whole cloth. It is well-known that these islands have been suffering for years the manifest injustice of continental beet sugar producers bringing their sugar to England, aided by a bounty from the country of production of £8 per ton. This, of course, makes it unprofitable for the West India planters to hold out, although economists agree that the difference to the British consumer is hardly a farthing per pound.

"Now I found the planters and people exceedingly loyal to the Empire, but they properly argue that they cannot allow their families to starve for the sake of French, German and other foreign sugar growers.

"Manifestoes and letters published in The New York Herald and other papers simply go to show that they have asked Britain to do them common justice and to impose a countervailing duty, but in the event of a refusal, they naturally argue that they must live, and would in this case prefer to join the States.

"I found, however, both the white and black population of all the islands most anxious to remain with the Empire."

Twelve Miners Burned to Death.

Presidio, Texas, April 11.—A mining disaster, in which 12 men lost their lives, is reported from the Sierra Modjeda mining camp, located in the State of Coahuila, Mexico, 50 miles south of this place. An explosion of four gas lamps occurred in the Veda Rica silver mine, and before all the miners could get to the surface the dry timbers were on fire, the fierce flames barring exit.

Peace Ratifications.

Washington, April 11.—The exchange copy of the peace treaty reached Washington yesterday. The final exchange of ratifications has been fixed for to-day at 2 p.m. at the White House.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills Were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., Apr. 3.—There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives, to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Masa Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practising; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. Put Your Finger on Your Pulse

You feel the blood rushing along.

But what kind of blood? That is the question.

Is it pure blood or impure blood?

If the blood is impure then you are weak and languid; your appetite is poor and your digestion is weak. You cannot sleep well and the morning finds you unprepared for the work of the day. Your cheeks are pale and your complexion is sallow. You are troubled with pimples, boils, or some eruption of the skin. Why not purify your blood?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

will do it. Take it a few days and then put your finger on your pulse again. You can feel the difference. It is stronger and your circulation better. Send for our book on Impure Blood.

If you are bilious, take Ayer's Pills. They greatly aid the Sarsaparilla, They cure constipation also.

THE OTTAWA HOUSE.

The Minister of Customs Makes a Great Tariff Speech.

THE PREFERENTIAL TARIFF.

Triumphant Vindication of This Popular Measure of the Liberal Trade Policy —The Iron Duties—Increased Imports From Great Britain—A Comparison That Effectually Settles the Matter.

Ottawa, April 11.—Yesterday Hon. William Paterson, Controller of Customs, answered the attacks that have been made upon the tariff policy of the Government. He dealt particularly with the preferential tariff, which Mr. Clarke Wallace had denounced as being a deception of the English and of the Canadian people. Mr. Wallace had said that the duties had first been raised and then lowered 25 per cent. to the English exporter, so that the reduction was only apparent. Mr. Paterson pointed out that on only nine items is the present duty higher than under the old tariff, and of these the imports from Great Britain in 1898 were but $78,000, as against a total importation of $58,000,000. He quoted a host of figures to show that the preferential tariff had favored Great Britain, and appealed to the members of the Opposition to cease their unpatriotic cries that the preference was a deception. Mr. Bergeron followed Mr. Paterson, and Mr. Desmarais closed the debate for the evening.

Bills Introduced.

Respecting the Portage du Fort and Bristol Branch Railway, Mr. Poupore.

Respecting the Canada Southern Railway Company, Mr. Ingram.

To incorporate the Alaska and Northwest Railway Company, Dr. Sproule.

To incorporate the St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Company, Dr. Sproule.

To incorporate the Athabasca Railway Company, Mr. Lavergne.

Respecting the Brandon and Southwestern Railway Company, Mr. Morrison.

To impose certain restrictions on immigration, Mr. McInnes.

To amend the Chinese Immigration Act, Mr. Maxwell.

Old Things Have Passed Away.

Sir Charles Tupper, on the orders of the day being called, said that he had been informed that the speech of the Premier on the address was being sent in parcels to postmasters for distribution. He had no objection to the speech being distributed, but did not think postmasters the proper persons to make the distribution.

Hon. Mr. Mulock said he agreed with the leader of the Opposition that postmasters were not the proper persons to distribute speeches of members. He further said he was not aware of any such distribution being made.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he desired to qualify a statement made by him a few days ago in reply to a question by the leader of the Opposition (Sir Charles Tupper) with reference to a paragraph in the newspapers that the United States authorities had asked for a delimitation of the boundaries between Alaska and Canada. He had said there had been no negotiations. He now desired to say that a proposition of the kind had been made by the United States authorities and an answer given by the Canadian Government, but, unfortunately, the matter was not yet in such a position that the papers could be brought down.

Sir Charles Tupper said that he would like to suggest that pending the delimitation that would take place, regulations should be made that would secure the greatest possible facilities in crossing country either way to and from the Yukon. He thought it very important that a temporary arrangement should be effected pending permanent settlement of the question.

Col. Domville denied the correctness of a statement made in The Mail and Empire of the 7th instant in which it was said that the first charge made against Major Walsh was by the Liberal member for Kings (Domville). He had made no charge against Major Walsh, and he now wished to state that "anyone who charged Major Walsh with being drunk or drinking while in the Yukon was guilty of a base slander."

The Debate Resumed.

The Minister of Customs, resuming the debate on the address, observed that he would pass over the financial criticisms of the Opposition, inasmuch as the Finance Minister would shortly in his budget speech be able to show that he had a surplus on consolidated fund last year of a million and three-quarters, and for the current year a surplus of double that amount. Neither would he allude to the Yukon administration, as another opportunity was to be afforded for discussing it.

Mr. Paterson said he was surprised at seeing in The Toronto Telegram a reference to Hon. N. Clarke Wallace's speech as proving by facts and figures that "the whole Fielding tariff was a juggle which could not but work out to the disadvantage of British products and to the advantage of United States products." The position of the Conservatives in regard to the tariff was wrong sided. While they claimed it was their own tariff and conducive to prosperity, they in the same breath denounced it as a fraud upon the English people and Canadians as well. The Liberal promise of freer trade had been kept, as was shown by the increase of $60,000,000 in our foreign trade, while the workshops of the country were fully employed. As to the charge that this duty had been lowered on goods imported from the States for the benefit of the Americans, he would point to the reduction on coal oil from 6 to 5 cents per gallon, which had resulted in saving $60,000 to the people of Canada last year.

Mr. Wallace interrupted to observe that his reference had been in connection with linseed oil, which is imported from England, to which he added 25 per cent., whereas he reduced the duty on coal oil which comes from the United States by 17 1-16 per cent.

Mr. Paterson—The fact is that on an invoice of $100 worth of linseed oil the duty from the States would be $20, and from England $18.75. And another fact is that on an invoice of 100 tons of iron the duty from the United States would be $250, and on the British iron $187.50. But the chief fact was that the English iron paid $7 a ton and the American $10 in one case, and $5.26 against the American $7 in the other. The plain fact was that the American, under the new tariff, pays $3 a ton, and the Englishman $6 a ton. It mattered not how low the general tariff had been reduced, the fact remained that the preferential tariff to England was 25 per cent. lower. Of the fourteen articles on which the duty had been increased under the new preferential tariff, the increase of duty had been $2,998, while on $30,000,000 worth of imports from Great Britain the duty had been lowered so as to give a saving of $328,894 in duty, by the preference, while on the imports of last year the duty would have been $2,060,555 more had the old tariff of 1896 been in force. At the close of the current financial year the saving would be very nearly $3,000,000. The main conclusion was that the bye-elections had shown the people of Canada appreciated the fact that the Government had carried its pledges as to the tariff and that patriotism should stop the Conservatives from saying the preferential tariff had been a deception, although he trusted to the good sense of the British and Canadian people to prevent such unfounded statements having a bad effect.

Mr. Bergeron Replies.

Mr. Bergeron said that neither as regards economy nor expenditure, reduction of taxation nor purity of administration, had the Government kept one of its pledges to the people. The Liberals attained power by careful use in Quebec of the sentimental cry in favor of a French-Canadian Premier and by adroit use of the Manitoba school question. As to the failure of the Government to obtain the promised measure of reciprocity with the United States, the Government might plead if they had not obtained it, it was not their fault. As to purity of administration, the fact was fourteen members had already been appointed to Government positions, and others had them in their pockets or the promise of them.

Mr. Bergeron said there had been "irregularities" in the plebiscite voting, whereupon Sir Wilfrid Laurier asked what he meant. Mr. Bergeron replied that if the Premier would order a thorough investigation into the matter he would undertake within three days to place before him details to justify the allegation that the Liberal organs in Quebec made to the effect that voting had gone on for a week in the province after the polls closed. The Dominion Alliance of Montreal, when they asked an investigation into these irregularities, had been begged by Mr. Fisher to consent to a Government inquiry, but refused, as they did not want a political, but thorough, investigation.

Mr. Desmarais replied at some length, speaking in French, and the adjournment of the debate was moved by Mr. Macdonald (P.E.I.).

The House adjourned at midnight.

In Favor of Short Speeches.

Mr. Charlton has given notice of the following motion:

That the prevailing practice of delivering in the Canadian House of Commons speeches of great length, embracing voluminous and often irrelevant extracts, has introduced a discursive and diffuse rather than a concise and incisive style of public speaking; is destructive of pertinent debate upon public questions; is a waste of valuable time, unreasonably lengthens the sessions of Parliament; is in marked contrast to the practice that prevails with regard to debate in the British House of Commons, and tends to repel the public from a careful and intelligent consideration of the proceedings of Parliament.

That it is expedient that rules be adopted limiting the length of speeches and regulating the general conduct of debate in that regard. That a special committee should be formed to consider the question of Parliamentary debate, length of speeches, general conduct of debate and proper methods for securing the greatest promptitude in the despatch of business consistent with the Parliamentary rights of the minority, and the general interests of the public; and report its recommendations to this House.

IT WAS A MOST BRUTAL CRIME.

Lynching of a Colored Man Because He Was Elected Postmaster.

Charleston, S.C., April 11.—The trial of the thirteen citizens of Lake City for having lynched Postmaster Baker began here yesterday before Judge Brawley. There are 150 witnesses to be examined, but the end of the trial will probably be reached in two weeks. Two of the men against whom indictments were returned have turned State evidence. They are Joseph P. Newman and Early Lees. The men told how the mob assembled and of how the plan of murder was mapped out. They told of the midnight search made in the town for oil; how the mob moved stealthily to Baker's humble home, and how the oil was poured on the building, which was then fired. Then the witnesses told of the wild cries which came from them when the hapless inmates awoke, half suffocated, to flee, and were then shot down.

Baker's crippled family have come here for the trial. The mother of the children was badly wounded when the house was attacked and burned by the mob. She was holding the baby in her arms when she started to the door. A bullet from the mob passed through her arm, broke the bone and then buried itself in the head of the baby. The other children, driven out by the flames, were all badly wounded. The night was bitterly cold. The wounded children crawled into the woods, where they remained during the night. They were almost dead when rescued after daylight. These children will show their wounds to the court.

Baker, who is a colored man, was elected postmaster of Lake City. He received a warning shortly afterwards that if he attempted to fill the office he would be killed. Regardless of this he began his duties, which soon cost him his life.

Fountain of Health and New Life.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is the Mightiest and Most Effective of all Known Spring Medicines.

'Tis an Eminent Physician's Prescription.

Edward E. Phelps, M.D., L.L.D., a leading professor in the celebrated Dartmouth Medical College, first prescribed what is now known in every of the civilised world as Paine's Celery Compound, a positive cure for the common ailments and diseases of spring, such as blood troubles, kidney and liver complaints, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, neuralgia and rheumatism.

As a spring medicine, Paine's Celery Compound now occupies first place in the estimation of medical men. It has been tested by members of the profession in cases where ordinary prescriptions have failed, and in every instance the wonderful compound has maintained its claims and banished disease.

The action of Paine's Celery Compound on the nervous system in spring time is marvellous in health producing results. It quickly purifies the viitated and impure blood, braces the nerves, rebuilds the tissues adds to flesh and weight, increases the appetite, augments the powers of assimilation, and keeps the whole digestive organism in proper repair.

Paine's Celery Compound has done a grand work for millions in the past. Surely this is the best guarantee for those who are now ailing and physically broken down. Every city, town and village in this vast Dominion can furnish its proofs of the virtues of Paine's Celery Compound—well attested cures.

A few bottles of the great spring medicine used at this time will give every man and woman the blessing they are so earnestly seeking—true health.

MARKET REPORTS.

Liverpool Futures in Wheat Were Lower, But Chicago Held Its Own —The Latest Prices.

Liverpool, April 11.—Wheat futures opened at a decline over Sunday yesterday morning, and closed 5-8d per cental below Saturday's final figures.

Chicago, April 11.—The wheat market opened weak yesterday morning, and declined about 1c a bushel. At this low figure some good buying offered, and on fresh crop damage reports the price of futures was advanced 1⅛c. There was a later easing off, and the closing prices of the May and July options were about identical with Saturday's final figures.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 444,000 bushels; that of corn has decreased 936,000 bushels, and that of oats has increased 148,000 bushels. The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 66,111,000 bushels, against 67,907,000 bushels a week ago, and 69,889,000 bushels a year ago.

IT STANDS

Any way you look at it, The Sherwin-Williams Paint stands. White lead paint covers well, but it chalks and rubs off. Zinc paint spreads well, but it cracks and peels off. Neither one alone makes a durable paint. The Sherwin-Williams Paint combines the best qualities of both with the highest skill. It contains the best lead in the best proportion, the best zinc in the best proportion, and the best oil and drier and color, all in the best proportions. From every point of view it stands comparison with lead paint or zinc paint. It stands when exposed to the weather and hard wear. It stands alone—every can fully guaranteed, and behind the guarantee all the resources and the reputation of the Company.

WANTS

More wants are supplied, and supplied more quickly by means of THE EXAMINER want columns than in all other ways combined. THE EXAMINER is the popular paper read by all. It is the recognized medium for the supply of wants.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

BRING THE BEST RESULTS

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing market caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness:

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3 70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4 35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9 00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7 50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5 30
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

If canvas punts and boats do not exceed 20 feet they will be carried at first-class rates on all freight trains.

Quaint Sayings.

It is interesting and instructive to read bright and well constructed advertisements. Messrs C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, must have been at a great feast and taken everything home with them. They are using a bright selection of quaint old sayings and proverbs as the starters in a series of clever advertisements, wherein the proverbs are neatly turned and paraphrased to fit the subject matter. The public like this breezy advertising, as it reminds of other proverbs and opens up discussion.

Mr. Wm. Ray's Serious Loss on Monday Evening.

Monday evening about half past four o'clock Mr. Wm. Ray, of Otonabee, whilst on his way home from town had the misfortune to lose a fine team of horses.

It appears that he was approaching Jackson's crossing on the Grand Junction Railway, near the Joseph Redmond homestead, when a way freight was seen approaching from Belleville.

Mr. Ray jumped from the rig and endeavoured to hold the horses by the head, but they made a dash forward and crashed into into a flat Both horses were killed immediately.

Mrs .Ray and her daughterr, who were in the buggy at the time, were thrown out, but fortunately escaped injury.

Mr. Ray had already sold his fine team of colts for the handsome sum of $250.

FAREWELL ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Mr. H. S. Armstrong and Family Remembered by the Mark Street Church Congregation.

On Monday evening, April 10, at the close of the regular meeting of Mark street E. L. of C. E. those present availed themselves of the opportunity of saying "Good-bye" to Mr H. S. Armstrong and family who leave today for their new home in Hilton, Manitoba.

Mr. Armstrong and all his family have been faithful members of Mark street church, and have in many ways, rendered valuable assistance to all branches of church work, in the choir, in the Sunday school, in the Epworth League, in the Ladies' Aid Society, on the Trustee Boards, and in fact in every church organization.

Last Sunday evening the congregation were favoured with a very pleasing duet by Mr, and Miss Armstrong,

At an appropriate time during the reading of the address, Mis sLottie Kindred, on behalf of the many friends of Mr. Armstrong and family, presented Miss Edna Armstrong with a handsome watch and guard.

During the evening, in brief addresses, the pastor, Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph. B., Mr. Carton and Mr. Noyes expressed their deep regret at the family's departure and wished them success in their new home.

The address, read by Mr. M. W. Matchett, was as follows:

To Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Armstrong and family:

Dear Friends—We, the members of Mark street church, and of the various organizations in connection with it, take this, our only opportunity of unitedly saying good bye to you all, and of wishing you God-speed in your future home and future life.

We have been pleased to have had you all as members of our church and class meetings here, and as such you will be greatly missed.

You, Mr. Armstrong ,will be missed indeed in the various capacities in which you have served us, as choir leader, as parsonage trustee, and in many other ways, while in the Ladies' Aid Society, Sabbath School, etc., we have been greatly helped by Mrs. Armstrong.

In the Epworth League, in the Sunday School, both as organist and as pupil, and frequently as teacher, and in the choir Miss Edna Armstrong has rendered us and the cause of Christ valuable service, which we are quite sure will be remembered not only by us, but by the Master himself, to whom that service has been so ably and willingly rendered.

Also the younger members of your family, Bruce, Ida and Luella, we say good-bye to with regret. By their kindly dispositions they have endeared themselves to us, and we trust and pray that they may go on in the good way and grow up to lives of usefulness in the service of God.

We ask you, Miss Edna ,to accept this slight token of our good wishes, hoping it may serve as a reminder of the many friends you leave behind at Ashburnham.

We pray God's blessing to attend you all in your future Western home or wherever your lot may be cast, and if, in the changing scenes of life, we should not meet here again, we trust we may be all re-united in the better Home above.

Signed on behalf of the various organizations at Mark street, Ashburnham.

THE STOCK YARDS, TO BE OR NOT TO BE.

THAT IS THE QUESTION WITH THE SOUTH ENDERS.

Especially "Not to Be"—Indignation Meeting Last Night in the Park Street Baptist Church—Large Attendance—Spirited Discussion—Strong Protest Adopted—Deputation Appointed.

Last night about a hundred and fifty of the residents of the southern part of the town assembled in the Park street Baptist church to consider the question arising from the reported establishment of stock yards west of Park street at the head of Lake street, which is considered by the residents of the vicinity to be hostile to the comfort and well being of the neighborhood.

Rev. O. C. Elliott, the pastor of the church, heartily welcomed the gathering and was glad to see so many present to consider a question that so nearly affected the community.

Mr. N. T. LePlante was appointed chairman and Mr. A. L. Grover secretary.

The chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting to be to enter a protest against the establishment of a cattle yard in the vicinity of the place where they were assembled. He thought this ward had its full share of nuisances at present, and he believed that the residents would be justified in taking legal proceedings to prevent the establishment of stock yards; he for one, although he was averse to going to law, would be willing to contribute his share to the necessary cost.

Rev. O. C. Elliott pointed out that though it might be argued that the purchaser of the property in question had a right to do as he liked, that right was limited by a consideration of the rights of others. He submitted that the suggested stock yards would depreciate the value of property in the vicinity, which would have to be made up by other parts of the town.

Mr. C. B. Robertson didn't see that anything could be done to prevent Mr. Kennedy doing as he likes with his property until such time as his stock yards should prove to be a nuisance. He pointed out that a railway siding could not be run down the street without the permission of the council. He had objected to the previous proposal and had the same objection now. To assist in settling the question he would point out that there was an elegible site for cattle yards on a lot opposite Mayor Davis' residence, which would give the centre ward the benefit of the great advantages the presence of a stock yard would be to the neighborhood where it might be placed. (Applause and laughter.)

Mr. Walter Evans said he had visited the stock yards in Toronto, and had no doubt that they were a nuisance and that they greatly depreciated property in their vicinity.

Mr. Wm. White agreed with what had been advanced and said that though he had no personal interest in the matter he was present to show his sympathy.

The chairman asked if anybody knew whether the property had been bought.

Mr. — Stenton and Mr. — Hull both replied that Mr. Kennedy had told them that he had bought the property and intended to establish stock yards there. The latter added that the Mayor and Mr. Neill had examined the site and would oppose the project.

Alderman Hall was present and on being called upon said he had only come to listen in order to understand the situation and the feeling of the neighborhood.

Rev. Mr. Elliott very strongly protested against the project—on principal as it involved a plain injustice. Along the streets that would be affected by a cattle market workmen had spent a life time in building up homes which would be decreased to the extent of half their value by these stock yards. At the same time it would interfere with the work of the Park street Baptist Church and the work it had done in this part of the town would afford an indication of public sentiment as to a project that would injure its usefulness.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Moved by Mr. Walter Evans, seconded by Mr. Stenton

That, whereas it is the stated intention of a company to establish a cattle yard in the vacant lot at the head of Lake street and adjoining what is known as Lundy's Lane, and be situated between Parnell and Chamberlain streets, and that whereas the establishment of such cattle yards would be detrimental to the development of the community, and also decrease the value of the homes of many workmen who have invested in homes. Therefore we, the ratepayers of this end of the town most strongly protest against the establishment of the said cattle yards, and hereby call upon the municipal council to take the necessary action to prevent such cattle yards being established in any place in the south end where they would interfere with the interests of the ratepayers of the south end.

In answer to a question as to the necessity of cattle being fed in transit in Peterborough, Mr .Bamford, C. P. R. agent, who was present, in answering, said that he was desirous of seeing stock yards established in Peterborough, as they would be a great ,benefit to the town.

Messrs. Stenton and Evans and the chairman said they had no wish to interfere with Mr. Kennedy's business and would be glad to see him prosper so long as his yards were established where they would not injure any other interest.

The following gentlemen were appointed a delegation to wait upon the town council to lay before them the views of the meeting as expressed in the discussion and resolution adopted: Messrs. Letellier, Hull, Stenton, Walter Evans, P. McNamara and C. B. Robertson.

The meeting was very good natured, but there was no mistaking its spirit as being in determined opposition to the establishment of stock yards in any part of the south end that would interfere in any way with the interests or comfort of the residents in the vicinity. There was considerable desultory discussion and hearty applause was given the many points brought out touching the sympathy of the audience.

Idyl Wild to be Rebuilt.

Active preparations are on foot for booming Idyl Wild this summer. Mr. Doty, the proprietor of this well-known summer resort arrived in town from Rochester on Saturday. He was accompanied by Mr. W. J. MacDonald of Cobourg, who has secured a lease of the property from Mr. Doty. While in town plans for the rebuilding of the house were discussed and a contract entered into with Mr. Rutherford to proceed with the work of improvement at once, to be ready in time for summer tourists. The west half of the present building is to be pulled down and a new structure erected two storeys high, with wide balconies for each storey. The other half of the building will remain as at present for future consideration. The new wing is to be built after a modern style of American summer resorts, and will be made as inviting and comfortable as possible. Other changes and improvements are in contemplation by Mr. Doty, who believes he holds the situation of one of the prettiest summer resorts on the continent. Mr. MacDonald, the lessee, is an active and energetic young man and comes well recommended to conduct a first-class house.

RECEPTION SERVICES.

Twenty-five Admitted to the Membership of Charlotte Street Methodist Church.

A very interesting reception service was held in Charlotte street church on Sunday morning last, when the pastor, Rev. D. O. Crossley, received on profession of faith and letter, twenty-five persons into church fellowship.

The pastor and two of the officials of the church extended to each a cordial welcome as they surrounded the altar of the church. It was a very profitable service to the candidates themselves, but not less so to the congregation who witnessed the services with much satisfaction.

Nearly all of the candidates were adults, and gives promise of much added strength to the church and congregation.

THE RAUTENBERG'S CONCERT.

A Delightful Evening at St. Andrew's Church.

There was a large turn out last night in St. Andrew's Church Hall, where Master Bernnie Rautenberg delighted the audience with his sweet singing. For a boy only eleven years of age, Bernnie possesses a voice that is actually wonderful. His rendition of "The Heavenly Song," and "The Skippers of St. Ives" evoked the hearty praise of the meeting.

Mr. Rautenberg's descriptive lecture on "The Jewish Fatherland" was particularly interesting, and the lime light views on a canvass 18 feet square added greatly to the description of places and persons referred to. The views are taken from the best artists, and well executed, which, with the eloquence and ability of the lecturer, made a most profitable, as well as a pleasing evening's entertainment.

Mr. Rautenberg gave a few of the pictures from his lecture on "Sharps and Flats" or "Behind the Scenes in Pokerdam," which he intends to give on Friday night in St. Andrew's Hall. He also exhibited some dissolving views, the like of which has not been seen in town for many a year.

Mr. Rautenberg and his son Bernnie sang in closing "Rock of Ages" and illustrated the different sections of the hymn with very rich and choice views. Great appreciation was expressed at the close until the services rendered.

Master Bernnie will sing several selections next Friday night, when the admission will be a silver collection of ten cents and upwards.

TOWN TOPICS.

While the ambition of the Town Council to have a share in beautifying our parks is to be commended their desire to supersede the Horticultural Society in the management of Victoria Park is quite another matter. The Society has done the work well in the past to the entire satisfaction of the public and to the credit of the town which under their administration has gained the reputation of having one of the prettiest and best kept parks in the country. The interest of Victoria Park demands that the Society should remain in charge. If, as things now look, the Council persists in ousting the Horticultural Society, Victoria Park may again revert to its former unkempt and cow-pasture condition. The Park is owned by the county and as we understand the town has no proprietory interest in it. It is under lease, since 1885, for twenty years to the Horticultural Society. If the town council persists in its present attitude the society will probably at the June session of the County Council resign to lease and the park will revert to the county. The County which now contributes $75 per year towards the maintainance of the park cannot be expected to maintain it in the future as the society has kept it in the past, and the park will of necessity return to something of the condition of the Central and other parks that now show what council care of our parks means, as applied in the past. It is stated that as a corporation the town of Peterborough has no proprietory interest in Victoria Park, and it is doubtful in the event of the Horticultural Society resigning the lease, whether the County will grant a similar lease to the town. Sometimes it is advisable to leave well-enough alone; and the present custody and care of Victoria Park by the Horticultural Society seems to be one of these things that should not be disturbed.

The disposition shown by the town to better the condition of our park spaces is, as before remarked, to be commended and welcomed. The attractiveness and beauty of our town consists apart from its material advantages, very largely in our parks and trees. We are all proud of our well shaded streets and no reasonable trouble or expense should be considered too great to preserve them. Last year the caterpillars did a great deal of harm which would have been much greater but for the energetic efforts put forth by the town to destroy the bracelets. This year the bracelets each of which is good for from 300 to 400 caterpillars, if allowed to hatch, appear in great numbers, and another energetic crusade by the town is quite in order, in fact imperative if we would save our trees from destruction. The pest threatens to be bad enough, no matter how thoroughly we destroy the bracelets but it will be a hundred times worse if no action is taken. To-day is not an hour too early to begin destroying the bracelets if a thorough job is aimed at. The best of information as to how to proceed should be procured. Toronto, it is said, was very successful in its crusade against the worms and their method might profitable be inquired into.

The town also proposes planting some more trees, and in this connection it is suggested that the elm is the best tree to plant, for many reasons. It is hardy, grows rapidly and develops into a stately tree. Last year the men who destroyed the bracelets of the caterpillars, did not it is asserted, find a single one on the elm trees, which were not disturbed by the caterpillars. The maple tree grows beautifully, but it is not as hardy as the elm. The habit of growth of the maple is such that in places where the soil is shallow the tree grows beautifully for a few years but suddenly some year we see fine maples of good size die without an apparent cause. The roots have probably penetrated to the gravel below which affords no sustenance. On the other hand the elm throws out its roots in a lateral direction which will go far to get nourishment. Consequently no matter what the soil we seldom see an elm die except from some external injury. The Canadian elm grown in a nursery is the best for planting. The roots are the best developed, and growth is more certain. But good trees with good roots being secure, proper planting and subsequent care are indispensable to success. A man should be employed who dosen't as is frequently done, use the methods employed in setting a fence post. A little good soil and a little care mixed with a good deal of brains are necessary to the proper planting of a tree, which after proper planting should be well watched, well watered and securely staked.

THE HERALD WINS.

The Montreal Herald has won in the matter of the charge of criminal libel preferred by Chief of Police Hughes, Montreal, in respect to a criticism of his administration by the Herald. This morning the jury returned a verdict in favour of the Herald. The Examiner gives its most cordial congratulations, not only because brother journalists have been successful, but on broader grounds, the vindication of the right of the press to criticize the conduct of civic offiials in the interests and the well being of their employers. The charge, whose hearing lasted about ten days, was most exhaustively investigated, and in this the Herald has, though involuntarily, been indirectly instrumental in serving the city through the light thrown upon civic methods by the evidence adduced. As previously stated in these columns the Herald has been making a grand fight on behalf of the interests of the city of Montreal. It is still continuing the crusade, and it is gratifying to know that its hands will be upheld by the result of the trial. One of the functions of a public journal is to advance and protect the public interest, and one of the means by which this protection is afforded is by exposing wrong doing on the part of public officials. This course the Herald has pursued without malice and with a single eye to the public interest, and though this course has involved sacrifice, and as in the case just decided, prosecution, Mr. Brierly and the Herald have come through the ordeal unscathed, as gold is purified by fire, and with an increased influence for good and increased public confidence in its desire to serve the public and promote the public good. The results springing from the trial in question will be far reaching. The Herald has not only won its case, but it has won for itself a wider and stronger influence and has strengthened the hands of the whole journalistic guild by vindicating the right of the newspaper to serve the public interests by attacking official wrong doing, and, malice apart, without submitting to the kick of the "galled jade." With the congratulations to the Herald go the thanks to its contemporaries.

OBITUARY.

The Late Mrs. Patrick Creamer.

The death took place Monday at noon of one of the oldest residents of the district in the person of Mrs. Patrick Creamer, aged 67 years.

The deceased lady, whose maiden name was Miss Margaret Jackson, was a daughterr of the late Robert Jackson, and was born in the county of Cavan in 1832. She came to Canada in 1849 with her sisters and settled in Emily township. There she married Mr. Patrick Creamer, and both resided in Emily until a few years ago, when they removed to town.

Mrs. Creamer was a member of the Church of England, and was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends. The daughters are: Mrs. P. Henselwood, of Moosejaw, Man.; Mrs. Joseph H. Yelland, of town; Mrs. M. Hamlin, of Winnipeg; and Mrs. Geo. Baker, town. The sons are: Wm. and Fred, of town, and Harry, of New York, who was at home before the end came. Two sisters, Mrs. William Brown, of Bobcaygeon, and Mrs. Jas. Duncan, of town, and one brother, Mr. John Jackson, Verulam, also survive.

The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Death of Florence May Noble.

The death took place Monday night at the residence of Mr. J. E. Noble, 195 Simcoe street, of his second eldest daughter, Florence Mary, aged 6 years and 3 months. The cause of death was consumption of the brain, from which she has suffered for the past three weeks. She was a pupil of the South Ward Kindergarten, and the funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Tender Accepted.

Building operations are in sight. Mr. Richard Sheehy, of the firm of Dolan & Sheehy, who made a satisfactory job of the pavement contract has been awarded the contract for the superstructure of the new power house of the Peterborough Light and Power Company. He is ready to begin operations at once.

The Sidewalk Pavement.

Mr. Frank Dolan of Belleville, of the firm of Dolan & Sheehy, is in town to-day making arrangements for beginning work as soon as the weather permits, upon the reconstruction of the post office pavement, the contract for which was awarded to the firm last fall too late, however to insure a good job if constructed then.

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND

A Message of Peace and Good-will to Women.
A Burden Lifted From Her Shoulders.
Adapted to the Finest or Coarsest Fabrics.
No Steam! No Boiling! No Odor! No Toil!

10 Reasons Why Miracle Compound is a Boon to Womanhood.

1. No boiling of Clothes required. 2. No rubbing or scrubbing of clothes. 3. No soaking of clothes over night. 4. You purify, preserve and disinfect all clothes washed with Miracle Compound. 5. Clothes made yellow from the use of washing powders and age are restored to their orginal whiteness, and become as new by the use of Miracle Compound. 6. All clothes washed with Miracle Compound we positively guarantee to last three times as long, because all dirt is removed and they escape the friction of the wash-board. 7. Woollens washed with Miracle Compound will not shrink, but are made soft and new. 8. Our experience teaches us that Miracle Compound has no equals in powders and soaps for washing clothes, and so carefully are the component parts of the Miracle Compound blended that we will cheerfully give $50 for any case where directions are followed and the results claimed are not obtained. 9. A 5 cent cake does a large washing. 10. You wash while you rest.

For Wood-work and Glass, after the suds have done there duty on wash-day it has no equal.

FORCED TO KILL HIMSELF.

He Was Declared Officially Dead and Then Driven to Suicide.

This is a true story: In San Francisco there's a Chinese secret society the laws of which are as strict and unchanging as those of the Medes and Persians. One of the members of this society told some of its secrets—an offense punishable by death. He was to be tried in the usual way before a tribunal of the society.

The night of the ordeal was fixed. The culprit was represented by able counsel, but the sentence was death—as was expected. An executioner was called from an adjoining room. He was a strapping big Chinaman and wore one of those hideous wooden masks that art critics think so beautiful. He carried a double edged sword fully five feet long. To test the edge he folded a newspaper in eight parts, and the knife went through those eight thicknesses of paper as if it were a bit of butter in summer time.

The culprit was put down upon his knees, and another Chinaman, also on his knees, faced him and caught the traitor by the cue. He drew the culprit's neck toward him, the smock was pulled over his shoulders, and with one mighty swing the double edged sword descended. Like a flash it clove the air and then—stopped. A fractional part of an inch separated the sword from the victim's neck. Very, very gently the executioner brought the weapon down until it just touched the traitor's neck. Then, as it is a crime to kill a man in San Francisco, he stopped. He brought the sword to his side again, turned to the judges and said:

"The culprit is dead."

The newly executed got to his feet and said something to the judge. The judge did not heed—for the culprit was dead. He tried to speak to the Chinamen, who were hurrying from the hall. But he spoke to deaf ears. To all intents and purposes he was a dead man.

He made his way into the street and the first thing that caught his eye was a huge poster proclaiming to all Chinatown that he had been executed that evening. No one would speak to him, no one would look at him. He was a dead man—just as dead as if the executioner's sword had in reality descended.

For a whole week that man wandered about Chinatown, the posters proclaiming his execution staring him in the face at every turn. Not a crust of bread could he beg, not a mouthful of water. His people knew him as dead—he was past, gone, buried.

And so one day he wandered up into the American portion of San Francisco and stole a revolver from a messenger boy, who was showing it to some companions. Then he ran down into Chinatown, sat down on the pavement beneath one of his own death notices and blew the addled brains out of his poor Chinese head.—Philadelphia Press.

Accounted For the Fit.

Hon. George R. Peck so keenly appreciates a good joke that he tells the following on himself

"When, after a foreign trip, I was being welcomed by some of my friends in Topeka, I wore a suit of clothes made by a London tailor that was uncomfortably tight in places. I expressed my surprise that a loose fit in London should prove a tight fit in Topeka, whereupon an Irishman of the party exclaimed

"'Mr. Peck, don't forget you're a bigger man in Topayka than you were in London.'"

A RICH PLODDER.

Young John D. Rockefeller Puts on the Heavy Harness of Business.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., who has just made his bow in the business world by being elected one of the directors of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, is an exception among rich men's sons. This young man, whose father has piled up more millions than all his relatives could spend in two generations, is doing none of the things which most young men do under similar circumstances. He is neither an idler, a sport nor a spendthrift.

Instead he is working as hard as if he had his own fortune to make. He does not smoke or drink. On weekdays he goes regularly to his desk. On Sundays he attends church and teaches a Sunday school class. He spends his evenings at home and ignores both theaters and society. At 23 he enters the business world a quiet, unassuming young man, who evidently intends to work hard and do something on his own account.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has grown up under his father's eye, and there is no evidence that he has ever wished to rebel at the parental supervision. Even when he was away from home at college he was classed among the quiet students and never distinguished himself by the escapades which sometimes signalize the escape from leading strings of the heirs of great fortunes. His natural talent for business, however, displayed itself while he was at Brown, and he was made business manager of the football team, a post of dignity and importance among undergraduates.

His education did not cease with his return from college, for his father lost no time in making a place for him in the office where the enormous interests of the great Standard Oil company, of which he is the head, are managed. The son, however, did not step into a sinecure. His employment in his father's office was not a vain pretense. The elder Rockefeller had begun with nothing but a strong will and a capacious brain, and he knew the value of a thorough mastery of details. He resolved that his son should have a training which should mean something and which would not leave him defenseless when the time came for him to stand alone.

Therefore the young man received no privileges that were not accorded equally to the other clerks, and he asked none. He took to business as if the love of it had been born in him. In this manner he learned the power and the value of money and all the intricacies of the management of the scores of diverse plans and industries in which his father is interested.

Young Mr. Rockefeller will probably not appear as a speculator on the financial exchanges. He will gradually assume other positions of responsibility, and in time the load of wealth which now burdens his father's shoulders may be shifted to the son's.

Experience in England.

Diamond Dyes have First Place in the Old Land.

A Hamilton Lady says: "Diamond Dyes are Far Above All Others."

Mrs. J. S. Burton, Hamilton, Ont., says: "While living in England I had considerable experience in home dyeing work, and never had perfect success there till I used the Diamond Dyes. When I came to Canada I still used the Diamond Dyes, and am using them now, and will never have any other kind to do my work. Diamond Dyes are far above all others.

Truly Delightful.

Hicks—I saw Gabble and Maunder a little while ago. I was quite delighted.

Wicks—Delighted to see a couple of such outrageous bores?

Hicks—They had just separated as I came within earshot. Gabble soliloquized, "That fellow makes me so weary!" and Maunder said to himself, "I'll bet I've lost a pound of flesh."—Boston Transcript.

Who She Was.

"Tell me honestly," said the novel reader to the novel writer, "did you ever see a woman who stood and tapped the floor impatiently with her toe for several moments, as you describe?"

"Yes," was the thoughtful reply; "I did once."

"She was a clog dancer."—Tit-Bits.

Doubtful.

"Yes; I had a box of poisoned candy sent to myself and tried it on my wife's pug."

"And"—

"And now she is divided between joy at my escape and suspicions that it was a job put up on the dog."—Indianapolis Journal.

IT'S TOO RISKY

To undergo an operation for itching Piles when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is a surer, cheaper, easier way to cure.

Cruel, barbarous methods belong to the dark ages of the past. There was a time when a surgical operation was considered the only possible cure for piles. Not so now. Occasionally there is still found a physician who adheres to this dangerous and expensive method, but to every one who still believes in using the knife, ninety and nine recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in The American Journal of Health, said:

"We know that 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, that it will be held in high esteem wherever it is used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

By force of merit alone Dr. Chase's Ointment has won its way into this wide, wide world, until it has made the name of Dr. Chase familiar in almost every home, and won for the venerable discoverer the title of "America's Greatest Physician."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has never been known to fail as a cure for piles. It matters not whether blind, itching, bleeding or protruding, Dr. Chase's Ointment is an absolute and perfect cure.

An Original Verdict.

A coroner's jury delivered the following verdict on the sudden death of a merchant who had recently failed in business:

"We, the jury, find from the new doctor's statement, that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, superinduced by business failure, which was caused by speculation failure, which was the result of failure to see far enough ahead."—Atlanta Constitution.

The Lady's Vow.

The Lady Ethelinda swore
(Though not at all profane)
When Glory's call Sir Thaddeus bore
Across the raging main,
That she would break bread nevermore
Till he returned again!

He went, yet nature varied not
To run her usual round.
Zero was cold and ninety hot,
The grass grew on the ground,
The sun still rose in that same spot
Where it of yore was found.

He came. "In many a bloody strife,"
He cried, "the days have sped
Since for my sake, my own, my life,
Thou hast not broken bread!"
"Nay, love, I cut it with a knife!"
That true souled lady said.

ENGLAND LEADS IN DRINKING.

The Hope That She Had Fallen Behind Unrealized.

London, April 9.—An official statement just issued shows England to be the greatest drinking nation in the world, a discovery which has astonished her people, who hoped she had fallen behind in the alcoholic race.

Of beer England drinks 30.31 gallons per head per annum; America, 12.20; Germany, 25.50; France, 5.10. Wine—England drinks .39 gallons; America, .44; Germany, 1.84; France, 21.80.

Of spirits England drinks 1.02 per head; America, .84; Germany and France both 1.89.

This gives England's total consumption 32.71 gallons; America's, 13.48; Germany's, 28.73; France, 28.79.

The drinking of wine is decreasing in England, while that of spirits and beer is increasing.

That's Why.

Edith—Who were those people here this afternoon, mamma?

Mamma—Professor Bighead and his wife, dear. The professor is one of the best informed men in the city.

"How do you know he is? He never opened his mouth once."—Yonkers Statesman.

Why We Are Right Handed.

A professor who has made a study of children says he has discovered why the majority of people are right handed. Infants use both hands until they begin to speak. The motor speech function controls the right side of the body, and the first right handed motions are expressive motions, tending to help out speech. As speech grows, so does right handedness.

The Place He Sought.

"Here's an item to the effect that the only thing a man can do in New York without money is to run into debt."

"Great mackerel! If a fellow can do that, I'm going to New York. They must be easier there than they are in Chicago."—Chicago Post.

Take B.B.B. This Spring.

'Twill purify the system—Give you strength and energy.

Very few people escape the enervating influence of spring weather

There is a dullness, drowsiness and inaptitude for work on account of the whole system being clogged up with impurities accumulated during the winter months.

The liver is sluggish, the bowels inclined to be constipated, the blood impure, and the entire organism is in need of a thorough cleansing.

Of all "Spring Medicines," Burdock Blood Bitters is the best.

It stimulates the sluggish liver to activity, improves the appetite, acts on the bowels and kidneys, purifies and enriches the blood, removes all poisonous products, and imparts new life and vigor to those who are weak and debilitated.

7 Big Boils. Mr. Wm. J. Hepburn writes from Centralia, Ont.: "I can sincerely say that Burdock Blood Bitters is the best spring medicine on the market. Last spring my blood got out of order, and I had seven or eight good sized boils come out on my body, and the one on my leg was much larger than an egg. I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and inside of six days, when only half the bottle was taken, there wasn't a boil to be seen. I have recommended B.B.B. to different people in our village, and all derived benefit from it. I wish B.B.B. every success, as it is indeed a great medicine for the blood.

Every Spring. Mrs. Aggie Barnes, Lunenburg, N.S., writes: "I have taken B.B.B. every spring now for some years, to purify my blood and keep my system in good order, and can honestly say that I do not know of its equal anywhere."

GOOD HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Weak, Sickly Women to Robust Health.

Any irregularities in the monthly uterine action is sufficient cause for women to be alarmed about their health. Whether painful, suppressed or profuse menstruation, the cause can be traced to some derangement of the nerves.

A few boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will completely build up the exhausted nerves and restore the regular monthly action which removes from the body the clogged matter that would otherwise cause pain and serious disease.

It is as a restorative for pale, weak women that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has been singularly successful. It counteracts the debilitating diseases peculiar to women by feeding the nerves and creating new nerve fluid, the vital force of the human body.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has restored scores of hundreds of weak, sickly women to robust health. 50c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's new illustrated book "The Ills of Life and How to Cure Them," sent free to your address.

THE FUN FOUNDRY.

No Doubt About It.

I have hung around the auctions
For a dozen years or more,
I am filled with recollections
Of the distant days of yore,
When an uncut "first edition'
Wasn't worth a dollar ten
That would now bring several hundred
From a dozen different men;
I have read book prices current
And of catalogues a pile,
Making notes of sales and buyers
On the margins there the while;
I have heard a million stories
Of the "finds" that have been made
By the mothy, musty faddists
That before the shelves have staid
Till the owners of the volumes
In a frenzy—not delight—
Have requested them to leave 'em
While they locked up for the night.
I have waited full of patience,
I have wandered in and out,
But I've come to the conclusion
As myself from fads I've weaned
That the greatest living liar
Is the "first edition fiend.'

Mustaches or Not?

At a recent meeting of club women it was decided that mustaches are better than clean shaved upper lips—

"Except for waiters."

"And actors; they have to make so many changes."

"And football or rowing men, because it looks athletic."

"And young poets, because it looks decadent and fin-de-siecle."

"And any one else who looks better without."

Itching Piles.

False modesty causes many people to endure in silence the greatest misery imaginable from itching piles. One application of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment will soothe and ease the itching, one box will completely cure the worst case of blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles. You have no risk to run for Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles.

GERM CELLS OF LIFE.

THEY RETAIN VITALITY EVEN AFTER APPARENT DEATH.

A Startling Theory Showing That Instant Death Is an Impossibility and That We May Be Conscious For Some Time After Dissolution.

"You often meet with the phrase "death was instantaneous," and you believe it, but instant death is impossible.

A professor has been studying the subject, a man of renown in his own world, and he has discovered certain important data proving conclusively that no one can meet with instant death He works out his theory on the data afforded by the physiology of cells. He states that no one yet has proved the difference between a dead and a live brain cell. When this has been done, then we can more easily ascertain how long a time elapses before the death of a cell takes place.

But, first, what is a cell? To be brief, both plants and animals—including, of course, man—are built up of units, elementary units, which you can only detect under the microscope. Now, each tiny cell is a vital elementary unit. We are nothing but highly developed results of the individual vitality of huge quantities of these fundamental cells.

As this is undeniably so, how is it possible, by simple decapitation, say, to cause instant death in the millions of cells which compose the brain? It is known that brain cells have their own cell life and are liable to live a certain time after they are cut off from outside nutrition without the supply of any blood whatever from the body. The nourishment is supplied inside the cell walls, and it can go on living after being cut off from other resources.

From this argument it is clear to the professor that these millions of cells in the brain must continue to live after death has apparently intervened—that is, when death appears, but only on the outside, to have been instantaneous.

After a man's leg is cut off, or an animal's, you can stimulate the nerves for a long time, but you cannot do it after the cells are dead. You cannot get any response at all.

Electricity has been thought to be the germ of life, but this is a fanciful theory when confronted with the new laws as by research established.

The countless millions of cells of which our bodies are entirely composed contain the germ of life, and it is impossible for these to be visited with an instantaneous unconsciousness.

You can take living cells from a pig's glands, and this same professor will demonstrate to you that after these glands have gone through their preparation the cells are still living.

But the curious fact remains that at present there are no data showing the supposed length of time it takes for the cells of the brain to empty themselves of the germ of consciousness or life, but it is certain that consciousness does not cease immediately after, say, a head has been cut off a body. The belief, however, is that at least four or five minutes must elapse ere death finally steps in to arrest life.

It has been noticed in the case of a decapitated head that the cheeks remain red for some minutes after the severance, a conclusive proof that the cells are living.

The heads of decapitated animals have continued to bite and snap at the air for three or four minutes after severance. This phenomenon is well marked in the head of a tortoise separated from the body. The life of the brain, therefore, must be retained for some time after the head is severed, from the very fact that, though being separated from the trunk, its nutritious blood and gases, taken from the fund stored up in the cells, are in sufficient quantity to carry on life, but for what exact period is unknown.

Do the brain cells die simultaneously? No, because they have their own individual cell life. Our scientific friend also makes the very startling statement that in many diseases the brain cells, although the person to all appearances is dead, may live for three or four hours after supposed death has taken place.

In the case of a healthy person being hanged, seeming death is not instantaneous at all. Organic motion is arrested, but real death is certainly not instantaneous. The brain cells are the last to die, and life is not really extinct until rigor mortis sets in, which, in the case of a healthy person dying suddenly, is protracted.

Now, when it is known that an ordinary cell lives after being removed from a living body, why, then, cannot the brain cells retain their life when the conditions immediately surrounding them are much the same as during their previous existence?

The head of a chicken was cut off, and after certain stimuli had been made it opened its mouth and gasped five minutes after its head had been decapitated from the body

The head of a certain animal was cut off and found susceptible to light for many minutes after it was apparently dead. A strong electric light was held in front of the eyes and moved alternately near to and far away from them. The pupils of the eyes followed the light in its movements, expanding and contracting, that is to say, focusing themselves upon the light as it moved backward and forward. It was proved that the animal was capable of smelling by the use of certain pungent odors placed near the nasal organs—and all this because the brain cells were yet living.

No Right To Ugliness

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and so purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents, at J. Lynch's drug store.

The Weak Spot.

When a boiler explodes carrying death and destruction with it, every body says "Why: we thought it was strong enough: It must have had a weak spot somewhere!" When a man who has the outward appearance of being sound and strong suddenly falls a prey to disease, his friends exclaim: "why we thought he was all right: He must have had a weak spot somewhere."

The fact is, almost everybody has a weak spot somewhere. Death and disease are always looking for weak spots. If your stomach or your liver won't do its proper work, if your body fails to get its full nourishment from the food you eat, and your brain loses part of the sleep it ought to have, no matter how big your frame and muscular your limbs may be, you will give out; disease will find the weak spot, and nature will give way.

"I wish to say to the world that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has proved a great blessing to me as I firmly believe I should be in a very bad state now if I had not taken it," writes Mrs. Ellen E. Bacon, of Shutesbury, Franklin Co., Mass., in a courteous communication to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "Prior to September 1897, I had doctored for my stomach trouble for several years, going through a course of treatment without any real benefit. In September 1896, I had very sick spells and grew worse; could eat but little. I commenced in September 1897, to take Dr. Pierce's medicine and in a short time I could eat and work. I have gained twenty pounds in two months."

This glorious "Discovery" gives the stomach and liver power to do their natural work regularly and completely. It makes healthy blood and steady nerves. It builds up the weak spots sound and strong. It is the only medicine that can be relied upon to accomplish this promptly and thoroughly.

Constipation is nine times in ten the beginning and one of the first symptoms of dangerous diseases. When this tendency is present Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used in conjunction with the "Discovery."

Novel Swindling Scheme.

Among the battered flotsam and jetsam that has accumulated in a secondhand store not a great distance from Jackson square is a shabby round table with a curious secret and no doubt a still more curious history. The top was once covered with green billiard cloth, which now is worn to tatters and discloses a steel plate set in the center and perhaps ten inches square.

The whole top is loose and can be removed, revealing an interior space containing a horseshoe magnet wound with wire and connected with an armature very much like that of an ordinary telegraphic instrument. A close examination shows an insulated wire running down one of the legs to a small knob or button, protruding on the outside. When the top is in place, the steel plate rests directly over the magnet. This strange device is explained clearly enough by its present owner. "It is a dice table," he said, "on which a lot of money has been won. When it was in order, there was a good sized battery inside, connected with the magnet. When the knob on the leg was pressed, the current was turned on, and that made the steel plate magnetic. The dice they used with it had small metal disks on one face, and as long as the current was on they naturally fell that side down. When the knob was released, they would fall any way they chanced to come, so all that was necessary for the operator to do was to keep his knee on the button and he could absolutely control his play."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Liar and the Thief.

Lying is of all mean traits of character the most despicable. This is the crying sin of the age—that men do not value their word. If a man steals and is caught, the world brands him a thief and shuns him; he can never outlive it; but if he lies, though it may be proved, he is still respectable, and if he profit by the lie he is esteemed especially clever and smart.

But the thief is not near so dangerous to society as the liar. We can protect ourselves against thieves, we can guard our possessions, but the liar can penetrate the strongest fortress and blast the most precious of our possessions. He can go into court and rob or murder at will. He can blast a life or ruin a fortune and there is no redress.

Subtleties.

Intercourse with Christians had given the savage a taste, among other things, for dialectic subtleties.

"I spare your life," he said to the captive.

"Thank you," the captive replied, not forgetting his manners.

"So you owe me your life, don't you?" asked the savage.

"Oh, yes!" said the captive.

"Well, then, if I take your life, I won't be stealing, will I?" exclaimed the savage.

It was clear this benighted person took a truly civilised delight in bunkoing his ethical sensibilities for the benefit of his propensities

Clean Coal Mines.

The Chilean coal mines, opened in 1855, seem to be nice places to work in. The seam of coal runs from the shore under the waters of the Pacific ocean, and the tunnels are so clean that you could walk through them in a dress suit without making yourself dirty. They are lighted by electricity, and you can have a ride for a mile under the ocean on an electric car at a speed of 20 miles an hour. The mines form quite a catacomb of well lighted passages under the water. The output of coal is now 1,000 tons a day, and 750 miners are employed in them.

Cycling and Alcohol.

"Remember," says an experienced New York physician, "that alcohol stimulates the heart and circulation in much the same way as exercise does and that if you use it in any form while wheeling the reaction is speedy and farreaching."

In the same way a long ride should never be undertaken immediately after a plentiful meal, this also tending to interfere with the heart's action and respiration.

A Foreign Writer's Burden.

"I find your political terms very puzzling," remarked the foreigner who was trying to gather material for a book on American institutions. "For example, to rotate means to move in a circle. A ring also means a circle. Now I am told that when a ring controls your offices they don't rotate any more."

A European statistician has discovered that only 55 per cent of the blonds marry, while 79 per cent of their brunette sisters engage in matrimony

ORDERS RECEIVED BY THE ELECTRIC WORKS.

BUSINESS BOOMING AT THE LOCAL SHOPS.

The Canadian General Electric Co. Receive Large Orders from Different Parts of the Dominion—Election of Directors.

The April number of the Canadian Engineer contains the following items of interest—concerning the large number of large orders that have recently been received by the Canadian General Electric Company:

The Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., is installing an 800 light alternating dynamo for Jas. Knox, of Stayner, Ont.

The Montreal Novelty Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co. for a 6 k.w. Edison generator.

The University of New Brunswick has purchased an experimental electric plant from the Canadian General Electric Co.,

The Montreal Cotton Co., of Valleyfield, Que., has ordered another 100 h.p. induction motor for the Canadian General Electric Co.

The Winnipeg Electric Street Railway Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co. for two additional Canadian General Electric "1,000' 2-motor equipments.

The Canadian General Electric Co. has received an order from Standen & Perrine, of Rossland, B. C., for a standard induction three-phase motor.

The Brantford Street Railway Co., Brantford, Ont., is installing six Canadian General Electric "800" railway motors, purchased from the Canadian General Electric Co.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co. for one 75 k. w. three-phase synchronous motor for the Trail smelter, Trail, B. C.

The Penman Mnfg. Co., of Paris, Ont., is adding an 84 k.w. generator of the Canadian General Electric Co.'s make to the present plant.

Cauliffe & Ablett, Vancouver, B.C., have bought from the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., two 50 h.p. three-phase induction motors.

The Guelph Street Railway Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., for a multipolar railway generator of 110 k.w. capacity.

The Montreal Street Railway Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., for ten more two motor G.E. 1,000 motor equipments.

The Department of Railways and Canals has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., for additional plant to be used on the canal at Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

The Canadian General Electric Co. is supplying the Hospital St. Jean de Dieu of Longue Point, Que., with a motor equipment of the standard Canadian General Electric 1,200-motors, including controllers, rheostats, etc.

The Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Co. are installing complete lighting outfits on two of its boats, consisting of Canadian General Electric Company's multipolar generators of 30 k.w. capacity directly connected to high speed engines.

The Kentville, N. S., Electric Light and Power Company is installing as an increase to the present plant, two multipolar generators of 45 k.w. each, which will be supplied by the Canadian General Electric Co., Limited.

The Lindsay Light, Heat and Power Co. has placed an order with the Canadian General Electric Company, Limited, for one multipolar generator of 25 k.w. capacity, which is intended as an addition to the present power plant.

A. S. Bowes, Kemptville, Ont., has purchased the lighting plant recently operated by Mr. Collins of that town, and is installing a standard 1,000 light alternator of the Canadian General Electric Co.'s make, together with a complete new transformer and arc lighting system.

The T. Eaton Co., Ltd., Toronto, has given the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., a contract to supply another 150 kw. 110 volt direct connected generator, as an addition to its already extensive plant. This company will now have probably the largest and most modern isolated plant in Canada.

The Montreal Cotton Co., Valleyfield, Que., is constantly increasing its large electric transmission plant, of which the three-phase induction motor is found so satisfactory for cotton mill operation. There have recently been ordered from the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., three motors of 75, 50 and 10 h.p., respectively.

The Folger Hammond Mines Co. has given a contract to the Canadian General Electric Co., Ltd., which covers the installation of a complete transmission plant to operate their stamp mills and compressors from a water fall some three miles distant from the line. The generating plant will consist of a three-phase generator of 150 k.w. capacity, operating at 2,000 volts. For operating the machinery there will be supplied one 100 h.p. three-phase induction motor and one 20 h.p.

"At the annual meeting of the Canadian General Electric Company all the old directors who are eligible were re-elected. The following comprise the board for the present year: W. R. Brock, president; H. P. Dwight, first vice-president; Frederick Nicholls, second vice-president and managing director; Hon. Geo. A. Cox, W. D. Matthews, Robert Jaffray, E. B. Osler, J. K. Kerr, S. D. Greene, E. W. Rice, jun., and H. Parsons.

BAD BOYS IN COURT.

They Were Guilty of Stealing Lead Pipe on April 3rd.

At the Police Court this morning, the charge of stealing lead pipe from the Grand Central Hotel on April 3rd, preferred against two boys, came up for hearing.

The Magistrate referred to the serious nature of the offence, which had become quite prevalent of late years throughout the country, the penalty which was imprisonment for seven years.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun was present on behalf of the father of one of the culprits, and made a strong and eloquent appeal for the boy. The father had promised to make restitution for the damage done, and to keep a watchful eye on the young boy in the future.

The Magistrate gave the youths some sound practical advice as to their course in the future, and pointed out to them the enormity of the offence committed, and the severity with which the law dealt with offences of this nature. He allowed the boys to go on suspended sentence.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Dan Menzies left this morning to take a position in Rochester, N.Y.

Miss Madge McGill returned to St. Margaret's College to-day.

Miss Helen and Adelaide Manson, who have been spending the Easter holidays with Miss Madge McGill, returned to Toronto to-day.

Miss Manson, Toronto, is spending a week with Miss Ethel Moore.

Miss H. Ellen Beavis of Hastings, is in town the guest of her nephew, Mr. W. Christie, Gilmour street.

Miss Lucy Stevenson, formerly on the teaching staff of the Ashburnham Public School, left yesterday for the Northwest, where she has secured a school.

Rev. Dr. Herridge of Ottawa, who will be in Peterborough May 7th, and who was recently created a Doctor of Divinity, has had a brilliant career both as a student and as a minister.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin and family of Otonabee left this morning for Dakota, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. W. J. Wiseman Jr., of Havelock, who has been attending the Peterborough Business College for some time, passed through town this morning on his way to Winnipeg, where he has secured a good situation.

The names of Mrs. Robert Hall, and Mrs. Dr. Scott, were not included in the list supplied the Examiner of the ladies on the refreshment committee at the Y.M.C.A. Bazaar.

In a letter received by the Examiner from Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, since his departure from town, he says, speaking in relation to his work; "Permit me to add to my general acknowledgement of the services of the press of Peterborough, my very sincere appreciation of the kindness of the Evening Examiner and of the proficiency of the services which its columns ever exhibited."

THE BY-TOWN COONS.

Widespread Popularity.

Montreal, April 10.

"The Songs of the By-Town Coons," that have been running in the Montreal Star, created such a demand for back numbers of that paper that the publishers were unable to meet it, and announced that all the cartoons and songs would be assembled under one cover, making a portfolio of twenty-eight pages, printed on high class paper, the most unique thing ever published in Canada. The opening sale was announced to-day at the Star Office, at ten o'clock. By eight o'clock the office was beseiged by purchasers, and so great is the demand for the "By-Town Coons" that by one o'clock the supplies that were expected to last two days were all exhausted, and the suspension of the sale had to be announced until such time as the binders could furnish further supplies. The orders pouring into the Star Office from all points of Canada attest the immense popularity of the publication. The news-companies were utterly unable to fill a tithe of the orders they had booked, and had to make partial shipments. The sale, and excitement attendant upon it, recalls the enthusiasm over the Christmas Star, only the demand for "The By-Town Coons" is much greater. The whole country is laughing over "The By-Town Coons."

THEY GOT THE LION.

Exciting Adventure of Two Colorado Miners in Their Camp.

"The mountain lion," remarked an old miner some time ago, "is becoming rare in the mountains of the west. When I first went seeking after the gold and silver of Colorado these animals were rather plentiful. They met in pairs, and were common enough to make it hazardous for a man to walk in the valleys alone and unprotected, particularly after dark. I remember on one occasion having a slight adventure with a lion that almost scared me out of my wits. With a pal I was working a claim in the mountains near Ouray. Winter came on, and one day, before the very cold weather set in, we went to the town to get supplies, leaving our little cabin on the mountain alone. It came on to snow soon after we got to Ouray, and we did not get a chance to go to the claim for fully a week. As we slowly climbed the hills I noticed the tracks of a mountain lion leading toward our cabin, and when we reached the house found that we had forgotten to close a window in the side. We had lost sight of the tracks, and the sight of the open window caused me to forget all about the animal and its presence. I started for the window, and was about to put my hand into the apartment when there came a terrible growl, and the next instant a great yellow body darted through the opening right over my back, its claws catching my buckskin and ripping it open to my waist, turning me completely over and into the snow. My pal whipped out his gun, and the infernal lion turned on him, making a fearful leap in his direction. Before he could shoot, the beast was upon him, and seizing him by the slack of his jacket shook him as if he had been a rat. I was on my feet by this time, and drawing my revolver, I sneaked up and put a bullet right through his head. He dropped, and my pal drew his breath freely once more. Neither of us was hurt, but the lion's skin in another week was serving as a rug by my cot."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Quality of Being Agreeable.

It might reasonably be supposed that good people would be agreeable and bad people disagreeable, but this is by no means a fixed rule. There are many notable exceptions, especially among bad people, who are often delightful companions. They study to please that they may cover up their faults of character. There is no reason, however, why good people should not follow their example in this respect. When they act naturally they are agreeable, but some good men, with warm sympathies and great kindness of heart, seem to think that it is necessary for their own protection to put on a gruff, repellant manner. There are others who at heart are good friends, yet make themselves disagreeable to those they love by a bad habit of positive contradiction. All of us have a great deal of self-love, and we can not regard as agreeable one who continually differs with and contradicts us, especially if he does so in an offensive way.

The agreeable man is always courteous and considerate. He keeps out of disputes and contentions, seeks to give utterance only to pleasant things, and, if driven to contradict, does so in an amiable manner. He may or may not be as good and faithful at heart as the gruff disputant, who is apt to be boastful of his frankness, but the quality that makes him agreeable is his cultivated manner. Some people go so far as to deprecate politeness as a concession to hypocrisy, but it is really a manifestation of a consideration for others. It is, of course, cultivated by hypocrites, and those who are excessively polite may be suspected of insincerity, but that is not a good reason why sincere people should not use it to make themselves agreeable.

The otherwise good man who lacks politeness or assumes a gruff, repellant manner really sacrifices a part of his gifts, for very few people will discover his good qualities under his repulsive manners. Those who do may have patience to bear with him, knowing that his heart is right, but others will judge by his manners, and, finding him disagreeable, will avoid intimacy with him. It is not enough, therefore, to be just or kind-hearted; one should also be agreeable in manner, and it requires very little effort to be so. The foundation of agreeable manners is thoughtful consideration of others or true politeness.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, Apr. 10.—Although Quebec is called "the Gibraltar of America," and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney Disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an alley in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out, every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain St., was attacked by Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes, and is now well and strong in every way.

There can be a difference of opinion on most subjects, but there is only one opinion as to the reliability of Mother Graves' Exterminator. It is safe, sure and effectual

Our Full Duty to You...

Is not a matter too lightly summarized; but the merchandise end of it certainly includes these three points:—

FIRST—To get the right goods here and show them plentifully.

SECOND—To utilize our entire resources toward selling them cheaply.

THIRD—To tell the truth about them.

To-day's story is prepared with all these three points distinctly in mind.

A SPRING HAT REVIEW

Chief and foremost we have Youman's Stiff Hats, sold the world over at only one price $5 each, also the J. B. Stetson Soft Hats, one-priced no matter where bought $4, $5 and $6 each. Next comes "Hawes" famous $3.50 Hats, sold everywhere through special agency.

Now a long list of Fine English and American makers, including Tress, Christy, Woodrow, Roelof, Cooksey, Cuthbertson and Wilkinson, in Derby and Fedora shape, at prices from $1.25 to $3 each.

For good ordinary wear we have a full line of Fedoras of English, American and Canadian makes 50c., 75c. and $1.00 each—browns, black and grey.

Our 50c. Hat is a good full shape Fedora style, made of wool felt bodies, imported from England and put together in Canada—it is exceptional good value—brown and black colour.

This is news of New Goods and large showing joined with other news of Strong and Standard Bargains.

We have in stock a few '98 styles in Stiff and Soft Hats, some among these hard to discriminate from 99's; we offer them at One-half to Two-thirds of their ordinary value 50c., 75c., $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $2 each, according to qualities.

Railway Bondholders Trying to Get Even With the Colony.

HON. MR. BLAKE AS ARBITRATOR

The Samoan Trouble Causing Bitterness in Germany—Demand for a Disavowal of Admiral Kautz and Capt. Sturdee—Unbending Attitude of the German Government—Hopefulness at Washington.

London, April 12.—The bondholders of the New Zealand Midland Railway have petitioned the Stock Exchange's committee to refuse quotation to further loans of that colony, owing to the Government having assumed a line of policy which the bondholders claim is a case of nonfulfilment of contract. Mr. Edward Blake acted as arbitrator between the company and the Government, and decided in favor of the latter. The bondholders being non-participants in the arbitration then sued, lost their case and have not appealed. Their petition is unlikely to succeed.

ANGRY GERMANS.

If Their Belligerence Does Not Moderate the Samoan Trouble Will Be Difficult of Settlement.

Berlin, April 12.—Dr. Johannes Raffel, the former German President of the Municipal Council of Apia, Samoa, has arrived here and has had several long conferences with the officials of the German Foreign Office.

The Lokal Anzeiger yesterday printed an interview with Dr. Raffel, in which he is quoted as saying: "The decision of Chief Justice Chambers in favor of Tanu was partly due to the fact that Mataafa is a Catholic, while Tanu is a proselite of the English missionaries. Mataafa is the only King the Samoans will tolerate."

There has been a sudden veering of views upon the part of both the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow, and the Emperor. A Foreign Office official said last night in energetic language that Germany, before engaging in an investigation of the commission's work, must insist upon the American and British Governments unmistakably disavowing the flagrant violations committed by Admiral Kautz and Captain Sturdee. In the absence of a disavowal, for Germany to join the commission would be a mere farce. He added: "When the commission starts it must start on the status quo and not on a status created by the illegal acts of subordinates in Samoa."

More energetic still is the semi-official announcement of the Hamburg correspondent, which declares that "if England and America do not heed the diplomatic remonstrances made in London and Washington, those remonstrances will be fortified"; adding "Germany insists upon receiving full satisfaction for the number of breaches committed in Samoa."

The tone of the German press during the last two days has been most bitter. Inquiries made by the correspondent of the Associated Press at the Foreign Office have elicited the statement that nothing is known of the alleged British annexation of the Tonga Islands, and it is not believed such action has been taken, and it is claimed it would be a gross violation of the Anglo-German agreement of 1886.

The Neuesten Nachrichten declares that Great Britain has raised fresh difficulties against a condition already admitted in principle, namely, that the decision of the Samoa commission must be unanimous, and it furthermore asserts that the German commissioner will be appointed only when Great Britain shall have given the necessary guarantees to ensure respect for German treaty rights.

Not Delivered in Writing.

London, April 12.—The Berlin correspondent of The Standard says that Germany's protest to Great Britain and the United States regarding the action of the British and American representatives in Samoa was not delivered in writing, but was orally communicated by Count von Hatzfeldt, German ambassador in London, and Dr. von Holleben, German ambassador at Washington.

Regarded as a Favorable Sign.

Washington, April 12.—As a result of conferences held yesterday at the State Department and at the British Embassy, efforts will be made to have the Samoan high commission make a quick trip across the country, reaching San Francisco in time to catch the boat leaving for Samoa one week from to-day. This is regarded as a distinctly favorable turn in the negotiations, and as indicating that the three Governments are very near to a complete accord on all the points of the commission.

Obedient Clergy Wanted.

London, April 12.—After a long debate upon the alleged lawlessness of the ritualistic practices of the English Church Union, the House of Commons last evening unanimously adopted a resolution, proposed by Mr. Edward Hoare, Conservative member for Hampstead, and accepted by Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury and Government leader, declaring that the House "Deplores the spirit of lawlessness shown by certain members of the Church of England, and confidently hopes that the Ministers of the Crown will not recommend any clergyman for preferment unless satisfied that he will obey the bishops and the prayer book."

Fastest Boat Ever Floated.

London, April 12.—The Albatross, a new type of torpedo boat destroyer just built at the yards of Messrs. Thornycroft & Co., at Chiswick, has attained a speed of 33 knots, making this record on her trial trip, with the Admiralty officials on board. This is the highest speed reached by any war vessel. The destroyer is 227 feet long and 21 feet beam, with a draught of 8½ feet.

King Humbert's First Visit.

Rome, April 12.—The King and Queen of Italy started for Sardinia yesterday. This will be the first visit of His Majesty to the island since he went there as Crown Prince. The King begged the Sardinians not to go to any useless expense, but the inhabitants are preparing a brilliant reception.

Work of Kurdish Bandits.

Moscow, April 12.—M. Zinovieff, Russian ambassador at Constantinople, yesterday presented a note requesting that the Government of the sublime Porte take measures to put an end to the outrages suffered by Russian peasants along the Caucasus frontier at the hands of Kurdish bandits. Fifty such outrages already have been reported to the Czar's Government. Whole villages have been burned by the Kurds, and unspeakable atrocities committed.

TWENTY-FIVE PERISHED.

Judge Boyd's Yacht Alsmyth Goes Down Between Cork and Dublin With All on Board.

Cork, April 12.—While the yacht Alsmyth, belonging to Judge Walter Boyd of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, was on its way to Dublin yesterday the vessel went down with all on board—25 persons.

DEVIL'S ISLAND PRISONER.

According to the Deposition of Senator Trarieux, Is Not Guilty.

Paris, April 12.—The Eclair yesterday morning published the deposition of Senator Trarieux, made before the Court of Cassation in the Dreyfus revision proceedings, in the course of which M. Trarieux said that Count Tornielli-Brusati di Vergan, the Italian ambassador to France, told him, when The Matin printed a fac-simile of the bordereau, that it was a flashlight reproduction; that the documents mentioned had been given to the German attache by a person other than Dreyfus, and that the handwriting of the bordereau was that of the officer who gave the documents to the attache. Comparison, he said, would be easy, as the attache possessed voluminous characteristics of that officer.

Count Tornielli further told him that an attache of the Italian Embassy showed him (the ambassador) a letter from the German attache, stating this, and asserting that he did not know Dreyfus, and attributing to Count Esterhazy the act for which the court-martial had wrongly found Dreyfus guilty.

M. Loriller, who was private secretary to the late Lieut.-Col. Henry, who committed suicide at Mont Valerien fortress last August after confessing to having forged a letter largely instrumental in delaying Dreyfus revision, killed himself last evening.

Cause For Lunacy.

At a meeting of women's clubs in Maine one of the speakers told of a girl she had known early in life and who had died insane. After the funeral the husband remarked that he "did not see why Mary Ann should have took crazy, for to his knowledge she had not been out of that kitchen for 20 years."

A FILIPINO ATTACK.

Attempt to Break United States Communications.

ATTACK WAS TREACHEROUS.

Efforts of the Insurgents to Destroy the Railway—Five Americans Killed and 16 Wounded—Agoncillo Talks in Paris—Gen. Otis, He Avers, Has Failed to Conquer.

Manila, April 12.—At about midnight the rebels cut the telegraph line at several places between here and Malolos and signal fires were lighted and rockets sent up along the foothills to the right of the railroad. Later the enemy attacked the outposts of the Minnesota Regiment between Bigaa and Bocave, five miles south of Malolos, killing two men and wounding 14.

Simultaneously the outposts of the Oregon Regiment, at Marilao, the next station on the way to Manila, were attacked, with the result that three Americans were killed and two were wounded. The loss of the enemy was ten men killed and six wounded. The Americans also captured two prisoners. Troops were concentrated along the railroad as thickly as possible, and the rebels were driven back to the foothills.

The roadbed of the railroad was damaged, but it was repaired almost immediately, and traffic was soon resumed through to Malolos.

Natives Could Be Heard Talking.

It is supposed that many of the rebels who attacked Gen. MacArthur's line of communication, and who were repulsed by the troops commanded by Gen. Wheaton, were natives who entered that region in the guise of friendliness. They had seemingly secreted arms in several places, and fired on the Americans from the bushes at so close a range that they could be heard talking. One of the Filipinos yelled in English, "We will give you damned Americans enough of this before we are through." The rebels undermined the railroad at Marilao, and unspiked the rails, in an effort to wreck a train while the railroad gang participated in the fight. The work of the rebels was discovered and repaired before a train arrived.

The Official Despatch.

Washington, April 12.—The following despatch has been received from General Otis:

Manila, April 11.—Adjutant-General, Washington: Insurgents attacked MacArthur's line of railway communication last night in considerable force; repulsed by Wheaton, with heavy loss. Wheaton's casualties, three killed, twenty wounded. (Signed), Otis.

The Santa Cruz Fight.

The following despatch gives additional information concerning the fight of Santa Cruz:

Lawton's success at Santa Cruz more complete than reported yesterday. Enemy left 98 uniformed dead on the field and a number seriously wounded. Lawton captured city without destruction of property. His loss 10 wounded, slight, except two, since dead. Lieut. Elling only officer wounded, slight, in hand. Enemy retired eastward. Lawton in pursuit yesterday morning.

Agoncillo's Denial.

London, April 12.—Agoncillo, the agent of Aguinaldo, who is still in Paris suffering from influenza, has written a letter to the Associated Press, saying: "It is absolutely false that Aguinaldo is willing to accept an autonomist system similar to that of India. The Filipinos and their Government have only one idea—absolute independence—as the only source of general welfare."

Agoncillo Says Otis Has Failed.

Paris, April 12.—In an interview printed in The Patrie yesterday Agoncillo was quoted as saying: "The Americans have fully realized that they will never subdue the Filipinos, and that the policy of Major-Gen. Otis has completely failed. The Filipinos have resolved to defend themselves to the death. They have in their power 1,500 American prisoners. The wet season is arriving and fever will soon attack the American troops and disorganize them. During this enforced truce we, on the contrary, will increase the strength of our organization. The situation of the Filipinos, therefore, is far from desperate."

GREAT RUSH FOR FREEDOM.

North Dakota Easy Divorce Law Quits Business on July 1.

Fargo, N.D., April 12.—The final curtain is just being rung down on the old divorce regime of North Dakota. Hundreds of divorcees are safely behind, and scores have been shut out.

The closing days of the divorce regime have been characterized by a rush of divorce emigrants across the country to be in under the ninety-day provisions of the old law, and the divorce colonies at Fargo, Grand Forks, Mandan, Bismarck and Jamestown have received sudden and hurried additions from east and west wherever marital bonds have proved galling. Emigrees from stricter communities still come, but theirs is a bootless chase. By July 1 the last suit for divorce under the old law, which Dakota ecclesiastics call a stench in the nostrils of the people, will have to be filed.

The colony at Fargo, with additions from the immigration, is estimated to number about 150. Decrees are being issued in the courts for the third judicial district at the rate of three a day. The colony at Mandan, across the river from Bismarck, is nearly as large, owing to the favorable complexion of the courts, and the divorcees have also flocked to Grand Forks and Jamestown.

Mr. Bonner to Cross the Line.

Collingwood, Ont., April 12.—Mr. R. J. Bonner of the collegiate institute here has received an appointment to a fellowship in Greek in Chicago University. Mr. Bonner graduated from Toronto University in 1890 with first-class honors in classics. After graduating he was appointed a fellow in classics in Toronto University for two years and a half, and in 1893 was called to the bar. In 1894 he was appointed to the position of classical master in the institute.

"A Cheerful Look Makes a Dish a Feast."

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalising elements do not reach the proper spot.

A step in the right direction is to purify the body by the use of a natural remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is Nature's remedy. It acts upon the blood, and whether the seat of the disorder is brain, stomach, liver or kidneys, the purifying process of this medicine is equally sure and successful. It never disappoints.

Great Builder—"Have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, constipation and finds it builds up the whole system and gives relief in cases of catarrh." WILLIAM E. WELDON, Moncton, N. B.

Sour Stomach—"My system was out of order. I suffered from headache and sour stomach. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my health improved and I gained 18 pounds." MAXWELL D. SHANGRAW, Colebrooke, Ont.

Bad Cough—"My sister was troubled with a cough which caused pain in her left side. She was confined to her bed. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few weeks she was able to sit up in bed, her appetite improved and the cough and accompanying pain disappeared." LILY WALKER, 26 Cottingen Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dyspepsia—"My husband suffered with dyspepsia. Physicians did not benefit him. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him. My husband's father and our little boy have been wonderfully benefited by this medicine." MRS. O. F. CHAMBERLAIN, Glen Sutton, Que.

Run Down—"My system was run down. I could not sleep nights and my appetite was poor. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored an appetite and strength and has made me feel like a new woman." MRS. S. E. DRYDEN, Amherst, N. S.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Montreal Star's "Bytown Coons" are very funny and artistically executed, but the organ can't succeed in getting the "magnetic thrill" from getting them successfully "treed."

The exports of the United States and Great Britain are in the ratio of about 8 to 7 in the former's favour. As the ratio of population is about 2 to 1, it is plain, the London Advertiser points out, that the per capita production of the British Isles is by far the greatest.

The Conservative back benchers are wasting the time of the country in talking Yukon scandal, doubtless with the object of influencing the Brockville bye-election. In view of Sir Hibbert Tupper's bagnio assault on the good name of Major Walsh, who is a respected resident of Brockville, the electors will have an opportunity of showing how they appreciate Sir Hibbert's vicious abuse of their fellow citizen.

The Montreal Star in advocating the election of Hon. Peter White for Brockville, refers to the advantages that will accrue to that riding from being represented by a "leading member of the House." That's just the trouble with the Conservative party, it is bothered with too many leaders. The "nest of traitors" is still in the ring, and Sir Mackenzie Bowell is already sharpening his knife for them in case they make themselves too much in evidence in the Brockville bye-election campaign.

Is Manitoba fit to be out of swaddling bands? A few days ago the Manitoba Legislature passed a motion with only two dissentient voices adopting a petition to the House of Commons and the Senate asking for Manitoba an advance of $300,000 from the Manitoba School Land Funds. The province is anxious to improve its educational facilities and by a practically unanimous vote asks that the sum named be turned over to them for that purpose. Will the Senate deny their request? It did so on a former occasion, and doubtless retains its solicitude for the "protection" of the provinces—from themselves.

It is stated that all is not turtle doves in the Conservative camp in Brockville over the bye-election. There might be a mistake as to the rumours if the Conservative journals didn't "protest too much." The Brockville Times has a pathetic paragraph emphasizing with tearful insistence that all is harmony in the Conservative family. — "the healing hand of time has closed all sores." The Mail and Empire reproduces the paragraph and shows the same anxiety to have it believed. If the Brockville Conservatives enjoy the rampant harmony that exists between the Mackenzie Bowell wing and the "Nest of Traitors" wing at the capital the entente is fairly heart-rending.

A petition asking clemency in the case of the peg-leg tramp, Brown, convicted in London, Ont., of the cold blooded murder of Policeman Twohey is in circulation and is said to be largely signed. The wooden heads are evidently in sympathy with the wooden leg. The mercy the convicted murderer should have is death by as painless a process as the law provides. Brown, according to the evidence adduced at the trial, is a vicious tramp—a wart on society—a dishonest eater of the bread of honest toil. The only place where he will not be a nuisance and menace to society and an expense to the state is six feet under the soil of the jail yard. If such a man, fairly convicted of murder is not deserving of the extreme penalty, that penalty should be wiped off the statute book.

THE TIRELESS TALKERS' TIRE SOME TALK.

Ottawa Free Press.

THE "talking match" still goes on in the House of Commons, and later on the result will be printed at the public expense, and falsely described as the "Debates"—save the mark—"of Parliament." The House of Commons has now been in actual session fourteen days, and up to last night the official report of the Hansard's registers in round numbers, twelve hundred columns! On the Conservative side the champion time-wasters were Sir Charles Tupper, 57 columns; his son, 98 columns; Mr. Davin, 60 1-2 columns; Mr. Foster, 41 1-2 columns; Mr. Hughes, 34 columns; Mr. Clancy, 29 columns; Mr. Montague, 26 columns; Mr. Taylor, 27 columns; Mr. Sproule, 27 columns; Mr. Bennett and Mr. McInerney, each 22 columns, and so downward to the 1 1-2 columns of Mr. Osler. On the Liberal side Mr. Sifton occupied 81 columns, but the length of his speech was fully justified, and absolutely necessary, as it was not only an exposition of the governmental administration in the Yukon, but he incidentally had to deal with the volume of untruth, slander, and insinuation which had been belched forth by the Opposition speakers, notably Sir Hibbert Tupper. The Premier and Mr. Tarte respectively occupied 24 columns and 25 columns, and Sir R. Cartwright 17 1-12, but as these also were governmental declarations, the space is modest. Mr. Davis was less modest, as his say required 31 columns, and so did that of Mr. Fraser, but the rest of the Liberal speakers all kept within the bounds of moderation. The delay and the long drawn-out debate is due to the loquacity of the Tory members. It is as well that the country should thoroughly appreciate the fact and the responsibility rest on the right shoulders.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

U. S. Army on a Peace Basis.

Washington, D.C., April 12.—An order has been prepared at the War Department for a reorganization of the army on a peace basis, and it probably will be issued to-day. Most of the general officers of the volunteer establishment will be mustered out and radical changes made in the staff departments of the same, including the discharge of about 60 paymasters. With the exceptions of Generals Otis, Shafter, Lawton and MacArthur, all the volunteer major-generals will be discharged.

THE SHERIFF AFTER DOYLE.

He is Charged with a Number of Crimes Across the Line.

Sheriff J. E. Hazard, of Cattarsugus county, New York, arrived in Lindsay this morning in answer to a message from Chief Bell stating that he had Wrestler Doyle in limbo. Doyle is a man of many aliases, having also figured in Canada and the States as Robert Reakes, Alonzo Thompson, Frank White, Collins and Hunter. Whatever his name, he is wanted for theft of a gold watch and chain, and there is also an indictment against him for having about a year ago obtained the sum of $500 under false pretenses in a hotel deal by representing that he owned certain chattels which were the property of another man.

Sheriff Hazard does not yet know whether Doyle will accompany him quietly or necessitate extradition proceedings. It will depend upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. Hugh O'Leary. If he declines to go voluntarily it will take several weeks to get the necessary papers from Washington. In the meantime Chief Bell is sure of his $100 reward for Doyle's capture.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, but not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Shipbuilding at Collingwood.

Collingwood, April 12.—It is not expected that navigation will be open before the end of the month, as at the present time the harbor is full of ice. The keel of the new steamer of the Northern Navigation Company was laid in the dock of the Collingwood Dry Dock and Shipbuilding Company this week. The vessel will be 186 feet over all, and it is expected that she will be ready to go into commission on July 1.

Gaspesia Getting Out.

Halifax, N.S., April 12.—The steamer Gaspesia was reported last evening to be 45 miles northeast of Meat Cove, C.B. The sealing steamer Hope passed Channel, Newfoundland, last evening, and reported sighting the Kite and her tow in the morning outside of Bird Rock, Magdalen Island. The Hope has 26,000 seals on board.

IS YOUR HAIR TURNING GRAY?

What does your mirror say? Does it tell you of some little streaks of gray? Are you pleased? Do your friends of the same age show this loss of power also?

Just remember that gray hair never becomes darker without help, while dark hair rapidly becomes gray when once the change begins.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

will bring back to your hair the color of youth. It never fails. It is just as sure as that heat melts snow, or that water quenches fire.

It cleanses the scalp also and prevents the formation of dandruff. It feeds and nourishes the bulbs of the hair making them produce a luxuriant growth. It stops the hair from falling out and gives a fine soft finish to the hair as well.

We have a book on the Hair and Scalp which you may obtain free upon request.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it.

Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

TEXAS COWBOY ROBBERS.

Three of Them Got Away With the Pay of a Lumber Camp.

El Paso, Texas, April 12.—One of the boldest hold-ups ever committed in this section occurred yesterday afternoon at the office of the Alamo Gordo Lumber Company, at Alamo Gordo, N.M., 70 miles north of El Paso.

Yesterday was pay day at the lumber camp, which is large. Many thousands of dollars were on hand to pay the men and the money was given to them a short time before the arrival of the outlaws. All the workmen had dispersed, except about 50, and these lingered about the office.

Suddenly the door was thrown open by two cowboys armed with Winchesters. They walked up to Cashier Davidson's desk and demanded all the money in his possession. At the point of Winchesters he was compelled to open the safe.

It contained a bundle of scrip, amounting to $50,000, which was stacked in packages and resembled greenbacks. The robbers took this and departed. Their horses were awaiting them at the door, where they were held by a third cowboy. Mounting, all three rode away. A posse was quickly organized, and is now in pursuit of the robbers, but as the country is rough in that vicinity there is small chance of their capture.

New and Original Advertising.

It is interesting to watch the new ideas to be found in the advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The present line of advertisements is especially unique, each beginning with a familiar proverb and leading up to the good qualities of this famous medicine. The argument in every case is clinched by condensed testimonials from peopel the medicine has cured. It is gratifying to see the continued success of an article of genuine merit. While other preparations come to the surface and after a short time disappear, Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily maintained its place in public confidence.

IDLEHOUR BURNED.

Young Vanderbilt and His Wife Burned Out During Their Honeymoon.

New York, April 12.—W. K. Vanderbilt's country house, Idlehour, at Oakdale, L.I., was totally destroyed by fire about 3 a.m. yesterday. No lives were lost, and no one was injured. W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., and his bride, formerly Miss Virginia Fair, were occupying the house at the time. The total loss is estimated at between $250,000 and $300,000. There was carried a heavy insurance. The house was of Queen Anne architecture, built of brick, stone and terra cotta. It is understood that Mrs. Vanderbilt saved her jewels.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store as their giving away to their many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size, 50c and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

THE PACIFIC CABLE.

The Government Will Assume Five-Eighteenths of the Cost.

PROJECT ALREADY ASSURED.

The Imperial Government and the Australian Colonies Have Already Intimated Their Willingness to Co-Operate—To Be Laid and Operated Under Government Control.

Ottawa, April 12.—Within a fortnight the people will see, so far as the power of the present Administration may be, the fruition of the Government's endeavors to promote Imperial unity and to aid Canadian progress by connecting Canada by cable with the Australasian colonies and the countries of the far east. All that will be needed will be the co-operation of the Australasian legislators and the Imperial authorities, which is already assured, and before many months are passed the merchant in Halifax, Montreal, Toronto or any other Canadian city can flash his messages over an all-British wire to his antipodean cousin or to the British merchant at Hongkong. Thus the open door will be swung yet more widely ajar, and there is every reason for believing that through its portals the stream of British trade will flow in increasing volume. The announcement of the Government's intention will be formally made in the House of Commons within a fortnight, when a bill will be introduced to provide for the Government's supplying funds equivalent to five-eighteenths of the cost of the construction of the proposed cable, so soon as Great Britain signifies its readiness to provide a like sum, and the Australasian colonies formally agree to contribute eight-eighteenths of the cost. The control of the cable is to be vested in a commission to be appointed by the Imperial Government, each contributing colony nominating representatives on the commission in proportion to the amount contributed. Thus will be secured the principle of Government control of rates and management, a desideratum second only to that of having the cable entirely under British management. The Canadian terminal point will likely be Vancouver, although this has not been finally decided upon. Thence the cable will run to Fanning Island, on to Fiji, thence to Norfolk Island, where connections will be made with Australia and New Zealand.

The total distance to be covered, as estimated by Sir Sandford Fleming, in a note to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on the subject, is 7,150 miles. Within three years after its completion, there is every reason to hope, the cable will be successfully operated as to yield a substantial income, so substantial that dividends will be paid on the several contributions of the various states interested. The estimated cost will not be more than £1,500,000, and at the outset only a percentage of this will be called up.

THE DEBATE CONTINUED.

Mr. Macdonald of Kings, P.E.I., and Dr. Macdonald of East Huron Speak—The Transportation System.

Ottawa, April 12.—In the House of Commons yesterday the debate on the address was resumed by Mr. Macdonald (King's), who denied that prosperity prevailed throughout Canada. In the province from which he came, and he believed in the other Maritime Provinces, crops had not been good, and as there were no manufactures the people were not prosperous. He strongly insisted that the Government should have introduced a prohibitory law after the plebiscite, and repeated the criticism that the Liberal tariff favored the Americans rather than Great Britain.

Dr. Macdonald of East Huron expressed the opinion that if a prohibitory law were passed now it would be overwhelmingly defeated in five years. He also spoke at some length upon the transportation question, and advocated that Montreal be made the national port of Canada as New York is the national port of the United States, and that the harbor dues be abolished. Improved means of transportation was, he declared, the great national policy of the Liberal party.

Mr. Legris of Maskinonge, who spoke in French, in replying to the contention of Opposition speakers that the retention of the Senate was necessary in the interests of Quebec, declared that the Senate had failed to act as a protector of the minority and of individual rights, and while ready to accept Senate reform as a move in the right direction, expressed the hope that the Liberal party will before long demand its abolition.

Mr. Wilson (Lennox) declared himself as a prohibitionist who approved of compensation, and appealed to temperance men to be temperate in all things.

Other speakers were Mr. Macdonald (King's, P.E.I.), and Mr. Gauvreau (Temiscouata).

The adjournment of the debate was moved by Mr. McDougall (Cape Breton).

DOINGS IN THE SENATE.

Interpellation Concerning B.C.'s Anti-Japanese Legislation.

Ottawa, April 12.—The Senate met last evening for a few minutes, for the first time since the Easter adjournment.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell enquired whether any correspondence had taken place between the Government and the Japanese authorities since the receipt of the despatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies conveying the protest of the Japanese authorities against the anti-Japanese legislation by the Legislature of British Columbia.

Hon. David Mills said that correspondence had taken place at the time the letter from the Secretary of State for the Colonies had been received. That correspondence was concluded, but could not be brought down until the Canadian Government had acted upon the matter. An answer to a communication to the Government of British Columbia on the subject had not yet been received.

On motion of Senator MacMillan, a return was ordered of the return made to the Government of the Banque du Peuple before that bank suspended payment.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell was informed by the Secretary of State that the delay in issuing the medals to the veterans of the Red River Expedition was due to the Imperial, and not the Canadian, Government. The High Commissioner had been requested to enquire into the matter.

CHANGED HANDS!

I beg to announce to the citizens of Peterborough that I have bought out the Wholesale and Retail

FRUIT AND FISH BUSINESS

Formerly carried on by Mr. J. B. Oke, 413 George Street,

I intend to devote my whole attention to conducting a First-class Fruit and Fish Business, by keeping a most complete and well kept stock of the choicest delicacies of the table, including—

Foreign and Domestic Fruits.
Salt and Fresh Water Fish.
Fresh Oysters in Bulk.
Early Garden Vegetables.
Canned Vegetables and Fish.
Pickles, Relishes, Etc.

Everything in season, fast as it appears in the markets.

Having had 25 years' experience in handling Fruits, &c., I feel confident of being able to cater to the wants of all classes.

I respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage of Mr. Oke's customers and of the public generally.

R. A. DUTTON,

(Late of Barrie), successor to J. B. Oke, 413 George Street. Telephone 204. Terms Cash.

CARD FROM MR. OKE.

I take pleasure in recommending my successor, Mr. R. A. Dutton, to all my customers and ask for him a continuance of the liberal patronage bestowed upon me. Mr. Dutton is an experienced and thoroughly practical fruit man and has a reputation for being obliging and honourable in all his dealings.

All accounts due me are requested to be paid to either myself, Miss Smith, Mr. H. Bradshaw or Mr. Philp, at Mr. R. R. Philp's Fruit Store, without delay.

Yours truly, J. B. OKE.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., April 3.—There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

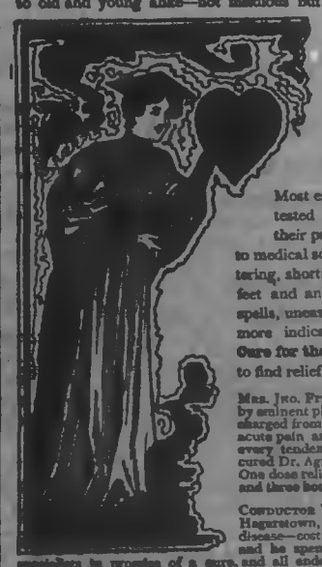
Among the former is Mr. Mass Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

"She Carries Her Heart on Her Sleeve"

What a boon to many a man or woman if this were literally so—How many spirits are broken because this particular organ is shackled by disease—and yet how many times has Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart brushed against the grim reaper and robbed him of his victim.

Diseases of the heart are by far the most treacherous of ailments which afflict humanity—ruthless to old and young alike—not insidious but violent, for when the heart fails the whole system suffers violence. Discussing causes here will not console the suffering one. The one great yearn of the heart-sickened patient is how to get relief and a cure. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart stands pre-eminently to-day as the star of hope to sufferers from heart trouble, and so far past the experimental period that thousands to-day proclaim, in no uncertain sound, the belief that were it not for this great remedy they world have long ago passed into the great beyond. Most eminent doctors, whom heart cases have baffled, have tested Dr. Agnew's claims, and to-day they prescribe it in their practice as the quickest and safest heart remedy known to medical science. What are the symptoms? Palpitation, fluttering, shortness of breath, weak and irregular pulse, swelling of feet and ankles, pain in the left side, chilly sensations, fainting spells, uneasiness in sleeping, dropsical tendency and as many more indications that the heart is deranged. Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart is a heart specific; and no case too acute to find relief from it inside of thirty minutes—a powerful cure.



Mrs. Jno. Fitzpatrick, of Gananoque, Ont., after having been treated by eminent physicians for heart disease of five years' standing, was discharged from the hospital as a hopeless incurable. She suffered from acute pain and palpitation, her feet and ankles swollen, and there was every tendency to the dropsical form of heart disease, but the lady procured Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart as she declared, as a last hope. One dose relieved her of a very acute spasm in less than thirty minutes, and three bottles cured her—not a symptom of the trouble remaining Conductor William G. Lucas, of the N. & W.R.R., and living at Hagerstown, Md., suffered for years with acute valvular form of heart disease—cost him many a "lay off" from his daily duties on the road, and he spent a small fortune in remedies and treating with heart specialists in promise of a cure, and all ended in disappointment, until a good friend, who had been benefited, recommended Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. He tried it, and found it gave him relief and comfort almost immediately. He continued its use until a few bottles were taken, and to-day he's well and strong, and says, "Tell all heart sufferers that I can highly recommend this great remedy."

DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT cures eczema, salt rheum, tetter, scald head and all itching skin diseases; cures piles in three to five nights. 35 cents.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER relieves cold in the head or hay fever in ten minutes—will cure most stubborn and long standing catarrh cases quickly and permanently.

MARKET REPORTS.

Liverpool Wheat Market Quiet, But Chicago Prices Fluctuated Over a Range of Nearly Two Cents.

Liverpool, April 12.—Wheat futures were quiet yesterday, the May option declining 1-8d per cental and the July option closing at Monday's final figure.

Chicago, April 12.—The prices of Chicago wheat futures yesterday fluctuated over a range of nearly two cents. An early break of a cent was caused by realizing by holders, who looked upon the Government's crop report as bearish in effect. At the decline commission houses and outsiders bought freely, and on covering by shorts the May option was run up to 72 1-8c. A reaction occurred and the close was almost identical with Monday's final figures.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practising. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

Dear Sir,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing market caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3 70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4 25
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9.00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7 50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5 30
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

Port Hope Times Scorched.

About half past one Tuesday morning the Times office was found to be on fire. It is not known exactly how the fire originated, but it is supposed that it was from either the stove pipes or the electric wires. The fire, however, did not gain much headway, the most of the damage done being by water and smoke. The loss is covered by insurance.

The New Firm.

The new firm of drapers, Laidlaw Bros., have just opened out some lines of the nobbiest suitings, overcoatings, and trouserings ever obtainable in Peterborough. Their place of business is on Hunter street, opposite the Oriental and the store is a model of elegance and neatness. Outside it is a symphony in white and green, whilst the interior also presents a most attractive appearance. The walls are covered with ingrain paper of a sage green shade, the bordering being an ingrain flitter gold frieze. The painting was done by Mr. T. B. McGrath, and the paper hanging by the same shop, the paper being purchased at the Peterborough book store.

HE KILLED A CAT.

A Boy Charged with Discharging a Gun in the Town Limits.

At the police court this morning a young lad was charged with discharging a gun with the corporation. It appears that the neighborhood in which the boy resides had been troubled by a cat, and the youngster decided to end its career.

The magistrate in giving the boy some sound advice, referred to the lamentable accident which occurred in town last year by which a young lady lost her life through the careless handling of a rifle. He allowed the boy to go.

THE STREET RAILWAY MATTER.

A Committee of the Council Meet the Directors.

Tuesday afternoon the town council in committee met the directors of the street railway in the town clerk's office to discuss street railway matters. Those present were aldermen McWilliams, chairman, Denne, Best, Davidson, Hall, Langford, Neill, Davidson and Sawers. The street railway was represented by President T. E. Bradburn and Messrs. T. G. Hazlitt, Richard Hall, A. P. Poussette and Arthur Stevenson.

A statement of the company's position was made by Mr. Bradburn, and it was decided that the matter be left with a special committee of the council, with Mr. McWilliams as chairman, who will deal with the street railway matter and report.

LAST SAD RITES.

Funeral of the Late J. A. McMillan in Lindsay Yesterday.

The funeral of the late J. A. McMillan, the victim of the deplorable accident which occurred in Lindsay on Saturday night, took place from the family residence, Russell-st., east, at three o'clock Tuesday to Riverside Cemetery, and was a most impressive ceremony, the attendance being in keeping with the wdiespread popularity of the deceased. The roadways adjacent were blocked by waiting vehicles, and the sidewalks were thronged with citizens about to accompany the funeral cortege to the cemetery.

At the 2.30 Rev. J. W. MacMillan, pastor of St. Andrew's church, conducted the funeral services. The pall-bearers were MMessrs. J. Hart, W. Dundas, M. W. Kennedy, W. Greer, Gordon Richardson and H. Knowlson—all brother curlers and intimate friends of the deceased.

The funeral cortege formed as follows;

Drs. Shier and Gillespie.
Carriage with Emblems.
Hearse.
Mourners.
Citizens.
Members Lindsay Curling Club.
Peterborough Curling Club.
S. D. & F. Co. Mill Employees.
Vehicles.

The members of the Lindsay and Peterborough Curling Clubs wore mourning badges.

The floral tributes were many and handsome, and bore witness to the high esteem in which deceased was held both at home and abroad.

The Peterborough Curling Club's tribute was in the form of a curling stone, beautifully covered with roses, Easter lilies, and small flowers, centrally located on the bier. The large deputation sent by the Peterborough Curling Club, the Post says was a strong proof of the esteem the members of that club held for their fellow player, who had met them in many games.

Messrs. W. G. Ferguson, J. S. Knapman, R. M. Hamiolton, D. Davidson, and C. LeBrun were the Peterborough representatives at the funeral.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

—First class waist hands wanted at Richard Hall & Sons. Apply to Miss Reid.

—Mr. Lem Fetcher, of the Palace restaurant, Peterborough, the Lindsay Post says, is in town today on business. Luckily the sky was somewhat overcast and our citizens could admire the famous Fetcher diamonds without danger of being blinded by the reflected rays.

First class Mantle Makers wanted. Apply at once to Miss Quinn at Turnbulls.

—Mr. Lock Master Collins says that the Little Lake is nearly clear of ice and that navigation will be in full swing for the season the early part of next week. Captain C. W. Cuthutt will probably open the ball with a voyage down the river for wood. A good big cargo of wood brought to town would be appreciated as something of a relief from the prevailing wood famine.

DR. CLARKE'S SUDDEN DEATH.

THE LOCAL MEDICAL HEALTH OFFICER AND A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN.

He Passes Away After an Illness of a Day and Half—Inflammation of the Kidneys the Cause.

The intelligence that Dr. Clarke, Medical Health Officer of Peterborough and Ashburnham, died this afternoon at 2:30 comes with a great shock to the community where he is so well known and respected. His last illness lasted only a day and a half. He has been in poor health for the past two years, suffering from some form of kidney affection, but not to such an extent as to prevent him from attending to his professional duties, which he did till Monday last, and a short time on Tuesday morning, when he was seized with a violent chill, the forerunner of an attack of nephritis—inflammation of the kidneys. Dr. Scott, a neighboring physician, was summoned and Dr. Burnham was later called in consultation, but nothing could be done to arrest the disease and death came at 2:30 this afternoon. His brothers in Toronto and Atlantic City have been summoned.

Dr. Clarke has been for many years a successful and prominent practising physician in Peterborough. He begun his medical studies here with Dr. Kincaid, and afterwards graduated in medicine at Queen's University, Kingston, in 1872. For some years he practiced in the vicinity of Gananoque, afterwards coming to Peterborough. Dr. Clarke has been Medical Health Officer of Peterborough since the establishment of the Board of Health many years ago. He was also Medical Health Officer of the village of Ashburnham. He was a capable and painstaking official, and took great pride in sanitary work. He was also town physician, a position he held since the death of Dr. Yelland, whom he succeeded. Dr. Clarke was personally genial and agreeable and had refined literary tastes and more than usual culture. Owing to the suddenness of his death, at this writing no arrangements in regard to the funeral have been made. His heart-broken sisters, who live with him, have hardly had time to realize the terrible fact of his death.

THE BOARD OF WORKS

Will Recommend the Construction of New Pavements.

The Board of Works met last night with Alderman Davidson in the chair.

The question of the construction of granolithic pavements came up for discussion; the streets to be operated upon were discussed and the recommendations of the committee will be embodied in their report to be submitted at the next meeting of the council. It is understood that the scheme of pavement construction for the coming summer will include several of the streets leading westward from George street.

The board also talked over the question of street sprinkling and the streets that are to be watered.

WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Maud Jones and Mr. W. E. Wright this Afternoon.

An exceedingly pretty April wedding took place this afternoon at two o'clock at the residence of Mr. Joseph Jones, No. 455 Stewart street, when his eldest daughter, Miss Maud Jones, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. E. Wright, of Toronto.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. G. Potter, B.A., of St. Andrews' church, the bride being given away by her father.

The drawing room was most tastefully decorated with flowers for the occasion, the corners being all banked with verdure, whilst cut bloom was distributed profusely around the different apartments. A pretty effect was lent by the drawing of the blinds and turning on of the electric lights during the afternoon.

The bride looked charming in white mulle Baptiste, trimmed with chiffon and lace. She was assisted by Miss Minnie Jones, her sister, who was attractively gowned in white organdie trimmed with baby ribbon, chiffon and lace. The groomsman was Mr. Frank McCuaig, of Toronto.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party partook of a wedding dejeuner served by Long Bros., after which Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on the 4:45 p.m. C.P.R. express for points west. The bride's travelling suit was a pretty brown shade of lady's cloth with hat to match.

The groom is well known in town, being a former resident here when his father was a member of the firm of Wright & Paton. It is some years since he went to Toronto to live, where he is now welcomed with the Canada Paper Company. His gift to the bride this afternoon was an exquisite pearl monogram brooch. To the bridesmaid he gave a handsome purse with sterling silver monogram.

HE IS CHARGED WITH ASSAULT

A Warrant Issued for the Arrest of Robert Morgan.

A session of the county police court was called for this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. Robert Morgan was summoned to answer to the charge of assault preferred against him by Mr. John Strain, of Ashburnham.

Mr. Strain says that on Saturday last the accused entered McAllister's mill where Mr. Strain is employed, and while his back was turned he alleges Morgan assaulted him. He further states that the accused has dogged his footsteps to and from work, and declares he even threatened to take his life.

Mr. Strain and the witness were in court promptly at 2 o'clock, and Magistrate Edmison after waiting for twenty minutes for the accused to turn up, issued a warrant for his arrest and placed it in the hands of County Constable Cochrane.

A GOLDEN WEDDING IN SMITH.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McConkey Celebrate their Fiftieth Anniversary.

On Friday, April 8th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard McConkey, of the 10th concession of Smith, was the scene of an as unusual as happy event—a golden wedding—the celebration of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the venerable couple, surrounded by their children and children's children to the third generation and many of the numerous friends thay have gathered around them during a long and honorable life. Among the children of the aged couple present were Mr. and Mrs. John McConkey, Herb McConkey, McIlmoyle, and Mrs. G. Portamouth, Smith; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McIlmoyle, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nicholls and Mr. and Mrs. W. Galbraith, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholls, Lakefield. Mr. Austin McConkey and Mrs. G. Nicholls of Lakefield, were unable to be present. Mr. and Mrs. McConkey are blessed with fifty-two grand children and thirteen great grand children.

The aged couple, who by industry and integrity amassed a comfortable competence, about five years ago retired from active life and are now living quietly at Selwyn.

The godlen wedding festivities, in addition to the loving congratulations and greetings, were varied by an affectionate address which was accompanied by many beautiful and useful presents, notable among which was a handsome metalic clock with gold mountings, and also a beautiful dinner set with gilt ornamentation.

Mr. McConkey has reached the age of 78 years, having been born in the county of Monaghan, Ireland, in 1821, and in 1834 came to Canada with his parents. Harniet Pearson (Mrs. McConkey(was born on the old homestead in the township of Smith, 66 years ago and was united in marriage to Mr. McConkey 50 years ago, April 8th, 1849.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McConkey are enjoying a hale old age and to present appearances seem likely to live to celebrate their diamond wedding They are very highly respected and the pleasant event of the celebration of their fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, aroused great interest in their wide circle of friends and elicited many cordial wishes for many years of happy life.

MARK STREET LADIES' AID CONCERT.

A Successful Musical and Literary Entertainment Last Evening.

A very successful musical and literary entertainment under the auspices of Mark street Ladies' Aid Society was held in Ashburnham town hall on Tuesday evening, April 11. The rain interfered somewhat with the attendance, but those present had the pleasure of listening to an excellent programme. The chair was occupied by a former and highly respected pastor of Mark street church, Rev. E. Roberts, of Omemee.

The programme was as follows:

ALDERMEN HAVE AN AFTERNOON SESSION.

PARKS, CATERPILLARS AND SEWERAGE ARE DISCUSSED.

Site for New Fire Hall and Stone Crusher Provisionally Selected—Park Improvements—Advertising the Town.

A meeting of the town council was held Tuesday afternoon in the town clerk's office.

In the absence of the Mayor, Alderman McWilliams occupied the chair, and there were present Messrs. Neill, Denne, Best, Sawers, Langford, Hall, Davidson, and Corkery.

The clerk read a communication from the congregation of the Park street Baptist church, protesting against the establishment of stock yards in the vicinity of the church.

Rev. O. C. Elliott, pastor of the church, was present and requested council to give a hearing to a deputation of church members. Mr. P. McNaMara was also present, asking the same request on behalf of the ratepayers in the vicinity.

On motion of Alderman Hall and Langford it was decided to hear the deputation at a meeting of the committee of the whole council at 7.30 in the evening.

Sewerage Matters Discussed.

Aldermen Davidson and Best moved that the treasurer pay Mr. Jas. Bogue the balance of money due on his sewer contract on the certificate of Mr. S. Belcher, town engineer.

Aldermen Langford and Neil moved that the present engineer, Mr. T. A. S. Hay, also sign the certificate. —Carried.

Considerable discussion followed as H. LeBrun in rear of his premises, H. LeBrun in rear of hsi premises, which connects with Park street sewer should be paid for as part of the work. It was finally decided to obtain the town solicitor's views on the matter.

The Property, Health and Market Committee through Alderman Sawers reported as follows;

Your Property, Health and Market Committee beg leave to report that they asked for offers for a suitable lot for a fire hall and received a number of offers. They recommend that the offer of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Co. of the east half of lot 9 north of Simcoe street and west of George street at $900 be accepted, subject to the by-law for building the fire hall being approved by the ratepayers. Your Committee has received an option on the lot for three months from April 6th, for which they paid the Company $1 and agreed to pay interest for the three months.

Your Committee also received an offer through Messrs. Hall & Hayes of Lots 5 and 6 north of Townsend and west of George street, except that part of Lot 6, crossed by the C.P.R., for $855 and the town to pay any taxes due on them. Your Committee also secured an option on these lots for three months and paid $1 for the option, and recommend that the offer for the lots be accepted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN SAWERS,
Chairman.

Note—The townsend lots are intended as a site for the stone crusher, crusher, etc.

Alderman Sawers moved the adoption of the report.

Alderman Davidson moved an amendment striking out the clause referring to the paying of interest on property. He objected to the payment before the purchase was effected.

Alderman Hall could not see the necessity of building a fire hall which would cost in the neighborhood of $6,000. The present fire hall, he thought was in good shape.

Alderman Davidson contended that $3,000 would build the proposed fire hall, and by the expenditure of about $1,000 the present hall could be fitted up to rent for $300 a year. It is a nuisance in its present condition and it is in the interests of the town to build a new hall.

After some further discussion the report was adopted.

The Caterpillar Pest.

On a motion introduced by Alderman Best, seconded by Alderman Langford, the treasurer was ordered to pay Ald. Sawers, a sum of money not to exceed $100 to be devoted to the distruction of the caterpillar bracelets.

Aldermen Hall and Neil moved that the Mayor be requested to issue a proclamation urging the ratepayers to assist the council in the stamping out of the caterpillar pest. —Carried.

Improvements to Parks.

On motion of Aldermen Langford and Sawers, it was decided to take the sum of $250 from unexpended appropriations or private grants to be devoted to the improvements of town parks.

On motion of Aldermen Sawers and Neil, the account of Mr. D. Belleghem of $49 for office furniture was ordered to be paid.

To Advertise the Town.

Mr. W. G. Goffe, representing the Canadian Journal of Commerce, of Montreal, was given a hearing. The journal he represented proposed printing a ten-page article on Peterborough, pointing its many advantages as a manufacturing centre, its unexcelled water power and its railway facilities. It further proposed to produce illustrations of its manufacturing establishments, as well as the protraits of the aldermen and officials of the town. In fact it would gather all information possible about the town, which would be to its advantage to publish. The council seemed to look upon the proposition as an excellent means of advertising the town, and on motion of Aldermen Best and Neil it was decided to secure 300 copies at the rate of 10 cents a copy, the printed matter contained therein to be submitted to the Manufacturing Committee for approval before publication.

Aldermen Vacate Their Seats.

Alderman E. H. D. Hall suggested that as the ward system had been abolished in the election of aldermen, he thought that it might be carried out in the council chamber, by the members doing away with the allocation of seats by wards. He suggested that the members ballot for their seats. This was acted upon at the close of the meeting, and the result was that a complete transformation took place in respect to the seats occupied by the members of the council.

TOWN TOPICS.

Our aldermen will hereafter hunt in couples. Alderman Sawers has procured a new set—a bargain-day set—of members' desks arranged in pairs and the occupants have been assigned by lot, thus giving the coup de grace to the recognition of the ward system.

The council has done well in voting an appropriation for the destruction of the caterpillar pest, but have they done well in limiting the expenditure to $100. Any money expended inside of doing the work thoroughly will be something like money wasted. Besides the element of unfairness enters. If the $100 voted falls short of finishing the work, the citizens who have helped pay for the work done elsewhere than in the uncompleted district will be deprived of the advantage for which they have paid. Be fair, gentlemen and be thorough. Don't spoil the caterpillar campaign for the sake of a few dollars.

The aldermen who have provided new desks for themselves in the council chamber have devoted the second hand desks to the reporters —apparently any old thing is good enough for the young gentlemen, who have to stand enough suffering in the discharge of their duties in the council chamber to be provided with new desks as a compensation. But the aldermen think first of themselves. If in the case of the reporters virtue is its own reward.

Adlermen are human after all. It was first proposed to purchase 200 copies of the Journal of Commerce, containing a ten-page write up of the town, but when it was known that the write up would be redeemed from mediocrity by its portraits of aldermen the bidding advanced easily to 250 copies, but when it was further known that the plates of the portraits would be turned over to the aldermen, (for as wickedly suggested, campaign purposes), the number jumped to 300 without a kick from even the bargain-day alderman. Our aldermen are nothing if not picturesque.

It was rather small potatoes on the part of the city fathers to refuse to treat the trees in Court House or the trees surrounding it for caterpillars. The grant made to Society is hardly enough to maintain the park. Gentlemen, don't be small.

On a small maple on Simcoe street, a dozen caterpillar bracelets were counted on the lower whorl of small branches.

A hymeneal Hiberniciam—In the case of a wedding there's a hitch when there is no hitch.

The ridges over the sewer trenches covered late last fall on Hunter, Reid and Park streets, are sinking badly, developing deep unsightly holes. This should be a lesson to the council not to begin sewer construction at a time when it should be completed. It is said by those who should know that the trenches covered late last fall and early last winter will not cease caving in for two of three years, a circumstance that will forbid permanent improvement.

The officers on the field will be appointed later.

The boys play well for their size and aspire to hold one day in the Upper Province what their famous namesakes hold in Quebec. They purpose getting new green and white sweaters. These will cost some money and they trust that the patrons of the National game will give them some substantial encouragement.—Com.

Orangeville seems to have got a corner on the "job" market judging from the number of lacrosse men who are said to be moving to that town. They are evidently bent upon having a swell team this year, one that will be able to cope better with the redoubtable Orillia twelve than they did last year.

Fred Grant, who played first home for the Orillia Lacrosse Team last year, is now attending Osgoode, and may turn out with the Tecumsehs.

Tommy Thompson, Orillia's outside home player, has returned for the summer to that town from Philadelphia, where he has been studying in a dental college.

BASKET BALL.

Another victory for the Y.M.C.A. intermediate Basket Ball team. The victims were the senior team.

Each team having won a game, Monday night's game was looked forward to with interest.

The intermediates with their red sweaters and white knickers were too lively for the black and white. The game was keenly contested, but the seniors were allowed to score six against the intermediate's eight.

Seniors—Rollie Irwin (Capt.) Sandford Hall, forward; Art. Noble centre; Harley Goldey, Chas. Anderson, defence.

Intermediate — Percy Campbell, Wm. Kemp, forward; Walt. Turnbull, centre; Ross Dobbin, (Captain), Elmer Smith, defence.

Referee—Norman Bell.

Energy Easily Earned.

D. WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

Wasted energy must be made up or the body will weaken and perhaps perish.

For a long time prior to taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my nerve system was greatly deranged and I was terribly nervous, so much so that in my business (Linesman of the Kingston Electric Light Co.,) my extreme nervousness naturally made the following of my business extremely hazardous. Before taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my kidneys had been affected for some time. I had constant soreness and stiffness across my loins and the small of my back. My appetite was variable and very poor. I also suffered greatly with constant headaches. I am glad to be able to inform you that Dr. Ward's Pills completely cured me of all the above ailments and made me a well man. I have found no medicine like Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, although I have tried many different kinds. They acted quickly and effectually on my nerve system, making my nerves strong and removing all indications of nervousness. These valuable pills also removed all kidney and back trouble and restored to me a healthy vigorous appetite. I have had no headache since five months ago and feel justified in saying that they are a wonderful remedy. They not only removed nervousness, but gave me healthy kidneys, removed all soreness and stiffness from my back and loins, cured me of headache and gave me a good appetite, consequently I am highly pleased. I know of no medicine that equals Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills for nervousness, chronic headache, sore kidneys and back and loss of appetite. Yours truly, John McCutcheon, 522 Princess St., Kingston, Ont.

THE POET'S SONG.

A bird of richest song flew out
And piped his carol full of cheer,
And long he winged his way about,
But few would wait his song to hear.
With sorrow, in his lonely nest,
He hid his sweet song in his breast.

But some had heard that song of joy;
It came and soothed the pangs of pain,
Gave hope where doubt rose to destroy;
Despairing souls tried once again.
It lifted hearts all tempest tossed—
That song, though stilled, was never lost.

A poet, no one knew him then,
Sang out his carol full of cheer,
Of hope and faith and love for men,
But few would wait his song to hear.
The poet? He is dead! But yet
The songs he sang no hearts forget.
—George Birdseye in Boston Globe.

AT FOUR O'CLOCK.

For more than a month there had been growing among the men of Townsend's set a suspicion that he was going to the bad. Once he had been seen coming out of a house which seemed to the eyes of Chadwick, who met him, to conceal possibilities of faro. To be sure, it was found afterward that Townsend had been to visit his "goody's" husband, who was laid up with a broken leg; but the impression clung, nevertheless.

Then Morton saw him one day on the street in conversation with a young woman of somewhat flamboyant architecture, and although it was proved beyond a peradventure that she was the very respectable person who did his mending, yet there were many who believed that Townsend was "mashed."

Unexplained, however, was his disappearance from his usual haunts at 4 o'clock every afternoon. There were rumors of his having been seen in dingy streets in the port by men who were walking out from Boston and were taking a short cut through that region.

Such being the state of public opinion, no one was surprised to have Townsend throw down his hand one day as the clock struck 4, although the last jack pot had been unusually exciting.

"I'm not coming in," he said. "In fact, I'm going out"—an attempt at wit that was greeted with derision.

With the shutting of the door every hand was tossed upon the table as if by common consent.

"He's doing this every day to my personal knowledge," said Chadwick, "and I'm going to see it out this afternoon."

"I'll go with you!" cried Morton.

The rest had no theories, but went from curiosity—all except Allen, who was a senior and who knew Townsend's mother and was in love with his sister, and hence felt it incumbent upon him to take the interest of an elder brother in his welfare.

For 20 minutes he led them at a smart pace through the better part of Cambridgeport, and then turned aside into a short bystreet that extended toward the river.

There was no electric light in this obscure alley and the early dusk of the winter afternoon concealed the group of spies in its fast deepening shadows. Townsend passed the tenements and went up the steps of a cottage, the only detached house on the street. It was at the end—beyond it a tin can strewn vacant lot, extending to the marsh.

Allen looked grave as he saw Townsend knock as if to warn the inmates of his coming and then take a latchkey from his pocket and enter before the door could be opened from within.

With one accord the eavesdroppers moved toward the vacant lot, where a shaft of light streamed from a side window. Once around the corner they did not see a woman who left the house almost as soon as Townsend had entered.

What they did see as they pressed to the window, whose partly raised curtain allowed them a good view of the room and its occupants, was of a nature to surprise every one of them.

Before the fire sat an old woman whom the novels of 50 years ago would have described as a "beldam." Wild eyes indicative of a disordered mind blazed in a face crowned by a mass of unkempt white hair. Her thin figure ever swayed to the promptings of an inner restlessness, and her nervous hands clutched incessantly at her dress or at the air.

The onlookers were in time to see Townsend greet her. She responded to his salutation by a blow of her cane, which the young man dodged with a coolness born of experience.

Seemingly unruffled by this reception, Townsend went to a closet in the room, and taking from it a chafing dish and eggs and milk and butter he set about the preparation of an omelet.

"Well, I'll—be—hanged!" said Chadwick, slow in his amazement.

"By Jove!" exclaimed Morton. "That's the silver dish his mother sent him on his birthday. I thought he'd put it in hock."

Allen said nothing, but he felt a twinge of remorse, for he had thought so too.

It required some skill to serve the meal once it was cooked. Townsend placed a small table before the old lady. She promptly kicked it over.

When at last she was induced to hold the plate, she first threw a bit of the omelet to the cat ("A libation to Felis," whispered Grimston, who had taken honors in classics and antiquities), and then flung her fork into the fire. Townsend rescued it and substituted a spoon, which seemed more to his patient's fancy.

To air the overheated room Townsend opened the window directly over their heads as they squatted on the ground. He lifted the curtain higher and looked out blindly into the darkness. Allen thought that he heard him sigh. So did Morton. Morton was a just little man when once he was convinced.

"I say, fellows," he whispered excitedly when Townsend had been recalled to his duties by a boiling over of the teakettle that threatened to put out the fire in the grate—"I say, fellows, I don't believe he likes doing it after all."

Townsend had lifted the kettle from the fire and was making tea in a brown teapot with a broken spout. While it was steeping he picked up the pieces of the shattered plate from the hearth where the old woman had tossed it when she had finished her omelet.

"Here's your tea," came distinctly through the open window a few minutes later. "What will you stir it with today?"

He turned to a motley collection of articles on a shelf at the old woman's side. She selected a toothbrush, at which Townsend was seen by his watchful friends to make a grimace.

"I'm ready; go on," they heard her say, and Townsend, seated on the table's edge, in proximity to his cooking appurtenances, swung his legs idly and began to sing "The Sunshine of Paradise Alley."

"Well, I'll — be — hanged!" said Chadwick.

The tea and the music seemed to have a composing influence upon the old woman. The incessant swaying of her body ceased. Only the nervous hands beat continual time with the toothbrush against the teacup.

"I went through a pork establishment the other day," said Townsend, resting his elbow on his knee and his chin on his hand, "and there I learned the intimate connection between the rendering of pig products and the rendering of a song. I stored the information in my memory to tell you."

The old woman showed some interest.

"In rendering pork, you know, you try the fat, and in rendering a song you try the audience. See? I will now illustrate the rendering of a song," he went on hastily, seeing that his patient was growing restless in her effort to understand his nonsense.

He was singing "Ben Bolt" in a highly sentimental manner and tears were running down his hearer's withered cheeks when a step in the entry caused an instant change in her demeanor. Springing to her feet, she flung her teacup straight at the door. Townsend sprang from the table and caught it neatly on the fly.

"Out!" cried Grimston under his breath.

"How has she been?" the newcomer asked, with no trace of surprise at the warmth of her reception. She was a woman of 40, tall and angular, and her features showed her kinship to the insane woman, her mother.

"About as usual," returned Townsend. "I saved the cup today, you see, but I was too late for the plate," indicating the fragments on the table.

The listeners beneath the window now thought it wise to make good their escape—all except Allen. He walked along slowly after his friends, who were running in pursuit of an electric car that had flashed by the end of the alley. He let Townsend come up with him.

"Hello, old man! What are you doing here?"

"Spying on you," returned Allen frankly, and then made his confession, ending with, "And I beg your pardon with all my heart."

"Oh, that's all right," said Townsend, much embarrassed. "They're just two old women I found out about. The daughter makes neckties, and she has to deliver them at a shop in the square every day at 5 o'clock, so if I can stay with the mother while she's out she can keep her 'job,' you see. Then it saves her some trouble if the old woman has her supper while she's gone. It amuses me, too," he added rather shamefacedly.

Allen never told Townsend who had been his companions in the reconnoitering expedition, but it was not hard to guess at some of them. Chadwick came to Townsend the next day with—

"I say! I've got some money here that I got the other night—no matter how—and I don't like to keep it. Do you know any poor people that it would help?"

And Morton, who had cut several recitations for the purpose of going into Boston to make some purchases, brought him a big bundle of silks, saying:

"Old man, Allen tells me that you know a woman who makes neckties. Will you get her to make me up some out of these? Pretty, aren't they?" he added sheepishly.

And Grimston, who was fond of antiquities, implored him whenever they met to "render a song to try men's souls."—Mabel Shippen Clarke in National Magazine.

How Byron Proposed.

Byron's proposal to his wife, Miss Milbanke, was made after sordid discussion and study and lacked all impulse. Lady Melbourne, who stood in his confidence, observing how cheerless and unsettled his mind and prospects were, strenuously advised him to marry. She suggested a certain lady, but Lord Byron fancied the idea of marrying Miss Milbanke.

"No," said Lady Melbourne; "Miss Milbanke will not suit you. In the first place, she has no fortune now, and you want money immediately. In the next place, you want a person who will have great admiration for your genius; she has too great an admiration for herself."

"Well," said Byron, "as you please."

And, sitting down, he wrote a letter to the lady recommended by Lady Melbourne. He received a refusal.

"Now, you see," said he, "Miss Milbanke is to be the person after all. I will write to her."

As soon as he had finished his friend, still remonstrating, read the note and observed:

"Well, really, this is a very pretty letter. It is a pity it should not go."

"Then it shall go," exclaimed Byron, and, so saying, he sealed and sent the fiat of his unhappy fate.

Watered Milk.

Here is a good test for watered milk which is simplicity in itself: A well polished knitting needle is dipped into a deep vessel of milk and immediately withdrawn in an upright position. If the milk is pure, some of the fluid will hang to the needle, but if water has been added to the milk, even in a small proportion, the fluid will not adhere.

Remarkable Case of Mr. Otis Kinne, Edgett's Landing, N.B., who was Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The number of people who desire to tell of health and strength restored through the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills is rapidly on the increase. Never were there so many who were weak, run down, nervous, anaemic, suffering from heart disease in some form or another, proclaiming the merits of the "little life savers," as there are at the present time.

One of those who undoubtedly owes his restoration to health to this remedy and this alone, is Mr. Otis Kinne, Edgett's Landing, Albert Co., N. B. The picture we give above is a very fair likeness of him, and the statement of his case by his wife is as follows:

"I feel it my duty to let you know what a benefit your Heart and Nerve Pills have been to my husband. He has been failing in health for some years and took weak and blind spells at times.

"He seemed to have no strength to work and could not walk up hill.

"Last fall he had to give up work altogether, and remained poorly, gradually growing worse, as the doctors could not do anything for him.

"I was visiting my uncle in Moncton, N.B., and he told me he was taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they were doing great things for him.

"I got a box of these Pills and brought them home with me and gave them to my husband.

"After he had been taking them about three days he began to feel an improvement. He continued their use for some time and now he can walk up hill without any trouble, and works all the time.

"His bowels used to be so constipated that he had to take liquorice power every night, but now that trouble has entirely gone.

"I consider I owe a debt of gratitude to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for the good they have done my husband."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, skip beats, dizzy and faint spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, pale and sallow complexion, St. Vitus dance, partial paralysis, dyspepsia, female troubles, general debility, after effects of Grippe, and any condition arising from disordered nerves, weak heart or watery blood.

Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto. See that the red heart is on every box you buy.

The statement that Mr. Major owes his life to . . . . DR. CHASE'S Kidney Liver Pills

Dr. J. T. A. Gauthier, of Valleyfield, Que., writes: "I, the undersigned, certify that the contents of this letter, in regard to the cure of Mr. Isadore Major, by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, is correct."

Here is Mr. Major's letter: "After 20 years of suffering from backache and kidney disease I owe my life to Dr. A. W. Chase. I had tried an endless variety of remedies to no avail, and on the recommendation of a friend began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two pills that night and two next morning gave great relief, and I continued their use until now I am completely cured. My friends are surprised and pleased to see me well again, for I spent hundreds of dollars in vain trying to get cured. Before using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills my back ached so I could not put on my shoes and couldn't lift 20 lbs. My shoulders were sore, I had headaches and a bad taste in the mouth. These troubles are now entirely gone and what I say I am ready to prove. I have told my friends of my wonderful cure, and many have been greatly benefited by using these pills."

WOMAN AND HOME.

AN AMERICAN WOMAN WHO WEARS THE DECORATION OF A PRINCE.

Woman a Miserable Creature—She Didn't Like It—Dangerous Hair Ornaments—The Borrowing Nuisance. When Most Girls Marry.

It seems somewhat singular that in this democratic land there should be women who wear decorations bestowed by foreign princes or powers. Yet there are three such in New York.

One is Mrs. Marie Robinson Wright, whose history of Mexico won her the distinction from that republic. The others are Clara Barton and Miss Lillie d'Angelo Bergh, who, notwithstanding her foreign name, is sufficiently American to be—and is—a D. A. R. of the New York chapter. She traces her descent on the maternal side from a stock of clergymen and physicians, including Dr. Thomas Russell, an early graduate of Yale, who "rendered valuable military and medical services to the Revolutionary cause," as set forth in Miss D'Angelo Bergh's "D. A. R." certificate. To the paternal side she owes her two distinguished names—D'Angelo by descent from the great Frankfort banker and Bergh from the famous German philosopher, Dr. von Bergh.

The decoration worn by Lillie d'Angelo Bergh is that of membership in the order of Chevaliers de Melusine, conferred upon her by a prince whose name and titles are like an "Arabian Nights" enchanted horse with power to transport us instantly back to mediæval times and old crusading scenes—Guy de Lusignan, prince of Jerusalem and Cyprus and hereditary monarch of Armenia—titles noble indeed, but without revenue or power, and fraught only with danger. His younger brother, archbishop of Armenia and Constantinople, had the distinguished honor of being poisoned in truly oriental fashion by the sultan of Turkey at a banquet, his influence having become sufficiently great to excite fear in that gentle monarch's breast. But Prince Guy de Lusignan still can confer a gracious recognition on merit and has bestowed his "Ordre de Chevaliers de Melusine," which dates back to the crusades, on three Americans, the two women mentioned and Bishop Satterlee. It was given to all three in gratitude for their interest in Armenia and services to her cause rendered in different ways.

MISS LILLIE D'ANGELO BERGH.

Miss Bergh, who is a well known vocal teacher, is a woman of deeply philanthropic spirit and gave freely of time and talent to raise money for the Armenia relief fund. Lillie d'Angelo Bergh has had a very interesting life and is as thoroughly cosmopolitan as it is possible for any one to be, having been born in the United States and educated in France, Germany and Italy. She was a special pet and protegee of the late Queen Olga of Wurttemberg, sister of the Emperor Alexander of Russia, and was in the circle of intimate friends of the young Grand Duchess Vera of Russia.

In Miss D'Angelo Bergh's pretty studio in the Albany her collection of photographs—many of them bearing autographs of celebrities is a conspicuous feature. Patti, Calve, Melba and Sembrich, all with friendly and complimentary autograph inscriptions, form a distinguished group. Another group is composed of pupils, many of them of the best families in New York. A specially valued one is of "Winnie" Davis, Daughter of the Confederacy, inscribed "Your affectionate friend and pupil, Varina Anne Davis."

Woman a Miserable Creature.

"Yes," said the woman physician, "we women are altogether miserable creatures. It is being more and more impressed upon me. A man's body and mind seem to have been made independently to some extent, but there is such a union between the body and mind of the woman that anything that affects the one is sure to affect the other and seriously.

"There is no use talking, it is certainly true that a woman is better if she devotes herself to sweeping and dusting and does not take into her life any of those things that will cause her mental worries and use up her nervous force. Women not only are made ill by their own troubles, but by the troubles of other people.

"Take a man who asks a woman to marry him and she refuses. What does he do? Go and get ill over it? Not a bit of it. He may feel a little blue for a time if he has gone so far as to consider that there was only one woman in the world for him, but he goes on with his business and probably does not lose a wink of sleep or his appetite. But it is quite a different matter with the girl.

"A man has asked her to marry him, and she has refused because she doesn't care for him; wouldn't marry him under any circumstances. But notwithstanding all this she will probably lie awake all the night after she has refused him, lose her appetite perhaps and be thoroughly miserable and used up for several days. Oh, yes, I have seen it often enough!

"Why, I know of one case where a girl refused to marry some one of whom she had been very fond, though only as a friend. He felt badly enough, but she was so entirely broken up over the affair that she fell into a nervous condition, couldn't sleep, couldn't eat and was ill and miserable for over a year. Why, she hardly recovered in time to accept an invitation to the man's wedding! Yes, we women are miserable creatures."

She Didn't Like It.

"I am so proud of you!"

With eyes tenderly expressing the fond appreciation and tender love of a devoted husband, John Blumer turned gently and imprinted a kiss upon his wife's forehead.

"Yes, my dear," he continued, "I feel somewhat conscience stricken when I think of how silent I am as a rule about all those qualities of mind and heart which you possess. As I go about among my friends and talk with the brilliant and cultivated women who shine with such splendor how glad it makes me to think that you are not such as they! Give me the quiet, simple woman, who is content to stay at home, who lives but for her husband and who prefers the domesticity of the home circle to the artificiality of society. No one knows better than I do that when you go out you suffer greatly in comparison with other women, whose glamour of intellect blinds the senses. Beauty in women I can admire—indeed I do admire it—and yet, after all, I prefer you. What do I care if you are not beautiful, when I know that you are good? What difference does it make to me if you cannot be bright and witty, no matter how hard you try with others? Hello! What's the matter?"

"Don't you think," replied Mrs. Blumer as she took her handkerchief from her eyes and glared at him with a combined look of sorrow and anger, "that you have said enough?"

John Blumer rose from his chair with a despairing gesture and looked out of the window savagely with a hard, set look on his face.

"That's just like a woman!" he muttered indignantly to himself. "Give her one word of praise, and she turns on you!"

That Twinge.

When you get the first twinge of rheumatism, get a bottle of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure. It will save you a world of trouble, pain and expense. Do not delay. It will cure the most obstinate case. Mr. William Coburn (carter), 148 Pine St., Kingston, suffered with Muscular Rheumatism for two years. Two bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. This preparation is taken internally. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

Dangerous Hair Ornaments.

Women cannot be too careful in selecting combs for the purpose of wearing in their hair. Imitation tortoise combs are highly dangerous from the fact that they are combustible and have been known to explode when exposed near a fire, gas jet or lamp.

It is not very difficult to tell the difference between an imitation and a real tortoise comb. The former is generally very clear, and the places between the teeth are finished off square. On the other hand, real tortoise combs are somewhat cloudy, but very highly polished, and the spaces between the teeth are carefully rounded. They are made entirely by hand, while the imitations are molded.

When a woman thrusts a little tortoise shell ornament through her hair, she little dreams of the number of hands through which it has passed. The finest tortoise shells in the world come from the West Indies and the next from the coast of Africa. At one time it was thought necessary to kill the tortoise for the purpose of getting the shells, but now they are plucked from the animal just as feathers are from a goose, and in the course of a year the tortoise is capable of growing another shell.

By blending light and dark shells together the expert is able to produce almost any shade he wishes. Having been carefully prepared, the shell is constantly steamed to prevent it becoming crisp, and when pliable it is immediately molded by hand into the shape desired.—Exchange.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says—"Electric bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store, every bottle guaranteed.

"The Jewels of Hope."

Is there any sadder or more pathetic spectacle in this world than that of the poor woman weighed down with wretchedness and suffering who is at last convinced in her very soul that there is no more hope of healthy happiness on this earth? Or is there on the other hand any more delightful and inspiring picture than that of the same woman when the spirit of renewed life comes to her again and holds up before her the jewels of hope, and the regal garments of rejuvenated health and happy complete womanhood?

"I had been a sufferer for more than one year with severe depressing pains in my womb," says Mrs. Annie L. Mathews, a lady living at 310 Broadway, Newport, R. I., in a thankful letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "I seemed to have no life or energy, I was always in such misery.

"At times I suffered so much I thought that death would be better for me. I had tried doctors and different kinds of medicines but all failed to do me any good. I commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and also his 'Pellets,' and had only taken one bottle when I felt much better. When I had taken four I felt entirely well. I continued to take it and today I am in every way a well woman, and I have found that life is worth living. To all women who suffer with any womb trouble I would recommend this medicine. I thank the Lord that such a doctor as Dr. Pierce was born."

Delicate, pain-weary women need not hesitate to write to Dr. Pierce. All communications are accepted in absolute confidence; never published without express permission; and always answered with earnest consideration to give the best possible advice of which a life-long professional experience is capable. A Great Mystery.

Many droll stories are told of the oriental's ideas of warfare. Chinese cavalrymen came riding to the charge with fans and perfume bottles, while a servant brought up the rear with a Winchester rifle. In "Korean Sketches" Mr. Gale tells a characteristic anecdote:

Most of those who after the battle came to the dispensary in Mukden for treatment were wounded in the back.

"How is it that sons of the gods are wounded in their after parts only?" asked the foreigner. "It looks as if they had run from the barbarians."

"We advanced all right," said the Chinaman, "according to military methods. Then we put on fierce faces, like Che-kai-yang, the god of war, certain that the Wo-jen would run, as they would have done if they had not been hopeless savages, unacquainted with Chinese characters. We rushed on them, breathing forth fire, but they moved not. Then our general shouted, 'Victory!' for we had paralyzed them with our baldness.

"But suddenly a long row of guns was raised like one arm, and, immortal gods, such a dastardly way to fight I never saw! I know not why we were wounded in the back."

BABY ITCHED SIX YEARS

Body Covered with Humor. Legs Down to Knees a Solid Scab. Five Doctors and Medical College Could not Cure. Father SPENT ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS Trying to get Him Cured. Old Friend Suggested CUTICURA. Sleep and Rest on First Application. Now Completely Cured.

My son, when he was six weeks old, had a breaking out on the top of his head. It spread all over his head, and then his arms broke out from shoulder to wrist. Around his body and around his legs from his knees to his ankles, was a solid scab. My family doctor treated him for eighteen months, but no good was accomplished. I tried four more, and then a medical college in St. Louis six months. No good yet. Spent not less than a thousand dollars in money and time. Old Mr. Barney Clap insisted on my trying CUTICURA remedies, telling me he had a spell like my child's himself. By the time my wife had used the CUTICURA (ointment) up, he began to improve and got so he could sleep short naps, and gave me and wife some rest. Thank the Lord, he is well now, fat, hearty, and stout as any boy, after six long years of itching, crying, and worrying. CUTICURA remedies cured him.

THE STOCK YARDS QUESTION.

South End Deputations Heard by the Aldermen—The Matter Referred to the Market Committee

The deputations appointed at the indignation meeting held in the Park street Baptist church Monday evening appeared before the Committee of the Whole Council Tuesday night. There was also a full gathering of spectators and auditors.

The popular deputation was heard first. Mr. Walter Evans read the resolution adopted at the meeting and thought the council had power to prevent the establishment of the stock yards if it could be shown that it was an injury to property in the neighborhood, and he had no doubt of that. He insisted that no person had a right to set up anything that would depreciate the property of any who had invested their all.

Mr. Robert Hull dwelt upon the serious nuisance such stock yards would be and objected strongly to them.

Mr. N. T. LePlante thought cattle yards were a great nuisance.

Rev. O. C. Elliott, of the Park street Baptist church, said he was present on behalf of a church corporation which, inasmuch as it paid taxes, was entitled to the protection the town should afford ratepayers. The church was used for the worship of God by ratepayers who did not come on religious grounds but as demanding the protection the town should extend to ratepayers. He pointed out that the presence of the proposed stock yards would destroy the usefulness of the place of worship he represented. He did not presume to give legal advice, but he believed that the town had power to prevent the outrage involved in the establishment of the proposed stock yards. This was not a merely local affair; it affected the whole town, for a depreciation of value would lessen the assessment and consequently an extra impost would have to be imposed upon the rest of the town. Therefore he thought the town would be justified in taking steps to prevent conditions that would lead to a loss of revenue.

Alderman Hall said the matter of Mr. Kennedy's application was still under the consideration of the committee to whom it was referred. He said the lot in question was entirely different from that first mentioned.

Alderman McWilliams said a stock yard would be for the benefit of Peterborough, but he would not favour a site that would work to the injury of any citizen or section of citizens, and he moved, seconded by Mr. Sawers, that the matter be referred to the Market Committee with power to investigate and report.

The motion was carried and the committee arose.

The following is the text of the resolution adopted at the meeting of the members of the Park street Baptist church on Monday and read at the afternoon meeting of the council:

"Whereas we have heard that it is the intention of a certain company to establish a cattle yard and market in close proximity to our present place of worship, and whereas if such company be allowed to carry out their stated intentions, the nuisance arising from the odor and the noise caused by the bawling of the cattle housed therein will seriously interfere with our public worship of God; and whereas the establishment of the said cattle yards in such proximity to our present property would render it valueless for church purposes, and also make it unsaleable for other purposes, thus depreciating its value; and whereas as a church we have not only benefitted the community morally but have also paid our share of the expenses of the municipality by paying our taxes."

"Be it therefore resolved that we as a church most strongly object to the establishment of the said cattle yards in the immediate neighborhood of our place of worship, and that we respectfully urge our municipal council to protect our interests, and those of the entire community, by using their vested powers to prevent the establishment of the said cattle yards in any location that would deprive us of our civic and religious rights."

"And be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the clerk of the municipal council and also that the following be a deputation to wait upon the council on the first suitable occasion and urge upon them the need of protecting our interests—Messrs. Hunt, Barrie, Goheen, Gillespie, Grover, Tranter, Jewett, Anderson, Kemp, Doten and the pastor.

PEACE RESTORED IN JAMAICA.

Governor Hemming Recedes and Appeals for Conciliation.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 12.—The Legislative Council resumed its sessions yesterday. The Governor, Sir Augustus Hemming, read a statement making an absolute and unconditional surrender, withdrawing the additional officials and members, restoring the constitutional status quo ante bellum and appealing to the representatives to accept the right hand of fellowship; to allow bygones to be bygones, and announcing that he relied on their patriotism to aid him in solving the difficulties. Thereupon the representatives withdrew the vote of censure of the Government, passed on Friday last, and voted $500,000 to meet the immediate liabilities, pending a rearrangement of the finances of the island.

Dastards at Work.

London, April 12.—An attempt has been made to wreck the Irish express, bound from Paddington railroad station here to Milford, where the passengers embark on board the mail boat for Waterford. A large boulder was placed on the track, but the engine swept the obstruction away. The passengers were shaken, but the engine was only slighty damaged. There were a number of Americans on board the train on their way to catch a steamer at Queenstown.

Col. Browne Arrested.

London, April 12.—The Daily Mail publishes the following despatch from Hongkong: "Lieut.-Col. G. F. TWO LITTLE TOTS BURNED.

They Were Playing With Matches and Set Their Clothes on Fire.

Detroit, Mich., April 12.—The three little children of Batsom Haines, 353 Meldrum avenue, were playing in the yard yesterday afternoon. Little Nellie, aged 4, and Glenn, aged 2 years, had matches and were amusing themselves scratching them and watching them break out into miniature blazes. Suddenly their clothes caught fire. They ran screaming to their mother, enveloped in flames. The mother struggled for several minutes, badly burning herself about the hands and arms, trying to rescue the little tots. Dr. Dewar was called, but the two little ones were beyond human aid. They were horribly burned.

A Guaranteed Asthma Cure.

Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Some years ago this would have been considered an impossibility, but Dr. Clarke has solved the problem since completing his experiments with the wonderful Kola plant in England. In December, 1893, he found, that by combining extracts from the Kola with other extracts made from the Grendosa plant which grows in California, that the compound would cure the severest cases of asthma. Upon experimenting in one of the leading London hospitals he found that 98 per cent. of the cases were relieved in from 48 to 96 hours' treatment. Since the introduction of this remedy into Canada in 1897 there have been over 800 cases cured in Canada alone. Mr. M. F. Hayes, C.P.R. engineer, Western Division, writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over twelve years, and never succeeded in getting anything to help me permanently until the C.P.R. doctor prescribed Clarke's Kola Compound for me in [illegible] bottles entirely cured me. I have since had any return of the complaint, and have been cured from my childhood and feel grateful to all who may be afflicted." Positively guaranteed to cure. Sent by mail to any address. THE POSTAL CRANKS.

THOSE WHO DON'T OR WON'T PROPERLY ADDRESS LETTERS.

Their Notions of Humor as Displayed in Directions on Envelopes—Some of the Puzzles With Which the Department Has to Wrestle.

It does seem an easy matter to properly address a letter in order that it may slip through Uncle Sam's postal mill as speedily and safely as possible. No racking of the intellect is required in the process, and but little physical exertion—simply the inscribing of a name and address. Yet, in the face of this, ask the man who superintends the sorting of the mail in our local postoffice about it, and if he does not throw up his hands and fervently cry, "The Lord preserve us from those who don't or won't know how to address a letter!" it will be because he is too busy to do more than think his opinion.

Of the thousands of letters which go through the office weekly it is surprising to learn that hundreds of them, through faulty addresses, cause the postoffice people almost as much extra trouble as the handling of those which are in proper form. And the acts of this same class are also the most potent factor in keeping the wheels of industry humming in the dead letter office at Washington all the year round.

Carelessness on the part of letter writers is the cause of the appearance of most of these bothersome missives, and in this line San Francisco is entitled to a seat in the grand stand, as the records of the office will show. It is the careless person who drops a letter adorned with a stamp, but unadorned with an address, into the box; it is a kindred spirit who mails a letter to a friend in some distant city which the writer locates in a state having no such city within its borders; it is one with a similar failing who directs his letter to a certain street and leaves a blank space below for the postoffice officials to fill in any city or town it may occur to them the street is situated in; it is carelessness that brings to the postoffice a neatly addressed and stamped envelope which is, however, unsealed and destitute of contents, just the sort of an affair to cause a fearful breach between two correspondents, one angry because of an unanswered letter and the other indignant because his tale of the empty envelope is discredited. But to tell of the devious and aggravating ways of the careless letter writer would take a day in itself.

Ignorance also plays its part in the letter game, as a few select specimens will show. It was certainly an ignorant person who not long ago addressed a letter to "His honorableness the President," leaving it to the superior wisdom of the postmaster to guess whether the letter was a petition to the president of the United States for a position or an appeal to the president of a glue trust for a job as laborer.

Ignorance or a childlike belief in the supernatural powers of the postal officials also inspired the following effusive, though vague, inscription on a rather dirty envelope dropped in the main office:

"To my cusin, Martha Small, who lives in Organ and was goin to moove to Montanner."

Another missive with a nomadic address was odorous with mystery. It was directed:

"Samuel Kramer, Milwaukee, Wis.; if not, try Columbus, O.; or, maybe, Dallas Tex.; or, perhaps, Bangor, Me."

Was this letter representative of a forlorn hope to reach a long lost heir to a fortune or the frantic attempt of a creditor to run down an elusive debtor?

A piece of handiwork worthy of the immortal Handy Andy is exhibited by a letter which, besides the stamp, bore only on its face this writing:

"If not delivered in ten days, Postmaster will please open and return as per address inside. Stamp inclosed."

But it is not the careless and ignorant alone who clog up the postal machinery and cause the letter men to give way at times to an inclination to use words of lurid tinge and emphatic meaning. Their correspondence, of which the foregoing are only a few samples, from an outside view is easily disposed of by being thrown aside in the hurry of making up mail and afterward bundled off to the postal morgue at Washington, unless there is some identification mark whereby it may be returned to the writer.

There is a vast and growing army of cranks who seem to live only for the purpose of using the mails in their own peculiar, idiotic way. In the operations of some of these there is a studied fiendishness that would suggest a gigantic conspiracy to drive postal clerks to the insane asylum or the clammy tomb. San Francisco has some shining lights in the crank line, as may be seen by what follows:

In the first place there is the puzzle crank who imagines that a 2 cent stamp gives him the privilege of displaying at the expense of the postal officials his marvelous powers as an enigma maker. Of many which annoyed the postoffice last year the following is a fair sample:

F. (color) B. (Second President.)
Seventh President.
10—S—C.

The envelope ought to have gone into the waste box, but Uncle Sam's orders are to use all possible means to find the party to whom a letter is addressed. So finally a reformed puzzler in the office deciphered the address to be, "Fred H. Adams, Jackson, Tenn."

A wholly inexplicable piece of crankism was developed by a letter that apparently had no address where addresses usually are, but in fine writing in one corner was scrawled:

"Heat envelope and find address."

When the letter was held to a gas jet, an address that had been written in invisible ink was drawn out by the heat. Strangely enough the letter was marked, "Important."

KILLED FROM AMBUSH

Samoans Decapitate Their British and American Victims.

3 OFFICERS AND 4 SAILORS.

An Army of Eight Hundred Fierce Samoans Ambush British and U. S. Marines—Anglo-Americans Outnumbered 8 to 1 Had to Retreat—40 of Mataafa's Warriors Killed in the Fight.

Auckland, N.Z., April 13.—Despatches received here from Apia, Samoa, April 4, say that a party of 105 American and British sailors were forced to retreat to the beach, after having been caught in an ambush on a German plantation that day. The expedition was led by Lieut. A. H. Freeman of the British third-class cruiser Tauranga. Lieut. Freeman and Lieut. P. V. Lansdale and Ensign J. R. Monaghan of the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia were left dead on the field.

Ensign Monaghan remained to assist Lieut. Lansdale, and was shot in retiring. Two British and two American sailors were also killed.

The natives engaged were some of Mataafa's warriors. They severed the heads of the British and American officers killed. Priests of the French mission afterwards brought the heads into Apia.

The manager of the German plantation has been arrested, and detained on board the Tauranga, on affidavits declaring he was seen during the fight among the rebels.

In a previous engagement 27 of Mataafa's warriors were killed, and there were no casualties among the European force.

It is estimated that about 800 warriors attacked the Anglo-American party from ambush.

Depredations Continued.

Further advices from Apia, Samoa, say that on the arrival of the British cruiser Tauranga at Apia the British and American consuls issued a proclamation to give Mataafa a last chance, and the French priests also used their influence, but all efforts failed, and the rebels continued their depredations. Property was destroyed and bridges and roads were barricaded. On March 29 the enemy was sighted at Maguigi and machine guns and a seven-pounder were used. The friendlies also attacked the enemy during the latter's retreat, and several rebels were killed or wounded. The friendlies carried one head through Apia, which made Captain Stuart so furious that he went to the King and threatened to shoot any man found taking heads. The King then issued a proclamation forbidding the practice.

The German consul wrote to Admiral Kautz asking if two great Christian nations approved of this inhuman and barbarous practice against the laws of Christianity and the decree of the Supreme Court. The Admiral replied, agreeing with the consul as to the inhumanity of the practice, and pointed out that had the German consul upheld the decree of the Supreme Court of January, there would have been no bloodshed; "that the custom was an old Samoan one, but first made known to the world ten years ago, when the 'heads' of honest German soldiers were cut off by the barbarous Chief Mataafa, whom the representative of the great Christian nation, Germany, is now supporting."

Expedition Still at Work.

Expeditions in armed cutters, belonging to the Tauranga and Porpoise, are doing considerable execution against Mataafa's strongholds along the coast. The British forces are being assisted by 100 Samoans. About 46 of Mataafa's boats and several villages have been destroyed. In the meantime flying columns are being sent daily along the roads and through the bush near Apia.

On April 1 a force of 214 British and Americans, and 150 friendlies, was surprised in ambush at the German plantation of Vailale. The rebel force opened fire on the rear, left flank and front of the Anglo-American force. The friendlies bolted, but the marines and blue jackets stood their ground splendidly, American and British tars firing shoulder to shoulder.

The Colt automatic gun, with the landing party, became jammed, and the Americans and British were practically at the mercy of the rebels. "Retreat" was sounded three times before the marines and blue jackets retired.

Shot Through the Heart.

Lieut. A. H. Freeman, first lieutenant of the Tauranga, who was in command of the allied force, was shot through the heart.

Lieut. Philip B. Lansdale of the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia had his leg shattered while endeavoring to fix the jammed gun.

Seaman Hunt of the British cruiser Porpoise had an extraordinary escape. He remained with Lieut. Lansdale until clubbed over the head and knocked senseless. The blue jacket revived as the natives were cutting off his right ear, and were turning him over in order to cut off his left ear. At this juncture a shell from the British cruiser Royalist burst on the battlefield, scaring the rebels, and Hunt succeeded in escaping to the beach, although severely stabbed in one foot.

They Were All Beheaded.

The same night the friendlies found the headless bodies of all the officers. The bodies were buried with all honors at Mulinuu on Easter Sunday. Their heads were subsequently brought in by some French priests, and the coffins were reopened and the heads placed with the bodies.

Lieutenants Freeman and Lansdale were capable and popular officers. The former was single, while the latter had been married in June last.

The officers who returned are Lieut. George E. Cave of the Porpoise, and Lieut. C. M. Perkins of the Philadelphia.

All behaved splendidly. Lieut. Cave took command of the retreat.

Captain Sturdee of the Porpoise was away on an expedition with his cruiser, and Gaunt's brigade was also absent on duty.

The loss of the enemy is not known, but probably 50 of the rebels were killed and many wounded. The bodies of three rebels were found near the spot where Lieut. Lansdale and Ensign Monaghan of the Philadelphia were killed. The priests buried 38 other rebels and much blood was seen on the road over which the Mataafans had been dragging away their dead and wounded. There were also pools of blood behind the cocoanut trees, the bullets from the American and British rifles going right through the thick trees and killing men hiding behind them. Some of the rebels fired from the top of cocoanut palms.

The rebels opened fire near the town yesterday evening.

Another Warship to Be Called.

It is now proposed to summon another warship to distribute more arms among the friendlies and to import additional friendlies from Tutuiea. It is also suggested that troops might be obtained from New Zealand or Sydney, New South Wales.

If a sufficient quantity of arms could be obtained, about 2,000 friendlies could be used against the Mataafans.

But they are not brave and have not shown fighting qualities, excepting those with Gaunt's brigade, and that force may not accomplish much.

The Samoans say Mataafa, on three occasions, had resolved to surrender, but the German consul, Herr Rose, advised him not to do so, and he now says he will never give in, but will fight to the death.

Two More Warships.

Sydney, N.S.W., April 13.—The British cruiser Wallaroo and the British gunboat Goldfinch have been ordered to proceed to Samoa.

COLLISION AT ST. JOHN.

Boston Liner Badly Damaged by the Alcides.

St. John, N.B., April 13.—The International Line steamer Cumberland, one of the regular Boston liners, was damaged between $3,000 and $4,000 yesterday in a collision with the steamer Alcides. The Cumberland was lying at her wharf and the Alcides was leaving her berth to sail for Glasgow. For a space of 30 feet, from the main to the saloon deck, everything on the port side of the Cumberland, which is a wooden boat, was smashed into splinters. Nine staterooms were wrecked and the saloon badly damaged. The Alcides set out on her voyage without stopping.

Will Be Looked Into.

Toronto, April 13.—The employes of the Grand Trunk who were dismissed as a result of the accident at Shakespeare last month are: Engineer Walker, 15 Draper street; Conductor Dunn, East Toronto; Engineer N. Curran, 38 Bathurst street, and Brakeman Rumstain of East Toronto. Brakeman Newton, who was suspended for 30 days as his punishment, immediately tendered his resignation. The company sent a reply, saying that the suspension would be withdrawn if he would not sever his connection with the road. The action of the company is being criticised, and the Brotherhoods intend to investigate the matter.

Mr. E. A. Buchner of Ronson has been appointed clerk of the Fourth Division Court of Norfolk County in place of the late J. F. Cohoe, who was killed in a railway accident recently.

E. H. Whitmarsh, clerk of the Divisional Court at Merrickville, Ont., is dead, aged 88. He was three times warden of Leeds and Grenville, and one of the oldest Orangemen in Canada.

Captain A. E. McCallum, who was born in St. Petersburg 62 years ago of English parents, has just died near Colwood, B. C., where he had been engaged in farming for the past 20 years. He was formerly a captain in the 91st Regiment.

Toronto is to have a blast furnace that will be the largest in Canada and that will bear comparison with the largest concerns of the kind in the United States. The capital of the company will be $2,000,000, the capacity of the furnace will be 200 tons of ore per day, and it is expected that the middle of May will see a beginning made.

A man named Thomas Beaupre, living in St. Thomas Parish, Joliette Co., Que., who had been drinking heavily, hanged himself to a beam while his wife was absent on Wednesday, and when Madame Beaupre returned she found her husband dead. Beaupre had opened a trap door so as to allow himself plenty of fall, thus swinging himself out of the world.

KILLED BY INDIANS.

Englishman and Swede Shot Dead for Cutting Their Names on Totem Poles.

Vancouver, B.C., April 13.—Sidney Vance, an Englishman, and Charles Erickson, a Swede, were killed by Indians at Klakwan, near Dyea. They were shot dead for desecrating totem poles by cutting their names thereon.

A VESSEL ON FIRE AT SEA.

Str. Saale Reports Having Passed One on April 9.

New York, April 13.—The North German Lloyd steamer Saale, which arrived yesterday morning from Genoa, Naples and Gibraltar, reports a vessel on fire at sea. On April 9, in latitude 39.37, longitude 55.39, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, a vessel on fire was reported by the lookout, and the Saale steamed in the direction of the glare. The steamer's whistle was sounded at frequent intervals, but failed to produce a response. The vessel was three-masted, square-rigged on the foremast, on which the fore yard and double topsail yard were secured, while the topgallantmast was cockbilled, the slings having burned away. The main and mizzen masts were standing; no yards could be seen on the mainmast. The fire was in the after part of the vessel, which appeared to be a wooden lumber-laden craft. Receiving no answer to her alarms, the Saale proceeded at 10.12 p.m.

Put This and That Together.

Montreal, April 13.—It is feared in marine insurance circles that yet another disaster occurred during the fierce storm which raged during the month of February.

Messrs. J. J. Riley & Sons state that the Austria, a full-rigged ship, owned by Churchill & Son of Hantsport, N.S., left Mobile, Alabama, for Belfast, Ireland, about the end of January, and has not reached her destination, though in the ordinary course of events she should only take 40 or 45 days to complete her voyage.

REGULAR MAIL TO ATLIN.

Arrival on Friday and Despatch on Monday of Each Week.

Victoria, B.C., April 13.—A letter from Atlin, dated March 27, and received here yesterday, says the mails have now commenced to run with regularity every week, arriving there Friday and despatching on Monday.

Body Turned to Stone.

Niagara Falls, April 13.—Eleven years ago Mrs. Stephen Collins died from the effects of a self-inflicted wound in the throat. Her body was buried in St. Mary's cemetery. Yesterday the body was exhumed in order to remove it to another resting place. It was found when the coffin was opened that her body was turned to stone.

Rosebery to Start in Again.

London, April 13.—The Daily Mail said yesterday morning: "We understand that the Earl of Rosebery is about to resume active political life."

"Welcome, Evil, If Thou Comest Alone."

One evil that cannot come alone is impure blood. If this is allowed, it is attended by kindred ailments galore. This condition means that every vein and artery of the body, instead of carrying to the organs a health-giving flow of life, is laden with a slow and impure fluid that is harming instead of healing.

It is unfortunate when there is "bad blood" between people. It is worse when it is inside of you. Hood's Sarsaparilla will not make enemies friends, but it will make "bad blood" good blood, and blood should be of the best quality. Hood's never disappoints.

Pimples—"My face was covered with pimples and blackheads but after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time, I was entirely cured, and my skin left smooth and clear. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla very highly." MAY RYAN, North Street, Chatham, Ont.

Erysipelas—"I would strongly urge the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla for erysipelas or any scrofulous disease. I have received great benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla for the former complaint. It is an excellent blood purifier." MRS. H. D. WEST, Church Street, Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

Tired Feeling—"I had no appetite and experienced a tired feeling. Different medicines did not help me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time I was enjoying perfect health. Since then we always take Hood's Sarsaparilla when we need a blood purifier or tonic." MRS. S. KNOX, Beatrice, Ont.

Stomach Trouble—"I had pains in my sides and kidneys. Stomach and liver troubles caused my distress. I had doctored without avail and used many medicines unsuccessfully. My sister advised Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time it cured me. I am now stronger and sleep better. I shall never be without Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house." MRS. FRANCKE, 189 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

SCHOOL SAVINGS BANKS.

Brantford is a go-ahead city and shows a disposition rather to lead than to follow. We learn from the Brantford Expositor that last Monday morning the school savings bank system was inaugurated in that city under the most favourable auspices and if the enthusiasm with which the new departure is hailed is regarded as an indication, the scheme promises to be a most desirable feature of the school system. The deposits by pupils, are accepted in sums from one cent and upwards and when it is stated that the total of the first day's deposits in the Brantford schools was $221.74, some idea can be formed of the aggregate amount of the children's bank accounts in the future, though of course the first day's deposits were naturally large, representing, perhaps the banking of private hoards. The modus operandi of the scholastic banking system is not at all complicated. It appears that every Monday is deposit day and the following from the Expositor's report will give an idea of the simplicity of the system:

> The system will not interfere with schoolwork. This morning as was natural the scholars were excited over the novel project, hence more confusion ensued than will ever again be the case. Even to-day, the receipts of money did not occupy over 10 minutes in the senior form, although among the juniors, where deposits were more frequent, a little time was required. The deposits are kept in triple entry. The scholar has a neat little pass book, in which the amount is entered as deposited, and the book remains in the possession of the scholar. Then the teacher has a register with columns properly ruled, to receive the entries. This register remains in the teacher's possession. Last of all the teacher is supplied with a budget of blank returns, which she is required to fill out each day and forward to the principal of the school. In this way there can be no mistake consummated that will not be speedily corrected.

Of course when a really bankable amount is deposited by the pupils, the total sums to the credit of the pupils of the several schools are deposited in the banks of Montreal, Commerce, Standard and Royal Loan. The Expositor in speaking editorially of the matter says:

> The Public School Savings bank system was formally inaugurated in Brantford to-day, and there seems no reason to doubt the entire success of the project. Parents would do well to remember that the trustees desire, not so much large deposits from the children, as a large number of individual depositors; in other words, that the benefits of the system should be as widespread as possible. Parents are also reminded that they will have only themselves to blame if they permit the savings of the children to be made a basis upon them in any way. This is not necessary. And should be discountenanced. What is sought for is the encouragement of habits of industry and thrift, and the providing of a safe and convenient repository for the "savings" of the children, and for such moneys as they would otherwise spend in trifles. With this understanding, the school banks are certain to be widely popular.

This matter seems to be one which our own wide-awake Board of Education might very properly take into serious consideration. The cultivation of habits of economy and thrift cannot begin too soon and there seems to be little danger of developing meanness in money matters by the school savings bank system. The general thrift of the French arises from the small economies they practice. If children are early taught to save, instead of spending money, there will be in future generations less of the commercial cramp and collapse, that now result from pure waste of means due to lack of appreciation of the value of the habit of saving money. Money is, of course, useless except for spending, but there's a right and wrong way of making legitimate expenditures. One of the quickest ways to ruin a boy, or girl, for that matter, is to furnish them with a liberal supply of spending money or pin money as the case may be. It is a matter of moment to the state that habits of thrift should be formed in the people and one of the most effective ways seems to be through the medium of the school savings bank system. It is at least worthy of attention.

Under British rule Egypt's finances are now reported to show a surplus, even after the Soudan deficit is provided for. This, also, is after the taxes on the people were reduced. Egypt is on the way to become one of the world's rich nations again. This and similar results deprive the protests against British occupation of their force.

The tide of immigration to Canada continues. Superintendent Pedley today received a cable from Lord Strathcona stating that a body of 51 Germans and their families will sail from Hamburg tomorrow. On their arrival in Canada they will take up lands in the Saskatchewan district. The Cyprus Doukhobors, to the number of 1,200, will sail on the Lake Superior in time to arrive in Quebec about May 4.

The Conservative Journals, whose party when in power did not ge timmigrants of any kind to speak of, are severely denouncing the new arrivals to the Northwest. We must have somebody to people our vacant acres up north, and we must accept those that accept Canada's open-armed offer of homes. There is evidence that our new immigrants will make good, industrious citizens. The assimilative power of Anglo-Saxonism will speedily convert the foreigners into good Canadians.

During the first three months of the present year, according to Dunn's review, there were 370 failures as against 433 for the corresponding period last year and 647 in 1897. The liabilities covered were $4,257,426, as compared with $3,009,270 last year and $5,195,700 in 1897. The failures in manufacturing industries alone represented $2,437,107, against $458,524 last year and $1,402,432 in 1897. In business failures the aggregate liabilities have decreased in proportion to the number of failures. The opposite condition in the report of manufacturing industries is due to a single failure, with liabilities of $1,150,000.

It used to be the claim of Sir John Macdonald that the N. P. Would stop the exodus—in fact this pretense was put forth in a formal resolution submitted to parliament. The realization, says the Brantford Expositor, was vastly different from the prediction; the best blood continued to leave the country in large quantities. To-day, without the N. P., the exodus which Sir John Macdonald aimed at has been practically stopped, and in its place we have a return movement—thousands of desirable settlers leaving the United States to take up their homes in a more promising country. May this kind of an "exodus" continue.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Another evidence of the harmony of the Conservative party. It took Sir Hibbert Tupper six or seven hours to tell of the enormity of the government's guilt in relation to the alleged maladministration in the Yukon. According to Sir Hibbert the government's record involved the most tremendous injury to the interests of Canada imaginable—they might be forgiven everything else; but their Yukon record should hang them. Yet when Mr. Foster, one of the Conservative leaders—of the Nest-of Traitors wing—and Hon. Mr. White arraigned the government in the bye-election campaign in Brockville on Tuesday night they didn-t even refer to the Yukon "enormity."

IRELAND'S TURN NOW.

It would have been surprising if the Nationalists had not carried the late elections by a large majority, for where should Irish sentiment prevail if not in Ireland? The class which has ruled the country heretofore appears to have been relegated into an almost hopeless minority, while a new element, the working class, has developed unexpected strength. In these results American influences are plainly evident, for the people of Ireland are in close touch with their kin beyond the sea, and being born politicians they are quick to apply the principles of democracy. No doubt the landlords will also take lessons from America and learn in time how to manage popular assemblies, whether councils or caucuses. In that way only, keeping in accord, if they may, with popular sentiment, can they hope to regain their lost ascendancy. Apart, however, from mere questions of party, it may be accepted as a wise political axiom that opportunity should be given for the gratification of natural, laudable ambitions among the people. Canadian municipal institutions have been of enormous value in this respect, constituting as they do a local sphere of ambition and a school where men are trained for higher promotion in our system of popular representation. There is no reason to suppose that democratic rule in Ireland will be any better or any worse than elsewhere. Freedom will have a bracing effect on the masses; self interest and the keen criticism of the sharpest witted people in the world may be relied on to keep them from making any very serious mistakes.—Montreal Witness.

BAILIEBORO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

On Wednesday evening of last week Mr. Josiah Perrin who had reached the ripe age of over 90 years, passed away. As a young man of 25 years he settled on a farm in South Monaghan and remained there until his death. He raised a large family, of which Mr. James Perrin, who died about this time last year, was an esteemed member. Mr. Perrin was fairly well during most of the winter. Over a month ago he began to fail rapidly, and for about two weeks before his death that event was looked for almost daily. Two days before his death he bade all his loved ones who were about him an affectionate farewell. Towards the last he suffered very much, but retained his reason until the end. The word of God has been his reading for some time. He has been a member of the Baptist church in Bailieboro for a good many years. He was a strong believer in the pre-millenial view of the second coming of Christ. About four years ago Mrs. Perrin died and he has frequently spoken of their reunion. Mr. Herbert Perrin, the youngest son, occupies the homestead, and Mrs. Joseph Barnard, of Peterborough is another member of the family.

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., April 3. — There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Masa Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

HARVEY.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The Harvey Council met at Hall's Bridge on Monday, April 3, 1899. Members all present. Minutes of their last session read and approved. On motion the reeve was instructed to procure a lawyer's opinion re statutory levy upon U. S. Sections. On motion the timber heretofore sold to Thomas Flynn, on concession line between 10 and 11 from north side of lot 21 to the north side of 26 be transferred to John O'Donnell. On motion George F. Windover was appointed overseer on his old road beat for the year 1899. On motion the reeve was instructed to attend the land sale for taxes in arrears in behalf of the township. On motion the collector was instructed to collect forthwith the unpaid taxes for 1898 and return his roll by the 1st of May, and that the clerk publish warning notices of the same in the Examiner and the Bobcaygeon Independent. On motion accounts passed, and reeve instructed to draw orders for payment of the same as follows, viz: E. Brook, tin box for use of the assessor, $1; Hart & Riddell, for copying press, letter book and expressage, $2.97; H. A. Cairnduff, contract for filling approach to Lavery's bridge, $40; Trustees S. S. No. 2, to apply on levy for 1898, $30; Thomas Gordon, final grant to repair his bridge, $22.50; Samuel Purser, for work on Deer Bay road beat, $2; John Eastland, for cleaning school house after council meeting, 50c. A motion passed that the above grant to Thomas Gordon be a final grant towards keeping up his bridge at the mouth of Eels creek, as the council in the first place refused to build the bridge as it is on his own land, and allowed Bennett and Gordon to commute their statute labor for 5 years to build the said bridge in 1875. On motion the council adjourned to meet at the town hall on Monday, the 29th day of May next.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334 80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

COOLNESS REQUIRED.

The Samoan Trouble Has Now Reached a Critical Point.

SITUATION NOT WITHOUT HOPE

Herr Rose, German Consul, Held Responsible for the Shedding of British and American Blood — London Papers on the Situation — An Agreement Said to Have Been Reached.

London, April 13.—The Berlin correspondent of The Morning Post says:

"Lord Salisbury, I learn, has definitely announced his adherence to the principle of unanimity in the Samoan commission, although filled with grave apprehensions as to the sentimental effect it may have on the commission's usefulness. The British and German Governments have now arrived at an agreement."

British Editorials.

Regarding Samoan, The Times this morning says editorially: "The incident is painful, though it has no direct bearing upon the questions under discussion between the three Governments and may not in any way affect their diplomatic action."

The Daily News says: "Ambush and mutilation of the dead are the ordinary incidents of savage warfare and ought not to provoke any special acts of reprisal. The case, however, would be seriously complicated if it could be shown that the Germans actively aided or counseled the enemy. Apart from that there is nothing left to do but to keep cool and to hurry the joint commission."

The Daily Telegraph says: "Let us hope that it will be the disposition of all sides not to aggravate a very serious situation."

SENSATION IN LONDON.

British Admiralty Received the News From Capt. Stuart.

London, April 13.—The despatches of the Associated Press from Apia, Samoa, via Auckland, N.Z., were the only news received of the treacherous attack made by the Mataafans upon the American and British naval forces. They created considerable sensation in official circles and among the general public. The newspapers sent out large placards, printed with such startling announcements as "British and American forces routed," "German treachery," etc.

The British Admiralty has received a despatch from Capt. Stuart, the senior British naval officer in Samoan waters, giving the news of the death of Lieut. Freeman of the British cruiser Tauranga, in "an engagement with the rebels." No details accompanied it.

The German ambassador here, Count von Hatzfeldt-Wildenburg, first received the news of a representative of the Associated Press. He quickly recognized its importance, and asked permission to make a copy of the despatch. He said: "This news is indeed grave, and it is unfortunate, too, at this moment that anything should occur to endanger the negotiations for a settlement that we were glad to feel would soon have arrived. Of course, I cannot discuss the particulars given in the despatch, but the occurrence is certainly very unfortunate."

Caused Great Annoyance.

The outbreak in Samoa, just when the powers had agreed upon the appointment of a commission to settle the difficulties there, has caused great annoyance and disappointment at the Foreign Office here, where it is regarded as making the already serious complications still graver. While they have difficulty in expressing a definite opinion upon the fresh developments, the Foreign Office officials think it has been manifested that there has been hasty and aggressive action upon the part of Herr Rose, the German consul. Although he may have many technical reasons for the part he has played in behalf of German interests, it is asserted that he has been the prime cause of the fresh outbreak, which will necessarily greatly embarass the endeavors which the three powers are making to restore a satisfactory and amicable state of affairs.

The despatch of the British Admiralty from Apia, after giving the list of killed and wounded, adds: "The British and American authorities used their utmost endeavors, previous to the fighting, to reach a peaceful settlement."

STORY FROM BERLIN.

The Tanu People Said to Have Been Raiding and Pillaging on German Property.

Berlin, April 13.—An official despatch from Apia, dated April 5, says: "The British have been bombarding Samoan villages daily, and the adherents of both Tanu and Mataafa are plundering foreign property. On April 1 an Anglo-American landing party of 70 men fell into an ambuscade near Vailale. Three officers were killed and two light guns were captured. The warships afterwards renewed the bombardment."

The officials here point out that the engagement appears to have occurred at the same place that a landing party from the German warships Olga, Eber and Adler had an encounter with the natives in 1888.

"GRIPPY" COUGHS

If neglected, often end in Pneumonia, Bronchitis or Consumption.

Be on the safe side—Take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and cure the cough at once.

Plenty of people in their graves now, who might have been alive to-day if they had cured the cough and cold associated with Grippe at the outset. It's an easy matter to do with such a remedy as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing, soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying the germs that produce serious lung complications.

Mrs. Alonzo H. Thurber, Freeport, N.S., says: I had a bad attack of La Grippe and my cough was so severe that I had great difficulty in breathing.

After taking two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup I was completely cured.

There are plenty of "Pine" preparations on the market trying to live on the reputation and merits of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so always insist on the genuine. Price 25c. at all dealers.

Bed Bugs

Quickly destroyed by Persiatic Be Bug Exterminator. It is a liquid, much more effective and searching than a powder. Moisten the parts affected once or twice and the pest is destroyed. No need to experiment with doubtful or inefficient insecticides—Persiatic Bed Bug Exterminator is the strongest vermin destroyer in the market. Never fails. Price 25c. at druggists.

The PICKHARDT RENFREW CO., Stouffville, Ont. LIMITED

The correspondent here of the Associated Press has had an interview with a Foreign Office official who is authorized to speak for the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow. He said:

"We have received several official despatches saying that the Tanu people for a fortnight past have been raiding and pillaging around Apia, destroying mainly German property. They are armed with weapons furnished by the British.

"We also received yesterday a despatch from the commander of the Falke, confirming the ambuscade and the loss of the Americans and English, substantially tallying with the despatches of the Associated Press. The ambuscade may possibly have been on a German plantation, as nearly all the property around Apia is German. The Government regrets extremely the occurrence, for which, however, it is in no way to blame. Such hostile encounters must naturally be expected when the Anglo-American action in crowning Tanu has made nine-tenths of the Samoans their enemies. It shows strongly how necessary is the prompt departure of the commission with adequately full instructions.

"Although the German commissioner has not yet been formally appointed, he is ready to start Samoawards within half an hour of the three Governments clearly defining the mode of operation and the powers of the commission. Why does England needlessly delay agreeing? It is the only way to prevent ceaseless bloodshed in Samoa. Unless the commission starts soon such encounters may occur any day. Of course, now that fresh blood has been spilled, the excitement of the Americans and British may increase. But Germany is blameless. The same thing happened to our men in 1888. The Samoans also cut off the heads of German victims then. That is one of the Samoans' 'pleasant habits.' If Admiral Kautz had the power to re-establish peace all might be well, but he needs a much stronger force than now available under his and the British command at Apia to subdue Mataafa and his warlike hosts."

DESPATCH FROM KAUTZ.

The News Confirmed by the United States Admiral.

Washington, April 13.—The following despatch from Admiral Kautz has been received:

Auckland, N.Z., April 12.—Secretary of Navy, Washington: On April 1, while the combined forces of the British and United States, under Lieut. Freeman, British navy, were reconnoitering near Apia, they were ambushed. Deeply regret to announce the death of Lieut. Philip B. Lansdale, Ensign John R. Monaghan, Coxswain James Butler, Ordinary Seaman Edsal and five men wounded, belonging to the Philadelphia. The British loss in killed, two men and Lieut. Freeman.

The news from Samoa was received here with a feeling approaching dismay. There was a refusal on the part of the higher officials to discuss the sad event. The secretary of the German embassy called early yesterday upon Secretary Hay. Neither of the officials would disclose anything as to the nature of the exchange that took place.

A Dangerous Feature.

The arrest and detention by the British officials of a German subject is one of the most dangerous features of the controversy. It is said that the consuls of the three powers stationed at Apia claim extra territorial jurisdiction involving the right to try the subjects of their respective countries for any alleged offences committed. Under this practice the German consul, Rose, may demand the surrender of the German subject.

At the British and German embassies the news of another bloody conflict in Samoa was received with deep concern. Sir Julian Pauncefote expressed his profound regret at the collision, at a moment when he had hoped the trouble was in a fair way to adjustment. Mr. Eliot, the British high commissioner to Samoa, deplored the event. The British officials were quite confident, however, that the chances of a settlement would not be destroyed by this affair, although they might be somewhat embarrassed.

A Sharp Difference.

A sharp difference has developed between the British and German Foreign Offices as to getting the high commission off for Samoa on the 19th. Lord Salisbury says the commissioners cannot be instructed by telegraph so as to get away on the 19th. The British view is that there is no chance of getting away until next month. The following official German view was given to the Associated Press:

"After Germany and the United States had arrived at such an understanding that the commission could have left San Francisco on the 19th, England raises new difficulties of such a complicated nature that they cannot be dealt with telegraphically. Germany feels justified, under these circumstances, to hold the name of her commissioner back. The Berlin news that Germany would demand satisfaction for the arbitrary action of Admiral Kautz is not credited in official German circles, and it seems to be a malicious invention. The whole question on account of Samoa is pending at present, not between three powers, but between Germany and England."

MORE VILLAGES CAPTURED.

Gen. Lawton Adds Pagsajan and Lumban to His List.

Manila, April 13.—Lawton's command captured the villages of Pagsajan and Lumban yesterday, with some resistance at the latter place. The mouth of the river, commanded by Lumban, was effectually blockaded against the entrance of the gunboats. Shells from the Laguna de Bay drove most of the insurgents in flight up the mountain side. A small force remained in an old church, offering resistance until it was rushed by the troops. About 30 were captured and several killed. There was one casualty among the Americans, that being an arm wound. Six launches and two canoes were captured in the river. The river mouth will be dredged and the obstructions removed.

Santa Cruz and Pagsajan are now guarded by the men of the Fourth Cavalry. Part of the Fourteenth Infantry, with General Lawton, is in Lumban.

New and Original Advertising.

It is interesting to watch the new ideas to be found in the advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The present line of advertisements is especially unique, each beginning with a familiar proverb and leading up to the good qualities of this famous medicine. The argument in every case is clinched by condensed testimonials from people the medicine has cured. It is gratifying to see the continued success of an article of genuine merit. While other preparations come to the surface and after a short time disappear, Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily maintained its place in public confidence.

TOO DRUNK TO VOTE.

Election Tactics in South African Are Thoroughly Up to Date.

New York, April 13.—The Post's London correspondent says: The information current in well-posted circles indefinitely postpones Cecil Rhodes' expectations of soon again assuming the Premiership of Cape Colony and practical British leadership of South Africa.

The Vryburg election has been lost after political manoeuvres not creditable to either side. Two thousand electors, brought in at great expense by special trains arrived too drunk to be carried to the poll. The best authorities assert the elections now proceeding at the Cape will leave Rhodes in the minority of six in the Assembly. This can hardly fail to have a momentous effect upon the British policy towards the Transvaal and in South Africa generally.

Waltzing Ostriches.

The behavior of wild ostriches on the plains of South America and South Africa is said to be often exceedingly droll. They have been seen to perform an antic that looks like waltzing. A number of them will start off on a run, and, having gone a considerable distance, they stop suddenly, spread their wings and whirl round and round until they fall down. They also kneel to each other when about to fight, opening their wings and swaying their bodies about in an excited way.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. ADVERTISING IN THE EXAMINER PAYS

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3.70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4.35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9 00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7.50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5.20
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

DEATH OF STANLEY BRADD.

He Passes Away After a Painful Illness of Eleven Weeks' Duration.

A death with the saddest possible attendant circumstances, occurred this morning in the demise of Stanley Bradd, aged 16, son of Dr. Bradd.

Everyone is conversant with the facts connected with his sudden and unexpected illness, when in the full enjoyment of boyish health and spirits, he was struck down by an attack of meningitis. It was just eleven weeks ago Wednesday that the symptoms were first apparent and since that time the case has necessitated the closest attention. At times the patient rallied and the favourable reports, as to his condition, were received with rejoicings amongst his many young friends. About ten days ago, however, after a week's perceptible improvement, unfavourable symptoms became evident and the lad endured great suffering. Anxious friends were never absent from his bedside night and day, but the greatest efforts of medical science were unavailing and this morning the bright young life passed over the river.

Affable and obliging to all Stanley Bradd was a favourite with both old and young and his bright smile will be recalled by his friends when many other memories have faded. His sorrowing parents will have the sympathy of the entire community.

Funeral from the family residence, Stewart street, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CANADIAN HOME JOURNAL.

A Peterborough Contributor to its Columns.

The "Canadian Home Journal" for April with its picturesque front page and its bright, cheery contents is, thus, within and without, suggestive of the freshness of spring. It is well filled with good, entertaining literature which appeals especially to the gentler sex; well printed on good paper with excellent illustrations. Its original stories written by Canadian women are graceful in respect of literary quality, and healthy in tone—these conjoined with its illustrations descriptive and pictorial of Canadian places of interest give it a particularly Canadian character. The Canadian Home Journal—"a journal for Canadian Homes" well deserves this appellation and is worthy of extensive purchase and reading. It is published in Toronto at only one dollar a year. It is filled with a great many racy sketches, short, crisp articles and quite passable original poetry. A clever little poetical skit, above the ordinary in merit, contributed by a Peterborough young lady who has won well deserved literary laurels— Miss Alma Frances McCollum—is entitled

THE HORSELESS CARRIAGE.

Our family is first in style,
Since sister Ella's marriage;
Content erstwhile to wheel, we now
Possess a horseless carriage.

'Tis built of pliable rattan
And has pneumatic tyres,
'Tis innocent of oil or flame
Or live electric wires.

The rider neither drives nor steers
Aboard this horseless carriage;
For aunties trundle it abroad
Since sister Ella's marriage.

BARRIE HONOURS

Mr. R. A. Dutton, a Departing Citizen—Entertained at a Banquet and Presented with an Address and a Gold-Headed Cane.

Mr. R. A. Dutton, who has purchased the fruit business of Mr. J. B. Oke, represents a valuable contribution to the citizenship of Peterborough for he was very highly esteemed in his late home.

Mr. Dutton went up to Barrie on Monday to make arrangements for removing his family to town. The citizens of Barrie took advantage of his presence to giv very appreciative expression of the high esteem in which he was held.

He was entertained at a banquet at the Wellington Hotel during which the health of the honoured guest was enthusiastically honoured by the representative gathering of citizens. During the evening the following address was read:

To R. A. Dutton, Esq.,

Having learnt with great regret of your departure from our midst to become a resident of Peterborough, we your late fellow citizens feel that we cannot allow the occasion to pass by without in some way showing both tangibly and otherwise our appreciation of your many good qualities, guiding influence and assistance in the management of the affairs and best interests of this town.

After enjoying your citizenship for a period of upwards of twenty-five years during which time you have always shown yourself to be fully alive to our needs and have taken active part in all public affairs, as well in business as in sport, we know only too well that your absence amongst us will create a void which it will be hard, indeed, to fill. Your energetic manner of carrying to a successful end all your undertakings, whether in the domain of sport, or business, will commend you to your newly found fellow citizens in Peterborough and cannot but crown your efforts in your new home with unqualified success, and there win for you as many and fast friends as you are now leaving. The ability to plan, your pluck, energy and a good methodical way of pre-arranging details, together with honesty of purpose, and above all exceptional enterprise, have been your characteristics here and will no doubt continue to bring to a successful issue all your undertakings.

Let us assure you that although in future you will be absent in body you will be ever present with us in mind, and your removal will, as the poet puts it only "drag at each remove a lengthening chain."

In conclusion we wish you and yours every success and prosperity in your new home and hope and trust that you, Mrs. Dutton and the children will be long spared to enjoy the pleasures of this life and to often return to the many friends you are now leaving.

Hoping you and Mrs. Dutton will accept the small presents we now offer.

Barrie, April 11th, 1899.

The presents mentioned were a handsome gold headed cane for Mr. Dutton and a gold watch for Mrs. Dutton.

Mr. Dutton acknowledged the honour he had received and has every reason to be highly pleased with the good name he leaves behind and he will have no occasion to find fault with the welcome Peterborough will give a worthy new citizen.

APPPOINTED ADMINISTRATORS

The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, have been appointed administrators of the estate of the late William Cator, who with his wife and family, lost his life in the late Rogers Pass disaster. Mr. Cator formerly lived at Bowmanville, where he left an estate amounting to about $6,000 cash in bank and insurance. The same company have been appointed administrators of the estate of the late James Scott, of Lindsay, who left real estate to the value of about $5,000.

An Unframed Picture.

Who has got one? It can be improved 100 per cent by having it suitably and artistically framed at the Peterborough Bookstore. The glass protects the picture too. We have a large assortment of mouldings to match any style of picture.

'ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

TO BE HELD IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALVATION ARMY.

Four Days' Special Meetings will be Held by the Local Corps, Beginning on Friday Next.

The local corps of the Salvation Army will celebrate their anniversary by four days' special meetings beginning on Friday evening. They have secured the services of some of the best talent in Toronto. Brigadier Frederick, who has charge of the party of eight officers who are coming, has been an Army officer for over ten years. He was converted in the early days of the Army in Winnipeg, and during these years has occupied some important positions. For a number of years he had charge of all the trade operations in the Dominion, also Provincial Officer for British Columbia and the Northern States, succeeding last year Brigadier Complin as editor of the War Cry.

Staff-Capt. Morris, private secretary to Miss Booth, is a musician of the first order. He began his Army career when but a child, singing songs of salvation right into the hearts of the crowds who nightly attended the Army meetings. If everybody else failed to arrest the attention of the sometimes rough element, little Harry's singing never failed to reach them and open the way for direct appeal in speech. Together with his brother Frank they began travelling when mere boys, their playing and singing never failing to secure good crowds.

Adj. Page, sub-editor of the War Cry, has been an Army officer for some considerable time. Herself the daughter of a literary man, has been a valuable help to the Army since her appointment on the editorial staff. She is a talented, gifted girl, and will add much to the interest of the meetings here.

Ensign Attwell was fitting himself for a profession when he became converted and offered his services to the Salvation Army. Being a good French scholar he was sent to Canada to help in the French work in Montreal. After labouring there for some time he was transferred to the editorial department at Toronto, Ensign Dick Griffiths formed one of the party who visited Peterborough in February. His many friends will be glad to welcome him back.

Capts. Lemon, Morris and Arnold complete the party. All these officers are musicians and form the pick of the famous Toronto Staff Band. There will be special programmes of singing and music at every meeting. A string quartett will be among the attractions, and the violin solos of Capt .Arnold deserve special mention.

The Living Shadows announced for Monday night will be a most unique and instructive as well as interestinng service. It is a new departure in the army, and has only been recently introduced in Toronto, where it has met with exceptional success. Peterborough citizens will avail themselves of this exceptional treat and a crowded house is expected.

Th first of these meetings will be held on Friday night, when the Local Corps will march to the station to welcome the visitors and conduct them to the barracks, where the welcome meeting will be held.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

Y.M.C.A. ATHLETICS.

The last indoor athletic contest was run off Tuesday night—Sanford Hall making the most points in the four events, Chas. Mathias was second and Harley Gouldey, third. The events were standing broad jump, running hop step and jump, 18 feet rope climb (for time), and the quarter mile run on the track.

The result of the series of contests is as follows:

Fence Vault—Sanford Hall, 7ft. 3 in.; Chas. Mathias, second, N. Campbell, third.

Running Broad Jump—Peter Steward, 16 ft. 5 1-2 in.; Chas. Mathias, second, Ernie Brumwell, third.

Running High Jump—Sanford Hall, 5 feet; Peter Stewart second, Chas. Mathias third.

180 yard Potato Race—Chas. Mathias and Sanford Hall, equal, time, 32 1-5 sec.; Peter Stewart second, Chas. Anderson, third.

60 yard Potato Race — Harley Goldey, 15 3-5 sec.; Sanford Hall and Art Noble equal for second place, Chas. Mathias third.

Standing Broad Jump—Chas. Mathias, 8 ft. 9 1-2 in.; Sanford Hall, second, Rollie Irwin third.

18 feet Rope Climb (time)—Sanford Hall 6 3-5 sec.; Chas. Mathias second, Wm. Roadhouse, third.

Running Hop Step and Jump—Sanford Hall 37 ft. 1 in.; Rollie Irwin second, Chas. Mathias, third.

Quarter Mile Run (on 36 lap track) —Chas. Mathias 1 min. 19 4-5 sec.; Sanford Hall second, Chas. Anderson third.

The silver medal presented by Messrs. A. H. Stratton, Dixon Davidson and Wm. E. Lech goes to Sanford Hall. The judges, timers and scorers of the contest were Messrs. Wm. E. Lech, A. H. Stratton, D. Moore, Rev. E. V. Stevenson, Gen. Secretary, Geo. H. Williamson, Alf. Terrill and A. C. McCallum.

WRESTLER DOYLE'S DOINGS.

He Doesn't wish to Face the Music Across the Line and will Fight Against Extradition.

The Lindsay Post gives the following account of Tom Doyle's latest doings:—Wrestler Doyle, whose real patronymic is George Reikes — the name under which he was married to a Lindsay girl some years ago— has finally dcided to give Sheriff Hazard, of Cattaraugus county, New York, the trouble of applying for extradition papers, and that officer left yesterday for Washington in connection therewith. In the meantime further hearing of the case stands adjourned till April 24th. This morning Reike's solicitor, Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q. C., made an application for bail before Judge Harding, who will give his decision on Saturday.

How Sports were Taken in.

This morning the sporting editor of The Post received the following card and clippings.

Office of The Weekly News,
Tilbury, Ont., April 10, 1899.

Dear Sirs —Please send us your paper containing an account of the arrest of Doyle, the wrestler. He did our village up a few days ago on the double-cross deal to the tune of $1,000 under the name of Walter Norman. Am sending a clipping from the News of last week, Gives detail of sentiment here. Yours. R. DAVIDSON.

A crowd of one hundred and twenty-five men assembled at the town hall Sarnia, last Tuesday evening, April 3, to witness a wrestling match between "Bill Jackson" of Toledo, and Martin's "unknown." The match was for an alleged purse of $1,000, and the conditions were—best two out of three catch-as-catch can. The match was very interesting and looked like a genuine contest of skill and strength in that particular style of wrestling—catch-ascatch can. Jackson won the first and third bouts. The backer of the unknown, who came from Tilbury, and is said to be a butcher, dropped in the neighborhood of $750 on the match.—London Free Press.

A telephone message just received from Sarnia says that Tom Norman won the first fall in forty minutes, Walter the second in six minutes, and at this juncture a Tilbury man put up $250 more on Tom. In three minutes more Walter won the third fall. Tom was going to lick the referee at the close of the match, etc. The Tilbury backer was given $10 to come home with. The sports left Sarnia immediately after the match and have not been heard from since.—Tilbury News, April 7th.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

"DEATH IN THE POT."

"Death in the pot." That sentence condenses the story of a tragedy. A little family gathering. A fine dinner cooked in the large copper kettle long disused, and the entire family poisoned by the accumulated verdigris. The story was told by the newspapers from one end of the land to the other. But it was soon forgotten. The moral of it is, that the purest of food, put into a foul vessel, instead of ministering to life may become a minister of death.

If the stomach is diseased it is like the poisonous kettle, which taints everything that goes into it. The symptoms are irregular appetite, undue fullness after eating, distressed feeling in the stomach, of fluttering and sinking sensations, palpitation, dizziness, ringing in ears, sour or bitter risings and constipation. Not all these symptoms may be present at the same time, but any of them shows disease in the digestive or alimentary trsct.

The intimate relation of the stomach to the blood, heart, liver and lungs makes it a medical maxim in exploring the causes of obscure diseases to "start with the stomach." It is upon this principle that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery effects so many and such remarkable cures. It cleanses the stomach and the system is cleansed. It increases the action of the blood making glands, and the body is enriched by the purified blood. It strengthens the digestive or nutritive organs and these strengthen the whole body by increasing the quantity and quality of its nourishment. It carries off the poisonous, effete matter. In this way it re-establishes health, banishing the bodily aches, which are but symptoms of the stomach's condition.

All medicine dealers sell "Golden Medical Discovery." If they try to substitute something else, it is because "something else" pays better. Insist on "Golden Medical Discovery" if you want to be cured.

BEAUTIES OF THE NEWEST RIBBONS

How the Latest Wrappers Are Made. French Waists and Curved, Snug Fitting Sides—Parasols of Wonderful Richness—Lace and Its Uses.

[Copyright, 1899, by American Press Association.]

IF THERE is any one thing in the way of feminine adornment that appeals to my fancy more than another, it is ribbon. I always did like ribbon. It is so beautiful; not so much for the sake of wearing it as to have it in front of me, so that I may pass my hands over it and turn it this way and that to find new effects as the light falls upon it, and so all night I was dreaming of the new ribbons I saw the day before. They floated around me in tantalising circles and loops; but, try as I might, I never could touch one. But I think those dream ribbons were even more beautiful than those that I saw in reality.

Henry Ward Beecher had a passion for jewels, and his wife told me that he also had a passion for rich silks and ribbons, and that whenever he saw any in show windows he would go in and buy a piece, and this he would keep on his study table to look at. These pieces of silk and ribbon he would somehow lose and then go off and buy more. After his death Mrs. Beecher gave them as souvenirs to her women friends.

I have often thought that perhaps the sight of those rich brocades did in some way stimulate him by their perfect splendor, as music does others. Anyhow, he loved to see them. So do I.

In one place the other day I stood before a display of ribbons that was so truly beautiful that I now feel entirely incompetent to describe them. Beginning with the narrow baby and Tom Thumb varieties in all the popular colors, the list grows wider and varies more.

The most of the narrow ribbons are in one color and are used for ruffling. Next to them comes a ribbon about three inches wide. The center is of one color, say blue, and then there is a line perhaps a sixteenth of an inch wide of bright color in a fine brocade sometimes showing two or three colors. The outer lines are white, with a row of the narrow brocade. The white and blue lines are nearly an inch wide. To put this ribbon to the use it is intended for the center stripes of brocade are gathered, which makes a shirring of the center part and ruffles of the two outer edges. This is sewed to skirts, waists and on hats, and it shows up wonderfully well. Wires are fastened along the inside of the shirring when it is put upon hats in the form of loops or upstanding bows.

Next come the wide ribbons, which will be used in a variety of ways in addition to sashes. There was one pattern of a ciel blue ground, with large oriental palm leaves in rich browns and gold colors mingled with red. The leaves laid "this way and that" in the length of the ribbon, there being but little blue shown. This was very rich. These ribbons are 8 and 10, even 12, inches wide, and thus they are found very useful as insets, yokes, vest fronts and panels, besides the sashes they were originally intended for. They are to be tied at the front, back, right or left side in a huge bow, with ends reaching the bottom of the skirt.

I saw a dainty white muslin dress with a sash of this weave, and sashes are to be worn with any kind of a gown this season. The dear and delicate old style cheney ribbon is with us also for sashes. It is only suitable for rather wide ribbon, as there is not room to bring out all its beauties. These designs are now, as always, in very delicate tints and vague shadowy figures.

There is not a great variety of sizes of ribbon between the narrow and the very wide, but I noticed one line of three and four inch moire in all the delicate tints now in vogue. The moonlight blue in moire is particularly beautiful. All the violet tints and purple ones are seen in these moires, and when they are used the prettiest way is to have several shades together.

A NEW WRAPPER.

I saw a very novel effect in the bringing together of satin, grosgrain, velvet and moire ribbons in the same widths, but different shades. The heliotrope and violet shades are to be very prominent this season, whether in the immense masses of the flowers seen on everything they can be put on or in the colors of hats, trimmings, ribbons and garments.

There were many dainty new summer parasols on display at another place, and for real use in keeping off the burning rays of the sun they would be of little service. But for a softening and beautifying frame for a lovely face they are certainly successful. Some of them have a centerpiece of silk or satin not over 18 inches in diameter, and all the rest is shirred and puffed crepe lisse or chiffon, ending in a deep floating ruffle. The handles are veritable works of art. This small central portion is often wrought with beads and perhaps chenille embroidery in true lovers' knots or a little fine filigree design. Others are of plaid taffeta devoid of trimming. Others again are of silk or satin in bayadere stripes, the stripes going around. White satin ones with black knots are very stylish. Some black ones have white lace ruffling.

A wonderful fancy was shown in soft india or china silk, each separate piece in a different but solid color. The whole stuff was wrought into a series of diamonds, with white insertion inset to form the squares. The silk was cut away between them, and the effect was very light and pretty. Another design had a silk of green, blue lilac or pink, with applique patterns of lace representing flowers or bowknots or something like that. The silk was cut way under these, and another colored skirt is to be worn under, so that the color beneath shall show through. One pure white showed a pink underskirt through the lace. It is exquisite. I think one or two of these designs had some other color basted under the lace instead of letting the underskirt furnish the contrast.

But there is another side to existence. All is not cake and angel food, nor is it all lace, ribbon and flummery. We must have bread and meat, and we must have wrappers of simple and inexpensive stuff. For these there is such a variety of pretty ginghams, percales, lawns, chambrays and prints that it would not be possible to mention them nor half of them. They fill a place that nothing else does or can, and so many women wear them that one is justified in saying that their fashion is universal.

They are all prettily finished and neat and even dressy in their designs. Very few have the old time watteau plaid in the back. The most have a regular French waist finish, with the belt all the way across and the sides curved to fit over the hips. To make a wrapper like these requires nine yards of percale for a tall woman. Percale costs from 10 to 15 cents per yard; calico, 5 to 6 cents. These wrappers finished cost but from 65 cents to $1.50 apiece, according to quality and amount of trimming, and so I think it scarcely pays any woman to buy the stuff and make one. The challie wrappers are pretty and soft and take their places between the flannel wrappers and the cotton ones.

Lace is offered in endless variety. Everything is or is to be lavishly trimmed with it. Narrow and rather light insertings are used more than ever, and narrow edgings woven so that they hang full from the upper edge are seen everywhere. Some of the nicest shirt waists have cords, each cording being run in so as to leave a little edge. This edge then has a row of this narrow fulled lace. There is also any amount of patterns of flounces and straight pieces and net of which whole bodices and sleeves will be made. The applique pieces are often quite separate from any foundation net, and this can be sewed flat upon collars, revers, waists and skirts. There are many kinds of flouncing laces, some very heavy and others as light as lierre and valenciennes. Thread laces, too, in black and white are shown. Some flounces are seven inches deep, others 18. They will simulate double and triple skirts.

In one large importing lace house I saw several dress skirts of thin stuffs of silken fabric. The bottoms of the skirts were scalloped, and below the scallops a perfect froth of lace ruffles appeared. That gives the bottom of the skirt the approved flare. In two other places they were making piecework of fine lawns and thin silks and all sorts of nets and mulls. These were being tucked, puffed and ruffled, shirred and ruched until one was bewildered looking at them. Then all the edges on all these things were finished with a narrow lace or very fine swiss embroideries.

Some of the new veils are very pretty, many of them having black patterns on white foundation and vice versa. Some of the veils have chenille, colored or black silk and even spangles over them. The plauen laces, which are only the pattern without foundation, are extremely rich when sewed to whatever they are intended to trim. One piece was sewed on a brown cashmere frock for a little girl and was beautiful. These laces are generally cream or butter or ecru.

Malines net for lace hats is covered with spangles. This lace is also to be used making choux and rosettes for trimming straw hats.

MATE LEROY.

The Borrowing Nuisance.

Many good housewives suffer terribly from a borrowing neighbor—the sort of person whom we have all met—who, rather than employ her ample means for providing necessaries for domestic use, is continually troubling her more sensible neighbors for the loan of a couple of eggs, a cake of soap, a fish kettle, flat-iron or preserving pan. Habitual borrowers are liable to forget to return such articles, and the lender feels naturally diffident about asking for them. Go without any article you want rather than borrow it, or if it is an absolute necessity make up your mind to buy one at once. You will then have it always at hand and will feel under no obligation to your neighbor; neither will you have the responsibility as to its safety while in your possession. If dire necessity, such as sudden illness, renders borrowing indispensable, see that the article that is lent is punctually returned in exquisitely clean and good condition. Should it take the form of a comestible, see that the quality is as good and the quantity the same, or rather in excess. Unless your hear to the contrary, even so slight a loan as a newspaper should be returned as soon as read, for you can never tell whether your friend may wish to file it or send it on to some one else. When books are borrowed, they should be at once covered and never defaced by the turning down of a page, so common a trick of most readers. The gist of the whole matter is this—never lend or borrow.—Buffalo Express.

When Most Girls Marry.

For the comfort of the American woman of marriageable age it may be stated that their prospects are much better than those of women in the older countries. According to an authoritative statistician, there are in the United States as a whole 955 women to every 1,000 men, while in all Europe there are 1,019 women to every 1,000 men. The proportion in the different European states is, however, variable. A woman's prospect of marriage is distinctly affected by age. The statistics of all countries show that the great majority of women marry between the ages of 20 and 30. Before reaching 20 a woman has, of course, a chance of matrimony, but the objections raised by parents or friends to marriage at a tender age frequently outweigh the desire of the young woman to acquire a husband and lead her to defer the wedding day. All the statistics that have been gathered in the United States bear out the statement that a woman's best chance to marry is at the age of 25, that over six-tenths of the marriages take place between 20 and 30, and consequently that a woman's chance increases up to 25 and steadily decreases after that age until it reaches the vanishing point somewhere about 60.—Professor D. R. McAnally in Ladies' Home Journal.

A Writer Who Can Cook.

Mrs. Ruth McEnery Stuart, whose negro dialect stories and readings have made her famous, is one of the best cooks in America. She has made money as well as a wide reputation for her books, but her pride is much sooner touched by reference to her soups than to her romances. When wearied with the pen, she can always find solace in mixing a salad or compounding a gumbo and shows veritable genius in all that relates to sauces and savories. In the kitchen over a frying pan her keen sense of humor expands. She can spin funny plantation jests and jingles by the yard, her dialect is as sweet as that of a "cane shed nigger," and, hearing her, then the listener realises what a remarkable gift this Louisiana woman possesses. It is probably a combination of her southern temperament and talents as a cook that causes Mrs. Stuart to be noted for her generous hospitality, and among her friends it is generally understood that where the authoress is there good things to eat are sure to be gathered together.—Philadelphia Times.

The Business of a Theater.

A prosperous theater in the city of New York may in a favorable season do a business of more than $350,000 and keep in employment 150 persons. There are 37 theaters, including the variety houses, in active operation in the boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx, while the borough of Brooklyn adds a score or more. Everything which affects business in general affects the theater immediately.

A man will reduce his expenditures for tickets to places of amusement long before he thinks of cutting down his supply of cigars, for the cigar belongs to that class of luxuries which subtly become necessaries, while the theater habit, as any observant manager will tell you, requires constant cultivation. The management of a theater is therefore an occupation requiring business sagacity in a greater degree than it calls for artistic taste.—W. J. Henderson in Scribner's.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says—"Electric bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store, every bottle guaranteed.

GENERAL DEBILITY.

From the Advertiser, Hartland, N.B.

Ralph Giberson, postmaster at Monquart, N.B., is also known as a prosperous agriculturist. Now stalwart and rugged, he scarce would be recognized as the man who six months ago was the picture of one suffering the terrible symptoms of general debility. He was run down in health, suffered much from dizziness, almost blindness, general dullness and depression of spirits. He had a poor appetite and such food as he ate gave him great distress. He was incapacitated for the work that fell upon him and was well nigh utterly discouraged. The symptoms bordered on to those by which hypochondria is manifested. Through reading the Advertiser he learned of the benefit that several of his friends in this vicinity had received by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and by the hope held out by their testimonials he secured a supply and took them according to directions. The result was almost magical; immediately his symptoms became less disagreeable, and he steadily gained until now he is perfectly free from his old troubles. He gladly gives his testimonial, that all who read it may know the remedy if ever they are troubled with general debility.

SPRING MEDICINE.

In the springtime the blood needs attention.

The change of the year produces in every one, whether conscious of it or not, some heating of the blood.

Some people have pimples, a little eczema, or irritation of the skin; others feel easily tired and have a poor appetite.

A tonic is needed.

The best tonic—the best of all spring medicines for man, woman or child is

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS

These Pills do not purge and weaken like other medicines. They make rich red blood, build up the nerves, and make weak, depressed and easily tired people cheerful, active and strong.

Pink colored pills in glass jars, or in any loose form, or in boxes that do not bear the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, are NOT Dr. Williams'.

The genuine are put up in packages, with wrapper printed in red.

Sold by all dealers or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

No other medicine in the world has offered such undoubted proof of merit. What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for others they will do for you, if given a fair trial.

A WRONG IDEA OF... DYSPEPSIA

Throws all the Blame on the Stomach—The Real Seat of Trouble is the Intestines—The Permanent Cure is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is an old idea long since exploded that digestion is confined to the stomach. No modern scientist denies that by far the greater part of digestion and the more difficult part takes place in the intestines. This explains why dyspepsia is never really cured by preparations which merely aid stomach digestion and act only on the stomach.

This fact also explains why Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have been so remarkably successful as a cure for the worst forms of dyspepsia and indigestion.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and give new tone and vigor to the intestines, and make them able to perform their work of digesting the substances on which the stomach has no effect.

Stomach treatment may do well enough for slight indigestion, but if you have chronic indigestion or dyspepsia of a serious nature you can profit by the experience of scores of thousands who have been permanently cured by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. One pill a dose, 25c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

Dr. A. W. CHASE

DISCOVERED A NEW TREATMENT FOR NERVOUS DISEASES

In his study of diseases of the nerves, Dr. A. W. Chase found that in nearly every case the cause of trouble was improper nourishment. About one-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless this blood is rich and pure the nerves cannot obtain proper nourishment, and become worn out and exhausted.

Nervous depression, nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia, loss of sleep and vital force, lack of energy, are symptoms of weak, watery blood and exhausted nerves.

It was as a food for blood and nerves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food was prepared. Its remarkable success in curing all diseases arising from thin blood and impoverished nerves is proof that Dr. Chase's theory of feeding the nerves and blood is the proper one; stimulants only urge on the tired and worn out nervous system until there comes a complete collapse.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates new brain and nerve cells, and makes the blood pure and rich. It restores to the exhausted nerves the vigor of perfect health. 50c. a large box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

VIA DISMAL SWAMP.

RESTORATION OF OLD CANAL OPENS AN INSIDE ATLANTIC COAST ROUTE.

The Historic Old Waterway Begun In Washington's Time and Abandoned Since the Civil War Is Once More Ready For Shipping.

The old Dismal Swamp canal, which has just been reopened after being practically closed for nearly half a century, is a most important link in the inside route from north to south along the Atlantic coast. Besides saving coastwise craft the perilous trip around stormy Cape Hatteras it opens up 2,500 miles of navigable inland waters, comprising many rivers and sounds of the Carolinas. It is now possible by utilizing this historic old waterway for a coasting vessel to make the trip from Philadelphia to Florida almost entirely on inland waters.

This canal is the oldest on the continent. Its charter dates back to the year 1787, when investors from the states of Virginia and North Carolina, among them George Washington, said to be a director of the company, were organized for the purpose of connecting the Chesapeake bay with the sounds and rivers of North Carolina. They were greatly handicapped in their undertaking for want of capital and had finally to arrest the work of reconstruction, which, conducted by means of the customary slave labor of the times, did not at its best make swift progress.

It was only through the assistance of the national government that they achieved ultimate success. This aid the government was ready to extend, because they themselves needed the waterway. They first realized the necessity in the war of 1812, when our infant navy, deprived of a route within the nation's seaboard line, had to face the perils of Hatteras and the sounds.

Great Britain in the meantime, with vessels to burn, was policing our coasts and occupying Hampton Roads and other seaports. Thanks to the government, in 1822 the canal was finally opened to traffic. It had a length of 22 miles and ran from Deep Creek, Va., to South Mills, S. C., connecting Chesapeake bay with Albermarle sound and opening to navigation more than 2,000 miles of country.

Immediately the southern shippers saw in this new thoroughfare of water the cheapest, shortest and most eligible route between the states. To its narrow, quiet stream they committed their tremendous burdens of ship timber, pitch, tar, rosin, tobacco and other commercial products of the south.

When the civil war broke out, the federal government was equally eager to seize the opportunities presented by an inland waterway for conveying to and fro its troops, the munitions of war and its stores and for supplying the army and navy with water. At the close of the war it surrendered the canal to the company, altogether dilapidated from hard use and neglect.

The management of it went into other hands. The general business depression of the south decreased its immediate importance to such an extent that by degrees it was allowed to run down until finally it reached that point when this once overcrowded waterway was discovered to be practically unnavigable.

Then an interest in the forlorn Dismal Swamp canal appeared to revive. One experiment after another was made in the attempt to restore it to its former measure of usefulness. One of the Behring brothers alone expended upon it millions of dollars, and, failing in the execution of his project, lost them all.

Finally the matter was brought up by the Lake Drummond Canal and Water company for the purpose not only of reconstructing the Dismal Swamp canal, but also of supplying Norfolk and Portsmouth with water. The work of restoration, which had on several previous occasions been commenced, was now once again renewed. In April, 1897, a company was organized in Philadelphia which assumed the direction of the immense undertaking. Its work was practically finished by October, 1898. Last touches, however, and final preparations for navigation have had to be made since, so that the canal was not in readiness until a few days ago. The work which had once been so difficult was easily accomplished by means of hydraulic dredges.

The canal now runs from Deep Creek, Va., to South Mills, N. C. Including the approaches, there are 30 or more miles of waterway. Its feeder was and is what is now called Lake Drummond and what used to be called the Dismal swamp, or Moore's lake. This was originally known as Drummond pond. It measures two by three miles and has an average depth of 11 feet, and into it run the Jericho canal and the old Washington ditch, named for General Washington because of his early connection with the enterprise.

In restoring the canal the three different levels were reduced to a common level and the numerous locks reduced to two, one at each end. Each lock has a width of 40 feet and a length of 200 feet. The canal bed proper affords a width of 60 feet and accommodates vessels of a draft of at least 10 feet. Every two miles an extra width is given, making a total of 120 feet. This is for the convenience of boats that wish to pass each other. The length of the canal is 22½ miles, and the cost of reopening has been over $1,000,000.

In nine cases out of ten, those who are losing flesh, wasting away or going into decline—who feel sick and miserable all the time, are suffering either from impure blood or else their blood is thin and watery and lacking in tissue building elements.

A few bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters will do such people more good than any other remedy they can take.

There is nothing like it for purifying the blood, making it rich, red and nourishing, so that pale, thin weak, run-down people put on flesh and soon gain health and strength.

MR. ALFRED J. PERRY, Cole's Island, Queen's Co., N.B., says: "I was sick and run down in health for three years and could never get anything to help me until I started taking Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I used six bottles of it, and am now as well as any man could wish.

"I believe if it had not been for B.B.B. I would have been dead, as I was so reduced in flesh I only weighed 130 pounds. Since using B.B.B. I have steadily gained in weight, as well as strength, and now tip the scales at 180 pounds.

"There is no doubt B.B.B. is the best medicine on earth."

Mrs. Amy Pinkham, who died the other day at Brooklyn, Me., was 104 years of age, and both her father and her grandfather were soldiers in the Revolutionary army.

Miss Elizabeth Ashe of San Francisco, who named the torpedo boat destroyer Farragut, is descended from a long line of soldiers and is related to the Farragut family.

Miss Anna E. Mitchener is the superintendent of the Tuscarawas Electric road which is ten miles long and connects the twin cities of Uhrichville and Dennison with New Philadelphia.

Miss Margherita Arlina Hamm of New York, the well known newspaper woman, has been appointed an inspector by the woman's veteran auxiliaries of the national guard and nurses' staff.

Frau Lilli Lehman, who retired for awhile from the operatic stage on account of illness, has reappeared in the great Wagnerian roles in Vienna, and her powers are said to be almost fully restored.

Mrs. Alice Ives Breed of Boston, who was defeated by Mrs. Low for the presidency of the National federation, is educating two little Japanese girls. They accompanied her to the biennial at Denver and were often seen with her in her box.

Sarah Bernhardt is to visit India at the invitation of the maharajah of Kapurthala, who has been visiting Paris. Besides acting in his palace she will give performances at Bombay, Calcutta, Colombo and Pondicherry and means to see a tiger hunt before her return.

Hints Worth Heeding.

White satin shoes that have become soiled need not be thrown aside as useless, but can be cleaned by being rubbed with a piece of new flannel dipped in spirits of wine. Then rub the satin lengthwise of the grain and change the flannel frequently; but, as the spirits are highly inflammable, take care to use them by daylight only and at a safe distance from the fire.

Packing to avoid creases is an art, but one that can be acquired. Folding garments to fit the trunk in which they are to be stored and laying a sheet of thin paper between the folds will do much. Packing so tightly that the clothes cannot shift about, even under the baggage man's handling will do more. The indiscriminate folds that come of a vigorous shaking up will do more harm than any amount of pressure put upon those laid with care.

Wine stains in linen may be effectually removed in holding the stained article in milk that is boiling over the fire. Fruit stains are best treated with yellow soap well rubbed into each side of the stain, after which tie a piece of pearl ash in the stained portion of the fabric and boil the article in water. When finally removed and exposed to light and air, in drying the marks will gradually disappear. Mildew spots on linen should be rubbed with soap and fine chalk powder.

Slovenliness.

Worse even than overdressing, although, thank heaven, less prevalent, is slovenliness. Certainly there is nothing more repellent than the sight of waist and skirt that do not properly connect, of dragging ruffles or of pins that call attention to gaps which a few neat stitches would effectually conceal. No woman who is anxious to preserve the respect that is due her from every man will be careless in her attire even in her own home. I do not suppose that it is easy to have one's garments always fresh and neat in appearance, but it is worth a considerable sacrifice of time and effort. Richness in material cannot hide this laxity, but rather accentuates it. I don't believe that a man of refined taste ever wittingly marries a woman who is dowdy in her dress, and if he does the chances are that he isn't worth marrying. Fussiness is likewise unpleasant. There are women of whom one instinctively feels that he must not approach them closely for fear of their clothes. They are the most unsatisfactory creatures in the world. They cannot move about at ease or they will disarrange the perfect fit of their costumes. Now, dress is an important thing, but it ought not to assert itself too prominently, and women should be able to rise above the rank of the unimpressive forms on which milliners make their window displays. Here, again, simplicity is the best remedy.—Elmira Telegram.

Council then adjourned to meet at the call of the Reeve.

HAVELOCK.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Great excitement prevails in Havelock over the report that all trainmen have to be removed to Smith's Falls. If such has to take place it means the removal of about fifty families and a depreciation of the value of property.

Miss J. Milne, who has been visiting in Havelock during the past few weeks, has returned to her home in Windsor.

Mr. Walter Code, section foreman here, intends going to Toronto, Mr. Code was presented with a beautiful past grand's jewel by the I. O. O. F. here, as well as an address, on Thursday night last. Mr. Code is one of Havelock's most popular men and is a member of the council and has been for a number of years. He will be much missed by all.

Many of our young people attended a taffy pull at Mr. Boswell's, Trent Bridge, Tuesday night.

Miss McKeown gave a party on Monday night in honor of Miss Milne, before her departure for Windsor.

The teachers of Havelock school have resumed their duties after Easter holidays. Miss Nicholl spent hers in Toronto, Miss Hewson at her home in Norwood, and Mr. Gillies in Bethany.

A supper was held in the McDermid house on Friday night in honor of Mr. Code before entering on his work in North Toronto. Toasts, speeches, and singing were the order of the evening.

Some of the visitors in town during the past week were Miss M. Mark, of Peterborough; Miss Emma Mark, of Ottawa Normal School; Miss Kindred and Mr. H. Kindred, of Otonabee.

Mr. Thompson, merchant purposes building an addition to his already spacious store to make room for his large stock of goods.

Phillips' Bros, have started a bicycle repair shop which promises to be just what is needed in town. The above gentlemen have also made an addition to their store house.

Mr McComb, lately merchant tailor here, has removed to Trenton. Mr, McGibbon, his salesman, has got a position as clerk in one of the dry goods firms in Trenton, and Mr. McKay, who was foreman in the tailoring department of Mr. McComb's store, has gone to fill a position in Ridgetown.

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr, W. B. Ritchie by a number of his friends on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Ritchie spared no pains in making the young people enjoy themselves, he favoring them himself with a few songs.

Mr. Joseph Rose's many friends are pleased to see him out again. What about the silk hat?

NORWOOD.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Mr. R. R. Smart of Smith's Falls, was in town on Saturday renewing acquaintances.

Miss Annie Richardson is visiting friends in Otanabee.

Miss M. P. Williams and Miss Cuffe returned last week, after spending several weeks with friends near Campbellford.

Mr. H. S. Buck is in New York State this week on business.

Geo. J. Sherry, Barrister, was in Peterboro on Tuesday on business.

A. J. Robertson, D.D.S., of Toronto, returned to the city on Tuesday, after spending a few days with his family here.

On Wednesday evening of last week the congregation and Sunday School of Christ church, Norwood, met for the purpose of showing in some tangible way their respect for their very highly esteemed pastor, the Rev. Jno. Gibson, who left on the Friday following for Thornhill, his new field of labor. Addresses were read by both the congregation, and the Sunday School. The presentation of a handsome parlor clock was made by Mrs. Baker, on behalf of the congregation. An address to Mrs. Gibson was then read by Miss Effie Sherry, accompanied by the presentation of a handsome silver bon-bon dish by Miss Powell on behalf of the choir. Mr. Gibson was then presented with a useful present by the Sunday School. The meeting then closed with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Gibson, and best wishes for his future by the members of the congregation and Sunday School.

Miss Pearl Pratt of Peterborough, was visiting friends in town last week.

Council met on Monday evening. Those present were Messrs. H. G. Buck, reeve, and Councillors Drain, Iles, Rork and Richardson. Minutes of last meeting read and adopted. The following accounts were presented; J. Wilson, shovelling snow, $1; W. C. Harrison, electric light, $141.20; Robt. Curry, snow plow, $6; C. Crowe, plank, $29.98; Jno. Newal, pine plank, $169.15; F. Mills, pine plank, $33.96; R. Crowe, pine plank, $77.11; S. Clark, cedar plank, $12.60; R. Scriver, 2 months salary, $8.33; Jas. Kellet, quarter's salary, $5. Moved by Councillors Drain and Rork, that the above accounts be paid. Moved by Councillors Richardson and Drain that Mr. Dennis Mahoney be appointed tax collectors for 1899 at a salary of $35.—Carried. Moved by Councillors Rork and Iles, that the Norwood Register be given the contract of doing the printing at the same price as last year, viz., $45.—Carried. By-law No. 223, a by-law prohibiting the obstructing of the side-walks within the corporation by placing thereon or over any goods, boxes or articles of any kind was introduced and read the usual number of times and passed. Moved by Councillors Drain and Iles, that Mr. Jas. Pengelly be allowed to pasture his horse in the park this coming season on condition that he keep all fences in good repair. Moved by Councillors Rork and Drain, that Mr. Wm. Richardson be appointed pound keeper for 1899.—Carried. Moved by Councillors Drain and Richardson, that Councillors Iles, Rork, and the reeve be a committee to look into the complaint of R. S. Patterson re ditch on Cedar street. The Council adjourned.

Mr. George Buck has accepted a position of book-keeper and clerk with the well-known firm of Kirkpatrick & Buck.

Mr. W. A. Eaton is buidling an addition to his stables this week.

There is some talk of a Norwood Amateur Minstrel troop and a celebration on the Queen's birthday.

AN ENEMY APPROVES.

Sir Charles Tupper's Reference to the Pacific Cable Arrangement in the House.

Ottawa, April 13.—The wearisome debate on the address was advanced by three speeches yesterday, one of one hour's duration, one of two hours and one of three. Messrs. McDougall (Cape Breton) and McLennan (Glengarry) spoke for the Opposition, and Mr. Frost for the Liberals. Mr. Frost made the interesting announcement that a few days after the establishment of penny postage his firm had increased the wages of their employes ten per cent. Mr. Fisher moved the adjournment of the debate.

Bills Introduced.

To incorporate the Canadian Inland Transportation Company, Mr. Bertram.

To incorporate the Canadian Yukon Railway Company, Mr. Morrison.

To authorize the Bank of Nova Scotia to issue sterling notes for circulation in the Island of Jamaica, Mr. Borden.

Respecting the Eastern Trust Company, Mr. Borden.

To further amend the General Inspection Act, Mr. Penny. This is to provide for the inspection of fruit.

To define the size of small fruit packages, Mr. Penny.

Sir Charles Approves.

Sir Charles Tupper, before the orders of the day were called, wished to congratulate the First Minister on the announcement that the Government had made arrangements for the construction of the Pacific cable. He regarded this as a most important matter, and one, on the satisfactory arrangement of which, the Government, the House and the country were to be congratulated. As for himself, the House knew that he had long ago satisfied himself that the scheme would not involve any obligation on the country, but, on the contrary, he believed that at no distant date it would prove a source of revenue.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he accepted with gratification the expressions of satisfaction made by his hon. friend. Of course, he might have expected it, knowing as he did the feeling of the hon. gentleman on the Pacific cable question. He hoped that in future when the Government introduced some equally good measures they would receive as good support from his hon. friends.

Sir Charles Tupper—Hear, hear.

Friendly Societies Insurance.

Hon. Dr. Montague asked if it was proposed to introdnbe a general bill with respect to friendly steret societies doing insurance business.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he was not in a position to make any statement at present, but would like his hon. friend to renew his question in a few days.

The Militia.

Mr. McNeill wished to make a personal explanation with regard to Major-General Hutton's proposal for reconstructing the defence forces of the Dominion. While he was in favor of securing the utmost military and naval efficiency, he did not think this country could afford to pay a million and a half dollars a year for an inefficient force.

The debate on the address followed, and the House adjourned at 11.45.

Linen Centrepieces and Doilies greatly reduced at MRS. APPLEBY'S, 426 Water Street.

Raising Ducks Without Water.

Ducks don't need water to thrive. There are many duck raising plants in this country where thousands of the fowls are bred each year for market and where there is not even a puddle for them to flounder in. One of these farms is credited with an output of 20,000 ducks a year

How Japanese Catarrh Cure Cures Nasal Catarrh.

Japanese Catarrh Cure is a penetrating soothing, and healing pomade, which is inserted up the nostrils by a small camel's hair pencil. The heat of the body melts this pomade and the patient breathes the soothing medication through the nostrils, and the nasal channels open up. The stuffed-up feeling in the head leaves, and the person can breathe naturally through the nose. The dull pains across the head cease. Continual use for a short time soothes the mucous membrane until the soreness and inflammation are all gone. The bad odor of the breath passes away, and the lost senses of smell and hearing return. The dropping in the throat is permanently checked, and the nose does not stop up towards night. The discharge from the nose grows less, and less and finally stops altogether. It does not drive the disease into the throat or lungs or into the ears, as so often is done by washes, douches, and the temporary relief catarrh powders and snuffs which contain cocaine and other fatal alkaloids, which relieve at the time, but give rise to a false security. Japanese Catarrh Cure is a thorough antiseptic, is cleansing and healing in its action, and soothes the minute applied. Six boxes are absolutely guaranteed to cure any case of nasal catarrh, or money refunded. A free sample will be sent to any person suffering from this most dangerous disease. Enclose 5 cent stamp. Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. 50 cents. Six for $2.50, or by mail. Address, The Griffith & Macpherson Co., 121 Church Street, Toronto.

TANSY PILLS (Dr. Cotes's Eng) NEVER FAIL. A safe, sure and positive ladies relief. At stores or by mail 50. H. F. COTES, Boston, Mass. "Ladies Remedy" Co

Our Full Duty to You...

Is not a matter to be lightly summarized; but the merchandise end of it certainly includes these three points:—

FIRST—To get the right goods here and show them plentifully.

SECOND—To utilize our entire resources toward selling them cheaply.

THIRD—To tell the truth about them.

To-day's story is prepared with all these three points distinctly in mind.

THE OLD STORE RE-INFORCED.

Peterborough, April 10th, 1899.

The Public are Reminded that Mr J. B. Oke continues to retain the same Partnership Interest in this Firm the he has held during the past Four Years.

The services of Miss Smith and Mr. Harry Bradshaw, both old and popular employees in Mr. Oke's former upper store, have been retained for this store. They will be pleased to have the opportunity of serving their friends and customers as formerly.

We ask for a continuance of the liberal patronage of all our old customers, and extend a cordial invitation to all for a share of their trade.

Mr J. B. Oke also continues his full control of the Wholesale Department, so that with the new reinforcements and other improved facilities, we hope to be in a still better position to cater to the public wants.

THE TERRIBLE PENALTY OF CARELESSNESS

IS PERPETUAL SUFFERING AND AN EARLY GRAVE.

Don't Neglect the Earliest Signs of Dyspepsia or Indigestion — They Develop Quickly If not Banished by the Use of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets.

It is a strange commentary on the inconsistency of human nature, that a man is infinitely more careful of his horse, or his dog, than of himself.

Let the horse, or the dog, manifest symptoms of illness and the best medicine is immediately obtained and administered.

But, how different it all is when the man himself is ill.

For instance: A man is hard at work in his office a couple of hours after lunch. He is attacked by a sensation of dizziness — fainting; everything is plunged in darkness; there is a dull heavy pain at the pit of [illegible] to quit work. His head begins to ache terribly, but he doesn't give up. He tackles his work again, and worries through till evening, tortured to the full limit of his powers of endurance.

It is out of all reason to say that this man can give his business the clear, shrewd attention it requires.

Now if this man had simply taken one of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets after his lunch, there would have been no trouble. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure every phase of Dyspepsia and Indigestion by removing the cause.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets digest the food without assistance from the stomach or any of the other digestive organs. They thus give the stomach time and opportunity to rest and regain its lost strength and vigor.

With each box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets goes a supply of small brown tablets which act on the liver and bowels, causing them to act promptly and regularly as nature intended them to do. Thus the health of the entire system is securely and permanently safe-guarded.

THE BRITISH BUDGET.

Sir M. Hicks-Beach Manages to Make Both Ends Meet.

THE EXPENDITURE GOING UP.

Enormous Increases in the Last Four Years — Need for Increased Armaments Largely the Cause—Measures of Debt Reduction Adopted—Large Reductions Effected—New Stamp Duties.

London, April 14.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, presented the budget in the House of Commons yesterday. The House was crowded when he rose to make his speech. He said the trying periods of last year's Spanish-American war and the difficulties on the Niger and the Nile had had no prejudicial effect upon the country's revenue, the result for the year being a small surplus.

Continuing, he confessed to being disappointed with the tobacco receipts, but said that if they were able to leave tobacco alone he felt confident the anticipations of an increased consumption would be more than realized during the coming year.

He estimated the expenditure for the coming year at $564,635,000, an increase of $30,490,000 over last year, the total increase of expenditure during the last four years being no less than $95,880,000. If this increase was to continue, the speaker pointed out, Parliament must agree to a large increase in taxation or discover new and productive sources of revenue, or the result would be a reaction against great expenditure, and he feared that such a reaction might impair the efficiency of the defensive services to the point in which they unhappily stood during the last generation.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer then said: "We must, however, be hopeful that the approaching conference of the powers, those who are animated by a desire for peace, may devise a check for this terrible competition in armaments, so wasteful of our ability, energy and money, from which even the wealthiest nations may well pray to be delivered. (Cheers.) At the same time, if the expenditure on armaments is reduced, I am convinced we shall have to increase it in another direction. I fear the expenditure of the present year cannot be regarded as merely temporary.

"The sum of $28,680,000, the largest on record, will be available for the reduction of the debt.

"The new sinking fund," he added, "would, in consequence of various increases, augment till it should reach $46,070,000 in 1905. It was never intended that the fund should increase to such an extent." He proposed to prolong the savings bank terminable annuity, amounting to $11,000,000, from March, 1902, to 1911.

"The market for consols," the speaker also pointed out, "had been dangerously narrowed, which had the appreciable effect of raising the price of consols, and by purchasing the Government was practically increasing the price against itself. Persistence in that policy," he added, "constituted a real danger.

"In the true interests of the sinking fund," the Chancellor of the Exchequer then remarked, "we shall not only prolong the savings bank annuity, and set up other annuities besides, but we shall reduce the fixed debt charge from $125,000,000 to $115,000,000. (Cheers.)

"This course is justified by the facts. The taxpayers of the future will benefit by our expenditures and armaments. The strength of our navy during the past year was the main factor in saving us from war.

"In the event of the proposal being adopted, we shall still have to meet an expenditure of $554,635,000. On the basis of the existing taxation we expect to get $551,485,000. Therefore there will be no necessity for a new departure in taxation. There are grave objections to re-raising the tobacco duties. It would be unwise for the sake of a small temporary advantage to surrender the hope of what may ultimately be a golden harvest.

"We propose two new stamp duties, 5s per £100 sterling on foreign and colonial bonds, stocks and shares, which are now not liable to duty. The new tax will be payable on the first occasion the document is negotiated in this country.

"The second stamp duty will be an ordinary mortgage duty of two shillings per £100 on loan, capital and debenture stock created by corporations or companies under the statutes. The companies capital duty will be increased to five shillings per £100, and the stamp duty on letters of allotment will be increased from one penny to six pence. It is estimated that the total increase from this source will be $2,800,000."

The Chancellor of the Exchequer also proposed fresh indirect taxation, saying there was nothing in the condition of the wine trade or the treaties with foreign countries to prevent the imposition of reasonable duties. He proposed, therefore, to increase the duty on wine not exceeding 30 proof to 1s 6d, and between 31 and 41 proof to 2s, and a surtax on sparkling wine of 2s 6d per gallon. It was also proposed to impose a new duty on still wine imported in bottles to the amount of 5s per gallon.

In conclusion, he said: "Now, therefore, we are able to estimate a revenue of $555,785,000 to meet an expenditure of $554,635,000, leaving a surplus of $1,150,000. The large expenditure is not due to an aggressive policy upon our part, but has been forced upon us by the increased and increasing armaments of others and the consideration of the unique position of our national prosperity and security. Our proposals have recognized the exceptional circumstances we have had to deal with, and we have dealt with them not only without adding to the debt, but by making its reduction surer than at present. The taxation proposed has not violated the great fiscal principles from which we have received such an abounding revenue, and will not seriously interfere with the trade or commerce of the country, or appreciably add to the burdens of the people."

Criticizing the Budget.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Liberal member for West Monmouthshire, who followed the Chancellor of the Exchequer, strongly deprecated a suspension of the sinking fund.

Sir Charles Edward Howard Vincent, Conservative and Industrial member for Central Sheffield, suggested that a tax on foreign manufactures would have enabled the Chancellor of the Exhequer to reduce the income tax.

Sir Charles Wentworth Dilke, Radical member for the Forest of Dean Division of Gloucestershire, expressed a fear that taxing foreign wines would encourage foreign countries in protective retaliation.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, replying to these general criticisms, said he did not share Sir Charles Dilke's apprehensions, because the wine-grrowing countries wanted the raw materials they imported from England. As for the observations of Sir William Vernon Harcourt they seemed to him to savor of an insinuation that he (Sir Michael Hicks-Beach) had not proposed taxation, which would have made the Government unpopular.

The resolutions affirming the wine and stamp duties were then adopted without division.

THE DOMINION HOUSE

Hon. Sidney Fisher Speaks on the Address in Reply.

THE PROHIBITION PLEBISCITE.

The Minister of Agriculture Thinks Local Option a Good Means Under Present Conditions of Educating Public Opinion—He Also Gives a Good Account of His Own Department.

Ottawa, April 14.—The debate upon the address reached the end of the first stage last evening, when Mr. E. F. Clarke (West Toronto) moved an amendment to the address favoring a judicial investigation into the conduct of officials in the Yukon. He was immediately followed by Mr. George H. Bertram (Centre Toronto), who submitted an amendment to the amendment expressing pleasure at the prompt action of the Government in appointing Mr. Ogilvie to investigate the complaints against the Government, and confidence that the inquiry will be impartial and will place the Government in possession of information which will enable them to do justice to all parties. The first speaker yesterday was Hon. Sidney Fisher, who devoted the principal portion of his address to a discussion of the prohibition question, during which he most energetically defended the returning officers in the Province of Quebec from the charges of fraud which have been made in connection with the plebiscite vote. The charges were, he said, absolutely untrue, and were made by a scoundrel, who, as soon as he discovered that the accuracy of his report was being investigated, disappeared from Ottawa. At some length he analyzed the vote cast, and arrived at the conclusion that a prohibitory law was not justified by it, and that public sentiment would not at present support such a law. As to the best alternative under the circumstances, he was rather inclined to the opinion that local option was the best method of educating public opinion.

Mr. Fisher's Speech.

Hon. Sidney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, resumed the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne. After a passing remark about the weariness of the debate, he said that Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's charges against the Minister of the Interior (Sifton) had been fully and completely met by that gentleman and so thoroughly answered that no further defence was needed at his (Fisher's) hands. He then read a long telegram from the president of the Liberal Association in Winnipeg, giving the result of a recent meeting of the Liberal Club, endorsing the course of that Minister.

His Own Department.

Leaving the Yukon charges and turning to his own department, Mr. Fisher said the farmers of the country were thanking the Department of Agriculture for the help given them in reaching that prosperity they now enjoy. Mr. Fisher said the late Government had inaugurated a system of ice cold storage, but it was not successful, and when continued in 1896 it had proved even less successful than in the previous year. In 1897 he had adopted mechanical cold storage, which was now universally acknowledged as the only system which was of any permanent, practical benefit. The adoption of mechanical cold storage had a material influence on the butter trade, and had greatly improved the standing and price of Canadian butter in the English markets. In 1896 there was about 20 shillings per hundredweight difference between the price of Canadian butter and that of the best Danish, which always stood at the top of the market. while in 1898 this difference was only six shillings. In 1896 Australian butter had a decided preference in the English market, and realised a higher price than Canadian butter, but last year this position had been entirely reversed, and Canadian butter was now quoted at much higher prices than Australian. He did not think that Canadian creamery butter was much better than it was two or three years ago, but owing to mechanical cold storage the butter was now placed on the market in the condition in which it came from the creamery, and prime Canadian creamery butter was not excelled by any butter on the face of the earth. There had also been a very great improvement in pork and bacon, the exports of which had risen from about six millions in 1896 to eight millions in 1898, and for the current year the exports already exceeded five millions, and promised to be more than twelve millions, a most gratifying increase. Turning to the question of the 90-day cattle quarantine, he claimed some credit in having abolished the embargo against the United States, and having obtained in return from the United States Minister of Agriculture the removal of the embargo against Canadian cattle. The result of the removal of the quarantine regulations in the United States had been that whereas the exports of Canadian cattle to the country in the four years and a half that the regulations had existed had only amounted to 3,763 cattle, valued at $54,000, in the two years since the embargo had been raised there had been exported to the United States from Canada 180,849 head of cattle, valued at $2,514,000.

Mr. Wallace—How much per head is that?

Mr. Fisher—Figure it out for yourself and see.

Mr. Wallace—It is just about $14.

Mr. Fisher—That is a great deal better than that class of cattle could have been sold for in Canada, where they are only worth $8 to $10. The cattle sent to the United States were young, under two years, and were a glut on the Canadian market. Providing a market for them had been a great advantage to the Canadian farmer.

Question of Prohibition.

Coming to the question of prohibition, he found, he said, that the burden of the song on the Opposition side was "You naughty Government, why don't you propose a prohibitory law?" That was the talk of members diametrically opposed on the question, their sole aim being to put the Government in hole. The intention of the plebiscite was to enable the electorate of Canada to give an expression

Drops of Hood's Sarsaparilla are precious jewels for the blood which glisten in their use, and, like the rain, disappear for the good of humanity. Each dose when taken is in a very short time thoroughly mixed with the blood and actively getting in its work of purification. Hood's never disappoints.

Running Sore—"My mother was troubled with rheumatism in her knee for a number of years, and it broke out into a running sore. She took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and is now well. Hood's Olive Ointment helped to heal the eruption." MRS. JOHN FAAS, Cloverlawns, Ancaster, Ont.

Dyspepsia—"My wife suffered from rheumatism, dyspepsia and pains in her stomach. She had medical attendance but did not get relief. She read about Hood's Sarsaparilla and tried it. Three bottles entirely cured her. She is now a well and hearty woman." T. W. COVERT, Cape Sable Island, N. S.

Eczema—"I was run down with complaints peculiar to my sex. Large sores broke out on my body head and limbs. I could not do any work on account of the itching. My trouble was termed eczema and I doctored for it for a long time. I then tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and several bottles effected a cure." MRS. J. G. BROWN, Brantford, Ont.

Swellings—"I had a swelling on my chest. It caused me great pain and many sleepless nights. Physicians advised an operation but my daughter urged that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla instead. I did so and after using six bottles, the swelling went away and I have not had any more pains." MRS. J. W. C. CRONKWRIGHT, 433 Front St., Belleville, Ont.

Organs Affected—"I was run down in health and had spells of coughing which left me prostrate. My lungs, heart and kidneys were affected. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla upon advice and soon felt better. I continued the treatment and now feel like a new woman." MRS. SUMMERVILLE, 217 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

If the press would unite and employ a capable, conscientious, precis-writer to mercilessly condense the windy harrangues fired off in the alleged debate on the address, and publish only the condensation the spread of eloquence would speedily cease.

Hon. Mr. Foster, in his speech on the address, claimed that the boon of penny postage was not a benefit to business men. Mr. F. T. Frist, Liberal representative of Leeds and Grenville, while speaking to this point on Wednesday, said that only a few days after penny postage came into force his firm (Frost & Wood, agricultural implements) took an estimate of the amount they would save through cheaper postage and increased the wages of their employes ten per cent. Thus penny postage, for which the Liberal government is to be thanked, is responsible for bringing increased comfort to many a home.

The Mail and Empire is making a great fuss because the mail service to the Klondyke is not quite as rapid and regular as it might be. The organ seems to think that the mail service should be as prompt and speedy as between Toronto and Peterborough. It asks a very unreasonable thing. It would be a surprising thing if a mail should occasionally be a few minutes late over a route by which a man often feels lucky if he passes with his life. The Conservative organs are hard set for subjects for grumbling when they try to make capital against the government out of the carriage of mails through a country where a wolf couldn't make schedule time.

The Presbyterians of St. Andrews' Presbyterian Church, Toronto, have decided on calling a minister from Birkenhead, England. The choice may be unexceptionable but is it a wise one? He may preach all round any Canada minister but he cannot have the knowledge of Canadian ways or Canadian people that will make him, caeteris paribus, as useful a pastor. Then isn't too much importance placed upon preaching. If we practised one tenth of the tenth part of the preaching we hear the world would be better. It seems to many that the induction of a foreign minister is something in the form of a reflection, on the ability of the Canadian ministers of the Presbyterian Church, and there is reason for knowing that many of them feel the action of St. Andrews' as a practical declaration that the clergy list of the church is not considered to contain a minister fit for the pastorate of a Canadian church, even if it is situated in Toronto. The spiritual needs of the congregation are not perhaps greater than those of many another city congregation that is splendidly ministerd to by Canadian bred ministers.

RESPONSIBILITY OF PUBLISHERS.

Judge Wurtele, in his charge to the jury, in the Hughes-Herald Montreal criminal libel case, made some interesting observations on the law of libel and the responsibility of newspaper publishers. Defamatory libel, he said, as defined by the statute, was the publication of anything that tended to hold the person attacked up to the contempt, hatred, or ridicule of his fellows. It had been stated during the course of the trial that one of the reasons of England's greatness was that the press had enjoyed the fullest liberty, but the liberty of the press did not mean the scattering broadcast over the country of what writers might think fit to publish. It meant that anyone who possessed a newspaper might publish it without being forced, as formerly, to obtain a license to do so, and without any censorship being exercised over it. The only limit to the rights of the publisher was that he was bound to keep within the limits of the law. No newspaper had the right to maliciously injure any citizen by publishing defamatory libels about him. It was immaterial whether the libel were true or false. Formerly it was for the judge to say whether an article was a libel or not, but under the glorious liberty of England all this had been done away with, and since 1792 it had been the right of the jury to say whether an article was libellous or not. Formerly it was not allowed to prove the truth of an article, but now the truth might be proved and offered as an excuse, provided the plea was coupled with the condition that it was in the public interest that it should be published.

In this case the defendants had pleaded that the article complained of was true, and that it had been published in the public interest. It was not necessary, the judge said, for the accused to prove that every detail of the article was true, it was sufficient to prove that it was substantially true.

FOREST RESTORATION.

Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Under the legislation of the session of 1898 the Ontario Government has set apart the first of a number of forest reserves in the townships of Abinger, Barrie, Clarendon and Palmerston, in the counties of Addington and Frontenac, comprising an area of some 50,000 acres. This area is situated on the head waters of the Mississippi, and a branch of the Madawaska, two rivers flowing into the Ottawa, and is dotted with numbers of small lakes and streams. The townships, once a dense forest of pine, have been lumbered over for the last thirty years, and are now covered with hardwoods and young pine, and the object of the reserve is not only the protection of this young growth which in a few years it is expected will be of merchantable size, but also to provide a place where experiments in reforestration by seeding and planting may take place.

NORTH MONAGHAN.

Council Meeting.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The council met in the Town Hall on Friday at 1:30 p.m. There were present Messrs. T. M. Hunter, the Reeve and Councillors Bradburn, Madill and Brown. The Reeve presiding. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

Communications were read from P. Brady, superintendent of the C.P.R., stating that the estimated cost of erecting guard rails at the approaches to the railway track on con. 11 would be $70, and that if the township would pay half this cost they would have the same erected at once.—Received.

From the treasurer of the township showing a balance on hand to the credit of the township of $233.25.—Received.

From James Goodwin and five others requesting the councillors to take such measures as will make Lundy's Lane passable for pedestrians in the spring.—Received.

Accounts were presented and read from Wm. Thompson, for clearing ice from creek at Lockie's bridge, $1.00; G. Carton, goods, charity for William Close, $9.85; John Wilson, clearing snow off hill on boundary, $1; Denniston, Peck and Stevenson, search in registry office, consultation and advice re roads through park lots, $3.75; G. W. Bennett, salary as poundkeeper for 1896, '97, '98, $16.10.

Mr. Hunter reported having investigated the account of Mr. Edmison and of having found it correct, had paid it, amount $7.

Reports were presented and read from the committee on poundage laws, etc.,

To the Reeve and Council:

Gentlemen: We, your committee on duties of Poundkeepers, etc., beg to report as follows. We have investigated the complaint that was laid with the Reeve in regard to the charges against cattle impounded with Poundkeeper Bennett. After having examined the report of same and enquired into the matter fully we find that the complainant has been misinformed in some way unknown to us, and that Mr. Bennett gave them all the redress that the law would permit. We would further bring to your consideration the injustice of requiring a poundkeeper to maintain a public pound without allowing a fair remuneration, and that as Mr. Bennett has put into effect the requirements of the law in making a report of all charges, etc., and returning the same to the Township, we would recommend that he be paid a fair remuneration for his services for the past three years. All of which is respectfully submitted.

(Signed.) T. H. HUNTER, Chairman.

Moved by Mr. Bradburn, seconded by Mr. Brown, that an order be drawn on the treasurer for the following accounts, viz: Wm. Thompson, $1; Jno. Wilson, $1; Geo. Carton, $9.85; Denniston & Co., $3.75; Edmison & Dixon, $7.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Madill and Brown, that the Reeve and Councillor Bradburn and the Clerk be a committee to confer with the superintendent of the C. P. R. and arrange for erecting guards at crossings where necessary.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Madill and Bradburn, that the auditors' salaries, $5 each, be paid.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Madill and Brown, that the report of the committee re Pounds be received and adopted, and that all Poundkeepers hereafter be required to make returns of all business transacted, and amounts charged in connection with such office, on or before the 15th of January each year, also that each Poundkeeper provide a necessary enclosure for the purpose of impounding animals, etc., running at large, and that he be allowed as salary such percentage of fees, charges and penalties imposed by the by-laws as will not exceed the sum of $10 in any one year.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Madill and Bradburn, that Messrs. Brown and Bradburn investigate the complaint of water injuring ratepayers at the Agricultural grounds and prevent the same.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Bradburn and Brown, that a committee composed of the Reeve, Messrs. Madill and the mover, confer with the Smith Council respecting the decision of the boundary between these townships, and that the clerk notify the said Council of Smith of the appointment of this committee.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Bradburn and Madill, that the communication of Mr. Goodwin and others respecting the road at Frank Brown's be referred to a committee of the whole council and the commissioner of that district.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Madill and Brown, that the Reeve and Councillors Bradburn, Brown and Madill be a committee to confer with a committee of Cavan Council in regard to the division of the boundary for the purpose of maintenance, etc.—Carried.

Moved by Messrs. Brown and Madill, that Mr. Wm. Hooper and Mr. Wm. Laing be appointed Poundkeepers for 1899.—Carried.

By-law No. 466, appointing Road Commissioners, Fence Viewers and Poundkeepers was then read and passed.

Council then adjourned sine die.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says—"Electric bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store, every bottle guaranteed.

British Cattle Markets.

Montreal, April 13.—Cables received this week from the British markets show that the recent downward tendency has not yet been checked, prices of best States and Canadian cattle in London and Liverpool scoring another decline of a half-cent per pound as compared with the prices of a week ago. This makes a decline on the two weeks of a cent and a quarter on cattle and a cent to a cent and a half on sheep. Best States steers are selling now at 12c per pound; best Canadian 11c, and Argentine 10¾c, dinking the offal. Sheep, 11c.

A HOT FIGHT.

Prospect for the Evening of Nomination Day in Brockville.

Brockville, April 13.—The campaign in Brockville is now fairly under way, and all the conditions of a red-hot fight are apparent. To-day is nomination day, when the two candidates, Mr. W. H. Comstock and Mr. Peter White, will face each other on the platform. An interesting time is likely. Mr. Comstock, the Liberal candidate, will be supported by Mr. Duncan C. Fraser, the doughty champion of Liberalism from Guysboro, N.S.; Mr. F. T. Frost, the genial member for Leeds and Grenville, and Mr. George P. Graham, the local member for Brockville in the Legislature, who did such splendid work for the party in the local bye-elections. The candidature of Mr. Peter White will be advocated by Mr. W. H. Bennett of East Simcoe and Mr. Powell of Westmoreland. At night the Liberals will hold a mass meeting in the Opera House, when addresses will be delivered by Hon. Clifford Sifton and Hon. William Paterson.

FLOOD AT HESPELER.

The Ice in the Speed Broken Up and Low Ground Flooded.

Hespeler, Ont., April 13.—The recent rain broke up the River Speed yesterday morning, which is now carrying the large body of ice from the A. W. Brodie dam, and flooding all the low grounds in its bounds. The G.P. & H. Electric Road was shut out from running to Hespeler at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. B. Forbes & Co. have night hands on watching their dam, as the G.T.R. have a watchman at their bridge. It is generally thought the A. W. Brodie dam will not stand the strain, it having been temporarily repaired since the last freshet.

Screamed ... WITH.. Agony

From the Terrible Itching, Burning Tortures of ...

Eczema on the Scalp

Some of the cures effected by Dr. Chase's Ointment are more like miracles than anything else. The case recorded here was one of the worst ever brought to the attention of Toronto's best physicians, and when doctors gave up all hope of recovery Dr. Chase's Ointment was successful in producing a perfect cure.

Mr. James Scott, 136 Wright Ave., Toronto, states: "My boy Tom, aged ten, was for nearly three years afflicted with a bad form of Eczema of the scalp, which was very unsightly and resisted all kinds of remedies and doctor's treatment. His head was in a terrible state. We had to keep him from school, and at times his head would bleed, and the child would scream with agony. For two and a half years we battled with it in vain, but at last found a cure in Dr. Chase's Ointment. About five boxes were used. The original sores dried up, leaving the skin in its normal condition. To say it is a pleasure to testify to the wonderful merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment is putting it very mildly."

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

or opinion on the question of prohibition. That was the whole and sole thing in connection with the plebiscite. Now, as to the result: 44 per cent. of the electorate voted, 56 per cent. did not vote, 29½ voted yes, 21½ per cent. voted no. But it would not be fair to take the whole list; a fairer test would be the average vote polled in the last three general elections, which was about 66 per cent. of the total vote. Of that 66 per cent. 44 per cent. had voted on the plebiscite, or about two-thirds, and of this two-thirds one-half voted yes, one-half voted no. In other words, one-third of the electorate voted for prohibition, one-third against it, and one-third didn't vote at all. The plebiscite did not show the true opinion of the people, thereupon it would be a folly if on such an expression as the plebiscite afforded, the Government were to undertake to enforce a prohibitory law. The people had been afforded an opportunity of expressing opinion by the plebiscite, and every temperance man in the country, he believed, had gone to the polls and cast his vote in favor of temperance. The result was that everywhere throughout the country temperance people agreed that on the vote recorded no prohibition law could be passed. "If," he said, "we pass a prohibitory law that has not the overpowering preponderance of the popular sentiment in its face, it would lead to anarchy and be a blow to temperance itself that would not be got over in a generation."

He proceeded to deal with the charges of ballot-box stuffing by the anti-prohibitionists in Quebec, which he declared was a libel on honest returning officers.

These charges against returning officers and deputy returning officers in Quebec, Mr. Fisher continued, were made on the authority of a man named Parent, who gave to the Dominion Alliance the names of the officers at the several polls, the correct number of votes polled and the number falsely returned by each officer. He swore to them all. "The names and the figures were given to me," continued Mr. Fisher, "and I was asked by the Dominion Alliance to investigate. I said I did not believe a word of it."

Mr. Fisher went on to say that he found, by comparing Parent's information to the Alliance with the official returns, that he had not even given the correct names of the deputy returning officers, nor yet the correct figures of the vote as returned, so that the charges of ballot-box stuffing were clearly made on the statement of a scoundrel. It was a libel on the Province of Quebec. Parent had represented himself to be an employe of the Ottawa postoffice, but he was only a temporary employe, and when he made the affidavits he skipped out. The statement in the papers that Parent had been sent to the Western States as an immigration agent was untrue.

The net showing of the plebiscite was that local option was the best alternative to total prohibition. Local option would solve the inequalities of the temperance sentiment in the country, as shown by the plebiscite returns. He trusted the question would be kept out of politics, for only by so doing could temperance people hope to make substantial progress.

Mr. E. F. Clarke (Toronto) criticized the Premier's speech, saying that his language was such as was not becoming in a man occupying his position. Using such expressions as "demagogue" applied to a member of the House was not becoming. Mr. Sifton had followed in the steps of his leader in using violent language. The Government had been glad to make a complete volteface, and adopt the policy of the Conservatives. Prior to the 23rd of June, 1896, the Government went through the country with banners proclaiming their policy. What a ridiculous picture they would present to-day if they went through the country displaying the same banners, which were furled immediately after the election. Every pledge, every principle, every promise, which they had made prior to that time had been abandoned or ignored. For some time after they came into power no banners had been carried by them until the banner of a buccaneer, of a pirate, was unfurled on which was emblazoned, "Business is business," and that policy being discredited they had now only one banner on which they could appeal to the people, and that was "cold storage." The whole credit for the establishment of cold storage was due to Prof. Robertson, an appointee of the Conservative party, by whom the Department of Agriculture was established.

It was a matter of congratulation that the manufacturers were enjoying prosperity, but the Government deserved no credit for it. He maintained that the Government had practically not altered the protection given to the steel industry, to whose prosperous condition Mr. Bell had referred in moving the address. The increase in wages given by the Massey-Harris Company was given voluntarily by the firm out of the prosperity which had come to them, after being nurtured and built up under the National Policy.

Coming to the Yukon question, Mr. Clarke criticised the Government for allowing Mr. Ogilvie's report to be printed for 50 cents a copy. It should have been distributed by hundreds of thousands, so as to give the widest possible publicity to the wealth of the Territory. Then the proposed agreement with Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann was not in the interest of the country, and everything connected with the administration had prepared the minds of the people to believe the charges which had been made of corruption in the Yukon. He read a number of extracts from Liberal newspapers, stating that there was corruption in the Yukon, and closed by moving the following amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne:

That this House deems it expedient to inform His Excellency that, in view of the widespread charges of incompetency, misconduct and corruption in the administration of public affairs connected with the Yukon, it is the duty of Government to appoint, without delay, an independent judicial commission to make a thorough investigation into the subject and report the result.

Mr. Bertram (Centre Toronto) followed in a general defence of Major Walsh and eulogy of Mr. Ogilvie, and concluded a very able speech by moving the following amendment to the amendment:

That all the words after His Excellency be struck out of the amendment and the following inserted:

That we have observed with pleasure that on the receipt of complaints against some of the officials in the Yukon district, His Excellency's Government took prompt action to enquire into the matter of such complaints, and have appointed Mr. William Ogilvie as commissioner for the purpose. Having entire confidence in the integrity of Mr. Ogilvie, we are satisfied that his enquiry will be impartial and thorough, and will place His Excellency's advisers in possession of such information as is necessary to enable them to do justice to all parties concerned.

Mr. Bell (Picton) attacked the maladministration of Yukon affairs, and strongly criticised the conduct of the officials sent up by Mr. Sifton. He spoke until 11.45, when Mr. James Sutherland, Moved the adjournment of the debate and the house adjourned.

A Good Thing Well Done.

New and pleasing ideas in advertising always interest. Nothing has appeared for years which is so attractive as the Hood's Sarsaparilla advertisements, utilising proverbs and wise sayings as headings, each followed by a little homily cleverly connecting the proverb with the subject. Besides this, the quaint Jensen italic type for the preliminary sentences, finishing with a script slogan, "Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints," adds to the effectiveness. All this work is running in over 7000 papers.

BROCKVILLE FIGHT.

Enthusiastic Meetings Held in the Liberal Interest.

TWO MINISTERS PRESENT.

Hon. Clifford Sifton Makes an Effective Reply to the Yukon Slanders of Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper—Hon. Wm. Paterson Talks Figures Without Tiring His Audience—Other Speakers.

Brockville, Ont., April 14.—Hon. Peter White of Pembroke (Con.) and W. H. Comstock of Brockville (Lib.) were yesterday nominated to represent their respective parties in the election to be held in this constituency on April 20.

The supporters of both candidates were present in large numbers, but there was no joint meeting, as is customary on such occasions. This was due to the extraordinary conduct of Mr. Peter White, who claimed that the Liberals wished to appropriate most of the time allowed for speaking, and called upon his supporters to leave the hall and follow him to the Court House, where they would hold a meeting of their own. Headed by Mr. White, who was accompanied by Messrs. W. H. Bennett, M.P., and N. F. Davin, M.P., many of the Conservatives then left, causing much noise and confusion.

Mr. Graham pointed out that the move of the Conservatives had been decided upon because they dare not stay and repeat the charges they had made against Major Walsh in the Commons.

The Conservatives having safely executed their retreat, the audience, which comfortably filled the hall, quietly settled down and listened to admirable speeches from Mr. Thomas Bain, M.P. for Wentworth, Mr. W. H. Comstock, Mr. G. P. Graham, M.P.P., and Mr. Duncan C. Fraser, member for Guysboro, N.S.

The Evening Meeting.

The electors of Brockville mustered in their strength at the Opera House last night and made the air ring with plaudits as a welcome to Hon. Clifford Sifton and Hon. William Paterson. The building was crowded, and many could not get seats. Particular interest was attached to Hon. Clifford Sifton's visit, in view of the outrageous attacks levelled at his administration of the Yukon affairs. That popular sentiment is decidedly with the brilliant young Minister of the Interior was evident from the ovation which Mr. Sifton received and the enthusiasm with which his audience welcomed his remarks on Yukon matters. Mr. Sifton, in the presence of last night's audience, vindicated his administration of the gold regions as completely as he did on the floor of the House of Commons a few days ago. Hon. Mr. Paterson's speech was a lucid and masterly exposition of public affairs. The Minister of Customs has a genius for figures and the faculty of expounding them in such a way as not to tire his audience. There is no question that last night's splendid meeting will have an immense influence for good upon Mr. Comstock's candidature.

MARKET REPORTS.

Sharp Advance in Wheat — Chicago Futures Rose Over Two Cents—The Latest Prices.

Liverpool, April 14.—Wheat futures advanced yesterday, closing 7-8d per cental above Wednesday's final figures.

Chicago, April 14.—Yesterday was the bull day in the Chicago wheat pit. On the encouraging cables and the persistent crop damage reports there was considerable buying, and the May and July options advanced more than two cents per bushel, closing near the top notch for the session. Other American markets acted in sympathy.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, April 14.—The run of live stock at the cattle yards yesterday was large—47 car loads, composed of 736 cattle, 125 sheep, 60 calves and 600 hogs. On account of lower market reports from abroad, and no space to be had for cattle for a few days on the boats, trade was very slow. In fact, there was scarcely any business transacted, some of the largest dealers doing nothing at all. Only a few small lots changed hands, buyers and sellers waiting for Friday.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	$2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3.70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4.35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9.00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7.50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5.30
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

Come hear Bernie Rautenberg, the Boy Soprano, in St. Andrew's church, to-morrow, (Friday) night. Collection of 10c and upwards.

A Pleasant Evening.

The Young Men's Guild of St. Andrew's church held their regular monthly meeting last evening, and a very profitable time was spent. The Rev. Mr. Potter read a paper on the proper use of time, which was of great benefit to the members present.

Sawers' Bicycle Shop.

Having opened up a shop at No. 452 George street, I am prepared to do all kinds of Bicycle repairs, enamelling, etc. Prices moderate and all work guaranteed.

A. SAWERS.

Funeral of the Late Stanley Bradd.

Arrangements have been made, whereby the funeral of the late Stanley Bradd will be held at three o'clock, instead of two o'clock, tomorrow afternoon, as formerly announced. Interment will take place at the Little Lake cemetery.

Ice Now All Gone.

The last of the ice has gone from the Little Lake and the river is open right through to Rice Lake, although the ice has not departed from the latter body of water yet. Indications are that the water will be very high this spring. Lockmaster Collins has everything ready for the boats at the locks.

IN THE ODOUR OF ANTIQUITY.

Documents that are Yellow with Age and of Antiquarian Interest.

Dr. Rose, dental surgeon, has left with the Examiner two interesting documents—interesting for their association with the early history of Canada. One is the original patent issued by the Crown in 1832, (tempore Sir John Colborne) to Peter Rose of Prince Edward County, constituting his title to a farm. Peter Rose was grand father of Dr. Rose and father of the late Rev. Samuel Rose, D.D., both of whom were born on the farm in question. The property, although the Crown patent was not issued till 1832 had been in the family since 1783. The patent is on parchment—a blank form properly filled in, containing the signatures of D. Boulton, Auditor-General, and is endorsed by H. J. Boulton, Attorney-General. The chief feature is the seal a tremendous dics of bees wax, four and a half inches in diameter and three-eights of an inch in thickness. It bears one side stamped in high relief, the Royal Arms and on the obverse the arms of Upper Canada, surrounded by the legend, "Sigil. Prov. Nos. Can. Sup."—"Seal of Our Province of Upper Canada." Riches, represented by a title to land, weighted down with such a ponderous seal, would be in no danger of taking to themselves wings.

How School Was "Kept."

Dr. Rose has also another interesting document, which illustrates the manner in which schools were maintained in the early history of the country—about fifty-five years ago. This document is the form of a double agreement, between teacher and employers, and is interesting as probably been among the last of such documents implemented previous to the inauguration of a better system of schools:

This Article

of agreement drawn this 5th day of August, 1844, between Susan Bongard and her employers runs as follows:

I, Susan Bongard do bind myself to teach a regular common day-school — — of reading, writing, ortography and arithmetic from 8 to 4 o'clock each day and 5 1-2 days to the week for the sum of six shillings and three pence per q—r and and board myself — — for the term of three months — or one quarter.

whose names are herewith subscribed do promise to pay to Susan Bongard or bearer, the sum of six shillings and three pence per q—r for each and every scholar annexed to our respective names and we likewise bind ourselves to furnish said school with wood and whatever is necessary for the sum and term above mentioned.

Then follow the names of three trustees and a guarantee of the number of pupils at "six shillings and three pence" which each parent guartees—two guaranteed two pupils, one two and ahalf, three one each, one, one and ahalf, three, half a pupil each, in all thirteen and a half pupils. Miss Bongard's yearly salary at the rate and number of pupils quoted would be at the rate of about $87 a year and unless she lived very economically in boarding "myself" she would'nt have much left for ribbons and lace.

LONG DISTANCE TRANSMISSION.

A Former Canadian General Man Now Manager of the West Kootenay Company.

Mr .Lorne A. Campbell, manager of the West Kootenay Power and Light Company, B.C., was in town yesterday, visiting the Canadian General Electric Coy's works, of which concern he was at one time chief engineer of construction.

The West Kootenay Company installed about a year ago and is operating a transmission electric plant from the falls of the Kootenay river to Rossland, thirty miles distant. A pressure of 20,000 volts is used, enabling the company to use very small sized copper wires. At Rossland the pressure is transformed to a low voltage. The plant is at present capable of transmitting 3,000 horsepower. The electrical installation was furnished by the Canadian General Electrical Company, and Mr. Campbell's visit resulted in a further order being placed.

Mr. C. R. Hosmer, general manager of the C. P. R. Coy's telegraph and other Canadian and English capitalists are interested in the enterprise.

Four Feet Deep.

The frost penetrated the ground during the winter to the depth of about four feet. At least this was the condition of affairs at the cemetery.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. B. Oke is in Port Hope visiting his sister, Mrs. John Curtis.

Miss Daisy Hamilton has returned from a pleasant visit in Toronto.

Mrs. Carey, Toronto, is the guest of her neice, Mrs. R. H. Fortye, at the Oriental.

Miss Frankie Sullivan has returned home after a pleasant visit with Miss McHugh, Lindsay.

Mr. J. W. Kennedy and Miss Mamie Kennedy, who have been in Chicago during the past two years, returned home yesterday.

The Belleville Sun says: Mrs. A. L. Davis, of Peterborough, was in the city yesterday to visit her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Perry G. Goldsmith.

Mr. H. Smith, game warden, Belleville, was in town yesterday on his way north to Haliburton, where he will investigate several complaints of illegal game killing.

Mr. T. J. Begley, at the last regular meeting of the Catholic Literary Association resigned the position as president which he has efficiently held for the past two years. His resignation was accepted.

Hon. Geo. W. Ross, minister of education has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., where he will undergo treatment for the troublesome and tenacious rheumatism which has afflicted him for some time.

The Globe's "Chit Chat" mentions Miss Moore, of Peterborough, as one of the ladies that graced the Temple building, Toronto, on the brilliant occasion of French night at the Portrait Loan Exhibition, on Wednesday night.

Mr. J. J. Grafton, of the firm of Grafton & Co., Clothing Manufacturers, Dundas, has been in town for the past few days visiting the local branch. Mr. Grafton comes here from Brantford, where the firm has just added another to their long list of prosperous branch stores.

Mr. John Lang, M.P., East Peterborough, has been appointed on the following select committees of the House of Commons: Standing orders, banking and commerce, agriculture and colonization; and Mr. James Kendry, West Peterborough, on railways and canals and banking and commerce.

Dr. McClelland, L.R.C.P. and S., Edinburg, L. F. P. & S., Glasgow, has moved into Peterborough from Roseneath, and is occupying the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Jos. Stevenson, No. 216 Simcoe street. Dr. McClelland has been engaged in practising medicine for the past ten years and has also enjoyed the privilege of spending terms in the hospitals of Scotland, London and New York. Dr. and Mrs. McClelland will receive a warm welcome in Peterborough.

If rumour is right the via episcopalis, like the star of empire, leads westward. Mgr. McEvay, now of Hamilton, went from Fenelon Falls to Peterborough, from Peterborough to Hamilton, and now rumour says that the next upward step will be to the see of London as Bishop. If this this is so his many friends in Peterborough will rejoice at a promotion which they feel is well deserved, to an office which will be worthily filled.

An Enjoyable at Home.

A very enjoyable "At Home" was held under the auspices of the Junior Girls Guild of All Saints on Tuesday evening in the schoolroom.

"Pokerdom" or scenes in the gambling haunts of this country will be described by Rautenberg in St. Andrew's church this evening. Powerful lime light views, including a number of magnificent dissolving sets will be shown. Silver collection of 10 cents and upwards at the door.

SERIOUS FIRE AT NORWOOD.

Mr. J. Davidson's Handsome Residence Burned.

Special to The Examiner.

Norwood, April 14.—At 9 o'clock last night fire was discovered in Mr. J. Davidson's beautiful brick residences on Queen street. In less than two hours the house with all its contents including valuable library, was burned to the ground. Loss, $7000; partially covered by insurance in the Royal and Alliance. The cause of the fire is supposed to have been defective furnace pipes.

PHOTOGRAPHS TAKEN AT NIGHT.

Daylight is no longer essential in the production of first-class photographs. The person who finds it inconvenient to make an engagement for a sitting in day-time, can now be accommodated at night. Some persons may feel a little incredulous about this statement, but wonderful as it may seem, it is nevertheless true. Any one can prove the genuineness of this electrical process any evening of the week, by visiting the handsome studio, of Messrs. J. W. Green & Son, on Hunter street, up to 10 o'clock. This enterprising firm of photographers have, at considerable expense, installed one of the wonderful Boston electric light plants for taking photographs at night. It generates a light equal to 10,000 candle power, which is thrown upon a white screen. The sitter is thus surrounded with a soft white halo of light, pleasing to the senses, and it operates in producing the same influence as daylight in producing photographic negatives. The quality of work produced is equal to daylight effects, as may be seen by the extra fine samples on exhibition in the studio. Only two other of these remarkable machines are in use in Canada, so far as known, one of them being in Notman's Studio, Montreal. The operator, Mr. Huber, is an expert at the work, he having previously had charge of a studio in which no daylight was used—all photographs being taken by the electric light process.

Messrs. Green & Son's studio is open every night until 10 o'clock, for the convenience of sitters; and visitors are always welcome to call and see this novel and interesting night process of photographic art. Prices are the same as for daylight pictures. 1d1w

Y. M. C. A. BOARD MEETING.

A Satisfactory Financial Statement—Other Reports Received.

The Y. M. C. A. Board of Directors held their monthly meeting last evening. It was deeply interesting and helpful. The following were present: Dr. Scott, president; Messrs. Peter Hamilton, H. P. Kennedy; C. S. Mallett, A. L. Grover, A. E. Dixon, F. Adams, A. Parker, H. C. Stabler, A. C. McCallum, B. Anderson, F. H. Martin, G. H. Williamson, general secretary; J. M. MacLeod, physical director; and W. H. Symonds, provincial secretary.

A most satisfactory statement was made regarding the finances, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the Ladies' Auxiliary for their handsome donation of $425.

Satisfactory reports of the different departments were given by Mr. McCallum, chairman of physical work committee; A. E. Dixon, educational department; and B. Anderson for religious work department.

Mr. Symonds gave a brief and pointed address on the work for young men.

Resolutions of thanks were passed expressing gratitude to the Ladies' Auxiliary, and to the teachers of the evening educational classes.

A resolution was also recorded regretting the departure of the Rev. E. V. Stevenson, who was a member of the Board.

By a unanimous vote Mr. Williamson, the secretary, was elected to attend the International Y. M. C. A. Convention at Grand Rapids, Mich., in May. About 1,000 delegates will attend from different parts of North America.

Thanks were expressed in several short addresses to Mr. Symonds, provincial secretary, for his services, and also th the Provincial Committee.

VICTORIA MUSEUM OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

OPEN FOR THE SEASON ON SATURDAY AT 2 P. M.

Many Interesting Exhibits—The Museum Educative as well as Entertaining—Public Interest Should be Manifested—The Public Can Assist.

On Saturday, April 15th, Victoria Museum, West Nicholls Park, will be opened to the public from 2 to 5 p.m., and on everyday during the season until Oct. 15th, (Sundays excepted) at the same hours.

Mr. Robert Howland has been appointed resident caretaker and will be in attendance during the hours above stated.

The Museum Committee regret that owing to the want of proper lighting, it will not be possible to admit visitors after 5 p.m. for the present, but hope to be able to do so later on.

Since last season the rooms have been re-arranged and many new and interesting features added.

The Museum being free to the public and an educational as well as an historical institution, the Commitee hopes that the citizens will take an interest in it and show their appreciation by adding contributions. Hitherto the Committee has met with a very generous response to their appeals for contributions, and hope that this will continue.

Additional show cases are required and would be very acceptable, as there is still plenty of room in the building and many interesting objects are now hidden for want of proper cases to display them. Anyone intending to contribute articles, either, as a gift or loan, will kindly notify the committee or leave them with the caretaker or any member of the committee or of the Historical Society. A description and condition of articles should accompany each donation, so that they may be properly acknowledged and registered.

At the opening of the museum season the public are urged to give their interest in the museum a more practical shape. While the present collection is well worthy of a visit, it can without much individual effort be largely increased.

One thing that seems to be much needed, is a set of plaster casts of prominent authors, poets, historians and prominent Canadians. Some philanthropic citizens whose purse can supplement his public spirit might earn the thanks of people by practically considering this suggestion. And there are other things which might be done that would involve little or no expense. There must be many old show cases, now stored idly in attics which might be turned over to the society and converted to good use, and the installation of electric light fixtures opens another avenue for the generously inclined.

The general public can too without much effort greatly increase the collection by the gift or loan of articles or curios, such as ancient books, maps, charts, documents, pictures, paintings, engravings, photographs, mineral and geological specimens, Indian implements, arms, pottery, old china and bric-a-brac, coins, tokens, medals, postage stamps, society badges, emblems, ancient and foreign fire-arms, swords, spears, natural history subjects, such as stuffed birds, beasts, fish, reptiles; old musical and Philosophical instruments.

The museum committee will be glad to receive such articles as gifts or loans. They will be registered, labelled with the doners' or lenders' name and safely deposited under lock in glass cases.

Articles may be left with the chairman of the committee, Mr. J. B. McWilliams or the secretary, Mr. T. A. S. Hay or any of the following members: A. L. Davis, Mayor; E. H. D. Hall, E. Hawthorne, warden of the county; Jos. Forster, Richard Hall, E. A. Peck, Chas. McGill, H. T. Strickland, Dr. Geo. Burnham. The Examiner will also be pleased to accept and forward any articles that may be left in its care.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The programme for the Club on Saturday evening should prove very enjoyable. Part of the entertainment will be furnished by a graphophone, which will be provided by one of the members. It only requires the sympathetic co-operation of all the members to make this Saturday evening Club very helpful and attractive to all.

The Toronto Weekly Globe, the Ladies Home Journal, and all the best weekly and church papers are to be found in the reading room.

—A prominent George street merchant has discovered some use for the street railway track—it tells one when he reaches it that he is half way across the street.

—The posters announcing "The Bogie Lady" are very unique and attract much attention. The performance takes place next week in St. John's schoolhouse. Miss Alma McCollum, is the author, the music being arranged by Mr. Rodgers.

—Lord Minto, who with Lady Minto, is visiting the Toronto Horse Show, delivered a discourse on docking horses' tails. He should have written his opinions on a subject that should be dealt with by dock-umentary argument.

—All persons have plum or cherry trees affected by the black knot are advised to attend to it now, and have it cut out or burned. It becomes the duty of any person who may discover the knot on any tree to notify the Road Commissioner, whose duty it is to see that is promptly removed. Failing in this the commissioner is liable to a penalty.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

The Tecumsehs state they are sure of the services of Westwick and Murphy, of the Capitals, and Lorne Yorke, of the Torontos.

Secretary John P. Dunne in his annual report to the Capital Lacrosse Club, says the Orillia's gave the Caps the "double cross" at Orillia last summer, and warns all other teams in the business to be extra chary in dealing with the northerners. He calls upon the Orillians to disprove his charges if they dare. The trouble appears to be a misunderstanding over gate receipts.

It is said that Beaverton intends entering the senior series of the C. L. A. this year. Beaverton nor any other club should not be allowed to enter a series for which they are not qualified. Matters in this respect should be regulated as they are in the O. H. A.

Orillia will be without the services of Armstrong and Churchill this year. The team will thus be materially weakened. Wilkinson has also taken his departure.

The Ottawa papers deny that "Scow" Devine is going to play with the Peterboroughs this year. Well the Peterboroughs never said he was. The story originated in Ottawa, the crafty "Scow" being after a raise in salary probably.

The Toronto Globe says—Club managers who have been handing out advance money to "amateur" players had better get it back if they can. Men who have been hired, on the job system or otherwise, will not be allowed to play in the Canadian Lacrosse Association this year. This warning applies to Toronto as well as in Orangeville.

Lacrosse this season will just about make or mar Orangeville, for if they don't win wiht their imported team they may as well close up for good. The only thing Orangeville about the team is the worked letters on the men's shirts.

CRICKET.

The Campbellford Cricket Club have organized for the season with the following officers:

WARMER OR COLDER?

What Manner of Weather Should Follow Yesterday's Thunder?

There were frequent growls of thunder heard during the rain yesterday and opinions differ as to the nature of the weather to follow. An old adage is to the effect that spring thunder drives the last of the frost out of the air, but many of the weatherwise think that cooler weather should follow the mutterings of Jupiter Pluvius. The weather bureau men incline to the former opinion evidently as fine warm weather is predicted for tomorrow.

$425 FOR THE Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. Ladies' Auxiliary Vote this Amount.

A most enthusiastic meeting of the Y.M.C.A. Ladies' Auxiliary was held in the building yesterday. Mrs. James A. Hall occupied the chair.

A report of the Bazaar was read and the ladies voted $425 to assist the Board in liquidating the budget for the year. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to all who had assisted in making the Bazaar so grand a success.

So many assisted that it is impossible to give a list of the names.

The ladies meet again the first Thursday in May.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLES.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery But not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell gives an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given, and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 lbs. in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being perfectly harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin, and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Early Accidents

Cause Lifelong Suffering.

A Case that is Causing Talk.

When a lad about eight years of age I fell into a cellar a distance of ten feet, striking on my head, and causing concussion of the brain. I was taken to a London, Eng., Hospital, the first seven days not recovering consciousness. I am now 35 years old and from the time of my accident until I began taking Dr. Ward's Pills five months ago I had been subject to fainting spells, never being more than two weeks without an attack of fainting. As I grew older these spells became more frequent, lasted longer, and left me with less vitality. I was weak, had no strength or stamina, always very low-spirited and down-hearted; imagined that every thing and every person was going against me, and life only had a dark side for me. My appetite was poor most of the time, but I am now happy to say that, since taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, I have only had one fainting spell, shortly after I began taking them, so I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Ward's Pills cured me. Before taking these pills I always looked for a fainting spell not more than two weeks apart; now, I would be greatly surprised at a recurrence of these spells. Life is now bright—the constant, morbid, down-hearted feeling is gone, being replaced by a contented, hopeful feeling. I feel like working. My appetite is good, and in every respect I have experienced the health and strength restoring properties of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. They certainly have proved a great blessing to me. Yours truly, (Signed), Thomas Stanton, Brighton, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Doctor Ward Co., Limited, Toronto.

IN A FIRE AT NIGHT.

A DRUMMER'S EXPERIENCE IN A BLAZING HOTEL.

What He Had Planned to Do In Just Such a Contingency and What He Really Did When the Opportunity Offered Itself.

"It's queer—not to say a source of chagrin—the difference between our intentions and our performances, isn't it?" said a commercial traveler at one of the hotels the other night. "I was in the Hotel Baldwin fire in San Francisco and lost everything I had along with me, including a thousand and odd dollars' worth of jewelry and all of my sample cases but one, and I was glad to get out with my life at that. It was the first hotel fire in which I had figured. I had often mentally calculated upon what I should do in case a hotel in which I was a guest should begin to conflagrate. I was going to be the coolest headed man within a radius of many miles. If the fire should break out in the middle of the night while I was in bed, I intended to get up very coolly upon being awakened, deliberately slip on enough clothing to keep me out of the hands of the police upon making my appearance, get my money and then pick up my most valuable sample case and the valise in which I had packed articles of clothing in current use and walk out, leaving the rest of my gear to take its chance upon the fire being squelched. On my way through the corridors, in case I met up with any beautiful, supplicating maidens or any aged, incapable women, I had it all pictured how I would drop my two grips and take them down the seething staircase, one on each arm, presenting a heroic and inspiring spectacle as I emerged from the caldron of flame.

"Well, what happened? Luckily for me, I had a third story front room in the Baldwin. The fire broke out in the basement along toward 3 o'clock in the morning. I snored luxuriously until about a dozen engines were throwing streams on the lower portion of the structure. When I was in the middle of a dream that I was standing in front of a lot of big stores on a great business thoroughfare, throwing croquet balls through huge plate glass windows—it was the smashing glass down below that got me into that strain of dreaming—I woke up. The glare in my room was something luminous. Did I slowly stretch, say to myself, 'Here's that long waited for fire, and it's up to me to be the man of the hour and the real thing?'

"Not much did I! I just hopped up like a man who finds a family of centipeds in his bed. I grabbed a pair of rubbers that were lying alongside my bed and put them on the wrong feet, giving all the time during the performance a realistic exhibition of a man undergoing a swamp chill. Then I snatched a mackintosh that I had thrown over my trunk on coming in the night before and folded it after considerable difficulty, owing to my chill tremblings, over my pyjamas. Then I reached for a hat, and of course it was about my luck to get the worst hat I owned out of half a dozen scattered over the room. Then I made for the door. I want you to understand that I made for the door in a hurry too.

"On my way to the door I stumbled over one of my sample cases and kicked it over in front of the door. I had to pick it up in order to open the door, and so I hung on to it and took it along with me. I afterward found it to be the least consequential sample case I had, one that I could very easily have dispensed with compared with those that I lost. Jewelry? Money? Duds? I wasn't thinking any more of them when I frantically unlocked and unbarred that door of mine than I was of taking a balloon before breakfast in the morning and starting for the north pole. I just wanted to get out, that's all. The halls were filled with smoke, I found, but after ten years of stopping annually at the Baldwin, generally in the same room, I knew the stairways and the route down to the lobby pretty well, and I just put my free hand over my mouth and nose and made the rush.

"D'ye suppose that if I had met 40 of the most beautiful maidens on the globe—supplicating, imploring maidens—standing there confused in that third floor hallway I'd have picked 'em up one in each arm and, permitting them to gently nestle up against my mackintosh, have carried them triumphantly down the stairs and out into the street and under the broad arch of heaven and all that? No, I wouldn't have. It's grievous and grewsome to have to confess it, but I'd just have yelled at them to follow my route and then have kept on getting over territory myself. I fell down the first flight of stairs, from top to bottom, then picked myself up with the one idea of getting out, scampered to the head of the second flight of stairs and fell down those. I lit on the flagging of the lobby, and in two more seconds I was in the street. When, a few minutes later, I reflected upon my loss and the general hamlike character of my conduct, did I want to go back and get my things and do the whole thing over again right and in accordance with my preconceived intentions in case of a hotel fire? Nope. I was content to stand there in the street and figure how I'd perform the next time I got similarly caught."

WHO IS HAPPY?

The healthy mother of a healthy child has a happiness all her own. Her's is a joy that cannot be told. It is peculiar to motherhood. The responsibility for the soft little, sweet little, dependant creature

—as much a part of herself as her own heart—brings a pleasure that may be equaled in Heaven, but never on earth. The greatest thing that can be done in this world is to bear and rear healthy, happy children. Many women do not do it—do not reach the full measure of beautiful, perfect womanhood, because of the neglect of the health of the organs distinctly feminine.

Every woman may be perfectly healthy if she chooses. She need not submit to the humiliating examinations and local treatment of physicians. She need have no trouble and slight expense. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any disease or disorder peculiar to women. It is the invention of a regularly graduated, skilled, expert, successful specialist. It has been sold for over 30 years, and has a greater sale than all similar medicines combined. It regulates every feminine function—makes a woman better able to bear children—better able to take care of her children. It greatly lessens the pain and danger of parturition. No honest druggist will offer you a substitute—look out for the one who does.

"My illness was caused by lack of medical attention during child-birth, and lasted for a period of three years, during which my suffering was almost indescribable," writes Mrs. Edith Petty, of Texanna, Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. "My constitution was strong and health good up to that time. Owing to injuries received, rupture, internal displacement, etc., I became a physical wreck. I think it was a constant state of pain that brought about a nervous collapse, and it would be impossible for me to tell you the degree of torture I underwent from the time that set in. I became so nervous I feared insanity. The nervous disorder seemed to affect my heart. The slightest shock would bring on a spell of palpitation which would last for two hours and over; this would be succeeded by a smothering spell which was suffocating in the extreme. I became so reduced in strength and the nervous trouble so far advanced that I could take no solid food. When I could eat (no matter how little) I would get so nervous it seemed that I must die. To make matters worse I was seised with an almost insane fear of death. My tortures were awful in the extreme. I at length consulted the highest medical authority in the Creek Nation. An examination was made. The doctor informed me that recovery was impossible without the aid of a surgical operation, the rupture and displacements must be reduced; that no amount of medicine would effect a cure. Four months later, this doctor with the assistance of three others performed the operation. For twelve days I was kept under the influence of the strongest opiates. At the end of that time I was discharged from his professional care, supposed to be cured. For about ten days my nerves were more quiet, owing to the effect of the opiates. Shortly after this the former troubles returned with renewed force. I again consulted the surgeon. He said all I required was change of scenery, exercise of will power, etc., intimated that I was inclined to be hysterical; prescribed a nerve medicine of temporary effect, and said he could do no more. Monthly periods ceased entirely. On account of this last trouble my mother bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took the medicine after meals according to the directions. It had a soothing effect on the nerves. Soon after this I wrote a letter to your establishment describing my ailments, and in return I received a communication giving a complete diagnosis of the case, and advising a course of Dr. Pierce's medicines. I took in all twelve bottles—six of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and six of the 'Favorite Prescription.'

Thanks to an All-wise Providence and Dr. Pierce's medicines, the disagreeable symptoms have all disappeared. I can now do a hard day's work, eat anything and everything I wish. I regard my recovery as permanent, for it is nearly two years since I stopped taking Dr. Pierce's medicines, except the 'Pleasant Pellets,' which I always keep on hand."

The Carver Made Enough For All.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

A GRIM CEREMONY.

An Emperor's Death Hastened by Rehearsing His Own Funeral.

Emperor Charles V of Spain brought about his death by rehearsing his own funeral. For the last two years of his life, after resigning the scepter of Spain and the Netherlands to his son Philip, in 1556, Charles retired to the monastery of Yuste, in Estremadura, and there lived a cloister life in close intercourse with the monks, devoting much time to religious exercises. During this period, prompted it may be by the example of Cardinal de la Marck, who for several years before his death, in 1528, had annually rehearsed his own obsequies, the emperor, in the summer of 1558, formed the resolution to celebrate his own funeral before he died.

Accordingly, on Aug. 30 of that year, the grim farce was carried out with the most elaborate ceremonial. The imperial domestics marched with black tapers in their hands, and the emperor, clad in sable weeds, himself followed, wearing his shroud. While the solemn mass for the dead was sung before the high altar in the cathedral Charles gave up his taper to the priest, typifying thereby his resignation of life, and was solemnly laid in his coffin. The ceremony closed with sprinkling holy water on his body: then, all the attendants retiring, the doors were shut, and Charles rose from his narrow bed and withdrew to his private apartment.

The damping of the graveclothes induced a chill, which, aided no doubt by the mental depression caused by the grewsome ceremony, induced a fever which ended in his death three weeks later, on the 21st of September, 1588.

A Missing Link.

It will doubtless surprise many who have never even heard of the brute that there still exists on the island of Java an animal, or rather a reptile, which seems to be the missing link between the ichthyosauri of prehistoric days and the well known saurians of modern times.

This animal is known to the Javanese as "linguin." It fell to the luck of Baron Alfonso Pereira, consul general of Austria-Hungary, to shoot one of these beasts some years ago. Its length was between nine and ten feet, and it looked a cross between a snake and a crocodile. Though the beast was cut and wounded in its encounter with Baron Pereira it did not bleed.

Mr. JAMES KELEHER,

THE WELL-KNOWN MERCHANT TAILOR, GUELPH, ONT.,

Endorses Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as the Best Remedy for Nervous Disorders.

Nervous prostration is one of the common ailments of the day among business men in every town and city of the continent.

The work and worry associated with modern business life soon wears out the strongest nerves and wrecks the general health.

Everywhere there are numbers of business men who find at times their nerves unhinged,—can't sleep, can't think, can't concentrate their mind as they ought. Feel weak, worn and miserable.

There is nothing will do such people so much good as a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Those who have tried them cannot speak too highly of their beneficial effects.

Mr. J. Keleher, of the firm of Keleher & Hendley, Merchant Tailors, Wyndham Street, Guelph, Ont., has kindly given the following statement for publication:

"I know of no medicine equal to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for nervous trouble or as a tonic for the nervous system, as well as to build up and strengthen the body.

"I have taken two boxes of them with the most satisfactory results, and I heartily endorse and recommend them."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists.

THIN GIRLS GET PLUMP

while using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

There comes a critical time in the life of every woman when the bud of girlhood is unfolding into the full blown flower of womanhood. Mothers at this time should carefully guard their daughters' health, for this is a time when many a girl falls victim to insidious diseases which make life a misery.

Loss of flesh, headaches, pains in back and side, nervousness, irritability, dull eyes and a pale, sallow complexion, these are the symptoms that warn you to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

The blood is impoverished and the nerves require nutrition. Nature must have assistance and there is no better way to help nature than by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. It is a food for blood and nerves, and creates rich, red blood, solid flesh and new nerve tissue. The color will return to the cheek, the brightness to the eye, and increase in weight will tell of solid advance in health.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, 50c. a box. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Persiatic Plant Food—Acts as a tonic on sickly drooping plants. Destroys insect pests that sap the vitality of the plant and ensures strong, vigorous growth and abundant healthy coloured foliage. Is invaluable for use on delicate plants such as palms and exotics—increase the vitality of the roots and strengthens the plant fibres. At all druggists and dealers, 25c.

A TWO HOUR BREAKFAST.

It Is One of the Institutions of New Orleans.

There is a place in New Orleans that strangers are always glad to have pointed out—Begeuy's, over in the French quarter, kept by Mme. Begeuy (pronounced Bigay, with the accent on the last syllable), and famous for the breakfasts it serves at 11 o'clock every morning.

Originally this breakfast was intended for the butchers, and they contributed to it the daintiest meats that the splendid French market in New Orleans provided from day to day. Gradually outsiders began to come in, and now one must engage a seat at breakfast two days ahead. The morning the writer was there a distinguished judge of the supreme court was the principal visitor, and he, with his family and several guests from Boston, sat at the head of the table.

One long table occupies the little dining room, to which one climbs by a rickety flight of stairs. Every Frenchman, when he gets up, takes a cup of coffee and a roll, and at 11 o'clock eats his real breakfast. This is the meal that Mme. Begeuy serves, and it costs $1. The kitchen is right off of the dining room, and there is no pretense of adornment. Everything is as plain and simple as it can be, excepting the food, and this is the perfection of the gastronomic art. A bottle of claret stood at each place, which, with water imported from Germany and called "blue label," was all there was to drink until the little cup of black coffee finished the repast.

The first thing served was duck. It was excellent, and so was everything else included in the eight or nine courses that came on, and that concluded, singularly enough, with liver, so cooked that the only regret was that the piece was not larger. It takes two hours to eat a breakfast at Begeuy's, and you get enough to last you for all day.—Leslie's Weekly.

If not, Why not?

If you have rheumatism and refuse to take the proper cure for it, how can you expect relief? Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure really cures. Try it and see for yourself. Mr. S. Donaldson, Pittsburg, P. M. at Dufferin Post Office, was lame with Muscular Rheumatism for two years. One bottle of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. This preparation is taken internally. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

Detecting Flaws in Metal.

To detect hidden cracks opening from the surface of metals the surface is first moistened with kerosene and is then dried off with a cloth. It is then coated with chalk. After a little while the oil works out of the little cracks and stains the chalk. A sort of diagram of the hidden fissures and defects is thus produced.

Professor C. Lloyd Morgan has in his book on "Habit and Instinct" advanced the theory that, while the calls and alarm notes uttered by birds are probably due to simple instinct, their songs may be traditional—that is, handed down from generation to generation and perpetuated through the faculty of imitation.

To all who find themselves with health gradually slipping away, kidney and liver so disorganized that the are incapable of keeping the system free from poisonous waste material, stomach disordered, bowels constipated, head aching, back paining, take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. The quick way they help you back to health will surprise you.

WAR AND MATRIMONY.

Cupid Is Much the Busiest In Times of Peace and Prosperity.

"There is a close connection between marriage and the price of wheat, beef, pork, beans, corn and other things which go to make up the main portion of human food," writes Professor D. R. McAnally of "The American Girl's Chances of Marriage," in The Ladies' Home Journal. "As the prices of these commodities go up the number of marriages goes down. From 1851 to 1854 times were good, food was cheap, and the marriage rate in Massachusetts went up to 26 per 1,000. Between 1855 and 1859 there was great depression of trade, and in 1858 the marriage rate went down to 17 per 1,000. The years from 1873 to 1879 form another period of depression. Factories were closed and manufacturers of every kind suffered severely. In one year, at least, crops were short and the prices of food were high. The result was immediately seen in matrimony, for in 1874 the number of marriages went down from 21 per 1,000 of the population to 18, and in 1876 and the following two years declined to 15 per 1,000—a tremendous falling off from 26 per 1,000, the figure attained in 1854, which was the banner year in the state of Massachusetts for matrimony.

"Almost as unfavorable as that of hard times is the influence of war upon matrimony. Whenever Mars is in the ascendant Cupid's stock goes down. During the civil war the number of marriages in this country fell off from 20 per 1,000 of population to 17 per 1,000, and immediately after the civil war was ended, in 1865, the number rose to 22 per 1,000, declining in 1869 to 21. The woman who is looking for a husband has a better chance of getting one just before or just after a war than at any other time."

With the Fading of Beauty.

A 16-year-old girl imagines that she is an angel, and never gets over it. After a woman gets old she thinks of how she was admired and complimented in her youth and feels that some great wrong was done her because she did not remain as pretty as she was at 16. If she is married, she is apt to lay the blame on the brutality of her husband; if she is an old maid, she lays it on her father, who was poor, and thus forced her to work, which resulted in a stooping figure and harsh features. A man never has this experience. He is at his worst at 16 and does not reach his best until he is 26 to 30. By that time he has acquired a little sense, and never mistakes a compliment for the truth.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., April 3. — There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Mass Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

Sunday School Gems.

Stories of strange and amusing answers given to examination questions are frequently told, but we do not so often see recorded the equally surprising answers given by children in Sunday schools, and yet they are frequently original enough.

A teacher, lately wishing to turn the young idea toward the mission field, asked, "What are good men called who leave their homes and go to foreign lands to teach the heathen?"

"Prodigal sons," was the prompt and triumphant reply.

A class of boys when asked, "What were the ten plagues?" answered with more fervor than gallantry, "The ten virgins, sir."—Westminster Gazette.

Have No Use For Cents.

Pennies are not used by the banks of New Orleans in the payment of checks. If a check, for example, is drawn for $62.18, the holder receives $62.20. If the amount is $62.17, he gets $62.15. The split is made between the second and third cent, and the system, which has been in vogue for many years, is very rarely the subject of any complaint. It makes an exact balance of coppers at the end of the day's business rather unlikely, but the doctrine of averages operates to even things up to within a few cents. In the long run about as many checks break on one-half of the nickel as on the other.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Money Making Indians.

The Menominee Indians, in northwestern Wisconsin, are making as much money in lumber operations as are the Osages at farming. By the sale of pine logs in years past the 1,800 men, women and children have accumulated a tribal fund aggregating $1,000,000, which is still growing. The tribe expends about $75,000 a year in logging operations and clears from $50,000 to $100,000 annually.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store as their giving away to their many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size, 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

A BABY BOY.

Every expectant mother in the world will sympathize with the somewhat remarkable experience of Mrs. Rev. Walker, of Fillmore, Montgomery Co., Ills. "I take pleasure in dropping you a word of praise," she writes in an interesting letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., "in regard to your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me. I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' in October. I took two bottles, and on the first of January following I gave birth to a nine-and-a-half pound boy, and was only in labor half an hour. There was no one with me at the time of confinement but my husband. I would advise expectant mothers to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it will shorten labor, and give greater relief than the doctors can. I would not say anything about the medicine if I had not used it for myself. There is no need of suffering if Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is used during pregnancy. May God bless you for a medicine that will preserve life. I am getting so I can do some of my own work without getting tired."

Sensitive, ailing women deserve the true sympathy and helpfulness that can only be extended to them by a physician whose wide experience renders him deeply appreciative of their sufferings and thoroughly familiar with the means of prompt alleviation and cure. You may write Dr. Pierce in perfect confidence. He will send you sensible, fatherly advice free by mail.

A mother will be greatly assisted in the care of her own and her children's health by the instructions given in Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page, illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser. This book formerly sold for $1.50, but a paper-bound copy will be sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of customs and mailing, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.

THE HONEY MAKERS.

All hives should have good young queens and young brood.

A colony in proper condition is always proof against robbers.

Never open a hive in cold or rainy weather. Never breathe on the bees nor brush them upward on the comb.

If there is too much drone comb in the hive, remove it and replace it with worker comb. In this way the supply of drones is easily regulated.

Granulation improves the appearance of any quality of honey and never fails to give it a lighter shade. It also has a tendency to make it a purer sweet.

Hives should be located in whatever place they are to occupy in readiness to receive swarms when they come off. This should be arranged in good season.

Bees should never be disturbed as long as they are doing well. If a strong, healthy colony is rudely disturbed, some bees will leave the cluster and sometimes the hive.

From different causes there is always danger of the entrance of the hive being clogged or choked during the winter. This must be watched and the entrance kept open.

One proposes to sit down.
Oh, I would not move in autumn,
When the leaves begin to fall,
And, in fact, if I could help it,
I would never move at all!

Pennies are not used by the banks of New Orleans in the payment of checks. If a check, for example, is drawn for $62.18, the holder receives $62.20. If the amount is $62.17, he gets $62.15. The split is made between the second and third cent, and the system, which has been in vogue for many years, is very rarely the subject of any complaint. It makes an exact balance of coppers at the end of the day's business rather unlikely, but the doctrine of averages operates to even things up to within a few cents. In the long run about as many checks break on one-half of the nickel as on the other.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Money Making Indians.

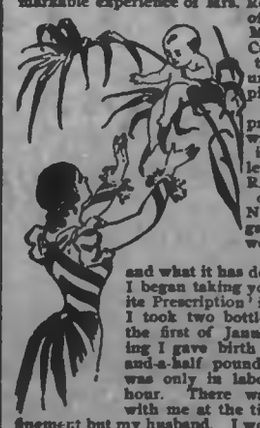
The Menominee Indians, in northwestern Wisconsin, are making as much money in lumber operations as are the Osages at farming. By the sale of pine logs in years past the 1,800 men, women and children have accumulated a tribal fund aggregating $1,000,000, which is still growing. The tribe expends about $75,000 a year in logging operations and clears from $50,000 to $100,000 annually.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store as their giving away to their many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size, 50c .and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

A BABY BOY.



Every expectant mother in the world will sympathize with the somewhat remarkable experience of Mrs. Rev. Walker, of Fillmore, Montgomery Co., Ills. "I take pleasure in dropping you a word of praise," she writes in an interesting letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., "in regard to your wonderful medicine and what it has done for me. I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' in October. I took two bottles, and on the first of January following I gave birth to a nine-and-a-half pound boy, and was only in labor half an hour. There was no one with me at the time of confinement but my husband. I would advise expectant mothers to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for it will shorten labor, and give greater relief than the doctors can. I would not say anything about the medicine if I had not used it for myself. There is no need of suffering if Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is used during pregnancy. May God bless you for a medicine that will preserve life. I am getting so I can do some of my own work without getting tired."

Sensitive, ailing women deserve the true sympathy and helpfulness that can only be extended to them by a physician whose wide experience renders him deeply appreciative of their sufferings and thoroughly familiar with the means of prompt alleviation and cure. You may write Dr. Pierce in perfect confidence. He will send you sensible, fatherly advice free by mail.

A mother will be greatly assisted in the care of her own and her children's health by the instructions given in Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page, illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser. This book formerly sold for $1.50, but a paper-bound copy will be sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of customs and mailing, or cloth-bound for 50 stamps.

THE HONEY MAKERS.

All hives should have good young queens and young brood.

A colony in proper condition is always proof against robbers.

Never open a hive in cold or rainy weather. Never breathe on the bees nor brush them upward on the comb.

If there is too much drone comb in the hive, remove it and replace it with worker comb. In this way the supply of drones is easily regulated.

Granulation improves the appearance of any quality of honey and never fails to give it a lighter shade. It also has a tendency to make it a purer sweet.

Hives should be located in whatever place they are to occupy in readiness to receive swarms when they come off. This should be arranged in good season.

Bees should never be disturbed as long as they are doing well. If a strong, healthy colony is rudely disturbed, some bees will leave the cluster and sometimes the hive.

From different causes there is always danger of the entrance of the hive being clogged or choked during the winter. This must be watched and the entrance kept open.

I would never move at all!

IMPERIAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. OF CANADA.

Seven Cardinal Reasons for Insuring in the Imperial:

1. It Affords Unquestionable Security to policy-holders, by its large Capital Stock of $1,000,000, and its Dominion Government Deposit of $250,000, being the largest Government Deposit of any Canadian life insurance company.
2. Its Policy Reserves are held on the most stringent basis used in Canadian Actuarial calculation.
3. Its Policies do not Restrict the assured in respect to residence, travel or occupation, and are payable immediately on receipt of satisfactory proof of death.
4. Its Policies cannot be Forfeited after three annual premiums have been paid, but provide for surrender values by way of cash or paid-up insurance
5. The Premium Rates Compare favorably with those of other insurance companies, and a grace of month is allowed in payment hereof, during which time the policy remains in full force and effect.
6. Its Policies are Automatically Continued in force after three years premiums have been paid, for such time as the whole reserve is sufficient to pay premiums.
7. Liberal Cash Loans are granted under policies after three annual premiums have been paid.

IN THE INTERESTS OF POULTRY BREEDING.

An Advocacy of Provincial Aid for District or County Associations.

WILLIAM COLLINS.

The following article, which appears in the April number of the Canadian Poultry Review is favorably commented on by the editor.

I have read with pleasure in your February number an article by that veteran poultry man, I. K. Felch, ex-President of the American Poultry ciation, on "Poultry Culture." If I might be allowed to begin in the middle of that paper I may say that I fully endorse all Mr. Felch says about the importance of the score card being used to indicate the value of the birds, as by no other way can the breeder, if an amateur, or the general public who wish to see the specimens, form a correct estimate of the excellence of the exhibits. It is, to a great extent, to educate the masses that shows are held, and to help the breeder to disseminate his stock among them, and thereby improve the quality and increase the quantity all along those lines.

Then, as to the state grants vs. county grants; I would not, in Ontario at least, favor cutting off the grants to the Ontario show, as the breeders wish for it to try conclusions and compete against others for the large or sweepstake prizes at least once a year, and by that means they keep up a friendly rivalry that would not otherwise urge them forward to th every highest ideals of poultry, as was seen this year in Toronto, when the Ontario breeders were competing with the very best that their American friends could produce.

Now, what I would propose is that there should be local county association shows, or district shows, one for each of the 13 districts in Ontario, supplemented with a grant from the Government, as it is very hard for local boards (without any assistance) to pay prizes and expenses, and not infrequently local show directors find themselves in an unpleasant position and quite a number of associations have ceased to hold their annual shows on that account. Now why should they not expect some assistance as well as agricultural and horticultural societies, and more so than branch or township shows whose usefulness, in the writer's opinion, is past and gone except, perhaps ,in some of the newly settled districts. Why give grants of from $100 to $140 a year to each of those latter shows at which the prizes all told do not equal those given at a local poultry show, and then they are held in very close proximity to the towns where the county exhibitions are held. I give as an instance; three are held within 13 miles of Peterborough every year, and what consideration does the poultry get at any of these places? there may be a few specimens set against the fence without cover or protection. They are clearly a side issue as far as county or township fair boards are concerned, and we think that the poultry have been relegated to a back seat long enough, and that the poultry breeders should set to work and try and get some assistance to hold county shows as they would become feeders for the larger ones, and the young breeder would attend those at first until he got confidence that he could take his chances with his big brothers in the larger show rings. Hundreds would visit these smaller exhibitions who would never travel long distances to attend the larger ones.

With a grant of about $125 annually county associations could hold their shows with confidence and offer inducements to exhibitors that would soon bring the poultry interests to the front. It was by persistent work and assistance and instruction that the cheese interests of Ontario have been placed in the front rank in competition with the world. Or, in the event of the county associations being considered too small, the district or four county associations might be favored by some inasmuch as the organization would be stronger if they had a proportionately larger grant; in either case to be affiliated under the Agriculture and Arts Act.

With the latter it might be better to hold the meetings in each of the four county towns once in four years which would make a circuit, but this has advantages and disadvantages. Among the latter would be the expense of moving coops each year and the expense connected with meetings of the directorate, who would likely be living at a distance apart if they represented the entire district, and if they did not there might be jealousy creep in, also one town might be more successful than another for holding exhibitions in. Onthe whole I would favor the county rather than the district association as likely to do the greatest good to the greatest number.

My object is to start a discussion out of which some definite line of action may be evolved, as I have been told by quite a number of fanciers in different parts of the Province that it is almost impossible to carry on a successful exhibition every year without having a small guaranteed grant of money to assist them, without having to go about soliciting donations and subscriptions from the business men and others in the locality.

THE WISE "WORLD'S" WAY.

Its Opinion of Canal Maps and Canal Routes.

The Toronto World says it is in receipt of a pamphlet and two elaborate maps, giving a graphic representation of the Trent Valley waterway. It seems to be a race between the Trent Valley and the Georgian Bay Canal people which can produce the best chromo with a canal as the artist's motif. We must admit that the Trent Valley artist has done some telling work in four colors. A cursory glance at his map impresses one forcibly with the idea that a canal between Midland and Trenton is the very best and only satisfactory solution of the great transportation problem between the upper lakes and tide-water. One is disturbed in this idea only when he takes a glance at the work of the rival artist. His map is designed to show that nature has pre-determined the Ottawa river as the shortest, best and in every way the most satisfactory route from Georgian Bay to the sea. Between railways and canals connecting the Georgian Bay and the St .Lawrence system the map of Northern Ontario is pretty well filled up, and there are more lines in contemplation.

A map of a canal to pass through Toronto would receive the World's undivided loyalty.

WEDDED IN NORWOOD.

Nuptials of Miss Maggie O'Shea, of Asphodel, and Mr. James Connelly of Campbellford.

A happy event occurred at St. Paul's church, Norwood, on Tuesday morning, April 11th, at 10 o'clock, when Mr. James Connelly, of Campbellfoird, and Miss Maggie O'Shea, daughter of Mr. Thos, O'Shea, Asphodel, were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Conway.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Dennis O'Shea, and looked very charming in white cashmere trimmed with white gloria and pearl and chiffon trimming.

Her bridesmaid's were Miss B. O'Shea and Miss Lillian O'Keefe, wearing respectively cream and violet costumes.

The bridegroom was assisted by his cousin, Mr. D. Connelly.

After the wedding dinner, which was partaken of by relatives and intimate friends, the happy couple left on the evening train for Toronto.

HIGHER PRICES OF IRON.

The manufacturer of articles into which iron and steel largely enter, who laid in a stock of the raw material last year, is now in luck. The price in all kinds of iron has gone up, and in recent weeks manufacturers have been refusing contracts that were not at once closed at the old rates. A correspondent gives the following as the advance made in the respective products within the last eighteen months:

	per cent. advance.
Bessemer pig iron	74 4-10
Billets	67 2-10
Copper	61 3-10
Tin	74 3-10
Spelter	62 7-10

The consequence has been an increase in the price of manufactured goods all over the world, though the makers assert, not to so great an extent as the increased price of the raw material would warrant.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:
Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since . It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

THE SAMOAN FIGHTING

Additional Light Thrown on the Affair by Kautz's Report.

THE COMMISSION IS A FACT.

By the Terms Unanimity Is Required for Immediate Local Measures—Powers Themselves, Upon Reports of Their Respective Commissioners, Will Settle Final Status of the Islands.

Washington, April 15.—The Cabinet meeting yesterday, which lasted longer than usual, was devoted principally to the discussion of the Samoan situation. A complete written report concerning the preliminaries leading up to the hostilities, which was made to the Secretary of the Navy by Admiral Kautz, was read to the Cabinet by Secretary Long. It throws some additional light upon the complications prior to the Admiral's arrival, the most important fact brought out being that the three consuls, American, British and German, at the time of the Admiral's arrival at Apia, had recognized the revolutionists under Mataafa. The Mataafa uprising after Chief Justice Chambers' decision in favor of Malietoa Tanu, the Admiral indicates, was fomented largely by the German consul, who insisted upon recognising Mataafa as King. Chaos was threatened, and the American and British residents considered themselves in peril of their lives. A massacre was feared, and under these circumstances the American and British consuls joined with the German in recognising the provisional government under Mataafa. To Admiral Kautz, upon his arrival, however, the British and American consuls explained that they had been forced to this action by the duress of the situation. The Admiral, at the conference aboard the Philadelphia, having satisfied himself that Chief Justice Chambers' decision was in accordance with the Berlin treaty, informed the consuls that they had no power to violate its provisions, and with the full acquiescence of the British and American consuls, he issued his manifesto, dissolving the provisional government and Malietoa was crowned King. The counter proclamation of the German consul and the shelling of the native villages, as recounted in the press despatches, followed.

THE COMMISSION A FACT.

The Three Governments Give Out Confirmatory News and Commission Will Sail on the 25th.

London, April 15.—The officials of the British Foreign Office say that the Marquis of Salisbury has agreed that the decisions regulating the provisional measures to be taken in keeping order in Samoa will be observed. They add that the functions of the commissioners will be to strive to agree to the measures necessary for a peaceful solution of the difficulties, but the conclusions they individually reach will of course be sent to their respective Governments, between whom further negotiations will then occur in regard to the final settlement.

This Is Good Confirmation.

The Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, Right Hon. St. John Broderick, replying in the House of Commons to questions yesterday, said information had reached the Foreign Office of the trouble in Samoa, and said arrangements had been made by the three Governments to send a commission with full powers to act for the restoration of order with respect to the steps necessary for the future government of the islands.

Announced in the Reichstag.

Berlin, April 15.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow, announced in the Reichstag yesterday that an agreement had been arrived at with Great Britain with regard to sending a commission to Samoa.

Positive and Final.

Washington, April 15.—After hearing yesterday morning from the British and German embassies, the State Department was enabled to announce positively and finally that the three parties to the Berlin treaty had agreed upon the instructions to be given their Samoan commissioners, and that it was certain that the commission would leave San Francisco on the 25th inst. for Samoa on board the Badger.

THE FATAL FLOODS.

James Perkins, Treasurer of the Township of Howick, Loses His Life at Gorrie—Raging Waters Elsewhere.

Gorrie, Ont., April 15.—On Thursday night, about 10 o'clock, a fatal accident occurred in the Maitland River, by which Mr. James Perkins, grain merchant and treasurer of the township of Howick, lost his life. The river has been overflowing its banks all week, and Mr. Perkins, with a number of others, was endeavoring to battle with the swift current when a large piece of ice came in contact with the log on which he was standing, throwing him into the river.

The river is being dragged, but as yet the body has not been recovered. The deceased was in the 66th year of his age, and 41 of them were spent in Gorrie.

BRANTFORD INUNDATED.

Many Narrow Escapes From the Angry Waters—Situation Is Serious.

Brantford, Ont., April 15.—Things are still in a serious state here. The water is still high in the Grand River. Gangs of men are doing everything possible to repair the heavy damage done during the past two days.

Though no fatalities have occurred yet, many narrow escapes are recorded. Three ladies in one house, Mrs. Mather, Mrs. J. Hill and Mrs. Cooley, were nearly asphyxiated by the breaking of a gaspipe. A Paris young man, named Peter McGrady, was swept out into the river in a small boat, carried down stream a couple of miles, and upset in the current. He managed to get to shore in an exhausted condition. Traffic on the G.T.R., Tilsonburg branch, is stopped.

All day yesterday the river remained much the same, with no signs of a fall. The position here is serious, and many families are in great distress.

RUSHING, RAGING WATERS.

The Elora Carpet Factory Nearly Demolished by Their Action.

Elora, April 15.—The greatest flood within the recollection of residents of 50 years occurred at this point Thursday evening between 6 and 7 o'clock. An immense ice jam, held just above Fergus, broke loose and joined forces with another jam a mile or so below. This combination came on with resistless sway, carrying everything before it. Huge pieces of ice, varying from two to four feet in thickness, with timber from bridges, flumes and dams, with the accumulation of water caused by the melting of the snow, together with the recent rains, will give some idea of the causes for such a flood. The water rose eight feet in as many minutes. The grinding and crashing, the swish of freed ice and the rush withal was a wonderful sight. The damage to the carpet factory was very great. All the outbuildings, the flume and the basement, which contained much valuable machinery, are almost a complete wreck. The other factories and mills along the river suffered alike, but to a less extent. At one time it was thought the bridges would go, as all the braces had been swept away and the ice was constantly being thrown against the sleepers. With the exception of a local jam in March, 1894, when the water rose four inches higher, this, as well as being the greatest flood, was also the highest.

DAMAGE AT HESPELER.

Brodie's Bridge Partially Destroyed, But the Water Has Receded.

Hespeler, Ont., April 15.—The damage from the high water in the River Speed here culminated yesterday afternoon in the partial destruction of Mr. A. W. Brodie's bridge, a structure spanning the river between his mill properties just below the falls, which was substantially supported by stone piers. The great rush of water destroyed two of these abutments and carried away two sections of the bridge, one of which struck the large iron bridge on the highway with great force and lodged there, fortunately not moving the latter structure. The other section was secured and successfully hauled on shore. Besides this serious damage to the bridge, Mr. Brodie sustained a considerable loss in the partial destruction of the masonry and timbers of the dam and the washing-out of the stone wall skirting the river. The abutments under the town bridge have also been considerably damaged. The water has now receded, and it is thought the danger is past. The cars on the G., P. & H. Electric Railway resumed their regular trips in the afternoon.

Guelph and Galt.

Guelph and Galt had an anxious time yesterday afternoon, but by evening all danger was thought to be past.

A DAY OF HOT DEBATE

THE LEADER CHALLENGED.

Sir Charles Tupper Reiterates His Son's Statements—Sir Louis Davies Shows How Liberals Made Charges and Urges the Opposition to Take an Honest and Manly Course.

Ottawa, April 15.—Mr. James Sutherland, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Louis Davies and Mr. Foster yesterday spoke on the amendments to the address. Mr. Sutherland devoted much of his speech to a defence of Major Walsh and to deprecating the policy of vilification that was being followed. Sir Charles Tupper repeated a number of the charges made by Sir Hibbert Tupper, and declared that an independent judicial investigation was necessary to rehabilitate Canada in the eyes of the world. Sir Louis Davies charged the Opposition with cowardice in the making of their charges. Sir Charles had, he said, been more cowardly than Sir Hibbert, because when Sir Charles spoke he had before him the written statement of Major Walsh denying the charges made against him. Mr. Foster, who spoke briefly, asked why, if the Government thought there should not be a judicial inquiry on heresay evidence, they had appointed Mr. Ogilvie as a commissioner to investigate the charges. The debate was more acriminious than on any previous day this session.

Mr. Sutherland.

The debate upon the address was resumed by Mr. James Sutherland, North Oxford, who drew attention to the statement of Mr. Bell of Pictou that the commission issued to Mr. Ogilvie did not give him the necessary power to compel the attendance of witnesses and their examination upon oath, and in reply read the act under which the commission was issued, to show that Mr. Ogilvie has all the power that a judge would have if one had been appointed to conduct the investigation asked for by the Opposition.

Mr. Bell explained that his reference was to the authority given to Mr. Ogilvie by the telegraph message from the Minister of the Interior, which was read by the Minister during his speech.

Proceeding, Mr. Sutherland read from the act, 114 Vic. of the Con. Stat., which gave the commissioner power not only to summon witnesses and examine them upon oath, but to compel the production of such documents as he may deem necessary. The commission had further expressly drawn attention to the fact that these powers were conferred upon Mr. Ogilvie, who had, he was assured, all the experience and the ability to enable him to conduct the inquiry into the charges which had been made, much more effectively than would a judge, who would be governed more closely by the technical rules of evidence, and would, perhaps, while satisfied that irregularities had taken place with regard to some of these officials, not regard the evidence as sufficient according to the legal interpretation to find him guilty. On the other hand, Mr. Ogilvie, in the position he occupied, had power, if he deemed it advisable to use it, far greater than any judge would have under a judicial commission to deal with any wrong-doing on the part of the officials. It was unfortunate for the dignity of the House of Commons that any member of the House should make such reckless charges upon the floor of Parliament. (Cheers.) He deprecated the making of reckless charges, and held that Mr. Robertson, if he had wished to be fair, would have told the House where the smoke came from when he said, speaking of the Yukon charges, that "where there was so much smoke there must be some fire." The fact was, most of the complaints came from dissatisfied foreigners. He held the officials had been traduced, that they had never been guilty of any corrupt actions. He had made inquiries of scores of reputable people and denied the allegations of corruption among the officials. He paid a high tribute to Major Walsh and deprecated Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's attack upon him.

Sir Charles Tupper.

Sir Charles Tupper said that necessity for reference to Major Walsh's conduct was intensified by the fact of the high office he had held in the Yukon. They were Major Walsh's worst enemies, however, who, while eulogizing his character, were refusing to give him the opportunity of clearing himself, which this inquiry would afford. With all due regard to Mr. Ogilvie's character for probity, was it reasonable to expect him to make a report that would drive his superior, Mr. Sifton, from public life? It was striking that Mr. Sifton should spend so much time in killing the dead—in talking about Messrs. Hunter and Senkler, against whose probity and honor nobody had breathed a word, and yet pass over altogether the specific charges against Mr. Wade. All he had done was to read garbled extracts from a letter written by W. J. Tupper as to Mr. Wade, when he was attacked by the editor of The Tribune now sitting behind the Premier, which would make it appear that Mr. W. J. Tupper was a better authority with Mr. Sifton than one of his ablest supporters in the House.

Continuing, he said that Mr. Sifton had also failed to make any defence of McGregor and Northwood, "the horse dealer and captain of a whaler," whom he had sent to the Yukon and against whom there were specific charges. Mr. Fawcett everybody believed to be an honest man, but he was played with like a child by the officials around him, who had been appointed from Ottawa and over whom he had no control. He had admitted that in an interview with two gentlemen now in the city, the editors of The Klondike Nugget.

Second Readings.

After recess the following private bills were read a second time and referred to the committee on banking and commerce:

To incorporate the Canadian Inland Transportation Company, Mr. Richardson.

Ladies' Jackets...

67 Spring Jackets of Rich Handsome Cloths, man-tailored and some Luxuriously Silk-Lined.

PRICES FOR UNLINED $3.75 TO $7.50.

" SILK-LINED $4.50 TO $8.50.

Be quick or the chance to secure such over-garments will soon be out of reach, for the lot is small considering the values. These Jackets are of the graceful jaunty variety from Berlin, Germany, and are extremely good taste.

They went astray some three weeks ago and the Railway Company failed to trace them. As they were refused the maker authorized his agent to rid him of them and sacrificed his profit and a slice of the cost. So they are priced at One-third less than the intended selling price.

SATURDAY, APRIL 15 1899

WHAT THE LIBERALS HAVE DONE.

The Brockville Recorder, which is pluckily and ably conducting the journalistic end of the bye-election campaign in Brockville, has compiled the following compendiuous statement of what the Liberals have done during their less than three years in power:

The vexatious quarantine regulations that existed between Canada and the United States have been abrogated.

The obnoxious federal franchise act has been repealed, and a fair and equitable franchise put in its place.

A system of government has been established in the Yukon, and law and order are as well guaranteed there as in older Canada.

The tariff has been reformed in such a way as to give the greatest of satisfaction to the majority, both consumers and producers.

The sweating system that used to obtain on Government contracts has been checked and now every contractor must pay full value for the labour he employs.

A reduction of freight rates in the C. P. R. has been secured, which means a saving of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to the farmers of the Canadian Northwest.

The era of deficits has passed. The revenue last year exceeded the expenditure by $1,720,000. During the last three years the Conservatives were in power the deficits amounted to nearly $6,000,000.

The Intercolonial Railway has been carried into Montreal, and the era of great deficits on that road has come to an end. Last year the gross receipts of the road jumped from $2,866,028 to $3,117,669.

The domestic letter rate has been reduced from three to two cents, and Imperial penny postage has been established largely through the influence of the Canadian Postmaster-General, Hon. Wm. Mulock.

A preferential tariff has greatly increased our trade with the Mother Country, and, through the influence of Canada, the treaties between Great Britain and Belgium and Germany have been renounced.

The Manitoba school question, which threatened the very existence of confederation, has been settled in a manner satisfactory to everybody, and harmony and peace have taken the place of discord and ill-feeling.

A complete system of cold storage transportation, reaching from the point of production to that of consumption, has been established, affording every facility for Canadians to place their produce on the British market in the best condition possible.

The country is enjoying a period of prosperity in all branches of industry such as has never before been experienced. Manufacturers cannot keep up with their orders, farmers are realizing good prices for what they have to sell and our mineral resources are being developed as never before.

The Postoffice Department has been put on a business basis and made to pay its way. The last year the Conservative government was in power there was a deficit of $781,152.19. A large number of progressive reforms in this department have also been inaugurated under Liberal rule.

An impetus has been given to immigration such as was never before known. Since 1896 over 30,000 immigrants have gone into the Northwest, and this year the number will be fully 50,000. During the 18 years of Conservative rule the average number of immigrants going into that country was a little over 3,000 a year.

The deepening of the St .Lawrence canals has been prosecuted with remarkable vigor, and by the end of another year vessels drawing fourteen feet of water will be able to pass from the ocean up to the head of the great lakes, thus facilitating the transport of products from the interior to the markets of the world.

The volume of Canadian trade has increased from $239,000,000 in 1896, the last year the Conservatives were in power, to $304,000,000 in 1898, under Liberal rule. This was an increase in two years of $65,000,000, or at the rate of nearly $33,000,000 a year. During the eighteen years of Conservative administration the growth of trade averaged less than $4,000,000 per annum.

THE CHALLENGE AND THE ANSWER.

It was in these words that Mr. Sifton closed his speech in reply to Sir Hibbert Tupper:

"One word more. I ought not to sit down without referring to the fact that throughout the speech of the hon. gentleman there has been a continuous trend of suggestions that there was some improper connection between myself and some member of the Government, and corruption in the Klondike district. I want to say that I challenge the hon. gentleman, the leader of the opposition, I challenge the members of his party in this House, I challenge the press of the party outside this house, to produce their private detectives, to come here upon their responsibility and press their charge. I challenge the member for Pictou (Sir Hibbert Tupper) or any other man in this House to lay upon the table of the House the charges that he has to make and declare his ability to substantiate them by evidence and he will get his investigation, and I will be able to convince the hon. gentleman who makes that charge that discretion on his part would have been the better part of valor.

It was naturally to be expected that, in view of this challenge, in view of this invitation to formulate changes and in view of this offer of opportunity for full and competent investigation, the Opposition, if they had the slightest confidence in the bona fides of Sir Hibbert Tupper or any belief in the genuineness of the grounds upon which he based his insinuations, they would have gladly availed themselves of the opportunity to take Mr. Sifton and the Government at their word and pave the way for the rigid inquiry that was offered them? What happened? What was the answer to Mr. Sifton's challenge? Simply the following milk and water drivel, the meaningless, pointless, puerile motion of Mr. E. F. Clarke, West Toronto:

That this House deem it expedient to inform His Excellency that, in view of the wide-spread charges of incompetency, misconduct and corruption is the administration of public affairs connected with the Yukon, it is the duty of the Government to appoint, without delay, an independent, judicial commission to make a thorough investigation into that subject and report the result.

Thus does the Opposition crawfish out of the position in which Sir Charles Tupper's fatuous seven hours of sound and fury placed it. Instead of boldly and directly accepting Hon. Mr. Sifton's challenge to furnish charges and his offer of investigation, the Opposition asks Lord Minto to stultify himself by directing an investigation upon the strength of the anonymous gossip of persons who, so far as the Governor, the Government and Parliament are concerned, are as mythical as "Old King Cole."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The closing sentence of a Montreal Brockville election reads: "The Brockville election reads: "The Conservatives do not intend to lose the riding at any cost." No necessity there for reading between the lines.

A conference of United States press clubs has declared in favour of the movement for the purity of the press. What about the readers? The character of a newspaper is often very much determined by the character of its constituency.

The specific cause of the delay in the issuance of the Canadian general war medal has been explained in a letter received by Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, from the Canadian High Commissioner, Lord Strathcona. The blame for the delay rests upon the authorities at the Royal Mint, where the medals are being manufactured. Lord Strathcona has done all in his power to hurry up the Mint authorities, and any blame for dilatoriness is to be laid at their door. In regard to the delay the skirts of the Canadian government are clean.

Those of the narrow-guage Conservative newspapers that are heading a crusade to drive back the Doukhobors, Gallicians, Finlanders, etc., who are knocking at the doors of Canada for homes and farms, can now organize a mids expedition to keep out "Yankee" immigrants, who are and have been seeking homes in the Canadian Northwest. Mr. Will J. White, press agent of the Immigration department, has returned from the Western States, and reports an unprecedented influx of settlers from the United States, nearly all of them well provided with means. He instances the case of an Iowa man who sold his farm and stock for $50,000 and came over to settle in the Canadian northwest. Let them all come—Jack Canuck is rich enough to give them all a farm. If some of his tennants are a little rough, he will soon lick them into shape.

Hon. Wm. Mulock, Postmaster-General dosen't go the way of the world. He proposes, and has made provision in the estimates for an increase in the salaries of some of the post office officials. As he cannot feel warranted in giving an increase all round, he has selected those employees who are in receipt of low salaries. Mr. Mulock is hardly justifying the Scriptural saying—"To him that hath shall be given" but the people will forgive his heterodoxy in view of thinking first of the men to whom an addition of $50 a year will mean a good deal.

Since its formation in 1804 the British and Foreign Bible Society has paid away £12,500,000 or sixty-two and a half million of dollars in connection with the translation and circulation of the Holy Scriptures. Upwards of 151,000,000 copies of the Bible and New Testament or portions of them, in 340 different languages, have been issued during the past 95 years from its various depots.

PRINCETON'S PROOF

THAT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS ALWAYS CURE KIDNEY DISEASE.

A Resident Corroborates Mr. Masa Willis' Report of his Cure Scores of Cures in Princeton District by Dodd's Kidney Pills but not one Failure.

Princetown, April 14. —"Mr. Masa Willis, of Woodstock, knows what he is talking about when he praises Dodd's Kidney Pills," said a Princeton resident to our reporter to-day.

"I can endorse every word he says about that remedy, having used it myself for Diabetes, and I assure you there is no medicine on the market to-day that can begin to compare with it.

"I know Mr. Willis quite well, and know that his case is stated with the greatest fairness and accuracy. I know that he was a great sufferer, and frequently complained about pains in his back. I know also that he was taking different kinds of medicines at various times with very little benefit.

"Meeting his son on the street one day I enquired how Mr. Willis, Sr., was. The young man told me he had persuaded his father to take Dodd's Kidney Pills which were doing him immeasurable good.

"Soon after I saw the elder gentleman, and was told that Dodd's Kidney Pills had completely cured him.

"I know scores who have been cured of Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gravel, Urinary Troubles, Female Weakness and other forms of Kidney Disease, by Dodd's Kidney Pills, but I don't know of a single case in which they have failed to cure."

Cheese Boxes for '99

I am again in a position to manufacture CHEESE BOXES on a large scale, having built a large, New Factory, convenient to C. P. R. station; the old machinery having been burned last summer, I have replaced it with New and Up-to-date Machines for making Cheese Boxes and cutting Shingles. This factory has a capacity of 100,000 boxes in one season, placing it in a position second to none in the province.

I have already between two and three hundred cords of Bolts on hand to be cut into headings before the season opens.

All orders for Boxes sent in early will receive prompt attention.

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND

A Message of Peace and Good-will to Women.
A Burden Lifted From Her Shoulders.
Adapted to the Finest or Coarsest Fabrics.
No Steam! No Boiling! No Odor! No Toil!

10 Reasons Why Miracle Compound is a Boon to Womanhood.

1. No boiling of Clothes required. 2. No rubbing or scrubbing of clothes. 3. No soaking of clothes over night. 4. You purify, preserve and disinfect all clothes washed with Miracle Compound. 5. Clothes made yellow from the use of washing powders and age are restored to their orginal whiteness, and become as new by the use of Miracle Compound. 6. All clothes washed with Miracle Compound we positively guarantee to last three times as long, because all dirt is removed and they escape the friction of the wash-board. 7. Woollens washed with Miracle Compound will not shrink, but are made soft and new. 8. Our experience teaches us that Miracle Compound has no equals in powders and soaps for washing clothes, and so carefully are the component parts of the Miracle Compound blended that we will cheerfully give $50 for any case where directions are followed and the results claimed are not obtained. 9. A 5 cent cake does a large washing. 10. You wash while you rest.

For Wood-work and Glass, after the ends have done their duty on wash-day, it has no equal. It takes the sting out of hard work.

HIGH PRICES PAID FOR FURS.

A Sea Otter Sells for $1,300 and a Silver Fox for $1,700.

Furs are becoming a very expensive luxury in the latter end of the nineteenth century. At C. A. Lampson & Co.'s sale in London on March 25, a single sea otter skin sold for £260, or well onto $1300, while a silver fox brought the enormous sum of £340, or something less than $1,700. These are said to be the highest prices ever recorded for these skins.

Lampson's circular says that with but one exception all the articles catalogued at this sale reached substantially higher figures than last year. The tendency of the market was best reflected by the price realized, in many instances, beating all previous records for such valuable furs as sea otter, silver fox, blue fox, Russian sable, martin, mink, chinchilla, etc.

All these furs are to be leading articles next winter and all show an advance of from twenty to fifty per cent. over last sales.

A CARD.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a twenty five-cent bottle of Dr. Wills English Pills, if, after using three-fourths of contents of bottle, they do not relieve Constipation and Headache. We also warrant that four bottles will permanently cure the most obstinate case of constipation. Satisfaction or no pay when Wills' English Pills are used.

Pennsylvania Sand Mines.

There are all kinds of mines in Pennsylvania. The greatest are of course the iron and coal mines, but few people would guess that the next extensive mining industry is the sand mines in western Pennsylvania. These mines are rarely underground, however, and many of them are viewed with wonder by passengers on the Pennsylvania, approaching Pittsburg. Whole mountains are being dug away, and the granular rocks forming them are being reduced to sand for the manufacture of glass in and about Pittsburg.—Philadelphia Call.

THE HUMMING SAW.

BUSY TIMES AHEAD ON THE GEORGIAN BAY.

Contracts Entered into for Sawing Logs Taken out by the Michigan Operators.

The hum of the saw will be heard at many a mill in the Georgian Bay district this year to a far greater extent than for many seasons past. The logs cut last winter for the big Michigan operators on the bay must be sawn into lumber on this side under the Ontario regulations, and the result will be a remarkable increase of activity. The Michigan men refrained from making contracts until the last moment in the hope that the Ontario Government would relax the regulations. A strong effort was made to rescue a three-months respite which would have enabled the Michigan men to raft their logs over, but the Government announced that the regulations must stand.

The result has been that during the past two weeks the Americans have been making inquiries as to the facilities for sawing in Ontario preparatory to closing contracts. Turner & Fisher of Bay City have closed a contract with a Midland firm for the sawing of 20,000,000 feet, to be afterwards taken over to Bay City. This alone means an expenditure of from $40,000 to $50,000, and other firms will be obliged to follow suit. The only logs that can be legally rafted this season are the few left over from the cut of the winter of 1897-98, and the logs cut under the jurisdiction of the Dominion Government from Indian Lands. The total volume of these log exports will do little toward satiating the hunger for lumber that has recently developed in Michigan, where the dealers are only beginning to realize the necessity for obtaining supplies from Canada. There is an absolute dearth of lumber in Saginaw and Bay City, and the factory owners are at their wit's end to procure the raw material for their industries. This is particularly the case in regard to the box, shook and door factories. The whole enormous woodworking industries of the Michigan coast cities are dependent to a large extent on Canadian lumber, and the scarcity will mean plenty of work this season for the mills of the Georgian Bay.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines on the death of Ella Henderson.

A dear one has gone and left us.

Open wide the portals,
Dear Ella passed away
At early dawn of morning,
We parted, mother dear,
As the angels around me pressed.
To give me holy courage
Through the vale we call death
The Shepherd leads the way.

All my sins forgiven,
My soul is full of light,
Just stay by me, dear mother
Till I have passed away.
How sad to leave poor Snasy,
Just in the prime of life,
But God knows best, dear mother,
He's called me home to rest.

Christ stooped down to meet me,
And bade me welcome home.
He drives away all sorrow,
And wipes the falling tear.
Our home is sad without you,
It seems so calm and still,
Cheer up dear father, brothers,
It was the Savior's will.

BIRD FLIGHT.

They flock upon the hazy air,
Silent of note and purposeful of wing,
Nor gossip of the nesting time
Disturbs their rhythmic, air born swing.

Across the dying fields light shadows fall
That, for a moment's space, obscure the sun;
Then swift—a graceful troop—they wing their way,
Pursued in haste by some belated one.

Now all the stubble land turns twilight gray
A-hum with mystic runes and harvest rills.
Above the watching world a tiny speck
Grows pale and fades against the southern hills.

On the Other Side.

An English lady, walking with her little girl, saw a lame old beggar bearing on his hat the legend, "I Fought at Waterloo."

"Give him some money, for he helped to save your country," said the lady.

As the child dropped some silver into his hand the ex-soldier bowed and exclaimed, "Merci, mademoiselle!"—Tit-Bits.

DYSPEPTICS MUST BLAME THEMSELVES

FOR THE MISERY THEY CONTINUALLY ENDURE.

Because the Means of Curing Themselves Lies in their own Hands—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will Cure them Thoroughly.

No person should expect an odor of roses to rise from a heap of decaying refuse.

No more would any thinking person expect to have a pure breath unless the stomach and other digestive organs are in perfect condition.

When the digestive system is working properly, the food is digested, carried out of the stomach, and taken into the blood, the waste matter being thrown out of the body, without loss of time.

When the digestive organs are not working properly, the food remains in the stomach, till it begins to decompose. In the process of decomposition, gas is formed. This rises to the mouth, when a person is person is said to "belch wind." Everyone knows how disagreeable this condition is.

There is one way of remedying it. That is by preventing the formation of gas in the stomach. That means that the food must not be allowed to remain in the stomach long enough to decompose. That, again means that the food must be digested promptly and thoroughly.

Now if you take one or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal, you need not rely on your stomach to digest your food. The Tablets will do it promptly, and perfectly without assistance. While they are doing this work, the stomach is resting, and regaining strength and vigour. It is also receiving strength from the Tablets. By the time two or three boxes of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets have been used the stomach is completely restored to health, and there is no danger of either Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Wind or gas on the stomach, nor any other disease of the digestive organs.

BEST IN THE WORLD.

Canadian Flour is Unequalled Anywhere—Gleanings from the Agriculture Department Report.

In the annual report of the Minister of Agriculture which has been laid on the table of the house, it is stated that the subjects which press most for further action by this department in 1899 are:—The improvement of curing rooms at cheese factories; the development of a domestic and export trade in fattened poultry; the prevention, as far as possible, of the production of soft bacon; the diffusion of such information as may lead to a better state of business in the production of beef; and the establishment of simple illustration stations for farmers in localities where such are urgently needed.

The commissioner reports that the superior qualities of Canadian flour for bread making are not generally known by bakers or those who are directly interested. For sweetness, whiteness and strength, Canadian flour is unsurpassed. Bakeries for the sale of bread, made from Canadian flour, would doubtless be a profitable commercial venture for some business men in Great Britain, and would be of direct benefit to Canadian producers. An independent analysis of various flours showed the Canadian flour to contain ten per cent. more albuminoids than the flour imported into Great Britain from European countries.

The trade in Canadian oat meal is growing. Some of our cheese shipped to the British market was found to arrive in a highly heated condition, which means the refusal by the class of customers who buy the best Scotch and English cheddars. Canadian butter makers and exporters, it is stated, will have to adopt the practice followed by their competitors unless they can devise a better one, in using a small quantity of some harmless preservation which has the effect of keeping the flavour sweet and practically unchanged for a month after it is received by the shop keepers. Canadian eggs are reported as gaining in favour abroad.

TRADE OPENINGS.

Old Country Firms Anxious to Come into Touch with Canadian Business Houses.

The following inquiries have been received at the office of the High Commissioner in London: A Sheffield firm of steel file saw and hammer manufacturers wishes to come into intimate touch with any Canadian firms importing mining and tool steel.

Another house in the same city wishes to find a few good cutlery firms in Canada to take up their goods.

A Liverpool firm dealing in stone, tiles, cement, iron, timber etc., desires to be placed in communication with Canadian importers of building material, such as tiles, quarries, firebricks, granite, lime, etc. The same firm wishes to represent a reliable firm in Canada exporting doors, sashes, moulds, stairs, and joinery used in the building trade.

Enquiry has been received from a cold storage and ice company in the north of England for the names of large exporters of produce from Canada who might like to make arrangements with a cold store to receive and distribute their goods.

A number of enquiries have been made in Canada as to the possibility of opening up a profitable trade with the Old Country in what is known as 'wood flour' or 'wood meal,' due investigation has been made into the question of the supply and demand. In a letter received at the Trade and Commerce Department yesterday the High Commissioner, Lord Strathcona, remarks that the product is used to some extent as an absorbent in the manufacture of nitro-glycerine. A finer grade is also called for in the making of a certain kind of linoleum known as 'inlaid.' The manager of one of the principal business houses engaged in the manufacture of explosives estimates that the consumption of wood meal in this trade would amount to about seven hundred tons annually. It must be made from white wood, free from resin. Chemicals, or any purifying agents for bleaching purposes, must not be used in its manufacture. It must be free from impurities, special care being taken that no nails or scraps of metal are present in it. The moisture must not exceed five per cent. It must not be exposed to acid fumes nor overheated in drying.

MARKET REPORTS.

There Was a Break in the Price of Wheat —Speculators Bulled Futures and Realized—Prices.

Liverpool, April 15.—Wheat futures advanced a clear penny per cental over night and lost nearly half the gain before the close.

Chicago, April 15.—Yesterday was another active day in the Chicago pits. Futures opened at an advance of three quarters of a cent over Thursday's close and held strong for a time, a good cash demand and some enquiries from the Continent being reported. The [illegible] soon gave way, however, under a heavy realizing movement, and prices dropped a clear two cents, closing with a net loss for the session of about 1½c. Bull speculators continue to report serious damage to winter wheat, and until this question is cleared up the market will be dominated by it.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, April 15.—The run of live stock at the cattle market was not what could be called a large one, but in the present state of the market it was larger than was needed. It consisted of 41 car loads, including 675 cattle, 150 sheep and yearling lambs, 7 spring lambs, 60 calves and 400 hogs. These, together with 47 car loads on Thursday, the bulk of which were not sold on that day, made a total of 88 car loads on the market. Trade was easy, and prices for all classes of fat cattle were lower.

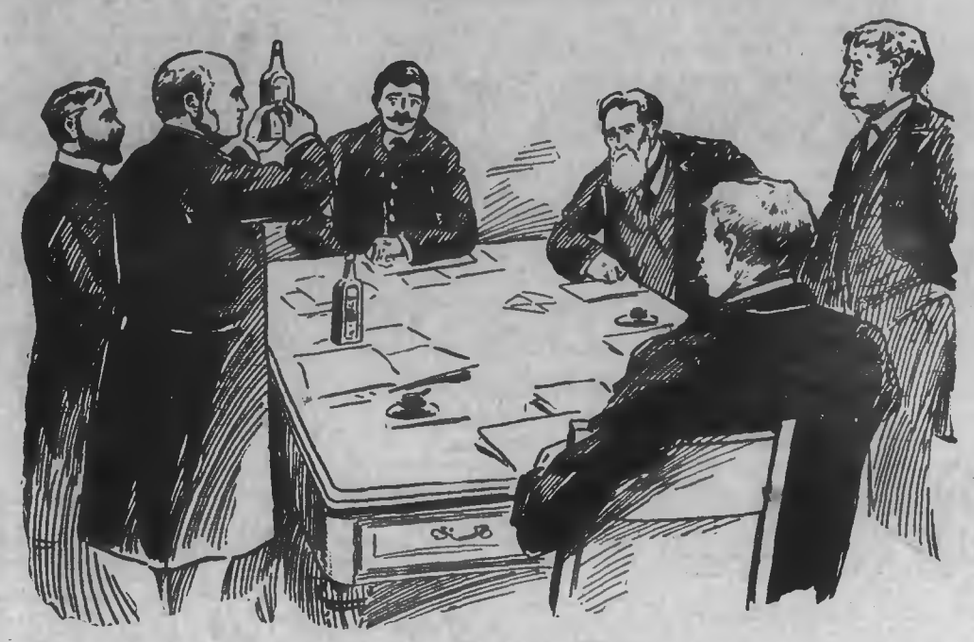
MEDICAL BOARDS AND COUNCILS

IN AMERICA APPROVE OF

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Devised by an Eminent Physician, the Ablest and Most Noted Practitioners Recommend It.



From the Atlantic to the Pacific coast the most renowned and distinguished Medical Boards of Councils have heartily approved of Pain's Celery Compound.

The indorsation of Paine's Celery Compound by men high in the medical profession was not a hasty conclusion. Their verdict in its favour was pronounced only after severe tests and proofs of cures. Paine's Celery Compound succeeded in its work of life-saving after other medicines and prescriptions had failed; it cured diseases and troubles of long standing, and faithfully carried out all that it claimed to do.

Medical evidence freely given by unbiased and honest physicians is sufficient to Place Paine's Celery Compound far ahead of all prescriptions and medicines as an infallible cure for nervousness, prostration, mental exhaustion, sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia, headache, dyspepsia and all troubles arising from a sluggish and impure condition of the blood.

As a spring medicine, Paine's Celery Compound is so far ahead of all other remedies in strengthening, nerve-restoring, blood-making, and health-giving effects, that it has no worthy competitor. The old "Cures," one by one, in the last few years, have dropped by the way, until today the sales of Paine's Celery Compound in every civilized land are larger than those of all other medicines combined.

Whether your burden of disease be of a simple or serious nature, we urge a trial of Paine's Celery Compound; you have the guarantee and recommendations of thousands of cured men and women that the great medicine will overcome and banish your distress.

If you are despondent, fretful, unable to sleep, without appetite, bothered with headache, sideache, backache, or have any symptom of kidney trouble, we honestly urge hte use of Paine's Celery Compound, the approved medicine of America's best physicians.

A trial of one bottle will surely add your name to the tens of thousands who now sing the praises of earth's best medicine.

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3 70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4 35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9 00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7 50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5.30
$5 00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

FELL OVER THE BANISTERS.

An Accident Which Befs Master Bernie Rautenberg Last Evening.

Master Bernie Rautenberg met with rather a painful and serious accident last night just a few minutes before the hour of the concert in St. Andrews' church hall. While coming down stairs in the manse about 7.45 he swooned and fell headlong over the banister, striking his head such a blow on the floor beneath, that he was rendered temporarily unconscious. About 11 p.m., he was resting much easier and this morning was able to leave by the 7 train with an additional bump.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Wm. Bunton and Mr. C. Le Brun left to-day for a trip to New York.

Mrs. Dillon has returned to Warkworth, after a business trip to Peterborough.

The many friends of Mrs. Geo. A. Cox, will be pleased to learn that she has sufficiently recovered to return to her home in Toronto from Clifton Springs.

Mr. Wm. Macfarlane has been appointed by the Dominion Government, lockmaster for Love Sick lake in the place of Mr. Matthew Young who resigned, owing to advancing years.

Mr. John Crane was in Toronto to witness the production of Gounod's Redemption under the very capable (as the result proved) direction of Mr. F. H. Torrington, with grand chorus and full orchestra. He was pleased with the excellent musical treat involved in the production.

Mr. A. McPherson, of Norwood, the recently appointed drill instructor and physical director at the Collegiate Institute, is getting fairly into harness and is doing satisfactory work. He is a young man with plenty of energy and other qualifications to make him a worthy successor of the veteran Serg.-Major Rundel.

Mr. W. R. Carmichael, of Toronto, traveller for Evans & Son, who met with the accident at the Dominion Hotel, Millbrook, early in the winter, is again able to take the road. Although able to his work he is far from his former strength of body. He was forty-three days unconscious and since his recovery is unable to recall any knowledge as to how he got out of the window from which he fell at night to the sidewalk.

Johnston Paudaush, of Hiawatha, was in town to-day and saw Mr. J. B. McWilliams, chairman of the Victoria Museum Committee, and Mr. T. A. S. Hay, secretary. They have accepted his invitation to go down to Rice Lake about the first week in May, to be present when a burial mound is to be opened. The mound which is on Spook Island, near Hiawatha is thought to contain a good many articles of archaeological interest.

FUNERAL OF DR. CLARKE.

It Took Place this Afternoon at Half Past Two—Many Floral Tributes.

The funeral of the late Dr. John Clarke took place this afternoon at half past two from his late residence Brock street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

The services at the house were conducted by Rev. S. J. Shorey and the attendance was very large.

Many beautiful floral tributes were received from members of the family and personal friends, as well as a pillar of roses from the medical profession; an anchor from the Nicholls Hospital staff, three links from Peterborough Lodge of I.O.O.F., an anchor from Court Littlejohn, Canadian Order of Foresters; a wreath from L.O.L. No. 80.

The pall bearers were Dr. Burnham, and Dr. Halliday, representing the medical profession; Mr. John Sawers, Canadian Order of Foresters; Mr. James Burnett, Independent Order of Oddfellows; Mr. W. H. Mobre and Mr. W. F. Johnston.

The different societies with which Dr. Clarke was connected did not march as organizations at the funeral, although all were well represented. The Mayor and members of the town council were in attendance in hacks. The chief mourners were Messrs. R. Clarke, Frederick G. Clarke and Charles E. Clarke all brothers of the deceased.

LAID AT REST.

Obsequies Connected with the Recent Death of Stanley Bradd.

The remains of the late Stanley P. Bradd were laid at rest in the Little Lake cemetery this afternoon, the funeral taking place at 3 o'clock from the family residence, Stewart street.

The floral offerings which were contributed were indeed most beautiful, conspicuous amongst them being crossed hockey sticks in roses and carnations from the Peterborough Hockey Club; an anchor from the Senior Colts and a harp from the Juniors. The staff of the Collegiate Institute sent a beautiful floral crescent. Besides these there were a large number of exquisite tributes from the members of the family.

The funeral services were conducted by Re.. D. O. Crossley, of the Charlotte street Methodist church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Harry King, Hubert McBain, Parker Crossley, Harold Armstrong, Harry McKee and Warren Deane.

RAUTENBERG'S CONCERT.

It was well Attended in St. Andrew's Church Last Evening.

All who were fortunate enough to hear the lecture on "Pokerdom" last night in St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) church were well repaid. Notwithstanding the disappointment occasioned by the accident to Master Bernie referred to elsewhere the evening was an enjoyable and profitable one. The views were excellent and illustrated very clearly and well, the references in the lecture. His address was a masterly and eloquent production, and was a clever exposing of the gambling schemes of to-day. After describing the many ways in which legitimate trade is carried on to-day by the many business and professional men for the good of society, he had nothing but scorn for those who spent time and money in deception and fraud, as is the case at the gambling table. He then gave a pen picture of the different types of manhood engaged in the nefarious work, and followed this with a minute description of the tricks and means used to deceive and cheat the unwary. The recitation, accompanied by dissolving views, of "the gambler's home" was powerful, vivid and very touching, which gave the lecturer an opportunity of appealing to any who had been players to refrain from the beginnings of evil.

The evening was brought to a close by singing "Rock of Ages," during the singing of which the different parts were illustrated by very beautiful views.

LINDSAY END OF THE BURLEIGH FALLS ELECTRIC ENTERPRISE.

The Promoter Reports Success and Says the Sougog Town is Looking Up.

Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell, manager of the Burleigh Falls-Lindsay-Peterborough Electric Syndicate, was in Lindsay yesterday to interview Mr. Wm. Flavelle, of this syndicate and the Lindsay committee of business men, and states that the Lindsay people are quite enthused over his success in Peterborough. While in Lindsay he secured a twenty horse power contract from a new factory which is now being built—this industry being the third new industry started in Lindsay this year. Mr. Culverwell states that Lindsay is certainly booming and seems determined to keep step with the "growing time" rather than stand still in the race for prosperity. This morning he dropped off at Omemee, and in a couple of hours closed over half a dozen contracts with the larger merchants and manufacturers there—being received with open arms.

The Omemee townspeople promise a couple of power contracts and also a town street lighting contract with the owners of the Burleigh Falls wwater power.

THE INTEREST IN CANOEING.

Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—The season for canoeing is about to open and extraordinary efforts are being put forth by the Canadian executive members of the American Canoe Association to increase the interest in canoeing in the different canoe centres of Ontario. Brantford, Guelph, Brockville, Kingston, Hamilton, Orillia and other places of defunct have been visited and are giving every promise to boom in a manner such as never thought of before.

In Peterborough, during the last few years, bicycling was a novelty and to a great extent has been the cause of our backward progress in canoeing. Now the bicycle has become a convenience rather than a pleasure and it has been suggested that this i sthe most opportune time to place the matter before the canoeists of the town and endeavour if possible to form a canoe club or clubs and to run it in such a manner as the majority of the successful clubs are now run, that is to say as a social as well as a canoe club.

The older canoeists of the town will remember in 1883 the annual camp of the A.C.A. was held up on Stony Lake and all who were then present were more than delighted with the ten days spent on Juniper Island. Major Edwards was Commodore and Mr. Geo. Hatton, secretary of the association. Since that time the general camp has not been held in local waters but has been confined to the St. Lawrence and the lakes of the Eastern States. Next year the Northern Division of the association have the right to hold the general camp and the proposition has been made, and arrangements are being made to hold the camp on the Muskoka Lakes. Why cannot a Peterborough Canoe Club be well represented at that camp. It may be said that the expense is too great for the ordinary canoeist. This is not the case. Here are the actual expenses of camp life.

Transportation.....	$ 5 00
14 days mess.....	14 00
Camp dues.....	1 00
Rent of tent.....	5 00
Incidentals.....	2 00
Total.....	$27 00

Where can two weeks be spent in a more enjoyable manner at such a small outlay. The best of good fellows from all over Canada and United States to the average number of about 200 congregate at the annual camp and once a fellow attends one of the later A.C.A .meets he never misses another.

With the facilities Peterborough has at home, Chemong and Stony Lake, for excellent canoeing there is no reason why a good strong club should not be formed. Commodore Thorn of the American Canoe Association; Mr. C. P. Forbush, Secretary-Treasurer of the association and Mr. Geo. A. Howell, Vice-Commodore of the Toronto Canoe, Club have expressed a strong desire to have Peterborough represented at the A.C.A., both this year and next, and have signified their intention of coming to Peterborough at any convenient date and endeavour to place before us the necessity for our re-organizing and making ourselves known among the different canoe clubs.

A number of canoeists have expressed themselves as desirous of taking action in the matter and a date will be set for some evening next week for a meeting of canoeists to consider what will be done.

This letter has been written with the purpose of leading to a discussion of the object and it may please you Mr. Editor, to publish any letter sent to you for publication.

Thanking you for your kindness in publishing, I remain,

Yours, etc.,

LACROSSE.

Important meetings of the judiciary, senior series, and district committees of the Canadian Lacrosse Association were held yesterday at the Walker House. Dr. J. G. Roberts presented to the Judiciary Committee the case of the Brampton players under suspension ,and with such effect that they were reported entitled to receive playing certificates on application. In addition to President Stark and Secretary Hartley, Messrs. Hall, Kean and King were present.

The Senior Committee admitted Markham and Brampton, and adopted two series, east and west, the winners to play off. These schedules were agreed on:—

Section No. 1—Saturday, June 10, Brampton, at Markham; Friday, June 23, Markham, at Peterborough; Saturday, July 1st, Peterborough, at Brampton; Wednesday, July 12, Brampton, at Peterborough; Saturday, July 22, Markham, at Brampton; Saturday, July 29, Peterborough at Markham.

Each club will keep its own gate receipts, and pay the advertising and referee's expenses.

Section No. 2—June 5, Tecumseh, at St. Catharines; June 9, Orangeville, at Orillia; June 15, St. Catharines, at Orangeville; June 17, Orillia, at Toronto; June 23, Orangeville, at Seaforth; June 23, St. Catharines, at Orillia; July 1st, Tecumseh, at Orangeville; July 1st, St. Catharines at Seaforth; July 7, Seaforth, at Orillia; July 12, Orillia, at Orangeville; July 12, Tecumseh, at Seaforth; July 18, Orangeville, at St. Catharines; July 22, St. Catharines, at Tecumseh; July 29, Seaforth, at Tecumseh; Aug. 2, Orillia, at St. Catharines; Aug. 8, Seaforth, at Orangeville; Aug. 14, Seaforth at St. Catharines; Aug. 14, Tecumseh, at Orillia; Aug. 18, Orillia, at Seaforth; Aug. 19, Orangeville, at Tecumseh.

Each club will keep its own gate receipts and pay their own expenses.

The intermediate districts were arranged as follows:

Royal — Galt, Waterloo, Acton; Fergus, Georgetown; Secretary, A. C. Steele, Fergus.

Grey—Owen Sound, Markdale, Dundalk, Shelburne, Orangeville; Secretary, A. J. Madill, Shelburne.

Northeastern — Beaverton, Barrie, Orillia II., Bradford; Secretary, A. W. Hamilton, Beaverton.

Huron—Stratford, Seaforth II., Mitchell, Clinton; Secretary R. E. Jackson, Seaforth.

Northwestern—Mount Forest, Arthur, Grand Valley; Secretary, W. L. Craig, Grand Valley.

Eastern—Hastings, Madoc, Campbellford, Peterborough II., Norwood, Belleville; Secretary, Alf. Terrill, Peterborough.

The juniors were distributed into the following groups:

No.1—Walkerton, Wiarton, Chesley, Durham, Hanover; Secretary, Dr. Crowe, Chesley.

No. 2—Woodstock, Ingersoll, St. Mary's; Secretary, J. B. Widenhold, St. Mary's.

No. 3—Parkhill, Goderich, Exeter, Forest; Secretary, J. Grieve, Exeter.

No. 4—Elora, Fergus, Glen Williams, Brampton Athletic, Streetsville; Secretary, Dr. Roberts, Brampton.

No. 5—St. Catharines II., St, Catharines Stars, Beamsville, Merriton, Thorold, Niagara Falls, Niagara; Secretary, J. Timmons, St. Catharines.

No. 6—Paris, Guelph, Galt, jun., Guelph Tecumseh, Stratford, Waterloo, jun.; Secretary, Geo. Day, Guelph.

No. 7—Stouffville, Richmond Hill, Newmarket, Aurora, Markham II., Uxbridge, Cannington; Secretary, W. Bunton, Aurora.

No. 8—Penetanguishene, Midland, Elmvale, Waubaushene, Coldwater, Cookstown; Secretary, B. R. Kean, Orillia.

No. 9—Huntsville, Gravenhurst, Bracebridge, South River; Secretary, Jos. McGuire, Bracebridge.

No. 10—Lindsay, Port Perry, Oshawa, Pickering, Whitby, Bowmanville, Claremont, Port Hope; Secretary, R. E. Douglas, Whitby.

The President has decided, so as to avoid expense, that the District Secretaries shall not call meetings until advised by him. In the meantime, he wishes any club objecting to the districts as reported to advise Secretary Hartley of their objections.

There is a big kick being made by lacrosse teams at the "inducements" that are offered to players to desert their own teams. The Ottawa Citizen has this to say on the subject: "It behooves some lacrosse players who have left, and others who intend leaving the city for the purpose of playing the game this season with outside clubs to move very cautiously. Sporting writers all over the country are knocking Ottawa in great style as the home of professionalism, and one paper goes so far as to say that ready money in the capital must be at a very low ebb this year when many crack lacrosse men of the city are pulling out to play in a one-horse town like Orangeville. The old chestnut that they will receive good positions and nothing more will not hold water." Ottawa is not the only place that is being drained. Alredy nearly every player on last year's championship team has been written to by other clubs offering "inducements" to come and play. Ottawa started the "good position" racket some years ago, and is now getting paid back in her own coin. But as two wrongs do not make one right, so the clubs that are trying to induce players to leave their homes by the offer of inducements, should be promptly and properly expelled from the C. L. A.

The last portion of this paragraph is from an Orillia exchange and leads to the inquiry as to how Hanley, of Midland, Churchill and Connors, of Stouffville; Boyd, of Gravenhurst, and Wilkinson and Armstrong, of Markham, came to be playing in Orillia last year. What has Orillia to say about "expelling" now.

The Gold Club has succeeded in getting the Toronto Club professional to give three days instructions to members. The fee for the class will be fifty cents for each member. Names must be handed in at once as the "pro" will be here on Tuesday or Wednesday next. As more is learned by the beginner from watching a good player than from any instructions, it is obvious that the club is fortunate in securing the visit of one of the six best professionals in America. Most clubs have to be content with professionals caddies. Names may be handed to Mr. Houston, the secretary. A general meeting of the club will be held on Monday, 17th inst., at four o'clock at the office of Messrs. Denniatoun, Peck, & Stevenson. A full attendance of members is requested, and of those intending to become members.

The members of the Ladies Golf Club are informed that the Toronto Professional will visit the town next week, and the ladies can have his services on two mornings during his visit. Members are requested to hand in their names with their fee, to the secretary-treasurer, Miss Annie Hall, before Mr. Smith's arrival. Members are also informed that they are not eligible for the instruction of the professional unless their club fee is paid.

PETERBOROUGH UNDERWEAR COMPANY.

A Splendid Sample of its First Product—Work to be Begun at Once.

Mr. R. H. Kells, managing director of the Peterborough Underwear Company, to-day showed the Examiner a sample of the first seamless undershirt turned out by the mills. The material is fleece lined and when the weight and closeness of the fleece is compared with the ordinary make the product of the Peterborough Company shows a decided superiority. This company has the only fleecing machine in Canada capable of producing such a class of work, and this specimen shown being a sample of the regular products of the factory no difficulty will be experienced in disposing of them.

The factory begins manufacturing operations immediately, and once the samples are in the hands of agents an inrush of orders is to be expected.

EAST PETERBOROUGH LICENSES.

Consideration of Two Applications Postponed Until Next Meeting.

At a meeting of the East Peterborough License Commissioners to-day licences were granted to the following: Wm. Dineen, Daniel Flynn and John McDiarmid, Havelock; D. Gratton, Burleigh Falls; Margaret McGregor, Norwood; Peter Fletcher and Michael Kennedy, Keene; John Dougherty, Westwood; Fred Morgan, Warsaw; Charles Armstrong, Mount Julien (6 months).

The consideration of the licenses of Margaret Clancy, Norwood, and John Morgan, McCracken's Landing, were laid over until the next meeting of the board.

Mr. G. A. Hamblon appeared with a petition against the granting of a license to Morgan's Hotel, at McCracken's Landing. Mr. Hamblon explained that he had no particular complaint to make against the hotel in question, as he understood it was conducted in an exemplary manner, but he appeared in the interests of temperance in general. Out of 140 names on the voters' list in the municipality 63 had signed the petition against the granting of the license.

Mr. D. W. Dumble and Mr. E. B. Edwards also appeared in the same behalf.

Mr. W. A. Stratton appeared for Mr. Morgan, proprietor of the hotel, and Mr. McCrackan and Mr. J. J. Crowe, License Inspector, gave evidence as to the satisfactory manner in which the hotel was conducted. Written evidence to the same effect was also put in by a number of those from town who summer at the hotel, including Mr. Carter, of the Bank of Commerce and Mr. Grubbe of the Bank of Toronto.

The commissioners decided to postpone consideration of the affair until the next meeting, but took occasion to point out that if the electors didn't wish the hotel erected they should have petitioned before it was built, whereas on the contrary 90 of them or a majority in the polling subdivision had signed Mr. Morgan's petition for a license at that time.

SALVATION ARMY.

Arrangements for the Anniversary Services—The Living Shadows.

The special troupe which Adjutant Aikenhead has been announcing for the Anniversary Services, has arrived.

The local corps gave them a reception at the C.P.R. station last night and at the barracks a choice programme of music and song was given.

Brigadier Frederick, the editor of the War Cry is in charge. The other members are very capable.

Special prominence is given to the "Living Shadows" meeting on Monday night. This is quite a new thing and full of interest.

A PROMINENT VANCOUVERITE.

Permanently Cured of Asthma—Clarke's Kola Compound Cures.

Mr. F. J. Painton, the well-known proprietor of Painton's Music Store, Vancouver, B.C., writes: "I have been a great sufferer from asthma in its worst form for over four years, very often having had to sit up nearly all night. I had consulted physicians both in England and Canada without obtaining any permanent relief and tried many remedies with the same result. A friend who had been cured by Dr. Clarke's Kola Compound advised me to try it. And three bottles have entirely cured me. It is now nearly two years since my recovery, and asthma has not troubled me since. I feel very grateful to Dr. Clarke for introducing this wonderful remedy, suffering as I was and do not know of a single case where the required number of bottles have been taken that it has failed to cure. So that you see Clarke's Kola Compound is a success." Sold by Ormond & Walsh, druggists, Peterborough. Mention this paper. A DAY OF HOT DEBATE.

To authorise the Bank of Nova Scotia to issue sterling notes for circulation in the Island of Jamaica, Mr. Borden (Halifax).

Respecting the Eastern Trust Company, Mr. Borden (Halifax).

Sir Charles Continues.

Sir Charles resumed his remarks on the amendment, and touched upon the sending of 200 soldiers into a peaceful territory, to Mr. Coste's report against the Stikine River route, to the ten per cent. royalty, and he then declared that the Minister's mismanagement of the Yukon had practically killed that country in the London market. He concluded by saying that if a judicial investigation was granted ample evidence could be produced to show that nothing could be obtained in the Yukon without bribery, and that it was unparalleled in the history of responsible government that where charges of wrong-doing had been made against public officials the fullest and most thorough investigation should be refused by those who were responsible for the appointment of the officials.

Sir Louis Davies.

Sir Louis Davies said the manner in which these charges had been made against the Minister of the Interior was mean and contemptible, and challenged the leader of the Opposition to make the charges on his responsibility as a member of the House, that they could be proved or disproved. He referred to the charges made against Sir Hector Langevin by Mr. Tarte and the charges made by Mr. Edgar against Sir Adolph Caron, to show that these charges were openly and plainly made, but these charges preferred against the Minister of the Interior were not made on any better authority than that of mere tittle-tattle of hotel corridors of the stories current in steamboats. The charges made were entirely foundationless, and if they were made in the proper manner he guaranteed that the commission asked for would be granted. He held that no judicial investigation could be held unless specific charges were made, and again challenged the Opposition to make specific charges against the Minister of the Interior. No judge could undertake such an investigation as the amendment proposed. He did not know whether or not there has been wrong-doing amongst the minor officials, but preferred to wait until the investigation was over before giving judgment. The commission which had been issued to Mr. Ogilvie gave him full power to investigate, and Mr. Ogilvie was an honest, upright, honorable man of high character, and against whom no member of the Opposition could make any insinuations. The investigation being held by Mr. Ogilvie, assisted by Mr. Clement, was an ideal court. He repelled the insinuation that Mr. Clement was not a lawyer of any particular standing, and said: "I have known lawyers of the highest reputation who have never been in court, and I have known men who were in court all their lives and were great fools at the end."

Sir Charles Does Not Accept.

Continuing, he said the leader of the Opposition would never dare to put in writing the charge he has made against the Minister. (Cheers.) He challenged him to do so last night, to put in writing the charge he dared to insinuate. "If he was a man not afraid and not too cowardly let him put it down in writing," said Sir Louis, amid cheers from the Government benches.

There were loud cries of order and "Take it back!" from the Opposition benches, but Sir Louis refused to meet their requests, and proceeded to congratulate the Minister of the Interior upon the fact that although he has been dealing with millions of money and with matters as important as those with which any man in Canada has ever had to deal, and although there has been a lot of tittle-tattle, there is not a single man on the opposite side of the House who is prepared to put his hand to paper and take the responsibility of making charges, and they stand convicted before the people of having tried to destroy a man's character by insinuations for which they did not have the courage to take the responsibility. Here and now was the time for hon. gentlemen to bring their charges forward, and he appealed to the hon. gentlemen, who had been in public life for many years, whether it was manly or honest or right to insinuate charges which have no foundation, and to withhold from formulating them.

Mr. Foster.

Mr. Foster said the Government was greatly to blame for not taking any steps for the sanitation of Dawson. He denied the statement made by the Minister of Marine that charges of stealing or connivance at stealing had been made by Mr. Tarte against Sir Hector Langevin, and challenged the Government to find Sir Hector Langevin's name mentioned by Mr. Tarte in his charges in 1891. He said that in 1891 when the Liberal Opposition was examining into the civil service there were no formal charges made, and yet the Government of the day allowed the investigation and helped it on. It would not satisfy the people of this country to have a paid clerk of the Department of the Interior hold an investigation of the administration of the Yukon. The report of Mr. Sifton's hired man would not be sufficient to satisfy the people of this country or of Great Britain, who were largely interested in the Yukon. What was the Government afraid of? It was admitted that an inquiry was necessary. Why not have it made by judges instead of by Mr. Sifton's hired man?

Mr. Fielding moved the adjournment of the debate.

U. S. Prohibition of Lumber.

Sir Charles Tupper asked whether the First Minister could say anything about a despatch published in The Toronto Globe that the United States Government had issued a decree prohibiting the importation of Canada lumber.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—No efforts of mine have been able to verify the statement, and I must say I cannot believe it.

Liquor in the Yukon.

Dr. Sproule read a telegram from Ottawa to The Montreal Witness, in which it was said that the importation of liquor into the Yukon district had been prohibited, and asked if it was correct.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—Certain ordinances of the Yukon Council have been disallowed.

Dr. Sproule—Of the Northwest Council?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier—No; of the Yukon Council. The Northwest Government has nothing to do with the Yukon since the act of last session.

The House then adjourned at 11.30.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

The Omnipresent Rose.

Every continent on the globe, with the exception of Australia, produces wild roses. There can be little doubt that the rose is one of the oldest flowers in the world and, perhaps, grown from the wind blown seeds in Paradise.

In Egypt it is depicted on numbers of early bas-reliefs, dating from 3000 to 3500 B. C. Rosewater, or the essence of roses, is mentioned by Homer in the "Iliad," and the flower is spoken of in the Proverbs of Solomon.

Lamblike Resignation.

Charles Lamb, when reminded by his sisters of the days when they were poor and capable of enjoying the smallest treat with the keenest relish, so different from the days when they were rich and surfeited, said. "Well, Mary, since we are in easy circumstances we must endeavor to put up with it."

FILIPINOS IN AMBUSH.

The Americans Lost Five Men by Running Into Them—The Sheridan Has Arrived With Fresh Troops.

Manila, April 15.—Gen. Lawton is marching north along the road between the hills and the lake with the army gunboats Napidan and Laguna de Bay abreast of his troops. The enemy is retreating northward. On Wednesday the troops crossed the Paghanjah and concentrated at Lambun at the mouth of the river. After leaving two companies of the Fourteenth Regiment to guard the entrance of the river, the troops marched to Longas and found it deserted. Furniture, which had been dropped in the flight of the natives, was scattered along the trails leading into the hills. Major Wolzenberger's sharpshooters were sent toward Pactes Anconteonia in the afternoon. They ran upon a nest of rebels in some thick bushes, which afforded a splendid covering. Five men of the North Dakota Regiment were killed and two were wounded, two of them dying after having been brought to Longas Church, where Father McKinnon administered the sacrament to them.

Two companies of the Fourteenth Regiment are at the mouth of the river, two are at Pasingham, two at Lambun and one of the Fourteenth Regiment and four of the North Dakota Regiment are at San Antonio. The remainder of the troops are at Longas. Gen. Lawton is on board the Laguna de Bay and the cascos are off San Antonio.

The country just occupied is thickly populated and produces much fruit.

The United States transport Sheridan, which sailed from New York Feb. 19, having on board the Twelfth and a battalion of the 17th Infantry, arrived yesterday, after a smooth passage. On the night of April 11 Lieut. Meyer disappeared from the ship. The weather was intensely hot and the lieutenant was sleeping on deck, and it is supposed that he fell overboard. Three privates and six children of privates died from pneumonia.

Little Girl Burned to Death.

Cornwall, April 15.—While playing in their father's sugar bush and boiling down sugar, Esdras Marcoux, the 5-year-old daughter of a farmer living near Alexandria, was burned to death. Sparks from the fire caught in the child's apron and she was soon enveloped in flames. Her young sister, in endeavoring to extinguish the flames, was terribly burned, and it is feared she will lose both her hands.

WORKED FROM DETROIT.

Secretary Gage May Act to Bar Canadian Lumber Out of the United States.

Detroit, Mich., April 15.—A Washington special to The Free Press says: Hon. Don M. Dickinson of Detroit yesterday had a conference with the officials of the State Treasury Departments, which will probably result in a most important action by the Administration embracing the promulgation of an executive order prohibiting the importation of Canadian lumber.

The American interests involved in the Canadian lumber controversy are said to amount to $50,000,000, and have recently been placed in jeopardy by reason of the retaliatory policy of the Government of Ontario, adopted to meet the tariff on lumber provided by the Dingley bill.

Secretary Gage has had the question under careful consideration, and it is learned that the Administration has determined to apply the retaliatory clause by prohibiting the importation of Canadian lumber; if in the construction of the Provincial Act, which will take effect in a few days, it is made to apply to timber purchased by Americans prior to the passage of that act. The Dominion Government, therefore, will have an opportunity of nullifying the Ontario statute so far as Canadian stumpage purchased by Americans prior to its passage is concerned, but should no action be taken no more Canadian lumber will be allowed to enter the United States.

The Danger of PILES

Too frequently overlooked, Dr. Chase's Ointment a Prompt and Positive Cure.

The suffering caused by the intense itching and burning sensations of piles is only one of the horrors of this disease, for there is always great danger of piles developing into fistula, one of the most disgusting diseases imaginable.

Even the great danger and expense of an operation are preferable to running the risk of contracting this most loathsome of diseases.

But there is no necessity for a surgical operation for piles. Dr. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of piles, no matter of how long standing, or how aggravated the case may be, so long as piles have not become fistula.

It is only by rare chance that internal treatment will cure piles. But it matters not from what cause they arise, Dr. Chase's Ointment will at once stop the itching and burning, and soon effect a perfect cure.

You can use Dr. Chase's Ointment with fullest assurance that what has cured scores of thousands of cases of piles will cure you. For sale by all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

RAILROAD TIES.

The Mobile and Ohio road has the enviable record of never having killed a passenger.

The number of passengers carried on the street railways in Massachusetts last year exceeded the number carried on the steam railroads of the state by 298,948,907.

We are so familiar with the ever present railroad that we forget how comparatively young the institution is. Only 70 years have elapsed since the first railway in the world was finished. During that comparatively brief period 400,000 miles have been constructed.

In consequence of the great success which has attended the establishment of libraries in some of the railway trains of Russia the express trains from Moscow to Sevastopol will each be equipped with a library, placed in the dining car and at the disposal of the passengers gratis.

Canadian Horse Show.

Toronto, April 14.—Notwithstanding the rain, the Canadian Horse Show was opened here with great eclat yesterday. His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Minto, and the Countess Minto were present. An address to the former, welcoming the vice-regal personages, was practically replied to by His Excellency. There was a great crowd of people. The horses, Clydesdales, carriage, standard-bred roadsters, horses in harness and hackneys, were shown yesterday, and were among the finest ever exhibited here. The ladies' musical ride was very much admired. To-day hackney, road and shire horses will be seen.

Looked His Character.

"Say, that was a mighty honest looking old farmer," said the office loafer as the client went out, "just the kind of a good, whole souled face to invite confidence."

"Just what he has been doing," the lawyer explained. "He is in to see about a little gold brick transaction he was drawn into."

The Dyspeptic's Heart and Stomach CAN'T BE CURED BY BITTERS

The dark red inflamed patches on the stomach, being small veins engorged with stagnant disease-breeding blood, often ulcerating, can best be reached by remedies strongly carried in the blood itself, not by bitters in the stomach, outside the veins and more or less mixed with poorly digested food.

Howard's Heart Relief contains this remedy and applies it in its own way, safely invigorates the heart, opens the sluggish veins, carries away the inflammation and soreness.

Then return appetite, digestion, strength. Who would work well must eat well.

Howard's Heart Relief may be had at drug stores, or by mail at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.

SPEED AND GRAND RIVERS

Have Their Annual Spring Rampage and Do Much Damage at Fergus, Hespeler and Brantford.

Fergus, Ont., April 14.—At 6.45 p.m. the heavy ice jam on Glen Lammond dam, one mile above this place, gave way, carrying with it the dam at Glen Lammond sawmill, the flume at one of Wilson's mills and the flume and waterwheel at Beatty Bros. & Bissell's foundry, besides doing considerable damage to J. Gow's stable. The Grand River railroad bridge had a very narrow escape, some of the stones on the pier being dislodged, while the new flumes at Aboyne were swept away. There was almost a loss of life to add to the list of catastrophes, when Messrs. Henry Webster, sr., and James Hanna, who were viewing the flood, got submerged. Mr. Hanna, losing his hold on the fence on which he was perched, plunged to the river bottom, but was gallantly rescued by Mr. George Kerr.

Yesterday's flood swept away one bridge on the sixth line of Garafraxa and also the bridge above Wilson's mill. The water was never higher, so far as can be remembered, in any spring freshet.

FLOODS AT HESPELER.

Dam Swept Away and Street Cars Out of Business.

Hespeler, April 14.—Hespeler yesterday experienced one of the greatest floods in its history. The placid River Speed is a wide, rushing, angry torrent, whose muddy waters cover all the lowlands along its course. At noon yesterday the ice commenced to break up on Brodie's dam and came rushing over the falls in immense cakes, many of which were 12 to 18 inches thick. A large number of stumps, trees and other driftwood also came down with the flood. About five minutes past 3 o'clock in the afternoon a large portion of the timber on the top of the falls became loosened by the ice floes and was swept away. The front stone facing followed, leaving a gap about 24 feet across and about six feet deep, through which the water poured in such great volumes that inside of five minutes the water raised over a foot in the river below. The abutments in the main bridge were also badly damaged. The G., P. & H. electric road between Preston and Hespeler is also submerged in many places, and, as a consequence, the cars are not running.

FLOOD AT BRANTFORD.

Grand River Rises, Breaking Through the Dyke.

Brantford, Ont., April 14.—The Grand River is again on the rampage. Last evening the water continued to rise until it carried away the trestlework bridge that the contractors on the flood prevention improvement had erected to allow travel to and fro from West Brantford, and later on the water rose to such a height that about 7.30 p.m. it broke through the dyke, and is now running through the streets of West Brantford, doing considerable damage. Fears are entertained for the west abutment of the iron bridge, where repairs on flood prevention were being conducted last fall. No person is now allowed to go on the iron bridge. The water is still rising.

Alaska Modus Vivendi.

Washington, April 14.—When the United States Government recently proposed a modus vivendi on the Alaskan boundary, to overcome the possibility of an outbreak, pending a final adjustment, the British authorities referred the proposition to Canadian officials at Ottawa. The Ottawa Government has responded with an acceptance of the general idea of a modus vivendi, although some changes in the original proposals are suggested. This must now go to the British Foreign Office, after which, if approved in London, the response will be officially submitted here.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., April 3. — There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Mase Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

Sir Thomas Esmonde's New Idea.

London, April 13.—Sir Thomas Henry Gratton Esmonde, Bart., senior whip of the anti-Parnellite party and member of Parliament for the West Division of Kerry, has written a letter to the Government papers, suggesting that each of the Irish county councils at their first meeting appoint two delegates to meet in Dublin for the purpose of considering matters of national interest and thus form "a people's parliament."

One More Body Found.

Hamilton, April 13.—Yesterday morning another body was found floating in the bay. It was that of Albert Smith, 22 years old, who was drowned while skating on Dec. 29. John Higham, a companion, was drowned at the same time, but his body has not yet been recovered. No inquest will be held.

Mrs. Goth's Neck Was Broken.

Kemptville, Ont., April 13.—Mrs. John Goth of Marlboro Township was thrown from the buggy in which she and her husband and little girl were riding yesterday. Mrs. Goth's neck was broken.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store as their giving away to their many customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable remedy, from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup and all throat and lung diseases are quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size, 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle warranted.

For Infants and Children.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

You need a doctor many times when you don't call one. You say to yourself, "Oh, I'm not sick. I'll feel all right after a while—and doctors' visits are expensive." And so you work along enduring your pain till the pain puts you in bed—and then the doctor comes. Maybe he helps you—maybe not. But his bill follows just the same.

She went down in bed.

Why not avoid both severe sickness and bills by writing to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Write fully stating all your symptoms and Dr. Pierce will prescribe for you free of charge. He is chief consulting physician to the great and world-famed Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute and when you write to him you are consulting one of the most experienced and successful specialists in the world.

In his thirty years' constant practice Dr. Pierce has tried and proven the marvelous efficacy of certain prescriptions of his and these are on sale by all dealers in medicines.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a cure for diseases of the throat, lungs, blood and nerves. It works on the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys. It is a tonic, alterative and blood-maker.

Now she goes where she pleases.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for all diseases of women.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and constipation and so help to cure nearly every disease of mankind.

Miss Emma Lee, of Williford, Sharp Co., Ark., writes: "I was suffering severely and tried several doctors but received only very little relief. Your medicines have done wonders for me. I had bronchitis, catarrh, and also female complaint. As soon as I had taken the first bottle I could see the medicine was helping me. 'My sister has also taken Favorite Prescription.' She was down in bed and could not walk and now she goes where she pleases."

THE SENATE.

Mr. John Sutherland Steps Out Under the Act.

Ottawa, April 14.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon Senator Boulton presented a petition from Abraham Aronsberg of Montreal for a divorce from his wife.

The Speaker presented the report of the committee on the orders and customs of the Senate with reference to the absence for two consecutive sessions from his place in the Senate of John Sutherland of Winnipeg, recommending that, under the provisions of section 32 of the British North America Act, the Senate should declare the seat vacant. On motion of the Minister of Justice, the report was adopted. It was decided, on the motion of the Minister of Justice, to send an address in the terms of the report to the Governor-General.

The Minister of Justice introduced another bill for the preservation of health among employes on public works. The events connected with the construction of the Crow's Nest Pass Railway had shown the Government the necessity of providing some means of securing for men employed upon works of this kind some adequate hospital accommodation. The bill provided that, with regard to every public work in Canada, the Governor-General in Council could, until the act was superseded by legislation, take power to make rules and regulations, general or specific, for the regulation of the health of men employed, in the matter of hospital accommodations, medical attendance, the extent and character of the quarters, and have them inspected and disinfected if necessary. The bill provided for the imposition of punishment, forfeiture or penalties for infraction of the provisions of the act or regulations made under it, provided in all cases, however, that imprisonment shall not be for more than three months for any offence. This was, of course, an experimental act, which would give the Government the necessary experience to frame later permanent legislation to take the place of this tentative act.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell wanted to know if the companies awarding the contracts would be liable as well as contractors.

Hon. David Mills said that both would be liable. The measure was nothing more than a sort of police measure on the subject of the health of men employed.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said he thought the principle of the bill was in the right direction, and that it looked thoroughly practical. The details would, however, have to be carefully considered. The bill was read a first time, and will come up for a third reading on Tuesday next.

The Senate then adjourned.

A Refreshing Style.

The art of quotation requires delicacy in practice. An already famous firm has originated and developed into very promising advertising a mass of old, quaint proverbs. We refer to Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, who are using not only our columns, but of thousands of ourcontemporaries, in adapting wise saws to their service by clever and practical turns. It is refreshing to see something new and bright in this line. Clean cut argument is better than big display type.

Agreeably Disappointed.

Sidney had been dining out with his parents and had eaten as heartily as any boy of 5 years well could. While the adults were sipping their after dinner coffee Sidney straightened up in his chair and emitted a deep sigh.

"What is the matter, Sidney? Haven't you had a good dinner?" inquired the hostess.

"Oh, yes'm, a great deal better dinner than I expected," said Sidney.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Itching Piles.

False modesty causes many people to endure in silence the greatest misery imaginable from itching piles. One application of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment will soothe and ease the itching, one box will completely cure the worst case of blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles. You have no risk to run, for Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is guaranteed to cure piles.

NINE IN SUCCESSION.

A Young Woman's Orders That Startled a Hotel Clerk.

A young woman from the Pacific was a recent guest at a well known up town hotel. She had innocent blue eyes, fluffy brown hair and much independence. She had come to New York alone and unchaperoned and spent her time industriously shopping. Nothing in the least remarkable happened until several days after her arrival, when coming in late in the afternoon she rang the bell and ordered a Manhattan cocktail. It was brought her. Five minutes later she rang again and ordered another. Scarcely had the boy retreated when an order for a third cocktail startled the office. Within the next half hour she had four more. The office was thoroughly excited by this time, and when the ninth cocktail went up to the young woman authority went, too, and politely conveyed the information that her room was needed for another guest. The girl turned pale, and her innocent eyes widened with surprise.

"Why, what is the matter?" she faltered. "Have I done anything?"

Authority murmured something civilly vague.

"But I insist upon an explanation," cried the girl, with rising spirit. "I won't be turned out like this."

Then she was told frankly that the Blank hotel did not care to entertain young women who dissipated to the extent of nine cocktails in rapid succession. The young woman burst into tears.

"Oh, dear!" she sobbed. "I didn't think how it would look down stairs or I wouldn't have done it. Of course I didn't want all those horrid things to drink. You might have known that." And she made a dramatic gesture toward a row of untasted cocktails on the mantel.

"You didn't want them to drink? Then what did you want them for?"

"Why—why—I just wanted to eat the lovely brandied cherries that they put in the bottom of the glass!" wept the gentle young thing.

She didn't leave the hotel.—New York Sun.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in from 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by H. S. McDonald and Ormond & Walsh.

Precaution.

"It's very wrong to smoke too much;
The habit surely serves,
Unless 'tis sparingly indulged,
To irritate the nerves.

"It's wrong to overeat yourself,"
The gentle trust exclaimed,
"For this will cause you maladies
Too numerous to be named

"It's wrong to get too warm—indeed
Most people should be told
About the way that too much heat
May lead to taking cold.

"So listen to my song and heed.
Tobacco, food and coal
Are much less likely to do harm
If left in my control."

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum.

HE HAS NEVER HAD ANY RETURN OF THESE DISEASES SINCE.

The triumphs of Burdock Blood Bitters over diseases that other remedies and even doctors' treatment seem powerless to cure, render it without doubt the grandest and greatest medicine of the times.

The cases being recorded from day to day show how thorough and far reaching are the cures B.B.B. makes and no case illustrates this more satisfactorily than that of Mr. Edward White of Victoria Corners, N.B.

We will permit Mr. White himself, together with his friends and neighbors, to amply verify the statement made on behalf of B.B.B., that when it cures you, you're cured to stay cured. This is the letter Mr. White wrote in 1894:

MR. EDWARD WHITE.

"For twelve years previous to the past few months I have been a sufferer from the worst kind of Salt Rheum. I tried twelve different doctors, besides many patent medicines, but received no benefit. Last January I was advised to try B.B.B. by the Postmaster here. I soon perceived a decided change for the better and it only took six bottles to make a complete cure."

EDWARD WHITE.

At the same time Mr. E. H. Cox, a neighbor of Mr. White, wrote the following:

"I know Mr. White and am aware that he has suffered for about twelve years from Erysipelas and Salt Rheum and has tried many doctors but all have failed to cure him.

"I had the opportunity of examining his arms, shoulders and breast, and found them covered with sores, but after using one bottle of B.B.B. they had healed up so that large scabs and scales fell off. I advised him to keep on using B.B.B.

"His face was fairly baked and so rough and sore that the skin cracked open. The itching and burning were almost unbearable.

"He continued the use of B.B.B., until now every symptom of the disease is gone.

"I write this in justice to B.B.B. as the facts are true in every respect."

E. H. Cox.

Then Mr. White's wife corroborated his story, she wrote:

"I cannot express in a letter how my husband has suffered during the past twelve years. I have seen the skin all peel off his face three times in a week with that awful Salt Rheum. He has spent everything for medicines and doctors' bills but nothing did him any good until he took B.B.B. He has taken six bottles and is now cured. He used to scratch his flesh all night, but now sleeps well and is free from disease."

Backing up and endorsing all these statements made we have the testimony of three of the best citizens in the community.

We have known Mr. Edward White for the past ten or fifteen years and can certify to the genuineness of his letter and to the facts of his case as stated by himself.

J. B. BOWSER, Merchant and Postmaster; JAMES W. BOYER, Manufacturer; THOS. W. LETSON, Justice of the Peace.

Now comes the proof of the permanency of this wonderful cure—and we have it in the following letter just received:

"It is now about five years since I was cured of a terrible attack of Salt Rheum and Erysipelas which afflicted me for about twelve years. I had tried almost everything including doctors' medicine, but could get no relief until I took Burdock Blood Bitters.

"Although my case was so bad it only took six bottles of the B.B.B. to make a thorough cure. Indeed, so lasting and permanent has the cure been, that during these past five years since I was cured there has been not the slightest sign of the disease returning. I believe that B.B.B. has driven it so completely out of my system that it will never bother me again.

"I always praise B.B.B. as the best remedy for any skin or blood disease, and I firmly believe that if it could cure a case of Salt Rheum as bad, and as of many years standing as mine, that it can cure sores or skin disease of any kind."

EDWARD WHITE.

And the permanency of the cure is corroborated by well known fellow citizens of Mr. White.

This is to certify that we have known Mr. E. White for a number of years past and believe his statements with reference to his cure to be true in every particular and are aware that he has had no return of the Salt Rheum since he was cured some years ago by Burdock Blood Bitters.

INTERESTING PIECE OF LOCAL HISTORY.

AN OMEMEE FIRE WHICH TOOK PLACE IN '43.

Six People were Cremated in the Flames—The Cottingham Homestead—The Family Afterwards Moved into Peterborough.

Appended will be found an account of a heartrending accident which befel the family of the late William Cottingham when his residence was burned, in the vicinity of Omemee in 1843. William Cottingham was reeve for 22 years and Warden of the united counties of Peterborough and Victoria from 1852 to 1858 inclusive.

After the decease of Mr. Cottingham th e family moved to Peterough, those now living being Mrs. George Cluxton, Peterborough; Mrs. A. W. Stevenson, Montreal; Mrs. D. C. Edwards, Toronto; Mrs. Jas. Morris, Ottawa; Miss Beatrice Cottingham, Montreal; Mrs. Harris Weston, Morgan and Herbert, of the Northwest, and Walter H., of Cleveland.

The account of the fire as published in the Cobourg Star fifty-six years ago, is as follows:

Peterborough, Feb. 9th, '43.

Dear Sir.—With feelings absolutely indiscribable, I take up my pen to inform you of the most heart rending accident which has ever, I believe, occurred in this section of the district. On Tuesday morning last the house of William Cottingham, Esq., at Williamstown, in Emily, was burned to the ground. Four of his children, one child adopted by Mrs. Cottingham, and a female servant, fell victims to the devouring element.

Having just returned from the melancholy funeral of the innocent soldiers, I lose no time in giving you the facts as collected by myself on the ground.

About 3 o'clock in the morning Mrs. Cottingham awoke with a

Sense of Suffocation

and aroused her husband, who, perceiving a dense smoke, ran hastily down stairs to see what was the matter. Mrs. Cottingham threw herself out of bed at the same time and taking her infant in her arms hurried through the adjoining room to the lobby at the head of the stairs, whence she saw Mr. Cottingham open the parlour door below and the flames bursting through it into the hall; perceiving that the house was on fire she turned into old Mr. Cottingham's bedroom, the door of which opened on the lobby and awoke him up, calling on him to assist her in saving the children. Observing that the infant in her arms was by this time convulsed from want of air, she ran to a window and burst out the pane to let the child breathe, and looking out, she saw, as she thought, light in all the windows of her father's (Geo. Hughes, Esq.,) house on another side of the square on which her own stood. The thought immediately came into her mind, "What can I do with this babe in my arms, if my father were here he could render more effectual aid in saving the children than I can," and feeling convinced that there was still sufficient time to remove them from danger, she seized the sash, pulled it into the room, and on the roof of the back kitchen, from which she leaped to the ground with her baby in her arms, comparatively uninjured, shrieking for aid, and while making her way to her father's, she met him coming, he having been startled out of bed by her screams. She cried to him in agony to save her children—he tried to do so—but, alas it was too late. All this occurred in less than two minutes from the time of her first awaking.

To return to Mr. Cottingham, when Mrs. Cottingham awoke him he ran down stairs, and conceiving that the smoke came from the parlour immemediately under the bed room he opened the door, when the flames were driven violently into his face by the strong westerly gale then blowing into the apartmen tthrough the already burned down windows of that part of the house; he instantly shouted out to alarm the servants sleeping there and get their assistance, immediately turning round he ran again into the now flaming hall and rushed through the flames up the stairs to regain the bedroom where his children still lay. On gaining the head of the stairs he experienced some difficulty in opening the door of the large room through which he must pass to go to the bedroom. In the large room he found his father feebly endeavouring to find the door of the bedroom. Mr. Cottingham made a rush towards the door and stumbled over a sofa, being then nearly suffocated, they both made to one of the front windows, dashed it out, and having inhaled a breath or two of resh air, again rushed towards the bedroom door, and again Mr. Cottingham stumbled over something, but recovering himself he reached the wall in which the door stood and felt in every direction for the door in vain. The smoke and flame had now rendered the room impossible to exist in, and retreat by the stairs being completely cut off he was forced to throw himself from a window into the street. Old Mr. Cottingham says that he found the door of the bedroom and on opening it the flame struck him in the face and went down his throat, causing him to fall to the floor, along which he crept to a window, from which he threw himself into the street. His face is very much hurt as well as all the back parts of his thighs and legs down to his heels,

There were about twenty persons sleeping under the roof at the time, and had it not been for the merciful interposition of providence in arousing Mrs. Cottingham from the first effects of suffocation, in all probability every life as the flames spread with such awful rapidity before the strong westerly gale that the whole building was wrapt in flames in the course of two or three minutes after Mrs. Cottingham's awaking, and had the wind blown from any othe direction many other buildings must have been destroyed.

The ages of Mr. Cottingham's children were as follows:

Letitia Jane, eight years and five months; Henry William, six years and ten months; George Hughes, five years; Charles Wellington, three years and nine months.

Mr. and Mrs. Cottingham have been both much injured, and Mr. Cottingham's father still more severely.

The loss of property was very great, not an article of Mr. Cottingham's was saved, not even his account books or papers, nor was there a thought of such a thing at the time; his loss cannot be less than £1,000, of which £200 is covered by insurance. Mr. Blackwell estimates his loss at £225.

The remains of the unfortunate sufferers were found immediately under where their beds stood and werre interred on Wednesday morning. If any circumstance could alleviate the misery of their surviving relatives the sincere sympathy evinced by the immense concourse who assembled to pay the last sad duties to the innocent sufferers would afford it, and indeed the high respect in which both Mr. Cottingham's and Mr. Hughes' families have been so long held in this section of the district has cast a deep and general gloom over it.

Backing Up Our Statements

LeBRUN & CO. PREPARED TO DELIVER THE GOODS

Bought at the Gigantic Clothing Sale of

Our Full Duty to You...

Is not a matter to be lightly summarized; but the merchandise end of it certainly includes these three points:—

FIRST—To get the right goods here and show them plentifully.

SECOND—To utilize our entire resources toward selling them cheaply.

THIRD—To tell the truth about them.

To-day's story is prepared with all these three points distinctly in mind.

A SPRING HAT REVIEW

Chief and foremost we have Youman's Stiff Hats, sold the world over at only one price $5 each, also the J. B. Stetson Soft Hats, one-priced no matter where bought $4, $5 and $6 each. Next comes "Hawes" famous $3.50 Hats, sold everywhere through special agency.

Now a long list of Fine English and American makers, including Tress, Christy, Woodrow, Roelof, Cooksey, Cuthbertson and Wilkinson, in Derby and Fedora shape, at prices from $1.25 to $3 each.

For good ordinary wear we have a full line of Fedoras of English, American and Canadian makes 50c., 75c. and $1.00 each—browns, black and grey.

Our 50c. Hat is a good full shape Fedora style, made of wool felt bodies, imported from England and put together in Canada—it is exceptional good value—brown and black colour.

This is news of New Goods and large showing joined with other news of Strong and Standard Bargains.

We have in stock a few '98 styles in Stiff and Soft Hats, some among these hard to discriminate from 99's; we offer them at One-half to Two-thirds of their ordinary value 50c., 75c., $1, $1.25, $1.50 and $2 each, according to qualities.

THAT NEGLECTED LANE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—The mild, spring-like state of atmosphere which accompanied the thunder storm of yesterday, together with the light precipitation of moisture was followed by the usual result in "Tom-all-alone's" alley. Again the square at the end of this plague pestered lane (the alley leading from Brock street south to the rear of the postoffice block) is filled with water and filth from this avenue, and again so soon as a few more warm days have completely melted the ice and snow in the vicinity, this festering pool will give off its offensive effluvia to the absorbent atmosphere, and the consequent distribution of this germ-laden foulness will take place in every direction.

An early appointment to the position of Medical Health Officer should be made and the report of the late efficient and respected officer upon the early completion of the work designed by the Board of Health of last year will prevent the usual results of spring and summer freshets, which are frequently as pleasant to contemplate as the present intolerable nuisance. There can be little wonder that shops in this vicinity are being vacated as fast as the occupants can get away without financial ruination. The cold, clammy dampness ever present with the disintegration of the walls, alone should warn anyone of the danger to civilized existence in this neighborhood.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the valuable space occupied, and feeling assured that the good promises of the Board of Health in respect to this matter will be followe by active measures so soon as the proper officers of the town receive their commissions from the Council, and, having every confidence in this aggregation of municipal, business talent.

I remain, yours truly,

CIVITAS.

DAYS OF DESPAIR

The Tormenting Tortures of Dyspepsia and Indigestion are Dissipated like Mists Before the Rising Sun with Dr Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets.

The first tablet encourages you to eat what you like. A single tablet relieves the most acute distress, and there are sixty tablets in a box—vest-pocket size—sold at all druggists for 35 cents.

CHAPTER I.

1. The days of the dyspeptic are sorrowful. Selah.
2. In the rosy flush of the early morn, when all creation is all red with the thrill of refreshened life—
3. The dyspeptic awaketh, sad-eyed and dulled with the dread of impending distress.
4. He knoweth that the hot grip of dyspepsia is waiting to strangle the keen relish of his famish d body for strengthening food.
5. He turns from the delights of the table, as the wicked turn from the joys of the pure in heart. He yearns for the things of which he cannot partake.
6. The juices of his life are dried up with suffering, as a drought dries the sap in a stalk of grain.
7. But, like rich dew to parched verdure, so Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets will restore the dyspeptic to a joyous condition of good health.
8. The first tablet corrects—and cures are often effected with but a single box—only 35 cents at H. S. Macdonald's or Ormond & Walsh's.

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

DREW FIRST BLOOD.

German Victory Over Britain in Samoan Negotiations.

THE UNANIMITY CONCESSIONS.

Michael Davitt Is Pro-German, and Says the English Missionary Society Is Responsible for the Trouble in Samoa—The Pope's Coronation Anniversary Celebrated on Sunday.

London, April 17.—Germany has drawn the first blood in the Samoan negotiations at the expense of Great Britain, in securing the important point of unanimity in the decisions of the commission, against which the Marquis of Salisbury held out. Therefore, the German Foreign Minister at the same time that he announced Great Britain's acceptance of unanimity announced a distinct score for German diplomacy. The note of self-satisfaction ringing throughout the German Foreign Minister's announcement that Great Britain had yielded caused irritation here, which is reflected in the comments of the newspapers.

CREED QUESTION BROUGHT IN.

Michael Davitt Says English Missionary Society Caused Samoan Trouble.

London, April 17.—Michael Davitt has written a letter to Herr Liebknecht on German action in Samoa. He says that his visit to Apia gave him an insight into affairs there. The letter says:

"The whole trouble was really the work of a London missionary society seeking to make the English dominant in Samoa. It has a fanatical auxiliary in Justice Chambers, who, though nominally an American, is in reality, an Englishman. He made use of disturbances which the London society promoted to further the project of an Anglo-American alliance to overhelm the mass of the Samoans, who were for Mataafa; but, because Mataafa is a Catholic, and supported by the Germans, the London society, through its tool, Chambers, succeeded in inducing English and American officials to intimidate the people.

"It is certain that the American people will act justly when the truth is brought home to their minds, and there will be a reaction of popular feeling in the United States in favor of Germany when it is found that England is playing a perfidious game, trying to breed bad blood between America and Germany, and so profit by jealousy."

PEACE! PEACE!!

How Queen Wilhelmina Will Put Away All Things That Will Remind Her Guests of War.

The Hague, April 17.—Queen Wilhelmina will entertain the delegates to the peace conference several times at the chateau of Soestdyk, near Utrecht, where she will reside during the sessions of the conference. This is one of the finest and most picturesque of the princely residences of Holland. It contains several famous paintings and souvenirs of the battle of Waterloo. The Queen ordered all these suggestions of war and victory removed, so the delegates will find no object inconsistent with their sublime mission.

FINNISH PATRIOTS REVOLT.

Moscow Gazette Correspondent Cannot Get a Place to Live In.

Helsingfors, April 17.—The Finnish patriots are now in open revolt against the new regime, which aims to rob them of their national life and Russianize the entire province.

Messaroech, the local correspondent of The Moscow Gazette, whose incessant and systematic attacks on Finland, her people and her institutions, have evoked great resentment, is subjected to a most complete boycott at the present time. The keepers of restaurants and shops refuse to serve him. He is insulted in the streets, and he has been turned out of his lodgings by a patriotic landlord.

The ostracised correspondent has been compelled to seek shelter in the barracks of the First Rifle Regiment, having failed to induce any lodging-house keeper to take him in.

BRITAIN'S NAVAL POLICY.

Mr. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, Says Supremacy in Chinese Waters Will Be With the Fleet.

London, April 17.—Lord Charles Beresford was warmly welcomed on his return to the House of Commons on Friday from his recent trip to China. Recounting his observations in the far east, he said that Weihaiwei would not require a large outlay of money. It was a much better station than Kowchow and should be made a naval base without stationing any military there. The Russians, he said, had mounted 71 guns at Port Arthur. Why they had done so, he did not know, but Russia, having taken such a course, England should follow suit at Weihaiwei. The Russians, he said, had received him in a most friendly manner. They invited him to visit Port Arthur, and offered to place a ship at his disposal for the journey. Owing to the difficulties at home, however, it was suggested that he should not go, so he did not accept the invitation. Lord Charles added that the Government had done its duty in taking Weihaiwei, and it would further its duty by placing it in the condition that naval men would like to see it.

Mr. Austin Chamberlain concurred in what Lord Charles Beresford had said about the capabilities of Weihaiwei, and said that the Government intended to take advantage of these capabilities as a secondary naval station. The Government, he said, proposed to make Weihaiwei, with regard to China, what Gibraltar was to Malta before the present large extension.

Replying to a criticism upon the occupation of Weihaiwei, Mr. Goschen, First Lord of the Admiralty, said: "We must maintain our supremacy in Chinese waters generally by our fleet. Weihaiwei is not so much a protection as a base of refuge for our ships. A proper naval policy will always be a vigorous and extensive one. The fortifications, though not extensive, must be sufficient to ward off sudden attacks."

Around the World in 33 Days.

London, April 17.—The Russian Minister of Railways, it is announced in a special despatch from St. Petersburg, says that when the Trans-Siberian Railroad is completed it will be possible to go around the world in 33 days, as follows: Bremen to St. Petersburg, one and a half days; St. Petersburg to Vladivostock, ten days; Vladivostock to San Francisco by steamer, ten days; San Francisco to New York, 4½ days; New York to Bremen, seven days. Total, 33 days.

THE ELECTIONS IN SPAIN.

They Passed Off Quietly—Some Diplomatic Appointments Made.

Madrid, April 17.—The elections to the new Cortes passed off quietly in Madrid yesterday. Some disturbances occurred at Bilbao and many persons were injured at Valencia and at Cular de Basal in Andalusia. At Granada an election agent was murdered.

Diplomatic Appointments.

The Official Gazette yesterday contains a royal decree appointing the Duke of Arcos to be Spanish envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the United States. The decree also creates consulates at Havana, Manila, Iloilo, and Juan de Porto Rico and Cienfuegos.

Senor Larrea, now Spanish consul at Antwerp, is transferred to Havana, Senor Bouilla, now at Shanghai, is appointed to Manila, and Senor Uriarte goes to Antwerp.

In consequence of a bull fight here, only about one-third of the electors of the city went to the polls. The elections seem favorable to the Government.

Bandits at Work in Cuba.

Havana, April 17.—News has been received from Mariano that 12 or 15 mounted bandits, one dressed as a woman, raided the Pinollas plantation, owned by Senor Puri, two miles south of Calinito and ten miles from Havana, at twilight on Saturday and took $100 in silver from the owner's residence and afterward burned the house of the overseer and warehouse, containing $5,000 worth of tobacco.

You Can Trim the Hat

To your own mind (all the trimming things are here, heaps of them) and you can get it ready trimmed. There are deft fingers at our store that can so loop a ribbon, or tilt a bow, or set a flowery bit, that each hat becomes a unique creation inside all the lines that fashion prescribes, yet no one a slavish copy of any other. There are new comers there all the time—new ideas, new shapes, new beauties.

Last week was a busy week in this Department. Come to-day or to-morrow if you want your hat for Sunday.

MANTLES.

The sales are gratifying in the Mantle Department, and why shouldn't they be so? Chick, jaunty, man-tailored garments at such extremely modest prices should mean bare racks before many days. Avail yourselves of this opportunity.

IN LAWTON'S ABSENCE

Filipinos Concentrated by Thousands Near Pasig.

HOW TO END THE FIGHTING.

Belgian Consul at Manila, Presently at Brussels, Gives His Opinion Based on Acquaintance With the Natives and on His Cosmopolitan Experiences—Filipinos in Ambush Kill Americans.

Manila, April 17.—During the absence of Major-General Lawton's expedition to Santa Cruz district, on the southeastern side of Laguna de Bay, the insurgents have been concentrating at the northern end of the lake, near Pasig, and the American scouts report that several thousand are there already. General Lawton's expedition is now on its way back.

Few Remain to Fight.

Washington, April 17.—The desire of the volunteers now serving in the Philippines to return to this country is evidenced in a report, which shows that of those who have been offered opportunity to re enlist with the offer of a bonus in travel pay of over $500 only about seven per cent. will accept.

How to End the Fight.

Brussels, April 17.—Edouard Andre, the Belgian consul at Manila, arrived here on Saturday. When he was asked, in an interview, when the Philippine insurrection would end, he replied:

"Only when Aguinaldo and some of his followers, who fight under compulsion, know specifically the exact form of government that the United States intends for them, and when the United States has paid them some compensation for their successful fight against the Spaniards.

"Let the United States let the insurgents know in definite words its intention to grant them local self-government and also compensate them for their military services against Spain, and they will also submit and live on affectionate terms with the Americans.

"They told me so themselves, as through my cosmopolitan connections, by reason of the neutrality of the country I represent, I receive confidence from all parties."

FILIPINOS IN AMBUSH

Kill More Americans on Saturday—Filipino Dead at Battle of Santa Cruz Number 150.

Manila, April 17.—Starting in an easterly direction along the road of Pansanghan, a party of 60 sharpshooters, on Saturday, under Lieut. Southern of the Washington Regiment, came upon a trench across the road about a mile out of Santa Cruz. Lieut. Southern was wounded.

The Americans then advanced, with the mountain guns and the 14th Infantry Battalion in the centre; Linck's battalion of the First Idaho Infantry on the right, and Fraine's battalion of the First North Dakota Infantry on the left, both flanking. The trench was carried without loss to the Americans.

Pansanghan was found deserted. Four monuments on the border of the village celebrate the proclamation of Filipino independence, issued last year, and glorify "Aguinaldo, the Liberator." The troops, on entering the abandoned houses, found them in perfect order.

The Daketans Suffered.

One Filipino was killed and five were wounded in the encounter beyond Longas. This was an ambush. Eight men of the North Dakota Regiment, moving in single file through the woods, received a volley from a clump of bushes about 50 feet away. Only one got off unhurt. He dragged a comrade with four bullets in his body to the main force, and then led the troops back to the spot of the attack. The Filipinos were easily scattered.

Additional Filipino dead found north of Santa Cruz swell the number of the enemy killed on Monday to 150, including Paolo Aguirro, one of the leaders, and 12 officers.

SINGLE TAXER IS NOT AFRAID.

Hoped God of Battles Would Smite Yankee Soldiers in the Philippines.

Philadelphia, April 17.—Frank Stephens of this city, who remarked at the Single Tax dinner in New York Thursday night that he hoped "the God of battles will smite our soldiers in the Philippines with a fearful and overwhelming defeat," has reiterated his remarks here to reporters. He said: "The statement was not a hasty or chance one, but one that is the result of much thought and consideration. Every word I uttered I intended should be taken absolutely as it was spoken. I maintain that the United States has no right in the Philippines, and I again state that I sincerely hope that the God of vengeance will overwhelmingly defeat our troops."

Mr. Stephens is a well-known Single Tax advocate, and was imprisoned in Delaware for a week for delivering Single Tax speeches in that State.

Spanish Mission to Aguinaldo.

Madrid, April 17.—Gen. Rios, Spain's commander in the Philippines, cables that Major-General Otis has granted him a safe conduct for his chief of staff and another officer he is sending to Aguinaldo with a letter demanding the liberation of the Spanish prisoners in the name of humanity and international law. In the event of a refusal the commissioners will ask Aguinaldo for a definite decision in order that they may acquaint the civilized world with his attitude. Gen. Rios has empowered them to offer to surrender to Aguinaldo 1,600 Filipino prisoners, who have been placed at the Spanish commanders' disposal by Gen. Otis.

Good Message From Dewey.

Washington, April 17.—The following cablegram has been received by the Navy Department from Admiral Dewey:

Manila, April 15.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Wheeling arrived, six days from Guam. Quiet and order there. Most friendly to Americans. Native government established by Taussig working well. Native soldiers fine body of men.

"'Tis Worth a Bag of Gold."

This applies to nothing better than the glorious Spring time that moves all verdure to life and brings around the day when all humanity can have an opportunity to cleanse their blood and thus put into operation all the health and vigor that is possible. Everybody naturally turns to America's Greatest Spring Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, to prepare themselves for the joys and pleasures of summer. It never disappoints.

After Fevers – "My little girl took Hood's Sarsaparilla after scarlet fever and it made her well and strong. Since then I have given it to all my children as a blood purifier. It is a priceless panacea in my family. Hood's Pills have also proved of great benefit to me. I would not be without these medicines." MRS. TYLER, 56 Winchester Street, Toronto, Ont.

After Grip – "The grip left me very weak. Three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up. I now weigh heavier than before my illness. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who suffer from weakness of the body." ALFRED SMITH, 23 Bank Street, Toronto, Ont.

Out of Sorts – "Had no appetite, could not sleep, was out of sorts. Had trouble with my kidneys. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla have good appetite, sleep soundly and 'enjoy better health.'" MRS. MARGARET BIRD, 582 Bethune Street, Peterboro, Ont.

Strength Builder – "Myself, wife and children have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and it strengthened us. It relieved me of a lame back." DAVID MCGEORGE, caretaker, Colt Institute, Galt, Ont.

Blood Purifier – "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it beneficial for myself and baby. It purifies the blood and strengthens the system." MRS. HENRY WALL, Clinton, Ont.

Scrofula – "Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of scrofula. I was weak and debilitated but it made me strong and well. After a severe cold had catarrhal fever. Again resorted to this medicine and it cured me." SARAH E. DEROY, Annapolis, N. S.

AFRAID OF OUR CANALS.

At the grand banquet under the auspices of the Democratic club of New York, which was attended by about eighteen hundred guests, among the speeches was one by Judge Augustus Van Wyck, who spoke on "Our Country and her Commerce." In the course of his remarks, he said:

"Canada is at work deepening her canals with a view to having at least fourteen feet of water from Lake Michigan to Montreal. When we shall have completed the improvements now in progress on the Erie Canal, connecting New York city, by way of the Hudson River, with Lake Erie, we shall have a depth of just seven feet. What I invite our merchants to consider is whether, as men of enterprise, they think it safe to leave the state and metropolis at so manifest a disadvantage. The statistics of the port prove that we are not holding our own with Canada in the matter of the lake traffic."

Judge Van Wyck left the Trent waterway out of his calculation. If he had been better informed he would have had far stronger reason for deploring the insufficiency, in a competitive sense, of the Erie Canal. The Trent route when completed, will be nearly a day shorter, (in time, which in transportation is a more important factor that distance) than the Welland Canal route and so much ahead of the Erie Canal in this regard that a round trip on the Trent can be made more quickly than a one-way voyage on the Erie.

Besides the Trent waterway will be a foot deeper than the improved Erie. The present Trent canal is constructed with a view to increasing its depth to eight feet by the mere raising of the water. The purchase of land has been made with that end in view. This of course will involve very little or no construction expense—to increase the depth of the Trent waterway to eight feet. Another advantage the Trent has over the Erie is that the size of a barge that can be used in the Erie is only 17 ft. 10 in.x100 ft. with a capacity at 6 feet draft, of 8000 bushels of wheat. On the other hand a barge that can be used on the Trent waterway is 32 ft. 10 in.x123 ft., with a capacity of 18,000 at 6 feet draft.

Our Yankee cousins are spending some 17 millions in the enlargement of the Erie canal, that has only half the transportation capacity of the Trent waterway, while it requires nearly double the time required to do the same work, in other words the Trent waterway is twice as effective a transportation medium as the Erie Canal.

Doctors said Incurable

But the Notary, Mr. Lemire, was cured of Kidney Disease in two months by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is only when thoroughly convinced of the superior merit of a remedy that public men will give their sanction.

Mr. E. H. Lemire, Notary Public, 1698 Notre Dame Street, Montreal, tells of his remarkable recovery from a severe attack of kidney disease. When doctors had failed, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills saved his life. He writes: "I give this statement, first because it is only just that the merit of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills should be made known, and again in order that others may profit by my experience. For years I suffered with kidney trouble. Doctors pronounced incurable. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which I used for two months, I am completely cured. They helped me from the first, and now I am perfect."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills act directly on the kidneys, and through their combined influence on the kidneys and liver, cure the most complicated diseases of these delicate organs. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

SHUTTING THE DOOR.

If the United States seriously propose the adoption of a law to exclude Canadian lumber, it is, to use the language of the street, "their own funeral." And the conditions will have solemn inconveniences of a funeral if they sweat their citizens with high prices for lumber. Of course such a prohibition will have a seriously disturbing influence upon Canadian lumbering interests, but it will only be a temporary inconvenience. We can find another market for lumber, as we have done for other products to which the "Yankee" hog system has closed our natural market. For in the matter of proximity and mutual needs, the American market is our natural market. But if the Americans do not wish to buy, or rather, if the politicians do not wish to allow the people to buy our products, the loss is their own. We shall survive. Our neighbours in commercial matters have been pursuing a policy of pin pricks and we are tired of that policy. If they wish to alienate us entirely in trade matters so be it. Canada can be self-reliant and has no need to crawl to anybody. There are countries that will take our products and if we can't sell them next door, we can sell them somewhere else,

GOOD ROADS.

The good roads crusade is bowling merrily ahead. The township of Smith, which has always enterprise and possesses progressive aspirations has joined the procession. The township has had several visits from Mr. A. W. Campbell, C.E., Provincial Instructor in Roadmaking, and these visits have given a decided and practical impetus to road improvement in this township. The crusade is to be energetically carried out. The township is advertising for tenders for a road grader and portable stone crusher, tenders for the grader to be in by April 26th, and those for the stone crusher a month later, May 24th. Evidently the Council of Smith means business. They have a fine township, and they are fully justified in taking measures to add to the value of every foot of land in the township by improving their highways. The provincial department of roadmaking is attached to the Department of Agriculture; and with reason. Nobody will gain as much as the farmer from having good roads. Good roads shorten the distance to market, by permitting the making of better time, while the wear and tear of vehicles and horseflesh are by good roads reduced to a minimum.

Several members of the late Conservative Government do not figure very brilliantly in connection with the Sir John Thompson wreath affair. They "contributed" very liberally as his "sorrowing colleagues" to a wreath to be placed on the bier of their late leader, Sir John Thompson. There is no doubt that they were responsible, either as Ministers of the Crown or as ministers individually, for the payment of the bill for the wreath. But they shirked both obligations and left the present Liberal government to pay a part of the cost of a funeral wreath for the funeral of the leader of their political opponents, while the Conservative ministers who paid (all the paying they did) the tribute of respect, have left Sir Mackenzie Bowell to pay half of the balance claimed which is about $600. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, though under no moral or commercial obligation to pay for the wreath, compromised with the creditor and to save his own reputation as involved with that of his late colleagues, who seem to have no solicitude as to their good name, he made a settlement. Several of Sir Mackenzie's colleagues concerned in shirking their funeral wreath obligations added to the bill by their share in the "nest of "Traitors," conspiracy to knife the gentleman, who at the last has shown them that a gentleman always meets his financial obligations.

PUBLIC FRANCHISES.

If They're Worth Having They're Worth Paying For.

Ottawa Journal.

One cannot see why a corporation or company that gets a franchise from a town for the benefit of such corporation or company should not pay something for the privilege granted. The people are beginning to demand that the public franchises they grant having a certain value to the grantees, involve a division of the profit swith the grantors and these object lessons in this connection are given below:

Carter H. Harrison ran for Mayor of Chicago last week on the platform of preservation of municipal franchises. He was mayor last year nominated and elected by Democrats. While in office he barked an attempt of the street railway companies to get fifty-year extensions of their franchises. For the election this week he lost the regular Democratic nomination, the party machine turning against him. He ran as an independent Democrat and people's candidate. The vote stood, Carter Harrison, 146,900; Z. P. Carter, Republican, 105,600; J. P. Altgeld, Democrat, 45,500. Harrison said:

"I have been elected by the people because I stood up for them against the squandering of the public franchises."

Samuel M. Jones, of Toledo, preached municipal ownership during his term as mayor last year. He had been nominated last year by the Republicans. The party machine threw him down this year, nominating another man. Jones ran as an independent and polled a bigger vote than the Republican and Democrat nominees put together.

Jones said:

'I am elected because the people believe in public ownership of public utilities. They are against the granting of municipal franchises the contract system and in favour of the eight-hour day and the living wage as the easiest step looking toward a solution of that problem of problems—the unemployed. In this contest the lines were drawn in this wise: On the one hand stood the labor organizations and the unorganized; on the orher side were political machines (and there is no difference between them) and partisan press and the franchise grabbing corporations. The common people in whom Lincoln trusted have won the victory."

In New York, ex-governor Roswell P. Flower was interviewed this week about a grab which is being attempted of street railway franchises in Brooklyn. He said:—

"When I was Governor I never signed a bill granting a charter unless provision was made in the law for payment to the representatives of the granting power a sum representing the value of the privilege granted. I am still of that opinion.

"Now, as to franchises.

"No more of them should be given away to any individual or corporabe paid for. I don't believe that a lump sum should be agreed upon, tion. They are valuable and should be paid for. I don't believe that a lump sum should be agreed upon, but the persons or corporation obtaining a franchise should be compelled to pay a percentage on the gross earnings.

"There are seldom any net earnings, you know."

These are three object lessons to Ottawa as to the trend of public opinion regarding municipal franchises. Ottawa has made mistakes in the past, like all other places. Time and effort will remedy the mistakes. Meanwhile, don't let us make any more No more extended franchises. No more franchises of any kind given away for nothing. Above all, no more franchises to speculators.

Municipal operation many object to. But municipal ownership does not necessarily mean municipal operation. Toronto owns her street railway franchise, but does not operate it. She leases it out to private operators and gets $150,000 a year rent. Let Ottawa aim at getting or retaining control of her franchises. If she does not want to work them herself she will always find people eager to lease them on her own terms.

Japanese Catarrh Cure.

has successfully coped with this most dangerous disease, and cured to stay Cured

Miss A. Knott, of Beachville, Ont., writes: "If we had only known of Japanese Catarrh Cure years ago; my father would have been saved from spending hundreds of dollars, and I would have been free from the constant pain and annoyance of this most disgusting disease. I have had catarrh for years. My head was stuffed up so that I could not breathe through my nostrils. My breath was very impure I had almost a constant pain in my head and over my eyes. Nothing I could get gave me any permanent relief, until using Japanese Catarrh Cure. From the very first it gave me relief, and in a short time had removed the accumulation so that I could breath freely through the nostrils. The pain left my head and eyes. Its effect upon my breath was truly wonderful, purifying and removing every vestige of the unpleasant odor, and during the past year since using this remedy have not felt the least sign of my former trouble. I can highly recommend it, and known of several others in our neighborhood who it has cured."

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

WANTS

More wants are supplied, and supplied more quickly by means of THE EXAMINER want columns than in all other ways combined. THE EXAMINER is the popular paper read by all. It is the recognized medium for the supply of wants.

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and sallow and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.

What is the cause of all this? Impure blood.

And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.

If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

TIMES GOOD IN BRITAIN.

Two Prominent Montrealers Have Returned With an Encouraging Tale—Mr. Hays and English Railways.

Montreal, April 17.—Two leading Montrealers, Messrs. E. S. Clouston and Charles M. Hays, arrived home yesterday. The general manager of the Bank of Montreal says people abroad now call Canada's hopes of a fast Atlantic line the "Phantom Fast Line." He adds that in the present congested state of the shipyards it would be quite impossible to have the ships built. The cost also would be excessive. He, in fact, does not expect to see the fast line become a reality before two years, but then the general manager thinks it will be an accomplished fact. He adds that the general prosperity now prevailing in England will probably greatly lessen the volume of emigration towards Canada for the next year or two. Speaking of money in London, he states that there is a tendency to firmness, and he does not expect any serious relaxation of rates for some time. Several colonial issues, chiefly Australian, have gone off satisfactorily.

The general manager of the Grand Trunk, who had not been across the Atlantic before, said that one has to go abroad to realize the fact that the great civilizing race of the world to-day is the Anglo-Saxon. The man, he says, who goes to England, and, after passing over some of their leading railways, will come back and proclaim that they are not in it as compared with what we have on this side of the water, simply does not know what he is talking about.

Being asked if there was anything a railway man from this side could learn in the Old Land, he replied: "A great deal. I have returned, in fact, thinking that I know very little."

Mr. Hays states that his reception at the meeting of the Grand Trunk shareholders was cordial in the extreme. Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson will come to Canada in a short time, and he confirms the report that all the difficulties between the C.P.R. and Grand Trunk have been settled satisfactorily to both companies.

A Dismal Howl.

The man with rheumatism must howl night and day with pain. But what is the need of it when Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure will make him well again? The rheumatic sufferer can get it for 50 cents at any drug store. Why delay longer? Mr. Chas. Sudds, farmer, Simcoe Island, suffered with Muscular Rheumatism for eight years. Half a bottle of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. This preparation is taken internally. 50 cents a bottle containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

THE SHIPYARD COMBINE.

All the Great Builders of Lake Vessels Have Come Together.

Chicago, April 17.—The combination of Great Lake shipyards so long planned has finally been completed. The capital stock of the new concern is $30,000,000, and its name will be the American Shipbuilding Company. The new company includes the Chicago Shipbuilding Company, the Globe Iron Works, the Cleveland Shipbuilding Company, the Milwaukee Dry Dock Company and the American Steel Barge Company. The owners of the plants selling out agree to take 80 per cent. of the amount to be paid for them in stock.

Sad Death at Collingwood.

Collingwood, Ont., April 17.—While on the street here on Saturday Mrs. McArthur, widow of the late Charles McArthur of McMurchy Settlement, was seized with paralysis, and Miss McArthur called Chief Maiden to her assistance. Dr. Arthur was called, but she expired within 40 minutes of the first attack. Mrs. McArthur came from Islay, Scotland, and was one of the pioneers of Nottawasaga and was highly respected.

PONTON'S NEXT TRIAL

Has Been Set Down for May in the City of Toronto.

A WIFE'S FATAL HEROISM.

A Boy Killed by a Metropolitan Trolley in Toronto—Alleged Attempted Bribery of a State Attorney by the Standard Oil Company—Wireless Telegraphy at Washington a Success.

Yankee trade dollars, worth 40 cents, are plentiful in Toronto.

The barber shop of W. A. Powers at Pembroke was burned down on Sunday.

Three infants have been abandoned in Toronto within a week. One of them was dead when found.

William Marshall was burned to death on Saturday in a New York stable in which he was sleeping. Two horses were also burned.

Fifty-seven freight handlers at the Grand Trunk sheds in Toronto have struck for an advance in wages. Their places have already been filled.

The body of Richard Sprung, who fell into the electric flume at Trenton last February, was washed in by the waves on Saturday, two miles east of the town.

The Crown has concluded and the defence has begun to put evidence in at the trial of young Dickson for the murder of a young man named Pepin at Tanguay, Que.

Prof. Baume, Berlin's famous high diver, was killed on Saturday at a circus performance in which he essayed to dive from 60 feet above the water into a tank 12 feet deep.

It is said that the Cataract Power Company now owns 60 per cent. of the stock of the Hamilton Street Railway, and that it will make radical changes in the management.

Although Marconi has sent messages across the English Channel from France without the use of wires, the successful mile test on Saturday at Washington is the subject of much jubilation.

The action brought by Mrs. Trant of Hamilton against William Payne of Toronto for $5,000 damages for the alleged seduction of her daughter, Miss Fannie Reeves, has been amicably settled.

A Metropolitan street car ran down on Saturday at Toronto the 3-year-old son of Edward M. Higgins, crushing his skull and inflicting very serious injuries to his right side. He died at midnight on Saturday.

It now transpires that the reason Sampson's squadron will not visit British ports in response to the recent invitation is that Uncle Sam is afraid Europe will think her too friendly with the mother country.

The Ponton trial is to be held at Toronto at the criminal assizes beginning May 15. Justice Robertson's decision provides for the payment by the Crown of Ponton's extra expense due to the transfer of the trial.

At Rochester on Saturday by the falling of an elevator used on a building scaffold on the Fahy Block five men were seriously injured. The cables of the elevator broke and the men fell to the ground, a distance of 40 feet.

Louis Montgomery Forbes, a young man who was making ready to go to America, has died at London of blood poisoning, after having been tattooed by Alfred Smith, a professional tatoo artist, at the Royal Aquarium, Westminster.

Attorney-General Monnet of Cleveland, O., on Saturday filed information with the Supreme Court that the Standard Oil Company had attempted to bribe him to prevent cases in which they were interested in coming to trial. The amount of the bribes varied from $75,000 to $500,000.

At Highland, Ill., the gasoline stove in Isaac Booker's house exploded, shocking the man into unconsciousness. Mrs Booker, who was outside, ran in and dragged her unconscious husband, whose clothes were on fire, out of the house, her own clothes catching fire during her efforts. Both died shortly afterwards from their severe burns, leaving three small children to continue the battle of life alone.

Bryanites' Dollar Dinner.

New York, April 17.—The "dollar dinner" given by the members of the Democratic party who favor the candidacy of W. J. Bryan for President, at the Grand Central Palace on Saturday night, in point of numbers was one of the biggest affairs ever held in this city. Nearly 3,000 men and women sat down at long tables in the various rooms.

William Jennings Bryan did not arrive until shortly after 7 o'clock. Crowds on the outside signalized his appearance by tremendous cheering. The band played "Hail to the Chief" as Bryan was hurried down one of the main aisles. The demonstration lasted for five minutes.

Mr. Bryan's address, which was a lengthy one, was devoted to upholding his well-known views on the monetary question, and predictions of success for the 16 to 1 Democrats in the next Presidential election.

Severed His Jugular Vein.

Norwich, Ont., April 17.—Ira Lee, a highly-respected resident of this place, committed suicide on Friday afternoon by severing his jugular vein and bleeding to death. The body was found on the railroad track a short distance west of the station. A note was found on the body, containing these words: "This is no case for inquiry. I do not wish to live any longer." Deceased was an insurance and nursery agent, and was about 65 years of age. His relatives in Hamilton have been communicated with.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

GREAT FIRE IN CLEVELAND.

A Bad Blaze in Which Some People Were Badly Burned—Some of Them May Die.

Cleveland, O., April 17.—The immense wholesale millinery establishment of Hart & Company, occupying an entire block, was burned down on Saturday. About a dozen men were cut off from escape in the Hart building, and ran to the roof and began crying for assistance. The crowd below looked on, begging the unfortunates to wait for the ladders. The firemen eventually succeeded in getting all safely to the ground. The injured so far as known are: Mary Mylet, burned about face and head, condition critical; F. J. Rockert, badly burned; Three unknown men badly burned. Several of the firemen were slightly scorched. Rockert jumped from a window and is severely injured.

The flames spread to the Franklin block, occupied by Reed Bros. & Company, wholesale millinery, and P. Black & Company, manufacturer of ladies' cloaks. The firemen succeeded in saving this building, but the loss on stock from smoke and water will be heavy. After two and a half hours the fire was brought under control. The total loss is estimated at from $600,000 to $700,000, partially covered by insurance.

Truce of the Eagle.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 15.—Considerable apprehension has been occasioned here by the announcement that the American Government has notified the Governor, Sir Augustus Hemming, that, as the proposed tariff threatens to operate against American trade, in the event of its passage retaliatory provisions will be adopted against Jamaica. The newspapers of the island regard this notification as a threat to involve the colony in financial and commercial ruin in view of the Cuban and Porto Rican industrial competition.

The Original.

There is only one remedy known that has a combined action on the kidneys and liver and cures the most complicated ailments of these delicate filtering organs, and that is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the original kidney pill. This world famous kidney and liver cure has an enormous sale in all parts of Canada and the United States.

Trouble in China.

Hongkong, April 17.—The villagers of Taipoesu, one of the newly-acquired places in the British territory on the Hongkong mainland, rebelled on Saturday and burned some British mat sheds. They are now armed and occupy the hills. Troops have been sent to quell the disturbance.

Duchess of Marlborough Dead

London, April 17.—Lady Frances Anne Emily, Duchess of Marlborough, daughter of the third Marquis of Londonderry, and widow of the seventh Duke of Marlborough, died suddenly yesterday morning of bronchial catarrh.

Warning to the Toy Trade.

Berlin, April 17.—The Prussian Minister of Commerce has issued a warning to the toy trade to prepare for a total or partial prohibition against German toys by the American Government, on the ground that they are covered with poisonous paints.

An Old Roman Bronze.

Rome, April 17.—While digging for the shore anchorage of a new bridge over the Tiber on Saturday, workmen found a highly valuable antique bronze. The piece is a candlestick, more than nine feet high, beautifully molded in a palm leaf pattern.

Earthquakes in Greece.

Athens, April 17.—Violent earthquakes occurred on Saturday in Peloponnesus, a peninsula in the south portion of Greece. Many houses collapsed at Gasconni and elsewhere, but no fatalities have been reported.

Belgian Miners Called Out.

Charleroi, Belgium, April 17.—The National Federation of Miners has issued a call for an immediate strike for a two per cent. increase in wages in all the four great coal basins of Belgium.

Duke of Devonshire to Retire.

London, April 17.—The Duke of Devonshire, speaking at Presteign, Radnorshire, Saturday, hinted at his early retirement from political life.

ORIGIN OF NONSENSE.

As an Art It Is of Comparatively Recent Date.

As a literary form, manufactured or intentional, nonsense is a comparatively recent art in English. The French in the seventeenth century began the cultivation of a form of verse which they called amphigouri and which in the eighteenth grew into extraordinary popularity. An amphigouri was a bit of rhyme without reason, a meaningless rigmarole in verse. It was not until our own age, however, that nonsense literature was brought to perfection by Lewis Carroll and Edmund Lear, who still hold their ground against all imitators. It was in 1846 that Edmund Lear commenced the publication of those famous little five line nonsense verses which made his first fame.

The form was not original with him. Mr. Lear himself, in the preface of his third book, where he laughs at "the persistently absurd report" that the Earl of Derby was the author of the first "Book of Nonsense," is careful to acknowledge his indebtedness to certain nursery rhymes beginning, "There was an old man of Tobago," which were suggested to him by a valued friend as a form of verse lending itself to limitless variety for rhymes and pictures. "The Old Man of Tobago" is in the "Arundines Cami," which was published in the year 1841 and is said there to be taken from "Gammer Gurton." "Gammer Gurton's Garland" appeared first in 1784 and afterward, with additions, in 1810. The lines, "There was an old woman of Ealing, who jumped till her head touched the ceiling," appeared in the "History of Sixteen Wonderful Old Women, Illustrated by Many Engravings Exhibiting Their Principal Eccentricities and Amusements," which was printed in London in 1821.

Queer Hiding Place.

The fancy for secret drawers and out of the way hiding places is a curious trait with many people. A Chicago electrician tells that while following up the wire of an electric bell in a North Side house his search led him behind a door. Kneeling down, he rested his hand on the wooden knob fastened in the wall to prevent the door handle from touching the plaster and was surprised to find it yield to his grasp. A slight pull disclosed the fact that it was the handle of a secret drawer which was almost filled with jewels, watches and money.

Hearing an exclamation behind him, he looked up to find the lady of the house bending over him, apparently horror stricken. Without speaking he closed the drawer and resumed his search for the wire, and, though neither mentioned the incident, the lady kept her eyes on him until he finished his work and left the house.

A Singular Contest.

In the days of the younger Pitt Orlando Wray, a then leader of fashion, backed himself against another dandy, believed to be Viscount Croghan, to tie cravats at a guinea a time. The match took place at Tunbridge Wells. George Selwyn was judge. The rival bowmakers sat back to back facing mirrors, and their valets handed them the cravats. It is related that Viscount Croghan's chief valet fainted, either from excitement or fatigue, at the fifty-ninth cravat. The contest lasted about nine hours, and Wray won it after a most exciting finish. A considerable amount of money was wagered on the contest, and one of Wray's supporters won 300 guineas on it.

A Refreshing Style.

The art of quotation requires delicacy in practice. An already famous firm has originated and developed into very promising advertising a mass of old, quaint proverbs. We refer to Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, who are using not only our columns, but of thousands of ourcontemporaries, in adapting wise saws to their service by clever and practical turns. It is refreshing to see something new and bright in this line. Clean cut argument is better than big display type.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practising. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practising; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which delights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3.70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4.35
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$13.00 Spring Overcoats for	9.00
$11.00 Spring Overcoats for	7.50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5 20
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

has removed to the rooms over Oak Hall formerly occupied by Mr. Shaw, the artist, hall entrance on George street. He will be pleased to show you nobby sample ranges of new covert overcoatings, tweed and serge suitings and worsted trouserings for spring wear. These include the fashionable mixtures and weaves with new and popular effects. The goods he is selling at cost; for instance, fine covert overcoats, made to order as they should be made, only $12. Fine worsted trousers at a big price cut, only $3.50; why buy ready mades? Every age and style is met — every desire is assured. Ladies' tailoring in all designs.—Geo. Ball, over Oak Hall. 30

FRACTURED A LEG.

Fell From a Trunk Amongst Ten Kegs of Rennet.

Mr. George T. Gerrans, London st., who is employed as driver of Mr. C. H. Moore's delivery wagon, met with a serious accident this morning, which resulted in the fracture of his leg.

He was engaged in drawing rennet from the station to Mr. Moore's warehouse and when bringing the team to the rear door, drove over a heap of manure which resulted in the tilting of the truck to such an extent that the rennet, which was in 150 pound kegs, rolled off, carrying Mr. Gerran's with it.

As there were about ten kegs and Mr. Gerrans fell in amongst them, it was feared at first that he was killed and he may congratulate himself that no more injury resulted than the fracture of a leg.

The injured man was removed to the Nicholls Hospital, where the fracture was reduced by Dr. Young.

OBITUARY.

Death of Mr. Samuel Oliver White on Sunday Morning.

The death occurred early Sunday morning of Samuel Oliver White, aged twenty-four years, son of the late Samuel White, at the family residence, No. 273 Charlotte street. The deceased has been ill for about a year and has been confined to his room for nearly that period of time. Lung troubles with other complications was the cause of death. The funeral which took place to the Little Lake cemetery this afternoon, was largely attended.

NEWS NUGGETS.

Paragraphs Picked Up and Pencilled for Public Perusal.

— Otonabee Lodge, I.O.O.F., meets this evening.

—Lindsay has voted $50 towards fighting the caterpillars.

—The Committee on appointments met this evening at five o'clock.

—Members of the 57th are congratulating Sgt Major Peters on the occassion of the first daughter in the family.

—The manufacture of maple syrup in the north is being hampered by the deep snow, and the quantity made will be small.

—Two excellent photo enlargements are on exhibition in Mr. H. Edmison's drug store window. Mr. John Best is the local agent for the work.

—Superior photographs taken at J. W. Green & Son's studio, Hunter street by daylight during the day, and by electric light at night. See samples in window. dtf

—The snowplows were out bright and early yesterday morning, but before they had completed their rounds they had a rival in Old Sol, whose rays did much to clear the sidewalks.

—The road scraper was used with good effect on the north side of Hunter street today. The south side has the appearance of being so frozen up that ice will be found there for weeks to come.

—Robert McDonald, hailing from Lindsay, was arrested in a drunken condition on Saturday evening by P. C. McGinty. He resisted arrest and in the struggle McGinty was liberally beplastered with mud and had his thumb bitten. This morning McDonald acknowledged being drunk, but plead "not guilty" to the charge of resisting arrest. He was remanded until Wednesday.

THE CENTRAL EXHIBITION.

Arrangements All Complete for the Spring Stallion Show on Saturday.

The directors of the Peterborough Central Exhibition met on Saturday afternoon in the council chamber with Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald, president in the chair, and Messrs. Bennett, Vance, Baptie, Davidson, Stothart, Kennedy, Elliott, Garbutt and Hunter also present.

The secretary was instructed to receive sealed tenders for the rent of the grounds as pasture land, on certain conditions, which will be be made known to those intending to tender, at his office up to noon of the 29th inst.

The Board secured a further lease of the lands held by them for a further period of five years.

Committees were appointed to wait on hotel keepers, merchants and professional men of the town for the purpose of soliciting donations. They will also wait on the town and county councils with the same purpose.

The Spring Stallion Show which is to be held on the market square on the 29th inst., promises to be more attractive than ever before and more entries are expected than hitherto in both the light and heavy classes. Keen competition is expected for the handsome silver medal donated by the Bank of Commerce.

A. SAWERS.

THE COTTINGHAM FIRE.

A Few Further Particulars Concerning It—Mr. R. W. Errett was Present.

Mr. R. W. Errett, of town, is one the few surviving witnesses of the Cottingham fire in 1843, an account of which was contained in Saturday's Examiner.

Mr. Errett states that he assisted next day, in rescuing the remains of the six victims of from the ruins of the house. The bodies were burnt to a cinder and the remains of the entire six were placed in a soap box.

Mr. Cottingham was married three times. His first wife was Mary Huston, sister of Mr. Jos. Huston, formerly of town. The second marriage was contracted with Mary Hughes, sister of Josiah L. Hughes, who was assistant to Rev. Dr. Taylot in the old grammar school. The third wife was Lucy Jellett, of Cobourg and it was the children of this latter union who moved into Peterborough after the death of their father. The children of the first union were Olivia, now Mrs. Harris, of Weston, and Capt. W. H. Cottingham, Crown Lands Agent in the Northwest Territories.

I. O. O. F. NOTES.

Oddfellows will Attend Worship on Sunday Next in the Mark Street Church.

The members of Peterborough Lodge, N;o. 111, and of Otanabee Lodge No. 13, will attend divine services at Mark street church, Ashburnham, on Sunday evening, April 23, when the sermon will be preached by Bro. Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph. B. The Oddfellows will meet at their hall at 6:15 sharp, and will leave the hall at 6:30. All visiting brethren will be welcome as usual.

Next Thursday evening several candidates from Pontypool and Havelock will have the three degrees conferred by the degree team of Peterborough Lodge at the regular meeting of that lodge.

THE TIME OF HIGH WATER.

It will be Higher than Usual this year on Account of Deep Snow in the Back Country.

The water in the Otonabee is gradually rising, though the ice has not as yet disappeared from the back lakes.

Those in a position to know, say that the water will probably be high this spring and remain so during the summer. Though there has been but little snow in this immediate neighborhood, all through the northern townships of Victoria and Peterborough counties, and throughout Haliburton, the head waters of the Otonabee, there has been a very heavy snowfall. An old resident has remarked that fifty years ago the Otonabee never reached high water mark until the middle of June, whereas during late years about May 10th, saw the river at its height. This change of date could doubtless be ascribed to the gradual clearing away of the original forests.

THEIR FOURTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

Special Meetings of the Salvation Army in the Simcoe Street Barracks.

The local corps of the Salvation Army are celebrating their fourteenth anniversary by a series of special meetings, which are being well attended, and which partake of much of the old-time enthusiasm of former years. A number of Toronto officers, led by Brigadier Fredericks, editor of the War Cry, are present at the barracks, assisting the local officers, Adjutant Aikenhead, and Capt. French, in the proper celebration of the occasion. Some of the visitors play with considerable taste and skill on various musical instruments, and several instrumental quartettes were rendered at each meeting yesterday in a pleasing manner.

At the leader of the meeting remarked yesterday afternoon, the Salvation Army had experienced many vicissitudes—many ups and downs—during its fourteen years in Peterborough. Though many had connected themselves with the Army, numbers had fallen by the wayside, many had moved away, and some had gone to a better world, yet the first convert of the Salvation Army in Peterborough still marched behind the S. A. flag. Numbers of other soldiers of ten and twelve years standing could also be pointed to as evidence of the stability of the work accomplished.

There will be another special meeting to-night, when "Living Shadows" will be presented on a canvas.

CHURCH CHIMES.

Celebration of the Holy Communion took place in St. Paul's church yesterday.

The evening anthem in St. Andrew's church was entitled "Jesus, thou art standing."

Miss Falconer's solo in St. Andrew's last evening was fully appreciated. It was entitled "Come unto Me."

The anthem "Drifting Down the Stream" was sung during the offertory in the Charlotte street church last evening.

In the services in St. John's and All Saint's churches yesterday reference was made to the 100th anniversary of the Church Missionary Society.

Rev. J. E. Bastow, pastor of the Murray street Baptist church preached a very interesting sermon yesterday morning from the text "He must reign."

"Jubilate Deo" was sung as a morning anthem in the Charlotte street church. The trio parts were taken by the soprano, alto and tenor voices. "Zion Awake" was the evening anthem.

The choir in the Murray street church sang as an anthem last evening the selection "Not a Sparrow Falleth." Mr. George Matthews took the solo and Miss Hutchinson with Mr. G. K. Martin th eduet.

The services in George street church last evening were largely attended, and the service of song was much appreciated. The musical service was rendered as follows: Hymn anthem, "Hear our prayer," solo contralto, Miss Pascoe and the choir. Anthem, "Holy Father, Great Creator." Solo, "Dream of Paradise," Gray, Mrs. Chambers. Duet, "Prayer of the Wanderer," Miss Clara Belleghem and Mr. Walden.

Rev. D. O. Crossley preached in Charlotte street church both morning and evening. The morning sermon was from the text "When I became a man I put away childish things." The central thought running through the discourse was "Life is too serious a matter to be conducted by childish notions. It requires the exercise of the highest intelligence we possess, and of manly qualities to conduct it safely." The evening sermon was a continuation of the previous Sunday evening's subject on the Prodigal Son.

Rev. S. J. Shorey and Rev. J. G. Potter exchanged pulpits yesterday morning. In St. Andrew's church Mr. Shorey spoke from the text "Learn from Me." Mr. Potter's text in the George street Methodist church was from 1st Corinthians, iv ch., 20th ver, "For the kingdom of God is not in words but in power." The religion of Christ, he stated, was not in accordance with what might be said, but with what was done. It does not exist in external observance so much as in inward graces—not in profession but reality.

Mark Street Church Notes.

The pastor, Rev. J. E. Moore, Ph. B., occupied the pulpit on Sunday and preached two very helpful sermons. The morning text was Isaiah 26:3. In the evening the story of Zaccheus formed the basis of his discourse. Good congregations were present at both services.

The Sabbath School at 2:30 was well attended.

Interest in the League is increasing and the attendance has consequently been larger.

Prayer meeting this week will be at 7:30 on Wednesday evening, as th efinance committee meets at 8:30 the same evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society meets at Mrs. Robert Hamilton's on Wednesday, April 19, at 3 o'clock.

Next Sunday evening the Oddfellows will attend divine service in this church, the sermon to be preached by Rev. Bro. J. E. Moore, Ph. B. The centre seats and the front side seats will be reserved for the Oddfellows.

No Doubt of It.

A Collegiate Institute girl who had accidentally exchanged umbrellas with a school-fellow sent this school-fellow the following on a note: "Miss A, presents her compliments to Miss B., and begs to say that she has an umbrella which isn't mine; so if you have one that isn't her's, no doubt they are the ones.'

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

Lionel King will be on the Toronto University team on their American tour.

The Newmarket Lacrosse Club are getting new uniforms, which will be a bright green shirt, white bands round the neck, wristbands and bottom. They are getting them from a good man, J. E. Montgomery, brother of "Monte," who captained the Peterborough hockey team for several years.

Charlie Shore, late of the Capitals, and now with the Orangeville lacrosse men, is working in a tailor store in that town. Paddy Kelly, who is also in Orangeville, is getting his muscle up by working in the marble works. George Donaldson is now there, and Whitehead, of Brampton and O'Brien, of Perth, will play in Orangeville this year.

Lacrosse practice may begin next week if the weather will allow. The P.A.A.A. grounds are almost dry.

The Toronto News says Lionel King the centre fielder of last year's Peterborough twelve, has taken on much avoidupois since the cessation of hockey, and will be in prime shape for a season's hard lacrosse.

The Telegram says: Peterborough thinks they will win their district in the C.L.A., as they will have a very strong twelve this year. This is what every team says at the beginning of the lacrosse season, but Peterborough really has a good team. A very prominent lacrosse man said yesterday that the Tecumsehs will not be strong this year, but Bill Hartley laughs at this, and says they will have a grand team. They certainly should play good ball this season, having plenty of men to pick from. James Stuart Macdonald will cast his lot with them, and anything he dosen't know about the game isn't worth knowing, besides being a great stick handler.

HOCKEY.

The Toronto Telegram of Saturday contains the following obituary paragraph: Little Stanley Bradd, aged 16 years, died Thursday in Peterborough. He was one of the cleverest junior hockey and football players down there, and was a member of their Colts that came up here last winter.

THE WHEEL.

Mr. Thos. Barrie received official notification this morning of his appointment as local Consul, by District Consul Hoag, of Kingston. Since the securing of the C.W.A. meet last July, a reaction appears to have set in, in Peterborough and the interest in the Association has died out in a degree. This is not as it should be, as the benefits to be derived from connection with the C.W.A., are manifest. Amongst the most important of the advantages which membership ensures is the half rate charges by the railways on wheel transportation; the fact that no duty is charged on wheels, if a membership card is shown on crossing the lines into the United States and last, but not least, the satisfaction of knowing that in the case of being unjustifiably crowded by a horse, the Association is ready to take the responsibility of fighting the case in the courts.

Mr. Barrie should be successful in booking a large local membership for the C.W.A. this year.

PISCATORIAL.

The law in regard to speckled trout provides that the close season shall be between September 15 and May 1. Recently the deputy minister of fisheries for Ontario, Mr. S. T. Bastedo, sought an opinion from the Dominion minister of marine and fisheries as to whether the close season included both dates mentioned. A communication from Ottawa has been received giving an opinion in the affirmative from the minister. Mr. Bastedo also wishes to have the attention of the fish dealers drawn to the fact that by the laws just passed in the Ontario Legislature they are prohibited from exposing for sale bass that are less than ten inches in length. It is stated that a great many dealers are selling small bass in ignorance of the new regulations. The work of inspection will probably commence very soon.

BASEBALL.

The baseball club will reorganize for the season at the Oriental hotel, on Wednesday evening. All enthusiasts should be there.

The annual meeting of the Millbrook Baseball Club was held in the Queen's hotel, on Friday evening last, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—W. T. Wood.
Vice-President—H. A. Maddock.
Secretary—E. S. Clarry.
Treasurer—T. H. Stinson.
Captain—B. C. Whyte.
Committee of Management—E. Burnham, L. Russell and A. Craig.

The team is anxious to arrange a game for the 24th.

A BELMONT WEDDING.

Nuptials of Miss Margaret Sexsmith and Mr. Gilbert A. Barton.

A quiet and very pretty wedding place on Wednesday last, April 5th, at the residence of Mrs. Margaret L. Sexsmith, of Belmont, when her youngest daughter, Margaret was united in marriage to Mr. Gilbert A. Barton, of Rawdon, by the Rev. Mr. Sanderson, of Blairton.

The bride was attired in a beautiful costume of cream cashmere, trimmed with satin and lace, and wore a veil and orange blossoms. Miss Hattie, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. She was gowned in cream silk trimmed with pink roses and lace. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Leonard Barton, of Rawdon.

After the ceremony the wedding party partook of a sumptuous repast.

The bride received a large number of handsome presents.

After their return from a tour west they will take up their residence in Rawdon, where they will be followed by the best wishes of a large circle of of friends.

Vim Vigor Vitality

WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

VIM—to work and to win—to keep a sane mind in a sound body—to laugh at worry.

VIGOR—to ward off disease—to conquer obstacles—to transmit health and strength to your posterity.

VITALITY—to resist the fearful strain and tension of modern life—to make up for the constant drains of overwork. Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills confer all these essential qualities on the user.

THIS EVIDENCE IS AMPLE PROOF.

Before using Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills I felt weak, nervous and run down. I had lost weight steadily for some time; my circulation was poor; hands, feet and limbs were cold. I always felt weak and my muscles trembled. Now, after the use of one box of Dr. Ward's Pills, I feel like my old self. I have gained five pounds in weight and 100 per cent. in cheerfulness. I now walk firmly, my muscular system is strong and my blood circulates vigorously. I have more comfort than I have experienced in years. Dr. Ward's Pills have done more for me than any medicine I ever took.

BOILEAU DENIES THE RUMORS.

The Death of Miss St. Onge at Bois Franc Causing Much Talk.

Maniwaki, Que., April 17.—The tragic death of Miss St. Onge, at Bois Franc, is causing a great amount of gossip and excitement here. The majority are of the opinion that she was murdered. The man Boileau, in whose house she was found killed, has arrived here. He denies the rumors afloat implicating him, and refused to let the body be touched or removed from the house until the inquest was held. He claims that the girl may have met her death in falling off the chair near which her body was found. The coroner has not arrived here yet. Boileau is apparently about 45 years of age and was formerly a resident of Ottawa, where his parents still reside. No arrest will be made till after the autopsy.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

SUICIDE BY DROWNING.

A Howick Farmer's Rash Act While Temporarily Insane.

Gorrie, Ont., April 17.—A sad calamity took place yesterday morning, when George Saunders, who resided about five miles from Gorrie, on the 12th concession of Howick, committed suicide by drowning himself in the north branch of the River Maitland, about 80 rods from his father's farm. It is believed that he has been temporarily insane for some time, and when his friends missed him, on searching, they noticed foot marks in last night's fall of snow and traced them to the bank. On making diligent search they recovered the body.

Mr. Perkin's Body Found.

Chatham Boy Drowned.

Chatham, Ont., April 17.—While playing on the sheet piling near the Mewer House, St. Clair flats, Clifford Bradley, the 4-year-old son of George Bradley of Port Lambton, slipped and fell on the moving ice and from the ice slipped into the water and was drowned. His body has not yet been recovered, and it will be very difficult to find, as the ice flow is too strong to permit dragging.

All Three Men Drowned.

Deseronto, Ont., April 17.—Three fishermen named Jacob Oak, George and William Vanwark left here about 6.45 on Saturday night in a small boat for their home near Powless Ferry. Sunday morning the skiff was found drifting bottom upward near the Rathbun Company's docks. On investigation it appears that all three men have been drowned.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Prompt by by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

A REINCARNATED DOG.

He Hadn't Lost His Human Traits in the Process.

"You can't tell me there is nothing in the theory of reincarnation," remarked a traveling man, "for I know there is. I was down in Florida recently, and in St. Augustine I saw a snob dog—an out and out snob. His name is Towser, and he is just a common yellow dog, lives in the street and belongs to no one.

"In the summer, when no wealthy northern people are in the town, he plays with all the middle class children and dogs and will greet patronizingly the middle class men and women who know him. But in the winter, as soon as the season begins, he attaches himself to some rich New York family, loafs in their yard, tags their footsteps or carriages all about the city, attends them to church and home again and so far as he is able makes himself one of them. For his meals he has been forced to resort to the back yards of a plain, good woman, who pities him and feeds him regularly. He is friendly with her at his eating hours, but never so far forgets himself as to wag his tail at her on the street or when he is with more pretentious people.

"When society functions take place in St. Augustine, there is Towser. Golf matches, afternoon teas, picnics or boating parties, all are attended by him with most conventional regularity. He never greets any ordinary acquaintance when thus socially engaged and has even been known not to eat for several days when a fashionable wedding was on his mind. With the swell dogs of St. Augustine Towser never has any rows, having, no doubt, studied the politic art of being agreeable, but with commoner cuts he is irritable and defensive. That dog has been human in his time, and I'd give a penny to know who he was."

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS THE REMEDY TO KEEP PEOPLE PAST MID-LIFE STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

Any person advanced in years who is troubled with palpitation or any heart weakness, nervousness, sleeplessness, impaired memory, lack of energy and vitality, will find nothing equal to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for restoring the health and strength and keeping the energy and activity unimpaired.

Mrs. C. H. Dobson, a fine old lady living on Steadman Street, Moncton, N. B., made the following statement:

"I am 70 years of age, and do not like to exert myself very much, but it is a pleasure to tell how much I value those wonderful Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I have been troubled for some time with a pain in my left side and a fluttering around my heart, which weakened me so that I was scarcely able to move.

"The least excitement would jar my nerves, and my heart would almost leap into my throat. My appetite was poor and I was very miserable indeed.

"I took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and got great relief and am still continuing their use. They have allayed the fluttering sensation around my heart, improved my appetite very much, and I do not hesitate to recommend them as an excellent remedy for all heart and nerve troubles."

BRAIN FAG

Is the result of Overwork and an Exhausted Nervous System. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food creates New Brain and Nerve Tissue.

Business and professional men, accountants, stenographers, teachers, students and all brain workers know only too well what it means to have the brain so tired out that concentration of thought is almost impossible.

One-fifth of all the blood in the human body is found in the brain, and unless the blood is pure and rich the brain becomes exhausted for want of proper nourishment.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Blood Food creates new brain and nerve tissue, and produces rich red blood, "the vital fluid" of the body.

All brain workers quickly recognize the merits of this great food cure, and after a few doses enter on their work with new energy and ambition.

Brain fag is unknown to persons whose brain and nerve have been invigorated by the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, which is for sale by all dealers at 50c. a box.

Dr. Chase's New Book, "The Ills of Life and How To Cure Them," sent free to your address. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

AMONG THE CANNIBALS.

A Traveler's Experience With the Man Eaters of West Africa.

Mr. P. A. McCann has had 19 years' actual residence in west Africa. Mr. McCann's seven years' trading and residence with the cannibal tribes of the French Gaboon probably form the most exciting part of his experiences. He got friendly with them and thoroughly studied their habits and customs. They quite believed that the white men ate white men as they themselves eat their fellow blacks. A big chief offered Mr. McCann the smoked thigh of a native. This was considered a gracious act. To refuse it would be unfriendly. Mr. McCann was in a dilemma.

But he feigned illness, said he was not eating just then. The chief eventually put the matter off good naturedly by saying he supposed the white man preferred white man to eat instead of black man. "The Mpongwes," said Mr. McCann, "are in ferocious and pugnacious qualities second to no other tribe in Africa. Their villages mostly consist of a single street from 600 to 1,500 yards long, on each side of which are the houses. In these houses they cook, eat and sleep and keep their store of provisions, the chief of which is smoked game and smoked human flesh, hung up to the rafters.

"Although ferocious and quarrelsome to a degree, they are very industrious. They show considerable skill in the manufacture of pottery, and the designs of their cooking pots, water jars, tobacco pipes and palm wine bottles are extremely artistic. In ironwork they are also skillful workers. Although they kill game for food, they much prefer human meat to any other."—London Globe.

ONLY FOUR BOXES

Of Dodd's Kidney Pills were Needed to Cure Mr. Willis.

Woodstock, Ont., April 3. — There are many Woodstock people who owe their good health, and others who are indebted for their lives to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Among the former is Mr. Masa Willis, 295 Dundas street, who has recently made his story public.

"For several years," says Mr. Willis, "I have suffered from Kidney Troubles, pain in the small of my back, etc. I got slight relief from some of the various medicines I used. My son, who was cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills, urged me to try them. I did so. I have used four boxes and can safely say I am cured."

Mrs. Chinner—Tell him I am coming to speak to him.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

A BROKEN PANE OF GLASS.

One That Once Cost Citizen George Francis Train $80,000.

A broken window pane once cost George Francis Train more than $80,000. It was this way: Citizen Train, "with the brains of 20 men in his head, all pulling different ways," went to Omaha in the spring of 1864. At that time he was the most talked of man in America. He had not a thing but money. He bought 5,000 city lots, and altogether spent several hundred thousand dollars. He boarded at the Herndon House, the best hotel in sight. The quixotic Train was regular in only one thing—his habits. He always occupied the same seat at the table. One morning a pane of glass was broken out of a window directly behind his chair. He protested and was advised to change his seat. He would not. Instead he paid a servant 10 cents a minute to stand between him and the draft. After breakfast he expostulated with the landlord, but received no satisfaction.

"Never mind," said Train. "In 60 days I will build a hotel that will ruin your business."

And he did. The contract was let that day. Scores of men were put to work. The site selected was Ninth and Harney streets, near the Missouri river. Citizen Train went to New York and engaged Colonel Cozzens, a noted caterer of that city, as manager for his hotel.

The building alone cost $40,000. The furnishings cost $20,000 more. In the basement was a gas plant—the only one west of St. Louis. The work was done on time, and, true to his word, 60 days after he threatened the manager of the Herndon House George Francis Train, citizen of the earth, opened his hotel, which he called the Cozzens House. The grand opening ball was attended by the governor of Nebraska and his staff, the mayor of Omaha and many notables from other states. The house was a blaze of glory and a scene of almost oriental magnificence. Just when the big reception was well on there was a sudden flash, a strange noise, and then—total darkness! The gas plant had collapsed.

The Cozzens House did a flourishing business for a year or two and the Herndon House was badly crippled. Finally Train fell out with his manager and the place was closed.

After the business part of Omaha moved back from the river the Herndon House declined and finally relapsed into a state of innocuous desuetude. A few years later it became the property of the Union Pacific railroad and is still used as the headquarters of that company in Omaha.

Dr. H. H. Hibbard, a St. Louis dentist, was the first clerk of the Cozzens House.

A GIRL'S AGE.

Feminine Attractions Do Not End With the Teens.

Habit still clings to the idea that a girl's age is either her pride or her shame, a thing for which she is to be incessantly applauded or which is to be softened off and made as easy for her as possible, says a writer in Munsey's. The humorist papers still represent the world as making jokes about Miss Elderleigh and Miss Passay; but, as a matter of fact, Miss Elderleigh and Miss Passay do all the joking there is on the subject themselves. The girl of the period has no more reticence about her years than she has about her appetite, displaying both with humorous frankness and having only scorn for the old fashioned person who would shroud her birth year in mystery.

"I'm 29, and if I couldn't get the better of that fact in people's eyes I'd give up society and take to boys' clubs," said one young woman. "Girls who fib about their age are practically acknowledging that their only power is their youthfulness and that there is nothing else in them. Well, it's their fault if it's true!"

Sweet 17 is still the age of supreme charm from the public standpoint, but as individuals we know better. A girl in her teens is too imperfectly acquainted with herself to be interesting, and by the modern standards she must be interesting even though she is beautiful. Her conversation is always concrete and generally impersonal in spite of youthful egotism, while the present ideals call for the abstract and the personal. Her vitality and freshness can no longer counterbalance this lack, for there is not now such a decided contrast between her and her older sister in this respect. A national influx of common sense has granted the latter a new lease of youth, and the disappearance of the tradition that one must be an old maid because one does not marry has given her a rejuvenating freedom from responsibility.

From 23 to 28 years, or, some say, from 25 to 30, are now the best years of a girl's life, her climax of power, for she is then gaining valuable mental ground without serious outward loss. She has discovered others and is beginning to discover herself. The first wild, restless vanity is over, and yet the world still glitters with possibilities. She has not caught up with her future, and things are still worth while.

The Power of a Cyclone.

Careful estimates of the force of a cyclone and the energy required to keep a full fledged hurricane in active operation reveal the presence of a power that makes the mightiest efforts of man appear as nothing in comparison. A force fully equal to 473,000,000 horsepower was estimated as developed in a West Indian cyclone. This is about 15 times the power that is creatable by all the means within the range of man's capabilities during the same time. Were steam, water, windmills and the strength of all men and all animals combined, they could not at all approach the tremendous force exerted by this terrible storm.

"Dimness of sight, palpitation, shortness of breath, black spots or else shining lights before my eyes, terrible headache, numbness in my arms and hands and tongue, also my jaws would get numb; constipation, prolapsus, debilitating drains, soreness through my bowels; in fact I was diseased from head to foot," writes Mrs. Mollie E. Lisaria, Cumberland Co., Tenn. "When I first wrote to Dr. Pierce concerning my health, I was so weak I could only write a few words when I would have to rest. I could hardly walk. Words cannot express my sufferings. Now I can do my own washing and cooking. I can take a ten quart pail in one hand and a six quart pail in the other (full of water) and carry both one fourth of a mile and never stop to rest. I am as heavy as I was at 19 years (125 lbs). I also had dimness of sight and impaired memory. I had spells that when I would try to speak I couldn't think of the words I wanted to say, but would say something else. I have improved, oh, so much, and Dr. Pierce's medicines have done the good work. It has been about a year since I commenced to use the medicines. My health has been improving slowly but surely. We cannot expect a disease that has been coming on for years to be cured in a few days. If any lady suffering as I have, will write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., and get his advice and use his medicines according to directions, a cure will surely result."

Most dealers in medicine sell Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There is no other medicine that is "the same" or "just as good." Don't accept a substitute.

Where the Crabs Come In.

When a school of menhaden make their way into a bay, they may stay for days swimming around in one region. Larger fishes, including perhaps some sharks, feed upon them there. From such feeding there are more or less fragments that sink down through the water, and the various crabs and other crustaceans come scuttling from all parts of the bay to get them. It may be that the tide carries some of the litter about, or perhaps the crabs and other creatures smell it, as bluefish scent the bait that is used in chumming, but when a school of menhaden are preyed upon at the surface all the crabs in the bay congregate on the mud below to catch the crumbs that fall.—New York Sun.

How Genius Succeeds.

Our paternal relatives don't know it all. Riley's father wanted to make a lawyer out of him; it was thought that Bret Harte would make a first class carpenter; it was Mr. Gilder's idea that they wanted him to be a job printer; Hamlin Garland started as a farmer and is still a farmer, but makes enough out of literature to keep the farm going. But Hopkinson Smith is of all trades. When he isn't building a viaduct, he is painting a landscape, and when he's tired of that diversion he whirls in and writes a novel which sells 30,000 copies every 30 days.—Atlanta Constitution.

Unparalleled Economy.

"I do think," said Mrs. Dukane, "that Miss Oakland carries her economical ideas to an unwarranted extreme."

"In what particular?" asked Mrs. Gaswell.

"She always buys her valentines on the 15th of February, when the dealers will sell them for almost nothing rather than put them away, and then she keeps them and sends them the following year."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

A WOMAN'S REASON.

Why the Homely Man Was Entitled to Her Husband's Vote.

There is a government official now on duty in Washington whose face would shoo the doors of a beauty show with a snap before he could get within a mile of it, and yet he is not unhappy. On the contrary, he has a sunny nature that makes his face a flower garden all the year round. The only criticism that can be made of him is that he is as conceited about his homeliness as handsome men are about their beauty. That may be unusual, but it is true. The other day he was talking on the subject of his looks.

"Ten years or more ago," he said, "I was a candidate for congress in my state, with no show to win, but plenty of enthusiasm in the good cause. I had been making a tour of the district, delivering speeches, and at one place I remained overnight at a farmhouse in lieu of a tavern. I retired early, and about an hour later I heard the host and his wife come into their room, which adjoined mine, with a rather loosely hung door between the two apartments. I presume they thought I was asleep, because they talked along so I could very easily hear. I was not interested in their conversation, however, until they began to talk about me. It was general at first, and then it narrowed down to my personality, the woman arguing for me like a good fellow.

"At last she explained, 'Why, John, you owe it to the teaching of the Bible to vote for him and to work for him too.' John couldn't exactly see why, and I rose on my elbow to hear the line of argument. 'You do,' she explained, 'because you have no right to make his burden any heavier than the Lord made it for him in the first place. You ought to do all you can for a man with a face like his to make him forget it.'"

Canadian Horse Show.

Toronto, April 15.—The attendance yesterday was phenomenal, and the horses shown warranted the attention they received. Nearly every competing class was full to overflowing, and a noble lot of animals they were. In the evening the best performance over six jumps was contested by 17 horses, and was very exciting. The highest jump was five feet. To-day, the last day of the show, there will be three performances, at 10, at 2 and at 8 p.m.

No Mystery

The Sherwin-Williams Paints are not patent paints, nor chemical paints, but pure white lead and zinc and oil and drier and color and nothing else.

These make honest paints that cover most and best, and wear longest.

There is a reason why these are the best paints. This reason is not a secret nor a mystery. It is because by hard study, hard work and patient improvement for thirty years we have made the best paints that can be made—

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

The prejudice which many sensible people have against ready-mixed paints is due to the number of inferior mixtures sold in cans. No one doubts to-day that paint can be made with the latest scientific appliances better than can be mixed from the raw materials by hand-work and guesswork. The moral is plain. Buy ready-mixed paints in which you have absolute confidence. The paints with the best reputation. The Sherwin-Williams Paints. Send for booklet "Paint Points." Free.

STOCKYARDS FOR LINDSAY.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy Makes a Proposition to the Lindsay Council and Board of Trade.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy appeared before a joint meeting of the Lindsay Council and Board of Trade Friday evening in connection with his offer to locate stock yards in that town if granted a bonus of $10,000, free site of five acres, exemption for ten years and free light and water.

The Post reports the matter as follows:

On motion Mr. Kennedy was heard relative to his stock yards scheme. He explained that a very large trade has developed in the Midland district during the past couple of years in handling "stockers" for the western states. Last season he had handled over 6,000 head, employed 12 buyers, and 75 per cent. of the cattle sold free on board cars at Peterborough. The shipping of stockers to Toronto or Buffalo markets was unsatisfactory and very expensive; the managers do not cater to the western trade, and permit dealers to labour under many annoyances not felt by those handling butchers' or export animals. As a result delays in selling are frequent and lengthy, and as hay costs $20 a ton in the Toronto yards and $30 in Buffalo, and other necessities are equally dear, there were strong reasons for establishing stock yards for cattle at Peterborough, Lindsay, or some other point in the centre of a good stock district. The buyers would gladly flock to any town where a good market was established. Mr. Kennedy next read a number of letters from U. S. dealers in proof of his statement that the demand for stockers was brisk and likely to continue so. By boycotting Toronto and Buffalo markets at least $2 a head would be saved in expenses, and farmers would receive probably $1 per head more for their stockers than at present. The joint stock company which he represented approached Peterborough Council and that body felt disposed to treat the scheme fairly; the site selected was a very suitable for the purpose, being located between the C.P.R. and G.T.R. tracks, but the property owners in the vicinity objected and the council did not feel they were justified in disregarding their representations. He now wished to know how Lindsay would view the proposition. The town that secures the stock yards will also benefit by the trade in export animals, as the company proposes to establish a fund out of which rebates would be paid to shippers of export cattle in order to attract buyers. Export animals have often to be held a couple of weeks waiting for vessel space, and could be held here for little money, and the same with sheep, which could be put on pasture until shipping day."

Alderman Lennon — "How many hands would you employ."

Mr. Kennedy—"I'm not prepared to say; my wage list last season amounted to about $500 a month."

Mr. Kennedy said the company proposed to ask the town and county for a bonus of $10,000, to be set aside to form a fund from which to pay rebates to buyers of export cattle.

Mr. Graham—"What would be the cost of the buildings?"

Mr. Kennedy—"Well, the buildings would not at first cost more than $5,000, but the capital of the company would be $40,000. The trade would continue all year if the buyers of export cattle could be attracted."

President Flavelle—"Supposing that we offer the $15,000, what guarantee can you give that the yards will be maintained?"

Mr. Kennedy—"Probably I have been misunderstood; we propose to set the $10,000 bonus aside as a fund from which to pay rebates to shippers of export cattle."

Mr. F. C. Taylor enquired if the town had power to grant a bonus even if willing—he understood they could not do so under the new legislation.

Town Solicitor Hopkins briefly explained the situation from a legal standpoint, declaring that it would be practically impossible to grant either a bonus or exemption.

Mr. Taylor—"Well, my question brought out something; I fancy the giving of a site would be equivalent to a bonus and perhaps the rebates also."

Mr. Taylor—"I suppose we could purchase a lot and lease it to the company?"

Solicitor Hopkins—"Toronto owns large blocks of lands in the city limits, and I fancy it will evade the law against bonusing industries by leasing sites for industries at a low rental."

It was then moved by Alderman Scotheran, seconded by Alderman Ingle, that Mayor Walters and Messrs. J. D. Flavelle, Graham, Taylor, Horn and Ingle be a committee to further confer with Mr. Kennedy relative to the establishment of a live stock yard in Lindsay, and report at a future joint meeting.—Carried.

WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Lena M. Cooper, of Clarke, and Mr. Hilliard Caldwell, of Perrytown.

A very pretty Easter wedding took place on Wednesday, April 5th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cooper, Clarke, when their youngest daughter, Lena Maud, was married to Mr. Hilliard Caldwell, of Perrytown. About seventy of the friends and relatives of the bride and groom assembled to witness the ceremony, which was performed at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Mr. McKeen, Presbyterian pastor, of Orono.

The bride looked charming in a dress of pale blue, trimmed with cream satin and pearls, while the bridesmaid, Miss Helen Caldwell, of Port Hope, was very becomingly attired in flowered mousseline, trimmed with lace over lemon satin. The groom was assisted by Mr. J. W. Kelly of Perrytown.

After the ceremony had been performed and the bride and groom had received the congratulations of their friends, the guests adjourned to the dining hall where a bountiful wedding dinner was served. Here mention might be made of the bride's cake, which was a marvel of the culinary art.

The evening was spent in amusements of various kinds. The happy couple took their departure for their home in Perrytown, about 10 o'clock, amid copious showers of rice and old shoes, accompanied the best wishes of their many friends.

The presents were not only numerous and costly, but useful and bore ample evidence to the esteem in which the bride is universally held.

BAY OF QUINTE CONFERENCE.

This Year's Session to be held in Belleville.

For the first time since 1889 the meeting of the Bay of Quite conference is to be held in Belleville this year.

On Monday the President of the Conference, Rev. T. W. Jolliffe, of Colborne, and the Secretary of the Conference, Rev. D. N. McCamus, of Norwood, will meet the Belleville pastors to make the arrangements.

The Stationing Committee of the Conference meets in the Tabernacle church on Monday, May 29th, the Ministerial session meets in Bridge street church on Wednesday, May 31st, and the conference proper opens in the latter church on Thursday, June 1st, at 10 a.m.

It is expected that Rev. W. R. Young, M.A., of Port Hope, will be elected to the presidency. At the last Conference held in Belleville, Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Burwash was elected President and Rev. Wm. Johnston, Secretary.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The Y.W.C.A. Saturday Evening Club has now become an established fact. That young women really appreciate the provision of a pleasant resort for Saturday evening at the Y.W.C.A., is evinced by the attendance at the club. The rooms were crowded at the last meeting and a feeling of genuine sociability prevailed. Reading, chatting and playing games passed the time away so very quickly, between the different parts of the programme, that it was a matter of surprise that nine o'clock had come so soon.

The Bible Class meets to-morrow evening at eight o'clock. The S. S. lesson for April 23rd will be taken up. All are welcome.

LAWTON'S CAMPAIGN.

It Has Proved a Rather Poverty-Stricken Affair.

WHY THE GENERAL EVACUATES.

American Enemy in the Philippines That Is to Be a Good Friend of the Filipinos—General Lawton's Estimate of Troops Required to Hold What He Can Get.

New York, April 18.—Major-General Lawton says: "The present prospect is that 100,000 troops will be necessary to pacify the Philippine Islands." He explains the situation as follows:

"The difficulties in the way are those of fighting guerillas in a tropical country.

"With my brigade I could force my way from one end of the island to the other, if I did not have to hold the territory I traversed. But leaving garrisons behind would soon eat up the whole force."

A Complete Evacuation.

General Lawton's expedition has been ordered to Manila and is preparing to return there immediately. All the territory he captured is to be evacuated and all the launches seized to be restored to their original owners—that is to say, they will be given back to the persons from whom Aguinaldo's soldiers took them. General Lawton regretted exceedingly being compelled to evacuate the territory he had captured.

Moved to the North.

Manila, April 18.—The insurgent government is reported to have been removed to Tarland, 47 miles north.

War, Not a Picnic.

Manila, April 18.—General Otis has put a stop to the plans of officers who want to bring their wives and families to Manila. He said: "This is not a picnic nor a G.A.R. encampment. This is war."

AN AMERICAN ENEMY.

The Climate of the Philippines Will Prevent the Americans From Conquering the Insurgents.

New York, April 18.—A despatch from Hongkong to The World contains the following: "We are weak and you are strong," said Dr. Galliano Apacible, the head of the Filipino Junta here, to me to-day, "but we have an ally and you have none.

"We have 70,000 stands of arms, 80,000 troops in the field and sufficient material to make cartridges to supply our troops for four years to come.

"Our ally is the climate of the Philippines. Your bullets cannot kill one of our men, where disease will kill 20 of yours, once you begin your advance into the interior. We will harass your advance at the same time that we welcome it.

"We cannot fight pitched battles with you and we do not need to. We shall be here to-day and there to-morrow, attacking, then flying. You can no more catch us or conquer us than you can the wind. Thus far your civilizing army has killed about 6,000 of our people.

"All the Juntas which we have heard of in different parts of the world since the victory of Dewey at Manila were recruited from the ranks of these patriots who came to Hongkong with the bribe money received from Spain in return for allaying the rebellion they had started. This sum was deposited in the Hongkong & Shanghai Bank by Aguinaldo. One hundred thousand dollars remains. The bank refuses to give it up until compelled to do so by the court on the ground that the power of attorney which the Junta holds from Aguinaldo is not sufficiently binding."

DIVORCE COURT CROWDED.

More Husbands Than Wives Want Release From Marital Bonds.

London, April 18.—Six hundred and eighty-three suits were entered in the London Divorce Court last year, and that was an increase of 25 per cent. over the figure for 1897. This year there are 720 petitions for absolute divorce.

Husbands' petitions are nearly double those from wives. But the English law gives divorce to a husband for unfaithfulness only on the part of the wife, whereas a wife, in order to secure relief, must prove both unfaithfulness and cruelty.

Court statistics show that actors, musicians and sailors are the three classes sending the fewest petitions to the divorce court—2.8 per cent. Publicans and hotelkeepers provide 3.65 per cent. Engineers, architects, etc., 3.04 per cent. Shopkeepers stand the highest in the list, with 6.20 per cent.

THE SPANISH ELECTIONS.

Indications Are That the Ministry Has Been Sustained.

Madrid, April 18.—During the election riots at Bilbao on Sunday 90 persons were wounded, and popular feeling runs high in Valencia and the surrounding districts. There was a serious affray in the town of Portoe, Province of Tarragona, where, the official candidates being beaten, the municipal officials fired guns at the crowd, injuring a number of persons. The latest indications as to the result of the elections are that the Ministerialists will have a large majority. Senor Horet, who was Minister of Colonies in the Sagasta Cabinet, has been elected at Saragossa.

Sir Lambert Price, Bart., Dead.

London, April 18.—Sir Rose Lambert Price, Bart., the author and soldier, is dead. He was born July 26, 1837. He served as a lieutenant in the Royal Marine Light Infantry on the east coast of Africa, for the suppression of slavery. He then joined the Royal Marine Battalion under Col. Lemon, C.B., and went to India during the mutiny. He was in the storming party at the capture of Canton in 1857, and was also in the storming party at the Peiho forts, and during the fighting was shot through the leg. He was present at the taking of Tangku, and was in the storming party at the capture of the Taku forts, and was present at the surrender of Peking. He was the author of "The Americas: A Summer on the Rockies."

Great Feat in Telegraphy.

London, April 18.—Herr Pollack, the well-known engineer and electrician, has discovered, says the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Chronicle, a means of telegraphing 60,000 words per hour over a single wire.

No Agreement Yet.

London, April 18.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. St. John Brodrick, in reply to a question, said that no agreement had been reached between Great Britain and the United States in regard to the modification of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

TEXAS STORM AND DEATH.

Cowboy Killed, Several People Injured and Wires Down.

St. Louis, Mo., April 18.—A special to The Republic from San Antonio, Texas, says: Several towns were visited by a terrific wind and hail storm yesterday at Lytle, the building on the XL Ranch was demolished and a Mexican cowboy killed.

At Weimer, the home of City Marshall Insall was blown down and Mrs. Insall and her two children injured.

The school house at Medina was overturned and the teacher, Miss Minnie Halstead, received internal injuries. Two pupils, Tom Maston and Henry Willard, were seriously injured.

The coast country around Rockport and Corpus Christi is flooded and communication with those towns shut off. Telegraph wires are down, and the Arkansas Pass Railroad has temporarily abandoned its trains on this division.

Mail Pouch Robbers Nabbed.

New York, April 18.—Two notorious robbers of mail pouches were arrested in this city Saturday and remanded until yesterday afternoon. The last robbery credited to the men is the theft of a registered mail pouch at Buffalo early this [illegible]. They give their names as Albert [illegible]hall, 26 years old, of London, Canada, and Frank H. Smith, 36 years old, [illegible]. The police say that [illegible] was also arrested in Kansas City for a mail pouch robbery and served three years; Smith is said to be a Chicago crook who has done time in St. Louis.

Ben Parrett Arraigned.

Hamilton, April 18.—Chief Justice Armour opened the Spring Assizes yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The grand jurors first took up the case of Ben Parrott, jr., who is accused of murdering his mother, and brought in a true bill.

Parrott was brought into court and formally arraigned on the awful charge of murdering his mother, Bridget Parrott. He pleaded in a loud, clear voice: "Not guilty," and after arraignment the trial was set down for Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

DR. WORKMEN'S BRIEF TRIAL.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE MET TO RECEIVE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

None Were Filed and so the Investigation Quickly Closed.

Belleville, Ont., April 17.—The committee of the Bay of Quinte Conference to investigate the teachings of Dr. George Coulson Workman met in the Bridge street Methodist church here this afternoon. Those in attendance were Rev. W. R. Young, B.A., Port Hope, chairman; Rev. Thos. Manning, B.A., Lindsay; Rev. W. J. Joliffe, B.C.L., Picton; Rev. S. J. Shorey, Peterborough; Rev. O. R. Lambly, M.A., D.D., Brooklin; and Rev. W. J. Crothers, M.A., D.D., Napanee.

The committee was merely extra-judicial in its scope. Dr. Workman desires to be restored to his professoriate in Victoria University, and asked for the appointment of an Investigating Committee, before which anyone who had charges to prefer against him could appear. The committee concluded its sessions to-night. No charges were filed. Dr. Workman read a lengthly statement of his views on the interpretation of the passages in the Hebraic prophets generally supposed to refer to Jesus Christ. The committee will not make its report public until the meeting of the annual conference, which opens here on May 31st.

D. R. A. MATCHES.

They will Commence on August 28th, and will Continue a Week.

A dispatch from Ottawa says: The annual D.R.A. matches will commence on the Rockliffe ranges on Monday, August 28th, and will last all week.

The secretary of the association has sent out notices to the men elegible for Bisley to notify him by May 1st whether they can go to England.

At a meeting of the council of the Canadian Military Rifle League held last week, the selection of the dates for the annual competitions was made.

The league matches will be fired this year as follows:

First match, May 27th.
Second match, June 3rd.
Third match, July 8th.
Fourth match, July 22nd.

The details in regard to the prizes and regulations governing the matches were left with the president, Major Mason, and the secretary, Lieut. Paine. These officers were also authorized to take steps for the publishing of the returns of the matches.

The competitions will consist of three series this year, instead of four, as formerly. The first and second series will be for regimental and other associations, Lee-Enfield and Martini rifles. The third series will be for carbine shooting.

The president was empowered to interview the Minister of Militia in regard to the grant of free ammunition.

IRON AND SULPHUR.

Enquiries From Large Concerns in Ontario and Quebec.

The Ontario Government Assay office has received an enquiry from Mr. G. E. Drummond, manager of the Canada Iron Furnace Co., of Montreal, asking for information regarding any recently discovered deposits of iron ores in the county or vicinity in Hastings. This company, which are erecting a charcoal iron furnace of 60 tons daily capacity at Midland in addition to their three plants in Quedec, will use Ontario irons of sufficiently good qualities as far as possible, since the government bonus on pig iron made in this province is now based more directly on the utilization of Ontario iron ores.

An enquiry has also been received from the Laurentid Pulp Company of Three Rivers, Quebec, making wood pulp for paper manufacture by the sulphite or chemical process, asking for full information as to workable bodies of iron pyrites or sulphides of iron in this district. Iron pyrites is used as a substitute for sulphur in the process and must contain over 40 per cent. sulphur to be of commercial value. It is worth from $3.50 to $6 per ton, according to quality and nearness to the market. It will be to the advantage of owners of properties having either of these minerals in large quantities to communicate with the assay office, where full information may be obtained.

MINING NOTES.

Friday afternoon the C. O. R. ran a special over the O. B. & N. to the Belmoot Gold Mine. Mr. Geo. Collins, superintendent of the road, was was on board and a number from Marmora accepted an invitation to go along, among the number being president and manager of the Pearce Co., Messrs. G. B. Bleecker, W. E. Golding and H. R. Pearce. The entire train of nine cars was loaded with supplies for the Belmoot Gold Mine, consisting of 50,000 bricks to be used in building the air compressor, the air compressor plant, a car of steel pipes, and a carload of machinery. Throughout the entire distance of nine miles the track is lined on both sides with wood and timber belonging to the Rathbun Co. At the terminus of the road one is right in the centre of a great mining district which is evidenced by a mine on every side. There is the Belmoot Gold Mine to the north, the Ledyard Gold Mine and mills to the south, and the iron mine to the west. Operations are commencing in the iron mine and will continue steadily.

May 1st iron mining operations will be begun at the Ledyard property adjoining the Belmoot Gold Mine. One hundred tons of iron will be shipped in barrels to England to be tested after which the ore will be shipped to Hamilton. The old boarding house has latterly been used as a boarding house for the Belmoot Gold mine but will now be used by the Ledyard people. A bonus of $3,200 per mile has been granted the B. N. O. for a seven mile extension. We hope that iron mining will prove a paying enterprise in this locality.

"Hail, Spring's First Born Flowers."

How welcome they are, these new blooming blossoms. They are purity personified, these bits of life, with their bursting buds, joyous in their first sight of Spring. There are no impurities about them.

Humanity, however, continues to have its troubles, most of which can be traced to impure blood.

But humanity rests more contented now, for it knows that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the wonderful blood cleanser, never disappoints. You need it today.

Severe Pains—"I had severe pains in my stomach, a form of neuralgia. My mother urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me well and strong. I have also given it to my baby with satisfactory results. I am glad to recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to others." MRS. JOHN LA PAGE, 240 Church St., Toronto, Ont.

Complete Exhaustion—"After treatment in hospital, I was weak, hardly able to walk. My blood was thin. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla until well and gained 20 lbs. It also benefited my wife." ARTHUR MILLS, Dresden, Ont.

Rheumatism—"I had acute rheumatism in my limb and foot. I commenced treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and in a short time was cured." WILLIAM HASKETT, Brantford, Ont.

Scrofula—"I was troubled with scrofula and impure blood. A cut on my arm would not heal. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and after I had taken three bottles I was well." DANIEL ROBINSON, 52½ Teauley Street, Toronto, Ont.

Dyspepsia—"I was weak and had fainting spells. Dyspepsia and indigestion in severe form troubled me. Five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla made me well and strong." MRS. WILLIAM VANVALKENBURGH, Whitby, Ont.

Sick Headache—"I am now 32. Since I was 8 years old I suffered constantly with impure blood, biliousness and sick headaches until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla by doctor's advice. I owe my life to it." ELVIRA A. RUSSELL, Claremont, N. H.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Never Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Daily Examiner

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1899.

The trouble in Finland grows serious. It looks like a Finnish fight.

The Mail asks:

If affairs have been all right in the Yukon why this great objection to an independent investigation?

If affairs have been all right in the Yukon why have any investigation at all?

The cost of parliamentary talk is about $5 per minute. It is estimated that the cost of parliament per day is $3,000. At ten hours per day, the average time devoted to talk, the cost is $300 per hour, $5 per minute, or about 8 and a third cents per second. In parliamentary matters silence is indeed golden.

The Toronto Mail declared about a month ago that the Canadian exodus to the United States was a thing of the past. Thinking this administration might be of advantage to the Government, the Mail now recalls its temporary lapse into honest statement of facts, and says it is clear the exodus is still on, because over $800,000 worth of settler's effects went from Canada to the United States last year. The fact that $2,828,675 worth of settlers effects came from the United States to Canada in 1898 bears out the Mail's first statement. The exchange, the London Advertiser points out, is three to one in Canada's favour.

The newspapers of the opposition are making a good deal of sport over the allegation that at a certain point in the Brockville riding nobody turned up at an announced Liberal campaign meeting. Ithis be true—and the authority is Klondykic—it does not argue any hostility to Liberalism. One of the best Collegiate Institute principals in Canada, when asked for news about his school justifies his having nothing in the way of news to give by the assertion that the absence of news is a sign that everything is going on all right. The electors of Brockville in the district mentioned are evidently satisfied with the existing condition of affairs under Liberal rule and are consequently satisfied to let well enough alone.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, .T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Wm. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Ottawa, April 15. — Implementing their promise of last session that they were prepared to do everything in their power to advance the construction of a Pacific cable, the Government now announces its decision to place before Parliament a proposal that the Government shall assume its proportion of the cost of carrying out this undertaking, which in round numbers, will amount to two millions of lars. The tremendous impetus that has been given to Canadian-Australian trade in the past two years has made the necessity of cable communication with the Antipodes very urgent, and that development has at the same time simplified the proposition, inasmuch as there is now a reasonable promise of the enterprise starting upon an actual paying basis, whereas on the estimated volume of business even three years ago it would have been operated at a loss for the first few years.

What It Will Cost.

The cost of laying the cable from Vancouver to a mid-ocean station at Fanning Island, thence to one of our Fiji Islands, thence to Norfolk Island, and thence to Australia and New Zealand, a distance of 8,200 statute miles, is estimated at $7,500,000 and the interest of this, together with a provision for the establishing of a sinking fund to provide for the renewing of the cable in due course, will make an annual charge of $724,400. The proposed commercial rate will be 50 cents a word, and Sir Sandford Fleming, the recognized authority in this matter, estimated the first year's business at 1,800,000 words, producing a revenue of $900,000, or a surplus of estimated receipts over estimated expenditure of $150,000 on the first year's business, and of course each year will see a marked increase in the business without a proportionate increase in cost.

Of the total capital required the Australian colonies have undertaken to provide eight-eighteenths, the Imperial Government five-eighteenths, and our own government a like amount. The matter has been gone into very deliberately and carefully by our Ministers, who have shown from the first their great desire and anxiety to add this further strand to the bond of Imperialism. Much has already been done to develop Canadian business with the Antipodes, but no one act will have as much effect and at at the same time be in itself a source of revenue, as the construction of this long-sought-for Pacific cable.

A Favorite Fiction.

A favourite fiction with Opposition speakers and writers is that the Liberals declared for free trade prior to the election of 1896, and carried the last general election by favouring a policy antagonistic to protection. This of course is entirely inaccurate and misrepresents the facts in their essential points, but a statement so persistently reiterated is liable to be accepted as correct, and it is therefore well to note exactly what the plank actually was. It reads thus: "That the customs tariff of the Dominion should be based, not as it is now upon the protective principle, but upon the requirements of the service," that "the existing tariff is founded upon an unsound principle," which has been "the occasion of a great public and private injury," and that "the highest interests of Canada demand a removal of this obstacle to our country's progress by the adoption of a sound fiscal policy." "To this end," the platform declared, "the tariff should be reduced to the needs of honest, economic and efficient government. It should be so ajusted and arranged as to make free or to bear as lightly as possible upon the necessaries of life and to promote free trade with the whole world, more particularly with Great Britain and the United States."

The Promise and the Performance.

This was the platform adopted in in 1893, victoriously sustained in 1896, put into operation in 1897, and fully justifying the wisdom of its adoption in 1898. Because the Government upon assuming office did not immediately proceed to smash everything, to ruthlessly confiscate capital legitimately invested in state-bonused industries, and to carry out Opposition predictions of reckless interference with existing conditions, a policy advocated only by Opposition speakers, and not entertained for a moment by any responsible supporter of the Government—because of all this I say it is persistently dingdonged into our ears that there has been no tariff reform, but that the tariff is to-day as ultra protectionist as ever. This statement is false, and Opposition speakers know it right well. Had the old rates prevailed with same volume of trade between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000 more would have been collected during the past six months; surely that is a reduction. Moreover it is thoroughly recognized and understood that the unnatural and unhealthy conditions, artificially produced by protection, have put it out of the power of tariff reformers to bring about the desired improvement as rapidly as they desire and the work must be progressive in its character.

The Preferential Clause.

This general criticism of the trade policy becomes slightly more specific when the critics begin to speak of the preferential clause. They believe apparently, that you have only got to reiterate a statement often enough, and somebody will believe it, indeed history has produced cases where men have so often asserted a fallacy that they have actually made themselves at length believe it true, and the air of conviction with which some Opposition speakers stand up in their places in the House and declare that the preferential clause is really no preference, makes one appreciate the fact they really believe this themselves. But the capital speech of the Minister of Customs on Monday, setting clearly forth as it did the facts of the case will make it even more difficult than it has been in the past for Oppositionists to convince anyone but themselves that there is any substance in this oft-repeated assertion. By the quotation of carefully prepared figures Mr. Paterson showed how the Canadian importer was making substantial savings every month through the work of the preferential clause. In cottons, and other British textiles alone, the Minister showed that in a list of forty-one items there was not one upon which the duty is not less than under the Foster tariff. The twin allegation that the revision has been more beneficial to the United States was conclusively disproved by further tables, the accuracy of which, both as to details and application, cannot be successfully disputed.

This little departure from the thread-bare discussion of "Yukon Scandals" to the more profitable subjects of the trade policy has been welcomed by both sides of the House. If only they would quit altogether now, we might be able to forgive the past.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. MR. FIELDING SPEAKS

The Finance Minister Takes Part in the Yukon Debate.

A COMPLETE VINDICATION.

He Shows Up The Klondike Nugget's Appeal to the Miners for a Fund to Lobby With at Ottawa—Dr. Sproule, Mr. Flint and Mr. Mills Also Speak—Colonial Bond Tax.

Ottawa, April 18.—The prospect of an early close of the debate on the address brings a sense of relief to everyone connected with the House. Mr. Fielding led off yesterday with a spirited defence of the Yukon administration, in the course of which he read an article from The Klondike Nugget, appealing to the miners to contribute to a fund for the purpose of enabling the proprietors of that paper to lobby at Ottawa. Dr. Sproule repeated the demands of the Opposition for a judicial investigation. Mr. Flint refuted the statement that Canada has been injured in the eyes of the English people, and Mr. Mills (Annapolis) argued that there were precedents for granting an investigation without charges being formulated.

Taxing Colonial Bonds.

On orders, Sir Charles Tupper called the attention of the Premier to the statement made by the Chancellor of the Exchequer in his budget speech that it was intended to propose additional stamp duties on foreign and colonial bonds, stocks and shares. This matter had come up on a former occasion, when Mr. Goschen, then Minister of the Exchequer, made a somewhat similar proposal. The speaker (Sir Charles Tupper) had taken the matter up because he found the proposal was to tax the national funds from two shillings and sixpence per cent. to ten shillings. He waited upon Mr. Goschen with his colleagues from other colonies, and made so strong a remonstrance that the act was amended by exempting the colonies from that duty. Colonial securities at that time were taxed as foreign securities, but the result of his calling the attention of the Imperial Government to the matter was that the law was changed so that the word "foreign" was no longer construed to cover also colonial securities. All the papers in the case were in the possession of the Government, and he advised the Prime Minister to lay them on the table, and also to call the attention of the high commissioner to the proposed tax, so that it may be dealt with.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that his attention had been already called to the speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, that he had the papers to which the leader of the Opposition had referred, and would lay them on the table at once. With respect to the speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, he had been daily expecting to hear from Lord Strathcona, who, he had no doubt, would look into the matter.

Sir Charles Tupper—I think it will be well to draw His Lordship's attention to the matter, however.

Hon. Mr. Fielding.

Hon. Mr. Fielding then resumed the debate on the address and the amendments thereto. He said he thought that the House should get through talking about the Yukon, and proceed to business. He defended Mr. Sifton's administration, going over at some length the facts with regard to the discoveries of 1897. Mr. Sifton had acted promptly, had appointed the best men available and had done everything that it was possible for him to do to have the affairs of the Yukon district fairly and honestly administered. Every charge against the Minister of the Interior had been fully met, and the Administration and his department had been completely vindicated by the discussion which had taken place.

Turning to the speech of Sir Hibbert Tupper, he denied that there was any justification for his attempt to "blacken the character" of Mr. Sifton, on mere statements which appeared in irresponsible newspapers. He quoted the opinions of Conservative newspapers and Conservative speakers in the House in reference to Mr. Ogilvie to show in what high estimation he was held as an honest, upright and honorable man, and contended that the investigation now proceeding before him was ample, and that there was no necessity whatever for a judicial inquiry. He defended Major Walsh, Mr. McGregor, Mr. Wade and other officials, and concluded by saying that he thought the House and the country were both tired of the debate, and as nobody would listen to or read any more speeches it was time the debate was closed.

Dr. Sproule.

Dr. Sproule (Con., East Grey) said it was significant that Mr. Sifton made it convenient always to absent himself from the Chamber when the Administration was being criticised, and the plan was being adopted by other Ministers, who even called their followers out of the Chamber, so it might be said the Opposition were talking to a slim house. As to Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's refusal to furnish the department with the names of witnesses, it was possibly a wise precaution against their being "fixed beforehand." A Pembroke man who had criticised doings in the Yukon had since been given a lucrative position in the Yukon. He concluded by saying that the country would never be satisfied until a judicial inquiry was held and the truth or falsity of the charges of corruption and wrongdoing by officials either proved or disapproved.

Mr. Flint.

Mr Flint (Yarmouth, N.S.) expressed amusement at Dr. Sproule's suggestion that there was a conspiracy on the part of the Liberals to withdraw from the House when the doctor rose to speak, and pointed out that the conspiracy must extend to the galleries, as there was a perfect bolt for the doors when he rose to speak. He contended that the amendment was an absurd one, and was intended to be voted down on account of its vagueness. If the resolution was adopted three or four judges would be appointed, with powers that could not be entrusted to anybody in the country without being derogatory to the dignity of Parliament. The very fact of such a resolution being brought into the House by men of intelligence was evidence that it was not expected to be accepted. The charges had been made without being backed up by the opinions of any responsible miners. He pointed out that the only case in the constitutional history of Great Britain in which a Parliamentary commission of judges was appointed to investigate charges that had been formulated was the case of the Parnell commission, and the judges in that case immediately upon meeting required that the charges should be formulated. In this case the whole history of the Klondike since 1897 was grouped under one phrase, and a commission was asked to investigate.

Mr. Mills (Annapolis) followed in a lengthy and exhaustive review of the administration of Yukon affairs, and in support of Mr. Clarke's amendment that a judicial inquiry should be held.

Mr. Morrison moved the adjournment of the debate, and the House adjourned at 11.45 p.m.

MADAME WALLACE.

Cured of Female Weaknoss by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realize the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles.

Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 338 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

Accident to Hon. G. E. Foster.

Ottawa, April 18.—Hon. George E. Foster met with a painful accident on Saturday evening, which prevented his going to Brockville, where he was to have spoken last night. Some repairs were being made to an outhouse at Mr. Foster's residence, and he had given the workman instructions and left the building, when, remembering some further instructions, he turned and re-entered quickly, without remembering a low beam near the entrance, against the sharp edge of which he struck his head, inflicting a severe wound, which bled profusely, and required several stitches to close it. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Foster was at work in his library, and expects to be out in a day or two.

A Brantford Man Drowned.

Brantford, Ont., April 18.—Thomas Lewes, moulder, living on Oxford street, West Brantford, was drowned yesterday forenoon. Deceased was crossing the G. T. R. bridge when a train came along. He stepped to the side of the bridge, and in some way he stumbled and fell into the water. He was a good swimmer and kept himself above water for some distance, but finally disappeared before assistance arrived. The body has not yet been found. He was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

Suffering caused by Piles

Is Quickly Ended when——

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is applied

Besides the intense agony caused by the itching, burning sensations of piles, there are other symptoms which produce restlessness and at times excruciating pains known only to the victim of piles.

What would one give to be free of this terrible disease? And yet there is a cure—a positive cure—which does not cost much and is not painful or difficult to apply.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is, so far as is known, the only absolute cure for blind, itching, bleeding and protruding piles. It gives relief at the first application and affords a perfect cure in the most aggravated cases.

Mr. Isaac Foster, Ericview, Ont., says: "I was troubled with itching piles for two years and could not sleep at night. I was half crazed and tried everything. Finally seeing Dr. Chase's Ointment advertised I tried it and found it good. After a second application I found relief, and one large box cured me. Have never been bothered since, and I can recommend it to all suffering from the same trouble."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is for sale by all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

THE FIRST WIFE WINS.

Gets a Home Which Second Wife Helped a Bigamist to Make.

Ottawa, April 18.—At the Assizes yesterday in the case of Parish v. Griffiths, an important judgment was given by Chancellor Boyd. When Parish was killed he left a wife and two children in Ottawa East. There was also a small property, against which there was a slight mortgage. The employes of the C. A.R., who had a great deal of sympathy with Mrs. Parish, paid off the mortgage. In the meantime another woman appeared on the scene and laid claim to the property, on the ground that she was Parish's wife by a previous marriage, which, she stated, had taken place in Plymouth, Eng. In court both presented their marriage certificates. The judge ruled that the woman who had been the first wife of the deceased Mr. Parish was entitled to the property, and so long as she lived the second wife could lay no claim to the property. By this judgment the second Mrs. Parish, who had been left in fairly comfortable circumstances, loses her home.

Woman's Influence

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Home Medicine.

As a Spring Medicine it Meets the Wants of Women in Every Sphere of Life.

When weakly, sick and broken down women are seen to gain health and vigour from day to day from the use of Paine's Celery Compound, no room for doubt is left for the most skeptical individual.

Medical science devised Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine uniformly successful in banishing the troubles that afflict the great majority of women, and honest physicians are always pleased to recommend it.

It is a well-known fact that all the women who have recovered health and strength by the means of Paine's Celery Compound were induced to use it through the influence and persuasion of other women—sisters, mothers or friends.

In the spring time, when women are weak, overworked, nervous, have tired feelings, dyspepsia, backache, sideache, headache, neuralgia, blood troubles or any of the many nameless ills from which they suffer in silence, Paine's Celery Compound will quickly banish all dangers and sufferings; it will impart that strength, health and vivacity that make women womanly and admired.

Paine's Celery Compound is at present carrying on this joyous transformation work all over Canada, and women, young and old, of all ranks and conditions, bless the memory of Dr. Phelps who conferred such a blessing on their sex.

Dear women of our country, why continue in misery and suffering when such a friend as Paine's Celery Compound is within such easy reach, and ready to do for you all you so much desire?

Do not be deceived by any of the many nervines, bitters, sarsaparillas or advertised pills; they cannot bestow the pearl of great price—good health. Paine's Celery Compound has given new health and life to your friends; it will not fail in your particular hour of need. Bear in mind that Paine's Celery Compound makes sick people well.

The fire broke out in the lower part of the building and spread up the elevator shaft with great rapidity. The flames involved the upper storeys before their occupants were aware of the danger. When the alarm was raised the affrighted servants dropped from the top windows to a verandah on the ninth storey. The defective arrangements of the London fire brigade were again demonstrated, as the fire escapes were too short to reach the people in the upper storeys, who only escaped with the greatest difficulty, while the fashionable residents of the lower storeys streamed out of the building carrying what they could of their belongings.

The flames were not under control until 1 o'clock, when the upper part of the structure was gutted.

It is considered lucky that the fire occurred in the daylight, or otherwise it would have resulted in loss of life. All the floors were supposed to be fireproof.

A PANIC IN CLOTHING.

There's been a crash of prices in the Clothing caused by Gough Bros.' big deal with Messrs. Doull and Gibson, of Montreal, the retiring wholesale clothiers.

Our shrewd manipulation at this sale brought down prices and broke the auctioneer's heart.

Magnate manufacturers complain of a heavy loss, but millionaires can stand it.

The sharpest decline in bids was in the Spring Suits and Spring Overcoats which Gough Bros. had their eyes on.

It was no little slump either, but extended all along the whole of the lots we bought. That's why we broke the market, and are able to offer you prices like these—the climax of cheapness :

SPRING SUITS.

$5.00 Spring Suits for	2 90
$6.00 Spring Suits for	3 70
$7.00 Spring Suits for	4 25
$8.00 Spring Suits for	5 00
$9.00 Spring Suits for	5 95

SPRING OVERCOATS.

$18.00 Spring Overcoats for	9 00
$11 00 Spring Overcoats for	7 50
$10.00 Spring Overcoats for	6 90
$8.00 Spring Overcoats for	5 30
$5.00 Spring Overcoats for	3 90

The present low prices cannot last long, but while they are sunk is your time to buy.

While you are gunning for these snap shots, kill two or three other spring birds with one stone, and fit yourself with a New Spring Hat, a pair of Spring Shoes or anything in the Spring Furnishing line.

Ice at Chemong Lake.

The ice still remains in the lake at Chemong and the indications are that it will not begin to move before the first of May. It is unsafe for travelling and in consequence the bridge has to be used. The ice on Pigeon Lake was used last week by pedestrians but the warm weather of the last few days would do much to make it unsafe also.

Entertainment at the Home.

Last night Mr. James Stubbs delighted the inmates of the Protestant Home by presenting his stereopticon views, entitled "From the Cradle to the Cross," embodying illustrations of prominent incidents in the life of our blessed Lord. INLAND REVENUE INSPECTOR HAMILTON DEAD.

He Passed Away in Belleville this Morning.

Special to The Examiner.

Belleville, April 18.—W. L. Hamilton, Inspector of Inland Revenue, died very suddenly at his home in this city this morning of heart failure, from which he had been suffering for about a month. He is survived by his wife and daughter, Mrs. Dr. McLean of Revelstoke, B.C. Mr. Hamilton, who was 56 years of age was a prominent Free Mason and was much esteemed.

Mr. Hamilton took ill in Peterborough a few weeks ago and was for some time confined to a room at the Snowden House. He recovered sufficiently to be able to be removed to Belleville and was out driving yesterday but had a relapse of his trouble during the night.

PERSONAL.

Mr. J. W. Brightman, town, was in Lindsay yesterday.

Miss Maggie Thompson, of Allandale, was in town over Sunday.

Messrs. Fred and Bert Hall left today to take up residence in Winnipeg.

Miss Nella Parks, of Hamilton, is visiting Miss Maye Nicholls, Hunter street, who is ill.

Dr. A. F. Grant, who graduates from Queen's this spring, is at home visiting his parents on Waterford street.

The many friends of Mrs. D. H. Burritt, Brock street, will be pleased to learn that she is able to be out again after a long and serious illness.

Mr. Fred Logan left to-day for Rochester, where he has secured a position. He will play lacrosse with the "Reindeers" of that city, against whom Peterborough played last summer.

Mr. William O'Toule, caretaker St. Joseph's hospital, who has been in the hospital at Toronto undergoing a surgical operation, has so far recovered as to be allowed to return home. He is expected on the C.P.R. train this evening.

Dr. Beauchamp Boucher, who has been spending the winter at home with his parents, leaves this evening for British Columbia, where he proposes to hang out his shingle. The warmest wishes of his many friends will accompany the doctor to the far west.

THAT ALIMONY CASE.

A Resident of Ennismore is in Trouble – Father and Son Arrested.

On March 31st County Police Magistrate made an order whereby Daniel McGinnis, of Ennismore, was compelled to pay $2.50 per week alimony to his wife, from whom he was separated. The money was paid for the first two weeks, when the payments ceased and on inquiry being made it was ascertained that McGinnis had made a bill of sale of his goods and chattels to his son John and the latter was preparing to hold an auction sale.

High County Constable Cochrane, assisted by Constable Moore, arrested both father and son, the former on the charge of getting rid of his goods when the order for alimony was standing against him, and the latter for receiving the same contrary to the statute in that behalf.

The penalty in such a case, if proven, is $800 fine with a term of imprisonment.

Mrs. McGinnis has expressed her willingness to accept $150 for her claim, and in the event of this being accepted the information will be withdrawn. The case has been enlarged until Friday.

The Young People of the Charlotte Street Church Spend a Few Hours With a Popular Author.

The members of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor in connection with the Charlotte-st., Methodist church enjoyed a very pleasant literary evening last night.

The topic was "An even with Kipling." Three papers were read. Mr. Parker Crossley gave a sketch of the author's life, which was followed by criticisms on his words by Mr. Sorsoleil of the South Central school and Mr. Gillespie, of the West Ward shcool. Readings were given by Miss Thomas, Miss Stenton, Miss Allen and Miss Darke.

The programme was interspersed with appropriate music making a most delightful evening.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.

A Former Janitor of the Central School Accused of Theft.

George Tighe, formerly janitor of the Central School, was placed under arrest this morning on a charge of theft.

It seems that a number of old school desks were stored in the shed at the rear of the Central School when replaced with new ones. Some of these desks were missed and the police, getting a clue, secured a search warrant and examined the premises of George Tighe, where a number of iron desk supports were found, and as a result the former school janitor was placed under arrest.

AN APRIL BRIDAL.

Nuptials of Mr. M. Carroll and Miss "Dolly" Sullivan.

To the accompaniment of beautiful weather, a pretty wedding was celebrated at St. Peters Cathedral this morning. Rev. Father Scanlan performed the ceremony and sang the the nuptial mass that united, in the holy bonds of matrimony, Mr. Michael Carroll, town, and Miss Bridget ("Dolly") Sullivan, eldest daughter of Mr. John Sullivan, 113 Gilmore-st. The bride, who was tastefully attired in blue henrietta with picture hat, in harmonizing shade, was attended by Miss Mary Crossley, cousin of the bride and daughter of Mr. David Crossley, Otonabee. John Carroll, brother of the groom performed the duties of best man. At the wedding breakfast about fifty guests were present. The bride received a large number of handsome presents and has the promise of the happiness proverbially accorded to the bride, the sun shines on. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll's many friends wish them every happiness.

DR. BINGHAM RECOMMENDED

For the Position of Town Physician and Medical Health Officer.

At a meeting of the committee on Appointments last evening, with Ald. Corkery in the chair, the matter of the appointment of a Town Physician and Medical Health Officer came up for discussion.

The committee decided to recommend Dr. Bingham for the dual position, which carries with it a salary of $300 per year, the remuneration attached to each office being $150.

A number of other physicians who were contemplating applying for the vacancy, which was caused through the death of the late Dr. Clarke immediately withdrew their names when that of Dr. Bingham was mentioned and a petition was received by the committee, signed by the other doctors of the town, asking that the appintment be conferred on Dr. Bingham.

FOUR YEARS OF PAIN

ENDED PERMANENTLY BY TWO BOXES OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Mr. Simon Clary of Hamilton, had Diabetes for Four Years—Doctored all the Time but Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him.

Hamilton, April 17.—There seems to be no end to the number of Hamilton people who have been cured of various forms of Kidney Disease, by Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is really a remarkable circumstance that so many people have regained their health through the agency of this great medicine, and in nearly every instance after other remedies had been tried and failed.

For some time past the newspapers have published reports of Hamilton cures by the agency of Dodd's Kidney Pills. To-day our representative met Mr. Simon Clary, who lives at No. 105 Pearl street, and is well and favourably known to hundreds of Hamiltonians.

In the course of conversation Mr. Clary remarked that he was enjoying much better health than he had for the past four years. This fact he attributed solely to the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For four weary years," said Mr. Clary, "I suffered greatly from diabetes and pains in the back. I doctored continually, and used several different medicines, without deriving the slightest benefit from any of them.

"One year ago I began the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I had taken only a few doses when I felt a decided change for the better. I used two boxes in all, and was then thoroughly cured. I have not the least trace of pain or discomfort. Dodd's Kidney Pills are truly the medical wonder of the country."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a box, six boxes, $2.50; or sent on receipt of price, by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto.

ADJOURNED VESTRY OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

REPORTS OF THE YEAR'S WORK PRESENTED LAST NIGHT.

The Different Organizations in Connection with the Church Work are in a Flourishing Condition—The Sunday School Fund Increasing.

There was a very large attendance and much interest was manifested at the adjourned vestry meeting of St. John's church last evening. The chair was occupied by the rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson.

After the opening prayers the financial report was brought in by the auditors and adopted. It showed that the accounts of the church had been faithfully kept, but that from different causes a deficit on current business had been gradually accumulated. To offset this, however, there was considerable arrears of pew rent and subscriptions, which officers felt sure would be paid in. A large balance was reported on hand to the credit of the Sunday School building fund. The church property is in good condition and well insured.

The report of the auditors was adopted.

The new church wardens stated, that while they felt their position to be one of some present difficulty they had every confidence in the future relying on the warm support of the congregation; which was already evidenced by the unusually large offertories of the past two Sundays.

Mr. Peter Campbell, chairman of the Advisory then presented a report on the subject of clerical assistance. The report contained the recommendations of the committee, adopted after long and thoughtful consideration.

The report occasioned a very animated discussion which was participated in by Mr. W. Buller and Mr. W. B. Bamford, on behalf of All Saints church, claiming that Rev. Mr. Armitage's stipend should be increased to a greater degree than that mentioned in the report.

On the other hand several members of the vestry expressed their opinion that while most anxious to comply with this suggestion, they could not see that the present financial position of the congregation would allow any further expenditure just now.

Strong interest was manifested in the financial progress of All Saints church and the two financial clauses were referred back to the Advisory Committee for further consideration on motion of one of its members. Members of All Saints will meet the committee to discuss the matter.

The next question dealt with was the important one of freeing the pews of St. John's church, proposed in a carefully worded and effective address by Mr. John Bell. As perfect freedom was the glory of the British Empire, and of the gospel, so also should it be of the church in every particular. The pew system tended to develop selfishness. He aslo read extracts from papers showing that efforts were being made to free the few Toronto churches in which the pew system was still in existence. There was no doubt that the free pew system was general in the Church of England. Mr. Bell had canvassed a number of the congregation and found them to be with him with few exceptions and in favour of a system under which the expenses of the church would be met by a small fund in which each parishioner would take as many shares as he could afford. The shares were placed at eighty cents per quarter, the rate now charged for each sitting in the church.

Mr. A. P. Poussette seconded Mr. Bell's motion.

The discussion upon this motion was an interesting one and it was evident that the general sympathy of the meeting lay in favour of the free seat system. It was felt, however, that the measure was not one which could be hurriedly adopted, and it was referred to the Advisory Committee for careful consideration, with the suggestion that each pew holder be interviewed and the amount which they would subscribe under the new system learned.

Hearty votes of thanks were passed to the members of the choir, those who decorated the church and other workers. The sexton, Mr. John Butcher, was also honoured in a similar manner in appreciation of his services.

A proposition was made by Miss Ferguson and Mrs. M. Clementi to hand over their freehold pew to the church for one year. This was gratefully accepted on motion of Dr. Boucher and Mr. R. H. Kells.

Reports were then read in regard to the year's work now closed. The general parochial statistics were given by the rector and reference made to the large number of members of the parish who had died during the past year, in many cases after lives of efficient service to the church. Special remembrance was made of Mr. Frederick Foot, Mrs. Weller and Mrs. W. D. Parker, all most earnest workers for the church. During the year one freehold pew had been generously handed over to the church by the late Mrs. Eastland and a valuable safe given by Mr. R. Fair. During the year some 16 cottage meetings had been held in the parish, which had been well worked up and largely attended. Ministrations had been given in the Protestant Home, goal and hospital—in the last mentioned institution weekly by Rev. E. V. Stevenson. References were also made to other branches of work.

Other reports were then presented from the different organizations showing them to be in each case in a most healthy condition, and a general idea was gleaned from these reports of the amount and variety of the work in the parish.

The meeting at ten o'clock adjourned for two weeks.

Mr. McHarrie offers for competition the following prizes:—golf bag to be competed for by players after 1st September 1898: and another prize—a driver—open to competition by members playing the game for the first time in 1899.

Smith, the "pro" of the Toronto Golf Club, arrived in town to-day, and will be at the Auburn Links for three days, to-day, Wednesday and Thursday, mornings and afternoons.

LADIES' GOLF CLUB.

The members of the Ladies' Golf Club who intend taking lessons from the professional are notified that the lessons will be given next Thursday and Friday mornings at the Auburn links. A 'bus has been arranged for to leave the postoffice at a quarter to ten. It is hoped that as many as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity.

BASEBALL.

The statement that the baseball club is to be re-organized will be received with pleasure by the public. Peterborough formerly boasted of having a strong nine and there is no reason why the game should not boom here again. A revival in baseball, as well as in all athletic sports is taking place in Canada and it is hoped that the old enthusiasts will rally to the call and participate in the organization meeting of the ball tossers on Wednesday evening in the Oriental hotel parlors.

A CONCEALED IDENTITY.

Travelling Business Men Sometimes Consider It Necessary.

"Is Benjamin K. Jones in his room?" asked a typically bustling business man of one of the clerks at a fashionable hotel yesterday. The inquirer had arrived on one of the morning trains.

"Not here at all, sir; probably hasn't arrived yet," vouchsafed the clerk.

"But he is here, and I have a telegram making an appointment to meet him here at 11." Telegram produced and shown, signed "Benjamin."

"Let's see the list of arrivals on Sunday. Perhaps that will solve the mystery." This from the business man. "Jones is my partner and is engineering an important deal. I wonder if—um-m. Of course I'd know his handwriting." His finger traced the list quickly and stopped at the name, "J. K. Benjamin, Washington," so plainly written that there could be no mistaking it. "Oh, I see! Um-um-um! Yes, yes! Send my card to Mr. Benjamin's room at once."

"Mr. Benjamin is in the cafe at breakfast, sir, and you will excuse me, but you asked for Mr. Jones, you know."

"That's all right, my boy. You did right to treat me as you would any one else in this matter. I'll go in and join him at breakfast."

It was only one of the little comedies of hotel life in a big city, and yet it opened up many speculations. Was it Jones or was it Benjamin? Suppose the man of two names should die suddenly in his room. Who would he be? If fire should destroy the hotel and its occupants and only the hotel register be saved, J. K. Benjamin, Washington, would have been recorded as among the lost. Yet no such person was in the hotel—at least wasn't the name of the man so registered.

"I knew," said the clerk, "that it was Jones that was in the cafe, and I knew his partner; knew them at hotels farther down town, where they used to stop. Jones is interested in several big concerns in the west, and occasionally comes east to carry through some big deal that he doesn't care to trust to his buyers. He doesn't want his rivals in business or other firms than the one he is doing business with to know that he is in town. So, instead of signing his own name, he twists the initials end for end and escapes attentions that he does not care for. He has been carrying on that simple little deception for years. Both he and his partner know that I know all about it. But if I should ever make the mistake of acknowledging it to either, they would never stop here again, or else I should have to go. Oh, the clerks are not the only cranks one runs across in the hotel business."

MARKET REPORTS.

The Wheat Markets Fluctuate Under the Influence of Varying Crop Reports —The Latest Prices.

Liverpool, April 18.—Wheat futures held steady yesterday, closing prices being almost identical with Saturday's last quotations.

Chicago, April 18.—The wheat market was active and irregular again yesterday, trading and prices continuing to remain under the influence of the contradictory crop reports. The opening was at a good advance over Sunday, but the market soon broke a cent. Late buying and covering by shorts sent prices up again and the futures closed nearly a cent above Saturday's final figures.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 71,000 bushels; that of corn has decreased 2,163,000 bushels, and that of oats has decreased 234,000 bushels. The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 66,742,000 bushels, against 66,111,000 bushels a week ago, and 68,514,000 bushels a year ago.

HOW TO DRESS WELL

By Using the Never-Failing Diamond Dyes any Woman can have Two or More Dresses of the Newest Colours at Trifling Cost.

Women who desire to dress neatly and well find the Diamond Dyes to be their best and truest helpers. One or two packages (according to weight of dress) will recreate any faded or discolored dress or skirt that has been cast aside as useless, and the cost will will not exceed 10 or 20 cents.

Instead of having to depend upon one dress for street and church wear, any thrifty and handy woman with the help of Diamond Dyes can have two or more dresses in stylish colours always ready for service.

Do not risk your dress with imitation or adulterated dyes; see that your dealer gives you the Diamond Dyes when you ask for them.

Baby Died of Neglect.

Huntsville, Ont., April 17.—On Thursday morning a baby, 8 months old, daughter of J. T. D. Coultard, barber, of this place, was found dead in its cot. Information was laid before Coroner Reece, who held an inquest. Evidence was given by the parents and others, showing very serious neglect of the baby on the part of the parents. The verdict was that the death of the child was caused by want of attention and willful neglect on the part of the parents. The Crown Attorney has further action under consideration.

Falling Ice Killed Her.

Ottawa, April 15. — Anna Nichol, domestic servant, 17 years old, was out for a walk last night with her sister, when ice fell from the verandah of the house of F. M. Spaidal, at Albert and Lyon streets, striking the girl, inflicting such injuries that she died an hour later.

AN IMPUDENT TRICK.

How a Newspaper Man Scored a "Beat" on His Rival.

A group of newspaper men were chatting and, as usual, fell to talking shop. "They used to have some queer ideas of enterprise up in the middle north," said an old timer. "I'll give you an illustration. A young reporter named Jones on a big daily in—never mind where—was detailed to interview the governor of another state who had slipped into the city on a secret political mission. When he got to his hotel, he learned to his disgust that Jackson, the star reporter of a rival sheet, was on to the news and proposed to call in an hour. Acting on inspiration, he sent up a card bearing Jackson's name, and was promptly admitted. When he had learned all he wanted, he asked with gross and intentional impudence whether the information was really true.

"The governor was noted for his irascibility. He turned purple. 'D'you question my word?' he said.

"'Oh! Don't get gay!' replied Jones airily. 'Common governors cut no ice with my office.'

"The old man foamed at the mouth. 'You insolent scoundrel!' he roared. 'Get out of my rooms!'

"That was exactly what Jones wanted, and he went down stairs chuckling.

"Presently Jackson showed up. 'Here, boy,' he said pompously, 'take my card to the governor.'

"When the old man looked at the pasteboard, he nearly expired. 'The blankety blanked infamous villain!' he spluttered. 'I never heard of such blankety blanked effrontery in my life! Tell that miscreant if he or anybody else from his infernal paper comes up here I'll kill 'em!'

"The word was carried to Jackson, who went away raving. Next day his paper called the governor all the bad names in the dictionary and intimated he was in town on a bender. Jones' paper had a capital interview and a big scoop. Those were frisky times, boys!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Here's a Curious Epitaph.

The following quaint epitaph was written on an eccentric character well known in County Clare, Ireland, by John Jackson, who contributed to the papers of that day under the nom de plume of Terry O'Driscoll:

Stop, traveler—stop! This spot demands attention,
For underneath it lie the bones of Robert Jackson.
Such a strange composition was ne'er put together.
He'd talk in all company, walk in all weather;
He was fond of his pipe, his glass and his daughter,
But cordially hated grim death and cold water;
Minded every one's business, neglected his own.
His dutiful nephew erected this stone.

CORONATION ANNIVERSARY.

Pope Leo Attended in St. Peter's Basilica on Sunday.

Rome, April 17.—The thanksgiving mass at St. Peter's Cathedral, which was postponed on account of the illness of His Holiness from the anniversary of the coronation, was celebrated yesterday in the Basilica, which was thronged with diplomats, representatives of the eastern patriarchates and foreign notables. The Pope entered by an interior staircase, communicating with the Chapel of the Holy Sacrament at half-past 10 o'clock. He was preceded by a procession of cardinals and prelates in full vestments and wearing the triple crown. He was carried along the Great Nave in the Sedia Gestatoria to the Pontificial throne, the congregation raising loud acclamation until he took his seat. Cardinal Camillo Mazzella, prefect of the Congregation of Sacred Rites, celebrated mass. At its close the Pope solemnly gave his blessing, and was then borne back to his private apartments, amid renewed acclamations. The supreme Pontiff looked as well as before his illness.

It is said that the husband refused to defend the case, and preferred to lose it rather than attack his wife.

Murder at Kamloops.

Kamloops, B.C., April 17.—Saturday evening Philip Walker was shot by Sol. Casimer at his own door. Walker lived 40 minutes after the shooting. The murder was evidently premeditated, and was the result of a old feud. Casimer escaped to the Indian reservation. A large posse is now in pursuit.

A JACK OF ALL TRADES.

The Versatility of a Frenchman of the Eighteenth Century.

In times long gone by active men combined many vocations. The barber in those days was also the dentist and often performed other duties. A sign discovered in southern France recently shows how versatile it was possible for a man to become. The sign dates back to the last century and reads:

Isaac Macairie, barber, wigmaker, healer, sacristan, schoolteacher, blacksmith and obstetrician; shaving, 1 sou; hair cutting, 2 sous; powdering and pomading very cheap for pretty, well bred young women; lamps lighted by the year or quarter; teaches the mother tongue by the best methods; instructs in singing and shoes horses with a master hand; makes and repairs boots and shoes; teaches the young to play the oboe and jewsharp; cuts out corns and applies blisters, plasters or cups at lowest prices; supplies purging medicine at 1 sou; visits houses to teach the cotillon and other dances; sells sachet powders of all kinds at wholesale and retail; also all kinds of stationery, shoe polish, salted herrings, spiced bread, bristle brushes, mousetraps of wire and other material, heart strengthening roots, potatoes, sausages and other kinds of vegetables.

One would naturally think that all those talents and occupations would be enough for one man. But not so in the case of M. Macaire. A postscript on the sign reads

I teach geography and foreign commerce every Wednesday and Friday. With God's help, I am ISAAC MACAIRE.

Happy Thoughts.

To please attract and give people something to talk about is an art in writing a prosaic advertisement. Hood, of Sarsaparilla fame, is the originator in an extensive sense, of the the idea of using proverbs and wise saws as a prefix to a pleasant introduction to the well known virtues of America's Greatest Medicine. These quaint quotations often fit the news of the day with startling directness and the moral is easily drawn, with natural good to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"It is a Great Public Benefit."

These significant words were used in relation to Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, by a gentleman who had thoroughly tested its merits in his own case—having been cured by it of lameness of the knee, of three or four years' standing. It never fails to remove soreness as well as lameness, and is an incomparable pulmonic and corrective.

BITTEN BY A SHARK.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE OF A FISHERMAN IN NEW YORK WATERS.

The Moral to Be Drawn From His Adventure Seems to Be, Do Not Catch a Shark by Its Tail; It's a Highly Dangerous Experiment.

Have you ever been bitten by a shark? Of course not, but I have, and I can assure the reader that it is an extremely interesting and entertaining experience. It happened to me at the beginning of last September, when the unbearable heat drove thousands of people from the city. A friend and I sought the cooling breezes of the seashore—Brant's point, in Jamaica bay, being our place of refuge—and we went out on the water as soon as we arrived from the city proper.

We caught a number of porgies before sunset and laid for weakfish in the evening, but were disappointed by strikes from sharks, from whose ravages the ocean trout fled. Angered by the depredations of these hyenas of the sea, we determined to rig up especially for shark fishing the next day, saving our porgies for bait and "chumming." There are two methods of catching sharks in the waters about here. One is with rod and reel, by which specimens up to 6 feet in length and 50 pounds in weight can be landed. The other one is by brute force with a drop line or rope.

Reports have been printed from time to time that monsters weighing 300 to 500 pounds and from 10 to 12 feet long have been taken in the waters of Great South bay, outer New York harbor, Shrewsbury river and the Kills and Newark bay. To kill such a giant fish undoubtedly requires judgment and nerve, but not much skill, for if the line is strong enough the big fish will finally exhaust itself and can then be gradually drawn into the boat.

We started the next morning in a rowboat from Brant's point for the grounds generally frequented by sharks. After coming to anchor we chummed with our porgies and soon had a number of sharks around us who gave unmistakable evidence of their presence by showing their dorsal fins and making a great commotion. We baited our hooks, cast out our lines, and in a few minutes I had a strike, and a battle royal ensued. As soon as the brute felt the sharp hook imbedded in its flesh it made a wild dash for liberty. My companion at once reeled in his line to keep it from becoming entangled with my own. With lightning speed my line played off, and, though click, brake and thumb tried to slow its motion, the wheel turned around with alarming rapidity, making that peculiar plaintive noise so well known to fishermen. Ten, 20, 50, 100 yards were quickly reeled off, and I began to wonder if he should ever stop. He hesitated, and then the reeling in began. But the minute the fish was brought closer to the boat he dashed off again in another direction.

This play continued until the fisherman was almost exhausted, and finally the shark himself tried, through rest, to gain fresh strength for another attempt to break the line and regain his freedom. The last run of the fish was toward the boat, compelling me to wind up the line so quickly as to make my wrist and fingers ache. He then allowed himself to be slowly pulled alongside, and he turned out to be a fine fellow about 4½ feet in length, gracefully built, but ugly and vicious looking.

By a dexterous thrust with his hand my companion caught hold of the shark's tail and landed him in the boat with a bounce. The prey now showed how much vitality he had left by beating the boat with his powerful tail and snatching at everything in sight with his jaws. Our seats were untenable, and we speedily placed ourselves out of his reach, my friend perching on the very bow and I hanging on to the extreme stern, leaving the fish in undisputed control of the space between us, every inch of which he wanted for his mad antics. He lashed rod, reel and fishing basket, seats and oars in his fury, but after awhile we managed to shackle his freedom somewhat by ramming an oar down his throat, which he gnawed in bulldog fashion. The exposure to the air, to the extreme heat and the parching rays of the sun gradually weakened his efforts until his stomach could be gashed so as to make him bleed to death.

An autopsy revealed that he had swallowed four eels, a hermit crab, still alive with shell and all; hard shell clams, a number of toadfish, sea robins, bass, cunners and all sorts of sea food. How he ever expected to digest the shellfish was a mystery to us.

Our sport continued, shark after shark being hooked, but some were lost. When my friend had his seventh strike, in went my line, and I watched developments. After a persistent fight he coaxed the fish alongside, and I grabbed hold of his tail with both hands and slammed him into the boat. This specimen was four feet long and unusually slender, and as turned and turned around until a good deal of line became entangled. I had meanwhile cast out again and held rod and reel in my right hand. In order to help my companion out of his tangle I grabbed the shark with my left hand by his tail and kept him as far from me as I could, but quicker than it can be told he turned completely around, forming a letter O with his body and, snapping at my hand, caught it with his teeth, tearing out pieces of flesh and lacerating it badly. It is needless to say that I made myself heard as I dropped the shark into the boat. From many wounds the blood poured, and I dipped my hand into the water to wash them out. It was soon colored red, and the sudden appearance of sharks at the very side of the boat, attracted by the blood, made me withdraw it in great fright.

Quick surgical assistance seemed imperative, as we feared that an important artery had been severed. My friend weighed anchor and rowed ashore. We had no cloth with which to make a bandage and begged the occupants of a passing sailboat for some linen. Their luncheon was wrapped in a napkin, which was put over my fast swelling hand. A doctor was at last found, but the wounds could not be sewed up on account of the inflammation which had set in.

With my uninjured hand I cut the jaws out of the shark and now discovered for the first time that there were six rows of teeth, sharper than needles, each tooth having at its root two barbed prongs. I then realized what a narrow escape I had had from losing my whole hand and congratulated myself upon having got off with only a dozen wounds and scratches, more or less painful and serious. I have kept the teeth as a memento of my adventure and have also two big scars as souvenirs of the day.

The lesson to be drawn from my experience is, do not catch sharks by the tail; it is dangerous. But with the dexterous use of the gaff there is little risk in this pastime.

SMART AT SPELLING.

A LESSON IN ORTHOGRAPHY THAT WAS DEARLY BOUGHT.

How a Couple of Shrewd Sharpers Won Thousands of Dollars by Working the Dictionary For Game Until They Were Brought to Grief.

"How do you spell 'choir?'" asked a man in the bookstore.

"What do you mean—paper or music?" inquired a smart young man who poses as an authority on all topics.

"Music, singing, of course," replied the man in search of orthographical information.

"C-h-o-i-r," responded the smart young man decisively.

"Q-u-i-r-e," chimed in a red bearded man who was busy looking at some books.

"You are referring to paper," said the smart young man, looking sadly at the interrupter. "We were speaking about music."

"I mean music, too," said the red bearded man calmly: "q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

The smart young man's expression changed from sadness to contempt. "You had better consult your dictionary," he said with a sneer.

"Never mind," retorted the red bearded man. "My way of spelling may be a little old fashioned, but you will find it correct according to Webster. You will also find it correct according to the Century Dictionary, and if I am not mistaken it is likewise given in the Standard. Your way is all right too."

The smart young man gave a sniff of scorn. "Josh Billings and you should have collaborated on a phonetic spelling book."

"Look here," said the red bearded man, "I'll bet you $8 that Webster's latest spells it 'q-u-i-r-e.'"

"Make it $5," said the smart young man, pulling out a roll.

"No; I don't want to rob you. Get the dictionary."

The money was put up and Webster's International brought out. There it was, "q-u-i-r-e, to sing in concert."

"I didn't mean a verb," said the smart young man, growing white around the ears. "Where is the noun?"

They found that, too, although it was marked obsolete. Then the smart young man wilted.

"I won't take your money," said the red bearded man, handing back the bills. "My name is Bell, George T. Bell. I have had educational advantages which you probably never received, and I spent several months learning the different ways to spell that word. Several years ago I was on the secret service. My partner and I had been on the trail of a pair of sharpers who had a repertory of 'con' games that would have made the ordinary bunko man look sick. They were men of far more than ordinary intelligence and had the manners of cultured men of the world. The way we happened to get them was a pure accident.

"My partner and I were going down from St. Louis on a Mississippi river packet. There were about 20 of us in the smoking room talking and trying to pass the time comfortably. Just as a lull came in the hum of conversation a young man seated at a table writing some letters looked up with a troubled air and said, 'Could any of you gentlemen tell me how to spell "choir?" I am a little puzzled over it.'

"'What kind of a one do you mean?' asked several.

"'Choir, to sing in concert,' chirped the young man, wrinkling his brow as if to recall the proper orthography.

"'C-h-o-i-r,' said a scholarly looking man with glasses on.

"'Q-u-i-r-e,' sang out a big, well fed old man off in the corner.

"'C-h-o-i-r,' repeated the first man with some emphasis. 'I thought every fool knew that.'

"'That's all right,' said the old man off in the corner. 'Money talks. I'll bet you $50 that Webster spells it "q-u-i-r-e" too.'

"'I'll raise you 50,' said the first man, who was a cotton buyer at Memphis.

"'All right,' said the big old man coolly. Then the others joined in and bet him to a standstill. They put up about $500. Then they got the dictionary, and, as just now, the man who bet on 'q-u-i-r-e' won.

"My partner and I waited till the money had changed hands, and then I said, 'Come on, Si.'

"I walked up to the young man and said: 'Come with me; I want you. I'll show you how to spell choir. Si collared the big old man and we waltzed them down below. You never saw two fellows look quite so cheap. They had cleaned up over $15,000 on that one trick, but they got four years and a half apiece. That is one spelling school I have attended that not every man goes to. That game is one which will catch nine educated men out of ten. You are all right, but you may still have something to learn.'

Then the smart young man offered the usual invitation in payment for the information.—Washington Post.

When a locomotive goes off the track it looks at first as if nothing could ever put it on again. No ordinary tools will move it an inch, and yet there is apparatus powerful enough to lift up that enormous engine and set it smoothly running again. When the human constitution is thrown off the track by some frightfully complicated disease, it looks as if only a miracle could restore it; and yet it can be done.

"It is my greatest desire," writes Mrs. Wm. S. Vollmer, of Concord, Cabarrus Co., South Carolina, in a grateful letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "to have you publish my daughter's cure; for it is the nearest to a miracle that I ever witnessed. She had St. Vitus's Dance so badly she could not hold her hands, feet or head still one moment, only when asleep. Mornings she could not dress herself; she would reel and often fall. Her shoulders and head were constantly jerking with great difficulty. Her tongue was often thrown out, and her face in different shapes.

"She could not take a dipper of water nor food, nor anything to her mouth. If she tried to put any food to her mouth she would smear it over her face and bosom. For several weeks she could not chew her food; all solid food I had to mash up fine. We could hardly understand anything she would try to say.

"I bought one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, one bottle of his 'Favorite Prescription' and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I wrote to Dr. Pierce and he answered promptly, giving advice how to give his medicines, and also how to keep her hygienic surroundings as near perfect as I could.

"After taking the medicines three weeks, I noticed the symptoms gradually leaving. I continued until the last dose of the two bottles (one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the other of 'Favorite Prescription') was given, then she needed no more. Those two bottles, with a vial of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, made her perfectly well. I wish everybody knew the great virtue in Dr. Pierce's medicines. If persons wishing to know more will write, enclosing stamp, I will gladly answer."

Do not hesitate to write to Dr. Pierce. He will advise you by mail, free of charge.

A Depressing Season.

Winter is the most trying season of the year, so far as health is concerned. Confinement in-doors, and overheated and impure air makes even usually strong people feel dull, languid, easily tired and generally run down.

A tonic is needed to aid nature in regaining lost energy. April is the month of all months when a tonic is of most service.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

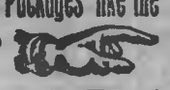
is the only true tonic medicine. These pills make rich, red energy-giving blood and transform listless, dull, tired and worn-out men and women into smiling, healthy, happy, work-loving people.

Thousands—some of them your neighbors—have been made well by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but you must get the genuine.

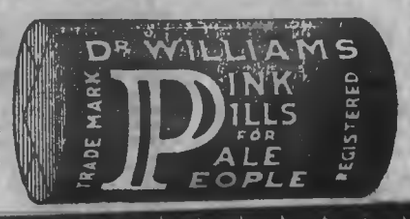
NERVOUS AND WORN OUT.

Mrs. Peter Mahar, Seal Cove, Que., writes: "It gives me real pleasure to acknowledge the benefit I have derived from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, for I believe had it not been for their use I would now be in my grave. My health was broken down, and the least exertion would fatigue me. I was troubled with dizziness, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart; my appetite was fickle, and I was extremely pale. I gave the pills a fair trial, and they have restored me to perfect health, and I can do all my household work without experiencing the least fatigue. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best tonic I know of for weak, tired pale people."

The Genuine are sold only in Packages like the engraving. WRAPPER PRINTED IN RED.



At all dealers, or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.



Exceptional Case.

"Now, sir," said the lawyer, looking sharply at the witness, "tell me whether you have contradicted yourself because of a defective memory or because you testified falsely in the first place."

"I guess it must be on account of my poor memory," said the witness. "I never told a lie in my life. That's why father always said I'd never make a lawyer."

"And so," rejoined the attorney, "because you couldn't lie well enough to be a lawyer and hadn't memory enough to learn any other occupation, he let you grow up to be just a common, everyday ass."

Inasmuch as this appears to be the first time in all history that a lawyer ever got the better of a witness, the case deserves to go on record.

The Trainboy's View of Clubwomen.

The traditional trainboy who has been wont to offer chewing gum to fair passengers and newspapers to the men evidently considers the modern woman somewhat of an enigma. Not many moons ago a lively party of clubwomen were en route to a convention when an interested spectator at a little station stepped up to the uniformed youth and curiously asked about the crowd.

"Don't know," gloomily grumbled the train vender. "They say they're literary, but I don't believe 'em. Not one has bought a book. They just talk and talk and talk."—Bertha Damaris Knobe in Woman's Home Companion.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

German Preps Alarmed.

Berlin, April 17.—The entire German press is greatly alarmed by the news that Emperor William intends to introduce in the Prussian Diet a Government measure creating the city of Berlin and its suburbs into a separate province and largely destroying the present self-government of the municipality. The Berliner Tageblatt published yesterday further details of the plan, which, it says, has existed for some time. Der Reichsbote and other Conservative papers approve the project.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:
Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

A Philadelphia Query.

Where are the barons of Runnymede,
Bold of speech and daring of deed,
Who gave King John some dreadful whacks
In the place where the chicken got the ax
And wrung the charter from his ribs
By jabbing him in the royal ribs
With arguments that they happened to state
Were backed by weapons up to date?
Where are the barons? They all are gone,
But their descendants are living on
In houses moderate, but complete,
In the town "where the grass grows in the street."

The case of the barons themselves, 'tis clear,
Is like that of "the snows of yesteryear,"
But the noble Order of the Crown
In Philadelphia and Germantown,
South of Market and north of Pine,
Flourishes in a lordly line,
Embracing names like Smith and Jones,
And even some Murphys and Malones.
Don't ask fool questions or do it alone
Over the long distance telephone,
For on this subject no jests are meet
In the town "where the grass grows in the street."

VIOLENT HEADACHES

Accompanied by Indigestion and Constipation cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

From Bath, Ont., comes the particulars of a remarkable cure effected by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. Jos. Gardiner was for forty years the victim of indigestion, constipation, and violent headaches. Nothing seemed to have the desired effect until he began the use of Dr. Chases's Kidney-Liver Pills, and they effected a complete cure. Mr. Gardiner writes:

"I have been troubled for over forty years with indigestion and constipation, would go for two weeks at a time. At intervals I would be taken with violent headaches. I spent dollars and dollars in vain, and was finally advised to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and must say that they are the only remedy that gave me permanent relief. I would not be without them for anything."

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH VESTRY MEETING.

HARMONY AND PROSPERITY IS THE GENERAL CONDITION.

An Excellent Financial Statement Submitted—Church Organizations Doing Good Work.

A well attended meeting of the vestry of St. Luke's church was held last night in the school house to hear the auditors' report and the reports of the various societies of the church. Rev. H. Symonds presided and opened the meeting with prayer.

The auditors' (Messrs. Grassett and Quartermaine) report was read by Mr. Quartermaine. It showed that the books and vouchers of the wardens had been examined and found correct. The balance on hand of current account on Easter Monday amounted to $29.57. The church property is valued at $21,250 and the mortgage debt on the school house is $1200.

The auditors made some suggestions regarding insurance and other matters, the whole document bearing witness to the thoroughness with which their work has been done. At the close of the meeting they received a vote of thanks.

The committee on Insurance reported.

The rector then made the annual report. There had been 18 baptisms, 7 marriages and 10 burials during the year. He congratulated the wardens and congregation on the financial position of the church. The envelope system was steadily making its way. He suggested that the envelope committees meet monthly. It was by far the best way of supporting a free church. He hoped there would be a more general response to the special collection. Whilst these had been better than for many years, it was still the case that only a small proportion of the congregation subscribed to them. The introduction of waterworks to Ashburnham would give the congregation an opportunity to beautify the grounds. He asked the meeting to appoint a committee to undertake this. The church attendance was, all things considered, fairly good. The congregation was not a large one, was very scattered. The evening attendance was considerably increased. The behaviour of the congregation was reverential and the responding was excellent. He regretted that the members attending the Holy Communion were not greater. He asked the members to consider whether regularity at this service was not as desirable as at any other service. There had been a decided increase in the proportion of men in the church, which he thought a very hopeful sign. Services from time to time had been held at Hair's school house, Auburn, and the Carlisle settlement. On the whole there was much to be thankful for. Harmony reigned throughout the congregation. He could not be sufficiently thankful for of many workers. Let all join together to promote the welfare of the church and the glory of God.

Mrs. Wm. Scott read the report of the Women's Auxiliary, which showed that the membership for the year was 43, against 36 last year. Two bales had been sent out and 52 articles of clothing had been furnished to the poor of the parish, and $75 had been handed to the church wardens for parochial projects. Mrs. E. A. Peck is president, Mrs. Philips, vice-president, Mrs. Wm. Scott secretary treasurer, and Miss Strickland recording secretary. Four representatives will attend the annual meeting in Toronto next week.

Miss Bertha Symonds read the report of the junior branch of the W. A. This branch has been formed since last Christmas. It has twenty members and Miss Helen Rogers is president. Sewing has been done for the Children's Aid Society and they were now working for Rev. C. Lord's mission in Apsley.

Mr. R. B. Rogers read the report of the Men's Chapter of the Guild. The objects of this chapter are the bringing together of the men of the congregation for the promotion of their mutual acquaintance and for the discussion of matters pertaining to the welfare of the church. These objects had been achieved. The meetings had been held regularly on the second Tuesday of each month, generally at the private houses of the members. Discussions as a rule were on matters connected with the church and visible traces of an increasing interest in the welfare of the church could be discerned. The Chapter had interested itself in the extension of the envelope system and had invited Rev. Mr. Troop to conduct the mission services held in February. It had further invited Rev. W. C. Allen, Chairman of the Toronto Committee on Systematic Giving, to preach on that subject in St. Luke's. The chapter was imbued with the feeling which was gradually spreading throughout the Anglican church that the laity should take greater personal interest in the church's work.

Miss Calcutt reported for the visiting chapter. The objects of this chapter were threefold, (1) to visit new comers to the parish (2) to visit the sick; (3) to supply the needs of the poorer members of the church. Many visits had been paid, flowers and dainties had been sent to the sick, and in conjunction with the W. A. clothing had been supplied to the poor. Baskets of provisions had been sent out this year for the first on Easter Sunday. She suggested that the members of the congregation should send in their names to the visiting chapter as ready to send in flowers and dainties to the sick when called upon to do so. Mrs. Meade is president and Miss Calcutt secretary of this chapter of the Guild.

Miss Alice Meade reported for the Decoration chapter of the Guild. Its object is to

at the great festivals and to care for the chancel and the church linen. The chapter thanks all members of the congregation who so liberally supply them with flowers and other materials for decoration.

Rev. H. Symonds, in the absence of Miss Aggie Calcutt, reported for the Young Woman's Chapter. This chapter has a very large membership, and is always ready to undertake good works for the church. It has lost two secretaries during the year. Miss Armstrong, who has been married, and Miss Bennett, who has removed from Ashburnham.

Mr. David Spence presented a most admirable report on the Sunday school. The report showed an increase in the number of scholars, and a large increase in the amount of the collections. During the year six addresses had been given to the children, by Revs. H. Symonds, G. H. Webbe, E. V. Stevenson, G. A. Troop, L. J. Bushell, respectively. He hoped the parents of the children would attend the children's services better in the future than they had done in the past. The library under the painstaking and efficient supervision of Messrs. Grange and Crane has been improved by the addition of 52 new books. Through the efforts mainly of Messrs. Quartermaine and Adams, the Sunday-School picnic had been a great success. One of our most highly esteemed teachers, Miss Armstrong, had been married to Mr. Joseph Kidd, and is followed by our best wishes for many sunny days. He hoped all parents would send their children to the Sunday School regularly. During the year the envelope system had been introduced into the Sunday School, with marked success. Two other important changes had been made, viz., the introduction of the International Sunday School Leaflet and the grading of the school with respect to the catechism used. In making these changes the Board have been imbued with a sincere ere

to do everything for the good of the Sunday School and we can only say with the poet Pope:

"If we are right, thy grace impart,
Still in the right to stay;
If we are wrong, oh! teach our hearts
To find that better way."

Mr. Harry Adams, secretary-treasurer to the Sunday School, read the financial statement. During the six months in which the envelope system had been in force, the collections had nearly doubled. Total receipts $163.22. Disbursements, $138.08. Balance in hand, $25.14.

All the reports were well drawn up, very interesting, and received with loud applause. The Rector added a word or two on the choir and are to be added the names of Lt. Col. H. C. Rogers and Mr. J. J. Turner, jun., who assist in the services. Mr. Turner is a licensed Lay Reader and frequently conducts services in parishes round about Peterborough.

The subject of the enlargement of the vestry then came up and after its necessity had been explained, and the fact that Miss Bryson had offered $50 towards the work, which would cost $200, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Moved by Mr. F. J. Jamieson, and seconded by Mr. R. B. Rogers, that this meeting of the vestry of St. Luke's church having heard the proposals to enlarge the vestry, hereby endorses the scheme and authorizes the church wardens to proceed with the work at the earliest possible period. It further nominates in addition to the church wardens the following to be a committee to raise subscriptions, and to act as a Building Committee, viz., the assistant wardens, Messrs. H. Nesbitt, J. J. Howden, G. Warde, and the mover and seconder, with power to add to their numbers.

The following committee was appointed on improvement of church grounds. The wardens and assistant wardens, Messrs. H. T. Strickland, A. Fitzgerald, James Curtis, S. R. Price, A. Waterman, Mark Burnham and Joseph Bell.

Business having been concluded, refreshments were served by the ladies of the Women's Auxiliary, and a very pleasant half hour was spent in chatting over the excellent reports received and the encouraging condition of the affairs of the church. The meeting closed by sing the doxology and the benediction was then pronounced by the Rector.

YOUNG SNYDER GOT AWAY.

The Father, Charged With Stabbing Charles Yokum, Arrested.

Port Ryerse, Ont., April 19.—The stabbing of Charles Yokum, while he was engaged in moving the household effects of Conrad Snyder here on Monday evening, has caused much excitement. Only the interference of neighbors saved Yokum's life. Old man Snyder stabbed the young man, while his son Charles struck Yokum with a handspike. About midnight the sheriff and deputies surrounded the house, and approaching at each means of exit, succeeded in arresting the old man Snyder at his home without much resistance, although trouble was expected. The younger Snyder was not found in the house, and has escaped, although every means is being taken to apprehend him. The authorities fear he has gone out of the country by means of one of the various steamers crossing Lake Erie at different points, as the railway lines have been carefully guarded. The victim of the assault, Mr. Charles Yokum, lies at his home, suffering from his wounds, and weak from loss of blood. He is not considered to be in a very dangerous condition, however, but will require careful attention for some time. The preliminary hearing has been set for Thursday, April 20, by which time it is expected Mr. Yokum will be able to make a statement of the assault, and the authorities hope to capture the younger Snyder.

11 Went to Death.

Nantucket, Mass., April 19.—The fishing schooner Eliza, of Beverly, Captain Hopkins, which sailed from Hyannis Monday evening for the fishing grounds, struck on Rose and Crown shoals at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and 11 of the crew of 14 were lost. The three survivors arrived at Siasconset in the schooner's dory, and report that the schooner is a total loss.

Guilty of Manslaughter.

Quebec, April 19.—At 5.30 o'clock last evening, after a strong charge against Dickson by Hon. Justice Bosse, the jury came in after three-quarters of an hour's deliberation with a verdict of manslaughter, coupled with a recommendation to the clemency of the court in favor of the prisoner.

Killed by a Batted Ball.

Dorchester, N.B., April 19.—Willie Dobson, aged 12, son of the late Walter Dobson, collector of customs, was instantly killed at school yesterday during intermission. A game of ball was going on and Dobson was struck in the back of the head by a batted ball and instantly killed.

Miner Killed at Rossland.

Rossland, B.C., April 19.—John Collins, a miner, fell from the 300-foot level in the Virgina shaft to the 500-foot level, and was instantly killed.

A DIVISION AT LAST.

A Crushing Defeat for Sir Hibbert Tupper in the House.

LIBERALS GET OVER TWO TO ONE

Mr. Bertram's Amendment Carried by 53 Majority—Western Members Speak—Mr. Morrison's Observations in the Yukon—The Debates Committee Sustained in Dismissing Mr. Pelland.

Ottawa, April 19.—The debate on the address in reply to the speech from the throne was brought to a conclusion last evening at 10.30, when the vote was taken on the amendment to the amendment moved by Mr. Bertram (Centre Toronto), which was carried upon a vote of 101 to 48. Mr. Bertram's amendment was as follows:

That we have observed with pleasure that on receipt of complaints against some of the officials in the Yukon district, His Excellency's Government took prompt action to enquire into the matter of such complaints, and have appointed Mr. William Ogilvie as commissioner for the purpose. Having entire confidence in the integrity and ability of Mr. Ogilvie, we are satisfied that his enquiry will be impartial and thorough, and will place His Excellency's advisers in possession of such information as is necessary to enable them to do justice to all parties concerned.

The debate yesterday was largely confined to members on the Government side from western constituencies, all of whom expressed their readiness to await the receipts of Mr. Ogilvie's report before demanding further investigation. Before the House adjourned Sir Wilfrid Laurier read a cablegram from the high commissioner in reference to the application of the new Imperial stamp duties to colonial securities.

A Question Day.

To-day's business will be practically one huge interrogation point, as there are no less than 181 questions on the order paper. There are also 15 bills to be introduced, 19 public bills and orders which have passed their first stages and stand for second reading, 92 notices of motion for papers, etc., and five second readings of private bills to be referred to committee, on the order paper, which during the 20 days of the debate has grown into quite a respectable pamphlet of 36 foolscap pages, so that it will be seen that the House has plenty of work cut out ahead of it for the next few days.

Committee Sustained.

The monotony of the long debate on the address was broken for over an hour yesterday afternoon by a breezy little debate on the adoption of the report of the debates committee recommending the dismissal of Mr. Pelland, one of the translators, for incompetency, the wind-up of the discussion being the first division of the session, which resulted in the adoption of the report by 89 yeas to 40 nays, and the consequent dismissal of Mr. Pelland, who had farmed out the translation to a member of the press gallery.

Bills Introduced.

Respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway, Mr. Gibson.

To amend the Civil Service Act, Mr. McMullan.

Debate on the Address.

Mr. Morrison excused his taking part in the debate on the ground of remarks by hon. members of the Opposition to the effect that he had been in the Yukon, and would probably make charges. He would deny the latter assertion categorically; moreover, he could assure the Opposition they would get very little comfort from him in the matter of support in their attacks on the Minister of the Interior, if they expected him to go to the extreme of supporting the opposition to the Government. He might admit, for the sake of argument, that his observations in the Yukon led him to believe the statements made by the Opposition were substantially correct; but was that, he asked, good and sufficient reason for denouncing the Government? Up to the time that newspaper reports of maladministration and corruption were received the Government had no means of obtaining information thereof. He described his visit at length, and said that the present administration of affairs in Dawson was all that could be desired, and asked why, therefore, the House should waste weeks discussing what had been. No judge could have got out to Dawton last fall, so the issue of the commission to Mr. Ogilvie was the best thing Mr. Sifton could have done. What Dawson people wanted now, he said, was not to turn the Grit Government out and put a Tory Government in, but to have the country opened up, and they looked to the Liberals to do it.

Mr. Craig followed in a general criticism of Mr. Morrison's speech, and said that if the whole of it was based on as inaccurate information as the statement that 45,000 had entered the Yukon territory, it was not to be relied on. The Government might pooh-pooh the charges made, but the country would not for a moment believe that or imagine that men occupying the position of the leader of the Opposition, that the senior member for Pictou, the member for Halifax, and the member for Victoria, would have made such specific charges as had been made against officials and connecting the Government with them unless there was some foundation for these charges. Any inquiry that would not be beyond criticism would not be satisfactory, and he suggested the inquiry should be held by a commission of three judges of the land, who would constitute a tribunal above reproach.

Mr. R. L. Richardson of Lisgar said that, as a newspaper man, he naturally watched very closely the progress of affairs in the Yukon, and when it was stated that Government officials were allowed to stake claims in competition with miners he at once felt that it must be stopped, and, playing the part of the candid friend, he entered a moderate protest at the time, and he had seen no reason to change his view up to the present. He congratulated the Government that they had seen their way to discountenance that sort of thing, and

SOME "STBAY THOUGHTS"

A PAPER ON THE EQUAL RIGHTS OF WOMEN.

Mrs. Wallis Gives Her Views on This Interesting Question at the Fortnightly Club's Meeting Last Evening.

A most interesting meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held last evening when Mrs. Wallis read a paper on "Stray Thoughts" which took the form of an essay on the rights of women in the matter of equal suffrage. Mrs. Wallis dealt first with the principal arguments which are brought to bear against the enfranchisement of women and afterwards gave a few of the reasons why women deserved to vote. To begin with first and foremost and always cropping up in the most unexpected places against equal suffrage, she found the old fighting excuse, "that women being unable to fight should not be permitted to vote," but as there were scores and scores of men who could not fight and yet voted, the speaker thought the argument a poor one. Voting was not a physical test, and it was a question whether those shouldering their muskets go out to conquer opposition by force, or those who through intelligence.

Earnestness and Integrity

wish to stamp out evils that are undermining the strength of the government, are best fitted to cast the vote which will place in authority those who have the power of framing laws. Napoleon realized fully the value of women to the state when he said "the great need of France is mothers". If women do not fight they give to the state all its soldiers. A women who goes down into the valley of the shadow death every few years, who gives up her health, her beauty, her means of improvement, her social pleasures, that she may furnish soldiers for the state certainly does as much for the defense of the state as the father who buys bread and shoes for the children.

A few of the reasons why women wished the ballot were:

1. That the rum curse may be suppressed.
2. That she may leave the right to her children.
3. That she may decide what is to be done with female criminals and criminal children.
4. That with the co-operation of good men they may purify politics.
5. That she may make better conditions for posterity.

Mrs. Wallis then proceeded to elaborate the five above mentioned points, and in the course of her remarks paid to the kindergarten system as being a great factor in reform by first winning the children and through them the parents. In her opinion there was no better ground work for the building up of a moral and religious character than that laid down in the Kindergarten.

A High Tribute

"The so-called "new woman" has been and is still a problem and indeed a source of terror to many conservative people, but that she has come to stay and has won her welcome from those who understand her claims and ideals is also true. For though it seems as if she is a sudden growth at the close of the 19th century, she has been slowly developing for many years. Man's growth has necessitated hers. One cannot progress without the other. Though she has been aggressive in some ways she has had to be. Reforms are never made except by an aggressor, and now that she is an accomplished fact may we not hope that a "new man" will be evolved who, standing hand in hand with the "new woman" will usher in the new time of Truth, Peace and the Brotherhood of Man, for believe me, the "new woman" is only the "old woman" "who has been made love to, wooed and married, and a" but she is working on broader, truer lines, making possible a better and nobler womanhood and motherhood than has ever been."

Mrs. James Kendry and Rev. H. Symonds followed in short addresses along the same lines, after which diversity was lent to the evening's programme by an informal discussion on the paper of Mrs. Wallis, participated in by Mrs. J. W. Garvin, Mr. F. D. Kerr, Mr. D. W. Dumble and Sheriff Hall.

NAVIGATION NOTES.

Ripples of News From the River and Rice Lake.

Mr. Wm. Collins, lockmaster, has the booms in position at the locks ready for business. He does not anticipate as much traffic on the river this year as last, through the fact that an enormous quantity of wood was brought up from Rice Lake to Peterborough, whereas this season there is no wood to be moved.

From appearances navigation will not open for some time yet as the Grand Trunk authorities were only notified yesterday to get their swing bridge in order. In the winter the bridge is bolted fast and it takes some time to get it in shape for the summer traffic.

The Eclipse was launched for the season yesterday and the crew would have taken her to Rice Lake this week if the G.T.R. swing bridge had been in working order.

Captain Maurice Lane, who had charge of the City of Peterborough last year is in town to-day conferring with the Directors of the Peterborough Navigation Company.

George Ball

has removed to the rooms over Oak Hall formerly occupied by Mr. Shaw, the artist, hall entrance on George street. He will be pleased to show you nobby sample ranges of new covert overcoatings, tweed and serge suitings and worsted trouserings for spring wear. These include the fashionable mixtures and weaves with new and popular effects. The goods he is selling at cost; for instance, fine covert overcoats, made to order as they should be made, only $12. Fine worsted trousers at a big price cut, only $3.50; why buy ready mades? Every age and style is met — every desire is assured. Ladies' tailoring in all designs.—Geo. Ball, over Oak

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

Never was a more pointed saying put into print, and yet to be honest only because it is policy is a poor kind of honesty. Better change "policy" to "principle" and the world will like you better. In the medical world there is one medicine honest for principle's sake—and that is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

It is the specific of the age for all blood troubles. The liver, kidneys and bowels are all toned up by its action as a cleanser and thus good health ensues. It never disappoints.

Rheumatism—"I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal for rheumatism. It has done me more good than any other medicine I have taken." MRS. PATRICK KENNEY, Brampton, Ont.

Bad Cough—"After my long illness, I was very weak and had a bad cough. I could not eat or sleep. Different remedies did not help me but Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up and I am now able to attend to my work." MINNIE JAQUES, Oshawa, Ont.

Biliousness—"I have been troubled with headache and biliousness and was much run down. Tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it gave me relief and built me up." A. MORANSON, 89 Defoe Street, Toronto, Ont.

Heart Trouble—"I had heart trouble for a number of years and different medicines failed to benefit me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and three bottles completely and perfectly cured me." MRS. C. A. FLINN, Wallace Bridge, N. S.

A Safeguard—"As I had lost five children with diphtheria I gave my remaining two children Hood's Sarsaparilla as they were subject to throat trouble and were not very strong. They are now healthier and stronger and have not since had a cold." MRS. W. H. FLECKER, Pembroke, Ont.

Varicose Veins—"I have been a great sufferer from varicose veins, which swelled my foot and limb, discharging watery matter. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and the sores healed." MRS. A. E. GILSON, Hartland, Vt.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Mail and Empire referring to Liberal campaign funds, asks, "How do they get their tens of thousands?" The Mail's "tens of thousands" and its political facts come from the same source, its overworked imagination.

The Mail and Empire and other Conservative organs are denouncing the proposed Liberal Government redistribution bill without any knowledge of a line of it, for it has not yet been brought down to the house. They are ready to condemn what exists only in their imagination, Yet for seventeen years and five years they kept silent and thus showed approval of two of of the most iniquitous gerrymander acts that ever sullied the pages of the statute books of a civilized country—those of 1882 and 1892.

Jules Verne's story "Round the World in Eighty Days", published a few years ago, was considered the dream of a romancer who had great expertness in drawing a very long bow, even for a fictionist, Now, it is claimed that the completion of the Trans-Siberian Railway will permit the circumambulation of the earth in thirty-three days.

WHAT HARD COAL WE USE.

The quantity of anthracite coal that Canada imports from the United States in a year is very considerable. In the twelve months ended with June, 1898, our fiscal year, 1,460,701 tons was entered, valued at $5,847,000, which is nearly $4 per ton. In this is included anthracite coal dust. The quantity imported by each province is shown in the following table:

	tons.	Value.
Ontario	939,500	$3,769,925
Quebec	391,380	1,596,402

A CHRISTIAN CORPORATION.

The report of the London County Council Committee on Tramways is a cheerful document, says the London Star. It spells a better day and better pay all round. It gives the workers one day's rest in seven instead of eleven, and for six days' work pays them more than they got for seven. This is excellent, and it is further proof of the admirable business qualities of the Council that they combine humanitarianism with sound finance. The increased profits of the Council's trams will provide a sum of £39,000 for the relief of the rates, exclusive of £34,000 from the Metropolitan system. The Council is still in the proud position of being a good master, and it still makes humanity pay.

The Original.

There is only one remedy known that has a combined action on the Kidneys and liver and saves the most complicated ailments of these delicate filtering organs, and that is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the original Kidney pill. This world famous kidney and liver cure has an enormous sale in all parts of Canada and the United States.

that they had issued an order in council forbidding it. He also complimented the Postmaster-General upon having forbidden officials in his department from making claims or demanding fees for the delivery of letters, visiting the contravention of that order by punishment.

While he considered the investigation should be of a judicial character he was willing that Mr. Ogilvie should now execute his commission and report to the House. If that report were not acceptable or satisfactory to the House, then further investigation might be made. He advocated, however, that they should await Mr. Ogilvie's report. Even if ninety-nine one-hundredths of those statements which had been made were untrue, any impression given that they were not properly investigated would be unjust to the country. If Mr. Ogilvie's report were not down before the House rose he should be prepared to vote for a commission that would thoroughly investigate these charges in a manner that would be satisfactory to both sides of the House.

Bertram's Amendment Carried.

The debate was continued by Col. Domville, Mr. Oliver and Mr. Davin until 10.25, when the members were called in and the House divided on Mr. Bertram's amendment as follows:

The Division.

Yeas—Angers, Bain, Basinet, Beausoleil, Belcourt, Bell (Prince), Bernier, Bertram, Bethune, Blair, Borden (King's), Bostock, Bourassa, Bourbonnais, Britton, Brown, Bruneau, Burnett, Cartwright, Casey, Champagne, Copp, Costigan, Dechene, Demers, Debell, Domville, Douglas, Dupre, Edwards, Ellis, Erb, Ethier, Featherston, Fisher, Flint, Fortin, Gauthier, Gauvreau, Gibson, Godbout, Graham, Haley, Harwood, Holmes, Hurley, Hutchison, Johnson, Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere Lang, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lavergne, Legris, Lewis, Livingston, Logan, Mackie, McCarthy, McGregor, McGugan, McHugh, McInnes, McIsaac, McLellan (Prince), McLennan, McMillan, McMullen, Madore, Marcel, Martineau, Maxwell, Meigs, Mignault, Monet, Morrison, Oliver, Parmalee, Paterson, Penny, Pettet, Proulx, Rats, Richardson, Rinfret, Rogers, Ross, Russell, Rutherford, Savard, Scriver, Semple, Sifton, Snetsinger, Somerville, Stenson, Stubbs, Sutherland, Tolmie, Tucker, Turcot, Wood (Hamilton). Total 101.

Nays—Beattie, Bell (Pictou), Bennett, Blanchard, Borden (Halifax), Cargill, Carscallen, Chauvin, Clancy, Clarke, Cochrane, Corby, Craig, Davin, Dugas, Earle, Ganong, Gillies, Gilmour, Haggart, Hale, Hodgins, Hughes, Ingram, Kaulbach, Kendry, Klock, Kloepfer, Lariviere, Macdonald (King's), McCleary, McDougall, McInerney, McLennan (Glengarry), McNeil, Marcotte, Martin, Mills, Moore, Morin, Pope, Prior, Quinn, Roche, Taylor, Tupper (Sir Charles), Wallace, Wilson. Total 45.

The Paired Members.

The following members were paired: McClure-Guilett, Christie-Roddick, Davies-Sir C. H. Tupper, Cowan-Montague, Mulock-McAllister, Fitzpatrick-Maclaren, Davis-Tyrwhitt, Guite-Ives, Macpherson-Osler, Dyment-McCormack, Tarte-Foster, Campbell-Seagram, Fielding-Powell, Landerkin-Broder, Calvert-Reid, Fraser-Henderson, Dr. Macdonald-Maclean, Talbot-Bergeron, Frost-Sir Adolphe Caron, Geoffrion-Poupore, Brodeur-Tisdale, Beith-J. R. Robertson, Malouin-Bell (Addington), Macdonnell-Fergusson, Leduc-Rosamond, Carroll-Sproule, Prefontaine-Monk, Charlton-Robinson.

The main motion was then declared carried on division, amid cheers from the Government benches.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the usual motions that the address be engrossed and presented to His Excellency.

Sir Richard Cartwright gave the usual notices with respect to moving the House into committee of supply and of ways and means.

Tax on Colonial Bonds.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that he had just received a telegram from Lord Strathcona with reference to the tax on bonds, which he read as follows:

London, April 18.—Laurier, Ottawa.—Government bill re stamp duties not yet printed. According to resolutions new duties only affect securities not now subject stamp duty, consequently Government and other colonial stocks issued and registered here not affected. Will affect stocks of all kinds issued in Canada and interest payable there if sent here for sale or negotiable purposes. Had meeting my office to-day with colonial agents-general and am watching matter closely. Wrote Courtney fully Saturday's mail. (Signed) Strathcona.

The House adjourned at 11 o'clock.

THE SENATE.

Ottawa, April 19.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon, in reply to Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. David Mills said that William Henry Parent, the man employed by the Dominion Alliance to investigate frauds in the vote on the plebiscite in Quebec, has not been appointed an emigrant agent, or to any other position, by the Dominion Government, nor had he received employment from any the provincial Governments.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell moved for a return of correspondence with the Government or any member thereof relating to the introduction of a prohibitory liquor law, together with all affidavits and other documents relating to the vote cast on the question of prohibition in September last and the frauds alleged in connection therewith, and spoke at some length to his motion.

Senator Scott moved the adjournment of the debate, and the Senate adjourned at 6 o'clock.

For an Enlarged Scott Act.

Ottawa, April 19.—A meeting of the committee of members of the House of Commons and Senate, selected by the legislative committee of the Dominion Alliance and members of the Commons favorable to prohibition, was held yesterday forenoon. There were present Senator Vidal (in the chair), and Messrs. Ganong, Moore, McMullen, Christie and Flint. Mr. McClure was absent in Brockville, but before leaving he gave his assent to the report of Messrs. Flint, Christie and McMullen, which was in favor of an enlarged Scott Act, so that any province wanting prohibition could have it.

On the other hand, Messrs. Ganong and Moore still adhered to bringing a resolution before Parliament in favor of a prohibitory act. They will present a minority report to the Dominion Alliance committee when it meets on Thursday next.

Grain Men in Conclave.

Ottawa, April 19.—Representatives of the Boards of Trade of Toronto, London, Hamilton, Kingston, Montreal, Peterboro, Guelph, Thorold, Port Arthur and Fort William, and of the western and eastern Grain Standard Boards and the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, met in the railway committee room of the House of Commons yesterday morning. Sir Henri Joly and Mr. Sifton received the deputation. A number of resolutions affecting the trade were passed.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, .T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

BROCKVILLE'S CLOSE.

Hon. Mr. Fielding Winds Up the Speaking in the Constituency.

Brockville, April 19.—The Liberal campaign practically closed, so far as speaking is concerned, with a splendid meeting last night in the Opera House. The chief speakers were Hon. Mr. Fielding, Dr. Landerkin, M.P., and Mr. Duncan C. Fraser, M.P. Hon. Mr. Tarte was to have been present, but was unfortunately prevented by illness from carrying out his intention. His place was taken by the Finance Minister, whose fluent and eloquent address greatly delighted the listeners. The Ministers and their companions were heard by an immense audience, who crowded the place to the doors, many having to be turned away for lack of accommodation. The hall rang with plaudits while the speakers were expounding the Government's policy and vindicating the present Administration. The cheers rang out with greater energy than ever when the tactics of the Opposition were subjected to searching criticism and effective denunciation. It was a great night for Liberalism, and the meeting will long be remembered for the keen interest in the discussion of political questions and the spontaneous enthusiasm displayed by the immense gathering of electors.

A Penniless Widow's Deed.

Duluth, Minn., April 19.—Penniless, behind in her rent and hopeless of the future, Georgiana Dworschak, a widow aged 26, shot herself and two children Monday night. The three bodies were found yesterday afternoon. The children were 4 and 6 years old respectively.

Penitentiary for Seven Years.

Montreal, April 19.—Arthur Fiset, the defaulting notary, was brought before Judge Desnoyers yesterday morning and he pleaded guilty to 12 charges of forgery. The judge sentenced the accused to seven years on each of four separate charges, the sentences to run concurrently.

NEW BRITISH IMPOST.

Statement of the Effect of the Taxation of Our Bonds.

SUPPOSED NOT TO HURT CANADA

The Full Powers of the Samoan Commission Described in the House by the Right Hon. William St. John Brodrick—An Awful Record of Deaths From Plague in India.

Montreal, April 19.—A Star special cable from London says: Upon the invitation of Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the agents-general of Canada, South Africa and Australia met in the high commissioner's office yesterday afternoon to discuss the Chancellor of the Exchequer's proposal to increase the duties on colonial wines, and to impose a new duty of five shillings on colonial bonds and stocks.

Cablegrams from Ottawa reporting the discussion in the Dominion House of Commons on Monday have special interest to the proceedings, but it transpired during the session that the new duties will not affect the Dominion or provincial loans issued and registered in England, which already are heavily taxed, but will only affect local bonds and stocks, issued and made payable in the colonies when negotiated in the United Kingdom.

The opinion was general that the Colonial Governments should seek to secure more favorable treatment of colonial as distinct from foreign bonds, but it was found necessary to await the issue of the Chancellor's bill in order to see the exact text of the proposals before taking official action.

THE COMMISSION'S POWERS.

A Statement of Them Made in the House of Commons.

London, April 19.—The Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, Right Hon. William St. John Broderick, answering a question in the House of Commons yesterday as to whether the recent statement of the German Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Buelow, in the Reichstag, correctly outlined the Samoan situation, made a fuller explanation of the situation of affairs. He said that for the purpose of restoring tranquility in Samoa the three powers had appointed commissioners to undertake the provisional government of the islands. They were to exercise supreme authority, and no action by the commissioners was to be valid unless unanimously assented to. In the event of differences of opinion, the commissioners will refer to their respective Governments for instructions. They will also furnish separate reports and make recommendations unanimously or separately to their respective Governments regarding the future government of the islands.

QUARTER OF A MILLION DEATHS.

Victims in India Since the Beginning of the Bubonic Plague.

Bombay, April 19.—According to statistics gathered regarding the bubonic plague, it is established that there have been 250,000 deaths recorded in India since its beginning. These figures, however, are undoubtedly far below the actual total, as the natives are known to have concealed quite a number of deaths. Bombay Presidency suffered the most, being responsible for 134,000 deaths, without counting those which occurred in the city of Bombay, which, with Kurrachee, was the chief hotbed of the disease. The deaths in Bombay Presidency are still about 1,000 weekly. With the return of hot weather the plague, which is now the third epidemic, is again rapidly disappearing. The mortality, which was 350 daily in the city of Bombay five weeks ago, has now sunk to 100 per day. The Haffkine fluid has been very successful.

GEN. GASCOIGNE COMMANDED.

Indian Troops Drove the Chinese Before Them and Killed Some.

New York, April 19.—A despatch to The Herald from Hongkong says: Thousands of Chinese advanced toward the British camp at Taipohu on Monday and fired several rounds of artillery at ineffective range.

Major-General Gascoigne, whose force is less than 500, ordered his Asiatic artillery to engage the enemy, who occupied the surrounding hills.

Shrapnel drove the Chinese out and the Indian Infantry advanced, the Chinese retiring for several miles, burning villages. The Chinese losses are unknown, and they are carrying away their dead and wounded. The British had no loss. It is proposed to advance the British position.

With the exception of his staff, General Gascoigne is utilising only Indian troops. Hongkong is guarded by volunteers and Welsh Fusiliers.

500 HOUSES BURNED.

La Pointe-a-Pitre, Island of Guadeloupe, Almost Wiped Out.

St. Thomas, D.W.I., April 19.—A fire destroyed 500 houses at La Pointe-a-Pitre, Island of Guadeloupe, Monday night. La Pointe-a-Pitre was nearly destroyed by an earthquake in 1843, but has greatly prospered since that time. Its population numbers about 16,000.

Crowded Balcony Collapsed.

Cagliari, Island of Sardinia, April 19.—While the King and Queen of Italy were starting yesterday for Sassari, about 60 miles from here, in order to meet the British fleet, which is expected in the Gulf of Sassari, a balcony filled with cheering school girls collapsed. Fourteen of the children were injured and a man was killed. Their Majesties caused the train to be stopped, alighted, and visited and consoled with the victims. The royal party then resumed its journey amid the acclamations of the people.

Before leaving for Sassari, Their Majesties gave the prefect of Calgiari 100,000 lire to distribute among the poor. Later in the day three of the school girls died from the injuries which they received.

MADAME WALLACE.

Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realize the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles.

Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 338 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

Rich Natives Are Trying to Arrange a Peace With U. S. Commissioners—Arevalo Thinks if Emissaries Were Sent to Aguinaldo That He Might Help on Peaceable Solution.

Washington, April 19.—The Navy Department has given out the following despatch from Admiral Dewey, at Manila:

The Yorktown visited Baler, east coast of Luzon, P.I., April 19, for the purpose of rescuing and bringing away the Spanish forces, consisting of 80 soldiers, three officers and two privates, who were surrounded by 800 insurgents. Some of the insurgents, armed with Mauser rifles * * * * by natives. Lieut. J. Gilmore, while making * * * ambushed, were fired upon and captured. Fate unknown, as insurgents refused to communicate afterwards. The following are missing: The officer previously referred to, Chief Quartermaster W. W. Walton, Coxswain J. Ellsworth, Gunner's Mate H. J. Hygard, Sailmaker's Mate Vendgit, Seamen W. H. Rinders and C. W. Woodbury, Apprentices D. W. A. Venville, A. J. Peterson, Ordinary Seaman F. Brisolese, O. B. McDonald, Landsmen L. T. Edwards, F. Anderson, J. Dillon and C. A. Morrissey.

MOVING FOR PEACE.

Some Rich Filipinos Appoint Themselves a Peace Commission to Meet the U. S. Commission.

New York, April 19.—A despatch to The Herald from Manila says: "In an interview General Lagarda said that a committee of 22 Filipinos had been appointed to confer with the peace commission for the following purposes:

1. To obtain as large autonomous rights for the Filipino people as possible.
2. To bring about peaceful relations between the insurgents and the American authorities.
3. To insist that Americans and Filipinos only shall occupy public offices.

Arevalo, a former aide to Aguinaldo, is now in Manila. He said, in an interview, that if the Americans would send emissaries to Aguinaldo now he thought a peaceful solution of the present trouble was probable.

Influential men think that this commission of rich Filipinos is eager to protect property and has little influence with the insurgents.

One branch of the committee will approach Aguinaldo with the terms, and will endeavor to persuade him to accept them. It is considered doubtful however whether any members of the committee would dare to confer personally with the rebel leader. The committee includes several persons recently condemned to death by Aguinaldo for petitioning him to cease fighting.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

KIDNEY-SICK PEOPLE!

By far the largest army of sufferers in the world are the kidney-sick people—but by far the largest army of the cured ones attribute their release from disease to the great South American Kidney Cure—Cures Bright's disease. Cures diabetes. Cures all bladder ailments.

Kidney diseases are the most insidious of all diseases common to humanity; within the past few years medical science has made wonderful strides in coping with its ravages. South American Kidney Cure has proved rich in healing power, and every day testimony is piled up for its great curative qualities. Where kidney disease exists it is generally indicated by certain changes in the urine, such as mucus, sediment, albumen, brick dust, acid and blood—pain is not necessarily an accompaniment, which only aggravates the insidious nature of it. Testing and experimenting has disclosed the fact that the passing through these organs of the solid particles in the ordinary course of circulation do in a remarkably short while clog up, grind out and impair them so that the functions of these organs are not performed and disease lays hold on the patient with a ruthless hand. Kidney diseases require a solvent—South American Kidney Cure is a solvent—it is a kidney specific—claims to be no more—it has been tested by eminent medical authorities on kidney diseases, and proved and testified to by them as the surest and safest cure for all diseases of the kidneys and bladder. It's a purifier—a healer—a health builder—efficacious alike to man or woman.

Good News from the North Country—A young machinist in a large manufacturing concern in Northern Ontario, fell a victim to the dropsical form of kidney disease through atmospheric changes in following his daily labors—he continued his work until almost commanded to quit by the physician from whom he had been receiving treatment. He visited Toronto and consulted an eminent authority on kidney diseases. The doctor sent him home with an hopeful story of himself as he could give, but wrote privately to the young man's physician that it was only a matter of time with him until death would claim another kidney victim. When he began to realize for himself that his case was hopeless he took his case in his own hands, determined to fight for his life. He experimented with many so-called cures without relief. South American Kidney Cure was brought to his notice, and like everything else, he tried it—to his astonishment he began to feel better under its use. He continued to gain strength—he took six bottles—and to-day that same young man can be found at that same lathe, working for that same concern, hale and hearty as the first day he went there. He gives all the credit to South American Kidney Cure.

SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE—Is a nerve healer. Cures indigestion and all stomach troubles which are forerunners of nervous collapses.

SOUTH AMERICAN RHEUMATIC CURE—Has lifted men off a bed of pain after a few days' use, who have not been free from suffering for years.

DR. AGNEW'S OINTMENT cures blind, bleeding, itching or ulcerating piles in from three to five nights. 35 cts.

ALL SAINTS' MAY SEPARATE.

The Vestry wants the Parish to be Divided.

A MISSION WHICH HAS GROWN.

At an Intensely Interesting Meeting of All Saints' Vestry Last Night the Congregation Broached the Subject of Separation from St John's.

A subdued feeling of excitement pervaded the vestry meeting in All Saints church last evening, caused through the fact that the congregation was prepared to ask for a separation from St. John's, which fact, however, was unknown apparently outside the church membership.

Rev. J. C. Davidson occupied the chair and stated, in opening, that the meeting had been adjourned to the present date in order that action might be taken on the report of St. John's Advisory Committee, in reference to the increase in the stipend of Rev. Mr. Armitage and the disposition which it was proposed to make of his services. Mr. Davidson then called upon the representative members of All Saints church for their report regarding the action taken the previous evening at St. John's vestry meeting.

Mr. W. B. Bamford stated that the clause referring to All Saints church in the Advisory Committee's report recommended that Mr. Armitage's salary be increased by $100, which augmented the stipend to $700, of which sum All Saints church paid $500 and St. John's $200. He did not think it was fair that Mr. Armitage should be asked to accept $700 a year, when Rev. Mr. Stevenson had drawn $770 and Rev. Mr. Kenrick $850 per annum. Mr. Armitage should receive at least $400 from St. John's church if he was to do half the work of the parish. His work

Spoke for Itself.

He had accomplished a great deal in the South Ward. When the report of the Advisory Committee had been brugoht in at St. John's vestry meeting, the clause in question, after some discussion, had been referred back to the Committee with instructions to consutl with All Saints advisory body on the matter, with the object of trying to settle the question amicably. The point now arose as to what was best to be done under the circumstances. If St. John's could do no more for Mr. Armitage, it would be better to let All Saints congregation make up the entire stipend and have the services of Mr. Armitage to themselves. With the Rector's consent, two parishes could then be formed.

Mr. Wm. Buller, one of All Saints church wardens, who had also attended St. John's vestry meeting, stated that the members of All Saints congregation thought that Rev. Mr. Armitage had quite enough to do in connection with that church without assisting the Rector of St. John's. A great number had spoken to him to this end. His personal opinion was that one man should devote his entire attention to All Saints church. There was here now too much work for Mr. Armitage and a committee of the men would have to assist him.

Mr. D. H. Burritt was of the opinion that the offer of St. John's vestry to only give $100 more towards the stipend of Mr. Armitage, was most unfair. Even $400 was too small a sum for that congregation to offer when they claimed half of his time. He thought that the sooner there was a separation between the two churches, the better it would be for both. All Saints would pay rather than submit to St. John's taking half of Mr. Armitage's services and not paying the salary. He was in favour of separation—amicably if possible, but if not possible amicably, then otherwise.

Rev. Mr. Davidson in speaking on the subject dealt fully with the historical aspect of the relations between All Saints and St. John's, and in the most conciliatory spirit advised the meeting to first face the question as to whether any further increase could be raised in that congregation, and secondly if they thought they were not fairly dealt with to express this in a resolution to be laid before the St. John's committee.

The advisory committee, he was sure, would do everything possible to give aid and if anything would err on the side of generosity. It might sometime in the future be in the interest of the church to have the parish divided, and if he could be brought to see this no one would be more anxious than himself to bring it about. He would make the proposition to the Bishop, but thought it advisable to thoroughly discuss the matter at a committee meeting. If All Saints was resolved to stand alone he would like to see it free of debt first. If there was one sphere which the should not invade it was the church of God, and an endeavour should be made to carry on the work in co-operation and not competition.

Mr. R. W. McFadden urged that a committee from All Saints meet a committee from St, John's and discuss the matter fully.

Mr. W. B. Bamford said that there would be no competition with St. John's, as the congregation of All Saints was almost entirely composed of new comers to the town who had never attended any other church. The church had to made attractive to comers and Rev. Mr. Armitage was the only man who could fill it. It was not a mission now but a good sized congregation.

Mr. R. E. Layfield thought the committees from the two churches should first take up the question of separation, and if it was decided not to separate then the matter of stipend could be discussed.

Mr. John Bourne was not anxious to see a separation, but thought All Saints congregation should be allowed to have a curate to themselves. Rev. Mr. Armitages' absence at any time from the church made a difference in the attendance.

Mr. W. D. Points, church warden, stated that All Saints wanted a separation.

All Were in Favour of it and they might as well say so, but he was sorry for it as it would mean competition and cutting one another's throats. Rev. Mr. Armitage might leave All Saints at any time, which would change the aspect materially.

Mr. R. W. McFadden was sure there no intention to harm St. John's in any way. None of St. John's congregation attended All Saints. He had always maintained that Peterborough could maintain four English churches.

Mr. Evans thought that All Saints was quite able to stand on its own bottom.

Mr. Bamford advised caution in the matter, stating that All Saints barely came out square last year when helped by $100 from St. John's and $35 from the rector. If a change was to be made the matter should be approached carefully. Could the congregation afford to pay Mr. Armitage seven or eight hundred dollars? A committee should be appointed to ascertain just what the financial strength of the congregation amounted to. Seconded by Mr. Buller he moved that the advisory committee of the two churches consult on the matter of separation, and that the All Saints committee also ascertain the feeling of the congregation on the subject.

The motion was carried unanimously and the meeting then adjourned for two weeks.

EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING

The Examiner Commended as an Excellent Medium.

The following letter from the principal of the Central Business College, Toronto, relative to the value of the Examiner as an advertising medium, speaks for itself.

WAS RUDE TO HIM.

Robert McDonald Remanded for a Week for Sentence.

At this morning's session of the police court, Robert McDonald, who says he hails from Lindsay, but whose residency there is denied by the chief of police of that town, was charged with resisting arrest and assaulting a policeman. Constable McGinty was the complainant. Last Saturday morning, the constable says, he was instructed to keep his eyes open for a man who was wanted at Smith's Falls for theft. He met the prisoner, who bore a resemblance to the person described and he attempted to gather him in. This did not suit the taste of McDonald, and he objected somewhat violently, even going so far as to kick McGinty in the face and bite his thumb. When asked what he had to say the prisoner pleaded not guilty, but immediately changed it to guilty, explaining that he had been drunk at the time and was not aware what he was doing. McDonald did not appear to feel his position for he grinned broadly as the constable related the rude manner in which he had been treated. After hearing the evidence of several other witnesses, Magistrate Dumble reserved judgment for a week. In the meantime an effort will be made to ascertain whether McDonald is the man wanted at Smith's Falls.

"THE BOGIE LADY."

The Plot of the Little Play—What it Means and Promises.

The Examiner was honoured with an invitation to a full dress rehearsal of the fairy phantasy "The Bogie Lady," an original production by a well-known local literary lady, Miss Alma Frances McCollom. Nursery lore is introduced in an interesting and pleasing manner. The scene of the play is laid in the evening in the nursery of the celebrated Jack Horner of furtive pastry proclivities. After eating a stolen plum pie, he plunges into a volume of fairy tales. He is skeptical of the existence of these beings. He sleeps and the stolen pie has its revenge—in a wierd dream he sees visions. Robin Goodfellow arouses him partially, and there passes before him in shadowy pantomime in answer to the incantations of the bogie lady, upon the white wall of his nursery, a series of fairy pictures in which among others the comedy of Cinderella is splendidly set forth. The Bogie Lady interprets the characters as they develop. The plot, chiefly spectacular, is charming, and the incidental music sprightly and unusually tuneful, is a the composition of Mr. Charles J. Rodgers, and is set to the spirited libretto of Miss McCollom. The entire production, which promises to be put on at St. John's school house on Thursday night in a very pleasing manner, is very creditable to all concerned.

A SACHARINE SYMPOSIUM.

Sweetness and Light-heartedness—A SylvanSoiree in a Sugar Camp.

Yesterday afternoon a delightful sugar symposium was celebrated in Tully's grove, a beautiful stretch of maple studded forest in North Monaghan, west of Wallis grove. Mrs. H. S. Greenwood as symposiarche or chaperone arranged the party, which consisted of about fifty ladies and gentlemen. The ladies reached the grove, most of them by vans, the gentlemen generally walking. Tully's grove is an ideal spot for a sugar party. The towering boles of the maples spring from clean dry leaf-strown soil, free from undergrowth. A rustic sugar hut stands in the grove, a stone fire-place, provided with the necessary kettles furnished all necessary appurtenances for the feast and the lordly trees furnished several gallons of their life-blood. The reduction of this sap to the consistency of syrup furnished great fun. When the proper point had been reached, a big pan of snow, found in the lee of a clump of evergreens, was procured and over this the syrup was poured and, lo, the a la belle sauvage and dipping their spoons were hastily improvised and the jolly party surrounding the pan, a la belle saurage, and dipping their spoons in the sweet mass licked them with childish relish. The solemn old woods were shocked at the light-hearted cachinatory accompaniment to the delightful, if somewhat stickly toffy enjoyment, while the cynical blackbird whistled a sibillant criticism of the scheme and the shiny crow from the top of a blasted pine cawed a hoarse protest against the unseemly interruption of the quiet of her nursery.

At the conslusion of this glutinous number on the programme, the small quantity of residual toffy was reduced to sugar and distributed as souvenirs in bon-bonnieres quaintly wrought, in cornucopia form, of birchen bark.

Then followed an al fresco luncheon, in which sandwiches played an important part, but the piece de resistance was the toasted bread which had been impaled upon rustic toasting forks made of a crutched stick. In the process the cheeks of the fair rotissoires blazed with new roses and many a watching swain built him a little chateau en Espagne with the laughing toast-maiden as presiding priestess.

Altogether the afternoon of the first really spring day of the season was delightfully enjoyed by the jolly party called together in Tully's grove.

THE STOCK YARDS QUESTION.

A Pertinent and Timely Letter Upon the Subject.

The Editor of The Examiner.

Sir,—Allow me through the medium of your columns to express my views regarding the scheme which has been before our town council for some time back, with the idea of establishing a live stock market and feeding yards in Peterborough similar to those now existing in Toronto, Montreal, Detroit, Buffalo and other live stock trading centres.

From what I can learn I believe that the railroads, both Grand Trunk and C.P.R. and the Western cattle men, both throughout Western Ontario and the Western States, see advantages to their trade in making this an emporium for the handling of cattle produced in the Midland district, and also a feed station for their through stock, fat cattle being shipped from the West to Boston for export and stockers being shipped from Eastern Ontario to the ranchers in the West to be fed. If this correct would it not be a mistake for our good people to drive them away? A stock yard properly established and run here, would, I think, circulate more money than any one industry now established in the town, and is the circulation of money that makes a town. Its transactions are all in cash and returns are quick, and the benefit of this circulation would, I think, be felt at once by our merchants.

Some of the ratepayers object to the cattle yards on the ground that they are a nuisance. I cannot see that they will be any more of a nuisance than quite a number of establishments now within the bounds of our corporation, and cities like Chicago, Toronto and Montreal maintain these stock yards at the most convenient points for handling the stock, that is, where they can get the best railroad facilities within the corporation.

I do not propose advocating that our town fathers shall trample upon the rights of any citizen but I think that steps should be taken to ascertain what damages, if any, would be sustained by property holders in the vicinity and that they be remunerated accordingly. I think we are safe in following the example of the progressive cities above mentioned.

We are the centre of a very large stock producing country and we have all the facilities that both railroads offer, and in my opinion, if properly handled, this trade would be doubled in three years.

The establishment of a proper marmet here would bring Toronto prices to the farmers in our vicinity, whereas now they only get Toronto prices less the cost of transporting the cattle to Toronto. This freight which is a considerable item in the year would directly go into the pockets of the farmers.

Few of our citizens have any idea of the extent of our present live stock trade in Peterborough, and it is being handled at three or four different points in the town and there is apparently no complaint of a nuisance. Why then would a properly equipped yard with proper water facilities and sewerage, concentrating the trade in one point be considered so?

Every farmer in the country should be interested in the extension of our live stock market, and the country would no doubt render the town some assistance in the way of settling with rate payers where a real injury is sustained.

I do not think there has ever been a scheme before our people that presents possibilities of more general benefit to the entire community, town and county.

One of our young and most enterprising citizens has spent considerable time and money in endeavouring to develop the scheme and enlist the sympathies and interests of the railway companies and large traders in it. I think it deserves the fullest consideration on the part of our town council.

There is no doubt a solution to the difficulty, and if such problems are not insolvable amid congested population in large cities they ought not to be beyond the competence of our enterprising town, and that without doing any citizen an injury.

Yours truly,
C. B. McALLISTER.

April 12th, 1899.

The Examiner very readily gives space to the foregoing letter, for it is timely, to the point, and sets forth very effectively the need of action on the part of the council and the Board of Trade, both of which often concern themselves about matters that do not possess the importance of the stock yards proposal. For it is hardly necessary to urge the benefits that Peterborough would derive from the establishment of first-class stock yards such as the company associated with Mr. Kennedy would, there is every reason to believe, establish and carry on. In addition to the reasons urged in Mr. McAllister's letter, those who attended the meeting in the Park-st. Baptist church a week ago will remember that Mr. Bamford, C.P.R. agent, who was in a position to speak with the authority of a knowledge of the subject, pointed out very clearly the advantage which stock yards would be to Peterborough He showed that between 250,000 and 300,000 cattle are shipped every year from Canada to Buffalo. With properly equipped stock yards placed at the junction of two of our chief railway lines, a great deal of this traffic could be centred in Peterborough as a collecting and distributing point. With stock yards established here, the saving to shippers from the lower prices of fodder which prevail in this district, would while representing a circulation of money to the benefit of the town, moreover give a better demand and price to farmers for their produce and would also benefit the farmer by the increased price for stock which decreased expense would help the buyer to pay. Whatever benefits the farmer, benefits the town merchant. Besides, the longer haul from Peterborough to extreme points to which much of Canadian stock goes, would not operate to any extent against Peterborough as a general shipping point for stock. Mr. Bamford stated that the rate per hundred pounds to St. Paul, Minn., is only one cent more than from Buffalo.

The importance of establishing stock yards in Peterborough being proven and conceded, it remains for the council and the Board of Trade to put their heads together and devise some means of assisting in providing a suitable site convenient to the railways. This question of site is the rock upon which the stock yard scheme has heretofore split. And it is a matter of no little difficulty. It is not to be held for a moment, that the council would be justified in doing evil that good may come, that is, the rights of property holders whose interest and comfort would be affected by the proximity of yards should be rigidly respected. It would be unjust to a degree to permit the establishment of anything that depreciates or tends to depreciate the value of any ratepayer's property without compensation. If it should appear that the best available site for stock yards could not be used without injuriously affecting the property of a resident in the vicinity, arrangement could doubtless be made by which compensation could be given or the property purchased. If the town should purchase such property, within reasonable limits, it would be doing no more nor as much as it has done in other cases by the way of granting bonus assistance to new industries. Besides such a course of procedure would help the town in establishing new industries. Property acquired by the town for the purpose mentioned, being situated close to both railways could be used for the sites of possible manufacturing establishments, for with electric energy available, the transmission of power such as possible manufacturers need, would be a simple affair. This or some similar means to the same end might be worthy of the attention of the council and Board of Trade, both of which bodies are called upon to take some steps to assist enterprise in establishing an industry which will be a good thing for both town and country. A commendably aggressive and enterprising spirit has been shown by the council in bringing other industries to town, and it does not seem the fair thing that less liberal interest should be taken in an enterprise inaugurated by one of our progressive citizens, provided always that nothing done for the general good of the town, should be allowed to injuriously affect individual interests.—Ed. Examiner.

LABOR AND LEGISLATION.

Premier Laurier's Answer to a Dominion Trades and Labor Congress Delegation on Many Subjects.

Ottawa, April 19.—A deputation of the Dominion Trades and Labor Council met the Premier in his office at noon yesterday, where the various delegates made addresses on the different topics they had been deputed to lay before him. The chief among these were the Alien Labor Law, the eight hour day, the Union Label Act, the Copyright Act, and the appointment of efficient inspectors of gearing and tackle. The Premier gave an exhaustive answer.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in reply to the issues raised by the delegation, said that he desired frankly to say that while he saw eye to eye with the members of the delegation in many of the points mentioned, there were others on which he differed from them. He thought there was a great difference between Chinese and Japanese, and pointed out that the latter power was an ally of England, and that the home authorities would probably object to any restrictive legislation. As to the union label question the Government hoped that the Senate would become more moderate and democratic, and pass the bill which it killed last year. The request regarding the publication of the Crow's Nest Pass evidence could be easily granted. He hoped that as time went on the Government could apply the day labor principle on public work. The alien labor question was before the high joint commission, and there was a hope that as Canadian and American interests are identified an accommodation might be arrived at. The copyright question was also a difficult issue, but he hoped that a settlement would be arrived at which could satisfy both the Canadian mechanic and the British or foreign author. As to the inspection of gear and tackle under the Marine Act, the First Minister promised that the deputation's desire would be granted.

The members of the delegation then took leave, well pleased with their interview.

Got Away With a Thousand.

Montreal, April 18.—Between Sunday night and Monday morning burglars blew in the safe at the Oxford Cafe. As a result the back door is ruined. Several bottles of choice liquor are missing from the bar, the safe is wrecked and the $1,000 which it contained is in the pockets of the crooks.

About 5 o'clock in the morning they blew in the safe of the drug store of Mr. A. D. Mann. The large plate glass in the side window was shattered to atoms, while the showcases and bottles inside were all more or less in a state of ruin. The safe was found blown open and the contents on the floor. Mr. Mann states that he cannot tell just how much they have taken without consulting his books. The greatest damage is to the stock, which will reach $600.

NEWS IN OLDEN DAYS.

CUSTOMS IN VOGUE BEFORE THE ERA OF NEWSPAPERS.

The Latter Trace Their Origin to Rome Long Before the Christian Era—The Paper That Was Published by Queen Elizabeth.

The germ of newspapers is found in ancient Rome. The government some two centuries previous to the Christian era is known to have promulgated its edicts by means of written papers affixed to pillars. Nor was there much difference between the style of these acta diurnia, as they were termed, and that which now prevails further than that the former were more brief and simple and deficient in introductory phrases and the editorial "we." They generally gave the news or occurrence in simply indicative sentences without introduction or comment of any kind.

Most of these acta which have been preserved are found to mention but one or two events. They are headed with the date in Roman fashion and the name of the then consul and paragraphs such as the following formed the staple: "It thundered, and an oak was struck with lightning on that part of Mount Palatine called Summa Vevia, early in the afternoon." "Murena, the consul, sacrificed early in the morning in the Temple of Castor and Pollux, and afterward assembled the senate in Pompey's senate house." "C. Cæsar set out for his government in farther Spain, having long been detained by his creditors."

It is hardly possible for us now, with all the lights of science around and the shoals of newspapers with which we are supplied, to form a proper notion of the darkness which, for want of these, involved the masses of the people for many centuries after the fall of the Roman empire. We are told that the crusaders were so ignorant of geography that at every town they approached in central Europe they inquired if it was Jerusalem. When they at length reached their destination, their exploits would have remained unknown for years to their relatives and friends at home had not at times some few straggling pilgrims found their way back to the west. Even bad news in those days could not, contrary to the proverb, travel fast. Every little community must then have lived much within itself.

It was not until the sixteenth century that anything at all approaching even to the scanty Roman acta diurnia can be found to have revived in the modern world. The war which the Venetian republic waged against the Turks gave rise in 1563 to the custom of communicating the military and commercial information in Venice by written sheets, notizie scritte, to be read in a particular place to those desirous of hearing the news, who paid for this privilege with a coin no longer in use, called gazzetta, a name which came in time to be applied to the news sheet itself both in Italy and France and subsequently in England, when this mode of imparting news came into use.

The Venetian government eventually gave these announcements in a regular manner once a month, but they were too jealous to allow them to be printed. Only a few written copies were transmitted to such as subscribed and paid for them. Thirty volumes of these valuable manuscript newspapers exist in the Maglia Bechian library at Florence. About the same time advertising wants commenced, the father of Montaigne, the celebrated essayist, being credited with the suggestion for making the wants of individuals known to the public in France. These were received at offices established for the purpose and were first posted on the walls of public places, receiving the names of affiches. In time this led to a systematic and periodic publication in sheets. These were termed affiches in consequence of their contents being originally fixed up as placards, though the word itself is French for advertisement.

It is to England as represented by Queen Elizabeth that the honor of commencing printed sheets of public intelligence is to be ascribed. When the Spanish armada threatened an invasion of this country, that sage queen, remarking the disadvantage of the vague and alarming rumors which circulated everywhere, resolved to inform her people truly of the impending dangers. She began to publish from time to time a sheet bearing the following title "The English Mercurie, published by authoritie, for the contradiction of false reports." Of this publication three copies are preserved in the British museum, the earliest, No. 50, bearing date July 23, 1588. The first article, dated from Whitehall, contains advices from Sir Francis Walsingham that the armada was seen in the channel, making for the entrance, with a favorable gale. An account is then given of her majesty's fleet, which consisted of 80 sail, divided into four squadrons, commanded by the lord high admiral, in the Ark Royal, Sir Francis Drake and Admirals Hawkins and Frobisher. Under the head, "London," there is an account of an interview which the mayor and corporation had on the previous day with her majesty, for the purpose of assuring her of the resolution to stand by her with their lives and fortunes to the last. Under the same head appears the following paragraph "Yesterday the Scotch ambassador had a private audience of her majestie, and delivered a letter containing the most cordial assurances of adhering to her majestie's interests, and to those of the Protestant religion, and the younge king, James VIth, said to her majestie's minister at his court that all the favour he expected of the Spaniards was the courtesie of Polyphemus to Ulysses, that he should be devoured to the last." We wonder what would be thought of embassadors in these days if they interlarded their oral communications with such classical references!

SHOPPING IN ITALY.

Outlandish Methods That Make It a Most Tiresome Task.

A source of trial is what appears to us the outlandish method of having things that apparently belong together sold in different establishments. Silks are found in one shop, woolens in another and ribbons in a third. At none of these can one buy needles and thread. If a woman wishes to hang a pair of curtains, she purchases the materials at one shop, the rod and rings at a different place, the iron fixtures at a third and has to go to a fourth to find an upholsterer to put them up. She must visit a tobacco shop for salt and cannot find, as with us, vegetables, fruit or bread at a grocer's. It may thus readily be seen that one must travel a good deal to do her marketing or shopping.

Add to all this the confusion incident to the fact that the standards of measure and weight are different from ours, a meter exceeding a yard and a pound containing but 12 ounces, and a faint idea may be formed of the mental complications of the traveler.

There is also a certain amount of beating down to be done in nearly every shop, and even after half an hour's bargaining the purchaser cherishes awful doubts lest she might not have bought the thing cheaper. Shopping is really almost equal to the contemplation of faded frescoes for lowering the mental tone, and it is hard to say which has the more to answer for in the exhausted state in which most travelers leave Italy.—Harper's Bazar.

WOMAN'S WIT.

Mrs. Darley Was Wise and Used Her Wisdom Well.

"Frank, dear," said Mrs. Darley, "Mrs. Fredick was talking about you the other day, and she said she thought you didn't look well. Do you know, I'm getting to be quite anxious about you?"

"What are you anxious about, I'd like to know? Don't I eat and sleep well?"

"Well, you sleep fairly well, and your appetite is not so bad, but"—

"But what? Am I bent and stoop shouldered and bald, or what is it you mean?"

"Why, dear, I thought that possibly you ought to get your life insured. You know we have very little saved up, and if you were to go off and die it would leave me in very poor circumstances financially. If, for instance, your went into a rapid decline"—

"Mary Jane, what on earth are you talking about? To listen to you one might think that I come from a consumptive family and I was in the last stages of a galloping consumption, with my death warrant written all over my face, and that you were getting ready to be an interesting widow and go off and have a good time on the returns from my life insurance policy. I'm not going to take out a policy, and I am as healthy and strong as I ever was in my life, and I don't want you to intimate that there is any sort of hard work which I cannot do!"

"Oh, I'm so glad to hear that, Frank!"

And Mrs. Darley gave a little gasp of joy and threw her arms around her husband's neck. "I'm so glad to hear you say you are well and strong, because the lawn needs mowing so badly, and I was dreadfully afraid that you were too ill to run the lawn mower."

Whereupon Mr. Darley went out and shaved the grass in front of the house.—Up to Date.

Papa Wasn't Flattered.

"Yes, sir, I have come to ask you for the hand of your daughter."

"For Isabel's hand?"

"Yes, sir. It is a mere formality, I know, but we thought it would be pleasing to you to have me go through with it."

"What's that—a mere formality?"

"That is what I said—a mere formality."

"And may I inquire who suggested that asking my consent to my daughter's marriage was only a mere formality?"

"It was Isabel's mother, sir."

"Isabel's mother? Then I have nothing further to say."

After Serious Sickness

THE HEART AND NERVES NEED STRENGTHENING—THE BLOOD REQUIRES ENRICHING.

Nothing will do this like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

After such serious diseases as Typhoid Fever, Scarlet Fever, Pneumonia, Diphtheria, La Grippe, etc., the heart and nerves are left in an extremely weakened condition, and the blood is thin and watery Getting back health and strength again seems slow work.

At this time there is nothing that will help a convalescent to health like Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They impart vitality to the heart and nerves, enrich the blood and invigorate the whole system. Since the recent epidemic of Grippe, thousands of people have not regained their strength—don't feel their old self yet. A few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will banish all the evil after effects of this disease and rapidly restore health and animation. Mr. T. Barnicott, with Messrs. Hutchinson & Thompson, Aylmer, Ont., made the following statement:

"About a year ago I was quite sick with La Grippe, which left my system in an exhausted condition.

"I could not regain strength and was very nervous and sleepless at night, getting up in the morning as tired and unrefreshed as when I went to bed. I was very listless, had no energy, and was altogether in a miserable state of health.

"Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I got at Richard's Drug Store, changed me from a condition of misery to one of bright and happy healthfulness.

"They built up my system, strengthened my nerves, restored vigorous circulation of the blood, and in fact made a new man of me. They are a splendid remedy for all enfeebled and nervous conditions, and I heartily recommend them to any one suffering from the after effects of Grippe."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Palpitation, Dizzy and Faint Spells, Shortness of Breath, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Anaemia, Dyspepsia, St. Vitus Dance, Partial Paralysis, Female Troubles, Weakness and General Debility.

Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25, T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

A BURDEN LIFTED.

When a woman who has long suffered from female troubles, is again restored to health she feels that a tremendous burden has been lifted from her shoulders. Her figure rounds out again. Color comes to her cheeks, and sparkle to her eyes. She feels much the same as when a girl, and if the neighbors wouldn't talk, the chances are she would go out and have a good romp, as in childhood's days. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription lifts the burden of disease from women. It allays inflammation and stops drains in the feminine organs. It strengthens the fragile supports that hold the internal organs in place. It corrects irregularities. It drives away the "blues" and banishes nervousness. The ordeal of child-bearing is rendered an occasion of no danger and little pain. It is the best medicine that Dr. R. V. Pierce, the long experienced specialist in woman's diseases, ever made. The Doctor will give free, fatherly advice to all women who write him at Buffalo, N. Y. No fee whatever is charged.

"I was a great sufferer for four years from displacement and ulceration," writes Mrs. Mary Pickering, of Ollie, Keokuk County, Iowa. "At the time I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I was not able to sit up in bed. I took eight bottles and got to be a stout woman. I also gave Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to my little daughter for quinsy and enlarged tonsils and it completely cured her. Any doubting this can write to me, enclosing a stamp, and I will answer."

Honest dealers will not urge substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines. There are no other medicines in the world "just as good," although avaricious druggists will sometimes say so for the sake of the greater profit to be made upon the inferior articles.

BOTH LEGS TAKEN OFF.

Henry R. Hyndress So Badly Hurt That He Soon Died.

Essex, Ont., April 18.—Henry R. Hyndress was killed by an eastbound freight train about 10 o'clock last night at the crossing just west of the railway pumphouse. It is thought he rode from Windsor and jumped off as the train slowed on the curve. He struck a fence which is close to the track and was thrown back under the wheels. Both legs were cut off close to the body and the unfortunate man lived in that condition for about three quarters of an hour. He was about 30 years of age and a resident of Essex.

Dickson's Defence.

Quebec, April 18.—There were on the stand yesterday morning in the Dickson case very strong witnesses for the defence. The witnesses for the defence proved that Tanguay, Beseau, Paquet, Pepin and Soucy were after Dickson and Blanche Dube on the 12th of February last and wanted to have a row with Dickson.

The Town's Talk.

So many cures have been effected by the use of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure that it's the town's talk. If you are a sufferer from that horrible malady, go to your drug store and get a bottle. Mr. Wm. Tait, farmer, Collins' Bay, Ont., was afflicted with Sciatic Rheumatism for twelve months. One bottle of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. This preparation is taken internally. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

Berlin, April 17.—The Prussian Minister of Commerce has issued a warning to the toy trade to prepare for a total or partial prohibition against German toys by the American Government, on the ground that they are covered with poisonous paints.

An Old Roman Bronze.

Rome, April 17.—While digging for the shore anchorage of a new bridge over the Tiber on Saturday, workmen found a highly valuable antique bronze. The piece is a candlestick, more than nine feet high, beautifully molded in a palm leaf pattern.

"To Err Is Human."

People like to talk about attractive things in advertising. In a company recently the proverb above quoted, and which appeared at the head of one of a well constructed series of advertisements of Hood's Sarsaparilla, was so much discussed that we doubt if anyone there will ever forget the source whence it came. Messrs. Hood & Co. are using these proverb advertisements on a very broad scale, and they are attracting discussion and favourable comment everywhere.

Trifles.

A friend once called upon Michael Angelo, who was finishing a statue. Some time after, he called again and, looking at the figure, said: "You have been idle since I last saw you."

"By no means," replied the sculptor "I have retouched this part, polished that, I have softened this feature and given more expression to this lip."

"Well, well," said the friend, "but these are mere trifles."

"It may be so," answered Angelo, "but recollect that trifles make perfection, and perfection is no trifle."

THE OUTLOOK BRIGHT.

Review of the Political Prospects in Brockville.

FIGHT BECOMING EXCITED.

The Chances of Mr. Comstock Are Most Promising—Analysis of the Probable Vote—Conservative Meeting at Which Sir Charles Tupper Speaks—Liberal Meeting at Tin Cap.

Brockville, April 18.—As election day draws near the fight in this constituency is becoming more exciting. Each side is straining every nerve in order that it may win the prize. Speakers of both sides are dispersed throughout the riding, and there is not a hamlet or crossroad which does not nightly witness a political gathering. Each party is devoting much attention to canvassing, and the work of tracing up absent voters is being carried on with unremitting industry. The outlook for Mr. Comstock is most promising.

Analysis of the Vote.

The vote, it must be remembered, will take place, not on the old Dominion lists, but on the provincial lists, as used in the general election of March, 1898, supplemented in Brockville by a recent registration of manhood suffrage voters. Taking the vote polled in the provincial elections and applying it to the municipalities comprised in the riding for Dominion purposes, the Conservatives would seem to have an apparent majority of 108. The Liberals, however, claim to have made a gain of 100 odd in the registration of manhood suffrage voters, which will wipe out the apparent Conservative preponderance. Then, too, the probability is that the Liberals are to-day stronger than ever in Brockville. In 1896 Brockville went Conservative by a majority of 129 votes. At the provincial election last year Mr. Graham, the Local Liberal member, received a majority of 118 votes. This denotes a great improvement in the position of the Liberals. The two great Conservative strongholds have usually been the townships of Kitley and Elizabethtown. The former contains about 440 votes, and the Conservative candidate has usually received a majority of 150. The Conservative majority in Elizabethtown is ordinarily reckoned at 100, but in June, 1896, Mr. James Cumming, who then contested the riding for the Liberals, headed the poll in that township.

It will be a great relief when the election is over. Politics usually run high here, and just now the election occupies first place in people's minds. Business is consequently greatly retarded, and it will not return to its normal condition until after the polling.

A Conservative Meeting.

Sir Charles Tupper, and not Mr. Foster, was the chief speaker at the Conservative meeting here last night. Some time during the afternoon it was given out that the ex-Minister of Finance had met with an accident which would confine him to his house, but that the leader of the Opposition had consented to act as his substitute. Sir Charles Tupper did not arrive until about 20 minutes to 10. There was a large crowd in the hall, and he received a hearty reception. The platform had been held in the meantime by Mr. White and Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin. The leader of the Opposition was challenged by Mr. John McLaren, speaking from the body of the hall, to repeat on the present occasion the charges against Major Walsh. Sir Charles did not avail himself of the opportunity.

A Liberal Meeting.

A very successful meeting was held at the Tin Cap, in the township of Elizabethtown, in the interests of Mr. Comstock, the Liberal candidate. The chair was occupied by Mr. Davidson, a prominent resident, and the speakers were Robert Holmes, M.P., of West Huron, and George P. Graham, M.P.P. of Brockville. The former spoke at length on the many acts of the Government in the interests of the agricultural classes and greatly pleased the large audience that was present. Mr. Graham dealt solely with local issues, and pointed out the advantage under present circumstances of sending a citizen of the riding to Ottawa. The meeting closed with cheers for the Queen and the candidate.

IT WAS A FOOLISH TRICK.

Farmer Used Coal Oil to Kill Cattle Lice and Set a Beast on Fire.

Zurich, April 18.—Daniel Henofer, a farmer living near this place, tried a trick which will likely teach him a lesson. It appears that his cattle for some time past had been bothered with lice. Last night he tried how coal oil would work on them. After thoroughly saturating a heifer with the fluid, he was anxious to know if it would burn. He applied a match to the animal and to his surprise it did work, burning several other head of cattle, also the barn with contents. The loss is heavy; no insurance. Mr. Henofer was badly burn l, but will recover.

THE CRUISER SUBSIDY POLICY.

The Small Holdings Bill Passes Its Second Reading.

London, April 18.—The First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. George J. Goschen, on being questioned respecting the subsidies he paid to auxiliary cruisers, said notice had been given to terminate the agreements with the Cunard, White Star and Peninsular & Oriental Steamship Companies, in order to place the Admiralty in a position to review the conditions of the contracts and the selection of the vessels' subsidies. There was no intention, he added, of abandoning the subsidy policy. Mr. Goschen declined to give particulars regarding the proposed armaments of auxiliary cruisers.

Small Holdings Bill.

The House of Commons last evening passed to a second reading the bill recently introduced by Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, empowering local authorities to advance money to enable occupiers to acquire ownership of small houses on the principle of the Irish land acts, and the small holdings act.

TEST THE KIDNEYS

And if they are diseased use the world's greatest kidney cure

Dr. A. W. CHASE'S Kidney-Liver Pills

It's a simple matter to test the kidneys. You need not consult a doctor. By asking yourself three questions you can determine whether or not your kidneys are deranged.

First: "Have you backache, or weak, lame back?"

Second: "Do you have difficulty in urinating or a too frequent desire to urinate?"

Third: "Are there deposits like brick dust in the urine after it has stood for twenty-four hours?"

In its earlier stages kidney disease is readily cured by a few boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, a preparation which has made Dr. Chase famous throughout the world for his wonderful cures of diseases of the kidneys.

If you have kidney disease you can take Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills with perfect confidence that what has proved an absolute cure in so many thousands of cases will not fail you.

So long as the cells of the kidneys are not completely wasted away, as in the last stages of Bright's disease, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will give them new vigor and strength and make them strong, healthy and active. One pill a dose, 25c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

LACROSSE.

The views of a number of the members who were in attendance at the meetings in Toronto on Friday of the C.L.A. Judiciary and Schedule Committees were obtained by a representative of the Mail and Empire as follows:—

Lionel King, Peterborough:—"The line up of the Peterborough team will be much the same as last season, with the exception of Hogarth and Mooney. Mooney's place will be taken by Reynolds, who did such good work for the Peterborough hockey team during the winter."

W. H. Hall, Markham:—"The personnel of the Markham lacrosse team will be the same as last year, with probably one or two changes. The team will be out practising every Saturday until the season commences, and the members are fully confident that they will do more that die in the finals, as they have for the past three years."

Dr. Roberts, Brampton:—The outlook of the Excelsior Lacrosse Club of Brampton for the season of 1899 is bright. Under the presidency of T. W. Duggan and his able staff of officers, lacrosse will boom in our town. Peterborough and Markham are both expert stick-handlers first-class lacrosse players, and thorough gentlemen. An exciting contest for supremacy is assured. The clubs in No. 2 division have agreed to play home and home games with the Excelsiors. The action of the C.L.A. committee should be highly satisfactory to all clubs under its jurisdiction."

J. A. Jackson, Seaforth:—"When Seaforth goes out for the championship it can be depended upon that they will get the honours or die hard. The prospects for the coming season are bright. The club has a large number of first-class players, and with Mulchay, Blackford, Brierly, McDougall, Bethune, Hankshaw, Jack Johnston, and Brown Johnston as a nucleus the team will be of championship calibre. Bob Jackson the popular lacrosse enthusiast, will again be at the helm.

Boulton R. Kean, Orillia:—"The champion Orillias are already getting into condition and great enthusiasm prevails in the town. The outlook is exceedingly bright for the coming season. The personnel of the team will not be materially changed. All the old players have signified their intention of repeating the team's splendid record of last year, and will go in to win."

W. McKeown, Orangeville:—"The Dufferins of Orangeville, are already getting in shape for the season of 1899. Nearly all of alst year's material is available, and a number of new men are anxious to play. The grounds are fast drying up, and when the season opens it is the expectation of the citizens of Orangeville to see the fastest lacrosse team that ever represented the town wearing the green and white. The enthusiasm of last year has not cooled through the winter, and the Dufferins may be counted as in every match to be played this season."

W. Gorley, St. Catharines:—"The Athletics of St. Catharines are going into lacrosse the coming season with renewed vigour, and will make a strong bid to land the championship banner for the Garden City. All of last year's players are available and some of the oldtimers have consented to again don the dark and light blue."

W. S. A. Hartley, Tecumseh-Elms:—"The Tecumsehs are the favourites in the senior series by a small margin. Orangeville, Orillia, St. Catharines very cunningly have got the best of the schedule, to make their supporters more ready to part with their winter earnings."

The Iroquois Lacrosse Club of Lindmay has elected the following officers: President, B. Baker; secretary, R. McKinnon; treasurer, W. Powers; captain, James Gillogly; managing committee, E. Dorgan, J. O'Connell; J. Robinson and W. Baker.

The Young Torontos would like to come to Peterborough on May 24th. With the exception of the senior Torontos they were the strongest team in the city last year and would give the Peterborough's a hard game.

The Marmora Lacrosse Club has re-organized with the following officers:

Hon. President—A. W. Cascallen, M.P.
Hon. Vice-President—J. W. Pearce, Esq.
Hon. 2nd Vice-President—E. Boomhar, Esq.
President—H. M. Jones, M.D.
Vice-President—Mr. W. Mellamphy.
Secretary—Mr. J. S. Morton.
Treasurer—Mr. A. N. Vara.
Manager—Mr. C. B. DeMille.
Captain—Mr. Arthur Waters.

Frank Nelson, sporting editor of the Globe, has the following to say in regard to the importing of lacrosse players:

It is hardly possible that the tactics of the Orangeville Lacrosse Club in importing players from Ottawa are approved of by the people of that town, who have so liberally and enthusiastically supported the Dufferins in past seasons. Nor is it likely they will accord any such encouragement to a team of hired men as to a combination of their own boys, who, even if they did not win, would not be sailing under false colors. The Advertiser pretends to believe that Kelly, Shore and the other immigrants who may drop into that town are playing for the love of the game, a childish unwillingness to look the facts in the face. Orangeville is not the only offender against the honesty and and decency of sport, though, perhaps, the boldest, and consequently the club that has attracted most attention. The others that are doing likewise on the sly are even more dangerous, because more difficult to detect.

If the officers of the Canadian Lacrosse Association mean to perform the duties laid upon them, and if they really endorse the sentiments they so heartily applauded when expounded by President Lennox in his retiring address at the Good Friday convention, their way is clear to extirpating a serious evil before it takes stronger root. The C.L.A. constitution does not permit such men as travel the country in the "job" line to play in its matches. The C. L. A. is for amateurs, and he only comes within that class—

"Whose membership of any lacrosse club was not brought about or does not continue because of mutual agreement or understanding, whereby his becoming or continuing a member of such lacrosse club would be of any pecuniary benefit to him, either directly or indirectly."

That seems to me to cover exactly the case of Orangeville's imported players, and I will look with interest to see if playing certificates are issued to men, either in Orangeville or elsewhere, who cannot qualify under that clause.

Mr. Tom Wigmore, captain of last year's Hastings lacrosse team, was given a banquet in that town on on Tuesday evening prior to his leaving for Calgary.

Suit Against a Fraternal Society Amicably Settled.

Kingston, April 17.—The spring sittings of the High Court opened this afternoon. The case of Mrs. Alexander Sutherland vs. the Independent Order of Foresters was settled, the claim of $3,000 being paid. Her son, a sailor, was a member of Court Frontenac No. 59, I.O.F. He died at sea in June, 1890, while en route from Shanghai to Hong Kong, on the P. and O. Steamer Rosette. For nearly 8 years his death was unknown, and it was only after extensive corresponding with officials in New York, London, Hamburg, Hong Kong that proof of death was obtained. He was buried at sea. This week the Foresters accepted the claim as proven and settled the action.

ECZEMA ON NOSE

For 9 Years Cured by CUTICURA In a Short Time After Five Doctors Failed.

I have suffered for nine years with sores in my nose. I consulted with a first-class doctor, and he told me it was fever sore that would soon pass away. I had four doctors treat me for nose trouble, but without seeming to do any good. My trouble was so bad my husband decided that I should go to N. Y. City and get treated. The best doctor in the city for nose, eye, and throat told me I had eczema in the worst form, and I must stay and get treated three times a week. I did not seem to get any relief, so my husband sent for me to come home. While I was home I decided to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. I got CUTICURA SOAP, CUTICURA (ointment), and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and I was surprised to find it was but a short time when my nose was all well. MRS. C. S. VAN POSTRAND, April 26, 1898. Point o' Woods, Bay Shore, L. I.

HEAD A SOLID SORE

From a very small girl I had a breaking out on my head every spring, which would become a solid scab. Finally my father procured a box of CUTICURA (ointment), a cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT. I have never been troubled with the disease since. MORAN E. HAMER, April 28, 1898. Mt. Vernon, Ark.

CUTICURA

Begins with the Blood and Ends with The Skin and Hair.

That is to say it purifies the blood and circulating fluids of HUMOR GERMS, and thus removes the cause, while warm baths, with CUTICURA SOAP, and gentle anointings with CUTICURA (ointment), greatest of emollient skin cures, cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, allay the itching, burning and inflammation, and soothe and heal. Thus are speedily, permanently, and economically cured the most torturing, disfiguring and humiliating diseases of the skin, scalp, and blood, with loss of hair, when the best physicians and all other remedies fail.

THE LUMBER TROUBLE

A Prohibitive Measure Hardly Possible Within the Law.

WOULDN'T BE WISE, ANYWAY.

A Big United States Industry Would Be Completely Wiped Out if Don Dickenson's Bluff Prevailed — Why Washington Would Hesitate to Take Such an Extreme Course —Resentment Felt.

Montreal, April 20.—The Herald's special correspondent in Washington wires as follows, under date of April 19:

The question of applying a retaliatory measure on account of the act recently passed by the Ontario Provincial Legislature, prohibiting the export of logs to the United States, has been submitted by Secretary Gage to the legal advisers of the Treasury Department. A little later the matter will be laid before the Attorney-General for review, and for the expression of an opinion by which the Government may safely be guided. There is a serious question in the minds of the State and Treasury Department officials as to whether the Dingley law permits the imposition of a prohibitory duty as a measure of retaliation. There is no question of the legality of the clause which enabled the Government to impose an additional duty on lumber equivalent to any export duty that may be placed on lumber by the Dominion of Canada. The Ontario case, however, is that of a prohibitive measure, and Secretary Gage and Secretary Hay are not satisfied that the United States Government can legally impose a prohibitive tax under the additional duty clause of the Dingley Act. It is in reference to this point that the opinion of the Attorney-General is sought.

Little doubt exists here that the Washington Government would hesitate a long time before prohibiting the importation of lumber from Canada. Even if it should be found that the clause of the Dingley law cited above is applicable to the present emergency, such an action would be by far the most radical step ever taken by the administrators of a tariff act in the United States, and it would be recognized immediately as forming a strong temptation for the inauguration of a tariff war. President McKinley certainly would not care to offer such an offence to Canada, and he would be quite averse to giving to a large class of lumber interests in this country a just cause of criticism of his course. The relations between the United States and Great Britain are so cordial that the Administration would be exceedingly reluctant to take any action prejudicial to the maintenance of the present cordial feeling.

The action of the Ontario Legislature is keenly resented in Washington official circles for the new retroactive law is looked upon as a flagrant injustice against American mill-owners, who are now prevented from carrying away goods that they had already bought when the law was passed. Such legislation as this, it is argued here, is calculated to prejudice the success of the joint high commission at Quebec next August. One high Government official, in discussing the proposition to impose retaliatory measures, said yesterday: "There is more than one objection to such an action. The principal one, in my opinion, is simply that we cannot afford to do it. We should destroy a large industry in the United States if we should prohibit the importation of logs from all Canada, and it ought not to be done."

NO TRUTH IN IT.

Denial of the Report That the U. S. Will Shut Out Canadian Lumber.

Ottawa, April 20.—There is no truth in the report telegraphed from Ottawa that the Government has received information from Washington that the United States Government has decided to shut out Canadian lumber. The Government has had no information on the subject, and, as the Premier has already said, the Cabinet does not believe the story.

CONDEMNED TO DEATH.

The Hamilton Man Who Brutally Killed His Mother to Die on June 23.

Hamilton, April 20.—The trial of Benjamin F. Parrott, jr., charged with murdering his aged mother, took place yesterday before Chief Justice Armour, and there was less interest taken in it than is usually shown in murder trials. Nothing new was brought out in the trial; the evidence was almost the same as that given at the preliminary examination a few weeks ago. The trial began a few minutes after 9 o'clock, with J. J. McLaren, Q.C., of Toronto acting in the capacity of Crown prosecutor, and George L. Staunton counsel for the prisoner. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty.

Chief Justice Armour, after the usual question and a brief talk to the prisoner, sentenced him to be hanged on June 23. The prisoner is 30 years of age.

LUCAN'S LOSS.

Fire Destroyed the Big Oatmeal Mill of McComb & Stanley—Loss About $10,000.

Lucan, Ont., April 20.—The large four-storey oatmeal mill of McComb & Stanley was totally destroyed at 1 o'clock this morning by fire, together with 1,500 bushels of oats and half that amount made up into stock ready for shipment. The firm recently put in $5,000 worth of new machinery and otherwise improved the building, and were being rushed to fill their orders.

The total loss will be between $9,000 and $10,000; $4,000 insurance on the machinery; stock not insured.

Fires Near Chatham.

Chatham, Ont., April 20.—All the barns, sheds, stables, corn crib and other outbuildings belonging to John McKeegan, lot 1 concession 3, Camden, one and a half miles from Kent Bridge, were burned yesterday afternoon. The buildings were all new. The barn contained 500 bushels of wheat, 200 bushels of oats, 10 tons of hay, 18 bags of shorts, besides a great deal of other stuff. The stables contained five cows and 18 pigs, which were also burned. The corn crib contained 900 bushels of corn, and this was also destroyed. The loss will likely be about $2,000, with no insurance. It is a mystery how the fire started.

The residence of George Wilcox, 9th concession, Raleigh, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday forenoon. Insurance $400.

Chicago River on Fire.

Chicago, April 20.—The Chicago River was set on fire last night, and for an hour flames leaped 50 feet into the air from the surface of the stream. The firemen had to work hard to keep them from spreading. The Kinzie street bridge was in danger. The fire was caused by the ignition of oil, grease and gas that cover the surface of the river or bubble up from its foul bed. The damage to the bridge, its approaches and the adjoining warehouses and docks was about $6,000. The damage to the river was not serious.

Serious Fire in Halifax.

Halifax, N.S., April 20.—Three three-storey wooden business buildings in the best part of Barrington street, occupied by William Crowe, fancy goods dealer; W. H. Cabot, retail drygoods, and Angus Taylor, retail hats and caps, were gutted by fire yesterday morning. Cabot and Crowe carried large stocks, and Taylor also had a valuable one. The loss is placed anywhere between $50,000 and $75,000.

Barn and Stock Burned.

Penetanguishene, Ont., April 20.—John Kennedy, farmer, of Ordinance Reserve, township of Tay, lost his barns and stables by fire about 11 o'clock last night. There were three horses and over 60 fowls, and all his farm implements, harness, sleighs, etc., in the buildings, and all were burned.

Three Burned to Death.

Portland, Ind., April 20.—The Orphans' Home at Berne, in Adams County, was burned early yesterday. A panic was caused among the 57 inmates by the blaze. All were rescued but three, who were burned to death.

Norway Increasing Her Trade.

Ottawa, April 20.—Mr. C. E. Sontum, Canadian agent in Norway and Sweden, reports a large increase in Norway's imports. In two months the imports of rye increased some $200,000, barley some $100,000, and coal cinders and coke $350,000.

The Chasers of Criminals.

Woodstock, Ont., April 20.—The executive committee of the Ontario Provincial Constabulary Association met yesterday in Woodstock, with Detective T. Wasson of Toronto in the chair. The business was to consider matters in connection with the association.

Will Soon Be Out Again.

Toronto, April 20.—Mr. W. F. Maclean is making splendid progress towards complete recovery, and it will not be many days before he will be out again.

Improvements

Have been commenced. Carpenters are busy here and in the factory moulding into shape fixtures for the more convenient handling and displaying of our stock, which is too large to be shown to advantage with the present fixtures.

Rather than handle stocks as often as such circumstances usually call for we purpose offering to the public some very special inducements.

We only quote a few prices here. Come and see others.

A CARDIFF HOME WIPED OUT

A Strong Appeal to Give Help to the Destitute.

Mr. R. J. Kidd has received the following letter from his brother, Mr. Walter R. Kidd, reeve of Cardiff:

Mr. Duncan Anderson, a neighbor living near her on the shore fo Pandask Lake, last Sunday evening got his house and contents burned, leaving a small and numerous family destitute. The people in this vicinity are unable to render much assistance, most of the crops last summer having been destroyed by frost. If you will kindly make it known to some generously inclined people of your acquaintance, clothing suitable for small children from infancy up will be thankfully received. I know Mr. Anderson to be a kind hearted and generous person, and also to be a very energetic and faithful labourer,

WALTER R. KIDD,
Reeve of Cardiff.

Those who live in town in the midst of plenty, surrounded by friends and relations, can hardly appreciate a misfortune like that referred to in the letter printed above. The unfortunate family is destitute of everything, clothing, food and even shelter, except at the sacrifice of the comfort and convenience of an already crowded home in a district where the battle of life is fought against tremendous odds. There are very few homes in Peterborough with children where there are not many garments laid laid aside that would be welcome to our destitute brethren in Cardiff, for with a common Father we are all brothers and sisters, and a much needed kindness done in his name will not be unrewarded. Those who have not clothing available may contribute of their means. Articles of clothing to relieve a very painful case of destitution through sheer misfortune may be left at Mr. R. J. Kidd's boot store, George street.

FOR THE LOCAL HOUSE.

Mr. J. L. Breithaupt, of Berlin, Nominated by North Waterloo Liberals.

Waterloo, April 19.—Mr. L. J. Breithaupt of Berlin will contest the riding of North Waterloo in the interests of the Reform party at the forth-coming Provincial bye-election. The candidate is a comparatively young man of exceptional business ability, and a member of the well-known Breithaupt Leather Company. He is a staunch Reformer, and has always taken an active part in local Provincial and Dominion politics, and has been Mayor of Berlin and Warden of the county. For some time past his name has been mentioned as a likely candidate for the election, which arises from the unseating of Dr. Lackner, Conservative, who carried the riding at the general election by a majority of 56 over Dr. L. B. Clemens of Berlin. The latter died recently. Mr. George Moore of Waterloo, ex-Mayor and Reeve of the town, was also spoken of as a likely candidate, and he contested for the nomination to-day. The choice was decided at a convention of the north Waterloo Reform Association, held in the Town Hall, Waterloo, to-day.

THE SUMMER FREE.

Those Joining the Y. M. C. A. within the Next Thirty Days will Receive Summer Privileges Free.

At a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. executive committee held yesterday several important items were passed regarding summer privileges.

It was decided as an inducement to young men to become members to date the tickets of those joining within 30 days to expire Sept. 1st, 1900. thus giving them the benefit of the summer privileges free.

This was done at the request of the membership committee, who are now canvassing for 50 additional full members. It was also decided for the accommodation of members who were bicyclists to open the wheel room at 7.30 a.m. each day during the summer. This will give men the opportunity of taking an early spin and after a refreshing bath proceed to their work.

The executive also decided to make no charge for the use of the hall to the Saturday Afternoon Bible Class, which has been conducted by Rev. Herbert Symonds.

It was also decided to co-operate with the Toronto Bible Training school in the four day conference to be held in the building from June 12 to 16.

IMPROVING VICTORIA CHEESE.

Factories Selling on the Lindsay Cheese Board Decide to Engage an Instructor.

A special meeting of the Lindsay cheese board was held on Monday in the council chamber, when the decision made at the annual meeting not to employ an instructor this season was reconsidered. A long discussion took place. Buyer James Whitton, of Wellman's Corners, who is an officer of the Eastern Dairyman's Association, was present and gave the cheesemen some good advice. Finally it was decided to engage an instructor, the factories agreeing to raise $200, the sum required for his remuneration.

RE-ORGANIZATION MEETING.

Local Union of Christian Endeavour to Rally on May 8th.

Last evening a meeting of the local union of Christian Endeavor was held in the Y.M.C.A. for re-organization purposes. Representatives from St. Pauls, St. Andrews, George street, Murray street and Charlotte street C. E. societies were present and took part in the discussions. It was decided that the same constitution as formerly used would be adopted and also that the year for the union would close on May 1st.

Nominations for officers for 1899-1900 resulted as follows: President, M. Tovey; vice-president, Miss Bertha Mialet; secretary, Jos. McGowan; treasurer, Mr. Reid.

A union rally will be held in St. Paul's church on May 8th, and a committee was appointed to prepare an attractive programme.

"One Good Turn Deserves Another."

It is so easy to go through life doing good and helping to make others happy. A lady who had been ill with a complication of troubles, having been thoroughly cured and now enjoying perfect health, felt it a duty to tell her friends that the specific that brought her back to health was Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Thus, after Hood's had served her well, she felt it deserved a good turn at her hands. Thousands tell the same story of blood purified and health restored. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses merit peculiar to itself.

Sick Headache—"For a long time I was troubled with sick headaches. Different medicines failed to give me relief. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my husband having been cured of salt rheum by it, and soon it made me feel like a new woman." Mrs. Robert McAfee, Deerhurst, Ont.

Impure Blood—"My wife suffered with pain and distress from an affection of the throat caused by impure blood. She was almost in despair when she turned to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Six bottles of this medicine completely cured her." John Weckman, Galt, Ont.

Back Ache—"My mother had severe pains in her side and back. She was obliged to give up work. A friend persuaded her to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon she was able to do her work, free from pain and had a good appetite." Maggie Morgan, Nasonworth, N. B.

No Strength—"My whole system was run down. I was weak and could hardly get around to do my work. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and after using five bottles I found that my strength had returned and appetite much improved." Mrs. Kelley, 318 Dufferin Street, Toronto, Ont.

Nerve Food—"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration. She suffered from headaches. She became weak, low-spirited and her appetite was poor. I am glad to state that Hood's Sarsaparilla has completely cured her of all her ailments." G. Bellamy, 321 Hannah St., Hamilton, Ont.

FARMERS SHOULD GROW RAPE.

The progress in rape culture in England is one of the marvels of latter-day husbandry, says a London letter. Five years ago the plant was little known and less understood. Last year millions of acres were devoted to its culture, and other millions of acres will be added to its broad green domain the present year. All progressive English and Canadian shepherds cultivate it, and the perfection of their flocks attests it great value. The English and Canadian shepherds cultivate it mainly for sheep, but progressive American farmers are turning it to broader uses, having found it quite as profitable as a grazing and soiling plant for their cattle and swine.

To say that rape is revolutionizing the sheep industry in England, observes the correspondent, is putting the case none too strong. It adds immensely to the popular tendency toward intensive sheep farming by yielding a vastly greater amount of succulent and healthful green food to the acre than any other crop, thereby increasing in like ratio to the sheep-carrying capacity of the farm. It tides the sheep farmer over the dry hot seasons when the grasses are dead and the fields are brown.

Generically, rape belongs to the same order as cabbage, kale, turnips, etc., and is a grazing and soiling plant, not susceptible of conversion into hay. It may be sown broadcast or planted in drills from 26 to 30 inches apart, if desired for cultivation, with the plough or cultivator. From four to five pounds of seed may be used for seeding broadcast, and from 2 to 3 pounds per acre if planted in drills.

For quickness and immensity of growth, it is without a rival; growing on good rich soils to a height of 12 or 15 inches in 6 or 8 weeks, and in its growth, 3 to 4 feet high, producing 20 to 30 tons of feed to the acre. Sheep, cattle or swine may be turned into the field of rape when it has reached a height of 10, 12 or 15 inches, the owner using caution to limit sheep or cattle to an hour, or less, of grazing for the first four or five days to prevent the possibility of bloating until they are accustomed to the feed.

For early summer grazing, rape should be sown about oat-seeding time, in April or May, according to latitude, and for late summer, and fall feeding, it may be sown in June, July and early August. It may be sown alone for a full early crop, or sown with oats, in which case it makes slow growth until the oats are harvested, when it comes forward with great rapidity. It is often sown on oats, wheat or barley stubble, without ploughing, and harrowed in with a light tooth harrow; in this way making an abundance of fall feed. As a supplemental crop, however, it is more extensively sown in corn, by scattering the seed ahead of the cultivator at time of last cultivation. The corn shades and protects the young plant during its early growth, and within six or eight weeks lambs may be turned in for weaning. Rape in the cornfield is a paradise for lambs before corn harvest, and makes a splendid fall feed for sheep, cattle or swine when the corn is harvested. In seeding the cornfield with rape, it is a good plan to use about 2 pounds of rape seed mixed with 1-2 pound of common flat turnip seed for each acre. The same mixture may be profitably used in seeding with oats, or on stubble land.

LASSWADE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Well, Mr. editor, I suppose your readers are wondering, when they don't don't see the Lasswade items, what has happened. This has been such a terrible cold winter, it took up so much time to shiver, there wasn't much time to write, but as the spring birds are out this morning it has awakened your correspondent to a sense of duty.

Sugar making is in full blast. Mr. E. Youman has secured a number of tin buckets, patent spiles and kettles. He has turned out some beautiful sugar already by his labour.

Mr. J. Radcliffe is a notch above his neighbors. He has an evaporator. It is quite a curiosity. He has his father with him.

Mr. T. Chaten has left R. Coal's place and moved into the Hawley settlement. Mr. Sanford Washburn has moved on the place that Mr. Chaten moved out of.

The roads are in a bad shape around here at present—neither wheeling nor sleighing at present.

W. Bound has been laid up with a lame back for a couple of weeks. We are glad to hear he is able to be around again.

Mrs. Mcginn has been very ill for some time, and Dr. Harding of Coe Hill, has been attending her. We are glad to say she is rapidly gaining health again.

Mr. John Snellgrove has taken his departuse again for the north west in company with his brother-in-law, J. Hales.

Mr. J. Holbrook has bought R. Edgar's residence at Apsley. Mr. Edgar has taken his family to the north west, where he expected to reside in future. Mr. Holbrook has leased his house to Mrs. Wilson for a term of years. She keeps a temperance house and grocery.

Joy to Mr. and Mrs. Youman. They have taken a girl from the C. A. Society of Peterborough, 8 years of age. She is a very bright child.

Miss Moffat, the teacher of No. 13, Methuen, is now boarding at Mr. McArthur's on the big farm.

We are sorry to hear of J. Snellgrove's little Lizzie being so ill for the past week. Hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery.

Mr. Spratt is talking of going to the west this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, sr., are talking of moving to Burleigh.

Miss E. A. Bullrid has returned home after spending three weeks in Lakefield.

Mr. McRoberts of Pontypool, has secured the Foster school and commenced duty on the 4th of April.

Mr. Wm. Bullrid was laid up for a while with la grippe. He is some better, but very poorly yet.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

On Saturday evening, 15th inst., a quiet wedding took place at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. McQuade officiating, when Mr. Samuel Heighley, of the C.P.R. shops, was united in marriage to Miss Bertie Bullied, youngest daughter of Thomas Bullied, Esq. The contracting parties are very popular in Havelock and we wish them a pleasant journey through life.

Miss McGrath, of Havelock, spent Sunday at home in Marmora.

Havelock Lodge, No. 286, I.O.O.F., purpose attending divine service in the English church on Sunday, 23rd inst.

Mr. Joseph Smith, clerk in the Locomotive foreman's office, is being promoted to clerk in the master mechanic's office at Toronto Junction. Joe's many friends will greatly miss him in all social gatherings, but they all congratulate him on his promotion.

Messrs. D. Wilson and A. J. Copp have opened a general store in Gould's old stand. They have a No. 1 stock and we believe will do a big share of the business in the store line. They have engaged Mr. John Barlow as clerk.

Phillips' Bros. are doing an extensive business in their new bicycle repair shop.

There is no building going on in Havelock since it was reported that the trainmen were to move to Smith's Falls and the work on some ten buildings that were being erected has been discontinued.

Since the announcement that the C.P.R. have decided to adopt a rule that will ultimately compel the trainmen operating on the division between Havelock and Smiths Falls to reside at Smith Falls the greates anxiety prevails. Soon after the establishment of Havelock as a divisional point the company signified that the men operating the Havelock -Smith Falls division must live here. As no houses were available they built creditable houses at this place, and relying upon the performance of the company's policy the employees have since continued to build houses here, until now the value of their holdings amount to upwards of $200,000, which will be disastrously destroyed, and severe loss and injury will be caused if the new rule is carried out. Many Peterborough merchants and dealers in different lines who derive much trade from Havelock, and many in Peterborough who have invested money here will be more or less seriously affected.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, .T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Capt. Scollard has returned to the Point and will commence operations on the steamer, Majestic next week.

Mr. A. Ross of Lindsay, is completing the work on the large pier above the locks. It makes quite an improvement around the locks, and an elegant boat landing.

The water is very high at present and still rising.

The roads are drying up considerably and after a few fine days and there will be good wheeling. From here to Peterborough, the Smith town road the whole way is far the better way to go.

A number of the ladies here are getting up a concert and "hop" in Mr. Herd's hall on next Thursday evening, the 20th inst. Music provided by Misses M. McCabe and L. Bell. Admission, 25c, including refreshments. Everbody are cordially invited to attend.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. DYING OF THIRST BESIDE A COOL SPRING

IS JUST AS SENSIBLE AS SUFFERING FROM DYSPEPSIA.

When Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Can be Procured—Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Cure Dyspepsia as Positively as Water Banishes Thirst.

Why should you suffer with thirdst, if you have, within your reach, plenty of pure, cold spring water?

There is absolutely no reason why you should do so!

Is there any more reason why you should endure the torments of Dyspepsia year after year, when you can put your hand on a box of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets?

There cannot possibly be any more reason, for Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure Dyspepsia, just as unfailingly and thoroughly as pure spring water will quench your thirst.

There is no uncertainty about the action of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets on the digestive system. They will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Flatulence, or Wind on the Stomach, Catarrh of the Stomach, Impure Blood, Pimples, Boils, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Foul Breath, Furred Tongue, and every other stomach ailment, except cancer.

These are not all different diseases, They are all the results of one disease—Dyspepsia. Cure this one and you get rid of all the others.

One or two of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, taken after each meal will thoroughly digest the food, and thus prevent it from collecting in the stomach, fermenting, and giving rise to Dyspepsia and its train of evil results.

A couple of the small, brown tablets, that go with Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, will, if taken when required, ensure regular and perfect action of the bowels, and fully supplement the work of the larger tablets.

Sure Cure for Colds

When the children get their feet wet and take cold give them a hot foot bath, a bowl of hot drink, a dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and put them to bed. The chances are they will be all right in the morning. Continue the Cherry Pectoral a few days, until all cough has disappeared.

Old coughs are also cured; we mean the coughs of bronchitis, weak throats and irritable lungs. Even the hard coughs of consumption are always made easy and frequently cured by the continued use of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Every doctor knows that wild cherry bark is the best remedy known to medical science for soothing and healing inflamed throats and lungs.

THE "GOOD OLD DAYS"

Of High Ministerial Expenses for Travelling Are Gone.

DAY OF QUESTION-ANSWERING.

All Manner of Subjects Touched Upon in the House on Wednesday—The Drummond County Railway and the Pacific Cable—Purchase of the Road—Mr. Costigan's Position.

Ottawa, April 20.—Yesterday afternoon the House broke a record, when 187 questions were put and about two-thirds of them answered by Ministers. In the days of the Conservative Administration the tremendous travelling expenses of the Ministers became a matter of public notoriety. Yesterday, in answer to Opposition enquiries, Hon. Mr. Sifton gave a statement of the amount by him expended in travelling and maintenance expenses during the past year. The figure was $945, while the figure for his private secretary for the same account was $480.80. Hon. Mr. Fisher's expenses, including a trip to England, were $631.32, while those of his private secretary, who also took the trans-Atlantic trip, were $487.36. Mr. Fisher stated that he used no private car, and both Ministers informed the House that their friends did no travelling at Government expense.

The Drummond County Railway.

The Hon. Mr. Blair last night gave notice that on Friday next he will move the House into committee of the whole on the following resolutions:

1. That it is expedient to authorize the Governor in Council to purchase from the Drummond County Railway Company, and to authorize the said company to sell and convey to Her Majesty, the whole of the railway and undertaking of the said company, including its main branch lines of railway, and all buildings, fixtures and the appurtenances appertaining thereto, and upon such purchase being effected, the said railway and its branch lines shall become and form part of the Intercolonial Railway, and may be operated as such.

2. That the purchase is to include all running powers and other rights, privileges and concessions acquired by the said company from any other railway company or companies, and all its franchises and properties of whatever kind, excepting only the rolling stock and station furniture of the company, and the tools of the section men.

3. That the said railway and undertaking is to be conveyed to Her Majesty free and clear from all charges, liens or encumbrances affecting the same, under or by virtue, or in respect, of any mortgage, bonds, debentures, or preference stocks, or other securities, or otherwise howsoever, and the said company shall release Her Majesty of and from all claims and demands under a certain lease and agreement bearing date the 26th day of February, 1898, and made between the said company of the first part and Her Majesty of the second part.

4. That there may be paid for the said railway and undertaking and other property as aforesaid, out of any unappropriated moneys forming part of the consolidated revenue fund, the sum of one million six hundred thousand dollars, less any sum paid the company, as authorized by the act. chap. 1, statutes of 1897, to be granted to the same company as a subsidy, for 42½ miles from Woods Park to Chaudiere River.

The Pacific Cable Scheme.

Hon. Mr. Mulock gives notice that he will move on Friday next that the House resolve itself into committee of the whole on Tuesday next to consider the following proposed resolutions:

That for the purpose of establishing direct submarine telegraphic communication between Canada and Australia, it is expedient to authorize the Governor in Council to enter into an agreement with such of the Governments of the United Kingdom and Her Majesty's Australasian possessions as desire to share in the undertaking for the purpose on their behalf of securing the construction, acquisition, laying, maintenance and operation of a cable between Canada and Australasia on the following conditions:

(a) That a board of commissioners be created by or under the legislative authority of the Parliament of the United Kingdom with all power requisite for the purpose aforesaid.

(b) That the proposed cable and all its branches, additions, or extensions, and all property, real or personal, at any time acquired for the purpose of the undertaking, shall rest and continue vested in such board in trust to carry out such undertaking for the benefit of the respective Governments sharing in the undertaking and in proportion to the respective interests therein.

(c) That for the purpose of obtaining money wherewith to carry out the undertaking the board may issue debentures for such sums, payable at such dates and being not less than — years nor more than — years from the respective dates of issue, and bearing such rate of interest and payable at such place as the board may determine, but the local amount of the principal money of such debentures at any time outstanding shall not exceed —— pounds sterling.

(d) That subject to cost of operation, maintaining, management, and the setting apart of such proper sinking fund as the board may deem advisable wherewith to provide for renewals, the said principal moneys and interest shall be a first charge on all the said property, real and personal, and earnings of the undertaking.

(e) That the cable shall be between Canada and Australasia, via the Pacific Ocean, and may be in sections, but all points on its landing shall be on British territory.

(f) That the commissioners shall have full power to administer the affairs of the board and the carrying on of the undertaking in trust for the benefit of said Governments.

(g) That the total number of commissioners and the nature of their tenure of office shall from time to time be determined by the said Governments, and each Government having regard to such total number shall be entitled to appoint to such board, as near as may be, as many members thereof as represent the relative ability of such appointing Government as guarantor as hereinafter mentioned, and to fill vacancies as may occur from time to time.

(h) That the respective Governments joining in such agreements shall be interested in the profits and losses of the undertaking in proportion to the extent of their liability as aforesaid.

(i) That the Governor in Council is hereby authorized on behalf of the Dominion of Canada to guarantee payment of five-eighteenth part of the said total principal money, the said debentures limited as aforesaid and interest as aforesaid on such five-eighteenth part.

Answers to Questions.

Quoting from Le Soleil of March 10, to the effect that Laurier and Tarte had a long conference that morning with Premier Marchand, Mr. Casgrain asked if the conference was for the purpose of getting the Quebec Legislature to pronounce in favor of Senate reform, also whether it was the intention of the Government to obtain similar expressions of opinion from other provincial Legislatures, and further, "Does not the Government consider that in expressing their opinion upon the subject of Senate reform, the provincial legislatures are overstepping the bounds assigned to them by the constitution?"

Sir Wilfrid replied that he and the Minister of Public Works had a conference with Premier Marchand, but it was of a confidential character. For the rest, the Government was of opinion that the provincial legislatures had a vital interest in the question, and were quite right in expressing their views upon it. Moreover, if Mr. Casgrain thought differently he was not in accord with Sir Charles Tupper on the question.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied to a series of questions by Mr. Casgrain as to the settlement of the Manitoba school question. As a question of fact there had been no correspondence between the Government or any member thereof and His Holiness the Pope and sacred college of the propaganda in relation to the Manitoba school question. As a question of right every subject of Her Majesty who belongs to the Roman Catholic Church has a right to correspond with His Holiness the Pope or the sacred college of the propaganda or any of the Archbishops or bishops of Canada or any other part of the world, and for the exercise of that right, which is not abridged by the fact that he may be an adviser of the Crown, he owes no account to the hon. member or to any other fellow-subject.

The Government have reasons to believe that the settlement known as the Laurier-Greenway settlement has been accepted by the majority of the minority, though not unanimously, with regard to the third, fourth and fifth questions. In so far as the Federal jurisdiction is concerned, if the hon. gentleman is not satisfied that the settlement should be final it is open to him or any member of Parliament to attack it.

Mr. Davin was informed that the cost of transporting the 200 troops to the Yukon was $12,836 and $155,686 was spent for transporting their supplies.

Col. Hughes was informed that the Fenian raid and Red River rebellion medals would be distributed during the coming summer, and that the long-service medals had been favorably reported upon by the Imperial authorities, and would doubtless be forthcoming.

Germany's discriminatory duties against Canadian products were given by Sir Richard Cartwright, approximately, as follows: Butter 9-10c per pound, barley 1 3-10c per bushel, beans and peas 3 3-10c per bushel, oats 4 4-10c per bushel, wheat 9 7-10c per bushel.

Mr. Sifton, in reply to Mr. Taylor, said Mr. Ogilvie was not a relative to the Minister of the Interior.

After recess a number of private bills were advanced a step, and on second reading of Mr. Britton's bill respecting certain works constructed on or over navigable waters, a discussion sprang up which lasted until 9.30, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier moved adjournment of the House.

THE SENATE.

In the Senate yesterday Senator Kirchoffer presented a report from the divorce committee recommending that the petition of David Stock for divorce be granted. The report will be taken into consideration to-day.

Another report from the same committee was presented respecting the application of Annie Hayton Dowling and Abraham Aaron-Aberg for divorce. It will also be taken into consideration to-day.

The Parent Frauds.

Hon. R. W. Scott resumed the discussion on the motion of Sir Mackenzie Bowell for a return in the case of W. H. Parent, who was charged with having made false reports to the Dominion Alliance regarding ballot-stuffing frauds in Quebec. He regretted that Sir Mackenzie had given publicity to the scandalous charges contained in a document, the accuracy of which he knew had been denied in another House. The Minister of Agriculture had denied that Parent's report had ever been sent to the Government. The Alliance had discovered very soon after the report was made that they had been taken in. Now it had gone abroad that the people of Quebec had been guilty of these crimes. The charges had been found on investigation to be utterly groundless. Parent had been employed in cancelling stamps in the local postoffice at $1.25 a day. He regretted that Sir Mackenzie had such a low opinion of either the Federal Government or the Government of Quebec as to think that this man would be given a position. Parent was a common criminal, guilty of obtaining money under false pretences, and he knew that he had never been an organizer for the Liberal party. He had heard him described as a drunken tramp.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said that if all the Secretary of State had said about Parent was true, it was a good thing the matter had been brought up where it could be investigated. The charges had been made and should be disproved.

Senators Dandurand and Perley continued the debate, and Senator Powell moved its adjournment.

Hon. John Costigan's Position.

Hon. John Costigan, who voted with the Administration supporters in the division on Tuesday night, stated yesterday afternoon that he had taken the action which he did on account of his reluctance to denounce public officials before the evidence had been heard, and who for years had been described by the Conservatives as being estimable citizens. Mr. Costigan stated that he was not acquainted with Major Walsh, but that as an admirer of British fair play he did not believe in denouncing a man who was not in a position to defend his character. Mr. Costigan stated that it was his belief that the Conservatives, if in power, would have taken action identically the same with that of the present Administration. Mr. Costigan expressed the belief that the investigation now being held by Mr. Ogilvie would be thorough and satisfactory.

Example is Better than Precept.

These sententious proverbs, or old saws, which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Sarsaparilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of a new and original style of display advertising both pleasing and effective. The Hood firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filtered down through centuries. Another charming thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are using.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 96/100 dollars ($1264 96) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

Mrs. Jasper Singer of Burgessville, Ont., went through a trying experience and gladly gives an account of it for the benefit of Canadian mothers. This is what she says: "My little boy of a year and four months old took down with a heavy cold last fall. I tried different medicines but they did no good. He got so thin he was nothing but bones and hardly ate anything.

"I thought quite a few times I would lose him, till I tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. The first bottle helped him wonderfully and the third bottle completed the cure.

"I would advise all mothers to give their little ones Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup as it is so pleasant to take and so effectual." Price 25c. All dealers.

THE NEW ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.

Lakefield Joins the Syndicate—Organization to be Completed.

The Lakefield Electric Light Co. owned by Messrs. Madill Bros., has amalgamated its eelctric lighting interests with the Burleigh Falls-Lindsay-Peterborough electric syndicate.

The deal was affected yesterday by Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell, the manager of the syndicate, after extended negotiations. The Lakefield company have taken stock in the Burleigh Falls company to its interests.

Mr. Culverwell states that the Burleigh Falls Company has now an annual revenue of about $30,000 per year in Lindsay, Peterborough, Omemee and Lakefield, with reasonable expectations of increasing it to $50,000 per annum. In addition to this there is a possibility of revenue from electric railway requirements, there being already three railways on the tapis in the vicinity of Peterborough and Lindsay, the C.P.R. connection to Lindsay being almost assured this year.

Mr. Culverwell leaves to-night for Omemee and Toronto to consult with the syndicate as to the completion of the organization of the company, which owns the Burleigh Falls power.

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND.

Looks Like a Miracle in the Toronto Hospital.

The demonstrator for the Miracle Washing Compound performed a most remarkable feat in washing at the Toronto General Hospital on Thursday, April 13th. An official statement says that 50 bed spreads, 50 blankets, 300 bed sheets, 100 men's night shirts and ten pairs of lace curtains were all washed perfectly clean in three hours by the use of Miracle Washing Compound. Beat that, who can! Steam was turned on in three large wash boilers and the compound did the work. Imagine the saving of labour where 800 pieces are required to be washed per day for 500 patients.

BALL-TOSSERS ORGANIZE FOR THE SEASON.

THE PETERBOROUGH BASEBALL CLUB AGAIN IN THE FIELD.

At a Largely Attended Meeting Officers for the Season were Elected—Will Play on the P.A.A.A. Grounds.

The Peterborough Baseball Club was organized last evening under auspices of so favourable a nature that the coming season will undoubtedly be a most successful one. The attendance was the largest in the history of the game in Peterborough, the Oriental parlour being crowded with enthusiasts. Over thirty players were signed before adjournment.

The chair was taken by Mr. Alf. Terrill and on motion of Messrs. Dan McCabe and Chris. Graham, the meeting resolved itself into the Peterborough Baseball Club.

Officers were elected for the season as appended:

Patron and Patronesses—Jas. Kendry, M.P., and Mrs. Kendry, J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., and Mrs. Stratton, Mayor Davis and Mrs. Davis.
Hon. President—G. W. Hatton.
President—R. B. McKee.
1st Vice Pres.—S. Ray.
2nd Vice-Pres.—W. J. Green.
Sec.-Treas.—R. A. W. Hay.
Manager—Chris. Graham.
Executive Committee—Alf. Terriff, C. Butler, W. Salisbury, G. Paxman, D. McCabe and J. Connors.
Grounds Committee—J. Sheridan, R. A. W. Hay and C. Graham.
Canvassing Committee—C. Graham, R. A. W. Hay, D. McCabe, J. Sheridan, F. D. Rusia, and J. Melrose.

The price of honorary membership of the club was fixed at $1.00 and for active members 50c.

The Grounds Committee was empowered to make arrangements with the Lacrosse Club for the P.A.A.A. grounds for practice on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

The secretary was instructed to endeavour to arrange for a game in Peterborough on the morning of May 24th.

The matter of procuring uniforms for the members of the team was left in the hands of the Executive Committee on the understanding that if the state of the exchequer will permit, suits will be purchased.

The matter of the club identifying itself with the proposed Midland Amateur Baseball League was then discussed at length. The meeting was unanimously in favour of entering the team in the series.

Before adjournment a vote of thanks was passed Mr. George N. Graham, for kindly allowing the club the use of the Oriental parlours.

THE CASE SETTLED.

David McGinnis Pays his Wife $150 Instead of $2.50 per Week.

Mrs. Daniel McGinnis of Ennismore, has accepted $150 from her husband in lieu of the order compelling him to pay her $2.50 per week. This settles the case and the informations have been withdrawn, which charged McGinnis and his son with trying to get rid of the property in order to avoid having to pay the alimony as ordered by County Magistrate Edmison.

AT MISS DELANEY'S.

Charming New Millinery—New Arrivals of Trimmed Hats, Flowers, etc.—More Attractive than Ever.

Spring millinery is here—here with all its glory and beauty! There has just been received at Miss Delaney's Millinery Show Rooms a special shipment of newest styles in trimmed hats, all full of originality and embodying the choice of fall new ideas. These patterns have been expressly secured for Miss Delaney's trade and their attractiveness cannot be overestimated.

There is a new charm just now about the whole store. New representations of fine French Flowers have come to hand—the productions of highly skilled artists—being careful studies from nature, counterfeited so perfectly that hardly any of the favourite blooms are missed.

New ribbons and other choice trimmings and headgear spring up to replace the ones you've bought earlier. So many new novelties in fact that it is impossible so particularize. The productions of Miss Delaney's own work rooms are specially interesting. The latest effects are introduced with painstaking exactness and exceptionally good taste.

It is quite evident that the spring millinery of to-day as shown by Miss Delaney, has contributed more lavishly to the beauty and adornment of the ladies than the larger exhibitors. The facilities at command for executing orders are as nearly perfect as skill, ingenuity and experience can make them. Come to the store and see for yourself, and you'll find fresh features every visit.

A special sale of Sailor Hats is going on every day. All the favourite kinds and colours are offered at about a half price level—50c Sailors for 25c, being fast sellers.

Though the world is wide it contains no sight like that of the Ober-Ammergau. As early as the 18th Century some drama of the Life of Christ was performed there; but it became an established institution of the place a little over 200 years ago. At that time a plague was raging in Bavaria; in Ober-Ammergau nearly 200 people perished. Accordingly the terrified survivors made a vow if the village was spared all further ravages of the disease, they would every ten years, portray in a dramatic form, for the instruction of mankind, the touching story of the Great Redeemer's life and sufferings.

WEDDING IN SMITH.

Nuptials of Miss Maggie Northey and Mr. W. G. Preston.

Lot 26 of the 13th concession of Smith was the scene of a large and joyous gathering on the evening of Wednesday, April 12th. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Maggie Northey, youngest daughter of Mr. James Northey, one of the surviving pioneers of that part of the township, to Mr. William George Preston, also of Smith.

The bride, who was given away by her father, looked remarkably well. She was most becomingly attired in cream cashmere and was crowned with a chaplet of orange blossoms.

At the appointed hour of seven, supported by Mr. James Roseborough as groomsman, and Miss Nettie Preston as briedesmaid, the happy couple were made husband and wife by Rev. E. A. W. Dove.

Congratulations over, the company proceeded to do full justice to the abundant and tempting viands under which the table almost seemed to groan.

The presents, which were by no means few in number, included articles useful and ornamental of more than ordinary value. This furnished unmistakable proof of the high estimation in which the bride was held by her numerous friends. For several years Miss Northey filled with great faithfulness and acceptibility the important position of organist of the Wesley Methodist church. On learning of her contemplated departure from amongst them the members of the congregation united to evidence in some tangible manner, the thanks which her services so highly merited. The following therefore needs no explanation:

To Miss M. J. Northey.

Dear Friend,—we, the members of the congregation of the North Smith Methodist church, have learned with regret of your departure from amongst us. We desire however, to let you know, that we have for some years felt under deep obligation to you for your untiring efforts as organist in our church. In this capacity you have done much to make our meetings both cheerful and helpful.

While we take this opportunity of expressing our gratitude for your valued services, we would, at the same time, ask you to accept this address and watch as a small token of our respect and appreciation. We trust that you may long be spared to use this watch, and that your future life may be as pleasant, as our relations as organist and congregation have been.

We pray that when our lives on earth are ended, we may be all gathered into that church, where as members of the Heavenly choir, we shall sing praises unto God and the Lamb for ever more.

"God be with you till we meet again,
By His counsels guide uphold you;
With His sheep securely fold you,
God be with you till we meet again."
"God be with you till we meet again,
When life's perils thick confound you,
Put His arms unfailing round you,
God be with you till we meet agajn."

Signed on behalf of the congregation:

Stephen Harrison, W. J. Pearson, Stewards.

John Pearson, Society representative.

Smith, April 12th, 1899.

To this address Miss Northey made the following reply:

Dear Friends,—I thank you very much for your kind words, and very valuable present. I shall not soon cease to think of the pleasant associations of the past. If my services as organist, were as you say, a help and inspiration to the church gatherings, this is to me a source of true satisfaction, and an ample reward for any efforts made.

Again thanking you for your kindly expression of esteem, believe me to remain,

Yours sincerely,
MAGGIE NORTHEY.

Handsome New Mirrors.

Two new window mirrors, 7x7 feet, have been placed in the show windows of Robert Fair & Co. Another very large mirror plate has also been placed in the millinery show room, 5x11 feet. These mirrors are very valuable samples of Bristol plate, and will prove very effective assessories to the up-to-date Golden Lion Store. It's Fair's way.

THE CANOE INDUSTRY.

LOCAL FIRMS FLOODED WITH ORDERS FOR CRAFT.

The Superior Workmanship on our Peterborough Canoes Gives them the Call in the Trade.

The town of Peterborough is known from Florida to Klondike for its canoes and the industry is so inseparately connected with the name of the town in the minds of the public that a person can hardly think of Peterborough without drawing a mental picture of some of the splendid specimens of aquatic craft that are turned out by our local firms. In the recent Klondike rush more canoes were shipped from here than from any other single place in Canada. This industry being such an important one, a little attention to the condition of the trade will be interesting to everyone; more especially as the season is opening up in this line.

The Wm. English Canoe Company's factory was visited by a scribe from the Examiner this morning and he was taken in charge by the genial secretary-treasurer, Mr. W. J. English and loaded up with interesting information. This season is undoubtedly the best in the history of the company, with possibly an exception of several months during last year's Klondike craze. Mr. English states that the supply cannot meet the demand and this evening a night staff will be put on and the work pushed forward as quickly as possible. A new fad is coming into fashion. The bicycle fever is abating somewhat and the custom now, so Mr. English informs, is to use the wheel to run down to canoe club houses a few miles from town and go out for a paddle.

Canoes this year are much lighter than last year's models and meant more for speed than durability. Basswood canoes are the most popular and the demand for these is extraordinarily large. Racing canoes of the American Canoe Club style are in great demand and the English company is unable to meet the demand for these. Mr. English with considerable pride showed an order from His Excellency Lord Minto for a canoe to be built of selected cedar strips, to be finished in sage green, the popular colour. The company's stock is low at present, everything being shipped to meet orders, the American demand being greater this year than formerly.

At the factory of the Canadian Canoe Co., everything is going with a rush and business is brisk. This company is seven years old and has met with great success from the beginning, its aim being to turn out a first-class article at a popular price. The company's rule is to employ only first-class mechanics, and doubtless to this fact can be attributed its success. The manager, Mr. M. W. Lyle, invites anyone, who is not familiar with canoe construction to call at the factory and he will be pleased to explain everything in sight. The company's factory is situated at the corner of Brock and Water street. The Canadian Canoe Company takes especial pride in its now famous 30 foot "war" canoes, a number of which have been supplied to canoe clubs and have everywhere given perfect satisfaction. At the present time the manager states that they have more orders booked than have ever been hitherto received with the exception of the period of rush last year when this company was favored with an order for its whole output, their goods giving such satisfaction. At present a large order from the Pittsburg Canoe Club is engaging a great deal of the time and attention of the firm, and some excellent craft are being constructed to meet this demand.

The Peterborough Canoe Company reports favourable business, the orders on its books being greater than previous years. Three beautiful cedar strip canoes are finished and will be expressed immediately to the United States government at Seattle and put into use in their service. A big New York firm has given an important order for several superfine cedar canoes with mahogany finishings. A large sailing canoe for Nanimo, B. C., is almost finished and will be forwarded as soon as possible. Workmen are busy completing the construction of a graceful steam launch being built for W. J. Snodgrass & Sons, to be put into passenger and mail service on Lake Okanogan, a few miles southwest of Rossland, B. C. It is 40 feet long, 8 broad and 4 feet deep, and is as fine a piece of workmanship as has been turned out for some time.

The fact that the local canoe manufacturers are meeting with such success and are supplying such superior articles cannot fail to benefit the town, and benefitting it also help everyone who lives here. An effort is being made to reorganize the canoe club and it is hoped the movement will result successfully.

CASH GROCERS.

LEM-ENTATIONS
From the Wash-Tub.
By LEM FELCHER.

This being Spring when all great minds run to poetry and house-cleaning, the virtute of MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND should be extolled and made known to all housekeepers, and here you are in rhyme:

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND.

"Miracle"! oh, "Miracle"!
Upon the highest pinacle
We intend to write your name.
Your color—emblem of purity—
As a cleanser you're a surety,
When directions are used the same.
The grocers would be losers
If the ladies as the choosers,
Could not purchase you from them.
And in such an easy manner,
You have captured the banner
From all aspiring rivals in the land.

But the grocers, they will keep you,
Because there's none can beat you
For you can do their washing while they rest.
You're properties they are chemicals
Adapted to the finest flannels,
Lace curtains, white linens, the costiest and the best.
And at house-cleaning, you're a daisy
If the hired girl she isn't lazy,
Or happens to be overtaken with that tired feeling in the spring.
If she will only use you
And never once abuse you,
But follow the directions out quite right.
There can only be one verdict,
For I have often heard it:
"Miracle! oh, miracle!
You're simply out of sight."

You're harmless as Tutti Frutti
Because the children chew you,
When in their childish glee, they romp away to school.
And in youthful innocence
Wonder how it is that miracle
Isn't quoted in the Golden Rule.

You are so calm and placid
In your make-up there's no acid
To destroy the softest clothing
Or harm the prettiest hands.
And when in the boiling water,
How you cause the dirt to scatter
Is more than most of people
Can rightly understand.

Then, again the tired mother,
She has'nt the washboard bother
Nor needs to dread of wash-day
Or scold us any more!
For while you're doing your duty,—
You brilliant white beauty—
Wiffee can take it easy
Or go about another chore.
Resting in her rocking chair
She can say—"Aw, there!"
And clean her hubbie's shirt
That was covered up with dirt
While rolling with the babies
Like a kid upon the floor!

What better proof will be required
When Tommy Henry who is hired
To run his brother's dandy grocery store,
Came to me and said: "Say, Lem,
The argument is dead
Now and forever more.
But really I had no hope
Till I took a cake of Henry's soap
And put them in the tub
To prove that things were really what they seem.
Very soon I had a suds
That would clean Dennis Daly's duds
As sweetly and as purty
As any new dhudeen!

This being Lem's first offence at composing poetry he humbly asks the public's forgiveness. Lem would also like to say that he has recently been appointed manager of the W. E. Smith Company for the Improved Miracle Washing Compound, in conjunction with Mr. J. Mains, 466 Queen street west, Toronto, to whom all people will apply for agencies.

Look for Mrs. James Dolan's testimonial in a future issue of the EXAMINER extolling the merits of Miracle Washing Compound.

NOTICE.—The Miracle Washing Compound Company will give one-half gross of Miracle Washing Compound and one-half dozen boxes Assyrian Polish to the lady or gentleman who will compose the best advertisement, in prose or poetry, of Miracle Washing Compound on or before Wednesday, April 26th. Decision to be given by two advertising experts from the EXAMINER and Review Offices.

SMALLPOX RAGES IN CLEVELAND.

Two to Nine New Cases Daily for Over Two Months.

Cleveland, O., April 20.—Smallpox has increased in this city to such an extent that the health department officials confess themselves unable to cope with it under the present conditions. Three of the public schools have been closed, and Health Officer Leick has asked the City Council to immediately place $15,000 at his disposal, in addition to the regular department funds. Up to 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon 11 new cases of the disease had been reported to the department; seven cases were reported after that hour. They are widely scattered, every part of the city being represented.

The pest house long ago proved utterly inadequate to hold patients assigned to it, and a large annex is being constructed. An idea of the extent of the disease can be gathered from the fact that, although yesterday's record for new cases is the largest thus far, every day for more than two months has seen from two to nine new cases reported.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

The Man Who Made and Used the $100 Silver Certificates in Custody.

Washington, April 20.—Agents of the Government secret service have arrested the makers of the famous $100 silver certificate, which was put in circulation something over a year ago, and which resulted in the retirement of the whole issue. Arthur Taylor and Baldwin S. Bredell, supposed to be the principals, were arrested in Philadelphia on Tuesday. William Jacobs and William L. Kidney, large cigar manufacturers, and James Burns, who was in Jacobs' employ, were arrested in Lancaster, Pa., yesterday. The plates from which the notes were printed, together with a large quantity of counterfeit revenue stamp plates, rolls and about five tons of paper were also secured. In their confession yesterday Taylor and Bredell stated that less than $10,000 of the $100 certificates were printed.

Effect and Cause.

The rattling of the musketry increased.

The pirate chief leaped to the mizzen halyards.

He waved his broken sword.

"Scuttle the ship!" he shrieked.

There was a moment's agonized silence.

Then a quavering voice arose above the guns.

"Master," it screeched, "somebody has stolen the scuttle!"

At this the rattling broke forth afresh and the man awoke.

His wife was shaking down the kitchen range.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat Futures Erratic—Chicago Options Advanced Sharply, But Reacted on Profit-Taking Sales—Prices.

Liverpool, April 19.—Wheat futures opened strong yesterday morning, at an advance over night, and sold higher during the day, and closed 1½d per cental above Monday's final figures.

Chicago, April 19.—The trading in the Chicago wheat pit was on a large scale yesterday. The crop damage reports that poured in from all quarters dominated the market. The May option opened at a good gain over night, and advanced 1⅝c above Monday's close. Realizing sales caused a late reaction of this option to Monday's final figures, where it closed. The July option fluctuated to a similar extent, but closed with a net gain of nearly ½c for the day.

Toronto Live Stock.

Toronto, April 19.—The receipts of live stock at the cattle market yesterday were light, 40 carloads, composed of 565 cattle, 275 sheep, 400 hogs and 20 calves. Out of the above number there were 11 cars of export cattle, and 2 cars of bulls for the Northwest Territories, that were not for sale, consequently the number of cattle actually for sale was small, about 350 all told. The quality of fat cattle offered generally was only middling. Trade fair, nearly all offerings being sold in good time. Prices were firmer.

Total receipts of live stock for last week were: Cattle 2,787, sheep 787, hogs 2,648.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

NERVOUS... DEPRESSION

Means Impoverished and Exhausted Nerves—Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores and Revitalizes the Nerve Cells.

People who suffer from Nervous Depression and Exhaustion frequently look healthy and strong. They alone know the thousand distressing symptoms which make their lives miserable.

The lack of nerve force results in a slow and sluggish action of the heart, impaired digestion, headache, despondency, and a fear to venture, loss of energy, sleeplessness, incapacity for mental labor or business.

With these symptoms there is usually melancholy and fear of death, which tends to increase nervousness, but there is every reason to be hopeful if the right treatment is used. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food contains all the nutrition required to create new brain and nerve tissue. It imparts to the nervous system that life-giving principle which sends a thrill of new strength and vigor through the system.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will cure by the building-up process, which enables the body to laugh at disease and weakness. Face cut and fac-simile signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on every box of the genuine. 50c. a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

WHAT PORTO RICANS WANT.

They Wish Government From Washington and Absolute Free Trade.

Washington, April 20.—Dr. J. Julio Hanna and M. Zeno Gaudia yesterday presented to the President a memorial drawn up by them as commissioners of the people of Porto Rico, asking that exclusive military control over the island be withdrawn, and that matters relating to the various branches of the civil government of the island be turned over to the control of the departments in Washington having jurisdiction over similar matters in the United States. They ask that a census be taken, so that Congress can intelligently decide upon the permanent government of the Island, "whether Porto Rico is to be organized as a territory, admitted as a state or disposed of in any other way," and lastly, that "in compliance with the provisions of the United States constitution, trade between the United States and Porto Rico shall be absolutely free."

Klondike Rates Advanced.

Vancouver, B.C., April 20.—On and after May 1 second-class passenger rates to Skaguay from Puget Sound and British Columbia ports will be advanced $2.50. The old rate was $15. The transportation rate on cattle will also be advanced $2.50 per head, to $22.50. No change has been made in general freight rates or in first-class passenger rates.

Canadian Roads in It.

Toledo, O., April 20.—When closing a deal yesterday to secure ten acres of land for yards, the officials of the new Detroit & Shore Line admitted that the Big Four, Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk are interested in the line, and by this means will be brought into Toledo, ultimately reaching the Ohio coal fields.

Indian Murderer in Custody.

Vancouver, B.C., April 20.—A special from Kamloops says: The Indian, Casimir, murderer of Philip Walker, was arrested on the reserve opposite the town at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He surrendered quietly without firing off his remaining cartridges.

Charges Against Premier Emerson.

Fredericton, N.B., April 19.—A bombshell was fired in the New Brunswick Legislature yesterday by J. D. Hazen, leader of the Opposition, who laid direct charges of corruption against Premier Emerson in connection with permanent bridge construction. The charge was: "I make these charges against the Hon. Henry R. Emerson, as Commissioner of Public Works, and as a member of the Executive Government of the province, and state that, with the knowledge of the said Hon. Henry R. Emerson, and through his said dereliction of duty and his desire to aid his personal and political friends, and to strengthen the Government of which he is a member, the treasury of the province has been defrauded out of large sums of money."

Premier Emerson replied that he was glad he had now to deal with a direct charge. The Opposition, he said, had formerly been content with insinuations. He gave the charges an emphatic denial and said he would demand the fullest investigation into them.

The Bois Franc Murder.

Maniwaki, Que., April 19.—The remains of the victim of the Bois Franc murder were interred in the cemetery here yesterday evening, and conspicuous amongst the few who attended were Jacques Boileau and wife, who were from the very outset suspected of having been the cause of the unfortunate girl's death. The jury brought in a verdict of suspicion against them, and they were arrested. Being brought before Mr. James Martin, J.P., they were committed to stand their trial at the next Criminal Assizes.

With a Capital of $2,000,000.

Hamilton, April 19.—The terms of amalgamation of the Hamilton Blast Furnace Company and the Ontario Rolling Mills Company have been agreed on, and amalgamation will be proceeded with as soon as possible. The new company, whose name has not been decided on, will have a capital of $2,000,000. It is the intention to establish a steel plant for the manufacture of all kinds of billets, bars, etc.

Cancer Cured.

Burdock Blood Bitters again Vanquishes this Terrible Disease.

Mrs. E. J. Tufford, Paris, Ont., tells how it cured Cancer of six years' standing.

Not long ago we published in this paper an account of the case of Mrs. Gilhula, of Buxton, Ont., who was cured of cancer of the stomach 12 years ago by Burdock Blood Bitters, and who, up to the present time, has had no return of the disease.

Now we let MRS. E. J. TUFFORD, a fine old lady, 84 years of age, living at Paris, Ont., tell how B.B.B. cured her of cancer of six years' standing. This is her statement: "About six years ago last fall I was afflicted with that terrible disease, a cancer under my left breast, about as large as a saucer. It was between the skin and the body, and fast to the body.

"I wrote to a Chicago specialist about my case and he desired me to go to him and have an operation performed, which I decided not to do on account of my years.

"I had heard a great deal about wonderful cures being made by Burdock Blood Bitters and decided to try it.

"I can assure you if it had not been for B.B.B. I should have gone the way of all flesh long ere this.

"After I had taken seven or eight bottles I found I was greatly benefited, so I continued its use until I was cured.

"People say to me 'you are wonderfully smart for a woman of 84.' I tell them I give B.B.B. all the credit.

"I tell folks they need not have boils, pimples, abscesses, cancers, salt rheum, scrofula or any blood disease if they will only use B.B.B. faithfully according to directions."

A case of such severity as the above ought surely be sufficient to convince the most skeptical of the thorough blood purifying properties of B.B.B.

There is no disease or disorder arising from impure blood, be it the smallest pimple or the worst scrofulous sore or cancer, but what B.B.B. can cure to stay cured.

MILK AND WATER.

Milk is food. Water is not food. Nurse the baby on water and it will not live long. But, many a mother who supposes she is buying real milk is getting half water, and she wonders why the baby frets and looks thin and pale.

What water is to milk so substitute medicines are to Dr. Pierce's. This is why there is nothing "just as good" as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for the cure of disordered or weak stomach, impure blood, bronchitis, obstinate, lingering coughs, sore throat, weak lungs, bleeding lungs, and kindred affections, which, if neglected or badly treated, lead up to consumption. If you ask for Dr. Pierce's remedies and the dealer won't supply you, go to another store. Your health is of greater importance than any extra profit he may make on the substitute. The imitation substitute can not imitate the cures. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is absolutely non-alcoholic and non-narcotic. It can be safely relied upon by temperance people. It is not only the safest, but also the surest remedy for the stomach, blood, throat and lungs.

"My wife had a severe attack of pleurisy and lung trouble," writes Abram Freer, Esq., of Rockbridge, Green Co., Ills. "The doctors gave her up to die. She commenced to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and improved from the first dose. By the time she had taken eight or ten bottles she was cured, and it was the cause of a large amount being sold here. I think the 'Golden Medical Discovery' is the best medicine in the world for lung trouble."

For 31 one-cent stamps to pay customs and postage, you can get a free copy of the Common Sense Medical Adviser, a work of 1008 pages. Cloth bound 50 stamps. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE FASHION PLATE.

The almost invisible chevrons, woven in a new type of French camel's hair, are made into handsome street costumes trimmed with silk stitching.

Pretty dresses of grass linen more than ever sheer in texture, but far less wiry to handle and of soft French batiste or barege, will form part of the summer outfits for young women.

Some new jackets and coats show very pretty applique effects in silk passementerie of the same shade as the cloth, or, again, formed of the cloth itself in new outwork designs.

Silk, light wool fabrics and handsome silk and wool mixed materials, crinkled, waved, chevroned, barred, chenille dotted and creponed, in wholly novel markings, are now to be seen.

It is asserted by the importers that the new taffeta soyeaux weaves, manufactured with little or no dressing, will wear better than any class of silks put upon the market in many seasons.

The new Roman blue is a very beautiful shade of that color. It appears among new French wools in ladies' cloth, drap d'ete, poplin, Syrian cloth, vicuna, camel's hair and occasionally among the corded silks and trimming velvets.

Soie d'orient is the name of a very pretty fabric in which eastern devices and oriental colorings are most artistically brought out. In effect it is much like the beautiful French matelasse silks and satins, only the designs are larger and more striking.

Very closely fitted jackets in pale soft spring shades or in deeper dyes for more general uses are lined with matelasse silk, some of them cut almost like a habit bodice, others with half fitting fronts, with coat backs cut in deep postilion shape and fronts very much curved and cut away.

Very few of the beautiful clinging toilets in princess or skirt and bodice styles in black lace are formed of the lace alone. Nearly all the Paris models combine black net, chiffon, grenadine, etamine barege or nuns' veiling with the lace draperies plaitings or flouncings.

MADAME WALLACE.

Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realize the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles.

Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 338 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

A Birthday Beating Killed Her.

New York, April 19.—Little Edna Jane Morrow, an 11-year-old child of Elizabeth, N.J., died yesterday as the result of a "birthday beating." St. Patrick's Day was her natal day, and a boisterous schoolboy of her class gave her 22 blows on her arm with the edge of a slate, 11 "to grow on." That the blows were not brutal is evidenced by the children who were present and saw her laugh through the punishment. The arm grew numb, however, and was soon completely paralyzed. Then the side of her body became affected, and the child lost consciousness. She died yesterday, and the doctors said the blows had caused blood-poisoning.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

RACED FOR HIS LIFE.

AN EXCITING ADVENTURE WITH A WILD OSTRICH.

A Thrilling Chase on an African Veldt That Was Interrupted by a Kaffir, Who Was Then Kicked to Death by the Infuriated Bird.

The open veldt lay before us bathed in the dew and the lingering shades of early morning as we mounted our horses for a ride across country. Before we had gone far, however, my companion was summoned back, and I continued my ride alone. As I advanced mile by mile the scenery grew wilder, and the great rocks, just tinged with the purple of the sunrise, rose majestically on either side. When the road divided, my Basuto pony turned off into a bridle path which led through a wild gorge and eventually lost itself among the rocks at the foot of a hill. The sure-footed little creature started up the side of the mountain and eventually landed me at the top. Here I dismounted and left him to graze. We had been out some hours. Remounting, we followed a half beaten track on the opposite side from which we had come, and in a short time we were at the foot of the hill and on the level veldt once more. Going forward into the main road, which wound round the base of the mountain, I started off at a quick canter toward home.

For some time we went along at a good pace, when suddenly I was startled by the sight, not far ahead, of a cock ostrich rushing wildly backward and forward, with its black and white wings flapping and quivering with rage. I pulled up with a jerk, for at first I thought the bird was loose on the veldt, but on closer inspection I found that a wire fence was between us. Just at this moment I saw on the other side of the camp a hen sitting on her nest, and, knowing only too well the danger I was in, I paused to consider what I should do. A short distance in front the road ran close to the fence, and I knew it would be impossible to pass that way. There was nothing for it but to retrace my steps and follow the road back round the mountain till it joined the one by which I had come. I was not afraid, for it was by no means an uncommon position in which to find oneself in the center of an ostrich farming country, and, besides, I felt sure of getting away. Accordingly I turned the pony's head in the opposite direction and walked quietly back, hoping to escape notice. A few moments passed, and I began to think we were safe, when suddenly a strange sound made me look around. To my horror I saw that in one of his wild charges the enormous bird had caught sight of us and was making frantic dashes along the fence, which was unusually low, and was not of barb wire. In a few seconds he would be over, and then it meant a race for dear life. My pony, I knew, was one of the quickest in the country, and, as we had a good start, possibly for a short time we should keep ahead, but in the end I knew the ostrich must easily catch us.

As if by instinct my faithful friend scented danger, and after one whispered word in his ear he was off like the wind. There was suddenly a crash behind us, followed by a measured beating which almost made the ground vibrate and set my heart thumping. If you have never heard the "tramp" of an infuriated ostrich, no words will adequately describe it. The nearest approach to it that I can think of is the sound of the regular "thud, thud!" of soldiers on the march. There was no mistake. We were being pursued by a furious cock ostrich—a formidable foe indeed! Now it was only a question of time. The pony's feet seemed scarcely to touch the ground, and I bent forward, urging him on feverishly as I had never done before. Nearer and nearer came the beating, the distance between us and our strange pursuer growing less and less every second. I was powerless to do anything but hold on to my flying horse. We were miles away from any farm in the direction we were going, and those behind knew nothing of the terrible danger I was in. Could there be no help? Alone on the boundless veldt, I looked vaguely up into the blue sky.

There was a distant shout, and I was dimly conscious that a short, heavy kerrie whizzed past me. I dared not stop, for the ostrich was now but a few yards behind, and I could almost feel the vibration of its great wings as it skimmed, half flying, half racing, over the earth. Presently another kerrie came whizzing past, and this time it must have interfered in some way with the progress of the great bird, for I could tell it had stopped short, and as the chase was not resumed I ventured to look back. My heart seemed suddenly to stand still. My head swam, and I had the greatest difficulty to keep my seat in the saddle. The infuriated ostrich had turned and was charging at a Kaffir who was coming up from the camp in pursuit. The man saw his danger and excitedly threw kerrie after kerrie, which passed wide of the mark. Vague ideas flashed through my mind of going to his help—an absurd idea, of course, and now impossible, for the pony had become thoroughly frightened and was bolting as hard as he could go. There was more shouting now, and I hoped that others had come to the rescue; but, glancing back again, I saw it was too late. Ostrich and man had met!

The Kaffir made a tremendous spring at the long neck of the bird, but he was too slow, and an awful kick sent the poor wretch upon the earth. Before he had time to recover—if indeed he ever could—the bird was literally dancing upon him, and I shut my eyes to hide the ghastly sight. By this time several Kaffirs and a Dutchman had come up, and with a long lasso they caught the sensitive part of the bird's neck and strangled it, dragging it off the prostrate Kaffir at the same time. I never knew how I reached home that day. For days and nights that ghastly fight haunted me, and I was troubled by the thought that the man had practically given his life for mine, while I had done nothing even to attempt to save him. His master, a hard, mercenary Boer, was more filled with annoyance at the loss of the valuable ostrich than with pity for the man. The unfortunate Kaffir had only lived till he reached the farm, and then he succumbed to his terrible injuries.—Wide World Magazine.

ORIGIN OF BONBONS.

Sugar Plums, Pastilles and Burned Almonds Have a History.

The most popular and most ancient of bonbons are sugar plums, pastilles and burned almonds, but how many persons know their history? Sugar plums date from Roman times, for the Romans were the first to think of covering almonds with layers of sugar. The inventor was a certain Julius Dragatus, a noted confectioner, who belonged to the illustrious patrician family of Fabius. He made this great discovery, which has wrought so much damage to our teeth for 20 centuries, in the year 177 B. C.

These bonbons, called dragati, after their inventor (dragees in French), remained the exclusive privilege of the family of Fabius. But at the birth or the marriage of one of that family a great distribution of dragati took place, as a sign of rejoicing. This custom is still observed by many of the nobility of Europe.

The pastille is of far later origin, having been invented and introduced into France by an Italian confectioner, the Florentine John Pastilla, a protege of the Medicis. When Maria de Medici married Henry IV of France, Pastilla accompanied his sovereign to the French court, where his bonbons had a tremendous vogue. Everybody wanted the Florentine's pastilles, and, strange to say, they were perfection from the very beginning. He made them with all kinds of flavors—chocolate, coffee, rose, violet, mint, wine, strawberry, raspberry, vanilla, heliotrope, carnation!

Burned almonds are purely of French origin, owing their inception to the gluttony of a certain French merchant. One day Marshal Duplessis-Pralin, an old gourmet, sent for Lassagne, his chief confectioner, and promised him a great price for some new sweet that would please his palate, dulled as it was by all the pleasures of the table. Lassagne, who had already invented many a toothsome dainty, was a man of resource. He searched, he reflected, he combined, until finally he conceived a delicious bonbon, which he baptized gloriously with the name of his master, praline, the French for burned almond.

This is the history of the invention of bonbons, for all others are mere combinations or developments of these three—the sugar plum, the pastille and the burned almond.

Tortured by Itching

Women are almost driven Insane.

Instant Relief in Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment

One of the most distressing symptoms imaginable is the almost unbearable itching which is an accompaniment of Leucorrhea or whites. The nerves are irritated by the poisonous discharge, and the result is an itching which is only rendered more excruciating by rubbing or scratching.

Especially at night, when the body is warm, the patient is tormented beyond the powers of human endurance. Sleep or rest is out of the question. Nervousness, irritability and despondency are a natural result.

In these offices there are on the file thousands of letters from grateful women who have found in Dr. Chase's Ointment a quick and certain cure for this itching to which women are subject.

During the expectant period many women suffer similar agony from itching of the parts, or itching piles, which are absolutely cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

The first application of this great discovery of Dr. A. W. Chase will afford prompt relief. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

CURLIANA.

Several important changes in the rules of the grand old winter game were considered at the semi-annual meeting of the Ontario Curling Association which was held Tuesday afternoon in Toronto. Some of the alterations proposed were of a decidedly radical nature, and for that reason they were not received with much favour, although virtually sanctioned by the executive. The proposal to penalize rinks which have not their full complement of players when the time set for the game is reached was given the six months' hoist. The resolution in substance was to the effect that if only two players appear the rink should forfeit the match; if only three players the game should proceed with the lead playing two pairs of stones, their opponents to count one point for every three ends. Although it was the consensus of opinion that a rink playing only three men had an advantage, it was also the general sentiment that the handicap which it was proposed to inflict upon them was too great. In future clubs will have to register a full list of its members under penalty of paying double the amount of the rate into the association's treasury. All reference to the middle line which has hitherto been the spot at which sweeping should commence was eliminated from the rules, so that in future the sweepers may begin operations wherever they choose in obedience to the mandates of the skip. Occasional members will not be allowed to participate in interclub matches or for association trophies. The discussion at times were of a very animated character, and the members were not loath to take part. President A. F. McLaren was unable to attend, and Vice-President David Dexter presided in his stead, with the indefatigable secretary of the association, Mr. J. S. Russell, at his side.

Mr. E. B. Edwards represented the local curlers.

The general report showed that there are 83 clubs on the roll of the association, with a membership of 2,752, which is a gain of 200 in the the year. The throwing open of the competition for the Governor-General's prize to all the clubs in the association has only partially been a success. It was hoped that on future years the proportion of clubs from a distance will be greatly increased. In the report of the Ontario Tankard competition it was pointed out that the reduction in the number of groups from 16 to 8 was a decided success the average number of matches played in each group being 4 1-8 as against 2 1-2 in the previous year. Some complaints were made in regard to the extra travelling incurred in the primaries, but this was a feature that could not be obviated.

In the competition for the Governor-General's prize, of the "general" entries, eight were from Toronto and the immediate vicinity, and only three from the other parts of the province.

Only three returns were received in the points competition, namely, Orillia, Seaforth and Lindsay. F. Toogood, of Orillia, with 44, won the medal. He was closely followed by E. A. Doolittle of the same place, whose score was 41.

The financial report showed a balance on hand of $86.67.

The Newmarket club was admitted to membership.

The proposed amendations to the rules was the next order of business. The following changes were made: Add after section 3 of the by-laws: All members who join an affiliated club shall be entitled to be registered as members of the O.C.A., and shall be so registered not later than the first day of the month next following the date of their joining the local club at the ordinary rate for members, and any club neglecting to thus register any of its members shall be held liable to the association for double the amount of the members' rate in respect of each of such members.

Section 4 of the rules of the game was amended to read:

From and in exact alignment with both tees a line called a central line shall be drawn, etc. The following was added to the rule: "And before the player removes his foot from the back." Add to rule "I": "After the stone has been delivered the skip of the party now playing may sweep in front of any of his party's stones likely to be moved by the winning stone, but in so doing he must not obstruct the skip of the party playing in front of the sweeping line.

In section 21: Make a full period after delay, in the third line; cancel the other portion of the line and insert in place thereof: "And if the umpire decides that the belated club is at fault in regard to the delay he shall give one point in the game to the rink present and ready to play for each such period of time it is kept waiting."

It was decided that occasional members should not play in interclub matches, nor for association trophies.

Mr. Collins, of the Dundas club, advocated a new arrangement in connection with the competition for the Governor-General's prize, by whihc only eight clubs other than those in the final Tankard competition may take part. The matter was left over until the fall meeting.

The Tankard banner was then presented to Mr. Anderson, of the Fergus Club. President McLaren donated watch charms to the skips and the association cuff-links to each of the players. Mr. T. O. Robson took charge of the medals won by St. Marys as the runners-up in the Tankard, and the watch-charms presented by the Vice-president to the skips. The Governor-General's prize, a handsome silver cup suitably engraved, was won by Oshawa, but they were not represented. Mr. Toogood, of Orillia, won the points medal with a score of 44, the highest ever made in Ontario. The district medals were also given to the winning clubs.

Mr. E. B. Edwards in returning from Toronto brought with him the handsome medal which was awarded the Peterborough Granites as winners in District No. 8. The medal is on exhibition in the window of Peter Connal & Son. The Granite skips were Messrs. R. M. Hamilton and W. L. Allen.

OF INTEREST TO CANOEISTS.

Under the above heading the following paragraph appears in the Lindsay Post: Mr. Walter J. English, representing the Wm. English Canoe Company, Peterborough, was in town on Monday interrviewing local canoeists relative to American Canoe Association matters. Next year the Northern Division will have the meet, and it is proposed to hold it on Muskoka waters. Mr. English has attended every meet for years past, and is now seeking to arouse former interest in canoeing circles, with the hope of making next year's meet in Muskoka such a grand success that the American contingent may vote to hold it there every year.

WANT A DOG SHOW.

The Ottawa Free Press says:—The executive of the Ottawa Kennel club are to wait on the Central Canada Exhibition people in a few days with a request that a dog show be palced on the list of attractions for the fair this fall. Should the directors acquiesce, a building will have to be erected for the show, as there is none suitable at present on the grounds. If a dog show is put on at Ottawa it will boom the exhibition of prize canines in Canada, as it will complete an excellent circuit with Toronto, Peterborough, Kingston, Montreal and Ottawa. With five such shows coming consecutively, it will be an additional incentive to owners to enter their pets.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

The Y. M. C. A. Club Organizes for the Season and Elects Officers.

Association Football will be the Y. M.C.A. game this season, so it was decided at the meeting of out door enthusiasts last night. Although the game is new to the majority of the men, a strong team is looked for, as several old time players have decided to cast their lot with the Association club. Herb Conway was appointed president pro tem, and the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Mr. R. M. Dennistoun, president; Mr. A. H. Stratton; vice-president, Garnet Bell; secretary-treasurer, Wm. E. Lech; managing committee, Messrs. D. H. Moore, Herb Conway, Chas. Mathais, and J. M. MacLeod; curator, Harry Gouldey. The next meeting of the club will be held on Friday evening, the 28th inst., when the committee will be asked to report on club colours, a constitution and a club suit.

A Porcine Curiosity.

A sow owned by Mr. Robert Oliphant gave birth last week to a most peculiar pig. The animal's head was cut off just in front of the ears and in place of a mouth was an aperature like the mouth of a redfin sucker. The pig's ears were more like those of an elephant than anything else. The animal only lived a short time. There was not the slightest vestige of an eye, unless a peculiar looking spot on top of the abbreviated head could be considered as being one.

COMSTOCK'S TRIUMPH

Brockville Gets Into Line in Support of Sir Wilfrid.

THE GREAT MAJORITY IS 243.

After Twenty-One Years of Conservatism the Constituency Comes Over to the Liberal Party—Great Rejoicing in Brockville — Public Meeting an Ovation to Mr. Comstock.

Brockville, April 21.—Yesterday was a red-letter day in the history of Liberalism in the good old riding of Brockville The town is fairly wild with excitement over the return, by the handsome majority of 243, of Mr. W. H. Comstock, the candidate of the Liberal party. Both sides worked hard all day, and the weather was all that could be desired. A very large vote was polled. From the first the Liberals felt confident of victory, and worked with a determination and a will that could hardly fail to achieve success under almost any circumstances. Their organization was as nearly perfect as it was possible to have it, and when put into operation yesterday morning simply swept everything before it.

Liberals Rejoicing.

Everything passed off in a very quiet and orderly manner during the day, but when the returns began to come in from the polling places in the town, showing large majorities for Mr. Comstock at nearly every point, the pent-up enthusiasm of the Liberals knew no bounds. By half-past 6 full returns had been received from the town, showing Mr. Comstock's majority to be 231. This assured his election by a large majority, for it was well known that the county could not give Mr. White over 180 at the most. It was some time before complete returns were received from the townships, but when they did come they were a surprise to even the most enthusiastic Liberal. The township of Elizabethtown, always a staunch Conservative stronghold, gave Mr. Comstock a majority of 35, and Kitley, which used to give Mr. Wood majorities ranging from 150 to 175, gave Mr. White only 198. This gave Mr. Comstock a clear majority of 243. At the general election in 1896 Hon. Mr. Wood's majority was 382. So it will be seen that there has been a regular landslide to the Liberal ranks.

Ovation to the New Member.

At 8 o'clock the supporters of Mr. Comstock formed a procession, and, headed by the 41st Battalion and Island City Bands, proceeded to his residence. The victorious Liberal candidate was placed in a carriage, and the sturdy and willing younger members of the party drew him to the Opera House, amid the enthusiastic cheers of the crowd that thronged the streets. Arrived at the Opera House, it was soon filled by the crowd, and Mr. Comstock, accompanied by Hon. Mr. Mulock, Messrs. O. E. Talbot, M.P., George P. Graham, M.P.P., James Cumming, D. Derbyshire, O. K. Fraser, D. W. Downey and other leading Liberals, appeared on the stage. He was tendered such an ovation as has never been witnessed in Brockville. The crowd in the Opera House cheered till they were hoarse, the bands played and the excitement was intense.

The Speeches.

Mr. Comstock, amid round after round of cheering, returned his thanks to the electors, and the other prominent gentlemen with him also made congratulatory speeches.

At the general election in 1896 there were three candidates, and Hon. J. F. Wood, the Conservative, received 1,781 votes; Mr. J. Cumming, Liberal, 1,549; W. J. Cluff, Independent, 148.

ONLY AN IDLE THREAT.

No Truth in the Rumored U. S. Embargo on Canadian Lumber.

Detroit, April 21.—Alan Hamilton of Bay City, writing to The Detroit Tribune, says: "I see by the despatch from Toronto that Thomas Pitts reiterates the idle threat put forth by Don M. Dickinson to the effect that the import of Canadian lumber into the United States is to be prohibited. Anybody with a spoonful of brains knows that there is not the remotest possibility of such action. Canadian lumber is essential to the operation of our woodworking establishments, and an embargo would have the effect of adding to the 30 crippled sawmills mentioned by Mr. Pitts, the box factories, planing mills and lumber yards on the Saginaw River."

INSTANTLY KILLED.

John Miller Pulls His Gun by the Muzzle and the Charge Goes Through His Right Lung.

Wroxeter, Ont., April 21.—One of the saddest accidents that has ever occurred in our village happened last evening about 8 o'clock. John Miller, a lad about 15 years of age, with a companion named Arthur Robinson, was shooting muskrats along the banks of the Maitland River. Robinson asked Miller for some cartridges, as his supply had run out. Miller laid his gun on a pile of brush, handed over the cartridges and picked up his gun by the muzzle, drawing it towards him. The trigger caught in the brush and the whole charge passed through the right lung killing him almost instantly. The deceased was a son of the late T. F. Miller of Wroxeter, and brother of Richard Miller, employed as clerk at H. E. Snell's store at Toronto Junction.

"LORD DELIVER US."

Supplication of the Silver Democrats at a Syracuse Meeting.

Syracuse, April 21.—The Alhambra, with a seating capacity of 3,000 people, was comfortably filled with an enthusiastic crowd last evening to hear Col. William Jennings Bryan. As each person passed he was given a dodger, which reads:

"Lord deliver us from this canned-beef administration."

"Lord deliver us from Matt Quay's banking system."

"Lord deliver us from Tom Platt's and Dick Croker's clutches."

"What the Ten Commandments are to the soul the Chicago platform is to the body."

"16 to 1 is a winner."

"This is the people's cause."

Two Children Drowned.

Winnipeg, April 21.—A man named Reynolds, from Owen Sound, lost two children by drowning in Minitowa Creek, Swan River, while crossing to his homestead last Wednesday. They were driving on the ice, when it gave way.

The Quay Jury Locked Up.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 21.—The jury in the Quay case had not agreed upon a verdict at 10 o'clock last night, and they were then locked up for the night.

WEARY OF LIFE.

Robert Harding, Grocer, Attempts Suicide and May Be Successful.

Kemptville, Ont., April 21.—A well-known grocer named Robert F. Harding of this place made an attempt to commit suicide in his shed yesterday morning. The rope with which he was trying to accomplish the deed was cut down just in time. He may recover, but is in a very critical condition. He is about 45 years old, married, and has several children.

CORBIN DRAWS OUT.

Cannot Get Legislation This Session and Quits the Game.

Greenwood, B.C., April 21.—A telegram to hand is as follows:

W. S. T. Greenwood: Bodwell wired me he had received message from Bostock that bill for Corbin charter could not pass House this session, therefore I have withdrawn application for charter.

(Signed) D. C. Corbin, Spokane.

Interprovincial Commission.

Toronto, April 21.—The interprovincial commission appointed to adjust matters of dispute between Ontario, Quebec and the Dominion, is continuing its work at the Parliament Buildings. The members are Mr. Justice Burbidge, Ottawa; Sir Louis Napoleon Casault, Quebec, and Mr. N. W. Trenholme, Q.C., Ottawa. They are staying at the Queen's.

Sir Julian Says Good-Bye.

Washington, April 21.—Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador to the United States and delegate to the disarmament conference at The Hague called at the State Department yesterday and announced his intension of leaving the United States for Europe on the 26th inst. He will be accompanied by his family.

Brakeman Kinsella Is Dead.

St. Catharines, Ont., April 21.—Michael Kinsella, aged 37, a brakeman on the Wabash Railway, fell off a car near Port Robison yesterday morning and fractured his skull. He was brought to the hospital in this city, where he died in the afternoon.

A FINE POULTRY EXHIBITION MEDAL.

To be Competed for in Peterborough in 1900.

Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., president of the Western Ontario Poultry Association, has had handed to him by Capt. W. F. McMartin, secretary bureau of industries, a handsome silver medal, to be competed for as the directors may decide, at the next exhibition of the Association, to be held in Peterborough in January, 1900. The medal is of silver, oval in form, of good size and weight and very chastly designed. On the face is engraved a group of fowl and the obverse side is left blank for the winner's name.

The clasp bears the word "Peterborough," indicating where the honour represented by the medal was won.

One of the most important interests associated with agriculture is poultry breeding. It is deserving of much greater encouragement than has yet been extended to it, and it is hoped that in this district at least, the splendid annual exhibition will arouse the interest and receive the patronage which the industry it is designed to promote is worthy of.

IN HYMEN'S BONDS.

A Very Pretty Charlotte Stret Wedding Last Evening.

The marriage of Miss Zeena Idona Irwin to Mr. Robert J. Baker took place at the residence of the bride's step-father, Mr. Joseph H. Gray, No. 198 Charlotte stree tlast evening at 8.30 o'clock.

Rev. J. Edward Moore, Ph. B., of Mark street church, performed the ceremony in the presence of about thirty invited guests and friends.

The bride was supported by Miss Hattie Thompson, of Lakefield, and the groom by his brother, Mr. Herbert Baker, of Ashburnham.

The bride, who was given away by her step-father was attired very becomingly. She and her bridesmaid were both adorned with natural flowers.

Congratulations over, the happy couple regaled themselves with an excellent dejeuner prepared by the bride's mother, Mrs. Gray. Many beautiful and useful articles were presented to the bride by her numerous friends. The newly wedded pair will take up their residence in town.

ST. ANSELM'S DAY.

A Short Biography of the Celebrated Archbishop.

This is what is known as St. Anselm's day.

St. Anselm was born of noble parents in Piedmont in the year of grace 1033. At the age of 27 he became a monk in Bec, in Normandy, under the celebrated Abbott Herluin.

Three years afterwards he was made Prior in succession to the great Lanfranc. On the death of Herluin in 1078 Anselm was made Abbott. He was then 45 years old. In the interests of the Monastery he visited England occasionally, while his old friend Lanfranc was Archbishop of Canterbury. Lanfranc died in 1089, and Anselm was consecrated with great solemnity Archbishop of Canterbury on Dec. 4th, 1093.

At the celebrated Council of Bari, which met October, 1098, the Pope called aloud for Anselm, saying: "Anselm, our father and our master, where are you?" Thus was he addressed by the Pope on acccount of his great holiness and his great learning. He died at Canterbury on the 21st of April, 1109. Clement XI placed his name among the great doctors of the church in 1720.

AT MISS DELANEY'S.

Charming New Millinery—New Arrivals of Trimmed Hats, Flowers, etc.—More Attractive than Ever.

Spring millinery is here—here with all its glory and beauty! There has just been received at Miss Delaney's Millinery Show Rooms a special shipment of newest styles in trimmed hats, all full of originality and embodying the choice of all new ideas. These patterns have been expressly secured for Miss Delaney's trade and their attractiveness cannot be overestimated.

There is a new charm just now about the whole store. New representations of fine French Flowers have come to hand—the productions of highly skilled artists—being careful studies from nature, counterfeited so perfectly that hardly any of the favourite blooms are missed.

New ribbons and other choice trimmings and headgear spring up to replace the ones you've bought earlier. So many new novelties in fact that it is impossible to particularize. The productions of Miss Delaney's own work rooms are specially interesting. The latest effects are introduced with painstaking exactness and exceptionally good taste.

It is quite evident that the spring millinery of to-day as shown by Miss Delaney, has contributed more lavishly to the beauty and adornment of the ladies and the early displays. The facilities at command for executing orders are as nearly perfect as skill, ingenuity and experience can make them. Come to the store and see for yourself, and you'll find fresh features every visit.

A special sale of Sailor Hats is going on every day. All the favourite kinds and colours are offered at about a half price level—50c Sailors for 25c, being fast sellers.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

A very special musical programme has been arranged for the Club meeting on Saturday evening. As officers are to be elected at this meeting it is hoped that no member will be absent.

Young women who are strangers in town and who are seeking work may obtain it through the agency of the Y.W.C.A. Employment Bureau. There are many places where the services of a good girl, as cook, housemaid or nurse is required.

"To Do Ill Costs More Than to Do Well."

This "wise saw" might properly read, "It costs more to BE ill than to BE well." The source of all health is rich, strong blood. It is to the body what the mighty streams are to the earth. If the blood is pure, the body thrives; if the blood is weak or impoverished, then every pulse-beat carries weakness instead of strength.

Why make the cost of living more than it need be? Purify your blood and give your constitution a chance to do its level best. The only perfect blood purifier and vigor-maker in existence is the world-famed Hood's Sarsaparilla. It brings good, perfect health. It never disappoints.

Erysipelas Sores—"After scarlet fever a running sore was left on my nose. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it cured me. My brother was also relieved by it of erysipelas in his face." ELLA COURSER, Burden, N. B.

Bowel Trouble—"My mother, Mrs. John Ried, suffered with bowel trouble for four years and tried different doctors, but obtained no relief until she began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured her." LIZZIE REID, Tracy Station, N. B.

A Good Medicine—"We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla in our family as a spring medicine and used Hood's Pills for biliousness and found both medicines very effective. For impure blood we know Hood's Sarsaparilla is a good medicine." R. S. PELTON, publisher Bee, Atwood, Ont.

Loss of Appetite—"I was in poor health, troubled with dizziness, tired feeling and loss of appetite. I was completely run down. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and after awhile I felt much better. Hood's Sarsaparilla built me up." LIZZIE A. RUSSELL, Old Chelsea, near Ottawa, Que.

Dyspepsia—"For twelve years I was dyspeptic and broken in health, had terrible pains in my back and was unable to work. When I had taken three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I recovered my health. I always recommend it." J. B. MANOR, 362 8th Street, Oswego, N. Y.

Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1899.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Mr. F. W. Thompson, manager of the Ogilvie Milling Company, estimates an increased wheat acreage of 20 per cent in Manitoba this year. He predicts that in five years Winnipeg will have a population of 75,000.

In the last 15 years of the Conservative fiscal policy towards Great Britain her exports to Canada declined from fifty million to twenty-nine million dollars. In the first year under the preference they increased by over three million dollars. Tory orators call the preferential policy a sham.

The Montreal Witness notes the report that the Finns are emigrating to the United States and expresses the hope that the Canadian immigration authorities will not let these people slip. The Witness points out that the Finns are the very best class of nation-builders, industrious, thrifty, universally educated and well trained in constitutional government under a limited monarchy like our own.

The Liberal Government is apparently not losing favour with the House of Commons. The Government has been adding to its strength ever since the general election of 1896. The first test of the Government strength — the first party division— in the house was made Sept. 3rd, 1896, on Hon. Mr. Foster's amendment to supply. The government's majority on that occasion was 37. In the session of 1897 on June 17th, the House was divided on Hon. Mr. Blair's motion that the House go into committee on the Drummond County Railway and the extension of the Intercolonial to Montreal. On this occasion the government's majority was 44. The other day on the Yukon matter the division showed a government majority of 54. That is not a bad record. A government with a progressive policy, likely in the natural course of events, from its effect on personal interests is to alienate rather than bring support, has been able not only to hold its own, but to increase its division strength from 37 to 54. This increase is due to an increase of public confidence in the government as expressed in the government and not from any change in the representation complexion of parliament, and now the return of a Liberal from Brockville adds another to the majority.

OUR LEPERS.

A Colony in New Brunswick of which Little is Known in Ontario.

The annual report of the Leper Lazaretto, Tracadie, N.B., shows that there are 21 inmates of that institution—fifteen males and six females. The ages vary from eleven to sixty-two years. During the year there were two deaths and three were patients admitted. The report reads as follows in part:

The general health of the inmates is at present good. Medical aid consists in treating symptoms, meeting emergencies, prolonging life, and making it more bearable. In cases outside the province supposed to have been associated with syphilis I found iodide of potash very useful in determining and separating the complications. I received a consignment of Carrasquilla's anti-lepros serum, and made use of it in the hospital but with negative results.

Under the ordinary precautions our lepers are free to receive the visits of friends and ministers of religion and are attended by a chaplain. When admitted to the institution our lepers were, with one or two exceptions, unable to read. They have no employment and pass the time in indoor games, and out-door walks during suitable weather. They are seemingly happy; but among the men, the unoccupied intellect, at times, finds an inclination to give annoyance which even the gentle influence of the religious ladies in charge can hardly prevent. The lazaretto is an asylum, based on the highest humanitarian plane. Comfort, and all that can conduce to the amelioration of the unfortunates inmates is considered, even the secular education of the younger patients being attended to.

Since the establishment of a lazaretto in 1844 leprosy has been more or less kept in check in this province; and during the past few years a more careful segregation has led to a notable diminution. I am fully convinced that when those affected with the disease are not early removed to the hospital, but remain at home, unsegregated, other members of the family become leprous. When on the other hand patients are removed early, or securely isolated, there is no spread of the malady. The chief influence in causing the decrease of leprosy would appear to be the exclusive dealing with the individual leper as himself the source of ill to others. Our experience in this matter agrees with that of others in foreign countries. It may be of interest that in the case of a patient brought by me from another province last year, there was exemplified the occasional long period of incubation of leprosy, nearly thirty years having elapsed since this patient had been exposed to the contagion of the disease.

Remarkable Cures.

Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure is performing wonders. Reports are coming in from all parts regarding its efficacy in all cases of rheumatism. It is taken internally. Mr. William Gillespie, Light House Keeper, Wolf Island, was afflicted with Muscular Rheumatism for two weeks. Two doses of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

FROM THE ASSESSMENT.

Hustling Havelock's Increase of Population and Assessment.

The Standard gives the following figures of the assessment which has just been completed at Havelock.

Total assessment, 1899	$143,000
Total assessment, 1898	131,000
Population, 1899...	1080
Population, 1898...	960

The assessor is not supposed to take the population accurately and there are always many missed by them. There is no doubt that the population to-day is at least 150 more than it is put down at, or 1230 in all, as no railway men who are not residents of the town were included. The assessor says there is not one vacant house in the town and he had numbers of inquiries for residences. In many places he found two families living in one home, because they could not get houses to rent.

One thing particularly noticable is the small death rate, only six deaths occuring, and some of these were infants. The birth rate was 35, which is in accordance with the biblical injunction. There are 102 dogs in the town according to the assessor, but according to the show they make on the streets and the howling they make at night there 1002. Hurrah for Hustling Havelock.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, .T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brawer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

OUR MINERAL OUTPUT.

Last Year's Product Close on Forty Millions.

The official returns of the mineral productions of the Dominion for the last year deserve more attention than appears to have been given to them so far, for while agriculture is the back-bone of the country, and will undoubtedly always hold first place, it is by no means an insignificant fact that in two years the mineral output has almost quadrupled, reaching in 1898 the very respectable total of $37,757,197. For the first time gold heads the list with $13,700,000, or more than one-third of the total, coal comes next with $8,280,000, then silver $2,583,300, copper $2,160,000, nickel $1,821,000, and lead $1,206,400; these are the principal items, followed by petroleum, asbestos, natural gas, phosphates, salt, mica, graphite pyrites, mineral pigments, etc. It is anticipated that with the present activity the yield of gold, silver, nickel, copper, lead will rapidly assume larger proportions. The output of iron is at present unimportant, although large deposits exist in nearly every province, especially in Nova Scotia.

The Original.

There is only one remedy known that has a combined action on the kidneys and liver and cures the most complicated ailments of these delicate filtering organs, and that is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, the original kidney pill. This world famous kidney and liver cure has an enormous sale in all parts of Canada and the United States.

LEM-ENTATIONS

From the Wash-Tub.

By LEM FELCHER.

This being Spring when all great minds run to poetry and house-cleaning, the virtue of MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND should be extolled and made known to all housekeepers, and here you are in rhyme:

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND.

"Miracle"! oh, "Miracle"!
Upon the highest pinnacle
We will write your name.
Your color—emblem of purity—
As a cleanser you're a surety,
When directions are used the same.
The grocers would be losers
If the ladies as the choosers,
Could not purchase you from them.
Sir, since in such an easy manner,
You've captured the banner
From all aspiring rivals in the land.

But the grocers, they will keep you,
Because there's none can beat you
For you can do their washing while they rest.
You're properties they are chemicals
Adapted to the finest flannels,
Lace curtains, white linens, the costliest and the best.
And at house-cleaning, you're a daisy
If the hired girl she isn't lazy,
Or happens to be overtaken with that tired feeling in the spring.
If she will only use you
And never once abuse you,
But follow the directions out quite right.
There can only be one verdict,
For I have often heard it:
"Miracle! oh, Miracle!
You're simply out of sight."

You're harmless as Tutti Frutti
Because the children chew you,
When in their childish glee they romp away to school.
And in youthful innocence
Wonder how it is that miracle
Isn't quoted in the Golden Rule.

You are so calm and placid
In your make-up there's no acid
To destroy the softest clothing
Or harm the prettiest hands.
And when in the boiling water,
How you cause the dirt to scatter
Is more than most of people
Can rightly understand.

Then, again the tired mother,
She has'nt the washboard bother
Nor needs to dread of wash-day
Or scold us any more!
For while you're doing your duty—
You brilliant white beauty—
Wifee can take it easy
Or go about another chore.
Resting in her rocking chair
She can say—"Aw, there!"
And clean her hubbie's shirt
That was covered up with dirt
While rolling with the babies
Like a kid upon the floor!

What better proof will be required
When Tommy Henry who is hired
To run his brother's dandy grocery store,
Came to me and said: "Say, Lem,
The argument is dead
Now and forever more.
But really I had no hope
Till I took a cake of Henry's soap
And put them in the tub
To prove that things were really what they seem.
Very soon I had a suds
That would clean Denny Daly's duds
As sweetly and as purty
As any new dhudeen!

This being Lem's first offence at composing poetry he humbly asks the public's forgiveness. Lem would also like to say that he has recently been appointed manager of the M. E. Smith Company for the Improved Miracle Washing Compound, in conjunction with Mr. J. [illegible], 102 Queen street west, Toronto, to whom all people will apply for agencies.

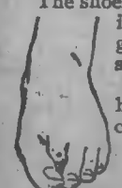
NOTICE.—The Miracle Washing Compound Company will give one-half gross of Miracle Washing Compound and one-half dozen boxes Assyrian Polish to the lady or gentleman who will compose the best advertisement, in prose or poetry, of Miracle Washing Compound on or before Wednesday, April 26th. Decision to be given by two advertising experts from the EXAMINER and Review Offices.

THE SLATER SHOE

Business Moods.

When a good man swears on a wet day it's more than likely the profanity comes from his feet.

The shoe that pinches spoils the temper, irritates the nerves, impairs digestion, and obscures the merry sunshine of life.



It had to fit the shoe.

Success or failure in life oft hinges upon a man's mood at critical moments, and the way his feet feel sometimes sways destiny.

A pair of "Slater Shoes" may unconsciously save a fortune, but can't cost more than $5.00.

It's cheaper to throw away a shoe that hurts than to keep it, and mark this—new "Slater Shoes" need no breaking in.

A tag on each pair tells just what leather it is made of—how it will affect the feet—and the wear it will, or will not give, according to use.

The makers name and price stamped on the sole protects against imitations of Goodyear Welt, and ensures value every time to the wearer. $3.50 and $5.00.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practising. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This convention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practising; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1895 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain.

Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep. You are as tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

A PROHIBITION VOTE

To Be Taken in Parliament Under Alliance Auspices.

PLAN IF NEGATIVE PREVAILS.

A Bill Enacting Provincial Option, Really an Enlarged Scott Act With Enforcing Provisions Calculated to Be Effective, Will Be Introduced in the House — Members Must Go on Record.

Ottawa, April 21.—The legislative committee of the Dominion Alliance met in the railway committee room yesterday morning to hear the report of the sub-committee appointed to consider the results of the plebiscite. Mr. Flint read the report, in which the extension of the Scott Act was suggested, with the necessary amendment to the act to make it workable. Mr. Flint said that every member of Parliament was free to take independent action and that all discussion of that kind had been kept from the report.

After some cross-firing concerning the manner of bringing down the report, Mr. J. R. Dougall moved the following resolution: That, in view of the decision of the Government that the plebiscite of September 29th last did not show such a vote in favor of prohibition as would justify the introduction by the Government of a prohibitory measure, and the fact that every province of the Dominion but one recorded for prohibition a substantial vote and a large majority, there ought to be enacted legislation that would give effect to the strongly-expressed will of the people; that, while still strongly maintaining the desirability of total national prohibition, which must be the continued object of prohibition workers, your committee believe that at the present time the temperance reform would be materially aided by the enactment of legislation upon the lines hereinafter set out, namely: (1) An act totally prohibiting the importation, sale or warehousing of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes in any province adopting or bringing into force such an act by a vote of the duly qualified electors. (2) Voting upon the question of bringing of such legislation into force in any province to be at the time of the holding of a general election, in order to save expense and secure the largest possible vote upon the question. (3) Such legislation when adopted by any province to be unrepealable for a period of time long enough to ensure a fair test of its effectiveness.

Mr. Dougall submitted that the enactment of such legislation is certainly in the power of Parliament, inasmuch as it would be merely a further extension of the principles embodied in the Canada Temperance Act, the constitutionality of which has been affirmed and which act might be so amended as to include the further legislation suggested.

Mr. Moore said he did not propose to relieve Parliament of its duties. Parliament had not yet confirmed the Government's decision. Parliament had promised the people to give effect to the declared wish of the people. Let Parliament decide; when it refused they might step in.

Mr. Ganong read the minority report conclusions:

1. To ascertain whether such a bill as they desire could be introduced without the consent of the Governor-General in Council.

2. If so, to get some member to introduce a bill providing for prohibition, it not necessarily being a Government measure.

3. If not, to submit a resolution affirming that the plebiscite called for prohibitory legislation.

4. That the extension of the Canada Temperance Act would not meet the views of the prohibitionists.

He moved these as an amendment.

Mr. Spence urged that they should do what was best for prohibition. Would they be any better off if they turned the Government out? Quebec must not be coerced, nor must it coerce. Had the Government a mandate to enact this legislation under the plebiscite for national prohibition, another plebiscite would never be taken.

Rev. Mr. Kettlewell said the Methodist Church would not stand the extension of the Scott Act. Could they not have an act leaving Quebec out for the time?

Mr. Dougall said that was the very question he did not want to answer.

Mr. Taylor said the resolutions affirmed the Government's decision that the plebiscite did not justify prohibition. They had no right to step in and assume the position of Parliament.

Mr. Davin, whilst desiring prohibition, opposed the resolution. It was a movement in a circle. It looked like a complete surrender of the position taken by the Alliance.

Mr. Richardson recommended no shilly-shallying, and supported Mr. Ganong's amendment.

Mr. Henderson said they were wasting time. They had one obstacle to meet—the Laurier Government. The Government had a policy that no prohibition should be given until 50 per cent. of the voters declared for it. Until they could remove this obstacle they could do nothing.

Mr. Ganong presented the minority report. Shortly after 1 o'clock a vote was taken on a motion that the vote be now taken. Considerable confusion prevailed, during which several left the room. Senator Vidal declared the vote carried. This created another scene, and finally the vote was re-taken and again declared carried, amidst renewed disorder.

The vote on the amendment was then taken, the vote being: Yeas 18, nays 19. The amendment was declared lost and the vote taken on the resolution, it being: Yeas 17, nays 18. This also was declared lost and the meeting broke up by adjourning to 7 o'clock in the evening.

The Evening Meeting.

When the meeting of prohibitionists assembled last evening, a Conservative member stated that Sir John Bourinot, clerk of the House of Commons, had given the opinion that a private member could introduce a prohibition bill.

Mr. Flint said that J. R. Dougall had conferred with members of the sub-committee, and a line of action was adopted which, it was thought, would meet the views of the minority.

This new report, which was adopted, set forth that total national prohibition was the only effective remedy for the evils of intemperance; that the Scott Act was found to be productive of much good, but it would not meet the present situation; that, in view of the Government refusing to give a prohibitionary bill, and, while still urging for total prohibition, the committee believed that temperance reform would be materially aided by an act totally prohibiting the manufacture, importation and sale of intoxicant liquor for beverage purposes in any province adopting or bringing into force such act by the duly qualified electors. Voting for this purpose would be at the provincial elections, such legislation to be unrepeatable for a period of time long enough to ensure a fair test of its effectiveness.

The following committee was appointed to prepare a bill to be introduced in the Dominion Parliament to carry out the suggestions: Bell (Prince), McClure, McMullen, Richardson, Flint, members of Parliament; Vidal, Aikens, Senators, and F. S. Spence, J. J. McLaren, Major Bond.

Messrs. Moore, Ganong and Craig, Conservative members, were proposed for the committee, but refused to act.

Frank Oliver and Dr. Douglas refused to act.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

The Record Paper of Parliament Well Cleared Off on Thursday—Many Bills Advanced a Stage.

Ottawa, April 21.—The House of Commons, after wiping off the order paper on Wednesday all the business that could be conveniently disposed of, yesterday afternoon found itself confronted with another paper containing 82 questions by members and 59 notices of motion. Some three dozen inquiries were replied to by Ministers, and several public bills were advanced a stage. Among them Mr. Bertram's bill, authorizing the use of the union label, which was thrown out by the Senate last year, received a second reading. At 9.30 o'clock, all the public bills which were printed having been disposed of, the House adjourned.

Questions and Answers.

In reply to questions by Messrs. Gillies and Bergeron, the information was obtained that the travelling expenses of the Minister of Finance (Mr. Fielding) from 1st July, 1898, to 28th February, 1899, amounted to $700, which included a trip to Washington. The expenses of his private secretary were $215.

Mr. Tarte's travelling expenses for the same period were $1.50, and those of his private secretary $626, hire of private cars $33.

Mr. McMullen was informed that the travelling expenses of Mr. Foster during his 11 years of office were $8,297, and the travelling expenses of Sir Charles Tupper during his term of office as a Minister were $11,836, and while he was high commissioner $5,045.

Mr. Henderson was informed that the [illegible] had not given the contract for Goderich Harbor to Commodore Jas. McGillicuddy without tender. Tenders were called for by public advertisement in 36 Liberal papers, and the contract was awarded to Smith & McGillicuddy, whose tender of $66,729 was the lowest. The work is to be completed by November 8 next.

Mr. Fielding, in reply to Mr. Sutherland, stated that the cost of the royal commission on the liquor traffic was $86,984.

To a question by Mr. Foster, the Minister of Customs replied: "Formal charges in respect to infractions of the customs laws on the part of Frederick Schafheitlin and Michael Fitzgibbon of Montreal were made to the Customs Department by the collector there on Dec 11, 1897. Notice was sent to them and informations, after investigation of the Department of Justice, filed Oct. 7, 1898, the following amounts being claimed by the Government: Balance of customs duties, $2,534; value of goods forfeited, $58,284; additional value of goods forfeited, $50,284; other penalties, $23,200; besides customs duties from 1st January, 1892, to 30th April, 1895, $9,649; importations from 1884 to 1892, $34,772, with interest. No offer of settlement had been made, and the case was not yet disposed of by the courts or by the Government."

Information as to the Yukon military force was given by the Minister of Militia, in reply to a question by Mr. Foster. The number there is 302 officers, non-commissioned officers and men, the cost per day being $235 and $454 for maintenance. They had not yet been called on to quell any disturbances. They went in by the Stikine-Teslin route, at a cost of $19,888, leaving British Columbia May 14 and arriving at their destination, the first contingent on July 25 and the second on Sept. 11. The question of diminishing the force was under consideration.

Mr. Clarke (West Toronto) called the Government's attention to a telegram in The Montreal Star, on the authority of The New York Commercial Advertiser, that 20,000 persons from eastern Canada had recently gone into the New England States, and he asked what the Government proposed to do about the exodus.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that he wouldn't believe the statement of The Star, even when backed by an American paper.

Bills Advanced.

Mr. Briston's bill "To amend the Act Respecting Certain Works Constructed in or Over Navigable Waters" was amended in committee, and stands for a third reading.

Mr. Charlton got a second reading of his bill, which raises the age of consent from 16 to 18 years.

The bill by Rev. Mr. Douglas to regulate the grain trade in Manitoba and the Northwest Territories, by compelling the railways to accept grain from small elevators, was also read a second time.

Mr. Casey's bill respecting drainage on and across the property of railway companies was given a second reading.

At Sir Wilfrid Laurier's suggestion, the debate on Mr. Richardson's bill to provide for the attachment of civil servants' salaries was adjourned to obtain the opinion of the Minister of Justice.

Dr. Sproule's bill to amend the Criminal Code, 1892, with respect to combinations in restraint of trade, was briefly discussed and referred to the committee on banking and commerce.

Mr. Bertram's bill to further amend the Trade Mark and Design Act received its second reading.

The House adjourned at 9.30 p.m.

THE SENATE.

In the Senate yesterday afternoon, on motion of Senator Kirchoffer, a report on the divorce application of Annie Dowling was adopted, and Senator Clemow introduced a bill of divorce, which was read a first time. Another report from the same committee respecting the divorce application of Aaron Aronsberg was adopted, and the bill introduced and read a first time, after which the Senate adjourned.

SALT RHEUM TORTURES

Die away before the magical effect of

Dr. Chase's Ointment

The tortures of Salt Rheum are almost beyond human endurance, and as the flesh becomes raw, and the itching and burning increase, the suffering is so intense as to almost drive one crazy.

In desperation salves and ointments are applied, only to give rise to further disappointment and despair.

But there is hope. There is assurance that you can be cured just as scores and hundreds of others have been by using Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. John Siron, of Aultsville, Ont., writes: "For seven years I was a sufferer from Salt Rheum, and my hands were so bad I had to wear greased gloves. Nothing seemed to help me, but I was induced to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and now live report the unorthodox. There is not a trace of the Salt Rheum left."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has effected most miraculous cures in all parts of this great Dominion. Could you have better assurance that it will cure you? For sale by all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264 95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

TEMPERANCE RESOLUTION

At the regular meeting of City Lodge, I.O.G.T., No. 404, the following resolution was adopted:

Moved by Bro. G. W. Powell, seconded by James Stubbs, And resolved that we, the members of City Lodge, No. 404, and Auburn Lodge, No. 250, I.O.G.T., hear with regret that an attempt is being made to induce the Commissioners to grant a license to the Bodega saloon, therefore we wish to very strongly protest against anything of the kind being done, as the Ontario Government has given us distinctly to understand that no saloon licenses shall be granted after this year. Therefore we would urge on the Commissioners of the West Riding of Peterborough to do their duty without fear of favour and grant not one more license than the Act allows them to do, positively refusing all applications for saloon licenses.

LICENSE COMMISSIONERS.

List of Licenses Issued—The Question of Improved Sanitary Conditions of Hotels Discussed—An Important Resolution also Adopted.

A meeting of the West Peterborough Board of License Commissioners was held at their office, Water-st., to-day, when the applications for licenses for the current year came before the board. Mr. Robert Walton, chairman, presided. The other commissioners, Messrs. Robert Graham and M. Halpin and Inspector Cochrane, being present.

The inspector reported upon the various applications.

Mr. Walton, chairman, remarked that for some time he had felt that while several of the most important hotels had sanitary accommodation, there were a number of places in the town that had not as yet made the necessary sanitary provisions, which, under the circumstances, was not easily possible; but now that the town has provided proper sewerage, he could see no reason why the large number of farmers that patronize these hotels, should not have the accommodation, which proper connection with the sewers would provide, without taking into account the benefit to the occupants of the hotels as well as the general travelling public. So far as owners of these premises were concerned, he felt that provision such as that referred to must be made and the board he thought should take some action to bring about the desired end.

Mr. Graham and Mr. Halpin approved of the suggestions of the chairman, and both thought that action should be taken with a view of making the accommodation of hotels as complete as it was possible to do. Some of the hotels, they regretted to have to say, were very much lacking in the respects mentioned by the chairman. Mr. Graham added that in his opinion, the presence of such conveniences as had been referred to should be made a condition of receiving a license. It might be unfair to insist upon this condition this year, but he felt that it should be made obligatory for the next license year, and he submitted the following resolution:

Moved by Mr. Graham, seconded by Mr. Halpin, that, inasmuch as the sewerage has been provided on the streets on which licensed hotels are situated, and whereas some of these hotels have not made connection with the sewers; and inasmuch as the needs, comfort and convenience of the travelling public and the patrons of hotels demand that modern conveniences, easily available, especially those that relate to as perfect as possible sanitary conditions, should form an essential and indispensable part of hotel accommodation in the town of Peterborough: therefore be it resolved by this Board that the putting in of sewer connection and proper appliances in connection therewith, within a period to be determined by the Town Board of Health, be one of the conditions upon which licenses are granted to applicants for licenses for such hotel buildings as are not provided with sewer connection and the other conveniences usually associated therewith.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

The question of granting licenses for the next year, 1899-1900 was then taken up and the following licenses were granted:

Hotel Licenses—L. G. Fobert, Chemong; J. E. Kearney, Youngs Point; R. J. Munro and John Craig, Lakefield; Thos. Eastwood, Buckhorn; P. Hogan, George Lipsett and Mrs. Ann Swanston, Ashburnham.

Shop Licenses—Wm. Collins, and J. C. Sullivan, Ashburnham.

The matter of Mr. McFarlaned's transfer and the awarding of a license to Mr. Findlay were held over until next meeting.

The report of the Inspector opposes the latter hotel receiving a license until some decision has been reached by the owner in regard to placing the building in proper condition. In his report the Inspector says:

Board of License Commissioners.

Gentlemen,—I beg leave to submit the following report concerning the Midland Hotel, Lakefield.

The roof on main building leaks around the chimneys.

The addition known as the ball room and containing ball room, summer kitchen and commercial room requires a new roof.

The horse barn roof requires shingling.

The long driving shed in the rear of hotel needs shingling. The roof is in a very bad condition.

The ash house requires a new front.

There is no ladies' closet in or about the hotel and the ladies are obliged to use the gents' closet outside.

There is no cistern and no sewerage or cess pool in connection with the hotel and no eave-troughing on any of the buildings except on south side of main building.

The outside of the hotel requires painting.

I have the honour to be sirs,
Your obedient servant,
GEO. COCHRANE.
Inspector.

The board then adjourned for one week, when the granting of licenses in the town of Peterborough will be considered.

"THE BOGIE LADY" WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

MISS ALMA FRANCES McCOLLUM'S LATEST PLAY.

A Large Audience Much Pleased by this Further Evidence of the Talent of Peterborough's Clever Young Artist.

Those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance last evening, at the presentation of "The Bogie Lady" in St. John's school house were indeed delighted with the evening entertainment.

"The Bogie Lady" is a fairy phantasy fresh from the pen of Miss Alma Frances McCollum, whose literary productions have on more than one occasion been received by the Peterborough public with delight and pleasure. The plot in the play is incidental to introducing nursery lore in a manner which proves most interesting, and is described in a previous issue of the Examiner:

The scene of the play is laid in the evening in the nursery of the celebrated Jack Horner of furtive pastry proclivities. After eating a stolen plum pie, he plunges into a volume of fairy tales. He is skeptical of the existence of these beings. He sleeps and the stolen pie has its revenge—in a weird dream he sees visions. Robin Goodfellow arouses him partially, and there passes before him in shadowy pantomime in answer to the incantations of the bogie lady, upon the white wall of his nursery, a series of fairy pictures in which among others the comedy of Cinderella is splendidly set forth. The bogie lady interprets the characters as they develop. The plot, chiefly spectacular, is charming, and the incidental music sprightly and unusually tuneful, is the composition of Mr. Charles J. Rodgers, and is set to the spirited libretto of Miss McCollum.

Managing Committee—Mrs. Greenwood, Miss Dollie Comstock, Miss Margaret English.

Magic lantern effect by Mr. Fred Roy.

As a penalty, the Bogie Lady imposed on the three fairies the task of disposing of sweets amongst the audience and as a proof that the candies had not been eaten by themselves, they were required to bring a small piece of silver for each box missing. Quite a thriving business was done by the wee sprites, who were under the direction of Misses Margaret English and Dolly Comstock.

At the conclusion of the play, Miss Marion Sherwood, the Lullaby Lady, soothed Jack Horner back to sweet slumber with the following gem of lullaby songs, which is also from Miss McCollum's pen.

The Lullaby Lady from Lullaby Land
Is going to hush you to sleep,
Pretend that the chair is a boat on the strand
And I'll launch it out on the deep.
Oh, let us set sail now the daylight is o'er
And drift away over to sweet-slumber shore.
Gently! glide gently! my good little boat,
Onward we float, onward we float.
Sweet be your dreaming now, hold fast my hand,
See, I am steering for Lullaby Land.

All speak in whispers soft murmurs sweet,
The lights are all low in that land.
All dress in white with no shoes on the feet,
All by soft perfumes are fanned.
There's nothing but comfort without any care,
So rest little Johnnie, for now we are there.
Gently! glide gently! my good little boat,
Onward we float, onward we float.
Steady, now steady, now draw in the oar,
Our keel is caressing the sweet slumber shore.

The words wer eset to music composed by Mr. Rodgers, who purposes publishing the solo.

Miss McCollum is to be congratulated on the success attending the production of the fantasy which ranks with her best work in this line. A former play entitled "Snowdrop," which was also written and produced in Peterborough by Miss McCollum, is now being presented to a Portsmouth, Virginia, audience for the benefit of the soldiers, recently returned from Cuba, the gifted young authoress receiving a royalty for each night of its presentation.

Children Cry for CASTORIA

THE BROCKVILLE BYE-ELECTION

The expected has happened. The Liberal candidate, W. H. Comstock has been elected in the bye-election in Brockville necessitated by the death of the former representative, Hon. J. F. Wood. The result is a splendid victory for the government, and a corresponding throw-down for the Opposition. This result was anticipated by the Opposition. The chief organ prepared to let itself down with less of the proverbial "dull thud." It screamed "boodle" with all the power of its journalistic lungs. But it was not boodle, it was the people. Several elements combine in the thorough discrediting of the Opposition and Conservative party which the result represents. In the first place a riding that is a strongly Conservative riding has revolted from its allegiance under conditions which could not possibly be more favourable to the Opposition or furnish a stronger presentation of its policy. In the eight elections that have taken place in Brockville since Confederation, previous to the present election, Liberals have only been elected twice — in 1872 and 1874—and then only won by the skin of their teeth, the majorities being respectively 11 and 42. The average Conservative majorities have been about 150, increased by Hon. Mr. Wood of 289 in 1887 and 242 in 1896. The result of yesterday therefore represents a change of nearly 500 votes. Something must be responsible for the change; and that something is the good record of the Liberal government co-operating with the bad record and utter demoralization of the Conservative Opposition. If the electors of Brockville had any fault to find with the Liberal government they had the material ready-made for the occasion. The election took place at the conclusion of the most prolonged and bitterest debate on the address ever held in parliament. The opposition brought their whole artillery to bear on the government in this debate. Every possible thing that could be urged against the government was urged and reiterated. The house and country rang with the din of the Yukon scandals which involved the most disgraceful political scheme of slander known to Canadian history. It was founded upon no fact but upon pure malice, as evidenced by the fact that slanders uttered under the protection of parliamentary privilege were not believed by the slanderers themselves, for they dared not repeat them on the election platform. They could not expect the electors of Brockville to believe them, and they did not believe them. The electors of Brockhad the sins and short-comings of the government as viewed by the opposition presented in the strongest possible way. And against these they had the splendid record of a capable and energetic, big minded government presented as an offset. The electors had a choice to make and they have given voice to their choice with no uncertain sound. The Conservative party, which, before this contest, was, as a coherent political organization, a thing of shreds and patches, is now tattered and torn beyond rehabibitation, except perhaps by the lapse of years and deep contrition and repentance. The government, on the other hand, has been strengthened to an extent far greater than that represented by the capture of a Conservative stronghold and the addition of one, or two on a division. They have gained in moral strength and in the confidence of the country. The peopeople have laughed to scorn the talk of "deals," "scandals," and "mare's nests" that have passed as argument with them for years. The opposition scandal-mongers have cried "wolf" when there was no wolf once too often. Now the wolf has turned up in a, to them, unexpected form, and has rent them as a party limb from limb.

THE BAND QUESTION.

Peterborough, April 21st, 1899.
To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir—Kindly allow me space for a few remarks on a matter of interest to the citizens of Peterborough.

We have nominally three bands here, one only of which can be called a regular organisation. The Town Council has, or is about to make certain grants to these bands on condition that they play in the parks during the summer evenings.

Without wishing to offend the sensibilities of any of them, or any organization with which they may be connected, I wish to say that it is absurd to attempt the maintenance of three bands in a town of this size.

No one will dispute the fact that the 57th Battalion Band has by far the greatest claim on the citizens in general, and the small (very small) annual grant to this band is the only expense paid out of the town funds towards maintaining our battalion. We now have a much better band than ever before, and by the skill and energy of Mr. Glidden and the faithfulness and unceasing work of his bandsmen we may hope before long to have one of the best in the province.

The 57th Battalion will go into camp this year, probably at Niagara, where they will be associated with many others, some of which will have very fine bands, and I do not doubt that ours will hold up their end in a manner creditable to the town from which they come and therefore be an advertisement of the town. Now going to camp is an expensive operation, not only to the Militia Department, but to the individual men who have to turn out at considerable inconvenience and personal expense to themselves, for the paltry sum of 50 cents a day. These personal outlays the men do not grumble about, but there are expenses for the organization, such as instruments, repairs and other incidental expenses which come to a considerable amount, and unless generously treated by the public will have to be done by the men.

The Town Council should look on the matter in this way: They have the benefits of a thoroughly efficient and trained band, of permanent organization, part of the military as well as civil establishment of the town, composed of men of the most respectable callings in life, who devote many hours of hard work to practice for the pleasure of the public. Therefore I contend that the annual grant from the town to the 57th band should be much larger, and a am sure it would meet with the approval of the citizens.

While I am on the subject I might mention that the position of the band stand in Victoria Park is not right, being so high up that the sound is carried away and wasted. Why not place it on the lower ground so that those on the street might enjoy it?

Also cannot something be done to prevent boys shouting and rampaging about in such a mannerr as to almost drown the sound of the music to those who wish to enjoy it.

The officers of the battalion have conferred a great benefit on the citizens by selecting Mr. Glidden as bandmaster, and the expense on the battalion funds is heavy, and as I have said before, the only contribution towards the cost of maintaining the battalion given by the town is the paltry sum granted annually to the band. Whereas in other towns and cities a much greater share of the cost is borne by the municipality.

Yours truly,
PETERBOROUGH.

Children are sometimes told, when they are bad, that ghosts and other dreadful things will get them. Grown-up people know better, but it would be a good thing if women could be made to understand that terrible results will follow neglect of any ailment that comes under the general head of "female troubles." A pain in the side, or back, a disagreeable drain, a bearing-down sensation, headache, nervousness, weakness in the distinctly feminine organs, bad complexion and loss of flesh are forerunners of final collapse. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for weak women. It cures. In a great majority of cases the patient can treat herself at home, and obnoxious local examinations can be avoided. In a few bad cases it is wise for the sufferers to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce himself, at Buffalo, N. Y., and he will give full advice by mail free. He is consulted daily by great numbers of women throughout the world, and his advice is founded upon wide-spread experience. All correspondence is treated by him as sacredly confidential. His "Favorite Prescription" is non-alcoholic, and does not create a craving for strong drink. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It is perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No medicine is equal to it in any respect for diseases of women. Therefore, accept no substitute for this world-famed remedy, though it be urged upon you as being "just as good."

Mrs. Mary E. Jones, of 529 Madison Avenue, Ypsilanti, Mich., writes: "I was troubled with female weakness, and after taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I am free from pains. I had suffered for two years when I began taking your medicine. I could not walk across my room without suffering dreadful pains. Now I do all my housework and walk where I please."

Constipation and biliousness are radically cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They don't gripe; they never fail.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

Still Remains in Force as a Reserve Emergency Power.

A NEW SWISS PEACE SCHEME.

Madagascar Ripe for Revolt—A Filipino Story of the Capture of Americans—The Facts, According to Ex-Minister Barrett, Do Not Justify Any Gloomy Forebodings as to the Philippines.

London, April 20.—The House of Commons yesterday, by a vote of 290 to 141, rejected the second reading of the bill repealing the Coercion Act of 1887, after the Attorney-General for Ireland, the Right Hon. J. Atkinson, had pointed out the efficacy of the act, the existence of which, he asserted, had "brought about the present peace." All rejoiced, the Attorney-General added, in the wisdom and justice of the act, and he demanded the retention of this instrument, "ready for use in case of emergency."

ARBITRATION PROPOSED.

Small Neutral States Suggested to Settle International Disputes.

Berne, April 20.—It is stated that, according to instructions from the Federal Council, the Swiss delegates to the peace conference will propose that the small, neutral states of Denmark, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland constitute a board of arbitration to settle disputes between the several powers.

REVOLT IN MADAGASCAR.

Natives Resent the Outrageous Conduct of the French Agents.

Paris, April 20.—Advices from Madagascar say a formidable revolt has broken out against French authority on the east coast of the island, as the result of the conduct of French agents there. One of these, it is reported, recently corralled all the girls in the neighborhood for a harem. Another agent is accused of confiscating native property and raiding oxen.

A FILIPINO STORY.

Another American Party of 14 Officers and Men Said to Have Been Captured by Insurgents.

London, April 20.—The Filipino European Junta claims to have received a telegram from General Luna, "commanding the Manila district," direct from Manila on Friday declaring that General Lawton, "whose object was to proceed to Baler and effect a conjunction with the Yorktown," was inveigled by the Filipino tactics into "perilously extending his line, with the result that a column, consisting of 14 officers and men, on reaching a place called Binangonam, was ambushed by a large Filipino force, communication with the main force was severed and the entire column captured."

The Filipino advices further assert that General Lawton, who was at Laguna de Bay, on hearing the news, "retired to Manila, stating he had been recalled by Major-General Otis, on the ground that a native rising in Manila was imminent."

The foregoing is said to be a separate affair from the disappearance of the boat's crew of the Yorktown in the vicinity of Baler.

Mr. Barrett's Rosy Opinion.

London, April 20.—John Barrett, former United States minister to Siam, who has just arrived from Manila, emphatically declares that the gloomy forebodings expressed in some quarters relative to the Philippines are not justified by the facts.

Should the Filipinos, however, who are kept well informed, acquire the idea that a prolongation of hostilities would affect politics in the United States advantageously to them, the war would be prolonged.

In the opinion of Mr. Barrett, the Filipino, as soon as he has had enough time to digest the recent successes of the General Otis and General Lawton to become convinced of American superiority, will settle down to a life of peaceful and progressive citizenship.

Will Not Organize Volunteers.

Washington, D.C., April 20.—At a conference held at the White House yesterday, at which the conditions in the Philippines were carefully considered, it was concluded not to organize a volunteer army of 35,000 as empowered by Congress.

General Otis cabled yesterday that General Lawton had returned from the lake country with captured vessels, and that the insurgents were much scattered. The better classes of people desire peace.

English System the Best.

London, April 20.—After long trials of the German, French and English systems, says the Berlin correspondent of The Daily Mail, it has been decided by the German Government to adopt the English system of water-tube boilers in all German men-of-war.

Earthquake and Eruption.

Buenos Ayres, April 20.—Several persons were killed and the villages of Vinolina and Jaquel were destroyed by an earthquake shock in the Province of Rio Janeiro. Much damage was also caused by eruptions by the Volcano Hucanga, near Vinolina.

Well-Known Labor Man Dead.

New York, April 18.—Robert Blissert, who founded the Central Labor Union in 1882, and who was one of the best-known labor men in New York, died yesterday at his home in this city.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too by a lady in this country. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night; and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

Missouri River Is Driving People From the Lowlands—Montreal Is Safe.

Kansas City, Mo., April 21.—The Missouri River is still rising, and the local weather bureau predicts that the danger line will be crossed at St. Joseph by Friday morning and at Kansas City by Saturday night. Farmers in the bottoms east of Atchison are moving to the hills. A repetition is feared of the flood of 1881, when thousands of acres were submerged. A cloudburst did much damage in the vicinity of Highland, Kan., last night. A Burlington trestle bridge was washed out three miles above Highland station and telegraph poles and wires were carried into the Missouri River.

Danger at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., April 21.—The river is still rising at this point and is now within a foot and a half of the danger line. The lowlands on both sides of the river are partially under water. Reports from up river indicate a still further rise at that point.

Montreal Safe From Flood.

Montreal, April 21.—The water in the St. Lawrence is going down gradually and last night it was nearly three feet below the revetment wall. All danger of a flood is now believed to be over, but the ice still holds firm below the city.

Held on Heavy Bail.

Philadelphia, April 21.—Arthur Taylor and Baldwin S. Bredell, engravers, who were arrested in this city in connection with the counterfeiting conspiracy unearthed by the Secret Service Department, were arraigned before United States Commissioner Edmunds yesterday afternoon. They waived a hearing and were held in $20,000 bail each for court.

Chinese Kill Each Other.

Fresno, Cal., April 21.—A bloody Highbinder war that has been expected for some time broke out in Chinatown early yesterday, and as a result three Mongolians occupy slabs in the morgue; two more are at the County Hospital mortally wounded, and nine are behind bars in the county jail. More trouble is feared.

MONTREAL IN DANGER.

Big Flood May Strike the Canadian Metropolis at Any Moment.

Montreal, April 20.—Prospects for a flood have not been so serious for many years, in fact, since the erection of the dyke, as they were yesterday. There was another shove and the water in the St. Lawrence is two inches above the level of Commissioners street.

Samoan Commissioners Start.

Washington, April 20.—Mr. Bartlett Tripp, the United States Samoan commissioner, left this city yesterday for San Francisco. Baron Sternberg followed at 8.30 for Chicago. Before leaving Baron Sternberg had an extended conference with the German ambassador, going over all the points of the Samoan issue as presented in the instructions. The meetings here between American, British and German commissioners, which were quite social and informal, have been productive of a very amicable sentiment among all concerned.

Provincial Appointments.

Toronto, April 20.—Daniel Proctor, Walkerton, has been appointed bailiff of the First Division Court of the County of Bruce.

W. R. Graham, Belleville, has been appointed superintendent of poultry at the Guelph Agricultural Farm, the vacancy being caused by the resignation of Mr. Jarvis.

North Waterloo.

Waterloo, April 20.—The Liberal convention was held here yesterday for the selection of a provincial candidate to contest the riding of North Waterloo in the coming bye-election. The seat was made vacant through the unseating of the successful Conservative candidate, Dr. Lackner of Berlin, on charges of bribery, etc. Mr. Louis J. Breithaupt of Berlin was chosen.

DIZZY AND FAINT SPELLS.

Warnings of heart trouble that should be heeded.

These feelings of faintness, those dizzy spells and "all gone" sinking sensations, which come over some people from time to time are warnings that must not go unheeded.

They indicate an extremely weakened condition of the heart and a disordered state of the nervous system. Nature is asking in an unmistakable manner that aid be brought to her assistance quickly.

There is no time for delay. One faint may be recovered from—will the next? One dizzy spell may pass off but the next may prove more serious.

Those who are wise will start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills at once before their case gets hopeless.

This remedy acts directly on the disordered heart and nerves and restores them to healthy action.

Mrs. John Gilker, Maria, Bonaventure Co., Que., recently wrote as follows:

"It gives me great pleasure to be able to state that I have been using for some time the wonderful remedy, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

"For a number of years I have been troubled with heart throbbing and dizziness, followed by nervousness and weakness.

"I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did, and got great relief from the first, and now am completely cured. I feel very grateful for the benefit I have received."

There is no one who has ever taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills faithfully but has derived benefit from their use. They have cured thousands of cases of palpitation, dizzy and faint spells, throbbing, skip beats, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, anaemia, pale and sallow complexion, female complaints and general debility."

INCALCULABLE GOOD,

AN EXPRESSION OF FAITH.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have done me an incalculable amount of good. I think they are the best, surest and quickest acting cure for nervousness, unhealthy action of the heart, insomnia or sleeplessness, anemia or impoverished blood, loss of appetite, general debility and ill-health. For nine years, before I commenced taking Dr. Ward's Blood and nerve Pills, my heart was weak and in an unhealthy state. Its action was so much impaired that I could not walk across the street without suffering great distress, my heart fluttering and beating so rapidly that I could scarcely breathe, causing faintness, loss of strength, and leaving my nerves all unstrung. My sleep was very much disturbed, I had no appetite and there was little strength or vitality in my blood; I was always excessively nervous.

I have now taken three boxes of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills and since taking them I have not been away from my business an hour. Before taking these pills it was a frequent occurrence for me to be away from business. As a result of taking Dr. Ward's Pills my heart is perfectly healthy and strong and gives me no distress or trouble whatever. They removed all nerve trouble, made my nerves strong and gave me healthy sleep. These pills also made my blood rich and strong and gave me a healthy appetite. Dr. Ward's Pills have given me perfect health, restoring my lost strength, in place of continual ill-health, weakness, heart trouble and nervousness. In justice I cannot speak too highly of this wonderful medicine. Signed, Miss N. Millward, Walton St., Port Hope, Ont.

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. per box, 5 boxes for $2.00 at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by THE DOCTOR WARD CO. Limited, 71 Victoria Street, Toronto. Book of information free.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH.

HOW THEY ARE MADE AND WHAT BECOMES OF THEM.

The Perfection to Which Their Making Has Attained—In Style, Shape and Color Nothing Is Impossible to Modern Dental Art.

Hundreds of thousands of artificial teeth are manufactured and sold every year What becomes of them? It is like asking what becomes of pins and other things which are practically indestructible.

Before making a guess it is worth while to consider how artificial teeth are made. The story is told in Nantucket of a sea captain who was a great whistler until he lost one of his front teeth by accidental contact with a belaying pin. For some time he bemoaned his lost accomplishment, until he found that he could whistle very well with an artificial tooth whittled out of a piece of wood. When a performance was desired, he would calmly carve out an incisor and put it in position. Then the audience would wait until the tooth was swelled by the moisture of his mouth so that it would not slip out.

When plates were discovered and the expert dentist was able to supply a whole mouthful of new teeth, the teeth themselves were carved out of ivory But constant grinding would wear away the ivory, and these elephant teeth were not satisfactory.

Today all artificial teeth are made of porcelain, and will outlast a Methuselah. Those which are known in the trade as "store teeth," being carried in stock by the big dental supply houses, are manufactured in enormous quantities.

The porcelain material, which contains various mineral proportions, is worked up like a sort of dough or plaster, forced into molds and fused by intense heat in a furnace. Each tooth is covered with enamel and has one or more metal pins in the back to hold it to the plate.

In large lots these teeth can be made very cheaply, but there is one item of expense that cannot be overcome, and that is the cost of the metal holding the pin. The only metal which will stand the intense heat of the porcelain furnace is platinum, and that costs at the rate of a cent a pin simply for the raw material. A great deal of money has been spent in experiments to discover some substitute for platinum, but nothing has yet been found.

While a cheap grade of "store teeth' can be bought for a few cents apiece, they are not nearly as satisfactory as the standard commercial article which is used by most dentists. A big supply company will carry hundreds of samples of teeth, all of standard qualities, but differing greatly in size, shape and color. In color alone from 25 to 100 variations may be presented.

But as there are people who are not satisfied with ready made clothing so there are people who are not satisfied with ready made teeth. False teeth may look just as well or better than real ones, but public speakers, singers and other prominent people want their own teeth reproduced in all their peculiarities of form and color and fillings, if they have them. They want teeth that cannot be told as false, and they get them, not all at once perhaps, but one by one, as the originals give out.

In teeth that are made to order nothing is impossible, from the short, white teeth of normal youth to the long, discolored ones of extreme age, and the prices range like those of watches.

The teeth are set in plates of rubber, gold and aluminium, but the highest achievement is considered to be a platinum plate, upon which has been fused a lining of tinted porcelain similar to that used for gum work. Tinted plates have been made of the same material as the teeth, but as the porcelain shrinks in the firing the fitting of such plates is uncertain.

And now for the answer to the question, "What becomes of false teeth?" Sometimes they are lost, sometimes stolen and sometimes left as a family legacy Generally, however, they are buried with the owner and lie forever hidden in the ground.

It is occasionally suggested that there is quite a business in secondhand false teeth, but if there is such a traffic it is not of large proportions. Secondhand teeth are valuable only for the platinum wire that they contain, and when they fall into the hands of regular teeth makers they are smashed up to get the platinum out.

Not long ago a man who found a double set of teeth went with them to a dealer, thinking that he had a prize. The finder was surprised when the dealer refused to make an offer and said that 10 cents a set was all they were worth to any one but the person whose mouth they fitted.

The expensive teeth are not marketable, and the marketable teeth are not expensive. That is the whole thing in a nutshell.

Yet teeth have been used over. A lady went to a dentist with a set of teeth which had belonged to her mother, who was dead She said that she had always admired those teeth when her mother wore them, and now that her own were gone she wanted the old set remounted for herself It was done.—Boston Herald.

ANCIENT SPEAKING STATUES.

Maspero Tells of the Mechanical Statues of Egyptian Gods.

M. Gaston Maspero, the well known French Egyptologist, has recently written an interesting article on the "speaking statues" of ancient Egypt. He says that the statues of some of the gods were made of jointed parts and were supposed to communicate with the faithful by speech, signs and other movements. They were made of wood, painted or gilded. Their hands could be raised and lowered and their heads moved, but it is not known whether their feet could be put in motion. When one of the faithful asked for advice, their god answered either by signs or words. Occasionally long speeches were made, and at other times the answer was simply an inclination of the head.

Every temple had priests whose special duty it was to assist the statues to make these communications. The priests did not make any mystery of their part in the proceedings. It was believed that the priests were intermediary between the gods and mortals, and the priests themselves had a very exalted idea of their calling. They firmly believed that the souls of divinities inhabited the statues, and they always approached them with religious fear and reverence.

Those priests would stand behind the statues and move their heads or hands or speak for them, never doubting that at that moment their movements and words were inspired by the divine spirit dwelling in the statues. The statues were regarded as so very much alive that in war they shared the fate of those people whose deities they were. They were taken prisoners, condemned to death or given into slavery—in other words, placed in the temples of the conquering gods. If they were returned to their own temples, they bore inscriptions testifying to their defeat and imprisonment.

"DOWN BRAKES, AND REVERSE!"

When a train is discovered rushing on to a frightful collision, it is a thrilling instant as the engineer whistles "Down brakes!" and reverses his lever. Brakes alone are not enough; the whole propelling power of the engine must be reversed and made to work in the opposite direction. That is how it is sometimes with disease.

There are times when the system is flying along the track of disease at such a frightful pace that no ordinary methods will prevent disaster. There are plenty of medicines which act merely as breaks to "slow up" the disease and put off disaster for a little while; but that isn't enough. What is needed is a medicine that will instantly reverse the entire wasting, degenerating process.

When people are losing flesh, strength and vitality, they need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which acts directly upon the vital forces, completely transforming the entire nutritive organism and totally reversing the wasting, debilitating process which is at the root of all diseases.

It enables the digestive and blood-making organs to supply the circulation with an abundance of pure, healthy, red blood. It stops the wasting of tissue, builds up solid, muscular flesh and healthy nerve-force.

"About four years ago I had an attack of grip which left my throat and lungs in a bad condition," writes Mrs. Mary Hartman, of 300 Harker Street, Mansfield, Ohio. "The doctor said I had disease of the throat and bronchial tubes. I continued to grow worse all the time until I had pain in the upper part of my chest and severe cough, which grew worse at night and in the morning, with expectoration. Quite often I would cough up what seemed to be mattery scabs, after which I would experience a burning and smarting sensation in my throat. I took the doctor's prescriptions without number, but all did not seem to do me any real good. At last he told me to try cod liver oil. I took sixteen bottles of the oil; this seemed to help me for a while and then I would be as bad as ever. Next I tried the extract of malt. I took five bottles, and not deriving any benefit from the malt, (I was feeling so weak I could hardly get around) I concluded I would write to your Institute for advice. About eighteen months ago I wrote describing my symptoms. I immediately received an answer advising a course of treatment, which I began at once. I bought five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and one bottle of his 'Favorite Prescription' and three of the 'Pellets.' I began taking the medicines as directed and immediately began to improve in every way. I have obtained more lasting benefit from these medicines than from all others combined. Indeed Dr. Pierce's medicines have done wonders for me. I enjoy quite good health and have not taken any medicine for over six months."

Miss Mary Whitman, of East Dickinson, Franklin Co., N. Y., writes: "For nearly ten months I had a bad cough, and instead of getting better, it grew worse, until I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I hesitated at first, for it seemed to me nothing would give relief only death. My parents were anxious about me, and I was said to have consumption. I tried your medicines, and before I had taken many doses there was a great change. When the second bottle was empty I had no cough and was a great deal stronger."

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter, free of cost, by addressing him at No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

One copy of a good, practical, medical work is worth more in a home than a thousand works of fiction. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is the best home medical book extant. It contains 1,008 pages and three hundred illustrations and is written in plain, everyday language that any one may understand. Over a million homes own copies of it and 680,000 of them paid $1.50 each for their copies. A new and large edition will be given away absolutely FREE. Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realize the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles.

Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 338 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

Greenwich Time.

The clock at Greenwich, England, which records "Greenwich time," used by navigators—and in this country by the railroads, with allowances for differences in longitude—has a dial with three circles. One circle is for seconds, one for minutes, one for hours. It is a 24 hour clock, but does not have the numeral XXIV. The time starts from 0 in all cases—seconds, minutes hours. Scientists and those who have to mark the lapse of seconds accustom themselves to count "Naught, one, two," and so on. The first second is not completed until 1 is reached.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

A Liquor Famine Feared.

Skaguay, Alaska, April 14, via Seattle, Wash., April 20.—The action of the Deputy United States Collector of Customs Andrews in holding all liquors for the interior here and refusing to forward them by convoys so long as the Canadian officials insist upon stopping American officers at the summit, has caused an accumulation in the bonded warehouse, until to-day there are nearly 100 tons of liquors of all kinds awaiting the action of the Secretary of the Interior. Meantime a liquor famine is threatened at Atlin, Log Cabin and Bennett, and smugglers are making money.

Linotype Operator Suicided.

Victoria, B.C., April 20.—James Kerr, a linotype operator, employed by The Colonist, committed suicide by drowning on Tuesday. He was ill of erysipelas, so severe as to affect his mind. The body was found in the straits off Beacon Hill Park. He was 35 years of age, and was born in Scotland.

No Cure for . . . Bright's Disease

In its advanced stages—The Reason Why—Danger Prevented by the Timely Use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

To understand Bright's Disease is to know that in its advanced stages it is past the reach of human aid. The cells of the kidneys undergo a wasting change, which leaves them dead so far as performing their functions is concerned. Just think of having the kidneys dead. Think of the poisons left in the system when these organs could no longer perform their duties as filters of the blood.

It would be difficult to conceive of anything more dreadful, and yet this is the goal to which every case of neglected kidney disease must lead.

When the back aches, when urinating is difficult or too frequent, when there are deposits in the urine after standing for 24 hours, there is no time to lose in procuring Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

It is not claimed that they will cure Bright's Disease in its last stages. They are an absolute cure for kidney disease, and so long as the kidneys are not entirely wasted away they will give new strength and vigor and enable them to resume their duties of filtering the blood.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will stop backache and headache in short order by removing the cause, and will positively prevent Bright's Disease. One pill a dose, 25c. a box. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

PETERBOROUGH STOCK YARDS.

To the Editor of The Examiner.

Sir,—Will you kindly allow me space in your columns for a few words regarding the proposed stock yards. I see they still hang fire with a possibility appearing of not getting them at all, which in my opinion would be an almost irreparable injury to the commercial interests of Peterborough. In fact I can think of no industry, nor do I think you can name one, that would prove a greater benefit to the district of which Peterborough is the centre than a successful stock market established in your good town.

The good days of not so long ago are gone, when it took four or five flour mills and several store houses to handle the grain that found a ready market at good prices all the time in Peterborough, the merchants were getting rich, and working men had good wages, the farmers were making money and improving their land, property values were going out of sight and everybody was saying, hurrah for Peterborough, it's going to be a city and no mistake, for 'tis the grandest town in Canada.

Well, the grain trade is gone, our own north west has taken it, and will keep it, our wheat and barley are reduced to the price of cattle feed. Many farms are run down from over-cropping and people are commencing to raise cattle. Conditions in the country are rapidly changing, and if the town does not adjust itself to the altered conditions, thus rapidly going on, it will inflict a permanent injury upon itself which this generation may not be able to overcome.

The establishment of this market under modern conditions would be to the farmers a boon of the greatest importance. A regular weekly market where we could meet foreign buyers in a position to pay Montreal and Toronto prices for our export cattle and sheep, is something few in Peterborough ever expected to see, and I think no time should be lost in settling the matter. I think the county should assist this enterprise—the town in the way which seems best to itself. I would favour the county giving a liberal bonus to enable the company to put the business on solid footing and secure the patronage of the leading export cattle dealers of England and the Western States, and I think the proposition would be favourably entertained by the people, for I have heard many farmers express themselves in its favour.

What an incentive it would be to the stocker trade. While the feeding of export cattle is increasing and will continue to do so, yet few farmers, comparatively, are so situated at the present time as to feed much for export, though every farmer is in a position more or less favourable for raising all the calves that come. Proof of this is seen in the fact that more than 8000 more calves were raised in the Peterborough district in 1898 than in 1897, which brought their owners over $80,000 (that too without the cost and trouble of their first winter's care and feed), instead of about $250—price of their skins the year before. Previous to the opening of the young stock trade the people did not raise one-third of their calves, so that it was not money in the pockets only of those who sold the stock but the country was richer by $80,000 of foreign money put in circulation.

It is estimated that about 20 cars per week would be handled through these yards, which means that a large quantity of hay would be needed.

The above is an item of considerable importance, and means a good deal to the community.

Thanking you for the favour I am,

Yours, etc.,

JOHN MATCHETT.

MIRACLE WASHING COMPOUND.

Looks Like a Miracle in the Toronto Hospital.

The demonstrator for the Miracle Washing Compound performed a most remarkable feat in washing at the Toronto General Hospital on Thursday, April 13th. An official statement says that 50 bed spreads, 50 blankets, 500 bed sheets, 100 men's night shirts and ten pairs of lace curtains were all washed perfectly clean in three hours by the use of Miracle Washing Compound. Beat that, who can! Steam was turned on in three large wash boilers and the compound did the work. Imagine the saving of labour where 800 pieces are required to be washed per day for 500 patients.

A Peterborough Lady's Verdict.

59 McDonald St., Peterborough.

This is to certify that I have used the Miracle Washing Compound and would not be without it now, as it lessens labour and time and bleaches the clothes superior to any other.

Miracle Washing Compound is on sale at all grocery stores in Peterborough and Ashburnham. Price only 3 cents a cake; two cakes for 5 cents, or 25c. per dozen. Agencies for sale, apply to L. B. Fetcher, Peterborough.

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

The Norwood lacrossists have not organized this season yet. It is to be hoped that Norwood will "get into the game" this summer and uphold its old reputation in the district.

The Kingston Lacrosse Club is anxious for home and home games with the Peterboroughs on dates to be decided upon.

Jim Kirk, of Madoc, is evidently going to play in Galt this year. The News says: Secretary Kelly, of the Galt Lacrosse Club, is fortunate in securing Jim Kirk, of last year's Waterloo team for the Junior Champions. Kirk in condition is one of the best defence men in the C.L.A. He was highly recommended by players Barlow and Latimer on the Markham management.

Perth is also another town that is bemoaning the loss of players to Orangeville, for a dispatch from that place says: "The town of Orangeville is evidently picking up all the lacrosse players available. Mr. Wm. O'Brien, of the Crescent Lacrosse Club, of this town, has gone to Orangeville, where he has been given a situation. It is rumoured around town that two more local players have been asked to go west, but up to the present they have not gone. Mr. Peter McGregor, who has been on the local team since it was organized will be unable to play this season, as he has been in the Montreal hospital for four weeks, suffering from appendicitis. Mr. Lou Dobbin who figured on the team last year, has accepted a situation in Barrie. Notwithstanding that all these men will be off this year, there is every reason to believe that the Cresdents will be as strong, if not stronger, than in former years.

THE TRIGGER.

The practice shoot that was announced to be held yesterday afternoon under the auspices of the Peterborough Gun Club had to be postponed, owing to an overflow of the river into Riverside Park. Temporary grounds will be secured immediately and the members notified when the next shoot will be held.

GOLF.

The golfers are going to have a number of prizes to offer for competition this year. In addition to those already announced a "driver" will be presented for open handicap by Captain Hamilton. Mr. J. Alex. Culverwell of the Burleigh Falls Electric Syndicate, has kindly offered two prizes for the ladies competition. First prize an approaching mashie; second, a box of golf balls. The professional, Mr. A. Smith, who has been on the links giving instructions for the last few days, has kindly offered a "driver" to be played for in open competiiton by the ladies only.

THE RING.

"Lem" Fetcher, of Peterbourough, is one of the few Canadian sporting men ready to accept a reasonable wager on Jeffries' chances against Fitzsimmons. "All the west is down to a man on the Golden State giant. You know 52 pounds overweight is liable to beat even a good man like Fitz," says the ex-Toronto boniface. — Woodstock Review.

WEDDING BELLS.

Nuptials of Miss Annie Morton and Mr. Benj. Thompson.

On Wednesday last, Mr. Benjamin Thompson was united in marriage to Miss Annie Morton, both of Cavan. In the evening the happy couple drove to Millbrook, where the Rev. Mr. Allen gave them liberty to dwell together in unity and love until death separate them. The bride was dressed in cream cashmere trimmed with cream silk lace and ribbons and carried a bouquet of white roses. The groom was supported by Mr. James Morton, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's father, where they spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Board of Trade Volunteers Its Aid.

SOME RUMOURED C. P. R. CHANGES.

A Large Deputation from Havelock Waits on the Local Board of Trade in Connection with the Reported Removal of the C.P.R. Employees from the Village.

A special meeting of the Board of Trade was held last evening, with Mr. John Carnegie, the president, in the chair.

In calling the meeting to order Mr. Carnegie explained that the members had been summoned for the purpose of taking into consideration the action of the C.P.R. in removing a number of their employees from the village of Havelock, which act was viewed by the residents with much alarm. He was sure that the citizens of Peterborough would do all in their power to assist Havelock in their difficulty, both municipalities being in the same county, and the interests of the village being identical with those of the county town.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun was called upon to give a statement of the case, he being fully acquainted with the facts. He stated that it was about sixteen years since the C.P.R. was constructed through Peterborough and Havelock, and the railway company at that time decided to make the station, now known as Havelock, one of the divisional points in the line. The crews were to be changed there and changed again at Smiths Falls, when the men taken on at the last named place would take the train on into Montreal. A fixed principle of the C. P. R. was that the crews should live at the western end of each division, as the heavy traffic was from the west to the east. When Havelock was chosen as a divisional point one or two hotels and boarding houses immediately sprung up. These did not furnish any very great degree of comfort to their patrons and as the railway company had made serious objections to the employees boarding at hotels, there was but build houses, which the men proceeded to do and permanently establish themselves in the village. All know how the place grew to be a populous and progressive village of ten or twelve hundred inhabitants. When the employees came to Havelock they not only built houses, but built them of a most substantial character. The houses which were built represented a large amount of capital invested by residents of Peterborough, as well as the hard earned savings of the men. The speaker had gone to the Registry office to ascertain how much Peterborough capital was invested in the village, but had been unable to finish the task, it being an undertaking of colossal magnitude.

Now it appeared that the C. P. R. were contemplating making a change in their system of running the road, and had suggested that the employees of this division live in Smith's Falls instead of Havelock. From this point they would make their runs, east and west, as occasion demanded. This of course would necessitate the removal of all their families to Smith's Falls. If an employee did not remove his family to the latter point he probably would not see them for a week or ten days at a time. The only course, therefore was to remove to Smith's Falls and throw up any stake held in Havelock, although they had erected churches and schools and built up a prosperous and progressive village. It might be said the men could but Havelock was essentially a railway town and in the departure of the railway men its ruin was involved. In the population of ten or twelve hundred there were thirteen regular conductors, besides the extra ones and a corresponding number of engineers and firemen, besides the brakemen that go to make up the complement of thirteen or fourteen trains. The change in the system therefore meant that sixty men with their families, or about 300 persons in all, would be forced to emigrate. The other citizens were composed of merchants and others, who found subsistence in the wants of the railway men. The result therefore would be that the village would be obliterated. Is it not, queried the speaker, in the interests of the Board of Trade to do what it can to prevent such a disastrous change taking place? Peterborough money was invested in mortgages and securities in the village and Peterborough labour and material was to be found in every house. A dozen new buildings were under construction when the news of the change came. The village was even contemplating the erection of a handsome town hall. Everything had been stopped. Every order had been cancelled. Nothing more would be done until the definite policy of the C.P.R. would be made known. Mr. Dennistoun asked that the town go to the C.P.R. and state that there

Were Substantial Reasons

why this change should not take place and that as customers of the road it was expected that a certain amount of consideration should be shown for Peterborough's wishes in the matter. It would not be sufficient to pass a resolution. Havelock was sending a deputation to the C.P.R. authorities and it was only proper for the town to strengthen their hands and appoint a deputation to go also.

Mr. James Bryans, reeve of Havelock, was the next speaker. He went over the ground covered by Mr. Dennistoun, stating that as forty-five of the railway men were married, they could not live in the C.P.R. boarding house and had accordingly built themselves houses and invested all their savings. He concluded by strongly urging the Board to use its influence to combat the great injustice which woul dnecessarily be involved in a change of residence. In answer to a question put by Mr. Dumble Mr. Bryans stated that up to the present time the Havelock men had only run east on the line as far as Smiths Falls returning again to Havelock as their headquarters. He mentioned further that all brick and lumber required in Havelock as well as the flour and feed came from Peterborough.

Mr. S. S. Joyce, ex-reeve of Havelock, expressed his opinion that every village in a county was necessarily a benefit to the county town. Havelock, which had been a swamp, was converted into by the railway men, who had built their homes there on the assurance of the C.P.R. that they were safe in doing so. It was not an overestimate to say that every year Havelock left from $20,000 to $25,000 in Peterborough. This change in the system meant ruin to the business men as well as the railway men as the property formerly occupied by the latter would lie vacant and the town would be practically deserted. He made a strong plea for the assistance of the Board.

Mr. A. V. Fuller, postmaster, of Havelock, stated that he had been in the village since it started and gave an idea of how the place had grown in saying that his fees had gradually increased from $16 per year to $440.

Mr. W. Matheson, known as the "father of Havelock," who formerly owned the land on which the village now stands, stated that when the site for the railway buildings was sold to the company, he was told that the place was to be a permanent divisional point. He had received ten dollars an acre for the land and under the present circumstances it was deteriorating again to the same value. Homes which cost ten and twelve hundred dollars were worth nothing, as they would never be occupied if the change went into effect. Nearly every railway man who purchased property, went to the company first to receive an assurance concerning the permancy of Havelock as a divisional point.

Mr. W. T. Curtis, one of the C.P.R. employees, explained that it was amongst railways that the divisional points should not be more than 100 miles apart, as railway stock needed inspection at these intervals. When Havelock was chosen therefore as a divisional point the train crews which ran east to Smith's Falls from there were located in the village. The suggested change was that train crews were to run both east and west from Smith's Falls, which would necessitate the men moving their families to that village or running the chance of not seeing them for, perhaps, two weeks or so.

Mr. Jos. Knox, a building contractor of the village, stated that he had resided in Havelock for the past 14 years and in his business, he had dealt largely in Peterborough and could assert that not a dozen buildings had been erected in the village in which the material had not come from Peterborough.

Mr. J. Thompson, one of the village business men endorsed the views of the previous speakers.

Mr. F. C. McMaster stated that in the line of hardware, nothing could be sold in Havelock in the present unsettled condition of affairs.

Mr. Job Coon spoke in reference to the great depreciation in value which Havelock real estate was already suffering through the rumours of the proposed change.

Mr. D. W. Dumble favoured the request of Havelock's residents and thought it should be a pleasure

As Well as a Duty

for the Board of Trade to send a strong deputation to the C.P.R. officials in reference to the matter. He would like to see the Mayor as well as the Warden of the county accompany the suggested deputation. Seconded by Mr. Robt. Fair, he moved the following resolution:

"Whereas it has been reported that the C.P.R. Co. is contemplating the removal of their train crews from Havelock to Smith's Falls;

"And whereas the Board of Trade of the Town and County of Peterborough, assembled for the purpose of discussing the question is of opinion that such a course would be disastrous to the property of the village of Havelock and destructive of land values;

"And whereas it has been represented to this Board that many of the employees of the railway company and the owners of their own property in the village and that a large sum of money has been invested in mortgage security in the said village by residents of the town and county of Peterborough and that great loss would be occasioned by the removal of the railway employees as aforesaid;

"And whereas the village of Havelock is an important and flourishing trade centre in this county and the merchants of Peterborough are directly concerned in the maintenance and prosperity of this progressive village and are convinced that substantial injury will be done the business houses of Peterborough, if the proposed removal goes into effect.

"Therefore be it resolved that the authorities of the C.P.R. be sent a copy of this resolution with a request that nothing be done that will imperil vested rights or injure the trade of this county, as the Board is of opinion that the C.P.R. having made Havelock what it is and having given every assurance that the company was determined to make Havelock a permanent and prosperous railway town are in duty bound to stand by their policy of the past 15 years and to disdain any intention of destroying the securities which they have created;

"Resolved further that a deputation from the Board wait upon the authorities of the C.P.R. and present the arguments in support of this resolution as fully and carefully as possible."

In speaking to the resolution, Mr. Robert Fair urged that the deputation sent from Peterborough be one which would tend to strengthen the hands of the Havelock citizens as much as possible.

The resolution was carried unanimously.

Mr. F. D. Kerr, in a brief speech made a number of strong points in favour of Havelock's petition.

The matter of the appointment of a deputation was left in the hands of the President of the Board.

The Havelock deputation was composed of Messrs. Jas. Bryans, reeve; A. V. Fuller and Geo. Richards, councillors; S. S. Joyce, W. Matheson, J. Knox, F. C. McMaster, A. C. Denike, W. T. Curtis, H. B. Morrison, J. Thompson, P. Lancaster, Geo. Phillips, C. H. Breswtery Job Coon.

OBITUARY.

Death of Charles Argue, an Old Pioneer of Cavan.

The funeral took place on Friday, April 14th, of the late Charles Argue, of Cavan. Only some forty hours intervened between his usual health and the hour of death. The deceased was born in the township on Xmas day, 1830, on the old homestead, lot 8, con. 7, Cavan, now owned by Mr. Henry Argue and lived there until he married some twenty-seven years ago. After his marriage to Miss Maria Best of Mt. Pleasant, they settled on his own farm two lots east of the old home, which was their place of abode until about twelve years ago, when he bought the present homestead on the gravel road and moved upon it. The deceased was probably one of the most successful farmers of the township and at the time of his death owned 450 acres of good farm land with a splendid residence and outbuildings. The responsibilities of life were early thrown on his shoulders and he entered upon a career of activity with all diligence. In his earlier life he bought and sold live stock with much success and also dealt in lumber both of which undertakings, aided by his shrewdness and energy, proved very profitable and brought him in contact with almost every man in the country among whom he was honored and respected for his honesty and enterprise. His nobleness of nature and kindness of heart were known to all his neighbors and acquaintances and in all his efforts to add to his own possessions he never forgot the needy or turned the hungry from his door. A bag of flour, or load of feed were never grudgingly given to those who came to him for help. That "a good man has fallen" will be the universal verdict. Besides the bereaved widow a family of six girls, one of whom, (Mrs. Richardson), is married, and one son are left to mourn their irreparable loss. In religion the deceased was a Methodist. Two sisters, Mrs. Coe, of Claud, and Mrs. Reid of Clarke, one brother, Mr. George Argue, of the township of Floss, and a nephew, Wm. Leith, of Medonte, were in attendance at the funeral which took place to Gardiner's Cemetery on Friday last followed by a sorrowing and sympathizing community.

Improvements

Have been commenced. Carpenters are busy here and in the factory moulding into shape fixtures for the more convenient handling and displaying of our stock, which is too large to be shown to advantage with the present fixtures.

Rather than handle stocks as often as such circumstances usually call for we purpose offering to the public some very special inducements.

We only quote a few prices here. Come and see others.

"Better Good Afar Off Than Evil at Hand."

If the "evil at hand" is a disordered condition of the blood, the "good" is not "afar off." Hood's Sarsaparilla is a natural blood purifier, and within the possibilities of everyone. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and every other form of blood disease. It relieves dyspeptic troubles and kidney and liver difficulties. It surely has saved thousands of lives and made people better able to stand the cares and worries of life.

Blood Poison—"I lived in a bed of fire for years owing to blood poisoning that followed small pox. It broke out all over my body, itching intensely. Tried doctors and hospitals in vain. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla. It helped. I kept at it and was entirely cured. I could go on the housetops and shout about it." MRS. J. T. WILLIAMS, Carbondale, Pa.

Goitre—"For 42 years I had goitre, or swellings on my neck, which was discouraging and troublesome. Rheumatism also annoyed me. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me completely and the swelling has entirely disappeared. A lady in Michigan saw my previous testimonial and used Hood's and was entirely cured of the same trouble. She thanked me for recommending it." MRS. ANNA SUTHERLAND, 406 Lovel Street, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Poor Health—"Had poor health for years, pains in shoulders, back and hips, with constant headache, nervousness and no appetite. Used Hood's Sarsaparilla; gained strength and can work hard all day, eat heartily and sleep well. I took it because it helped my husband." MRS. ELIZABETH J. GIFFELS, Moose Lake, Minn.

Makes Weak Strong—"I would give $5 a bottle for Hood's Sarsaparilla if I could not get it for less. It is the best spring medicine. It makes the weak strong." ALBERT A. JAGNOW, Douglastown, N. Y.

Dyspepsia—"Suffered everything but death for years with dyspepsia. Nothing relieved me until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made and kept me well. Can eat anything I wish." MRS. EUGENE MURPHY, Hull's Mill, Danbury, Conn.

Three Troubles—"I had rheumatism, weakness of the heart and stomach, with scrofula. Nothing helped me until I took Hood's Sarsaparilla; it relieved me in short time." MRS. R. P. WALLIS, Winnisquam, N.H.

Catarrh—"I was so low with catarrh that I could not get around the house. Tried all sorts of remedies. Hood's Sarsaparilla was the last. It cured me." MRS. CHARLES RHINE, 336 Oak Lane, York, Pa.

Scrofulous Hip Disease—"My boy Willie had scrofulous hip disease from a baby. Abscesses developed. Months at the hospital, with best treatment, did no good. They said he would never walk again. He was helpless and wasted away to nothing but skin and bone. Hood's Sarsaparilla had helped me, and I gave it to him. Imagine my delight at a wonderful change. Abscesses all healed, crutches thrown away. He is now tall and stout, perfectly well and the thanks are all due to Hood's Sarsaparilla. Other mothers with crippled children should know this." MRS. EMMA V. DUFF, Walpole, Mass.

Impure Blood—"Five years I suffered with pimples on face and body. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me permanently. It also cured my father's carbuncles." ALBERT E. CHASE, Tustin City, Cal.

Eczema—"We had to tie the hands of our two year old son on account of eczema on face and limbs. No medicine even helped until we used Hood's Sarsaparilla, which soon cured." MRS. A. VAN WYCK, 128 Montgomery Street, Paterson, N. J.

Nervousness—"I was weak, nervous and very delicate, staggered in attempting to walk. Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills made me well. I feel like another person." MRS. LIZZIE SHERBERT, Conduit Street Ext., Annapolis, Md.

Dyspepsia—"We all use Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured my brother-in-law and myself of dyspepsia. I owe my life to it." M. H. KIAK, 607 Franklin St., Philadelphia.

Scrofula—"Three years ago our son, now eleven, had a serious case of scrofula and erysipelas with dreadful sores, discharging and itching constantly. He could not walk. Several physicians did not help for sixteen months. Three months' treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla made him perfectly well. We are glad to tell others of it." MRS. DAVID LAIRD, Ottawa, Kansas.

Run Down—"As a great medicine to restore strength I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I take it spring and fall and whenever I feel tired and run down. It removed my pimples." ANNETTE MESSERLE, 1240 Atlantic Street, St. Paul, Minn.

WHO DID IT?

THE TALK THAT TOOK WITH BROCKVILLE ELECTORS.

An Example of Vi-Tupperation Turned to Account—A Political Catechism.

The Brockville bye-election was a strong fight and every argument was resorted to to influence the choice of the electorate. The journalistic end of the fight was put up in a very spirited manner by the Recorder and the following is an example of the antiphonal, so to speak, employment of pertinent paragraphs in a last appeal. These do not, however, lose force after the event, for the truths they contain are worth remembering.

Who Did it? The Tuppers.

Who knifed Sir Mackenzie Bowell? —The Tuppers.

Who came all the way from London to take Sir Mackenzie's Bowell's job? A Tupper.

Who declined to help pay for flowers ordered by members of the late government to be placed on the coffin of the late Sir John Thompson? —The Tuppers.

Who caused the downfall of the Conservative party in this country? —The Tuppers.

Who made charges in the House against private citizens that they dare not make, though challenged to do so, on a public platform? —The Tuppers.

Whom did the Mail call the prince of political cracksmen? —A Tupper.

Who are teetotally discredited in England to-day? —The Tuppers.

Who ran off to Vancouver after making these charges on the floor of the House? —A Tupper.

Who swarmed into every vacant office when the Conservatives were in power? —The Tuppers.

Who are thoroughly despised by the best men of the Conservative party? —The Tuppers.

Who sent Peter White to this riding against the wishes of many good local men? —The Tuppers.

Who will the electors be voting for if they mark their ballots for White? —The Tuppers.

Who will get turned down in this riding on April 20th? —The Tuppers.

Who ought to quit Canadian politics for the good of Canada? —The Tuppers.

Who insist on running everything their own way and grabbing everything in sight for themselves and relatives? —The Tuppers.

Who Did it? The Liberals.

Who reduced the postage on letters to two cents, saving thousands of dollars to Brockville business men? —The Liberals.

Who have opened up the world's markets so that Canada's trade has increased $60,000,000 in two years? —The Liberals.

Who established law and order in the Yukon? —The Liberals.

Who inaugurated a system of cold storage transportation for farm produce? —The Liberals.

Who reformed the tariff, giving preference to British goods? —The Liberals.

Who got the Belgian and German treaties abrogated, though Tupper said they couldn't do it? —The Liberals.

Who settled the Manitoba school question? —The Liberals.

Who turned deficits into surpluses? —The Liberals.

Who reduced the duty on raw material to employ more men to make more goods? —The Liberals.

Who repealed the villainous franchise law? —The Liberals.

Who put new life into the immigration department, bringing many thousands of people to Canada? —The Liberals.

Who placed Canada's commerce on a basis to bring good times? —The Liberals.

Who give work to nearly all the mechanics and workingmen of Brockville? —The Liberals.

Who restored harmony and peace among the different classes of Canadian people? —The Liberals.

Who do not malign the personal characters of private citizens? —The Liberals.

Who put the postal department on a business basis? —The Liberals.

Who placed the Intercolonial railway on a paying footing? —The Liberals.

Who secured a reduction in C.P.R. freight rates for the Northwest settler and miner? —The Liberals.

Who abolished the sweating system? —The Liberals.

Who are anxious that Brockville should be represented by a local man? —The Liberals.

HAVELOCK AND THE C. P. R.

The action of the deputation from Havelock, in waiting on the local Board of Trade, last evening, in reference to the crisis in the affairs of the village, brought about by the action of the C.P.R. in removing the railway employees, affords much food for thought.

At a cursory glance into the state of affairs one is not greatly impressed by the fact that three or four hundred people are about to leave the village, as Peterborough would not be very materially affected if a like number were forced to leave this town, through some unforseen circumstance. When however, it is taken into consideration that Havelock is to be depleted by losing one-third of its population, a totally different light is thrown on the state of affairs. In the event of a third of Peterborough's population suddenly being removed, the circumstance would be regarded as a most disastrous calamity. These then are the facts as regards Havelock and a moment's reflection reveals the great depreciation in land values, which will follow the proposed change. As a matter of fact ruin stares in the face every owner of real estate in the village. The employees of the railway company have invested the savings of a life time in their homes, which they have now to abandon without a moment's warning. There is not the slightest possibility of these men being able to dispose of their property, as their departure involves the ruin of the village, which has no manufacturing concerns of any kind to fall back upon for support.

The merchants can no longer expect to gain a livlihood, as those to whom they catered will have been forced out of the village, through the mandate of the C.P.R., which is said to be not in accordance with assurances of prominent officials of the company, as to the permanency of the present system, upon which assurance, employees invested in property in Havelock.

Havelock boasts of four churches —Roman Catholic, English, Presbyterian and Methodist. Naturally these are not free from debt and the mortgages on them are carried by the trustees. In what position will these trustees be placed as the congregations, and consequently the receipts, dwindle down to almost nil.

The members of the Peterborough Board of Trade appeared fully to realize the various points, which were so earnestly brought out by the deputation from Havelock, last evening, and the wording of the resolution which was passed is indicative of the view which the Peterborough business men take of the affair.

Outside of the sympathy which is felt by the citizens for the residents of the village in the eastern end of the county, a fact which has considerable weight is the circumstance of Peterborough capital being vested in the mortgages, which are being carried on their dwellings by the C.P.R. employees. The merchants and manufacturers too, of Peterborough will be vitally affected, if Havelock is wiped out of existence, as the residents of the village leave, annually, between twenty and twenty-five thousand dollars in the town. No stone, therefore should be left unturned to endeavour to convince the C.P.R. that the advantages to be gained by the contemplated change will not be commensurate with the disastrous consequences which will follow it.

The Montreal Star, the personal organ of the Tupper detachment of the Conservative party, should be able to extract sunbeams from cucumbers. It can extract comfort, of a very cold and hypothetic character, however, from the Brockville bye-election. It says that it is to be regretted "that (as a result of the election in Brockville) the country has lost for one or two sessions the services of a statesman of the rank of Hon. Peter White, but there is little doubt that Renfrew (South, where Mr. White was defeated in 1896 will correct Brockville's mistake at the next general election." The Conservatives seem to lose everything but hope, but even this sickly hope has to be kept alive by stimulants— expectations of office in the sweet by-and-by.

Good Blood!

Your heart beats over one hundred thousand times each day. One hundred thousand supplies of good or bad blood to your brain.

Which is it?

If bad, impure blood, then your brain aches. You are troubled with drowsiness yet cannot sleep. You are as tired in the morning as at night. You have no nerve power. Your food does you but little good.

Stimulants, tonics, headache powders, cannot cure you; but

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

will. It makes the liver, kidneys, skin and bowels perform their proper work. It removes all impurities from the blood. And it makes the blood rich in its life-giving properties.

To Hasten Recovery.

You will be more rapidly cured if you will take a laxative dose of Ayer's pills each night. They arouse the sluggish liver and thus cure biliousness.

A WONDERFUL REVIVAL.

Messrs. Crossley and Hunter, the well known evangelists, write the following interesting letter to the Examiner relative to their recent work. Space is cheerfully given for its publication:

To the Editor of the Examiner:

We have seen many great revivals while in the pastorate and during the fifteen years that we have been engaged in evangeliatic work, but never have we been privileged to witness a greater work than has been wrought by God in St. John's, Newfoundland.

Nothing is so popular as a genuine revival, and nothing will draw a crowd nightly for weeks like services where people know men, women and youth are being converted to Christ. There is something in the better nature of even the careless and wicked that says the religion of Christ is the right thing, and makes them glad to see and hear that their friends and fellow citizens profess to start in the Christian life.

This has been most manifest in St. Johns, where night after night for five weeks, the auditorium and two galleries of the large Gower street Methodist church have been crowded with people of all classes and creeds.

At almost every service even the aisles and vestries of the church were thronged at or before 7.30, the time for beginning the meeting, and it was evident that had there been an auditorium that would have held 4,000 instead of 2,000, it would not have been too large to hold the crowds that desired to come.

The Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches were represented by their ministers on the platform, while the congregations and adherents of these churches with many Episcopalians thronged the pews. The half-dozen Baptist people on the island have wisely identified themselves with one or other of the existing churches.

The quiet and unexcitable meetings surprised not a few time-honored Newfoundlanders who had thought physical demonstrations, mental excitement and loud prayers and shoutings were necessary, but even these as well as many who had hitherto been repelled or hindered by noisy and excited demonstrations were soon convinced in head and heart that there was a more excellent way than what they had been accustomed to.

We need not dilate on the very great interest and results manifested in the several men's meetings, or the memorable sealers' service, when hundreds of sealers, the night before they started for the ice-fields, thronged the church in their sealing clothes and gave the Chatauqua salute with their different colored handkerchiefs, or shall we speak of the never-to-be-forgotten children's services that crowded the churches in the afternoons, or of the revivals that have been started all over the island by school teachers and others, who spending a Sabbath or a few days in the meeting went back to tell the glad news of their conversion, but we wish to rejoice the hearts of your many readers by saying that during the five weeks of the meetings in St. Johns the names of 1,890 persons who publicly sought the Lord were recorded by the secretary, and already more than 1,000 persons have united with the four Methodist churches in the city, while hundreds of others, whose names were received, will be looked after by other churches in the city or in the outports.

The converts were from all classes and ages—merchants, doctors, teachers, clerks, telegraph operators, politicians, fishermen, captains, sealers, employers, employees, young men and women, youth and men and women of sixty and seventy.

After St. Johns we went to Carbonear, and here also the power of God to save was signally made manifest. In two weeks and a Sabbath 327 persons professed to begin the Christian life. Our engagement in Boston prevented us from staying longer, but the ministers here, as in St. Johns, are successfully carrying on the meetings in their respective churches.

We have never met a more royal and hospitable people in any part of Canada or the United States than those in Newfoundland, whom we learned to love so well.

Permit us to say in closing that while we have numbers of souvenir's of England's oldest colony, there is one which we will especially prize, namely, a beautiful illuminated address from the ministers and citizens of St. Johns. Mr. Arthur Mews executed the adress with his artistic pen. The border contains pen and ink sketches of the city churches, the harbour, an iceberg and a sealing steamer, while entwined about the pillars on either side and at the top and bottom are the shamrock, thistle and rose.

We waved adieu from the S.S. Portia to hundreds of our friends on the St. John's dock at 10.30 Monday night, the 27th ult., and after four days and nights by boat and train, reached Boston, where we began another campaign on Sabbath, the 2nd inst. We expect to spend April in this city, May in Montreal, and June in Arthur before taking a few weeks needed rest and recreation in Muskoka.

Fraternally,
CROSSLEY & HUNTER.

Boston, April 14th, 1899.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND LEASE.

Island Does Not Belong to Vancouver.

The law officers of the crown at Ottawa have handed out their decision in connection with Mr. Ludgate's lease of Deadman's Island, Vancouver. A series of questions was submitted to the officials, who hold that the island was not included as a part of Stanley Park in the tender of June, 1887, and that hence it cannot be considered to be a property of the municipality of Vancouver, and hence is at the disposal of the Federal Government. The opponents of the proposed lease to Mr. Ludgate will withdraw their objections to the arrangement, although a month ago a deputation consisting of Mr. James McLagan, Harry Senkler and others came to Ottawa to interview the Administration in opposition to the lease. Mr. McLagan hopes that the City of Vancouver will be reimbursed by the Government for its expenditure of about $3,500 on the improvements on the island.

A TIME OF DANGER!

Thousands in Peril.

Blood and Nervous Troubles Develop Disease

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Modern Blood Cleanser and Nerve Builder.

Paine's Celery Compound is the wonder of the age! Its marvellous virtues form themes of discussion amongst interested medical men, and its cures are talked of at every fireside in Canada.

As a spring health-giver Paine's Celery Compound is far beyond competition.

Other medicines have been devised by speculators and experimentalists to cure the ailments and diseases that Paine's Celery Compound so successfully copes with, but every effort in the direction of deceiving the public has resulted in failure and disaster to the promoters of fraud and deception.

To a large extent the present popularity of Paine's Celery Compound is due to the fact that it has accomplished some of its grandest work in the spring season—a time when men and women usually complain of general ill health, loss of vitality, tired feelings— a time when people feel dull, listless, despondent and ambitionless.

The small ills of life, neglected in the spring season, often beget serious and fatal disease.

There are thousands of business men, mechanics, farmers, as well as wives and mothers, who, though able to walk around, are nevertheless sadly "out of health."

Paine's Celery Compound is the great health-restorer and strength-giver for those who are just now perilously near some organic disease.

Paine's Celery Compound quickly and surely removes all impurities from the blood, and gives a fresh circulation power that tones all the organs of digestion.

Paine's Celery Compound, besides producing pure and ruddy blood, will regulate every set of nerves, feed the tissues, and give that true condition of health which makes life worth living.

If you, dear reader, feel that your health is not as robust and vigorous as it should be at this time of the year, let us ask you to make use of that medicine which has given such wonderful and cheering results to others. Be assured that Paine's Celery Compound "makes sick people well."

A MONTREAL LADY

TELLS HOW DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED HER.

She Had Stone in the Bladder—No Other Medicine did her any Good —Five Boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her.

Montreal, P.Q., April 21.—The ladies of Montreal have no rivals in so far as beauty, intelligence and industry are concerned. They are quick to see and take advantage of a good article, and when they have proved its merits they give their friends and neighbors the benefit of their experience.

Since the introduction of Dodd's Kidney Pills to the Quebec province, the ladies of Montreal have been warm advocates of this grand medicine. They have found from their own actual experience that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the greatest and best remedy known for Female Weakness, pains in the back, dizziness, nervous headache, bearing down pains, palpitation of the heart, and all other female complaints. For this reason Dodd's Kidney Pills have found favour in their eyes, and are used in a great majority of their homes.

Mdme. Campagne, residing at No. 167 St. Urbain street, tells her experience with Dodd's Kidney Pills in the following words:

"I have been a sufferer from Stone in the bladder for a long time. All the medicines I took failed to remove it, and I began to think I would never get rid of the trouble. I suffered terribly and my pain grew greater each day.

"I was advised to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial, and did so, though I didn't expect they would help me. However, I was agreeably disappointed. Five boxes brought the stone away and restored me to perfect health — made me a new woman in fact."

Weak, tired women and young girls just about to enter womanhood will find in Dodd's Kidney Pills the best restorative they can procure. They cost only fifty cents a box, and are sold by all druggists or by the Dodd's Medicine Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Everyone Can Save Money Gathering Trading Stamps

"A penny saved is a penny made"—Old proverb.

There is no fiction in this story. Every day in thousands of homes in Toronto, and other cities and towns throughout the Dominion, this pleasant fact finds practical and appreciative demonstration.

You Ask, What Are Trading Stamps?

To the merchant they are discounts for your cash. The wholesaler gives the retailer a discount for his cash, and you are entitled to a discount also, and get it in stores where trading stamps are given.

To the Dominion Trading Stamp Co. they are receipts, proving the amount of your cash purchases—doing a grand work for home economy in encouraging the payment of cash.

To yourself they are savings for your homes, and the prosperous homes—the kind of homes that build up a nation—are those where prudent economy prevails.

—SAVINGS—That you formerly lost by neglect.

—SAVINGS—That come to you daily on everything you buy whether your purchases are large or small.

—SAVINGS—That enterprising merchants can afford to give you, as your cash enables them to get their discounts, prevents errors in charging, lessens the expense of bookkeeping and collecting and avoids losses on bad accounts—which ordinarily the cash-paying customer has to pay for.

—SAVINGS—That no matter from what store, in what city, or what part of the Dominion obtained, are transferable, exchangeable and redeemable at all agencies.

The system is plain and simple and common-sense. All Show-rooms are open to the public, where the goods that are given in exchange for the stamps are to be seen and examined. No goods are sold in the stores They are there for the one purpose only—to redeem the stamps collected by the merchant's customers. Stamp books are free on application.

Pure Maple Syrup at the lowest price at R. R. Philp & Co's.

A Handsome Gift.

The congregation of St. Paul's has purchased as a gift to Rev. Dr. Torrance, a very handsome cabinet containing 134 pieces of sterling silver cutlery.

A Bad Road.

Complaints are heard every day of the disgraceful condition of the hill leading to the Finger Post out from Ashburnham. This is one of the most publicly travelled highways and the municipality ought to take immediate steps to put it in a safe condition before more serious trouble occurs.

A Disagreeable Odour.

At a meeting of the market committee yesterday afternoon, Chairman Sawers brought up the matter of the disagreeable odour arising from the market. Hereafter cattle will not be allowed to remain on the market after being weighed, which will remedy the nuisance.

The C. P. R. Agreement.

There was a committee meeting of the whole Council in the town clerk's office this morning to discuss the matter of the C.P.R. freight sheds on Wolfe street. Mr. J. W. Leonard, superintendent of the C.P.R., was present and took part in the discussion. Such progress was made that this matter, which has been standing for about 14 years, is likely to be settled.

Battalion Notes.

It has been decided that the members of the 57th Battalion will this year receive pay in proportion to the number of drills which they attend. There will be no trip on July 1st, but on the contrary it is expected that the city corps of this district will be ordered to Niagara-on-the-Lake, to go under canvas for a couple of days. The rural battalions will put in twelve days at the same place.

Oddfellows, Notice.

Members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges, I.O.O.F., are requested to remember the 79th anniversary church service of the order on Sunday evening, April 23rd. A cordial invitation is extended to visiting brethren to meet with local lodges at the Oddfellows' Hall, at 6.15 p.m., whence they proceed to Mark street Methodist church, to be addressed by Rev. Bro. Moore at 7 p.m. A. ROSE, Sec. Com.

Monday Night's Attraction.

The best of all musical farce comedies "Ole Olson" will be given at the Opera House Monday evening, April 24. This attraction will remain with us for three nights, giving a complete change of programme nightly. Those persons who enjoy farce comedy should not fail to attend the opera house Monday night. During the progress of the play high class specialties will be given by specially selected vaudeville artists. This attraction comes to us highly recommended and is one of the best comedies on the road. Seats are now on sale, prices 25 and 35c.

Look Out When the Colours Run!

Did you ever buy Wall Paper in which the colors run so badly when the paste went on that the paper hanger could not make a decent job? Well, that's the kind to keep clear of. It's usually sent out to be sold to bankrupt stock dealers. You may feel quite sure that no such stuff will be found in the Wall Paper stock of the Peterborough Bookstore. We find plenty low-priced wall papers with permanent colors to make an attractive room which we can sell at prices no higher than what is asked for the common trash.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

McGuire will Appear Before a Jury at the June Session of the County Court.

A session of the County Police Court was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. James McGuire, who says he comes from Rochester, was up on a charge of stealing a kit of carpenter's tools from Mr. Con. Young, of Young's Point. When he was called he stated that he wished to have the case postponed, as he wished to be tried by jury on June 13th. He had some witnesses to call which he had been unable to find. This was somewhat annoying as about six crown witnesses were present from Young's Point, Lakefield and Peterborough, and it would be necessary to go to the additional expense of summoning these again. Some of the prisoner's stories conflict, as at first he denied ever having seen the tools, but yesterday he claimed that he had bought them from Mr. Young and could produce a bill of sale. After hearing the evidence Magistrate Edmison committed the prisoner for trial.

ON THE MARKET.

Some Information Interesting to Peterborough Housekeepers.

Business was brisk and prices fair at this morning's market, which was augmented by the presence of a large number from the lake and river ports who came up on the Eclipse.

There was not much grain offered for sale, oats being the principal variety. They sold by the load at from 34 to 37 cents per bushel. Pork by the quarter went for 6c for front and 7c for hind quarter. Veal was offered in small quantities for 5 and 6 cents per pound. Pork sold at 6 and 7 cents. A large supply of potatoes brought $1 a bag. Carrots were 40c a bushel and parsnips 60 cents. Eggs were scarce and sold at 10 and 11c per dozen. Apples brought $1 a bushel, but there was not a very large quantity for sale. Green house onions, small but tender, brought 4 and 5 cents a bunch. Plenty of maple syrup was offered, the general price being $1 a gallon.

PERSONAL.

Mr. John Holmes was in from Lakefield this morning.

Miss Olive Vinnette has returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Montreal.

Mr. T. F. Matthews, accompanied by Master Harold, is spending a few days in Ottawa.

Miss Mabel Warne, of Peterborough, has returned home after a few days visit in Cobourg.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Warne, of Cobourg, are visiting the former's brother, Mr. A. J. Warne.

Mr. A. E. Fish, one of Belleville's prominent business men was in town on business yesterday.

Mr. Fred Mitchell, grocer, is able to be down to business after several day's illness from a severe cold.

Supt. Leonard, of the C.P.R., was in town last evening consulting with the Matthews Company in reference to their siding.

Mr. Wm. Slomans, a converted Jew, will preach, D.V., in Gospel Hall, on the corner of George and Brock sts, Sunday at 7 p.m.

Mr. J. S. Kapman, district manager of the Bell Telephone Co., returned this morning from a flying visit to Hamilton and other western towns.

FOR YOUNG MEN.

To-morrow, Rev. Jno. E. Moore will speak at the Men's Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. at 4.15 p.m. Mr. Moore's subject will be one that will interest all young men. The song service for 15 minutes preceding the address. Dr. Scott, President, will take the chair.

At the Social Meeting to-night at 8 o'clock the subject will be "Why Every Christian Should Join the Church."

The Boys' Gospel Meeting last night was most impressive. John Laing spoke on "A Bad Bargain," referring to selling one's soul for worldly pleasure. S. R. Hall had charge of the meeting.

St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham.

At the last meeting of the Archdeaconry of Peterborough at Port Hope, His Honour Judge Benson, in an excellent address, advised the clergy to preach from time to time upon the subject of the Evidences of Christianity. These, he said, are times when many people have difficulties that they would be grateful to have removed. Acting in accordance with this suggestion, Rev. H. Symonds will commence a course of sermons on this topic to-morrow evening. The following are the subjects: (1) The Ground of Modern Unbelief. (2) Faith and Reason. (3) and (4) The Credibility of the New Testament. (5) The Divinity of Christ.

has removed to the rooms over Oak Hall formerly occupied by Mr. Shaw, the artist, hall entrance on George street. He will be pleased to show you nobby sample ranges of new covert overcoatings, tweed and serge suitings and worsted trouserings for spring wear. These include the fashionable mixtures and weaves with new and popular effects. The goods he is selling at cost; for instance, fine covert overcoats, made to order as they should be made, only $12. Fine worsted trousers at a big price cut, only $3.50; why buy ready mades? Every age and style is met — every desire is assured. Ladies' tailoring in all designs.—Geo. Ball, over Oak Hall. 30

OUR GRANOLITHIC PAVEMENTS

THE BOARD OF WORKS RECOMMENDS CONSTRUCTION.

Those Not Wishing Pavements Laid Down on the Streets Mentioned Will Have to Petition Against Them.

The members of the Town Council were called together yesterday afternoon for the purpose of receiving a report from the Board of Works, recommending the construction of granolithic pavements on certain streets.

The chair was occupied by Ald. E. H. D. Hall, the other members present being Ald. Best, McWilliams, Denne, Langford, Corkery, Sawers and Davidson.

A deputation composed of Mr. J. R. Stratton and Mr. D. W. Dumble, addressed the council asking for a further grant to the Trent Waterway Association. Consideration was promised the request.

Messrs. A. P. Poussette and Arthur Stevenson were then heard and made a proposition to the council whereby the Dickson Company offers to supply electric power to operate the town stone-crusher for the season provided the crusher will be to crush about three hundred cords of stone.

On motion of Alderman Best and McWilliams, the request was referred to the Board of Works with power to act in the matter.

A letter from Messrs. Dolan & Sheehy in regard to the completion of their contract was received and filed.

It was moved by Ald. Davidson and Langford, "that in the expense of putting in sewer connections no payment for engineer's fees be required and that when the deposit made covers more than the actual expense, all but one dollar be refunded.—Carried.

The Board of Works

reported through its chairman, Ald. Davidson, as follows:

1. That the Council give notice of its intention to construct granolithic sidewalks on the following streets, to be paid for under the local improvement clauses of The Municipal Act in the same proportion as to the amount to be paid by a frontage tax and by general rate as the granolithic sidewalks laid down last year, namely:—

Water street—Simcoe to Brock, 10 feet; Brock to McDonel, 6 feet; McDonel to Dublin, 5 feet.

George street — Brock to Murray 8 feet; Murray to Dublin, 6 feet; Dublin to Smith, 5 feet.

Simcoe street—Water to George, 10 feet; George to Aylmer, 8 feet; Aylmer to Bethune, 6 feet.

Hunter street—Water to Aylmer, 10 feet; Aylmer to Bethune, 6 feet.

Brock street — Water to George, (n. side) 10 feet; Water to George, (s. side) 6 feet; George to Aylmer, 6 feet.

Charlotte street—Bethune to Park, 5 feet.

Park street—Charlotte to Hunter, (w. side), 4 feet.

Hunter street—Park to Reid (s. side), 5 feet.

Reid street—Hunter to Simcoe (w. side), 4 feet.

Dalhousie street—George to Aylmer (n. side) 4 feet; creek to Aylmer, (s. side) 6 feet.

Simcoe street — Reid to Park (n. side) 4 feet.

Simcoe street — Reid to Park (n. side) 4 feet.

Stewart street — Hunter to Charlotte (s. side), 4 feet.

Murray street—Water past Separate ate school (n. side), 5 feet; George past Baptist church (s. side) 5 feet.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. S. DAVIDSON, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

The Board of Works was authorized to purchase lumber for immediate use.

The clerk was instructed to examine the petition of J. Kilgour and others for a sewer and ascertain if it was correctly signed.

It was moved by Ald. Davidson and McWilliams that the street watering in the Southern District be given to W. Breckenridge at $260 and the north to J. H. Cameron at $195, and the west to J. H. Cameron, at $185, their's being the lowest tenders, provided they give security approved by the chairman of the Board of Works. —Carried.

THE PONTON CASE.

Venue Cannot be Changed without the Consent of Pare and Holden.

Special to The Examiner.

Toronto, April 22.—Judge Robertson, who recently granted a change of venue in the re trial of W. H. Ponton on a charge of robbing the Napanee branch of the Dominion Bank and selected Toronto as the trial place, this morning decided that the change of venue can be made only subject to the written consent of Holden and Pare, crown witnesses, who were originally included in the charge of robbery.

TRENT VALLEY CANAL.

Everything is Assuming First Class Shape for the Year's Work.

Operations at the Trent Valley canal are beginning to be brisk as the spring season advances and before long the work will be in full swing. A couple of days ago the water from the river was so high that it flowed over the coffer dam at the Little Lake and flooded the lower lock. This did not cause much trouble, however, until the new cut in which the men are now working was also filled. At present a steam pump is in active service and the water is fast disappearing. During the winter from five to six feet of ice covered a considerable portion of the steam shovel, and the men are now having a difficult task in cleansing it. The sides of the cut in which the shovel is working have suffered somewhat through caving in, but this will soon be remedied. At present about fifty men are employed, and as soon as advisable the number will be increased. Contractor Corry and Laverdure are anticipating a busy year's work.

A PETERBOROUGH SCHOLAR.

Mr. Stafford F. Kirkpatrick Awarded the Dawson Scholarship.

The appended dispatch from Montreal refers to a son of Mrs. W. W. Kirkpatrick, formerly of Peterborough, and his many friends in town will be greatly pleased to learn the success he has attained in his studies. His preliminary education was received in Peterborough. The paragraph referred to reads as follows:

Montreal, April 20. — Several valuable scholarships have been awarded for research work in the faculty of applied science of McGill University. Mr. Stafford F. Kirkpatrick, of Kingston, Ont., now graduating in mining engineering, for original research in the department of metallurgy, will be able to continue his work at college under the title of "Dawson's fellow in metallurgy." Mr. Kirkpatrick's special branch is in the processes by which precious metals are extracted from the rocks in which they occur. During this summer Mr. Kirkpatrick wll visit the principal mines and gold-extraction plants of the continent.

LOCAL LEGAL.

At Osgoode Hall on April 19th judgment was given in the case of Boyce vs. Boyce, in which judgment was reserved, in favour of the plaintiff, declaring the covenants in the deed to be a charge on the land, and directing reference to the Master to sell the lands in question. The judgment carries all costs against defendant. E. B. Stone for plaintiff; W. A. Stratton (Stratton & Hall) for defendant.

A LITTLE CHAPTER ON TREES.

Alderman Langford is in the timber business. He is negotiating for elm trees for planting in the town parks and squares. The nurseries cannot furnish elms large enough for planting at a reasonable price. Elms large enough for planting are held at 63 cents per tree. Small trees can be got for a few cents each. Consequently Alderman Langford will have to "take to the woods" and get his elms, where he can, in the natural second growth plantations in the vicinity of the town. Why should'nt the town have a little nursery of its own? One of the town lots, near the residence of some trusty person who would keep an eye upon it, might be used for planting small trees which could be got for a trifle and could, when large enough, be planted on town property or distributed to citizens who need trees. Thousands of small trees could be planted on an acre. They would grow rapidly, develop good root and, with a little pruning, could be made shapely trees worth planting which is not always the case with the trees of professional nurseymen which generally have, —in the case of elms—low-branching scraggy tops. And the trees should be distributed free to citizens. Every man who plants a good tree, adds to the beauty of the town and confers a benefit upon posterity. If the town put to use, in the way suggested, one of its town lots—say in the south end where the soil is particularly suitable—trees could be furnished of first-class quality at the cost of a few cents. Were such a lot set aside, the south ward would have what it has not now, something in the form of a park, at least. The idea is favoured by Alderman Langford, and the other members of our progressive, public-spirited council, would, it is pretty certain, not stand in the way.

By the way Alderman McWilliams —whose mind naturally turns to timber—has suggested an excellent thing in the way of what may be called a forest botanical garden. He proposes the setting apart of a plot, of sufficient size, and suitable soil, to be planted with a specimen of each and every tree, shrub and bush, that is indigenous, that is grows naturally, in Canada, to be properly labelled with the popular and scientific names. This would not only furnish a pleasant park resort but would serve as a practical means of imparting knowledge of, and a love for, a very important subject to our children. A very considerable portion of our natural wealth consists of forest growth and the development of an interest in trees, such as would arise from a botanical garden, like that proposed, would, in time, create a public sentment and opinion upon the subject of the sacredness of our forest growth which would make every citizen a forest ranger and an enemy to the slightest avoidable waste of our growing timber. Citizens imbued with such a spirit would also in their electoral capacity control legislation to the end of protecting our forest growth, and thus conserving, not only much national wealth, but also maintaining climatic conditions contributory to the benefit of agriculture and the comfort of living.

WINTER WHEAT NON EST.

Discouraging Reports from All Quarters.

The fall wheat crop seems to have succumbed pretty abjectly to the extremity of frost and promises to be more of a failure than a success, that is as a general thing—for there are exceptions, and it is remarkable that about the only good fields of wheat are on low ground, and it is remarkable but not unexpected, that fields sheltered on the cold side by the natural forest are showing great growth and promise a big crop. Prominent farmers from nearly every township in the county were seen to-day and the report is given below:

Mr. Paul Costello, of Ennismore, reports the winter wheat as practically worthless. It is a painful sight on driving past fields to see them as brown as the highway—almost destitute of a spray of green.

Mr. J. W. Miller, of Otonabee, says the winter wheat in that township seems hopeless. He is plowing down some of his with the intention of using the ground for some spring crop.

Mr. Wm. Leeson, of Douro, has a similar report. He says the wheat is certainly "sick," but as very sick men have been known to recover, the wheat may pick up with a warm rain and do something yet.

Mr. John Riddell, South Monaghan, reports that the wheat is so bad that many farmers are using the land for spring crops.

Mr. Henry Moncrieff, of Cavan, says the same thing is to be said of the wheat in that township. Much of the wheat area will be sown in spring crops.

Mr. Ed. Elliott, of Smith, has a gloomy report of the winter wheat crop in that township. He sees little chance of its amounting to a crop worth harvesting.

In North Monaghan the situation is somewhat expressed by the fact that Mr. Richard Lillico is plowing down ten acres of wheat.

The only rift in the clouds seems to come from Dummer. Mr. Jos. Crowe, a practical farmer and driver of the Warsaw sagte says the crop in Dummer promises to be a good one —good for Dummer.

The Montreal Presbyterian College is practically cleared, and the Aged and Infirm Ministers' Fund, which had an indebtedness of $3,238 is reduced to $1,815.

AT MISS DELANEY'S.

Charming New Millinery - New Arrivals of Trimmed Hats, Flowers, etc.—More Attractive than Ever.

Spring millinery is here—here with all its glory and beauty! There has just been received at Miss Delaney's Millinery Show Rooms a special shipment of newest styles in trimmed hats, all full of originality and embodying the choice of all new ideas. These patterns have been expressly secured for Miss Delaney's trade and their attractiveness cannot be overestimated.

There is a new charm just now about the whole store. New representations of fine French Flowers have come to hand—the productions of highly skilled artists—being careful studies from nature, counterfeited so perfectly that hardly any of the favourite blooms are missed.

New ribbons and other choice trimmings and headgear spring up to replace the ones you've bought earlier. So many new novelties in fact that it is impossible to particularize. The productions of Miss Delaney's own work rooms are specially interesting. The latest effects are introduced with painstaking exactness and exceptionally good taste.

It is quite evident that the spring millinery of to-day as shown by Miss Delaney, has contributed more lavishly to the beauty and adornment of the ladies and the early displays. The facilities at command for executing orders are as nearly perfect as skill, ingenuity and experience can make them. Come to the store and see for yourself, and you'll find fresh features every visit.

A special sale of Sailor Hats is going on every day. All the favourite kinds and colours are offered at about a half price level—50c Sailors for 25c, being fast sellers.

KETTLE RIVER BILL.

The Measure Abandoned in the House of Commons.

THE TWO BIG RAILWAYS AGREE.

Reported That the Withdrawal of the Bill Is Result of an Understanding Between the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railways—Great Northern in the Negotiations.

Ottawa, April 22.—When the present session opened one of the chief topics of discussion in corridors and committee rooms was the probability of the Kettle River Railway bill being carried. Last year, it will be remembered, the measure was defeated in the House of Commons, but it was anticipated that the added strength which the endorsement and active interest of Mr. J. J. Hill, the president of the Great Northern Railway, would give the cause of the supporters of the measure would bring it triumphantly through Parliament. Last night it was announced that the measure for the incorporation of the line, which was advanced by Mr. Hewitt Bostock, M.P., will be withdrawn, and that the arrangement is a result of an understanding participated in by the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific Railway Companies and Messrs. Hill and D. C. Corbin, in whose interest the measure of last year was introduced. Assistant General Manager Wainwright of the Grand Trunk Railway, who was in the city yesterday afternoon, stated that he was certain that the rumor of the withdrawal of the bill was well founded. It is learned from other sources that the measure will not be proceeded with. At the recent annual meeting of the Grand Trunk Railway stockholders in London, England, General Manager Hays, in addressing the gathering, intimated that there existed most amicable relations between the managements of the two great Canadian companies, and there was no prospect of there ever being another rate war, such as existed last year. Mr. Hays meant more than this when he referred to the understanding between the two lines, and there is every reason for believing that even at that time it was settled that the Kettle River bill was to be abandoned, but that for other reasons it was not considered advisable to make any announcement to that effect at the time. Up to yesterday members have been interviewed both for and against the measure, but last night most of the western members were aware that the measure will not be proceeded with. Mr. Hewitt Bostock, M.P., said that the bill will be withdrawn.

Railway Committee Grants Running Powers Over Crow's Nest Past Line.

Ottawa, April 22.—The railway committee yesterday morning granted the application of the Bedlington & Nelson Railway Company for running powers over 8¼ miles of the Crow's Nest Pass line of the C.P.R. The making of an order for terms was postponed for one month, unless the parties can agree upon them in the meantime. This is the first exercise by the committee of the powers given them to grant running powers over this line.

NEWS IN BRIEF SPACE.

Mrs. Laing, wife of Rev. J. R. Laing, Presbyterian minister, Wolfe Island, dropped dead Thursday night. Heart failure was attributed as the cause.

While crossing the Kaministiqua River, near Mission Bend, Fort William, yesterday, Harry La Riviere was carried away by the current and drowned.

Friday morning a carpenter named James Ridden fell off a Kingston scaffold across a pile of lumber. Two ribs were broken and he was internally hurt.

The Minister of Justice on Friday liberated Dr. Mackay of Lapineauville, who was doing a three years' sentence for indecent assault. He has served four months of his term. The assigned reason for pardon is ill-health.

The general impression at London, Eng., from Hon. William Mulock's proposed Pacific cable resolution, is that the Imperial Government has guaranteed its proportion of the expenditure. The Pall Mall Gazette says that the resolution is a decided step forward.

New grain regulations will go into effect on the Grand Trunk and C.P.R. the first of next month at Montreal. The inland rate to either railway on oats will be 10 cents per 100 pounds or over; heavy grain, 2.59 cents; corn, 2.76 cents, and barley, 3.17 cents. These rates are free of the inspection fee, and include 20 days free storage.

Mr. William Wright of Bradford interviewed District Freight Agent Arthur White of the Grand Trunk on Friday in regard to the proposal to lower the level of Lake Superior, which he claims would greatly facilitate the freight business of the railway. Mr. Wright and a deputation of reeves of the various townships around the lake will wait on the Government at Ottawa next Tuesday and urge their claims.

Suicide of a Hamilton Man.

Hamilton, April 22.—Chief of Police Smith was advised yesterday by Chief Dampier of Valdosta, Ga., that a Hamilton man, named Robert J. Miller, suicided in the jail there last Monday. Miller, who suffered from hallucinations, thought he was being chased by a mob and cut his throat with a piece of glass. Inquiries were made by the detectives, who found that deceased has a brother employed as a cigarmaker at Blumenstell's factory. Deceased learned his trade as a plumber with the late Mr. Farmer, James street north.

To Test Marconi's System.

Chicago, April 22.—To-day what is regarded as a supreme test of the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy will be made in this city, under the auspices of The Tribune. The advocates of the system have never tried it where large masses of steel are present to exert an influence upon the electric current, and if the signals can be made to pass over the high buildings in large cities it will be a success. The first attempt will be made from the top of the Masonic Temple to the Auditorium, a distance of one-third of a mile. If this is successful, trials will be made between the Temple and one of the water cribs in the lake.

TO VISIT NEW ONTARIO.

Arrangements Completed for the Proposed Trip North of Members of the Legislature.

The New Ontario delegation has practically completed arrangements for the visit of the members of the Ontario Legislature to the principal towns and leading mining centres of the north and west. It is expected that 65 representatives will take in the trip, including several members of the Government and the leader of the Opposition. A start will probably be made on June 27, and the New Ontario part of the excursion will conclude at Rat Portage on July 10. The visitors will then be invited to make a trip to Winnipeg, where the Manitoba Industrial will then be in full swing. The New Ontario excursion is being so arranged as to provide for visits to Sault. Ste. Marie, Port Arthur, Fort William, Sudbury, Gun Flint Lake, Kakabeka Falls, Nipegon River, Bonheur, the Pioneer Farm at Dryden, Wabigoon, Keewaten and the Rainy River Valley. Mr. W. A. Charlton will, it is stated, head the canoe trip through the Seine River country from Bonheur. An invitation will be given to ten of the leading papers of Ontario to send representatives to accompany the party.

CHEAPER THAN SLAVE LABOUR

Toronto Sun.

In Toronto some big employers of male and female labour pay such paltry wages that it is questionable if they could raise, educate, clothe, feed, house, nurse in sickness and bury after death slaves, and get from them the same service at as little cost as they now get from free men and women. They would be answerable for the lives of slaves. Self-interest would make them careful of the health of slaves. As matters stand now they are not answerable for the lives or the health of those who serve them, and the employee who contracts a gnawing disease is turned from the door to die when and where he must.

The doctor looked wise and said it was "nervous indigestion."
But he didn't cure it.
So Mr. Thos. G. Lever, of Lever, S. C., wrote to Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y.
And now Mr. Lever is well.

Dr. R. V. Pierce is and for thirty years has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo. During this time he has probably treated more cases of chronic, or lingering, diseases than any other physician in the world.

Invalids from all over the world write to him and receive advice free of charge. During the early years of his practice Dr. Pierce compounded his "Golden Medical Discovery" which he has used ever since in treating all affections of the lungs and bronchial tubes; for purifying the blood; for toning up the nerves and whenever an honest reliable non-alcoholic tonic was needed. In connection with it, he prescribes what other special medicine may be required in exceptional cases and gives directions as to diet and hygiene.

The result is health.

Mr. Lever writes:

"I was afflicted with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. Took medicine from my family physician to no avail. I thought myself incurable as I suffered so much with pain under my ribs and an empty feeling in my stomach. I was getting very nervous and suffered a great deal mentally, thinking that death would soon claim me. I was irritable and impatient and greatly reduced in flesh. I could scarcely eat anything that would not produce a bad feeling in my stomach. I wrote Dr. Pierce. He prescribed his 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' and gave me some simple hygienic rules. I am well again. I believe the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pellets' will cure any case of indigestion, torpid liver, or chronic cold."

Insist upon having "Golden Medical Discovery" for nothing else is "just as good."

THE BRITISH AT APIA

Arrested the German Captain, Commander of the Falke.

DETAILS OF THE UGLY STORY.

He Is Charged With Having Furnished Arms to the Rebels Under Mataafa, Thus Breaking the Act — The Strange and Almost Incredible Story Brought by the Aorangi—Cable News.

Victoria, April 21.—The Aorangi arrived here yesterday morning from the Antipodes and has news of the arrest of the commander of the German warship Falke at Apia by the British for supplying arms to Mataafa. According to Huava papers on the Aorangi, the commander of the German warship was arrested by the British at Apia and taken on board H.M.S. Porpoise.

The news reached Huava by interisland steamer Upolu. He is charged with furnishing arms to the rebels under Mataafa.

The Malietoa and Mataafa forces are still engaged in bush fighting and business is at a standstill.

Since the arrest of the commander of the Falke no one is allowed to leave the ship without the permission of the British and Americans. The rebels show no disposition to surrender, and the representatives of the three powers are anxiously awaiting instructions.

SPAIN LEAVING THE PHILIPPINES.

The Evacuation Will Be Complete in a Few Days Now.

Manila, April 21.—Spain's evacuation of the Philippine Islands will be practically completed by the withdrawal of the Spanish garrison from Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, and from the Sulu Islands, and if the United States assumes control of Mindanao and the Sulu Islands as the Spaniards withdrawing, the military authorities here must, in order to garrison those islands, diminish the forces of the American troops, which are already too small. There was almost a mutiny among the Spanish troops in the islands because they were ordered to proceed to the Marianna Islands, or Ladrone Islands, and the Caroline Islands, some of them refusing to do so, claiming that their enlistments had expired. The latter were exempted and were allowed to return to Spain on board the transport Alava.

A tripartite exchange of prisoners will be arranged if it is possible to negotiate with the Filipinos as if they were a civilised nation. If the Filipinos consent to release the Spanish prisoners, the Americans might release the Tagalos they hold prisoners, in return for which Spain would free her political prisoners. The provisions of the Paris treaty would thus be carried out. The Spanish commission, however, hesitates to enter the Filipino lines, fearing treachery, although Aguinaldo has guaranteed the safety of the commissioners.

The release of the Filipinos held by the Americans might be distinctly advantageous, as they all claim to have been converted to the American cause by the good treatment they have received, and announce themselves to be anxious to influence their friends in favor of the policy of the United States.

A scouting party of the Minnesota Regiment, near Guiguinto, between Malolos and Bigas, met a superior force of Filipinos yesterday morning. The Americans repulsed the enemy's attack until, just as their ammunition was failing, the Minnesotas were reinforced by two companies of American troops and the rebels were scattered. One soldier of the Minnesota Regiment was wounded.

A body of about 100 rebels tried to break through the lines of Price's battalion of the 4th Regiment at Pasig last night, but they were repulsed without any loss on the American side.

The U. S. Philippine Standing Army.

New York, April 21.—A special to The Tribune from Washington says: Fourteen thousand regulars are to be sent to reinforce General Otis at Manila as soon as the necessary marine transportation can be provided.

It is announced that the army in the Philippines will be increased to 35,000 men, whether the rebels abandon the field or not.

Off to the Philippines.

Buffalo, N.Y., April 21.—Close on to a thousand men of the 18th Infantry (regulars), who have been stationed at Fort Niagara and at Fort Porter in this city since their return from Cuba, left last night for San Francisco en route to the Philippine Islands. They were escorted to the station by the local volunteer regiments and there were tremendous crowds on the streets to cheer them.

JAMES M. MACLEAN FLOPPED.

An Imperial Commoner Leaves the Conservatives.

London, April 21.—There was a curious scene at question time in the House of Commons yesterday. Mr. James M. MacLean, Conservative, who was editor and proprietor of The Bombay Gazette, chairman of the Bombay Town Council and president of the Institute of Journalists, and who is the author of several books on India, and is bitterly antagonistic to the India countervailing duties on sugar, commenced questioning the Secretary of State for India, Lord George Hamilton, in an irritating manner, for which he was frequently called to order by the Ministerialists, and by the Speaker. Finally, turning angrily to the Ministerial benches, Mr. MacLean shouted: "If the Unionists do not want me I can join the Opposition." Suiting the action to the words, Mr. MacLean crossed over to the Opposition benches, where he was greeted with a storm of Liberal applause, and ironical Ministerial laughter. The angry member finally left the House.

Lady Margaret Primrose Married.

London, April 21.—Large crowds of people gathered within the precincts of Westminster Abbey yesterday in order to witness the marriage of Lady Margaret Primrose, youngest daughter of the Earl of Rosebury, to the Earl of Crewe. Among those present in the Abbey were 600 invited guests, all wearing wedding favors of marguerites and primroses, representing the bride's name. The Earl of Rosebury gave his daughter away and the best man was the Earl of Chesterfield. Dr. Littler and the Dean of Westminster had charge of the ceremony. The honeymoon will be spent at Welbeck Abbey, the seat of the Duke of Portland, which has been tendered to the bride and bridegroom for the occasion. The Prince of Wales was among the guests.

THE GEORGIAN BAY CANAL.

British Syndicate With £500,000 Capital Will Build It.

Montreal, April 21.—A Star special cable from London says: The Dominion Syndicate, Limited, has been formed here, with a capital of £500,000, to build the Georgian Bay Canal within three years and develop the electrical, mineral, pulp and other industries along the route. Sir Edward Thornton, ex-British Minister to the United States, is chairman; Mr. McIvor of the Cunard Line and Mr. Jones of the Elder-Dempster Line are also members of the syndicate. Sir Benjamin Baker is consulting engineer, while Lord Kelvin has accepted the post of consulting electrical engineer. The solicitors are Sir Henry Fowler, ex-Secretary of State for India, and Mr. Perks, M.P.

Right Hon. Mr. Chamberlain has been approached by members of the House of Commons with a view to securing an Imperial subsidy. Lord Aberdeen urged the Imperial importance of the scheme at last night's dinner of the Royal Colonial Institute.

"MEN OF THE NORTHERN ZONE."

Uncle Sam Thinks He Could Fix John Bull if We Had No Say in Negotiations.

Washington, April 22.—An unexpected delay has occurred in the negotiations towards an Alaskan modus vivendi which makes the future of the modus quite problematical. Extended conferences on the subject were held yesterday, the result being far from encouraging. The principal difficulty arises from dealing with Ottawa as well as London, this dual negotiation causing great delay and complication. At the outset the United States proposed a modus with a temporary line along certain peaks. The British ambassador forwarded this to London and to Ottawa. The Canadian officials have now proposed changes in the line, and after considerable delay the authorities in London approve the changes proposed by Canada. It is not stated what the respective lines are, but they are sufficiently apart to make it quite unlikely that any immediate agreement can be reached, even of a temporary nature, as to the boundary.

Apt Quotations.

Proverbs, axioms and wise sayings have been uttered by Confucius and other wise men from time immemorial, but few people realize how many there are of them. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, have over two thousand and they have originated the ingenious plan of serving them up in delectable shape in thousands of newspapers with each one neatly turning a point as to the merit of their well known medicine. The extensive use of these proverbs is original and creditable to Hood & Co.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:
Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

RAILROAD.... KIDNEY

A Disease Peculiar to Railroad Men, which is readily Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The first and most marked symptom is a weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

THE FROGGING INDUSTRY.

It Has Rapidly Declined Lately Owing to there Being no Close Season for the Amphibians.

For many years until recently the industry of frog catching has been assiduously pursued along the Otonabee and its tributary creeks and marshes, the larger portion of the catch being exported to the American market.

Owing to the number that were shipped away and the fact that the frogs were protected by no close season, the marshes and river became depleted in time, and at present there are but few of the amphibians left in the Otonabee of any commercial value.

Mr. J. W. Wedlock, of South Monaghan, who has been the largest shipper from this district, recently made application to the Ontario Government in regard to establishing a close season for frogs, asking as well that a certain portion of the river be reserved for their propagation. An arrangement was then entered into between the Ontario Commisioner of Fisheries and Mr. Wedlock, whereby the latter has been granted for ten years the use of ten miles of the river from Rice Lake north to enable him to endeavour to rehabilitate this erstwhile flourishing industry and propagate frogs for the restocking of these waters. To accomplish this Mr. Wedlock, who was in town and was interviewed by a reporter of the Examiner, says that he is about to place in the river, this year, a large quantity of spawn and frogs and he expects in the course of five or six years to have established an industry that will be of considerable commercial value.

Frogs are looked upon in the large American centres as a rare delicacy and by the preserving of certain streams and marshes in the province and the establishment of a close season, Mr. Wedlock says that an an industry can be restored which is rapidly becoming destroyed. Mr. Wedlock further says that some few years ago frogs were shipped out by the carload whilst at the present time the species is almost extinct, an occasional barrel being the most that can be procured and unless something is done in the way of protection, it will not be long before the frogs are entirely exterminated.

Mr. Wedlock thinks that the Legislature should make an amendment to the Game and Fishing Laws, whereby a close season will be established for the frogs similar to that protecting the fish and he will be borne out in his contention by those who have given their attention to the business. Under the present conditions, the frogs are caught, by torchlight, on their spawning beds and the slaughter has been such that, as stated, the industry has been killed. The preserving of certain streams and the protection of the frogs by the institution of a close season is the only apparent remedy for the state of affairs as now existing.

In connection with the preserving of the Otonabee for a term of years it must be remembered that it will take at least six years to restock the stream. Mr. Wedlock states two years will be required to procure the live frogs which are to be used for propagating purposes. The following year the spawn develops into pollywogs, the fourth year sees the pollywogs grow into croakers and in the fifth the frog is half grown. In another year the amphibian attains maturity and is fit for the market. It will thus be seen that it will take at least six years to restock the Otonabee and restore the commercial value to an industry which has been ruined through the fact that no adequate means have been taken to foster and protect that for which there is such a demand across the border.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which has caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved, —that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Jas. Lynch, Druggist. Guaranteed.

PEPSIN IN PINEAPPLE.

Instead of Animal Pepsin, the wholesome Fruit Pepsin of the Pineapple is the Effective Principle of Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets.

The vital juice of the ripe pineapple yields the wonderful remedy, which corrects indigestion and cures dyspeptic disorders of every kind. The action of the fruit-pepsin in Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets is wholesome, natural and delightfully prompt, and the tablets are delicious to the taste. Sixty in a box, and only 35 cents a box, at H. S. McDonald's and Ormond & Walsh's drug stores.

CHAPTER II.

1. Behold the rugged beauty of the ripe pineapple!
2. Its rough, horny husk holds the pulpy reservoir of a wondrous balm for dyspeptics.
3. From the rich juices of the fruit the fruit-pepsin is extracted—
4. And this precious extract is the vital principle in Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets, which cure dyspepsia and indigestion in every form.
5. In boxes of vest-pocket size, each box containing sixty tablets, this boon to dyspeptics may be had at all druggists for 35 cents.
6. How quickly the dyspeptic system responds to the right cure!
7. The first tablet encourages you to eat what you like and corrects heartburn, sour stomach and all the distressing disorders of indigestion.
8. And quite frequently permanent cures are effected with the sixty tablets in a single box, which all druggists sell for 35 cents.

A HORSESHOE TRENCH

Cost the Americans Fifty Men to Successfully Storm.

FILIPINOS KILL 7, WOUNDED 44.

The Gallant Colonel John M. Stotsenberg of the First Nebraska Regiment Falls to an Insurgent Bullet — Lieut. Sisson Also Shot — Filipinos Made a Stubborn Fight Before Retreating.

Manila, April 24.—In an encounter with the Filipinos yesterday, near Quengua, about four miles northeast of Malolos, seven Americans were killed and 44 wounded. The following were killed:

Col. John M. Stotsenberg of the First Nebraska Regiment, formerly of the Sixth Cavalry.

Lieut. Sisson of the same regiment.

Two privates of the Nebraska Regiment.

Three privates of the Fourth Cavalry.

Most of the wounded belonged to the First Nebraska Regiment.

The Filipinos retreated with small loss.

Disastrous Fight.

The engagement developed into a disastrous, though successful, fight. The insurgents had a horseshoe trench, about a mile long, encircling a rice field, on the edge of a wood. Capt. Bell, with 40 cavalrymen, encountered a strong outpost. One of his men was killed and five were wounded by a volley. The Americans retired, carrying their wounded under fire and with great difficulty, being closely pursued, the fog enabling the enemy to creep up to them. Two men, who were carrying a comrade, were shot in the arms, but they continued with their burden. Capt. Bell sent for reinforcements to rescue the bodies of the killed cavalrymen, and a battalion of the Nebraska Regiment, under Major Mufford, arrived and advanced until checked by volleys from the enemy's trenches. The Americans lay about 800 yards from the trenches, behind rice furrows, under fire, for two hours.

Several men were sunstruck, one dying from the effects of the heat, as they lay there waiting for artillery to come up.

Stetsenberg Led the Charge.

Finally the Second Battalion arrived, and then Col. Stetsenberg, who had spent the night with his family at Manila, came upon the field. The men immediately recognized him and raised a cheer. Col. Stetsenberg, deciding to charge as the cheapest way out of the difficulty, led the attack at the head of his regiment. He fell with a bullet in his breast, dying instantly, about 200 yards from the breastworks.

Lieut. Sisson fell with a bullet in his heart, the bullet striking him near the picture of a girl suspended by a ribbon from his neck. In the meantime the artillery had arrived and shelled the trenches.

The Filipinos Stood.

The Filipinos stood until the Nebraska troops were right on the trenches, and then they bolted to the second line of entrenchments, a mile back. The Nebraska Regiment lost two privates killed and had many wounded, including two lieutenants.

The Iowa Regiment had several wounded.

The Utah Regiment had one officer and three men wounded.

Thirteen dead Filipinos were found in the trench. Their loss was comparatively small, on account of their safe shelter. The Americans carried the second trench with small loss, and are now holding the town.

SPANISH OFFICERS REPELLED.

Wanted to Exchange Prisoners, But Insurgents Turned Them Back.

Manila, April 24.—Col. Romio and Major Lassoras, the Spanish commissioners, with their secretaries, attempted to enter the rebel lines on Saturday to confer with Aguinaldo regarding an exchange of prisoners, but failed in their mission. The party, the members of which were attired in full uniform, drove to the American camp and lunched with General McArthur. They then proceeded in a carriage, under a flag of truce, toward Calumpit, but were stopped by the rebel outposts on the road, who assumed a menacing attitude and refused to parley with the commissioners. The latter were compelled to return, and took the evening train for Manila. The rebels before Calumpit have recently been reinforced by bodies of men from Pampanga Province, and are now well entrenched in the strongest position on what is practically an island formed by a tributary to the Rio Grande.

BRITISH BACK AMERICANS.

London Papers on the Chances of the Philippine Expansion Movement.

London, April 24.—The news from the Philippine Islands of the retirement of General Lawton from the Santa Cruz district and the capture of the boat's crew of the United States gunboat Yorktown has made a considerable impression here, and the comments of the press all reflect anxiety lest the unfavorable news have a discouraging effect upon America's expansion movements.

Prominence is given to despatches from America apparently indicating a cooling of public opinion regarding the Philippine Islands, and the general tenor of the British press deprecates this seeming tendency to gloominess, pointing out that upon innumerable occasions British arms have met with a check, only to eventually conquer all obstacles. "We were discouraged after Bandula," remarks one paper, "but we are beyond the Zambesi all the same."

Discussing Gen. Lawton's retirament, The Speaker says: "The movement appears, on reflection, so natural that any other course, we argue, would be criminal folly."

The Spectator praises the United States Government's "wise policy in sending regulars to the Philippines and telling the party volunteers that they may go as fast as they like." Continuing, The Spectator says: "Checks there (in the Philippines) only mean loss of time, and the Americans, like us, must have their grumble."

The Economist expresses itself in a similar strain and pooh-poohs the idea that "the Americans admit they are incompetent to perform a task which, compared with India, is very small," adding: "The Americans are not the people to yield while they are openly defied. They are too vain as well as too resolute."

THE SAMOAN EMBROGLIO.

Prominent German Resident at Samoa Says the British Acted With Excess — Hufnagel's Arrest.

Berlin, April 24.—The Lokal Anseiger on Saturday published two letters from Samoa, dated March 28. One of them is from its special correspondent at Apia, Herr von Wolffersdorff, and the other from Herr Marquardt, a prominent German resident of Apia, who, under Tamasese, was military instructor, and lately, under Mataafa and the provisional Government, was justice of the peace until he resigned on the departure of Dr. Raffel, the German president of the municipal government of Apia.

From Herr Marquardt's letter it seems that it was he, and not Herr Hufnagel, who was arrested by Captain Sturdee, commander of the British warship Porpoise, as bearing arms against the British sailors. He says he was taken on board the Porpoise, where he claims he was grossly insulted by Captain Sturdee, and that after 14 hours' captivity, during which no proof against him was advanced, he was transferred to the German warship Falke, but with the condition that he was not to leave her. Herr Hufnagel asserts that his property was stolen and destroyed by Tanu's hosts, and that millions of other German property were likely destroyed. The writer then asks who will pay the damages.

Herr von Wolffersdorff asserts that British Consul Maxse and Captain Sturdee are both guilty of the grossest conduct in exceeding their treaty powers. He claims they treated the Germans like captives and continued an almost incessant shelling of German houses under various pretexts. He adds that the most intense indignation prevailed among the Samoan Germans against the British excesses. Otherwise, Herr von Wolffersdorff's reports agree with the German official reports.

Where Is Lady Scott?

London, April 24.—The family of Sir Samuel Edward Scott, Conservative member of Parliament for West Marylebone, is in a state of great consternation over the disappearance of Lady Scott, who was Lady Sophie Beatrice Mary Cadogan, daughter of the Earl of Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. The Daily Mail says Her Ladyship drove out shopping on the 17th, dismissed her coachman in Bond street, and has not been seen since. Lady Sophie Cadogan, who is in her 35th year, married Sir Samuel Scott, now in his 39th year, in 1896. Their town house is at 7 Grosvenor square.

A NEGRO MUTILATED

And Then Burned at the Stake by a Frenzied Georgia Mob.

VAIN WERE EXPOSTULATIONS.

Sam Hose's Awful Fate—A Half Hour's Suffering That Is Horrible to Contemplate — Ears and Fingers Cut Off and Then the Torch —The State's Honor Tarnished.

Newton, Ga., April 24.—Sam Hose, who murdered Alfred Cranford and assaulted his wife, was burned at the stake two miles from here at 2.30 yesterday afternoon in the presence of 2,000 people.

In the Hands of the Mob.

Hose was taken from jail by a mob, and although Governor Atkinson and Judge Freeman pleaded for the negro's life and his return to jail, promising speedy trial and swift justice, they would not wait, but cried, "On to Palmetto!" "Burn him!" The march was resumed and the McElroy home was reached, and Mrs. McElroy and her daughter identified the man. They wanted to burn him in their yard, but Mrs. McElroy's frantic pleadings against such a course were heeded, and the march to Palmetto was resumed.

A mile and a half from Newman the mob placed the negro's back to a tree and allowed him to speak for the first time. He said:

Confessed His Crime.

"I am Sam Hose. I killed Alfred Cranford, but was paid to do it. Lige Strickland, the negro preacher at Palmetto, gave me $12 to kill him. I did not assault Mrs. Cranford. Somebody else did that. I can identify them. Give me time for that."

Outlandish Cruelty.

The mob would hear no more. The clothes were torn from the terrified negro in a moment, and a heavy chain was produced and wrapped around his body. Then his ears were cut off, his fingers one by one followed, and shriek after shriek testified that other portions of his anatomy had been detached. He was literally covered with blood when a can of coal oil was obtained and poured over his head. Brush, pieces of fence and firewood were then placed around him. These were saturated with oil. Then the pyre was kindled. When his agony became supreme he burst asunder the chain, but it was quickly coupled and he was thrust back into the fire. In half an hour from the first mutilation Hose was dead, after suffering excruciating pain.

The Negro Preacher Caught.

Palmetto, Ga., April 24. — Elijah Strickland, who was accused by Sam Hose, the negro burned to death at Newman, of paying Hose $12 to murder Alfred Cranford, was captured last night. His capturers instituted a trial and sat in judgment themselves. It was still in progress early this morning.

ONTARIO OIL FIELDS GROWING.

New Wells in Lambton, Kent and Essex—Better Refining Process.

Ottawa, April 24.—F. A. Fitzgerald, president of the Petrolea Oil Company, who is here, says the oil fields are growing. New wells are being sunk in the Counties of Lambton, Kent and Essex, many of which give promise of a strong flow. At present six and seven carloads are being shipped from some of these wells each week, and the flow is steadily increasing. These wells have been in places sunk to a depth of 475 feet. One reason Mr. Fitzgerald advances for their permanency is the fact that they are situated at a distance of 30 miles or more from the old fields, and hence represent new territory. In his opinion, the greater part of western Ontario should pay in the oil-producing line. The extent of sulphur in Canadian burning oils has always been a drawback, and the absence of it in the American oils gives the latter a higher standing. To overcome this difficulty the Petrolea company are erecting at Sarnia, at a cost of $700,000, a plant to enable more thorough purification of the Canadian petroleum.

TWELVE MEN DROWNED.

Fifteen Others Are Adrift in a Boat Off the Florida Coast.

Oak Hill, Fla., April 24.—The steamer General Whitney, Capt. Hawthorne, sank 50 miles east of Cape Canaveral on Saturday. One boatload of 16 men, attempting to land at Mosquito Lagoon House of Refuge, was upset and 12 men, including the captain, were drowned. The chief engineer, assistant engineer, fireman and one sailor were saved. The captain's body has been recovered. Fifteen men in another boat were still unheard from.

Election Frauds Charged.

Brockville, April 24.—On Saturday warrants were issued here by two citizens, one against a Conservative and the other against a Liberal. The one against the former was sworn to by E. Howison, the latter by J. T. Stelliker. The information against the Conservative states that on polling day he returned to the deputy returning officer a paper, not the ballot given him by the deputy. The latter, who is a Liberal, refused the ballot before the scrutineer detected the difference. In the second instance the Liberal is charged with giving a ballot already marked to a voter. One of the accused parties was at once bailed out, and the other will likely be before many hours.

Selling Out to Britishers.

Managua, Nicaragua, April 24.—The Government is negotiating the sale of all its railroads and steamboat lines, with their workshops, to Mr. C. E. Nicoll, the British consul here. The proposed transfer carries with it the privilege of extending the railroad to Rivas and also of connecting Managua with La Paz. The consideration is stated to be $6,500,000 silver.

"A Cheerful Look Makes a Dish a Feast."

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalising elements do not reach the proper spot.

A step in the right direction is to purify the body by the use of a natural remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is Nature's remedy. It acts upon the blood, and whether the seat of the disorder is brain, stomach, liver or kidneys, the purifying process of this medicine is equally sure and successful. It never disappoints.

Great Builder—"Have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, constipation and finds it builds up the whole system and gives relief in cases of catarrh." WILLIAM B. WELDON, Moncton, N. B.

Sour Stomach—"My system was out of order. I suffered from headache and sour stomach. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my health improved and I gained 18 pounds." MAXWELL D. SHANGRAW, Colebrooke, Ont.

Bad Cough—"My sister was troubled with a cough which caused pain in her left side. She was confined to her bed. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few weeks she was able to sit up in bed, her appetite improved and the cough and accompanying pain disappeared." LILY WALKER, 24 Cottingen Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dyspepsia—"My husband suffered with dyspepsia. Physicians did not benefit him. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him. My husband's father and our little boy have been wonderfully benefited by this medicine." MRS. O. F. CHAMBERLAIN, Glen Sutton, Que.

Run Down—"My system was run down. I could not sleep nights and my appetite was poor. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored an appetite and strength and has made me feel like a new woman." MRS. S. E. DRYDEN, Amherst, N. S.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

If it was only realized by those who are trying to grow fruit trees and even grain, how important it is to have plenty of birds around, there would be an effort put forth to protect what we have and make provision for the encouragement of more. As our feathered guardians are disappearing by being ruthlessly killed or driven to other places for want of shelter, so do insect desperadoes increase, and now it is a question of a battle for life between man and insect. Our buds must be protected, the balance between the different departments of nature are so finely adjusted that the distribution of the balance is a serious thing. The loss to the orchardist and grain grower in Ontario is greater every year many times over than the amount it takes to maintain the government of the province, and largely due to the loss of birds. The man or boy out for the day with a shot gun or rifle and bound to have something to show at night costs the country anywhere from $100 to $1000 per day by removing members of nature's police. It is not realized as it should be that a want of healthy leaf life this year means sickly buds and poor growth next year. What birds should be saved? All kinds, from crow to phoebe.

MADAME WALLACE.

Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realize the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles.

Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 338 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

Farmers are beginning to plow.

There is little or no sickness at present and the doctors are grumbling.

Thos. H. Hamilton, representing McCall Bros., Toronto, was in town on Saturday and did a good share of business.

A large number attended the funeral of the late Stanley Bradd. The deceased was quite a favourite here amongst his school and play mates and was an exceptionally clever boy.

The Commercial House is still doing a very large and orderly business and the proprietor, J. Graham, is well pleased and hopes to have the pleasure of catering to many of his Peterborough bicyclist friends during the summer.

Prof. Orr is shortly to give an exhibition of spraying on Joseph Sandy's farm, 2 miles west of this village. His lecture proved most interesting to those farmers who had the good fortune to hear it.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim," no one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store.

LIVE STOCK NOTES.

The Toronto Evening News of April 21st spoke of their being a famine in Ontario of beef cattle in its news columns and in the Toronto market reported a heavy run of fat cattle and a very slow demand.

Mr. H. P. Kennedy was on the Toronto markets on Friday and reports one of the worst markets of the season. He, together with several other shippers from Bowmanville, Ridgetown and other places, shipped their cattle home, claiming that the prices paid for them in the country far exceeded the offers they received for them by the Toronto buyers.

On the other hand the demand for stockers was brisk at firm prices, and the prices paid to farmers for this class of stock is a paying one to them, and as long as our export markets are being overcrowded we should not discourage the shipping of young stock.

Should the American stocker trade be blocked it would be a very short time before our Ontario farmers would go out of the cattle business, as our home markets would be overcrowded.

Saturday Mr. Kennedy loaded about 300 head of yearling calves for the Western markets, and reports that the prospects for this season are, if anything, brighter than last year, but the farmers should be very careful in the breeding of this stock, as there is a difference of from $5 to $8 per head in the price of well bred Durham steer calves and that of such breeds as Jersey and Holsteins.

Backing Up Our Statements

LeBRUN & CO. PREPARED TO DELIVER THE GOODS

Bought at the Gigantic Clothing Sale of Doull & Gibson, Montreal.

The main thing in advertising is to back up your statements. H. LeBRUN & CO. have always been particularly careful to "Prove all things, and hold fast that which is good."

We announced some days ago our lucky purchases of Piles upon Piles of New Spring Suits, Light Overcoats, Waterproofs, Tweeds, Linings, Neckwear and Gent's Furnishings, personally picked from the choicest lines offered at the Great Retiring Sale of Messrs. Doull & Gibson, of Montreal at the lowest drop of the auctioneer's hammer. The goods commenced to arrive last Wednesday, and are now all opened out—stacked up in piles on tables and counters—ready for inspection.

All we ask is for you to come and see for yourself—come and take a look at these great purchases, inspect the Qualities and Prices—and take home with you a share of the Good Luck of the Lucky Horse Shoe—THE BEST BARGAINS EVER BROUGHT TO PETERBOROUGH.

If you don't happen to see the boss when you come in, or any of the clerks, just look behind the enormous piles of Clothing that hides the view. Get within good range of the goods and you'll be ready to surrender to the big battery of temptations fired at you. Here is a small sample of them:—

IS THIS YOUR STORY?

"Every morning I have a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I often feel dizzy. I have no appetite for breakfast and what food I eat distresses me. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach. I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble and my nerves are all unstrung. I am getting pale and thin. I am as tired in the morning as at night."

What does your docter say?

"You are suffering from impure blood."

What is his remedy?

Two men were killed and two of the cars completely wrecked. Two tanks containing oil were broken open also, and the contents lost. There were 15 tramps on the oil tank at the time of the accident, and all but two escaped.

James Groundwater, an old man living in Toronto, aged 70 years, deliberately committed suicide Saturday by swallowing the contents of a small bottle of strychnine. He died in great agony ten minutes after he swallowed the poison, although a physician used a stomach pump. Groundwater took the poison in a cup of tea while partaking of his mid-day meal in bed. He evidently put the poison in the tea and swallowed it.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"it soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep sound—something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So can every one who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY TESTED.

Results of the Test in Various Forms of Dyspepsia.

Chronic indigestion or dyspepsia, while a very common trouble, has for some time been looked upon by able physicians as a very serious thing, and that no time should be lost in treating it properly at the start, because recent researches have shown that the most serious, fatal and incurable diseases have their origin in simple dyspepsia or indigestion.

Diabetes is simply one form of indigestion, the sugar and starchy food not being assimilated by the digestive organs. In bright's disease the albumen is not properly assimilated.

While consumption and dyspepsia are twin diseases, and it is beyond question that dyspepsia makes a fertile soil for the seeds of consumption.

But the trouble has been to find a remedy that could be depended on to cure dyspepsia, as it is notoriously obstinate and difficult to cure.

This has been the question which has puzzled physicians and dyspeptics alike, until the question was solved three years ago by the appearance of the new dyspeptic cure in the medical world known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which it was claimed was a certain reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.

Physicians, however, would not accept such statements without first giving the new remedy many tests and carefully observing results.

For three years the remedy has been thoroughly tested in every section of the country and with surprising and satisfactory results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can honestly be claimed to be a specific, a radical lasting cure for indigestion in the various forms of acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, gas or wind on the stomach, too much bile, undue fullness or depressure after eating and similar symptoms resulting from disordered indigestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were not placed before the public until this three years' trial left no doubt as to their value, and they have recently been placed in the trade and can be found at all druggists at the nominal price of 50 cents per package.

No false claims are made for the remedy. It will not cure rheumatism, pneumonia, typhoid fever nor anything but just what it is claimed to cure, and that is every form of stomach trouble.

No dieting is necessary, good wholesome food and plenty of it, and you may rest assured that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest it.

Druggists claim for it that it is a pleasure to recommend it to dyspeptics, because it gives such universal satisfaction.

EXPORTS AND IMPORTS.

Figures Show a Decrease in Former and an Increase in Latter in Past Nine Months.

Ottawa, April 24.—The trade returns for the nine months ending March 31 show an increase in the aggregate trade of the Dominion, as compared with nine months in 1898, of $12,165,970. The total trade was $235,662,858, as against $223,497,088. The exports were $122,873,347, compared with $127,341,202 for 1898, a decrease of $4,468,855. The imports were $112,790,006, as against $96,155,881, an increase of $16,634,125. The duty collected was $18,751,708, compared with $16,585,938 for the nine months in 1898, an increase of $2,165,770.

Do You Mean It?

Do you really want to be rid of your rheumatism or are you only growling from habit? The straight way to be rid of rheumatism is to take Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure. Mr. Thomas Simmons, of Chaffey's Locks, Ont., Steamboat Engineer, suffered with Sciatic Rheumatism for two years. Four bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. This preparation is taken internally. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

To Hasten City Ownership.

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—Governor Pingree and the other members of the Detroit Street Railway commission, have definitely decided to hasten the test of the McLeod law under which they are negotiating for the purchase of the street railways by the city, without waiting for the action of opposing attorneys, who, the Governor alleges, are working for delay.

The commission has obtained consent of the Attorney-General to bring quo warranto proceedings in the State Supreme Court to determine all doubtful questions.

Mrs. Sifton a Stonemason.

Ottawa, April 24.—Mrs. Clifford Sifton leaves on May 1 for Brandon, Man., where she will lay the cornerstone of the Methodist Church in that city on May 5. She will be accompanied on her journey by Rev. Dr. Rose and Mrs. Rose, and will be away about ten days.

Presbyterian Elder Gone Wrong.

Regina, April 24.—John K. Welsh of Regina, an elder in the Presbyterian Church, has been convicted of improper conduct with his step-daughter, and sentenced to two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

SUBSTITUTION.

Some shoe dealers try to reap where they have not sown.

Try to reap some of the business harvest of the "Slater Shoe," sown by the sterling qualities and advertising of this famous shoe for men.

The profit on a "Slater Shoe" is not so large as that on some nameless shoes—with nobody's name on them—nobody to guarantee the wearer value received.

Sometimes what would have been a "Slater Shoe" has its destiny changed.

If its perfection is marred in manufacture—a stitch missed—a flaw in the leather—a slip of the knife changes what was meant to be a "Slater Shoe" into an imperfect shoe that is sold to the highest bidder.

Sometimes the merchant who buys these faulty goods tries to impose them on the credulous as "Slater Shoes."

Now profits come out of your pocket and its just as well to satisfy yourself that the shoe you are buying is a genuine "Slater"—there are more ways than one of identifying it.

Like this.

Every "Slater Shoe" has the makers' stamp on the sole—"The Slater $3.50 Shoe" or "The Slater $5.00 Shoe" as the case may be, and none are genuine without this stamp.

And this.

The name on the strap.

Every "Slater Shoe" has the name on the strap. Look for it as this also is an evidence of genuineness.

Every pair has a coupon attached, telling the kind of leather in the shoe; what wear it is adapted to, what dressing should be used on it. This coupon is good for 5 cts. on the price of a bottle of "Slater Shoe Polish."

This is the Coupon

Look for these proofs of genuineness, and once having identified the shoe you are buying, your feet and tastes will soon be satisfied.

The "Slater Shoe" is made in twelve shapes, all sizes, half sizes, six widths, all leathers and styles. Every pair Goodyear Welted.

$3.50 and $5.00.

Dismissed with a Warning.

The two girls who were remanded last Wednesday on a charge of vagrancy were brought up before Magistrate Dumble at this morning's session of the police court. On the promise of themselves and their parents that they would mend their ways, and in the future keep in the straight and narrow path they were allowed their liberty with a warning not to offend again, on the penalty of several years in the reformatory.

Passion Play Pictures.

The Hamilton Spectator of April 20, says: "The largest crowd on record attended the Grand Opera House last night, when the Passion Play pictures were produced. It was announced that the performance would begin at 8.30 o'clock, but the house was packed before 7.30 o'clock, and by the time the curtain went up, James and Gore streets were black with people. It was decided to give a second performance, and many people waited outside the house for two hours, anxious to gain admission. The house was packed at the second performance, and even then hundreds were disappointed." The Passion Play is now on exhibition for this week only at Richard Hall & Son's departmental store, Simcoe street.

Look Out When the Colours Run!

Did you ever buy Wall Paper in which the colors run so badly when the paste went on that the paper hanger could not make a decent job? Well, that's the kind to keep clear of. It's usually sent out to be sold to bankrupt stock dealers. You may feel quite sure that no such stuff will be found in the Wall Paper stock of the Peterborough Bookstore. We find plenty low-priced wall papers with permanent colors to make an attractive room which we can sell at prices no higher than what is asked for the common trash.

JUVENILE VANDALISM.

Boys and Girls Deface the Visitors' Book at the Museum.

Scratch a Russian and you find a Tartar underneath the skin. Use the same process upon many an Anglo Saxon boy or girl and you find a Vandal. An example to the point. On Saturday some boys and girls, who visited the Victoria Museum, disgracefully scribbled over and defaced the visitors' book. The museum is for the free use of the public, but in view of such abuse of privileges, the committee will be compelled to withdraw the visitors book on Saturday and perhaps close the museum on that day also. If youngsters such as those who did such mischief on Saturday, can't get at the visitors' book, they are likely to turn their vandalism in another direction, and it may be necessary to exclude children, unaccompanied by their parents. Thus the lawlessness and malice of a few badly trained children will deprive innocent and well behaved children of the benefit of visiting the museum on the only day in the week in which such young persons attending school are at liberty.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. John Crane has been visiting Miss Russel in Millbrook.

Mrs. Scully has been spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. H. Young, in Cavan.

Miss Falconer, Harvey street, is spending a week or so with her parents in Tweed.

Mr. B. Sutcliffe was over in Lindsay on Friday visiting his brother, Mr. F. W. Sutcliffe.

Mrs. and Miss Poussette returned from Toronto to-day after a pleasant visit of several weeks duration.

Mr. Alex. Collins, son of Mr. J. D. Collins, McDonel street, entered the local branch of the Ontario bank to-day.

Mr. Adolphe Letellier left to-day for Kingston, where he expects to spend a few weeks.

Dr. Poussette has returned to Cleveland after having spent the past week in town. Mrs. Poussette will visit relatives in town for some time longer.

Prof. Smith Warner, who is to present the Passion Play for Richard Hall & Son, in town this week, is registered with his wife at the National.

Mr. R. J. Hillier, formerly of the Canadian General Electric works, is in town renewing acquaintances. He is now connected with the Bell Telephone Co., as sales agent.

Mr. H. Parker Thomas, of the Nutcrack Kennels, Belleville, president of the Sporting Spaniels Club of Canada, was in town this morning for a few hours. Mr. Thomas judged the spaniels at the Fox Terrier Club show in Toronto this spring and proved highly satisfactory.

Mr. Thos. McQuillan, traveller for the Wyld, Grassett & Darling Co., Toronto, on the Kingston, Belleville, Peterborough and Lindsay route, has taken the position of manager of the staple department of the warehouse, and two new travellers, Messrs. —The street corner sewer openings are being cleansed by the corporation empoyees to-day.

—The Central Charity Board will hold a meeting this evening in the Town Council chamber.

—A capitalist can hardly refuse to take stock in a stock yard company —that's what stock yards are for.

—St. George's day was not observed in any public manner yesterday by the local members of the Sons of England.

—The King's Daughters and Girl's Auxiliary of St. John's church give a reception on Thursday evening, April 27th.

—Prof. V. P. Hunt, late of the Toronto Conservatory of Music, has been appointed organist of Bridge street Methodist church.

—The coal merchant is still in business and the wood merchants would be also if people could afford to buy wood at present.

—One day last week a Leicester ewe, owned by Mr. E. R. Tate, Lakefield, gave birth to four lambs. This is considered something out of the ordinary.

—Last year farmers in this locality turned over considerable ground during the last week in March, but some of them may be three weeks or a month later this year.

—The demonstration hen is not allowed to do all the cackling over the laying of a big egg. The owner of the fowl lays it again—on the editor's table—and challenges competition.

—The town bracelet clippers say that the crop of caterpillars does not promise to be as abundant as last year, thanks, doubtless, to the thorough work in destroying bracelets last season.

—Hospitable housewife—"Come and see me in June, when my roses are out." Departing caller—"Thanks, it all depends on the caterpillars; if they be as bad as last summer, I shall be afraid to go outside the house."

—Chief Rouzel has received a communication from D. Dewitt Nay, of Renfrew ,enquiring as to the whereabouts of his son ,Norton Nay, who left Detroit for Renfrew on March 30th. The chief was unable to supply any information.

—Mr. James Haw, proprietor of the Orillia House, Orillia, for the past seventeen years, during which time he has been a general favourite with the travelling public, has disposed of his interest and good will to Mr. J. K. Hessey, Brampton, possession being given at once.

—The street sweepings from Charlotte and other streets are being placed on Central Park, where said sweepings will feel quite at home, for in the past the park has been very much in the condition of a street. But a little care such as the Council is now giving it will tend to make it a beautiful place of resort.

—Thos. Esson, and Geo. Winters, of Harvey, crossed the ice in Pigeon Lake, last week. There was open water for some distance at the shore on each side. Starting from Sandy Point, they paddled a small punt over the ice to the opposite shore. It was a long pull, but the ice carried them all right, and they got across.

—Game Warden Tinsley is receiving complaints from all sides regarding the illegal shooting of ducks. It is said that there has been more illegal duck-shooting this season than ever before. It is the more difficult of all forms of game law violations to watch, but the department is preparing to make a number of prosecutions.—Toronto Star.

—The Edgecumbe block on north George street is assuming quite dignified proportions, another store being added to the north end, which will be occupied by G. W. Powell's meat market. Mr. Edgcumbe's business is increasing to such a degree that he found it necessary to absorb Mr. Powell's former store, with his own.

—Mr. A. E. Sims, the George street baker had a practical joke played on him last evening, by having somebody drive his horse and buggy from in front of a house at which he was stopping. Late last night he was skirmishing around town with a dangerous look in his eye and vowing numerous things he was going to do to his tormentors. The outfit was found on a back street.

EXPRESSED THANKS.

Rev. Dr. Torrance Refers to the Gift Presented him by St. Paul's Congregation.

Rev. Dr. Torrance at the conclusion of his sermon yesterday morning read the following address to the congregation of St. Paul's, in which he referred to his approaching marriage on Tuesday and thanked them for the handsome gift presented to him on Saturday:

My Dear Friends—I think it only right to express to you my heartfelt thanks for the magnificent present which I received from the congregation yesterday, as well as for the good wishes which have been expressed ever since the announcement of my engagement was publicly made. With regard to the present I can only say that I think it is too handsome— far beyond my deserts. It is something which I shall always regard with pride, not merely because it is an expression of the good will of a people whom I have served (very imperfectly I know) for the past 23 years. A minister can hardly have any greater joy than that which arises from the consciousness that the years serve to strengthen the bonds of sympathy and affection between his people and himself.

"I can hardly tell you how gratified I am at the satisfaction which you have expressed at my approaching marriage. It would have been a grief to me to have known that the step which I am about to take was regarded with disfavour by ever so small a section of the congregation. My sincere conviction is that my own life is about to be made brighter and that I will have your good wishes and prayers. It is a singular co-incidence that just 23 years ago to-day I came to Peterborough and was accepted as your pastor. I hope in the future as in the past to serve you as faithfully as I know how, and may God bless and watch over every one of you."

MEMBERS OF I.O.O.F. ATTEND SERVICE.

Rev. J. E. Moore Preaches an Earnest Sermon.

SHORT HISTORY OF THE ORDER.

Interesting Information Concerning the Relief Afforded by the Organization During the Year.

In celebration of the seventy-ninth anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Oddfellows, the members of Peterborough and Otonabee lodges, attended divine service last evening. The brethren assembled at the hall and marched in procession to Mark street Methodist church, where they listened to an earnest and instructive sermon by Rev. J. E. Moore.

The seating capacity of the building was fully tested and it was necessary to procure numerous extra seats. The pulpit was prettily decorated with flowers and presented an attractive appearance.

Rev. Mr. Moore prefaced his sermon by extending, on behalf of himself and the church, a most cordial welcome to the two lodges. He stated that for over three-quarters of a century the Independent Order of Oddfellows has existed and has flourished to a marvellous degree. He was proud to have the privilege to speak to representatives of such a noble organization. The reverend gentleman selected as his text, "We are bound to thank God always for you brethren, as it is meet because that your faith groweth exceedingly and the charity of everyone of you all toward each other aboundeth." (I Thess. 1; 3.) All right-minded people, the speaker declared, are thankful for what they discover in others, more especially in respect to an and charity. When faith grows, all other graces grow proportionately. The development of spiritual faith is quite apparent in Oddfellowship. There are no infidels in the Order of Oddfellows, for every one who takes upon himself the vows of that order is a believer in the existence and supremacy of God. There are three brotherhoods; the brotherhood of God, of man, and of fraternal societies.

Some people raise objections to fraternal societies, but their opposition is invariably the result of an almost total ignorance of the aims and principles of these societies. If these people possessed a proper knowledge as to the excellent results that are accomplished, these murmurs of disapproval would vanish and the people who make them would rapidly become their staunchest supporters. The man who takes upon himself the vows of an Oddfellow, assumes a very grave responsibility. By doing so he pledges himself. Surely such a feature is commendable?

But great as faith is, its brilliant lustre is entirely eclipsed by charity. Prof. Drummond says that charity is the greatest thing in the world while the bible always refers to it in the highest terms. The word, charity literally translated means love and signifies deep regard or benevolence. The greatest evidence of love for God is a true exhibition of love for man. The I.O.O.F. is preeminent because it teaches that of its existence and the basic principle on which it is operated. It is put into most practical operation by its splendid system of benefits.

Rev. Mr. Moore gave some decidedly interesting statistics concerning the Order of Oddfellows. It was organized just eighty years ago by a man named Thos. Wildy, a poor mechanic, who assisted by four other men of similar means instituted the first lodge in the city of Baltimore. It is now represented in every civilized country on the face of the globe. In the province of Ontario alone there are over 23,000 members. Last year 3,328 sick brothers were given relief by the sick benefit department, to the sum of $6,890.80. In surgeon fees, $1,642.79 had been expended, while $12,218.00 had been distributed for the relief of widows and orphans. Special relief had been granted to the extent of the sum of $3,336.00 and these, with other funds made a total expenditure for the year of $82,618.00. The current expenses of the society amounted to $64,681.00, making a grand total of disbursements amounting to over $147,000.00. The assets of the society had been nominally placed at $1,025,828.

Such a society with its members banded together for the mutual protection and benefit of each other and conducted on strictly moral and business principles could not otherwise than meet with universal success and spread from land to land.

In concluding, Mr. Moore earnestly appealed to the members to be true to their obligations of fraternity and as they were true to them so they would be true to God and thereby help and uplift general humanity.

After the service the members formed in procession under the marshalship of Messrs. J. W. Miller and Angus McIntosh and marched back to the George street hall, where votes of thanks were passed to Rev. Mr. Moore and the Mark street church officials for the courteous manner in which the members had been received and treated.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

A Large Attendance at the Club on Saturday Evening.

Though the temptation to remain without and enjoy the balmy spring air was great on Saturday evening, the attendance at the Club was large. There were forty persons present, thirty of whom are regular members. A very pleasant evening was spent and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. An interesting feature of the evening was the election of the officers for the next three months. The following are the names of those elected:

President—Miss Winfield.
Secretary—Miss Buntin.
Programme Committee — Miss Hubbs, Miss Henderson, Miss Shearer, Miss Davidson, Miss Porter.

AN HONORIUM.

The Curlers Appreciate Mr. Angus McIntosh's Efforts.

Mr. Angus McIntosh, the indefatigable and courteous caretaker of the rink was pleasantly surprised on Saturday by the receipt of the following letter with an honorarium enclosed: Mr. A. McIntosh,

Dear Sir—On behalf of the members of the Peterborough Granite and Thistle Curling Clubs I am directed to express their high appreciation of your constant efforts late and early during the past winter to keep the rinks in good condition and provide the best ice possible for their games, and with a view to expressing their feelings in a more tangible way than by words only, they desire to present you with the accompanying small gift of twelve dollars, which they trust will be acfor the true curlers' spirit in which for the true curler's spirit in which it is given. Yours, etc.,

GEO. EDMISON.

Mr. McIntosh's popularity among the curlers is due to the unfailing courtesy and forethought which he always exercises in connection with all the patrons of the rink, and that these relations may long continue will be the wish of all with whom he has come in contact.

THE PASSION PLAY.

It Began in Richard Hall & Son's Store this Afternoon.

The Passion Play, a life-like reproduction of the incidents connected with the life and death of Christ, began this afternoon at the big departmental store of Richard Hall & Son. A large crowd was attracted and and greatly pleased with the entertainment. The pictures, which are reproduced by a modern cinemetograph are very life-like in appearance, and aside from the religious instruction imparted cannot fail to please from a scientific standpoint. Watch to-morrow's Examiner for a further report. Every purchaser of 25 cents worth of goods at Richard Hall & Son's calls for a ticket of admission to the Passion Play.

PLEBISCITE ASSOCIATION.

The County Executive Met on Saturday Last.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the County of Peterborough Plebiscite Association, was held in the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday afternoon.

In the absence of the President, Dr. Fife, who was ill, Mr. G. W. Powell was appointed to the chair.

After considerable discussion on the action of the Government, concerning a Prohibitory Law, the matter of Liquor Licenses was considered, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved that this Exectutive Committee of the Peterborough Plebiscite Association, strongly protests against the License Commissioners of the County granting a Tavern License to any place that does not come up to the requirements of the law for such a license. We would also strongly urge upon the License Inspectors to do their duty and honestly enforce the laws independent of fear or favour.

The meeting then adjourned.

COUNTY POLICE COURT.

Two Young Men from Emily Get into Trouble.

This afternoon before County Magistrate Edmison, two young men, names George Podgett and Charles Nixon, who live in Emily, were charged with common assault by Mr. Darcy Dunlop, of North Monaghan. The latter gave evidence that on April 19th, Nixon stopped his horse in front of Dunlop's farm and deliberately trespassed on his property and struck him. There was a scuffle and it looked as if Nixon was going to be worsted when his companion, Padgett came and helped him with the result that Dunlop made a bee line for the house and locked himself inside. Then Dunlop says, they attempted to kick the door in and otherwise endeavoured to continue the racket.

Nixon and Padget pleaded that they were drunk and not responsible for their actions and, as they have not been in trouble before, the magistrate let them off with a fine of $4 and costs.

THE NIGHT CLERK'S STORY.

A FACE LIKE CHALK.

A very bad attack of the Grippe one year ago last winter left my system in a very weak state and my nervous system completely unstrung. After getting over the dangerous stage of the disease I naturally expected to gain strength, but, unfortunately, did not do so. On the contrary, my blood became weaker. I daily lost strength and vitality, and my nervous system became so weak that it was a constant source of suffering both day and night. I lost appetite, the sight of food nauseated me, the weak state of my system caused shortness of breath and unnatural action of the heart, such as flattering and violent palpitation, and my face was like chalk. I was in this condition and constantly getting weaker when I b gan taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills. I had read the books they distributed and their advertisements in the papers, and thought, "Well, I have taken so much medicine without benefit it is useless to spend any more money. However, I finally made up my mind. It is a forlorn hope; I can but try. If I am not benefited I will not be hurt. So I bought one box and received great benefit therefrom, so continued their use, and to-day am a well man in consequence; my blood is strong, my face has the ruddy hue of health, my appetite has returned, I sleep well, I have not the slightest indications of nervousness or heart trouble, and from a sick, weak, nervous man Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills have transformed me in six weeks to full health and strength." I am yours very truly,

(Signed) WILLIAM WILLARD,
Night Clerk Grand Central Hotel,

GEN. HUTTON'S SCHEME

"Patriotism Demands the Sacrifices Entailed."

HOPE OF THE LONDON TIMES.

Lord Strathcona and the Other Colonial Agents-General in London Are Moving in the Matter of the Proposition to Increase the Wine Duties—The News by Cable.

London, April 22.—The Times, which prints this morning extracts from the adverse criticisms of Major Hutton on the condition of the Canadian forces, says: "It is to be hoped that the reforms he has suggested will assume practical shape without delay. Patriotism demands the sacrifices entailed."

The British Rout Chinese.

Hongkong, April 22.—The British extension in the Kioulon district opposite Hongkong has been cleared of rebels. The Chinese were followed by the British troops from village to village, at each of which the rebels attempted to make a stand, but the British routed them from the houses. The native casualties were numerous.

German Warship for Samoa.

London, April 22.—A despatch from Shanghai to a news agency says the German protected cruiser Gefion has been ordered to proceed to Apia, Samoa, after embarking an extra supply of ammunition at Kiaochou, China, and that another cruiser is to follow her.

THE IMPERIAL WINE DUTIES.

What Lord Strathcona and Other Colonial Agents Are Doing.

London, April 22.—The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, and the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, have consented to hear a protest laid by the colonial agents-general, headed by Lord Strathcona, against the proposed increase of the wine duties. It is reported that Mr. Chamberlain inclines to a reduction favoring the colonial product, but that it is improbable that he will be able to move the Government to grant any direct preference to colonial wines. The tax, however, may be lightened upon cheap wines, thus indirectly favoring the colonies.

MORE SKIRMISHES.

The Filipinos Not Yet Conquered by the Americans—The Awful Heat Is Telling on the Latter.

Manila, April 22.—A force of about 200 rebels on Thursday afternoon attacked the outposts of the Washington Regiment near Taguig, south of Pasig and Pateros. Two companies immediately engaged the enemy and advanced into the open in skirmish order. The rebels were checked and routed after two hours' fighting, leaving 19 men killed on the field, and several wounded. The American troops also obtained possession of many Mauser rifles and other weapons. Three Americans were wounded.

At 6 o'clock yesterday morning three companies of the South Dakota Regiment marched from Bocave, and, in conjunction with three companies of the Minnesota Regiment, from Guiguinto, north of Bocave, encountered a rebel force numbering fully 800 men when two miles out. The enemy retired three miles in fairly good order, in spite of the fact that they suffered heavy losses.

The heat is intense. At noon the thermometer registered 95 degrees, and the mercury was still rising. There were several prostrations from the heat among the troops, but only one man was wounded.

Later the army tugs opened fire on the enemy along the river banks.

The rebels are unusually active west of Malolos as far as Calumpit. They have been busily at work on their trenches, and several new trenches have been discovered within two miles of the railroad. Fires are burning east of the railroad, and it would appear that the rebels are evacuating the foothill towns, in anticipation of an attack upon the part of the American troops.

THE CAPE TROOPS

To Be Raised From 7,000 to 9,000 in Two Years—Unavailing Protest in the House.

London, April 22.—In the House of Commons last evening, while the estimates were under consideration, the advanced Radicals raised the question of the increase of the British troops at the Cape from 7,000 to 9,000 in two years.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Opposition leader, said that such a permanent increase was a grave matter. He suggested that it was intended to coerce the Transvaal, and moved a reduction in the vote.

Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury and Government leader in the House, appealed to the committee not to continue an irritating discussion. He declared that the idea of coercion was "too extravagant to dwell upon," and had never entered the mind of any responsible person. The increase, he said, was due to the necessity of protecting the coaling station, and, in part, to "conceivable possibilities that might arise."

The committee rejected the motion to reduce the estimate by 150 votes against 80.

The Chronicle Not Satisfied.

London, April 22.—The Daily Chronicle, commenting upon the discussion in the House of Commons last evening over the increase of the troops at the Cape, declares itself dissatisfied with the Government's explanation. It says: "Why such an increase of regulars when we have a large force of volunteers at the Cape, and are so hard up for soldiers that we cannot get a recruit?"

Decision Anxiously Awaited.

London, April 22.—The Johannesburg correspondent of The Times says: "The Imperial Government's decision is anxiously awaited in response to the petition recently forwarded through Mr. Conyngham Greene, British agent and charge d'affaires at Pretoria. Everything indicates that the Transvaal would yield to pressure on behalf of the petitioners, but if the present opportunity is missed capitalists here will almost certainly make peace with the Boer Government at the expense, possibly, of Imperial interest."

PLAGUE IN PARIS.

Taken There in Carpets of Eastern Manufacture.

Paris, April 22.—The Fronde gives a rumor that three cases of the plague have occurred among the employes in one of the big shops of the city, to which the disease was brought in carpets of eastern manufacture.

The paper demands that a severe investigation into the matter be made.

The police officials announce that there is utterly no foundation for the report, circulated by The Fronde of this city, that three cases of the plague have occurred among the employes in one of the big stores of this city, to which the disease was alleged to have been brought in carpets of eastern manufacture.

Europe Against Anglo-Americanism.

London, April 22.—The Vienna newspapers, writing of the Samoan rapprochement, regard the Anglo-American combination as superior in naval and economic strength to either the dual or the triple alliance, and advocate united action by all European powers against it.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

New Trial for Mackie Asked For.

Kingston, Ont., April 22.—W. G. Wilson, Napanee, counsel for Robert Mackie, now undergoing sentence in the Kingston Penitentiary for alleged complicity in the Napanee bank robbery, was in the city yesterday, and had an interview with his client in behalf of a new trial, which Mr. Wilson hopes to obtain. New evidence has been obtained, and, on the strength of this, it is hoped the Minister of Justice will grant a new trial. Mr. Wilson confirms the report that Detective Greer tried to obtain an interview with Mackie, but the penitentiary authorities would not allow him to see the prisoner. Mackie is enjoying good health and is gaining flesh. He is bright and cheerful.

Two Bad Canadians.

Walkerton, Ont., April 22.—Robert W. King, of Parker, who was arrested there last December charged with being a member of a colonized gang of Canadian crooks, who secured large sums of money from banks in the United States by means of forged drafts, and who fought extradition proceedings through all the Canadian courts, pleaded guilty and turned State's evidence at Rock Rapids, Iowa, where the trial took place this week. Conover of Wingham, the leader of the gang, who was arrested at Port Huron a couple of months ago, was found guilty mainly on the evidence given by King. Both of whom were remanded for sentence.

PONTON'S BAIL.

It Must Be Renewed on Monday or He Goes Into Custody.

Toronto, April 22.—Mr. Justice Robertson's decision fixing Toronto as the place of trial for W. H. Ponton has occasioned considerable anxiety to the young man's friends, from the fact that when Messrs. McGinnis and Cummins went his bail after the other trial, they did so to allow him his liberty until the opening of the Spring Assizes at Napanee, which takes place on Monday. The change will necessitate a renewal of the bail, and should the bondsmen refuse Ponton will be obliged to remain in custody until May 15, when the Assizes open in Toronto, and in order that the bail may be renewed it will be necessary for Ponton to place himself in the hands of the authorities, which will be done on Monday next.

Shot During Initiation.

Syracuse, April 22.—William N. Green, employed at the Solvay Process Works, died at his home in the village of Solvay at 9.30 o'clock last night of lockjaw. On April 4 last Green was initiated into a court of Foresters of America in Solvay Village. In the initiation ceremonies, it is said, he was shot in the right thigh with the wad of a blank cartridge. He was taken to his home and Dr. E. H. Flint was called to attend him. The man continued to fail gradually, and several days afterward his jaw set rigidly, and he suffered untold agonies. Tetanus developed from the wound.

Bicycle Rider Killed.

Goderich, April 2.—Between 9 and 10 yesterday morning as a youth named Andrew Stokes, on a bicycle, and a man named Young, in a buggy, were turning a corner the wheel and buggy collided, smashing the wheel and throwing the boy off with great violence. After the accident Stokes got up and was walking away, when he suddenly fell to the ground and was picked up and taken home, when it was found that he was internally injured and broken ribs were pressing on the lungs. The injured lad died six hours after the accident, which was supposed to be purely accidental.

Trade With Porto Rico.

Washington, April 22.—As a result of the Cabinet meeting yesterday, Secretary Alger will issue an order to permit the shipment of cargoes from Porto Rico to the United States in other than American bottoms. The question of free trade with Porto Rico, or modifications of the tariff, which the natives ask, is one for Congress to determine, but it was thought that some relief could be afforded in the manner stated.

WEAK AND.... PUNY CHILDREN

Become Strong and Healthy by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food.

Children are frequently left weak and sickly as an after result of measles, scarlet fever, etc., and in this state are easy prey to nervous disorders, rickets, spinal disease, or consumption, diseases which do not affect robust, healthy children.

The blood is weak and watery and the nerves improperly nourished. Feed the blood and nerves with Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food, and the pale, pinched faces will soon become rosy and plump, and tiredness and weakness will give way to strength and animation.

Mr. E. W. Day, 62 Close Avenue, Toronto, writes: "My eldest daughter, aged eight, became very much run down. Her fretful, nervous, sleepless condition greatly alarmed her parents. She was taken from school, and in spite of the best nursing, the thin, weakened, bloodless face grew painfully worse. Fortunately we used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. An improvement became apparent in a few days, it continued, and in a few weeks she returned to school built up anew, and greatly to our joy fully restored to health."

FRENCH-CANADIAN RIGHTS.

The Roman Catholic Bishops Anxious That French-Canadians Shall Not Be Ousted by Strangers.

Montreal, April 22.—All the Roman Catholic bishops of Manitoba and the Northwest have just addressed a collective letter to their colleagues of the Province of Quebec, the main object of which is to ask their support in behalf of French-Canadian colonization in that vast portion of the Dominion's territory. After mentioning the sympathy ever shown by the church in Quebec for its young daughter in the Northwest, the letter calls attention to the fact that her territory is now being invaded by strangers from all parts of the world, all anxious to predominate, and that the current will cease only when the whole country has been settled. Their lordships then add: "Among the new arrivals there are, mixed with a small number of Catholics, multitudes of heretics or schismatics, and even tribes that cannot be numbered among the members of the Christian family. Shall we allow these strangers to take hold of the whole land which the Government of the country gives up to new settlers on such favorable terms? Later on would be too late. Now is the moment to make a decisive effort. Now is the time to secure for the Catholic faith and French-speaking element preponderance in this land. As the great and illustrious Leo XIII., gloriously reigning, said: 'It specially behooves eastern Canada, the clergy and people of New France, the old Province of Quebec, to protect and make grow their daughter in the Northwest.'"

Guelph Horse Show.

Guelph, April 22.—The Guelph entire Horse Show was held yesterday and was one of the best ever held by the association. Over 20 entries were received. The competition in the road and carriage class was keen, there being 11 entries. In the hackney class the competition was small, Messrs. D. & O. Sorby having it all their own way. In thoroughbreds some very fine animals were shown, among them being the winner at the recent Toronto Horse Show, owned by A. Frank & Son of that city. In roadsters there were no entries. This class of horses is working its way out of the list altogether in this district. On account of the stock failing to bring good prices on the market, for breeding purposes they are of very little value.

A PORT HOPE GROCER

Tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured him of Shortness of Breath, Dizzy Spells and Nervousness.

People from all parts of Canada are gladly coming forward and telling other sufferers how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure diseases arising from disordered nerves, weak heart or watery blood, when all else has failed.

One of these is Mr. W. A. Carson, the well-known grocer, Port Hope, Ont., who made the following statement:

"For a length of time I was seriously troubled with my heart, causing shortness of breath, nervousness, dizziness, debility, etc.

"I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills at Deyell's drug store here, and am very much pleased to tell you that after using them a short time I was entirely cured of my troubles. Not only that but I feel thoroughly built up and restored to health and vigor.

"I can highly recommend these remarkable pills to those afflicted with heart or nerve trouble in any form as I believe them to be the best remedy in existence."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure palpitation, dizzy or faint spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, weakness, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, tobacco heart, anæmia, pale and sallow complexion, female complaints, general debility and all diseases arising from a weak or run down condition of the system.

Price 50c. a box or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists, or sent by mail. T. MILBURN & Co., TORONTO, ONT.

Not so very long ago pirates attacked a vessel in the Chinese sea. The crew fled in terror to the rigging, but the captain's wife seized a cutlass, and as the pirates' heads appeared over the vessel's side, she cut them down like weeds, until those remaining re-entered their boats and rowed away.

Diseases that attack women are worse than pirates. They torture long before they kill. But women can beat them off and cut them down with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This is a woman's remedy that has no alcohol, opium or other narcotic in it. It is the prescription of Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has devoted a long and successful life to the study and treatment of diseases peculiar to women. It overcomes irregularities, stops disagreeable drains, bearing-down pains and backache; cures female weakness and headache. It helps the girl over the difficulties encountered when she enters womanhood; makes the period preceding maternity a time of comfort; and the newborn enters the world without unnecessary pain to the mother. At the "turn of life" it is priceless to womankind. Medicine dealers sell it, and you should never permit them to substitute other medicine which they may urge upon you as "just as good."

"I had been a great sufferer from female weakness," writes Mrs. M. B. Wallace, of Muenster, Cooke Co., Texas. "I tried four doctors and none did me any good. I suffered six years, but at last I found relief. I followed your advice, and took four bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and eight of the 'Favorite Prescription.' I now feel like a new woman. I have gained eighteen pounds."

In paper covers, 21 one-cent stamps; cloth binding, 50 stamps — Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MARKET REPORTS.

Chicago Wheat Futures Declined Nearly a Cent—Spot Wheat Higher in England—The Prices.

Liverpool, April 22.—Wheat futures were easier yesterday morning, but firmed up and closed at Thursday's final quotations.

Chicago, April 22.—Wheat futures were erratic yesterday. The May and July options opened at a good fractional advance over night, declined on professional selling, recovered on buying through commission houses, and then sagged again, closing ⅝c below Thursday's final figures. The damage to winter wheat doubtless has been exaggerated.

THE DOMINION HOUSE.

A Short Session on Friday After a Busy Week.

BILLS READ A FIRST TIME.

The Imperial Government and the Pacific Cable Proposition—The Premier Will Have All the Correspondence Brought Down—When the Estimates Will Be Brought Down—Other Matters.

Ottawa, April 22.—Yesterday was a sort of off day in the House, and the session lasted only about half an hour.

The following private bills were introduced and read a first time:

Respecting the Restigouche Boom Company, Mr. McAllister.

Respecting the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon & Pontypool Railway, Mr. McGregor.

Respecting the Welland Power & Supply Company, Mr. Landerkin.

Respecting the London-Montreal Fire Insurance Company, Mr. Fraser (Lambton).

To incorporate the Niagara, St. Catharines & Toronto Railway Company, Mr. Calvert.

Respecting the Bronson & Weston Lumber Company, Mr. McIsaac.

Respecting the Algoma Central Railway Company, Mr. Tolmie.

Mr. Blair gave notice of his resolution to purchase the Drummond County Railway, and Mr. Mulock of his resolution respecting Canada's contribution to the Pacific cable. Both were moved for consideration on Tuesday next, but at Sir Charles Tupper's request the date was postponed to the following Government day.

The leader of the Opposition observed in connection with the Pacific cable project that it would be desirable to have the fullest information possible on the subject. He had seen by the newspapers that the Secretary of State for the Colonies had said that the Imperial Government had not agreed to the arrangement to which Canada was giving adherence, a statement which he (Sir Charles) noticed with great regret. He asked the Government, therefore, to lay on the table the correspondence beween himself as high commissioner and the Government in regard to the Pacific cable commission, because it would tend to strengthen the hands of the Government on the point where it seems to require to be strengthened.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier agreed that the correspondence should be brought down.

The Finance Minister promised, in reply to Mr. Foster, to make a statement early next week as to when the estimates would be brought down.

The House adjourned at 5.30 p.m.

MENIER'S ANTICOSTI.

Simply Private Land That May Be Expropriated by the Crown.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier laid on the table yesterday copies of the correspondence with the Colonial Secretary with reference to the Island of Anticosti. It appears that Mr. Chamberlain had his attention called to some letters from Mr. Beckles Wilson, in The London Daily Mail, which represented that Mr. Menier was fortifying Anticosti, that he was exercising rights of sovereignty, oppressing settlers, and generally behaving as if the island was no part of Canada, but could be used as a base of operations against Canada in the event of a foreign war.

Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick was appointed to investigate the matter and report, which he does at great length. Mr. Fitzpatrick says in effect that the island was private property at the time of the conquest of Canada, having been granted to the Seigneur de Joliette in 1610. He traces the title down to the present owner, who purchased it from the Anticosti Company of London for £95,000, and says the Crown, as in the case of all private property, can expropriate it if needed for public purposes. He says that Mr. Menier has greatly improved the property. Referring to the trouble with the Fox Bay settlers, Mr. Fitzpatrick intimates that the Quebec Government, in sending constables to the island to evict the settlers, did no more than would have to be done for any private owner of land who had difficulty with his tenants, or with squatters, that no eviction was made, because an agreement was come to, which subsequently was disregarded by the settlers, who appealed to the courts, and that the Quebec Government, in offering to supply counsel for the settlers, only did so because the settlers were poor.

Mr. Fitzpatrick is not alarmed at Mr. Beckles Wilson's fears about the island being fortified and used as a base of operations against Canada, and says Mr. Menier has no guns or fortifications. The return concludes with a letter from Rev. Mr. Stobo of the Evangelical Alliance, Quebec, in which he says that, as secretary of the Alliance and treasurer of the legal defence fund raised for the purpose of contesting Mr. Menier's ownership, he intends going to London to see Mr. Chamberlain.

THE SENATE.

Ottawa, April 22.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon Hon. Mr. Ferguson asked if it was true that the Government steamer Stanley had made a special trip on Sunday last to take Mr. Frederick Peters of Victoria, B.C., from Pictou to Georgetown, and if a special train had been run over the P.E.I. Railway from Georgetown for the convenience of Mr. Peters.

Hon. R. W. Scott admitted that the steamer was run, but had no knowledge of any special trip. He said Mr. Peters would have lost his seat had he not got transportation, he having been absent from the P. E. Island Legislature last session. Mr. Peters had paid his own passage.

Hon. Mr. Perley moved for a copy of a letter sent to the Premier in September or October last on the subject of the Manitoba school question. He said he had talked to Archbishop Langevin on a railway train and His Grace had said the letter was not private. Senator Perley said there were rumors that some Ministers had sent hush money to the Archbishop, but he could hardly believe that. On the authority of and by permission of His Grace he requested that the letter be produced.

Hon. David Mills said there was no such letter under the control of the Government.

The subject dropped and the Senate adjourned.

Sir Hibbert's Promise.

Vancouver, B.C., April 22.—Sir Hibbert Tupper, in his speech here last night, said that on Saturday he hoped to return to Ottawa to face those who had lately criticised his recent speech in the Dominion House. He had been called a coward, he said, for the attack he had made on the Yukon officials. His attack had been called shocking, but the truth of his statements shocked him before he had shocked the House with them, and he regretted to say that they were nothing to the revelations he had yet to make.

Deaths in Ontario.

Toronto, April 22.—The increase of deaths from consumption in this province continues. In the monthly report of the Provincial Board of Health for March, issued by Dr. Bryce yesterday, the deaths from consumption number 238, as against 215 for February, which was the greatest previous record for any month in Ontario. Deaths from all causes numbered 2,361, as against 2,568 in February. Deaths from contagious diseases in March were: Scarlatina 38, diphtheria 25, measles 2, whooping cough 9, typhoid 17.

DID NOT CONVICT QUAY.

The Jury Found No Proof to Sustain the Conspiracy Charges.

Philadelphia, April 22.—Matthew Stanley Quay was yesterday declared by a jury of his peers to be not guilty of the charge of conspiring to use for his own unlawful gain and profit the funds of the State of Pennsylvania deposited in the People's Bank of this city. This verdict was announced by the foreman of the jury at 11 o'clock.

As soon as Senator Quay could get away from those anxious to shake his hand and congratulate him, he made his way out of the building. The neighborhood is the stamping ground for the politicians of the town, and as the Senator emerged from the building a group of enthusiasts rushed forward and attempted to hoist him onto their shoulders, but the Senator waved them back, saying: "Oh, no, oh no; I'm too old a man for that."

It is understood that he will at once join his family in Washington and will probably go away for a long rest.

Mr. Topp Will Take It.

Chatham, Ont., April 22.—City Engineer C. H. Topp received a telegram yesterday from Victoria, B.C., stating that out of a number of applications, he had been appointed city engineer of that place at a salary of $2,500 per year. Mr. Topp, after consulting the mayor and aldermen, who one and all advised him to accept, telegraphed that he would accept the position.

Game for Anticosti.

Quebec, April 22.—The steamer Savoy leaves to-day for Anticosti Island. Governor Cornettant of Anticosti and wife and family will arrive in Quebec by the Savoy on her return to the city. The Savoy will take to Anticosti about 40 head of live moose, red deer and caribou for stock purposes on the Menier game preserves.

RAILROAD.... KIDNEY

A Disease Peculiar to Railroad Men, which is readily Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The first and most marked symptom is a weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1899 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used, Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. For correct and full information regarding the new invention and NEWCOMBE PIANOS, write to our Direct Representative. Easy Prices. Liberal Terms.

EVIDENCES OF CHRISTIANITY.

REV. H. SYMONDS' FIRST SERMON IN A SERIES.

The Subject was "The Grounds of Modern Unbelief"—Next Sunday he will Speak on "The Relations of Faith and Reason."

Rev. H. Symonds preached last night the first of a course of sermons on "The Evidences of Christianity" to a large congregation in St. Luke's church. The subject was, "Grounds of Modern Unbelief." He said these might for convenience sake, be divided into two classes, Internal Causes and External Causes. By internal causes he meant those that have their origin in characteristics of the mind. Some minds are naturally of an enquiring disposition, and require sensible proof of everything that is presented to them. St. Thomas is the type of this class of mind, who refused to believe in the Resurrection until he had actually seen and handled the Saviour's body. This kind of mind had been of great service to the world, especially in the realms of science and invention, and also strange as it might seem, in the sphere of religion. Augustine, the most influential of all Christian thinkers since the time of the Apostles was a sceptic for years. From this class of mind sprang what are called the Honest Doubters from Tennyson's well-known lines,

There lives more faith in honest doubt,
Believe me than in half the creeds.

But even honest doubt was not a satisfactory position. And those who quoted Tennyson's lines, seldom read the whole passage in which the poet tells us how his friend, conquered all his doubts and at last came to find

"A Stronger Faith his own."

Another kind of internal belief sprang from an immoral life. There were those who wished to be unbelievers in order that they might with impunity continue in their evil deeds. With this class of people he had nothing to do in these sermons, and he hoped his hearers would always draw a clear line of distinction between the honest doubter, and the immoral sceptic.

The causes of unbelief that were external, were such as sprang from an increase of knowledge changing our conceptions of the world, and modifying our theories about things. Ages of great mental activity had always been ages of doubt. But this was only the first result of increased knowledge. The second and final result was to enlarge and to broaden and even to purify our faith. The Copernican astronomy at first disturbed faith, but only for a time, So also the wonderful scientific discoveries and theories in the field of natural history had for a time caused great alarm, but that was passing away and we are beginning to see that our new conceptions of the universe are far more worthy of an Omnipotent and Allwise Creator, than were our old ones. The principal conflict of to-day raged round the questions connected with Biblical Criticism. Just as the views of the men of science about the world had been at first confusing and alarming, so also with the views of Modern Criticism, but the results, when they were definitely set forth, would be believed, be reassuring. We might have to give up some human notions, but we should only come to see more clearly that the Bible contained a Revelation of God, and we should more closely attach ourselves to the great broad truths that run like fertilizing streams throughout it, rather than to the minor details.

The External grounds of Modern Unbelief are thus seen to have some reason, but these are transitory reasons. We may in patience possess our souls. And if we can with hearty faith, say, "Lord I believe," we must not rest there but add "Master, I will follow thee, whithersoever thou goest."

Next Sunday evening the subject will be "The Relations of Faith and Reason."

CHURCH CHIMES.

The Confirmation Class of St. John's church will meet on Friday evening in the schoolhouse.

Mrs. Chambers sang "I know That My Redeemer Liveth" from the Messiah with great effectiveness in St. John's last evening.

The gospel meeting last night, conducted by Mr. Wm. Slomans, the converted Jew, in the Gospel Hall, was well attended. He will preach there at 8 p.m. to-night. All invited.

The King's Daughters and Girl's Auxiliary of St. John's church will give a reception to the young people of the congregation on Thursday evening. The young people of All Saint's church are also included in the invitation.

Mrs. Stapleton sang "O Rest in the Lord" from The Elijah, last evening in All Saints. Though not having been heard recently Mrs. Stapleton's voice appears to be gaining in sweetness and power. Her selection was heard with much pleasure.

At the Murray street Baptist church yesterday the morning anthem, "O Lord Most Holy," was pleasing rendered, Mrs. Dr. Scott taking the solo part. In the evening anthem the duet was sung by Miss A. Hutchinson and Mr. G. K. Martin.

At St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday Mr. Robert J. Hiller, formerly choir master, sang the solos of the mass in an inspiring manner. His voice has lost none of its strength and beauty since he left Peterborough for the metropolis.

Special music was given at St. Paul's Presbyterian church. In the morning the anthem "The Palms" was excellently rendered by the choir, the solo being sung by Mr. James Dawson. The evening anthem, "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me, O Lord," was also well rendered, Miss Montgomery taking the solo part in good voice.

The music at the Charlotte street Methodist church was quite up to its usual excellence yesterday. In the morning the anthem was "My Shepherd," the pretty duet accompanying it being acceptably sung by Miss Florence Hall and Mr. Pearce. In the evening "Now the Day is Over" was given. The duet was rendered by Miss Pedlar and Mr. Mitchell, their voices blending nicely. "Nearer Home" was sung during the offertory, the sopranos and altos taking the solo parts.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian congregation heard two good sermons yesterday from the lips of their popular pastor, Rev. Mr. Potter. His morning text was from Acts 15:11, "But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved." The speaker dwelt on the fact that often too much attention was devoted to forms and ceremonies to the exclusion of more sacred things. At the evening service the text was "Grieve not the Holy Spirit," Eph. 4:30. The sermon dealt with God's love for man and His grief when wrong is done. The music was appropriate and rendered in the usual excellent manner.

George Street Methodist.

At the George street Methodist church last evening, Rev. Mr. Shorey preached an eloquent and timely sermon on topics that are of general interest, scoring among other things the tobacco habit in men and the worshipping of fashions in women. Taking the parable of the loaves and the fishes, he instanced how careful Christ had been in commanding the disciples to gather up the fragments. This was rather peculiar on the part of Christ, who had power to create any quantity by a word, but it emphasized the fact that we should look after the little things of life and not neglect them. There is nothing that we can afford to waste. Speaking more particularly to the young people Rev. Mr. Shorey said that in this country the young people usually start in life poor, and this was perfectly correct, for it gives them something to work for. The margin for living is small because of the keen competition that exists.

Continuing, Mr. Shorey said that society did not move as easily now as it did in the old days. Then you would invite a man in and make him perfectly at home on a very short notice. Now it is almost necessary to give a person a week's notice when you wish to visit them, and then so much fuss and confusion is caused that the visitor is usually very uncomfortable. This fact causes hospitality to be very expensive and inconvenient and unless something is done it will soon die out entirely. Another fragment that should be looked after is money. In this regard Mr. Shorey said that he thought more money was wasted on tobacco than almost any other vice. He did not intend lecturing the old men, for they were set in their ways, but he wished to appeal to the young men to discontinue a habit that was sure to do them injury. It was peculiar to see men, he said, who were out of employment, and almost unable to secure enough bread to eat, yet they were almost always in possession of a liberal supply of the weed.

In speaking of fashions the reverend gentleman came out very strongly against the tyrrany exercised over men and women in this regard. He did not object to fashions, indeed he believed that the latest styles were usually prettier than their predecessors. What he did object to was the slavish way in which people followed them. Much money and thought are expended on fashions that could profitably be used in other spheres where a return more equivalent would be received. In concluding Mr. Shorey urged the young people to develop their intelligent energies and not be satisfied with small attainments.

The evening anthem was "Praise Unto the Father," the solo passages were sung by Miss Clara Belleghem. The solo by Mr. Mulligan and the choir was particularly pleasing and effective.

At the morning service the anthem was "Just as I Am," Beirly. A duett, "I Will Follow," was very sweetly sung during the offertory by Misses Grey of the choir.

The Epworth League of the George street Methodist church will hold a reception for new members this evening.

The married ladies of the George street Methodist church will hold an entertainment and debate shortly.

ENGINEER GRAHAM,

Of Montreal, Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 24.—Proof positive and convincing has already been given in Montreal that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure cure for diabetes. And day after day fresh evidence comes to light to make the proof more emphatic and convincing.

Engineer James Graham, 54 Victoria Square, says: "I suffered with Diabetes for six years. One of our best doctors told me I could not be cured.

"I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. Three boxes made me well, and I have not suffered from Diabetes since."

Such cures as this prove the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Decreases.

There is noticeable a very large decrease in the appropriation for legislation, the amount asked being $249,954.14 less than last year. A large cut is made in the expense of ocean and river service, the decrease being $161,000. On incidentals there will be a saving of $53,795.93. In the item of arts, agriculture and statistics there is a decrease of $32,100. The administration of Indian affairs will cost $98,682.43 less than last year. It will cost $55,089.40 less than last fiscal year for redemption of debt. On capital account there is a decrease in railways and canals of $2,272,782.

The Increases.

The increases in expenditure are comparatively few in number. The cost of administering the Yukon is set at $814,500, as against $543,950 last year, an increase of $270,550. Every Canadian will acknowledge the necessity of a liberal appropriation on this account. The cost of immigration will be $358,500, as against $258,500, an increase of $100,000. The necessity of sending our soldiers to the Yukon has made an increase in the appropriation for the Militia Department imperative. The total for this year is $1,706,720, as against $1,635,941 last year, an increase of $70,728.72. The total to be voted for public works is $2,302,575, of which $367,000 is for capital expenditure. Last year the total amount for this branch of the service was $2,302,765. The total to be spent on public buildings in Ontario is $141,400, as against $160,780 last year, while the amount for other public works in the province is $418,400, as against $330,413 for the preceding year.

Public Works in the Province.

The itemised expenditures are as follows: Arnprior, public building, $8,400, revote; Dominion public buildings, Ottawa, $14,000; Ingersoll postoffice, $10,000; Kingston armories, $40,000; Ottawa public buildings, Langevin block improvements, $24,000; Rat Portage postoffice, $14,000; Sarnia postoffice, $10,000; Toronto Dominion buildings, improvements, etc., $6,000; Woodstock postoffice, $20,000. Ontario harbors, etc.—Bowmanville harbor, $5,000; Bruce Mines wharf, $10,000; Burlington channel, repairs to piers, $40,000; Collingwood harbor, $60,000; Goderich reconstruction of breakwater, $46,500; Goderich, dredging, $20,000; Hawkesbury, dredging, $3,000; Kincardine, repairs to pier and dredging, $1,500; Kingston harbor and dredging $10,000; Little Bear Creek, dredging, $2,000; North Bay, pile wharf, $8,000; Oakville, repairs to piers and dredging, $45,000; Oshawa, repairs to piers, providing harbor is transferred to municipal corporation, who will maintain it in future, $3,000, revote; Owen Sound, dredging and pile work, $19,600; Picton, dredging, $5,000; Port Burwell harbor, $45,000; Port Elgin, construction of groyne, $5,000; Port Hope, repairs to pier and dredging, $25,000; Port Stanley, repairs to pier and dredging, $13,000; Rainy River, improvements to channel, $1,500; River Ottawa, improvements steamboat channel, $7,200; Saugeen River, dredging, $3,100; Southampton, dredging, $2,000; Sydenham River, dredging, $5,000; Thornbury, dredging, $3,000; Toronto harbor, works at eastern entrance, etc., $75,000.

The diminution in legislation is caused by the fact of the plebiscite vote being taken this year.

The Militia Estimates.

The militia estimates include the sum of $400,000 for 12 days' pay of the entire militia. City corps will drill at their local headquarters, rural corps and field batteries in camp. This includes pay for men and horses, supplies to camps, transport and all other expenses. The sum of $350,000 is set aside for the purchase of clothing for the entire militia and permanent corps, including boots, caps and necessaries.

The Agricultural Department estimates include an item of $60,000 for the promotion of dairying interests, for advances for milk and cream, for making butter and cheese, to be recouped out of the proceeds of the sales of such butter and cheese. For cold storage on railways, at warehouses and creameries the vote asked is $70,000.

The grant to the Dominion Rifle Association is reduced from $15,000 to $10,000; the grant to the Artillery Association from $7,000 to $5,000, and the grants to local and battalion associations from $7,500 to $6,500. The sum of $825,000 is provided for the purchase of field guns, fortress armament, rifle range and military equipment.

The Government have decided to ask for $350,000 to deepen the Welland Canal approachments at Port Colborne. For the River St. Lawrence ship channel $854,000 is provided, an increase of $98,000.

There is a decrease of $11,000 in the mail subsidies and steamship subventions.

The increase of $14,000 in the subsidies to provinces is caused by the natural increase in population.

The $27,550 increase in the cost of administering the Yukon district is caused by the erection of new buildings, $25,000; transport, $60,000; travelling expenses of judges and other court officials, and the sum of $108,000 is set aside for mail service for the district. The collection of customs will cost $35,000, an increase of $9,500, which will be warranted by the larger volume of trade. For the improvement of the navigable channels of the Lewes and Yukon Rivers $40,000 is set aside, as against $16,000 last year.

DEADMAN'S ISLAND FRACAS.

The Fight Now Between the Dominion Government and Vancouver City.

Vancouver, B.C., April 25.—Theodore Ludgate, the lessee of Deadman's Island from the Federal Government, yesterday morning landed 30 men on the island, and at 6.30 was met by Mayor Garden, City Solicitor Hamersley and Capt. Tatlon, chairman of the park commissioners, and 30 special police officers. Mr. Ludgate commenced the cutting of a tree, followed in turn by his men, all of whom were at once arrested. The case will be heard in the Police Court. Intense excitement prevails in the city over the arrests.

WELLAND CANAL

Opened Up for Navigation at Nine on Monday Morning.

San Francisco, April 25.—The barquentine Bath has arrived here from Guam, Caroline Islands, with Capt. West and part of the crew of the wrecked whaling barque Horatio, which went ashore on Jan 27, while trying to enter the south harbor of Kusaie. The Horatio was a total wreck, but no lives were lost, and nearly everything of value on board was saved.

GEORGIA LYNCHING.

Two More Follow Fast Upon That of Sam Hose on Sunday.

THE SWINGING OF STRICKLAND.

A Weird Scene at Judge Lynch's Trial of the Terrified White-Haired Negro Preacher — Albert Sewell, a Negro Who Declared for Vengeance, Also Put to Death.

Palmetto, Ga., April 25.—The trial of Elijah Strickland, the negro preacher accused by Sam Hose, who was burned to death near Newman on Sunday, of paying him $12 to murder Farmer Alfred Cranford, took place in an open square in the centre of the town. There was no judge nor jury, the people acting in those capacities. Many witnesses were heard. One, a negro, lived on Strickland's place, and testified to the good character of the minister, but several neighbors gave anything but favorable reports. Many speeches were made.

At 1 o'clock no decision had been arrived at, but it was decided to adjourn the court to the woods, one mile out of town. The sober element is making an attempt to save the negro's neck, and have adopted the plan of moving about to delay a verdict, and perhaps win their case. A number of strangers are here from Atlanta and other towns, and they are trying to force a lynching.

The statement made by Hose is not believed, and it is feared an innocent man may be lynched if cooler counsel does not prevail. Strickland denies all knowledge of complicity in the crime.

The scene in the woods, where the "trial" was going on, was a weird one. After Preacher Strickland was taken out of the town and deep into the pines, huge bonfires were lit, to furnish warmth and illumination. The white-haired preacher, weeping, and with an appeal to the Throne of Grace, was tied to a tree while the counsel proceeded. He bears an unsavory reputation, and it went against him. He protested constantly that he was not guilty, calling on God to witness his innocence and pleading for mercy. He was a picture of abject terror—a great contrast to his accuser, who had gone stolidly to the stake.

The body of Elijah Strickland, the negro minister implicated by Sam Hose in the killing of Alfred Cranford, was found swinging to the limb of a tree about one mile from town yesterday morning. The ears and fingers were cut off and on the body was pinned a placard bearing these words: "We must protect our southern women." Strickland was 60 years of age.

Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—A telephone message from Palmetto at 1 o'clock yesterday said the mob which lynched Strickland captured Albert Sewell, a negro who had declared that the death of every negro should be avenged, and put him to death. The mob is said to be still on the hunt for negroes, and probably two more will be lynched before the work shall have been finished.

HAMILTON'S SENSATION.

A Warrant Issued for W. F. Mitchell, the Goold Bicycle Agent at Hamilton—$300 Gone.

Hamilton, April 25.—W. F. Mitchell, the fast bicycle rider, who has been local agent for the Goold Bicycle Company, Brantford, for some months, disappeared on Sunday night. During the night several hundred dollars disappeared from the company's safe, and Mitchell's fair friend, Miss Winnie Whately, an operator in the Bell Telephone office, is also among the missing. Mitchell and Miss Whately were at a friend's house on that evening, leaving there about 12 o'clock. It is supposed the couple went west on the 12.40 express.

When the safe at the office was opened yesterday morning it was discovered that the cash had been removed since Saturday night. As Mitchell knew the combination and could not be found, he was suspected and a warrant for his arrest was issued. About $300 in cash was taken.

On Saturday evening Mitchell bought a wedding ring and a small watch and gave in payment a cheque for $95, which is valueless, there being no funds in the bank. He also got a diamond ring from Dr. Fred. Rosebrugh, giving him a cheque for $200, the price of it. This cheque is also of no value.

It is reported that he had a wife in St. John, N.B., where he was stationed before he was sent here by his employers. His home is in Guelph.

A few weeks ago he conducted a gigantic raffle for $500 worth of bicycles and other goods. The prices of tickets ranged from 1 cent to $5, the price being fixed by the number the purchaser drew. One man, a particular friend of his, drew the valuable prize, and this was commented on unfavorably by persons who held blanks.

The police in western cities and towns have been notified.

Lady Scott Has Been Found.

London, April 25.—Lady Scott, wife of Sir Samuel Edward Scott, Conservative member of Parliament for West Marylebone, and daughter of Earl Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who disappeared somewhat mysteriously while out shopping April 17, greatly alarming her family, has been found and is now with her relatives. The Daily Chronicle, which makes this announcement, says the matter is being amicably arranged.

Municipal Ownership of Saloons.

Toledo, O., April 25.—The Toledo Pastors' Union, at a meeting yesterday, made a move towards sanctioning the municipal ownership of saloons. The matter created considerable discussion, the majority of the pastors seeming to favor the idea.

Rug Poison Fatal.

Cornwall, Ont., April 25.—Capt. Collins died Saturday at Cardinal from the effects of bedbug poison given him in mistake for medicine. He was an employe of Murray & Cleveland, canal contractors.

A number of strangers are here from Atlanta and other towns, and they are trying to force a lynching.

The statement made by Hose is not believed, and it is feared an innocent man may be lynched if cooler counsel does not prevail. Strickland denies all knowledge of complicity in the crime.

The scene in the woods, where the "trial" was going on, was a weird one. After Preacher Strickland was taken out of the town and deep into the pines, huge bonfires were lit, to furnish warmth and illumination. The white-haired preacher, weeping, and with an appeal to the Throne of Grace, was tied to a tree while the counsel proceeded. He bears an unsavory reputation, and it went against him. He protested constantly that he was not guilty, calling on God to witness his innocence and pleading for mercy. He was a picture of abject terror—a great contrast to his accuser, who had gone stolidly to the stake.

The body of Elijah Strickland, the negro minister implicated by Sam Hose in the killing of Alfred Cranford, was found swinging to the limb of a tree about one mile from town yesterday morning. The ears and fingers were cut off and on the body was pinned a placard bearing these words: "We must protect our southern women." Strickland was 60 years of age.

Atlanta, Ga., April 25.—A telephone message from Palmetto at 1 o'clock yesterday said the mob which lynched Strickland captured Albert Sewell, a negro who had declared that the death of every negro should be avenged, and put him to death. The mob is said to be still on the hunt for negroes, and probably two more will be lynched before the work shall have been finished.

HAMILTON'S SENSATION.

A Warrant Issued for W. F. Mitchell, the Goold Bicycle Agent at Hamilton —$300 Gone.

Hamilton, April 25.—W. F. Mitchell, the fast bicycle rider, who has been local agent for the Goold Bicycle Company, Brantford, for some months, disappeared on Sunday night. During the night several hundred dollars disappeared from the company's safe, and Mitchell's fair friend, Miss Winnie Whately, an operator in the Bell Telephone office, is also among the missing. Mitchell and Miss Whately were at a friend's house on that evening, leaving there about 12 o'clock. It is supposed the couple went west on the 12.40 express.

When the safe at the office was opened yesterday morning it was discovered that the cash had been removed since Saturday night. As Mitchell knew the combination and could not be found, he was suspected and a warrant for his arrest was issued. About $300 in cash was taken.

On Saturday evening Mitchell bought a wedding ring and a small watch and gave in payment a cheque for $25, which is valueless, there being no funds in the bank. He also got a diamond ring from Dr. Fred. Rosebrugh, giving him a cheque for $900, the price of it. This cheque is also of no value.

It is reported that he had a wife in St. John, N.B., where he was stationed before he was sent here by his employers. His home is in Guelph.

A few weeks ago he conducted a gigantic raffle for $800 worth of bicycles and other goods. The prices of tickets ranged from 1 cent to $5, the price being fixed by the number the purchaser drew. One man, a particular friend of his, drew the valuable prize, and this was commented on unfavorably by persons who held blanks.

The police in western cities and towns have been notified.

Lady Scott Has Been Found.

London, April 25.—Lady Scott, wife of Sir Samuel Edward Scott, Conservative member of Parliament for West Marylebone, and daughter of Earl Cadogan, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, who disappeared somewhat mysteriously while out shopping April 17, greatly alarming her family, has been found and is now with her relatives. The Daily Chronicle, which makes this announcement, says the matter is being amicably arranged.

Municipal Ownership of Saloons.

Toledo, O., April 25.—The Toledo Pastors' Union, at a meeting yesterday, made a move towards sanctioning the municipal ownership of saloons. The matter created considerable discussion, the majority of the pastors seeming to favor the idea.

"A Cheerful Look Makes a Dish a Feast."

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalizing elements do not reach the proper spot.

A step in the right direction is to purify the body by the use of a natural remedy. Hood's Sarsaparilla is Nature's remedy. It acts upon the blood, and whether the seat of the disorder is brain, stomach, liver or kidneys, the purifying process of this medicine is equally sure and successful. It never disappoints.

Great Builder—"Have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for indigestion, constipation and finds it builds up the whole system and gives relief in cases of catarrh." WILLIAM E. WELDON, Moncton, N. B.

Sour Stomach—"My system was out of order. I suffered from headache and sour stomach. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, my health improved and I gained 18 pounds." MAXWELL D. SHAFGRAW, Colebrooke, Ont.

Bad Cough—"My sister was troubled with a cough which caused pain in her left side. She was confined to her bed. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few weeks she was able to sit up in bed, her appetite improved and the cough and accompanying pain disappeared." LILY WALKER, 24 Cottingen Street, Halifax, N. S.

Dyspepsia—"My husband suffered with dyspepsia. Physicians did not benefit him. Two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla relieved him. My husband's father and our little boy have been wonderfully benefited by this medicine." MRS. O. F. CHAMBERLAIN, Glen Sutton, Que.

Run Down—"My system was run down. I could not sleep nights and my appetite was poor. Hood's Sarsaparilla restored an appetite and strength and has made me feel like a new woman." MRS. S. E. DRYDEN, Amherst, N. S.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25, 1899.

A COMMENDABLE RESOLUTION.

An action which will commend itself to the ratepayers generally, as well as to the travelling public, is that of the West Peterborough License Commissioners, which is embodied in their recent resolution requiring the owners of hotel properties and proprietors of hotels to have proper sanitary conveniences connected with their premises.

The farmers, in particular, have complained about the lack of suitable accommodation in this respect and it is to be hoped that the local Board of Health will co-operate with the Commissioners in enforcing a resolution which has so much to commend it.

No hardship is entailed to the hotel men, as the town sewerage system has been perfected to such a degree that connection therewith is a matter entailing small expense, the pipes being laid past the door of every hostelry in town.

Whilst there are many hotels in Peterborough, which are all that can be desired in the matter of sanitary conveniences, yet there are others which fall short and it is to these which the resolution of the commissioners is intended to apply. We hope that those hotels that are particularly interested will not require any further attention called to the resolution, but that they will take upon themselves the duty with the least possible delay.

Sir Hibbert has thought better of it, and is returning to Ottawa. He says the charges he has already made are nothing to those he has up his sleeve. If that is the case he will probably take a trip to Japan as soon as he makes his next sppech.— Montreal Herald.

The dust nuisance is becoming intolerable. The damage done to hats, bonnets, clothing, carpets and all kinds of property by the clouds of dust that have encircled the town for the past two or three weeks would pay the expense of watering the streets many times over. Even more serious is the dirt nuisance from a sanitary point of view. The refuse of the streets finds its way into our houses, stores, everywhere. No one can escape. We are compelled to breathe air that is dust whether we walk in the street or in the house. The water sprinkling is even more necessary in spring than in summer. The streets are dirtier and there is more wind to keep the dust in motion. Complaints at the absence of the water carts in the streets are widespread and numerous. It is to be hoped the authorities will get out the sprinklers at once and abate the evil. The town teams cover their territory, but the portion of the streets which are sprinkled by contract are certainly in bad condition.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines written in sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. David Henderson in their sad bereavement.

The pearly gates on high again have opened,
Another ransomed soul has entered in,
To walk for aye the shining streets so golden;
Safe—safe in heaven; all free from earthly sin.

But ah! the home that she has left is lonely
Since she, their pride and darling, is not there;
Sudden, the call that took her from her loved ones,
This blow is hard for stricken hearts to bear.

For scarcely yet has one short year passed over
Since death laid low a dear one in that home,
And now again he's come with fatal swiftness,
To claim yet still another for the tomb.

But the dark tomb has not the power to bind them,
They've risen above, with Christ their blessed Lord,
To praise their Maker, whom on earth they honored,
They dwell with "Him Forevermore adored."

And oh, dear friends we feel for you deep sorrow,
Tho' words of sympathy seem but empty sound,
But up in heaven you know there's one that careth
When but a sparrow falleth to the ground.

And he looks down in pity on your anguish,
He knows the desolation in your home;
It was in love He called your dear ones to him,
To sing his praises 'round the great white throne.

Those whom you cherished in your hearts so dearly,
Pleasant and lovely all their lives did seem,
And they by death have not been long divided,
Jordon was not to them a dark, cold stream.

For God, their shepherd, gently led them onward,
'Mid pastures green he made them down to lie;
He led them close beside the still, cool waters,
Until they gained their starry crown on high.

Now to the chain another link's been added
Which binds you from this earth to heaven above;
They wait to welcome you at heaven's portal,
With other dear ones in that home of love.

And God, your Father, now is watching o'er you,
And comfort he will send through coming years,
As still you sadly miss them; and He'll bless you,
Till joy and gladness spring from out your tears.

M. O. H.

Otonabee, April 14th, 1899.

Of the late James Fawsett, of Otonabee, aged 73 years, who died February 7th, 1899.

Dearest uncle, thou has left us,
We thy loss most sadly feel,
But 'tis God who hath bereft us,
And he can all our sorrows heal.

Lonely is the home and sad is the hour
Since our dear one has gone.
But, oh, a brighter home than ours
In heaven is now his home.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

Clear and bright through the darkness
Gleams and burns the guiding light.
Brother clasps the hand of brother
Stepping clearly through the night.

Praise for light so brightly shining
On our steps from heaven above,
Praise for mercy daily twining
Round us golden chords of love.

When the day shades round us lower,
Guard us from the tempter's power
Till we pass to perfect day,
Yielding up thy soul at last.

Yet, again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life hath fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Precious father he has left us,
Left us, yes for evermore,
But we hope to meet our loved one
On that bright and happy shore.

A Bond and Pledge.

The proprietors of Dr. Wills' English Pills are building up a lasting reputation for these marvellous medicinal agents. The druggists of Canada are authorized to refund the price of the pills—25 cents —if the contents of one bottle fail to relieve that distressing evil, constipation.

No other pill or medicine ever devised for constipation can give such an honest guarantee to the public.

Dr. Wills' English Pills do their work quickly and without purging, griping or nausea, and after a short treatment the complaint is cured. The ordinary advertised pills are racking purgatives, and their after effects cause increased trouble and suffer-

Dr. Wills' English are the world's great system cleansers and stomach regulators. Call on your nearest druggist for a 25 cent bottle; if you are not relieved when you have used three-fourths of contents you can have your money returned.

Some cough mixtures smother the cough. But the next breeze fans it into life again.

Better put the cough out.

That is, better go deeper and smother the fires of inflammation. Troches cannot do this. Neither can plain cod-liver oil.

But Scott's Emulsion can. The glycerine soothes and makes comfortable; the hypophosphites give power and stability to the nerves; and the oil feeds and strengthens the weakened tissues.

300 TOWNS SACKED.

The "Gentle" Japs Are in Danger of Loding Their Good Character With Their Advancing Civilization.

Seattle, Wash., April 25.—Daily reports received from the Governor-General of Formosa to the home office in Tokio, Japan, announce from 60 to 100 new cases of plague, of which about 40 per cent. resulted fatally. The scourge was most felt in the vicinity of Taipeh and Tain, and there seems little chance of checking its ravages at present.

The people of Formosa are so suspicious of their Japanese conquerors that they will not help in the sanitary measures that have been taken to check the plague. From many of the cities plague victims run outside the city walls and into the mountains rather than give themselves up to the Japanese physicians.

Details of the terrible butcheries committed by the Japanese army on their recent raid through southern Formosa are beginning to reach Japan. It is said more peaceful citizens were killed than bandits, and as many as 300 towns were sacked.

True Spring Health.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Disease Banisher and Life Giver

Used by all Classes and Prescribed by Honest and Able Physcians.

Paine's Celery Compound makes people well in spring time. It is as far superior to the ordinary nervines, sarsaparillas and pills as strength is better than weakness.

Paine's Celery Compound as a spring medicine has the entire confidence of our varied classes of Canadian population. Nothing more decisively proves the worth, popularity and universal use of the great medicine than the fact that it is now used by our wealthiest people who formerly relied on the best medical skill.

Paine's Celery Compound in spring time builds up the broken down nervous system, purifies the blood, regulates and perfectly tones the whole digestive system, gives a relish for food, and bestows all needed vitality and bodily strength.

Paine's Celery Compound to-day is prescribed by the foremost physicians for the cure of kidney and liver troubles. It is invariably successful in its work, making men and women well when they have failed with other medicines.

Now is the time to use the marvellous compound if you desire new blood, new strength and new life for the work and duties of approaching summer. Paine's Celery Compound has done wonders for your friends and neighbors; you need the same never-failing medicine for your case. If you would be cured do not be persuaded to try a substitute.

BRITAIN EXPECTS AN EQUIVALENT.

Willing to Advocate the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty for a Return.

New York, April 25.—A Herald despatch from Washington says: Although willing to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, Great Britain has made it plain to the United States that she expects an equivalent in return for her action.

The equivalent will be exacted during the negotiations of the American-Canadian commission, which is to resume its session in Washington in August next. It is because of a demand for concessions equal in value to that which will be given to the United States in the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty that the negotiations have not progressed with the promptness at first expected.

It is apparent to the officials now that Great Britain proposes to use the proposition to abrogate the treaty to further her own aims in connection with the settlement of the Alaskan boundary and reciprocity questions. Great Britain is determined to make every effort to secure an outlet for her Northwest Territory through Alaska, and the United States is not willing to give it to her. It may be, therefore, that she will suggest that in return for such an outlet she will surrender all her rights in the Nicaragua canal.

President McKinley and Secretary Hay have determined not to enter into negotiations with either Costa Rica or Nicaragua respecting the Nicaragua Canal until the new Isthmian canal commission has submitted its report. The Nicaragua canal commission will report within a short time, and the President will then announce the members of the Isthmian commission. The new commission will proceed to Panama, and later to Nicaragua, and it is the expectation of the President that it will submit its report in time for consideration early in the next session of Congress.

Michigan Judges Were Wrong.

Washington, D.C., April 25.—Chief Justice Fuller yesterday announced the opinion of the United States Supreme Court in the case of Thomas Cosgrave v. Eugene V. Wingey, United States marshal for the eastern district of Michigan. The case involves the extradition treaty in force between this country and Great Britain for Canada, the particular point at issue being whether a resident of Canada, who has been extradited and brought to the United States on one charge, can be arrested on another charge before the first proceedings had terminated, and he had had opportunity to return to his own country. The Chief Justice held that he could not be thus dealt with, reversing the finding of the District Court for the eastern district of Michigan.

Wireless Telegraphy Advances.

London, April 25.—Signor Marconi, the electrician, whose experiments in wireless telegraphy are attracting international attention, has successfully communicated from South Foreland, Kent, England, to the French armed despatch vessel Ibis, while sailing in the English Channel. In conducting the experiment he was accompanied by a French naval officer. The feat marks also his first success in concentrating messages at one point, to the exclusion of all others.

ENGINEER GRAHAM,

Of Montreal, Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 24.—Proof positive and convincing has already been given in Montreal that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure cure for diabetes. And day after day fresh evidence comes to light to make the proof more emphatic and convincing.

Engineer James Graham, 54 Victoria Square, says: "I suffered with Diabetes for six years. One of our best doctors told me I could not be cured.

"I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. Three boxes made me well, and I have not suffered from Diabetes since."

Such cures as this prove the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running he scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This a vention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier o the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

IS THIS YOUR STORY?

"Every morning I have a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I often feel dizzy. I have no appetite for breakfast and what food I eat distresses me. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach. I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble and my nerves are all unstrung. I am getting pale and thin. I am as tired in the morning as at night."

What does your doctor say?

"You are suffering from impure blood."

What is his remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

You must not have constipated bowels if you expect the Sarsaparilla to do its best work. But Ayer's Pills cure constipation.

We have a book on Paleness and Weakness which you may have for the asking.

Write to our Doctors.

Perhaps you would like to consult eminent physicians about your condition. Write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply.

GERMANY TAKES OFFENCE.

Over Captain Coghlan's Report of the Bluster of Admiral Dewey a Year Ago.

Washington, April 25.—The German Government has entered a formal protest against the language used by Capt. Coghlan of the Raleigh at the Union League Club banquet in New York last Friday night. The protest was lodged with Secretary Hay, through the German ambassador, Herr von Holleben.

Secretary Hay replied that the language appeared to have been used at a dinner in a club, and could not be regarded as an official or public utterance in the sense that would warrant the State Department in acting. However, the Navy Department was fully competent to take such action as the case seemed to require. With this statement, the ambassador was content, for the time at least, and will doubtless await a reasonable length of time upon the Navy Department.

Viewed in Germany.

Berlin, April 24.—The afternoon newspapers contain few comments upon Capt. Coghlan's remarks, and they generally take a calm view of the after-dinner speech, and consider the incident closed.

The Vossische Zeitung is an exception to this rule, and pronounces itself in favor of demanding severe punishment for Capt. Coghlan.

Beat Aguinaldo First.

The Boersen Courier thinks it "strange the Americans recommence to seek a quarrel with Germany, instead of first conquering the Philippines, who promise to give them enough work for some time."

THE DUTY ON COAL OIL

Mr. Davis' Motion to Place it on the Free List Debated.

THE STANDARD OIL COMPANY.

That Combine, Says Mr. Davis, Caused Him to Move His Resolution—Mr. Fraser Says Canadian Wells Are in Canadian Hands for the Most Part—Answers to Questions.

Ottawa, April 25.—The plethoric order paper was further reduced in bulk yesterday by the disposal of a couple of score more questions, many of them referring to small postoffices, etc., in the lower provinces. Mr. Davis' motion for free coal oil was debated for a couple of hours. Mr. Fielding suggested that the debate be adjourned until the budget came down, and Mr. Davis agreed, but Mr. Davin insisted on a division, when the motion was carried by 68 to 30. Last night Mr. Fielding brought down the estimates, and promised the budget for Tuesday of next week.

The following private bills were given second readings:

Respecting the Canada Life Assurance Company, Mr. Gibson.

Respecting the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, Mr. Gibson.

Then followed the usual fusilade of questions, most of which were of purely local interest.

A dozen cases of dismissals of country postmasters were explained by the Postmaster-General, causes being variously assigned as political partisanship, active political partisanship, unsatisfactory conduct, living too far from the postoffice.

Questions and Answers.

Mr. Sifton informed Mr. Clarke that the Government sent in the Yukon, via St. Michael's, by the Alaska Commercial Company, 300 tons at a cost of $250 a ton, via the White Pass; 300 tons were sent in at rates varying from 9 to 50 cents per pound. No Government supplies were sold, except small quantities to officials for their own use. Tenders were asked for the larger portion of the goods.

Mr. Clarke was informed that no arrangements have been made for Canada's participation in the mineral exhibit at the "Greater Britain Exhibition" in London this summer. As to representations to the Government against the gold royalty in the Yukon, these were promised in the shape of a return. The only amendment to the royalty clauses was to raise the exemption to $5,000, and "no further amendments were contemplated at present."

Mr. Gillies made enquiry as to the monopoly of private carriage of mails in the Yukon, issued by Frank Harper, late postmaster at Dawson, and steps taken to punish him therefor, to which Mr. Sifton replied that before taking proceedings Harper would be asked to make explanations.

Mr. Sifton gave the number of Mounted Police in the Yukon as 90 officers, 111 men and 34 dog drivers, a total of 165.

Mr. Clarke was informed by the Premier that Mr. Clute had been appointed to make inquiries into the different complaints reported upon by the Crow's Nest Pass commissioners, and his report would be laid before the House.

To a question by Mr. Clarke the Minister of the Interior replied that during the past 12 months the Government had paid to agents of British steamboats as bonus on adult immigrants $2,000 and on children $165; to agents of foreign steamships, $23,130 for adults.

Mr. Martin was informed that the Government has under consideration a scheme of cold storage for the transportation of fresh fish from the Maritime Provinces to Quebec and Ontario.

To a question by Mr. Chauvin, the Premier replied that he had seen the speech of Mr. L. Gouin, M.P.P. of Quebec, to the effect that a remanipulation of provincial subsidies must be agitated, and the Federal Government would accede to the request. But the only representations in the matter before the Government were the Quebec resolutions of 1887, which were under consideration.

The Coal Oil Question.

Mr. T. O. Davis (Saskatchewan) moved that, in the opinion of this House, coal oil should be put on the free list. He argued in support of his motion that the time had arrived when his motion should become an fait accompli. He should not have moved that resolution but for the great combine that they knew at present existed, called the Standard Oil Company.

Mr. D. C. Fraser (Guysboro) said that in Canada the well-owners who had sold them to the great combine were an insignificant number compared with those who had retained and worked their own petroleum wells. The petroleum industry was almost entirely in the hands of Canadians, and it was in the interests of those people that he opposed the motion.

Mr. Ellis (St. John, N.B.,) supported the motion of the hon. member for Saskatchewan.

The Minister of Finance said this was a subject which the Governments could not take up on a special motion, as it was undesirable to anticipate the budget. He then moved the adjournment of the debate.

Mr. Davin (Assiniboia) supported the motion in a lengthy speech, in which he said that in the Northwest Territories, for the year ended June 30, 1898, $27,421 there was paid in duty on coal oil, which went into the pockets of the gigantic oil trust to which reference had already been made.

Mr. T. G. Johnston (West Lambton) opposed the motion of Mr. Davis, on the ground that the freeing of coal oil would render oil-making unremunerative.

Mr. Oliver (Alberta) said, while generally a warm supporter of the present Government, he was a theoretical protectionist. But in the matter of coal oil, he considered two cents a gallon was the full amount of revenue tariff that should be charged, instead of five cents per gallon.

Mr. Richardson (Lisgar) said the people of Manitoba and the west were not altogether satisfied with the tariff generally, but it was because they believed that the tariff would be remodelled and reduced. He could not claim to be a theoretical protectionist. His belief was that they should have no protection whatever. One of the hopes of the people was that if the present Government were returned to office coal and agricultural implements would be placed on the free list. These reliefs had not yet been effected, but it would afford great satisfaction if those goods were placed on the free list. He concluded by supporting the motion.

Mr. Monk (Jacques Cartier) said the Government obtained support in his constituency by promising to free coal oil. They had not carried out that promise, and he should support the motion.

Mr. W. S. Calvert (W. Middlesex) opposed the motion.

Mr. Davis finally said he was willing to accept the amendment, but a division was challenged, when there voted for the amendment, 68; against the amendment, 30; Government majority, 38.

Seed Grain Indebtedness.

Mr. Davin moved that, in the opinion of this House, the seed grain indebtedness in the Northwest Territories should be dealt with by the Government in the following manner:

1. That the indebtedness against abandoned quarters in half sections should be written off.

2. That the bonded indebtedness should be cancelled.

3. That the debt due directly by farmers for seed grain should be handed over to the Local Government, who should be directed to give the farmers the option of paying it in cash or in statute labor.

Mr. R. F. Pope (Compton) seconded the motion.

Mr. Davis supported the general principle of the motion.

The Minister of the Interior said in the cases of bonded indebtedness and the indebtedness against abandoned sections he could see no reasonable manner in which the Government could act without giving the matter the most serious consideration, as the Administration, while desirous of investigating hardship, must protect the revenues. Perhaps before the close of the session something might be done to afford relief in the direction indicated, but he could not accept the motion.

Mr. Oliver said the feeling was that the bond of indebtedness be cancelled, but not the indebtedness itself, because the bonds had entailed great hardships where least expected.

Mr. Davin then, by leave of the House, withdrew the motion.

The Estimates Down.

Mr. Fielding then presented the estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1900, and to-day he will move the House into committee of supply on the estimates. The budget would be brought down on Tuesday next.

On the motion of the Prime Minister the House adjourned at 10.20 p.m.

MARKET REPORTS.

A Big Decrease in the Visible Caused Chicago Wheat Futures to Advance One Cent—The Prices.

Liverpool, April 25.—Wheat futures were easy yesterday morning, but improved later. The May option closed unchanged from Saturday's close, but the July option showed a decline of ¼d.

Chicago, April 25.—Wheat futures advanced about a cent a bushel yesterday, and closed near the top figure of the session. One factor in the rise was the decrease of over a million and a quarter bushels in the American visible supply. Crop damage reports continue to come in, but the opinion is growing that the bad points in the situation have been overestimated, and that this year's yield may not be so far behind last year's after all, especially when it is considered that there is likely to be an extra large area sown in spring wheat.

Visible and Afloat.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has decreased 1,823,000 bushels; that of corn has decreased 1,630,000 bushels, and that of oats has decreased 647,000 bushels. The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 64,779,000 bushels, against 66,742,000 bushels a week ago, and 64,394,000 bushels a year ago.

A Disgraceful Row.

Last evening about 7.30 a disgraceful street brawl took place between several young men in the vicinity of George and Dublin streets. It seems that two young men were standing at the crossing, when another approached on a wheel. One of the young men felt fresh from the invigorating spring weather and made some impertinent remark about the bicyclist's appearance. This, the latter did not like so he dismounted and proceeded to thrash his tormentor, during which process a choice array of "cuss" expressions were employed. A large crowd gathered and remained until the brawlers broke away and left, each under the impression he had licked the other. It is possible a police court case may follow.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Wm. Wensley Found Dead in Her Bed this Morning.

A startlingly sudden death took place at the residence of Mr. T. W. Moore, No. 251 Rubidge street, last night or sometime early this morning.

Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Wensley, was found dead in her bed when the members of the family went to awake her this morning. She was 80 years of age and has been ailing for several years, but her health was not expected in such a manner. Mrs. Wensley is the relict of the late Wm. Wensley, of Belleville, and came to reside with her son-in-law about 12 years ago, after the death of her husband. She was a staunch member of the Methodist church and always took an active interest in religious matters. Seven children survive her. They are Mrs. George Frost, Belleville; Mrs. L. I. Stanger, Hamilton; Mrs. W. H. Donley, Indianapolis; Mrs. T. W. Moore, Peterborough; Albert C. Wensley, Belleville; James C. Wensley, Niagara Falls, and Charles G. Wensley, Campbellford. The latter son arrived to-day and will take charge of the funeral.

Mr. C. LeBrun, of the Palace Hotel, arrived home on the noon train from New York City, where he reports having had a splendid time.

Mr. H. B. Hungerford, of the Mountaineer Collie Kennels, of Belleville and Montreal, gave the Examiner a pleasant call to-day. The Mountaineer Kennels are large importers of thoroughbred stock.

Miss C. E. Shaw, who is well-known in Peterborough, formerly of Detroit and Lakefield, has been appointed matron of the Protestant Hospital for Insane at Verdun, near Montreal, and is now actively engaged at her post.

Mr. W. Bunton, the popular uptown agent of the G.T.R., has returned after a flying trip to New York.

Mr. W. H. Warne and bride, of Cobourg, who have been visiting in town for the past week, returned home to-day on the noon train.

Gospel Meetings.

The Gospel Meetings conducted by Mr. Wm. Slomans, converted Jew, in the Gospel Hall, corner George and Brock streets, will be continued every night this week at 8 p.m., except Saturday night.

Returned Thanks.

At the closing meeting of the N. H.R.U. Bible Class last Saturday, Rev. H. Symonds expressed the warm thanks of the members of the Executive Committee of the Y.M.C.A. for granting them the use of the large hall for their meetings free of cost.

St. Andrew's Prayer Meeting.

Rev. David Flemming, B.A., of Harrowsmith, will assist the pastor in the regular prayer meeting in St. Andrew's church to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Character that Shines."

Both Loved Him.

The appended paragraph, which appeared in yesterday's issue is said to be incorrect by one of the participants in the quarrel, who says that the cause of the dispute originated from an entirely different source. "Residents in the vicinity of Inveries street were edified one evening last week by watching the angry gestures of two women who were quarrelling over a lover with whom both seemed to be equally enamoured."

Worth Seeing.

"Brown's in Town", given at the Opera House last evening proved to be a superior play, in fact the play is too well written to deserve a title that would lead one to expect an absurd farce comedy. It delighted the large audience, which included many of the leading citizens. The company without exception is a splendid one and deserves the highest praise for their artistic and intelligent acting. To-night the famous musical comedy Ole Olson will be given, interspersed with high class specialties.

AN APRIL WEDDING.

NUPTIALS OF MISS HELEN DENNISTOUN AND REV. DR. TORRANCE.

The Ceremony Took Place at Ten O'clock this Morning at Castleknock, the Residence of the Bride's Mother.

A social function of more than usual interest took place this morning, at ten o'clock, when Miss Helen Dennistoun, fifth daughter of the late James Frederick Dennistoun, Q.C., was united in marriage to Rev. E. F. Torrance, D.D., pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the near relatives of the bride and groom, by Rev. J. G. Potter, B.A., pastor of St. Andrew's church, at Castleknock, the residence of the bride's mother. The wedding took place in the large drawing room, which was most beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers for the occasion.

The bride was most becomingly attired, her costume being of white corded silk, trimmed with white chiffon. She wore a veil and orange blossoms and carried a very handsome bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Annie Dennistoun, who assisted her, was attractively gowned in Nile green silk with garniture of white chiffon and black velvet. She carried pink roses.

Amongst the guests invited from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. John Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Ramsay, Mrs. and Miss Black, Lady Galt and Mr. and Mrs. Ferrier Torrance, of Montreal; Sir George and Lady Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Kirkpatrick, Miss Kirkpatrick, Mr. George B. Kirkpatrick, Miss Theo Kirkpatrick, and Mr. George Torrance of Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Noble, Mr. D'Oyly Noble and Mr. and Miss Jenkins of Petrolia; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Smith and Dr. and Mrs. Jones, of Winnipeg; Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Mackerras and Mrs. W. W. Kirkpatrick of Kingston.

The sky which had been somewhat overcast during the early part of the morning, cleared up shortly before the ceremony began and as the wedding party drove to the station Old Sol shone out in all the glory of an April morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Torrance went east on the noon C.P.R. express and expect to be absent for about three weeks on their wedding tour.

Amongst the many handsome gifts received was the cabinet of silverware from the congregation of St. Paul's and a sterling silver tea and coffee service from Lieut.-Governor Patterson of Manitoba. A copy of the Scriptures was received from the Ministerial Association, accompanied by the following address:

To the Rev. E. F. Torrance, D.D.
Minister of St. Paul's Church.

The members of the Ministerial Association desire to extend to you their sincere and hearty congratulations on the occasion of your marriage to Miss Helen Dennistoun.

The pleasure we feel in tendering to you our good wishes is enhanced by the fact that you are the senior minister of the town and of the Ministerial Association. In the former capacity you have won and retained the esteem and affection of a large and influential congregation and the sincere respect of the whole town. In the latter you have always taken a lively interest in the work of the association to whose welfare you have largely contributed by placing at its services the results of your extensive theological studies.

We think you are very happy in allying yourself with a member of a family that has for so many years been amongst the foremost in all good works both on behalf of the town and of your own church and we extend to Miss Helen Dennistoun no less cordial good wishes than to yourself. We pray that you may both live many happy years in Peterborough and that the richest blessings of the Divine Spirit may rest upon your united ministrations.

We ask of you to accept this copy of the sacred Scriptures as a slight memento of this happy occasion.

REV. J. G. POTTER,
President.

An address from the Sunday School was enclosed in a handsome black morrocco cover with fancy scroll designs. In gold on the outer cover were the words, "To Miss Helen G. Dennistoun, from Officers and Teachers of St. Paul's S.S.

Following is the text of the address:

To Miss Helen G. Dennistoun.

On the eve of your approaching marriage, we, your fellow workers in St. Paul's Sabbath school feel it only fitting that we should unitedly tender to you our hearty good wishes for your future welfare and happiness and all the more so as you are to be the partner of one to whom we are all bound as members of a church and congregation.

Your connection with the school both as teacher and organist has enabled us to learn more than we otherwise would of the genuineness of your Christian character and kind willingness to help in every good word and work as well as your ability in the performance of those duties, so that we look forward with confidence to your fitness for the new and prominent position you are now about to fill.

The fact that you are not severing your connection with the school adds in a very real sense to the genuineness of this expression of good will that you are at one with us in all our efforts to advance the interests of Christ's kingdom in our midst.

Again assuring you of our hearty interest and well wishes for your future career we join in wishing you long life and much happiness. May the benediction of God Almighty rest upon you, may He bless and make you a blessing.

Signed on behalf of St. Paul's S.S.

A. J. JOHNSTON,
Superintendent.

The flag on St. John's church was raised during the morning as an evidence of the kindly feeling existing between that congregation and the bride and groom.

THE PASSION PLAY.

Large Crowds are Attending Every Performance at Richard Hall & Son's.

At the invitation of the firm of Richard Hall & Son, a representative of the Examiner dropped into their establishment, yesterday afternoon, and spent a pleasant hour and a half viewing the Passion Play, which this enterprising firm is presenting gratuitously to the Peterborough public this week.

The Passion Play is a beautiful reproduction of incidents of the life and death of Christ, which are presented through the agency of an up-to-date cinemetograph. Being of such a character, some of them are necessarily sad, though of intensely interesting nature. There are 25 scenes in all and they include all the principal incidents in the life of Christ—his betrayal, crucifixion and death. During some of the scenes, audible sobs would be heard, as the various phases of Christ's sufferings were enacted. The play has a peculiar history. It was first enacted in 1611 by the peasants of a little town, Ober Ammergua in Bavaria. It ceased to exist for a time, but was revived again in 1718, again dying out, it was revived in 1790 by the peasants, who have since enacted it periodically every 10 years. During the last 30 years the 3 performances have been widely noticed in the press and Joseph Myers, who enacted the part of Christ has been highly complimented for the manner in which he enacted the difficult role. The closest observer can discover no flaw in the acting, which is very conscientiously done. It will well repay anyone to visit the attraction this week. There will be performances at 10.30 a.m., 1.30 p.m., and 4.30 p. m. and admission will be gained by purchasing 25c worth of goods from the store.

STONY LAKE COTTAGERS' ANNUAL MEETING.

SEPARATE INCORPORATION WAS TALKED OF LAST EVENING.

Officers Elected for the Year—A Piano Will be Purchased—A Morning Train to Reach Town at 9.30 O'clock.

The annual meeting of the Stoney Lake Cottagers Association was held last evening in the curlers' parlour at the Charlotte street rink, amongst those in attendance being Messrs. D. W. Dumble, J. J. McBain, J. D. Collins, B. Shortly, K. G. Lech, T. W. Robinson, A. F. Hoover, E. H.D. Hall, J. W. Butcher, T. E. Bradburn, D. Breese, G. M. Roger.

The first business taken up was the election of officers, which resulted as appended:

President—J. J. McBain.
First Vice-Pres.—E. H. D. Hall.
Second Vice-Pres.—C. J. Blomfield.
Sec.-Treas.—J. D. Collins.
Management Committee — Levi Payne, B. Shortly, D. W. Dumble.
Regatta Committee — Capt. Buck, Dr. Race, John Nugent, K. G. Lech, J. Carter, Arthur Piper and E. B. Edwards.
Sunday Committee — D. W. Dumble (chairman), G. M. Roger, Sheriff Hall, T. W. Robinson, Concert Committee — K. G. Lech, A. F. Hoover, D. W. Dumble, A. L. Davis, R. McWilliams and Prof. Brock.
Musical — D. W. Dumble, K. G. Lech and A. F. Hoover.

The annual regatta will be held on the Peterborough Civic Holiday and the committee was authorized to secure the necessary badges and flags for prizes.

Mr. D. W. Dumble brought up the subject of purchasing a piano, stating that last year $20 had been paid for renting one. He thought the Association could afford to buy one and it would be cheaper in the end.

All agreed with Mr. Dumble and a committee composed of Messrs. K. G. Lech, D. W. Dumble and A. F. Hoover was authorized to purchase an instrument, the price to be paid being limited to $100. The control of the piano will be in the hands of the musical committee, which will have power to arrange for the lease or sale of it to Mr. T. W. Robinson.

The secretary was instructed to endeavour to arrange for the trains to begin running to Lakefield by June 15th and to arrange for the altering of the time table so that travellers from the lake can reach Peterborough by 9.30 a.m. The secretary will also place himself in communication with the Postmaster-General to endeavour to have such distribution of the mail from June 15th to September 15th as was given in 1897 by the Department, the steamers being used.

It was moved by D. W. Dumble, seconded by A. F. Hoover, that the Ontario Government be requested to change the fishing regulations so as to prohibit the catching and sale of lunge and bass between March 1st and June 15th.—Carried.

Copies of this resolution will be sent to Hon. J. M. Gibson and the Ontario Commissioner of Fisheries.

The matter of the increased assessment on the islands by the Burleigh and Dummer councils raised quite a tempest. It was suggested by Mr. E. H. D. Hall that the islands and various points used for summer residences on the main shore be incorporated as a village.

On motion of Messrs. Shortly and Collins Messrs. D. W. Dumble, E. H. D. Hall, E. B. Edwards and G. M. Roger were appointed a committee to consider the advisability of obtaining incorporation as a separate municipality.

The matter of arranging for a more suitable and commodious landing for canoes at Juniper Island afforded food for considerable discussion, but was left over pending the decision of the committee appointed to consider the advisability of incorporating the Islands. In the event of incorporation the necessary wharves can be built with the funds of the new municipality.

Mr. Robinson was asked to place a card in the Pavilion setting forth the objects of the Cottagers Association and asking holders of islands to identify themselves with the same and pay their fees in at the store, where a register will also be kept hereafter for the cottagers and their visitors.

WILL BE EXTRADITED.

Wrestler Doyle Will Have to Go Across the Border.

Sheriff Hazard of Cattaraugus Co., New York, arrived in Lindsay yesterday morning at 11 o'clock with two witnesses and the necessary proofs and documents required to proceed further in his endeavour to secure the person of Robert Reikes, alias Wrestler Doyle, who was arrested there a couple of weeks ago on a charge of theft of a gold watch and chain from a Chattaraugus man some time ago. The argument opened at 1 o'clock before Judge Hardand concluded about 10.30. Mr. Hugh O'Leary, Q.C., put up a hard ened at 1 p.m. before Judge Harding ing decided that Reikes would have to accompany the Sheriff back to Yankeeland two weeks hence unless he can advance proofs within that time that proceedings have not been properly taken.

JERUSHA-LEM!

By The Khan.

Jerusha arose—'twas washing day,
Jerusha rose with zest,
She filled her husband with dismay
By dressing in her best.
She tidied up her shining hair
In a bewitching way.
Had sweet Jerusha quite forgot
That this was washing day.

Jerusha knew the fact quite well,
But things are different now,
There are no suds upon her duds,
No sweat upon her brow.
The work that used to break her down
She now looks on as play,
And that is why she looks so fly
Upon her washing day.

"The Miracle" has wrought the change,
And saved her from despair,
She goes a-singing to her work,
Her heart is free from care,
She's ten years younger than she was;
Her life is like a play,
The gayest hours she ever has
Are spent on washing day.

And when the clothes are on the line,
They are so pure and white,
The neighbour women all around
Are filled with envy quite.
Her husband's very proud of her,
He knows his wife's a gem,
He takes her in his arms and cries
"O, great Jerusha—Lem!"

WEDDED IN PORT HOPE.

Nuptials of Miss Ellen McMahon and Mr. John Hogan, Jr.

(Port Hope Guide.)

A very quiet wedding was celebrated this morning in St. Mary's church by the Rev. Father Lynch, the contracting parties being Miss Ellen McMahon, daughter of Mr. J. McMahon, and Mr. John Horgan, jr., son of our esteemed baggage clerk of the G.T.R., both of this town. Precisely at 7.30 a.m., the bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Mollie McMahon, of Toronto, who acted as bridesmaid, Mr. James Horgan doing the honours of best man. She was costumed in a navy blue ladies' cloth suit with trimmings of white satin and chiffon and wore an exquisite petunia colored hat with fine white net veil. The bridesmaid wore a green suit with large black hat to match. The wedding being strictly private, only the immediate relatives of the parties were present; Miss McMahon being a young lady who was respected by all knowing her, received many useful and costly presents from friends in Toronto, Peterborough, Cobourg and Port Hope. The happy couple will take up house immediately on Hayward street.

A FIVE FRANC PIECE.

ONE THAT IS THE HOPE OF EVERY CREDULOUS FRENCHMAN.

The Story of Napoleon's Famous Coin and the Immense Fortune That Is Popularly Believed to Be Concealed Within It.

If you happen to have in your possession the particular French coin known as a 5 franc piece, you may unwittingly be a millionaire.

Such, at least, is the belief shared by hundreds upon thousands of credulous Frenchmen and Frenchwomen, many of whom spend most of their spare time destroying quantities of 5 franc pieces in the hope of realizing a fortune.

Dr. Marco-Leonardo Nardes, the well known numismatist and one of the recognized authorities on coin lore, speaking of this curious condition of affairs, said:

"It is quite true that half France still believes in the existence of great wealth hidden in a 5 franc piece, although many numismatists hold that the fortune in question was long ago discovered and appropriated by one of the Rothschild family.

"The story of the strange 5 franc fortune legend may be briefly told. A 5 franc piece, to begin with, is a silver coin, and is worth about 4s. 2d. Napoleon I was very anxious to make the coin a popular one, and with this end in view he caused it to be circulated everywhere throughout France that he had inserted in one of the silver pieces before it left the mint a bank note or order for 1,000,000 of these same 5 francs—roughly, about £200,000. Whether he really did this or not I cannot say for certain, but the weight of evidence would seem to show that it was done.

"In the manuscript memoirs of the Duc de Feltie, Napoleon's minister of war, it is expressly stated that the emperor inclosed a note on the Bank of France, duly signed by the governors of that institution, in a split 5 franc piece; that the halves were then welded together, partially reminted and thrown in a heap of similar coins, which the emperor mixed with his own hands. These coins Napoleon took with him in a bag when he went to Boulogne and distributed lavishly en route, even dropping some of them out of his carriage windows. In this way it was impossible to keep track of the lucky coin.

"The news of this odd lottery spread far and wide, and the 5 franc piece leaped into immediate favor. From that day to this mutilation of the coin has been common in France, Switzerland, Belgium and elsewhere. Every year the Bank of France is requested to make good scores of pieces split in a vain search for the 5,000,000 franc bank note.

"There are many stories dealing with reputed finds of the fortune. Indeed when a man becomes suddenly rich in France it is common to hear people whisper, 'He must have found Napoleon's famous coin.'

"Some assert that the emperor kept the coin himself, but this hardly agrees with Napoleon's character. Still it is a current theory that some of the money which enabled Napoleon III to reach the imperial throne was found in the lucky silver piece, which his mother, Queen Hortense, had wheedled out of her brother-in-law.

"It was also common talk that General Boulanger had acquired the famous coin until the discovery that his money supplies came from the Duchess d'Uzes set that belief at rest.

"The most likely explanation as to why the 5 franc piece fails to turn up is that Baron Ferdinand de Rothschild, a French member of the great Jewish banking house, secured it. This account states that Baron de Rothschild, having investigated the tradition and found sufficient proof of its truth, deliberately set to work to locate the note.

"He quietly bought in and collected every 5 franc piece he could get, and his agents were notified to preserve and forward to Paris every 5 franc piece which reached them in Europe, Asia, Africa or America. In his office the baron kept three trusty men hard at work bisecting the coins.

"Some say that he had invented a plan for welding them together again, so as to defy detection; others maintain that he melted down the silver and sold it to the government en bloc. The work was colossal, but in the end the baron's sytem is said to have conquered.

"He found the note for 5,000,000 francs, having spent nearly 1,000,000 to obtain it. The order was duly presented at the Bank of France and cashed by that institution.

"Plausible as this narration may seem, the great mass of Frenchmen refuse to credit it, and go on, year after year, splitting open their 5 franc pieces to look for Napoleon's note. It is certainly a tantalising thought that somewhere in the world a check for £200,000 is knocking about hidden in an ordinary silver coin worth less than 5 shillings."—Pearson's Weekly.

The right kind of flesh means health. Nearly all sick people lose flesh; and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery restores it with wonderful rapidity.

But it does not make flabby fat; it will not increase the weight of corpulent people; it gives the substantial healthy muscular tissue that is accompanied by strength and vitality.

"I am thankful to say I am feeling entirely well once more," writes Mrs. Hannah J. Watkins, of Raccoon, Laurel Co., Ky., in a memorable letter to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. "When I wrote you first I was feeling very badly, and the reason I want this published is because I think it may induce some poor suffering one to try Dr. Pierce's medicines and get well.

"But I can only give you a small idea of how I was suffering with what doctors pronounced indigestion and womb trouble. I had been troubled with my stomach for four years and with womb trouble about thirteen years, or ever since my first baby was born. When I wrote to Dr. Pierce I had such terrible misery I could not tell how I was suffering.

"Sometimes I felt that I would rather die than live. My stomach was all out of order and I would belch nearly all the time; nothing I ate agreed with me. I was sick at my stomach half the time; my shoulders ached, my sides hurt, my legs and arms ached, and I was tired and sick all over. My bowels were either too loose or bound up all the time. I have taken in all seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five of 'Favorite Prescription,' also I followed the advice I found in the little book called 'Woman and Her Diseases.' Now doctor, I am so thankful I wrote you, and for your kind advice. You were so kind to write me and not charge me anything for consultation. When I commenced taking your medicine I weighed one hundred and four pounds and now I weigh one hundred and sixteen, and I am gaining all the time."

If constipation is also present, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be taken. They never fail; they never gripe. Medicine dealers sell Dr. Pierce's medicines.

REPAIRING WATCHES.

How Jewelers Tell When They Were Last In Their Hands.

There was a crowd around the counter of a down town jewelry store where watches are received for repairs. A woman who was evidently in a hurry made her way to the place where the man with the magnifying glass stood and handed a little watch to him.

"Will you please tell me what ails this watch?" she asked.

The watch doctor opened the case deliberately, peered into the works and said, "It needs cleaning."

"My, that seems strange!" said the woman. "You cleaned it only a few months ago."

"Is that so?" asked the man and opened the case once more and made another examination with the aid of a miniature microscope. Then he handed the watch back and said, "We cleaned this watch two years ago, and it has not been in our hands since that time."

"Is that so? I must be mistaken; but how do you know when it was cleaned last?"

The man explained that it was no trick of memory, but simply the result of a system. "Whenever a watch is brought to us," he said, "to be cleaned, regulated, repaired or 'fixed up' we put a tag on it, which is numbered to correspond with a number in our workbook. In the book we record the style and make of the watch, the owner, what repairs are to be made and the amount charged for the work, and when the workman finishes the job he puts the same number in microscopic figures on the edge of the inner case. A letter or sign also shows what has been done to the watch. So, you see, when a watch comes here we look for a mark of that kind, and when we find it we refer to the book, and there you are."

The woman left the watch with the man of system, and when she had gone he said: "That happens many times every day. We have the most fun with the people who say, 'You guaranteed this watch for a year when you repaired it, and here it is out of order again.' The glass usually reveals the fact that the watch was 'due to break' months and sometimes years ago."

All watchmakers keep records and mark the watches which are placed with them for repairs, but no two have the same system. Some makers mark the watch with the name of the workman and a record number after it, some mark the date and the workman's initial on the case, and others have signs in conjunction with these designations to show just what work has been done on the timepiece.

This system of marking and recording watches is of much service to the police also, and lost and stolen watches are identified daily by means of the watchmaker's private marks.

VULNERABLE.

When unsymmetric chaos in its might
Ruled the dim, desolate earth and held it bare,
In gloomy caves there wandered everywhere
Amorphous monsters, larvæ of affright.
Deep in the vast, impenetrable night
They lived and loved, dreading no future care
Until their souls were fired to strange despair
When God, to dazzle them, created light.
Groping, like them through sin and ennui's gloom,
I lived in callous stupor strangely dumb,
Pleased with a changeless lot as dull time flies.
O pardoning woman in thy summer's bloom,
Why to illumine my dark soul did'st thou come,
To haunt me with the splendors of thine eyes!
—Francis S. Saltus in Connecticut Magazine.

GENTLEMAN JACK.

A Short Story of a Mining Camp in Nevada.

They called him "Gentleman Jack."

He came to the mining camp at Virginia City one summer's day and asked the superintendent for work. The miner looked at his questioner's white hands, frail figure and neat fitting clothes and smiled. But the man insisted, and finally the superintendent consented to allow him to remain.

That night, when the miners returned to camp, the newcomer was introduced to them as Jack, the only name he gave. His companions smiled as the superintendent had smiled, and one, turning to his fellows, said, "Gentleman Jack."

Jack took his place in the mines and performed his share of the labor. His comrades gradually came to respect the man who, evidently unaccustomed to the life they led, yet adapted himself to the conditions as they knew them. Time and time again they sought to assist him, but he would not permit it. Neither did he talk of himself. Once they happened to hear him refer to Chicago, and it was understood it was his former home.

Six months passed. The miners were one day using dynamite to remove the rock. After the explosion Jack was found lying on the ground, crushed by the weight of a huge bowlder. Tenderly they bore him to the hillside. They thought him dead. The blood oozed down his pallid face. His eyes were closed. As they stood about him the eyelids raised, and a smile spread over his features, followed quickly by a terrible look of pain. His lips quivered, and, bending low, his comrades heard a murmur of words.

"Mother, I have not forgotten," was what he said, and then, in long drawn, suffering sounds followed the words, "Our Father—which art in heaven—hallowed be thy name—thy will—be—done—on—earth—as"— And then, though the lips continued to move, no sound was audible. Those who watched knew, however, that the prayer was finished.

The eyes again closed, the stained, bruised lips smiled—Gentleman Jack was dead. Who he was his comrades did not know. But somewhere a waiting mother may understand as she reads.—Chicago Journal.

African Currency.

In Africa there are several varieties of unusual money. The following incident gives an example of one mode of using currency:

In west Africa there was an illustrious king, Kamrasi by name, of the Wanyoro tribe. He sent off an expedition provided with 600 majumbe, a kind of iron spade money. The expenditure of 2 majembe per diem would provide for the expedition. With them was carried a magic horn, which protected them from danger.

East central Africa furnishes another form of spade or hoe money made of hammered iron. This is made and used by the Bari tribe, who trade with people from the interior. This hoe is of no practical use, except as a portable form of exchange, after barter being converted into weapons and ornaments. At Urua, central Africa, is another form of currency in the shape of a flat cruciform ingot of copper, 9¾ inches in length.

Spears formed a currency in use near Stanley Falls as recently as 1895. The iron spear is very well made. In the shaft is an ornament. The whole thing is 5 feet 5 inches in length and could well be used as a weapon. It is a recognized currency at Lower Lomamu. A smaller object is from the same district, of a graceful shape, but of no use except as money.—Good Words.

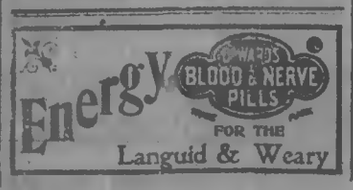
The Monkeys of Malacca.

Do you care for monkeys? Personally I know two kinds only in Malacca and detest them both—the brok and the kra. The brok is a big, brown, fatuous baboon of the familiar low comedy pattern, forever scratching himself and sputtering and fidgeting with hands and feet and making faces. Should you desire to please him you will squat (just beyond the length of his chain) in front of him and similarly scratch your person, make faces and sputter. Then in high good humor he will amble round his post in as big a circle as his chain permits, clutching at your hair with an adroit high kick as he passes. Such are his low delights. The kra is a small gray person of passionate appearance, with close set, fiery eyes. The tastes of this little fiend are still more primitive—namely, to fly straight at you with his tail sticking out and his crest sticking up and bite you again and again.—Blackwood's.



TRUST THRUSTS.

Is it not about time to change the motto on the standard coins to "In New Jersey We Trust?"—Omaha World-Herald.

The formation of a coffin trust will enable the individual dealers comprising it to bury the hatchet.—Boston Globe.

Although a hidebound affair, it can hardly be claimed that the leather trust is a soleless corporation.—Chicago Times-Herald.

The hearse hoot of the coffin trust could be made as silent as the grave if the country would assume a stiff upper lip and resolve to adopt cremation.—St. Louis Republic.

So many trusts have been formed under the laws of New Jersey that it is really surprising, in view of its facilities, that that state as yet has no mosquito net trust.—Troy Standard.

A sausage trust is about the only combination that could be made without entailing either loss or inconvenience to the public. That particular article of diet embraces such a variety of ingredients that it would be impossible for a trust to control the raw material or regulate the price thereof.—Nashville American.

Losses and Gains of the Turf.

It is estimated that as much as between $200,000,000 and $250,000,000 is lost yearly upon the turf, England contributing its share to the extent of from $35,000,000 to $50,000,000. Australia is the largest loser, it being calculated that no less than $100,000,000 changes hands there yearly. The French suffer more next to the Australian colonies, most of the remainder of the amount being contributed by other British colonies and the United States.

The Bark Explained.

A gentleman had left his dog at his sister's while abroad for a few months, and on his return the animal was so excited that he was not surprised to hear him barking in the night. The barking was so persistent that the owner put on his dressing gown to go down stairs and pat Rover on the head to soothe him. He was no sooner in bed again than the noise recommenced. So he made another journey to point out, with some asperity, that the repetition of the offense would call down serious consequences upon the delinquent. He was just dozing when the barking started more furiously than ever and continued until he made a third journey with the walking stick.

Soon after, the disturbance began once more. Fortunately the gentleman was too sleepy to get up again, and at last he went off to sleep, vowing to sell the dog next day. When the morning came, however, his sister hoped that he had not been roused by the barking of—her new parrot! It was always imitating the dog at night, she said.

Hard on the Children.

Korean school children have a hard time. In the first place, their punishments differ from those of other youngsters. When a child deserves chastisement, the white robed schoolmaster whips the offender on the calves of the legs, the victim standing, or rather hopping, while the operation is in progress. Lessons are taught from "The Book of the Thousand Characters," the children studying the Korean tongue through the medium of Chinese. Scholars must first learn the Chinese characters and then the Korean meaning of these characters. The master sits on the ground, his class around him. They are obliged to remove their shoes on entering the schoolroom.

The Betel Nut in Siam.

Everybody in Siam chews the betel nut, with the result that the teeth become a bright black like that of patent leather boots. White teeth are considered as repulsive as black teeth are with us, and decay is unknown among betel chewers.

Another effect of the habit is constant spitting, which covers all the floors and streets of the country with dark red stains resembling splashes of blood.

The Secret of Health

The health of the whole body depends upon the blood and the nerves. Therefore a medicine that creates new blood and supplies the necessary materials for rapidly rebuilding wasted nerve tissues, reaches the root of many serious diseases. It is these virtues that have given their wonderful power to conquer disease, and caused the miraculous cures that have startled the scientific world. Thousands of cases have demonstrated that this remedy is an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, pale and sallow complexions, and all forms of weakness in either men or women.

But you must get the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Imitations never cured any one, and other so-called tonics are but imitations of this great medicine.

A SEVERE CASE OF ANÆMIA.

Miss Mabel J. Taylor, living at 1334 City Hall Avenue, Montreal, writes: "I write to give you the honest testimonial of a young girl who believes her life was saved by the use of your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. In November, 1897, I was suddenly stricken with loss of voice, and for eight months could only speak in a whisper. At the time I was completely run down. I had no appetite, no energy; suffered from headache, palpitation of the heart, and shortness of breath. I was not able to walk up or down stairs. I was given up by the best doctors, and the different remedies I took did me no good. While in this condition I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. By the time I had taken four boxes my voice was restored, and after the use of eight boxes I am feeling perfectly well. I cannot find words to express my thanks for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me, and you are at liberty to publish this letter, in the hope that it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

NOT ABLE TO TURN IN BED.

Mrs. J. Sinclair, of Rockway Valley, Que., writes: "I have suffered more than my share from the agonies which accompany a severe attack of rheumatism. I was first attacked with the disease some four years ago. The trouble gradually grew worse until finally I was confined to bed, and could not turn myself. I was not able to put my hands to my head, and every bone in my body ached, and pained if I dared to stir. I was run down and felt very weak and wretched. I took several bottles of medicine prescribed by the doctors, but it not help me. I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills so highly recommended that I got a few boxes, and before I finished them I saw I was gradually gaining health and strength. I kept on taking them for a couple of months, when every pain and ache had left me, and I was enjoying the best of health. I am never troubled with rheumatism now, and I have to thank Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for my release. I always recommend them to friends who are ailing."

The Genuine are Sold only in Packages like the Engraving. WRAPPER PRINTED IN RED.

KIDNEY... DISEASE

The wonderful success of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills adds to the fame of the great doctor whose name is familiar in almost every home as the author of the world famous Recipe Book.

Scores and thousands of grateful men and women have been rescued from the miseries and dangers of kidney disease by this greatest of all kidney cures.

Mr. D. C. Simmons, Mabee, Ont., writes: "My kidneys and back were so bad I was unable to work or sleep. My urine had sediment like brick dust. I was compelled to get up four or five times during the night. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and concluded to give them a trial. I have only used one box and am completely cured. I was a great sufferer for 18 years, but my kidneys do not bother me now. I enjoy good rest and sleep and consider Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills a boon to suffering humanity."

A FIZZLE.

That's What the Disarmament Conference May Prove to Be—Germany's Delegate for War.

London, April 24.—According to advices from excellent authority not even the most sanguine of those concerned now expect any substantial progress to be made at the coming peace conference towards either disarmament or even suspension of armaments. The Czar himself and his entourage are reported to have lost their illusions on the subject, and it is said that the proceedings treating of military and naval questions will be confined to the generalities. None of the decisions will be binding, and even in the matter of international arbitration if anything is agreed to it will not be absolutely obligatory.

The British newspapers last week warmly took up the question of Emperor William's choice of Prof. Von Stengel as a German delegate to the conference. It is pointed out that, judging from his writings, he is a declared advocate of war, and not of peace. Therefore the papers here confess themselves as being nonplussed at his selection and declare it is hardly possible the German Emperor can desire the success of the conference if he maintains his nomination.

Extracts from Prof. Von Stengel's pamphlet, "Der Ewige Friede" ("The Everlasting Peace"), have been reproduced. Some of his references to America are decidedly interesting. After declaring that the Germans least of all nations should support the "fantastic aspirations of the friends of peace," he says: "The Americans, intoxicated with success, will strive more and more to become the dominant power and dictate their law to Europe in any contest between America and Europe. Shall Germany stand peacefully on one side and bow humbly before America? Certainly not. This is already impossible, because political dominion is also economic dominion, and Germany must be politically and militarily powerful if she does not wish to go to economic destruction."

Further on, Prof. Von Stengel declares he does not know whether it was "mere madness or crime when perpetual peace was preached to the German nation," and describes the Czar's rescript as a "bombastically composed document."

CHINA'S REACTIONARY POLICY.

An Intolerable Situation for Foreigners—Powers May Take Action.

Pekin, April 24.—The reactionary attitude of the Chinese Government toward foreigners is creating for them an intolerable situation which cannot be prolonged. Promises made by the Tsung Li Yamen (Chinese Foreign Office) are of no value unless approved by the Grand Council, a majority of whose members are bitterly hostile to foreigners and foreign influences. Unless some change takes place soon, it is believed the powers will remonstrate directly to the Empress Dowager. As an illustration of the ignorance of the Grand Council, that body has just given its enthusiastic approval to a new invention by the general commanding the troops in the Province of Peshili. General Kangau, a sharp, shovel-shaped implement capable of decapitating an enemy at a single blow. There seems little likelihood that Li Hung Chang will return to power.

St. Petersburg, April 24.—The great ice-breaker, Ermak, since her arrival at Cronstadt in the latter part of March, has demonstrated her success beyond the hopes of her designers. Ten ice-bound vessels have already been liberated in the harbor at that place.

The vessel is likely to revolutionize the entire conditions of navigation to ice-bound ports, and the course of trade with such countries as have hitherto been considered closed by sea in winter. The Ermak with ease opened a passage through packed ice eight feet thick and through solid ice three feet thick. Such ports as Cronstadt, Archangel and Odessa may in the near future be considered "open ports," and the benefit to commerce and shipping will be immense.

THE PACIFIC CABLE.

The British Press on the Resolutions Introduced by Mr. Mulock.

London, April 24.—Hon. Mr. Mulock's Pacific cable resolutions are welcomed in the press as meaning business.

The Pall Mall Gazette says all the members of the family will be eager to do their best to agree upon a bond which will be most useful, both in sentiment and practically, and might be uncommonly so in time of war."

On the other hand, Radical organs like The Manchester Guardian, assuming that the British Government is a party to Mr. Mulock's resolution, attack Mr. Chamberlain for keeping the British public in the dark. The Guardian says: "It is absurd that we should get to know what the Government means to do from the proceedings of a Colonial Parliament before either the cable committee's report has been published or Mr. Chamberlain can find an opportunity to speak on the subject."

It is admitted that the Imperial Government, from shame, cannot now refrain from contributing. Moreover, other proposals now under consideration by Cecil Rhodes and the Colonial Office promise to make the Pacific cable a link in a new all-British trunk line round the Empire, the other links being an extension of the Halifax-Jamaica cable across the South Atlantic to the Cape, with probable extensions across the Indian Ocean, via Mauritius and St. Paul, to India and Australia.

A QUEBEC CONTEST.

Lumbago Driven Out Promptly by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Quebec, April 10.—Although Quebec is called the "Gibraltar of America" and well deserves the name, it is by no means impregnable against the assaults of Kidney disease. Fortunately the inhabitants have an ally in Dodd's Kidney Pills that succeed in driving the enemy out every time it gains an entry.

Some time ago Mr. John Ball, of No. 57 Little Champlain street, was attacked with Lumbago. He suffered for two years without getting relief from any of the medicines he used. Then he tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and the first box he used helped him. He used only three boxes and is now well and strong in every way.

Half the Iowa's Crew Sick.

San Francisco, April 25.—Nearly half the crew of the battleship Iowa are on the sick list and the men are loudly protesting. All of them seem to have more or less malaria, and they are clamoring for the removal of the ship to better quarters. The Iowa is now lying off the Union Iron Works, and the stench from the sewers which empty into the bay is said to be the cause of sickness on board.

Jones Follows Fitzhugh.

St. Thomas, April 25.—Mr. George C. Jones, superintendent of the Wabash and Grand Trunk Railways in St. Thomas, has been promoted to the position of superintendent of the middle division of the Grand Trunk Railway, with headquarters in Toronto, in place of Superintendent E. H. Fitzhugh, who has received the appointment of general manager of the Central Vermont Railway.

Hansen Takes It Back.

Fredericton, April 24.—In the New Brunswick Legislature on Saturday Mr. Hansen, the Opposition leader, withdrew the charges made against Premier Emmerson. He said he had never imputed political dishonesty to Emmerson, but still he believed some of the bridges had cost too much.

Hairene for the Hair

Dr. Andrew Grant & Co., Toronto:

Dear Sirs,—Your "Hairene" I believe to be a wonderful remedy. It certainly produced most unexpected results in my case. My hair had been falling out very freely for some time. Becoming anxious about the matter I thought I would experiment upon the properties of "Hairene," and one application actually stopped it at once. I applied it once or twice afterwards, using in all about a quarter of one bottle, and not having required to use it since. It seems to have given renewed and healthy vigor to the scalp, and I can recommend it in all confidence.

THE POPE'S TOMB READY.

He Has at Last Written the Final Inscription.

Rome, April 24.—Several years ago the Pope placed with the famous sculptor, Luchetti, a commission to construct a tomb for His Holiness, to be placed in the Basilica of St. John. The tomb is now completed in every detail, save one. It can be erected in its place in a day or two. The missing detail is now being supplied. It is the inscription, which the Pope once jokingly said he would write when there seemed to be a likelihood of its being required. Last week he composed the inscription and sent it to Luchetti. It is in Latin, and very simple, containing only the Pope's Christian name and surname, the date of his birth, a blank for the date of his death and a few words recording Pope Leo's veneration for St. Thomas and St. Anthony.

SPANISH ELECTIONS.

The Government Is Now Strongly Entrenched in the Senate.

Madrid, April 24.—The Senatorial elections for the new Cortes were held yesterday and passed off tranquilly throughout the country. They have resulted in giving the Government a larger majority in the Senate than it had secured in the Chamber of Deputies.

It is reasserted in different reliable quarters that the attempts of Don Carlos to raise a loan on the security of his Italian and Austrian estates have failed.

A Chance for French Girls.

Paris, April 24.—In consequence of the complaints of French colonists that it is impossible for them to find French wives, unless they return home, the Ministry of the Colonies intends to instal a central emigration office for women in Paris, with branches in the country. Approved maidens who are considered suitable for colonial marriages will be provided with a wedding outfit costing $60, with $20 pocket-money and with a free passage to the colony selected. The first experiments will be made in Madagascar.

Business Better in Cuba.

Havana, April 24.—The sugar crop for 1899 is officially estimated at 807,908 English tons, against a total for 1898 of 232,032 tons. The tobacco crop is said to be of good quality and more abundant than for two years past. A large stock of Remedios filler was sold in the field for $28 per quintal. The planters in the Province of Pinar del Rio are very cheerful as to the outlook.

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

—Many ruts and holes on George street which were very injurious to the springs of vehicles were filled with cracked stone this morning, and after settling the roadway will be considerably improved.

—The annual meeting of the Peterborough Public Library Board will be held next Monday evening, May 1st, when the election of officers will take place and routine business disposed of. By a recent act of the Legislature the date of the annual meeting will be changed to the second Monday in January.

—Chief Roszel investigated a complaint made yesterday that offensive garbage had been dumped into the creek and polluted its waters. To-day he was endeavouring to collect sufficient evidence to warrant a charge being made against certain persons whose identity is known to Him. Chief Roszel says he is determined that the practice shall be discontinued.

—A communication was received by Chief Roszel this morning from R. James, the chief constable of Bowmanville, requesting him to keep on the lookout for three tramps, averaging 23 years of age, who broke into the residence of C. M. Crawker, of Bowmanville, and stole a quantity of jewelry and other articles on Sunday night.

—Peterborough's Children's Aid gramme of athletic sports and races. Society is becoming widely known for the good results accompanying its work. Relief Officer Miller has received a letter from a man named David Smith in the vicinity of Sudbury enquiring as to the cost of maintenance of two children who are at present in private hands in this town. He believes they would receive better care from the hands of the societies' officials than from private sources.

RE GRANOLITHIC PAVEMENTS.

To the Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—These pavements are certainly a success and our city fathers are right in extending them as they propose, always with the motto before them, Equal rights (as far as possible) to all, and special favour to none. But, right here, I would like to say I and many others, especially of the working class in this town believe that we have working men skilled in this class of work, able and willing to do it as well as any from a distance if it were placed within their reach. And at a less cost to the ratepayers. Someone may say, "tender for the work." Wealthy contractors may do this but many of us have not the means, but we could do the work instead of standing idle as so many of us are doing these fine days. Would it not be well to place a skilled workman in charge of at least a part of the work to be done. Pay him and all the men that work under him a fair day's wage for a fair day's work, the town furnishing all material required; and if it is found that the work is satisfactory to the Town Inspector and done for less or even the same money that it would cost if let by contract, would it not be an act approved by all right thinking men, an act of simple justice? Our working men—many of them taxpayers—other things being equal, should have the preference, rather than allow a contractor from a distance to come here and make a profit to be spent—well not in this town. The working men ask no favours, but they fully expect our Aldermen will remember them kindly and do them justice.

Thousand of pleased and satisfied women write about their successes and triumphs with the Diamond Dyes. Mrs. M. Constantin, of St. Eustache, P.Q., writes as follows:

"It is with pleasure that I tell you of my success with Diamond Dyes. A few days ago I dyed an overcoat with your dyes, and the result was marvellously pleasing and satisfactory."

SPORTING PASTIMES.

Interesting Items of Local and General Interest.

LACROSSE.

All members of the Executive of the Lacrosse Club are requested to be present at the meeting which is to be held in the secretary's office, this evening at 8.30 o'clock.

The Toronto Telegram says: Peterborough lacrossites are getting into shape for the season and held a preliminary caner Saturday. They are trying to induce Norwood to place a team on the field, but it is doubtful if the little town will manage to. Lionel King is trying to secure the services of a trainer named Bunting, who is said to be a good rubber. A team needs a good trainer above all things, for no small part of their success depends on his handling of them.

GOLF.

It should be encouraging to the younger players of the Peterborough club to know that the President's medal was won by one of our youngest men, Mr. F. C. Napier of the Bank of Montreal. It is not surprising, as the professional, Mr. Smith, who was here last week stated, on enquiry, that Mr. Napier in his opinion was the best golf player in Peterborough. This is certainly encouragement to the new members, and a well merited compliment to the local champion.

THE TURF.

The Colborne Express says: Mr. A. L. Philp has disposed of his pacing stallion, Furioso, to Mr. T. H. Hamilton, Peterborough for $11,50. Mr. Hamilton intends entering him in the circuit races this season.

Yesterday's Fire.

A blazing chimney in the Clancy House, Hunter street, was responsible for the brigade being called out yesterday afternoon, shortly before six o'clock. No damage was done.

Quaint Sayings.

It is interesting and instructive to read bright and well constructed advertisements. Messrs. C. I. Hood & Co., of Sarsaparilla fame, must have been at a great feast and taken everything home with them. They are using a bright selection of quaint old sayings and proverbs as the starters in a series of clever advertisements, wherein the proverbs are neatly turned and paraphrased to fit the subject matter. The public like this breezy advertising, as it reminds of other proverbs and opens up discussion.

THE U.S. LOSES 53 MEN

Twelve Killed and 41 Wounded by Skillful Filipinos.

INSURGENTS ARE IMPROVING.

MacArthur's Division Converging on the Filipino Fortress of Calumpit—Several Columns Move Upon the Town—Insurgents Again Becoming Troublesome at Malolos—The Official Report.

Manila, April 26.—General Hale's brigade, consisting of the Nebraska, Iowa and South Dakota Regiments, with three guns, which left Malolos on Monday, followed the west bank of the Rio Grande River to a ford. The force encountered many small bands of rebels, and during the afternoon discovered several hundred of the enemy entrenched near Pullian, north of Quingan. Our troops attacked the rebels and lost six killed. In addition, 11 of the Americans were wounded. General Hale's troops claim that nearly 200 dead natives were counted along the country traversed. Among the dead was a Spanish captain.

The South Dakota Regiment bore the brunt of the fighting and had five men killed and nine wounded.

The temperature yesterday was 94, and several cases of sunstroke were reported.

During the day the Americans captured 350 prisoners.

The Filipino troops engaged were well uniformed and well drilled. As the campaign progresses, the rebel troops are improving. They are adopting American methods and the accuracy of their shooting is evinced by the fact that the five Americans were shot in the head.

General Hale at 4 o'clock yesterday morning crossed the river and advanced on Calumpit. General MacArthur's division also advanced, and nine of the armored flat cars were pushed ahead on the railroad. The Kansas Regiment advanced on the right of the track and the Montana Regiment pushed forward on its left. The rebels are already returning to Malolos and are becoming troublesome. They fired on an ambulance yesterday which was passing across the Plaza, and they have driven the Chinese out. The Third Artillery patrolled the town last night.

Six Killed, 28 Wounded.

Gen. MacArthur's division fought on the trenches before Calumpit yesterday, advancing four miles through woods and jungle, and crossing the Bagbag River. Six Americans were killed and 28 wounded. The South Dakota Regiment pursued the insurgents to the outskirts of Calumpit, which was so strongly protected that Gen. MacArthur deemed it best to withdraw his tired fighters and camp for a night's rest before assaulting the town. The largest buildings of Calumpit were on fire when the Americans crossed the river a mile away, indicating the intention of the insurgents to abandon the place.

REPORT FROM OTIS.

Official Details of Hale's Engagement and Loss—Calumpit Invested.

Washington, April 26.—The following has been received at the War Department from General Otis, at Manila, April 25:

"Hale's Brigade, MacArthur's Division, moved down right bank Quinqua River yesterday to vicinity of Calumpit; now joined by Wheaton's Brigade on left bank. Hale encountered fierce opposition, driving enemy with heavy loss, taking his entrenchments in flank. Hale's casualties, six killed, 18 wounded. The division has now invested Calumpit, which will be taken to-day. Lawton, with part of his command, reaches Norzagar this evening, where he will be joined by centre column from Bocave. Extreme heat, rain, high streams, bad roads, made march very difficult. He has not met opposition since leaving Novaliches, enemy retreating in his front. South of and near Manila enemy has a force of 4,000, making demonstrations daily; can be easily taken care of. It cannot communicate with north. List of casualties of day before yesterday cabled to-day."

WHAT CAPT. COGHLAN SAID.

The Raleigh's Officer Disclaims the Remarks as Reported.

Washington, April 26.—At the Cabinet meeting yesterday the recent utterances of Captain Coghlan of the cruiser Raleigh were informally discussed. Secretary Long had received a letter on the subject from Captain Coghlan. The Captain disclaimed any intention of insulting the German Emperor or Admiral von Diedrichs, and his remarks on the occasion of the Union League Club banquet were made in the most informal manner in the company of friends, without any thought that they would be repeated in the public press. As they did appear, he said, they were exaggerated and distorted and he was made to say things he did not utter. He claims that under the circumstances the remarks should be regarded as privileged.

After the Cabinet meeting adjourned, Secretary Long and Secretary Hay remained a short time with the President to further discuss the matter.

It is understood that the Captain will soon retire from the service through the regular channel, and it is thought that, in view of this fact, and further that he rendered distinguished service at the naval engagement at Manila, the authorities will show him as much consideration as is consistent with naval discipline.

German Press on Coghlan Incident.

Berlin, April 25.—The German press continues to maintain a moderate tone regarding the utterances of Capt. Coghlan. The Neuste Nachrichten and The Frankfurter Zeitung confess that "the American sailors had a certain amount of justification for irritation at the presence of German men-of-war at Manila."

The Frankfurter Zeitung suggests that it was not the German Foreign Office, but Emperor William, who was responsible for the "officiousness of the German squadron."

One journal, which has lately published violent articles against Great Britain and the United States, acknowledges with great readiness the "civility of the United States Government in robbing Captain Coghlan's tactless invectives of all offensiveness and political significance."

BIG CONCERN CLOSED DOWN.

Yarmouth, N.S., Is Therefore in a State of Consternation.

Halifax, N.S., April 26.—Not for years has anything caused so near an approach to general consternation in Yarmouth as the announcement that the Burrell Johnston Iron Company has ceased work and dismissed all hands. Among the hands dismissed were some who had been working constantly there for 42 years. Of the 60 hands fully one-half are owners of real estate and nearly all have families. They embrace a large number of the best middle-class citizens of Yarmouth.

It seems the company has not made money for its shareholders for some years, though there was a time when 16 per cent. dividends were paid. At a meeting of the shareholders, held on Saturday, it was resolved to immediately close up business. Among the rumors is one that some stockholders in Halifax have resolved to have the works removed here.

STANDARD OIL'S COPPER GRAB.

Control Obtained of the Leading Properties in the States.

New York, April 26.—The absolute statement was made yesterday by an important interest in the copper trade that H. H. Rogers of the Standard Oil Company, acting for a syndicate, had obtained control of many of the heaviest producing copper mine properties in the United States, including principally Montana mines and those in the Lake Superior region. Among them are the Anaconda, Isle Royale and Copper King. The deal, however, was yet in an incomplete shape, and on that account those most interested were averse to giving out any details. All the arrangements for carrying through had been placed in the hands of Mr. Rogers.

Mitchell's Disappearance.

Hamilton, April 26.—The hurried departure of W. F. Mitchell, formerly local manager for the Goold Bicycle Company, has caused a great amount of talk. It is believed that he left unsatisfied claims to the amount of $1,000. It has been found that he took about $300 from the company's safe. The notes and papers missing were found in the furnace. Mitchell carried the compartment containing them into the cellar, and what he did not want he threw into the furnace, which was not burning.

The death-watch has been set on Parrott, the murderer. The matricide is beginning to feel his position, and says he will be glad when it is all over.

Gaspesia at St. John's.

St. Johns, Nfld., April 26.—The Canadian Liner Gaspesia arrived here on Monday, convoyed by the sealer Kite, after being 30 days from Paspebiac, 55 of which she was frozen in ice floes in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. The Gaspesia is considerably damaged through being nipped among the floes.

A LADY AND THE BEAR

Russia by Her Influence Secures Three Corean Seaports.

SHE LECTURED THE EMPEROR.

His Corean Majesty Then Banished Ministers Who Had Opposed Her Will, and Then Told Them That Had It Not Been for the Lady Their Heads Would Have Fallen.

Vancouver, B.C., April 26.—According to despatches from Corea, received by the mail steamship Empress of China, the world will soon be talking of Russia's tremendous inroads into the country. Russia has won over Lady Om, the favorite mistress of the Emperor, who has dreams of ascending the throne through the help of Russia. The Emperor has leased exclusively to Russia three whaling ports—Ousian, Sungchinoo and Chinpodo—in all 700 meters in length and 350 in breadth. The despatch says Lady Om has so enchanted the Emperor that His Corean Majesty is a puppet in her hands. His ministers say beware of Russia, and the Emperor echoed Russia must not have a foot of Corean territory. Lady Om was appealed to by the Russians. The Emperor was severely lectured by that lady, the sequel being that the objecting ministers were banished from Corea for 15 years, and the Russian demands were acceded to. The Emperor also, at the suggestion of the intriguing Lady Om, told the outlawed ministers that they could thank Lady Om that their heads were not taken off.

Russia's Clamps on Persia.

Bombay, April 26.—The Times of India says it learns from an unimpeachable source that Russia has secured an interest in a port on the Persian Gulf sufficient to give her the right to take possession of it whenever she chooses. It is added that this information comes direct from Teheran, and it is believed the port referred to is Bunder-Abbassee.

40,000 CHINESE

Are Gathering Back of Taipofu and Will Defy Hongkong Extension.

Hongkong, April 26.—The British authorities are not over-sanguine of a peaceful occupation of the new British district of Kowloon, opposite Hongkong. The natives, though easily routed, do not scatter and are now re-occupying villages in the interior, from which they were driven. A force of 40,000 Chinese is now gathering back of Taipofu.

REV. DR. JOSEPH PARKER.

Pastor of London City Temple Used Very Unparliamentary Language in Speaking of the Sultan.

London, April 26.—The 300th anniversary of the birth of Oliver Cromwell has furnished the occasion for biographies, appreciative articles, portraits in all the papers and celebrations in various parts of the country, in honor of the Lord Protector of the British Commonwealth.

Dr. Joseph Parker, minister of the City Temple, this city, took the subject as the theme for his sermon yesterday afternoon, and delivered an extraordinary oration to a large congregation. During the course of his remarks he attacked the Prince of Wales as a "Certain card-playing prince." After eulogizing Cromwell, Dr. Parker said: "When the prince fails, then let the country mourn! We look to princes for noble deeds and a high example. When I see my prince and my preacher on a race course I don't like it."

Rabid Attack on the Sultan.

These remarks were cheered by the audience, and Mr. Parker proceeded to make a rabid attack on the Sultan of Turkey, during which he said: "Emperor William may call him his friend, but in the name of God, the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, I say God damn the Sultan!"

The preacher concluded with a passionate denunciation of the church for "accepting Protestant money for performing Popish tricks."

Then, drawing from his Bible the undertaker's bill for his wife's interment, he soothingly read the word on top of the bill, "unconsecrated."

"Shame!" shouted Dr. Parker, and the congregation loudly re-echoed the word.

Continuing, the preacher said: "When I read the word it means vitriol poured into a red, gaping wound. It is a knavish trick! a Popish device! detestable blasphemy! It made me still more faithful to non-conformity, which made England possible to live in."

Strong Punched His Assailant.

Paris, April 26.—Mr. Strong, the Paris correspondent of The London Observer, was yesterday attacked on the street by an English journalist named Sherard. Mr. Strong broke his walking stick across his assailant's back and punched him severely about the head.

First University in Pekin.

Moscow, April 26.—According to a despatch from Pekin, the first university ever maintained at the Chinese capital has just been opened, with 880 matriculates.

Countess Esterhazy After Divorce.

Paris, April 26.—The Matin yesterday announced that Countess Esterhazy will begin proceedings for a divorce from her husband, Count Esterhazy.

Soldier's Painful Home-Coming.

Derby, Conn., April 26.—William Cruise, a wounded soldier, returned to his home in this city on Saturday and found his wife living with another man, under the belief that he had been killed in the fighting around Manila. He had kept her in ignorance of his return in order that he might give her a pleasant surprise. He found her surprised, but not glad to see him, and after upbraiding her he left town, saying he was going back to the Philippines forever.

"Welcome, Evil, If Thou Comest Alone."

One evil that cannot come alone is impure blood. If this is allowed, it is attended by kindred ailments galore. This condition means that every vein and artery of the body, instead of carrying to the organs a health-giving flow of life, is laden with a slow and impure fluid that is harming instead of healing.

It is unfortunate when there is "bad blood" between people. It is worse when it is inside of you. Hood's Sarsaparilla will not make enemies friends, but it will make "bad blood" good blood, and blood should be of the best quality. Hood's never disappoints.

Pimples—"My face was covered with pimples and blackheads but after taking Hood's Sarsaparilla a short time, I was entirely cured, and my skin left smooth and clear. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla very highly." MAY RYAN, North Street, Chatham, Ont.

Erysipelas—"I would strongly urge the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla for erysipelas or any scrofulous disease. I have received great benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla for the former complaint. It is an excellent blood purifier." MRS. H. D. WEST, Church Street, Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

Tired Feeling—"I had no appetite and experienced a tired feeling. Different medicines did not help me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time I was enjoying perfect health. Since then we always take Hood's Sarsaparilla when we need a blood purifier or tonic." MRS. S. KIRTON, Beatrice, Ont.

Stomach Trouble—"I had pains in my sides and kidneys. Stomach and liver troubles caused my distress. I had doctored without avail and used many medicines unsuccessfully. My sister advised Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a short time it cured me. I am now stronger and sleep better. I shall never be without Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house." MRS. FRANCKS, 209 Ossington Avenue, Toronto, Ont.

LAKEFIELD.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mrs. C. Bell, of Lachine, Que., is in the village, the guest of her mother.

Mr. W. Calder has built a new livery barn on Water street.

Mr. Robert White went to Beadford last week, where he has secured a situation.

Mr. Gerald Hayward of the Military School, Toronto, spent Sunday at his home.

The river is very high at present and is rising every day, it is higher now that it has been for years.

Gentlemen, if you require a new summer suit, R. Graham & Son are showing a fine assortment of new cloths, which they can make up to your order.

On Friday of last week, while Messrs. J. Sibbald and H. Marling were out sailing in a canoe on the lake, by some means the boat upset a short distance from the shore and precipitated them into the cold water. Their passage to the shore was impeded by the ice, which broke under them when they attempted to climb upon it. After severe exertions they managed to reach a boom of logs and got upon them, and from there reached the shore. No serious results came from the cold dip.

Last week two ducks belonging to Mr. Calder were drawn into the current above the dam and being unable to get out went over it. Nothing was seen of them while they were going down the river, but they managed to get out safe and sound below the saw mill.

Mrs. C. H. McWilliams and children of Havelock, are visiting in the village.

Mr. E. R. Tate had his boat house damaged by ice last week.

R. Graham & Son, have received a new supply of millinery goods this week, the latest styles and novelties.

Mr. H. Smith has secured a situation as tailor at Marmora, which we are sure he will fill successfully.

One of the incandescent lamps burned out in the English church on Sunday evening during the sermon, and caused quite an excitement for a few moments, one lady fainted, but beyond fright no damage was done.

Mrs. W. M. Graham and Miss B. Graham are in Toronto this week, attending the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Association of the Church of England.

Miss Olive Hayward, a graduate the Rochester Hospital, is home for a holiday.

Mr. George Cochrane was in the village last week.

Messrs. Reg. Abbot and Wes. Robinson left last week for Manitoba.

R. Graham & Son are showing a handsome lot of new sailor hats for ladies at special prices.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Management of the Public Library it was decided, after May 1st to strictly enforce the rule that all books must be returned in two weeks. Parties keeping out a book over two weeks will be fined five cents for each week or part of a week, and no more books issued until the fine is paid. In the past parties have been in the habit of keeping books out for over a month at a time thereby debarring others from the pleasure of reading them. The sum of $50 has been voted for under them when attempted to this week.

On Monday evening, Beresford, L. O. L. meets in the Orange Hall.

Clementi Lodge, No. 313, A.F. & A. M. will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening of next week. It is expected that work will be put on in the first and third degrees.

The True Blues met in the Orange Hall on Wednesday evening of next week.

Wood's Phosphodine is sold in Peterborough, by H. H. Edmison.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

The entertainment on Thursday evening given by the ladies of St. Mary church was somewhat different from past entertainments and could really be termed a night of fun, and proved to be a perfect success in every way. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and quite a number from Peterborough, Lakefield and Warsaw were present. Mr. C. Young presided and after a neat address called upon the first number. Irish jig, Mr. T. Hoolihan; song, Picture of My Best Girl, Mr. C. Kavanagh; recitation, Miss Mary Walsh; vocal duet, Misses M. Young and L. Godfrey; song and dance, Golden Wedding, Mr. Harry Kearney; song, Maid of Dundee, Mrs. A. Wilson; song, Letter to Heaven, Miss Mollie Young; reading, Mr. White; song, New Hampshire Home, Miss L. McFarlane; song, My Beautiful Irish Maid, Mrs. A. Wilson; song and dance in Jewish character, Mr. Harry Kearney; song, Mr. T. Hoolihan. After several instrumental selections refreshments were served to one hundred and fifty people. Then the young gentlemen set back the chairs and dancing was indulged in for a couple of hours to the strains of Hudson's orchestra, of Peterborough. Misses Jennie, Louisa and Maggie Kearney, L. McFarlane and E. Scolland deserve great credit for the way the evening's entertainment passed off. The committee desire to cordially thank the public for their liberal patronage, and also the participants, who made possible the presentation of so satisfactory a programme.

Mr. W. Brooks has rented Mr. W. McFarlane's hotel. Mr. McFarlane intends moving back to Love Sick this week, where he secured the position as lock master.

Mr. C. Cavanaugh is spending a few days with friends here.

Miss E. Mowry, of Lakefield, is visiting friends here.

The ice is beginning to move in Clear Lake.

The farmers have already commenced plowing and the roads are in very good condition.

It's reported that a new English church, to be built of stone, will be erected here in the near future.

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick is looking forward to the 24th of May anticipating his Lakefield picnic to be the best picnic of the season. Look out for posters later on.

Mrs. M. Bluett, who has been ill for some time past, is improving.

The water is very high in the lake and river at present.

Mr. P. P. Young is busily engaged repainting and fixing up his steamer Majestic, getting ready for the summer trade.

BENSFORT.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Rev. Thomas Dodds left last week for work among the settlers on the Rainey River District. We wish him a very successful summer.

Mr. John Buckham, one of Monaghan's enterprising farmers, bought a colt last week. The price paid was high, but the animal was a very choice one.

Mr. George McLelland killed two black foxes last week. He shot one and caught the other in a trap. Mr. McLelland expects to realize a good price for them, as they are extra good skins.

Dr. Willis is building a summer residence on Muskrat Landing, nearly opposite James Wedlock's summer resort. The building is an imitation of the early settler's cabin, built of logs, rough stone chimney and thatched roof. When completed Mr. Willis expects to have one of the nicest buildings in the vicinity.

Farmers have commenced their spring work. Fall wheat looks well considering the unfavorable winter.

The several local trappers have "lifted" their traps. The catch not warranting them in leaving them any longer. Fish are again making their appearance. The river is pretty well watched this spring. The local nimrods will have to be more wary than usual, as there are several inspectors on the waters this year.

Building operations are in full swing. Business in that line is brisker than for some years.

Navigation has opened comparatively early this spring. The ice left the lake last week. The steamer Eclipse made her first passenger trip of the season on Saturday, 22nd, to Peterborough from points on Rice Lake and Otonabee river.

MADAME WALLACE.

Cured of Female Weakness by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 17.—The ladies of this city are rapidly coming to realise the value of Dodd's Kidney Pills, as a specific for all Female Troubles. Mdme. Sarah Wallace, modiste, 388 Papineau ave., has had an experience that goes to show that no other medicine can equal Dodd's Kidney Pills for Female Troubles.

Mdme. Wallace writes:—"I suffered for three years with Female Weakness, and none of our physicians could relieve me. I was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills, and had only used one box when I felt better. Now I am cured, and have taken only two boxes."

Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure Female Troubles.

HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Great anxiety still prevails in Havelock over the one absorbing topic, "Will the trainmen have to move to Smith Falls?"

The citizens express much gratitude for the part that the Peterborough Board of Trade have taken.

Buildings lie partly finished as a result of the above rumour. Carpenters and masons are idle.

Miss Tucker, of Norwood, has been visiting for a few days at Mr. R. Barlow's.

The I.O.O.F. church parade here on Sunday last was well attended by members of the fraternity, their being over sixty members on parade. The Rev. Mr. Carson, of the English church preached a very excellent and impressive sermon to the brethren, each one feeling that he had learned something that would do him good. A number of Campbellford members were present.

A number of the I.O.O.F. members here purpose attending divine service with Campbellford lodge on Wednesday evening, the 26th inst.

Mr. A. V. Fuller is on the sick list.

Mrs. Joseph Knox spent Sunday at her mother's in Blairton.

Mr. R. Phillips spent two or three days in Toronto last week.

The Rev. Mr. McQuade, of Havelock, and Rev. Mr. McCamus, of Norwood, exchanged pulpits on Sabbath last.

Mr. W. H. Thompson, night operator, has gone to Burketon and Mr. George Lacey will fill his old position here again.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim," no one should fail to try them. Only 50c., guaranteed at Jas. Lynch's Drug Store.

SKIN LIKE BABY'S

Skin diseases from the merest pimples to the most obstinate eczema, salt rheum, running sores, are quickly, pleasantly and permanently cured by Dr. Agnew's Ointment—35 cents.

Who does not envy a baby its soft velvety skin? How many suffer from distressing skin diseases—Do you suffer? Have you tetter—salt rheum—scald head—ring worm—eczema—ulcers—blotches on the skin—chronic erysipelas—liver spots and what not else of these distasteful and aggravating disorders which disfigure and discourage? Dr. Agnew's Ointment allays the distressing itching, burning, stinging sensations which are part and parcel of such troubles, and in a thousand cases where internal treatments have failed to heal and eradicate them it has worked wonderful and permanent cures—and no skin disease, no matter of how long standing, has baffled its curative qualities. In cases of chronic eczema it has proved its great worth, and cases are on record where this dread affection has been the birthright of its patient and constant companion until past middle life, and Dr. Agnew's Ointment has cured speedily and permanently. It is a boon to mothers because it is a boon to babyland—scald head and its irritations, which are accompaniments to the teething period, are quickly driven off and restlessness passes away—and where torture reigned with baby this balm brought rest and a cure—it affords instant relief from the itching distress. . . .

Do you suffer from piles—itching, blind, bleeding or ulcerated?—No remedy has brought so quick relief, spared painful surgical operations as Dr. Agnew's Ointment—it has proved itself an absolute cure for piles in all forms and at all stages—one application will relieve the itching, irritating sensations in an instant—and long standing cases disappear after from three to five nights' treatment—the pain and soreness quit you and the tumors vanish.

A lady living in a northern County town writes that for seventeen years she was troubled with salt rheum. She took doctors' treatments and used many lotions without any permanent relief. Reading of the cures made by Dr. Agnew's Ointment, she decided to try it. The first application allayed the irritation and she continued using it—the disease rapidly disappeared and now for two years there has been no sign of a return of it.

The baby of mother lady living on Pacific Ave. in Toronto, was terribly afflicted with scald-head and eczema—she tried washes prescribed by her physician, and soaps advertised for such purposes, but the disease remained—Dr. Agnew's Ointment was her good friend; half a box cured the baby and cured herself of troublesome piles which had been the bane of her life since baby's birth.

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART—Cures palpitation, fluttering, shortness of breath and all heart disorders—relief in 30 minutes.

DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER—Has cured cases of catarrh of 30 years' standing—relieves cold in the head in 10 minutes.

DR. AGNEW'S LIVER PILLS—Stop sick headache—cure constipation, biliousness and liver troubles—pleasant little doses—40 in a box—no more. —4

The Falling Leaves Give Warning of Winter

So the falling of the hair tells of the approach of age and declining power.

No matter how barren the tree nor how leafless it may seem, you confidently expect leaves again. And why?

Because there is life at the roots.

So you need not worry about the falling of your hair, the threatened departure of youth and beauty. And why?

Because if there is a spark of life remaining in the roots of the hair

IN MEMORY OF SIR JOHN.

Chair of Political and Economic Science Founded at Queen's.

Kingston, April 26.—At a special convocation of Queen's University held in the City Hall yesterday afternoon the Sir John Macdonald chair of political and economic science was founded in memory of Canada's former Premier, and the honorary degree of LL.D. was conferred upon Sir Charles Tupper. The ceremony brought together a brilliant assemblage. The speech of the afternoon was made by Sir Charles Tupper.

THE HOUSE IN SUPPLY

The Statutory Increase in the Salaries of Civil Servants.

GOVERNMENT POLICY STATED.

There Will Be Discrimination in Order to Reward Faithful Service in the Public Interest—Opposition Critics—Speech of the Solicitor-General—Plebiscite Returns—Votes Passed.

Ottawa, April 26.—The greater part of the session of the House of Commons yesterday was taken up by committee of supply, 16 items of the civil government vote being passed. Several sharp discussions took place in committee, the Opposition challenging the vote for a larger than the statutory increase of salary to officials in a few cases, which were shown by the Government to have been exceptional, and also protesting against the discrimination which had been exercised by the Government in not granting increases to all officials who are eligible by virtue of length of service for increases. The Solicitor-General made a vigorous defence of his department in reply to criticism respecting the expenditure for outside legal assistance, showing not only that the expenditure for that purpose was much less than it was under his predecessor, but that the expenditure of his department had been largely reduced, and, furthermore, that in two cases alone since he had assumed office, by a reversal in the superior courts of decisions given against the late Government, no less a sum than $100,000 had been recovered for the Dominion treasury. Respecting his right to practise his profession while holding office, which had been referred to by the Opposition, he said this was an open question, upon which he would be largely guided by the opinion of the House.

Bills Introduced.

Respecting the James Bay Railway Company, Mr. McCormick.

Respecting the Huron & Erie Loan & Savings Company Mr. Moore.

To incorporate the Canada Permanent & Western Canada Mortgage Corporation, Mr. Robertson.

Respecting the Dominion of Canada Guarantee & Accident Company, Mr. Clarke.

Respecting the Canadian Power Company, Mr. Bertram.

Respecting the Hamilton Power Company, Mr. Madore.

Respecting pensions to the members of the Northwest Mounted Police force, Mr. Davin.

Mr. Ethier (Lib., Two Mountains) introduced a bill to amend the Criminal Code so as to relieve the sheriff of discretion as to admission of persons to executions of criminals. The act provides for the admission of justices of the peace of the district, parents of the prisoners, clergymen and such other persons as the sheriff may deem proper to admit. For the last-named class the bill proposes to substitute the words, "and journalists." Mr. Ethier instanced the disgraceful scenes of the executions at St. Scholastique and Joliet, at the former the admissions by the sheriff numbering 875. The bill was read a second time.

The Quebec Plebiscite.

Mr. Foster made another appeal, on the order of the day being called, for the production of the poll books and returns of the plebiscite in Quebec quoted from by Mr. Fisher a few days ago, the production of which documents had been ruled by Mr. Speaker to be necessary. He concluded by moving the adjournment of the House to make the discussion in order.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier reviewed the circumstances under which Mr. Fisher had mentioned the returns in question. He held that all the Minister of Agriculture had done was to summarize returns in the hands of the clerk of the Crown in chancery, to show that Parent had grossly deceived the Dominion Alliance in regard to the alleged frauds in Quebec. The ruling of the Speaker was correct and should be followed, but the documents alluded to were not in the custody of the Government, but of the clerk of the Crown in chancery, who was an officer of the House. And it was the privilege of every member of Parliament to go to the clerk and obtain the very information. At all events, the return had since been laid on the table.

The point having been debated at some length, Mr. Speaker gave it as his opinion that if a document was under departmental control of a Minister or his colleagues, it ought to be produced, but as to whether the documents in the possession of the clerk of the Crown in chancery were in that category he declined to rule. The motion to adjourn was negatived.

Committee of Supply.

The House then went into committee of supply, and took up the vote for civil government, amounting to $1,915,909. Upon the first item of $10,950 for the Governor-General's office, Hon. Mr. Foster inquired how many of the officials in this department were eligible for the statutory increase, and how many had received it.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, in reply, stated that only two officials were eligible, and both had received it.

Upon the item of $29,840 for the office of the Queen's Privy Council, Hon. Mr. Foster inquired what the policy of the Government is with reference to granting the statutory increases in the civil service.

Hon. Mr. Fielding, in reply to Hon. Mr. Foster, said that the policy of the Government in relation to this question is the same as announced last year. There is a difference of opinion between the Government and the Opposition as to the meaning of the Civil Service Act. The Opposition said that the officials are entitled to the increase as a matter of law. The Government thought otherwise, and were supported in that opinion by the Minister of Justice. With reference to the question of right the Government again differed with the Opposition, and said that it was a matter in which the Government should exercise its discretion.

The items under the heading of civil government, providing for the Governor-General's secretary's office, the Privy Council office, Departments of Justice, Militia and Defence, Public Printing and Stationery, Controller of Mounted Police, Indian Affairs, Auditor-General, Finance, Customs, Inland Revenue, Marine and Fisheries and Geological Survey, having been passed, the committee rose. Under the item of Geological Survey Hon. Mr. Sifton, in reply to Mr. Hughes (Victoria), said that the plans for the new geological building are being prepared by the Public Works Department, and the matter is now under the consideration of the Government.

The House adjourned at 10.45.

Cold Storage.

Mr. Stephen W. Furness of Hartlepool, England, director of the Furness Line of steamships, was here yesterday and had an interview with Sir Richard Cartwright with reference to cold storage and other matters. Amongst them was the question of a continuation of the small subsidy the line is receiving for its winter service from St. John and Halifax to London and Manchester.

That Quebec Plebiscite.

Mr. Moore last night gave notice that he will move "that it be ordered that clerk of the Crown in chancery lay on the table of the House the poll books and voters' lists for the Counties of Beauce, Levis, Montmagny and Kamouraska."

IN THE SENATE.

Ottawa, April 26.—In the Senate yesterday afternoon Sir Mackenzie Bowell introduced a bill respecting the Imperial Life Association of Canada, which was read for the first time.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell withdrew his notice of motion for a return for copies of all correspondence on the subject of the proposed Pacific cable, as the policy of the Government with respect to the Pacific cable had been announced since he gave the notice of motion.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell got an order for a return of copies of all correspondence between the Government and the Provincial Governments relative to amendment to the Franchise Acts of the provinces to give voters the right of appeal to a judge.

VICTIM OF THE MAFIA.

Pietro Presta Must Die for Having Betrayed Albi, the Slayer of William Lacy.

Spokane, April 26.—When Albi, the slayer of William Lacy, was apprehended, the Italian colony at Priest River, Idaho, claimed Pietro Presta, an Italian farmer, had betrayed him.

Last Tuesday Pietro was ambushed by four or five Italians, and came out with a ragged bullet hole in his hip. He was left for dead, but his wife came to his aid and took him to a hospital, where he is coming around all right.

Pietro declares one Nancrato shot him and that other attempts had been made upon his life. He emphatically states that he did not betray Albi, though Nancrato had said he did it for $50.

Pietro is in deadly fear of his life. He is afraid to go back to his farm. He doesn't know what he will do. He knows he is a doomed man.

MUD LAKE BRIDGE.

An Effort being Made to Build a New Structure.

Mr. J. B. McWilliams, Crown Timber Agent, returned yesterday from Ottawa, where together with Mr. John Lang, M.P., for East Peterborough, he waited upon the Government in reference to the placing of a grant in the estimates to defray a portion of the expense of rebuilding the Mud Lake Bridge.

The deputation was favourably received by the Minister of Railways and Canals and came away impressed with the idea that a sufficient sum would be voted, which together with grants expected from the Ontario Legislature, County and Town Councils and Enniamore, would warrant the building of an entirely new bridge.

If the expectations of those interested are realized, sufficient funds will be raised to do a lot of filling in from either shore. Two large piers will be then erected and the floating bridge built in two sections and attached to them in such a way that it can be disconnected in the centre and be allowed to swing with the ice jam in the spring, and towed back to its place again at small expense and undamaged.

The present structure has been in existence for over thirty years and although considerable money has been spent in repairing it from time to time, it is in a dilapidated and dangerous condition.

New and Original Advertising

It is interesting to watch the new ideas to be found in the advertising of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The present line of advertisements is especially unique, each beginning with a familiar proverb and leading up to the good qualities of this famous medicine. The argument in every case is clinched by condensed testimonials from peopel the medicine has cured. It is gratifying to see the continued success of an article of genuine merit. While other preparations come to the surface and after a short time disappear, Hood's Sarsaparilla has steadily maintained its place in public confidence.

THE LOCAL BATTALION.

Good Attendance at the Weekly Drill Last Evening.

The welfare of the batallion is creating considerable interest on the part of the citizens just now and there were numerous spectators at the weekly drill in the sheds last evening. The new recruits are getting into good shape and will soon be drafted to their respective companies. It is believed that outside drills will be commenced shortly.

Following are the week's orders:

No. 2.—Lieut. Bennet is granted leave of absence from parade on May 2nd.

No. 3.—The Commanding Officer has been pleased to make the following promotions.—"F" Co, to be Col.-Sergt. Pte A. Kingscote; vice Mathias resigned; to be Sergt. Pte. A. Stethem.

By order,
H. A. MORROW,
Capt. and Adjt.

OBITUARY.

Sad Death of Edith Sutton Last Evening.

The death took place last evening, of Edith Sutton, aged 22 years, second daughter of Mr. Edward Sutton.

The deceased had been ill for the past three months, though having contracted a cold which developed into lagrippe and afterwards into inflammation of the lungs and throat trouble from the effect of which she died as stated, last evening.

Miss Sutton was a great favourite with a large circle of friends whose sympathies will be extended to her parents in their bereavement.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, corner of Murray and Aylmer streets, to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock to the Little Lake cemetery.

DEATH OF MRS KING.

The Funeral Took Place From The G. T. R. Station To-Day.

At noon to-day the funeral took place from the G. T. R. depot to Little Lake Cemetery, of Mrs. J. King, of Chicago, formerly of Peterborough.

The body was accompanied by the husband of the deceased and one son. The family lived in Peterborough, but moved to the western metropolis about three years ago. Rev. J. G. Potter conducted the funeral services. Mr. Peter King of town is a brother-in-law of the deceased.

Look Out When the Colours Run!

Did you ever buy Wall Paper in which the colors run so badly when the paste went on that the paper hanger could not make a decent job? Well, that's the kind to keep clear of. It's usually sent out to be sold to bankrupt stock dealers. You may feel quite sure that no such stuff will be found in the Wall Paper stock of the Peterborough Bookstore. We find plenty low-priced wall papers with permanent colors to make an attractive room which we can sell at prices no higher than what is asked for the common trash.

CAUGHT A LOON.

Fraserville's Postmaster Captures a Fine Specimen.

Mr. John Richardson, postmaster of Fraserville was in town to-day, with a magnificent specimen of the great northern diver, or loon, as it is more commonly called. The loon alighted in a small pond near the village, in which there was not enough water to permit it to raise to fly away, when Mr. Richardson approached. He accordingly waded out into the pond and caught the bird alive. It will be mounted by Taxidermist Elcome.

LeBrun & Co. Branching Out.

Mr. H. LeBrun was in Campbellford yesterday, making arrangements to open out a branch store in that flourishing village. Live retail clothing men who insist on getting bottom prices, must buy very largely now-a-days; and the firm of H. LeBrun & Co. is determined to find rock-bottom. Their recent heavy purchases of superior clothing in Montreal necessitates openening a new branch store, and Campbellford is to be favoured.

A lease of the corner store in the Wallace block has been secured, and the premises are now being specially fitted up to be ready for the opening on the 4th of May. Campbellford will thus be benefitted by the addition of a new and enterprising business firm, whose integrity and financial standing has never been questioned. The friends of Messrs. H. LeBrun & Co. in Peterborough, will heartily wish them every success in their new venture.

MARRIED.

TORRANCE — DENNISTOUN—On Tuesday, April 25, 1899, at Castleknock, Peterborough, the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. J. G. Potter, Helen Grant, daughter of the late James F. Dennistoun, Q.C., to the Rev. Edward Fraser Torrance, D.D., of St. Paul's church, Peterborough.

A CANNIBAL SENTENCED.

Lindsay's Bad Man Gets a Month in the County Gaol.

Robert McDonald, the man who had an affinity for Constable's McGinty's thumb and exhibited his excellent taste in removing a portion of flesh therefrom, was brought up at this morning's session of the police court for sentence. At his trial he exoused himself on the plea of drunkeness. Magistrate Dumble, after considering the evidence, sentenced McDonald to one month's imprisonment with hard labour. The prisoner claimed that he came from Lindsay, but this fact is disclaimed by the authorities of that town.

DEPUTATION TO OTTAWA.

A deputation consisting of Hon. E. J. Davis, North York; D. H. Hoyle, M.P.P., and Mr. F. J. Gillespie, of North Ontario; W. L. Fraser, Bradford, and several others are in Ottawa interviewing the Minister of Public Works with a view to have additional work done on the outlets of Lakes Simcoe and Coucouching which will prevent the annual overflow of these lakes during the months of May and June. The work was begun under the administration of the late Sir John Thompson, and the plans and specifications as approved by him and subsequently carried out in part by the Laurier Government are not entiregly satisfactory, and it is to remedy the defects that the deputation now waits upon the government. If the government accedes to the request of the deputation it is claimed that 40,000 acres of first-class land in the vicinity of the lakes will be reclaimed, whilst the cost is estimated not to exceed $10,000.

HAVELOCK HAS SENT A COMMUNICATION

TO J. W. LEONARD, GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT OF THE C. P. R.,

In Reference to the Moving of the Railway Employees from Havelock to Smith's Falls.

The town and county will be well represented in the deputation which is to wait on Superintendent Leonard of the C.P.R. in connection with the Havelock matter. Warden Pearce has signified his intention of being present with several members of the County Council and Mayor Davis and a number of the Aldermen will, in all liklihood, also be in attendance as well as a committee from the Board of Trade. As a strong delegation will, of course represent Havelock, the deputation should have considerable influence with the C.P.R. Co.

Havelock has drawn up a statement of its grievances in the following letter which has been forwarded to Mr. Leonard.

J. W. Leonard, Esq.
Gen. Supt. C.P.R. Co.,
Toronto.

Sir,—Soon after Havelock was established as a divisional point, your company signified by order to their employees operating eastward from that point that they would be expected to live in Havelock.

It has always since been known and understood that the policy of your company required their employees who operate a division to live at the west end thereof.

These employees and the people of Havelock have always relied upon and been governed by the permanence of such policy and the above order.

As the place where Havelock now is was a forest but a few years ago, houses and homes were not available and had to be built.

A large majority of these employees have consequently invested their hard earned savings in homes at Havelock, the value of the property owned by them amounting to upwards of $200,000 and any change of policy that depreciates the value of their property is a direct injury and loss to them which they cannot well afford and should not be caused without good and unassailable economic reasons for such change being an absolute necessity for your company.

As the population of Havelock is chiefly of railroad employees any change that will cause the permanent removal of owners or tenants of property must necessarily cause a great depression of values, as there is nothing to attract people otherwise employed to replace them.

White it may be said that notwithstanding the adoption of the above rule, the men will not be ordered to move to Smiths Falls, it seems manifest that its operation would necessarily keep such men as have their homes at Havelock, so much of the time away from their homes and families that they will be obliged to remove their families to Smith's Falls, sacrifice their property and "pocket their loss."

Not only would those who were compelled to remove suffer such loss, but all the company's employees who have invested in homes and in any other way in Havelock would also sustain great loss and injury by depression of values.

It is manifest also that the traffic interests of your company would suffer by any damage that will result in the pulling down of the industrial and trade energy and development of Havelock.

The people of Havelock, including your company's employees, who live there, have learned that the company have not been heretofore unmindful of the welfare and prosperity of their servants, and they think that you would personally sanction, and your company would not inaugurate any change that would needlessly work injury and loss to many employees, and when it is asserted by an officer of your company that the adoption of the above rule will not benefit the company the citizens feel that if the adoption of the above rule has ever been considered or approved by you these phases of the matter could not then have been presented to your mind and they now feel justified in making these representations and instead of looking for an apologetic excuse for so doing, they feel intensely that they are performing an incumbent duty in trying to prevent a great injustice.

While the citizens feel they are right in pressing the interests of the company's employees where no good reason exists for causing them injury and loss and recognizing that if consideration for the prosperity and welfare of the company's employees will not induce your company to refrain from the adoption of the above rule then the interests of others apart from those of the company could hardly prevail, they nevertheless venture to represent that they have not at any time antagonized the interests of your company and they have done all that their limited resources would warrant in building and maintaining good schools and churches, improving the streets, maintaining good order, building creditable houses and in changing the place where Havelock now is from the forest into as desirable a place of residence as possible, all things being considered, all of which has been done at considerable expense and to an extent that they can confidently challenge a comparison of the result of their efforts with those of any other place in the same time in similar localities with the same limited resources.

All this has been done on the strength of the permanent residence of the railroad men of the division at Havelock, and for the same reason a considerable amount of money has been invested on the security of Havelock real estate.

The people have done all in their power to attract the trade of the surrounding country to Havelock, and the trade and industrial development of the place has already drawn much trade and railroad traffic from the district south of Havelock, and adjacent points which were before tributary to the G. T. R. lines.

To illustrate the degree of present development and the immediate effect of the announcement of the above rule we may state that building operations on some 10 dwellings and proceedings for the erection of an up-to-date town hall have already been stopped.

The effects of any such change are not limited to the disaster it will bring to Havelock, but will also affect the town of Peterborough by the loss of much trade now derived from Havelock, and thereby the shipping patrons of your company at that point.

It need not be mentioned that any this must effect the traffic of your company.

The foregoing representations are made by and on behalf of the council and citizens generally of Havelock through this deputation, named by them, and the liberty is taken of further representing that the prosperity and welfare of men who have served your company faithfully and well for years should be safeguarded and promoted by their more fortunate superior officers, whose promotion from the ranks these men have commended and hailed with gladness, and that the carrying out of such a policy cannot fail to promote the efficiency of the service by stimulating a grateful recognition thereof and thereby a greater interest in the affairs of the company.

Relying upon these matters being treated in that spirit of firmness and justice that should actuate men in dealing with others, and especially in dealing with the affairs of subordinate and dependent fellow servants, the people of Havelock respectfully request that any action already taken towards the adoption of the above rule may be reconsidered and revoked in justice to all concerned.

Signed by the deputation on behalf of the council and citizens of Havelock.

JAMES BRYANS,
Reeve of Havelock.

George Street, Peterboro. C. B. ROUTLEY, Branch in Toronto.

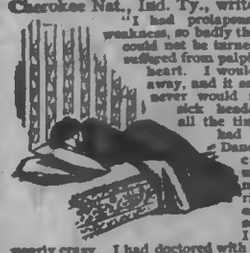
Mrs. Lily Heckert, of Bartlesville, Cherokee Nat., Ind. Ty., writes:



"I had prolapsus, or female weakness, so badly that at times I could not be turned in bed. I suffered from palpitation of the heart. I would often faint away, and it seemed as if I never would recover; had sick headache nearly all the time, and also had St. Vitus's Dance. At the commencement of the monthly period the misery would be so great that I would be nearly crazy. I had doctored with five different physicians, but they did me no good. One of these doctors, of forty years' experience, said to me, 'I can't do you any good, so why not try Dr. R. V. Pierce's Favorite Prescription?' I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce and described my troubles. He wrote me a nice fatherly, kind letter in reply, and I followed his advice.

"Life is a pleasure to me now, instead of a burden as it was before. Three of my neighbor women have used Dr. Pierce's medicines and it has helped them all. I will take no other medicine but Dr. Pierce's and I recommend it to all my friends. The 'Favorite Prescription' helped me so much I always keep it in the house. I also have the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser and think it is a great book. I am willing to answer any letters of inquiry if stamps are enclosed for reply."

Her Neighbors.

Dr. R. V. Pierce is and for over thirty years has been, chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. Thousands of women have written to him describing their symptoms, and, on following the advice he gives freely, have become well, strong and happy. Many sensitively modest women write to Dr. Pierce and so avoid the disagreeable questioning, examinations and local treatment so generally insisted upon by physicians. Dr. Pierce's medicines cure you in the privacy of your home, and Mrs. Heckert's case is only one of thousands that have been cured after the doctors failed.

EXPLOSION OF BENZINE.

Two Men Killed, Two Missing and Many Persons Badly Injured - Woman on Fire With Burning Benzine.

Philadelphia, April 26.—By an explosion of benzine in Fleer's Chemical Works yesterday two men were killed, two others are unaccounted for and one woman was fatally injured. A score of persons were more or less seriously injured.

There were two explosions, the first occurring at 3.55 and the second a few minutes later. The factory is a total wreck, and buildings for a distance of half a square on both sides of Callowhill street were partially demolished. In some instances windows in structures two squares away were shattered.

Adjoining Fleer's establishment was a grocery store owned by Arthur Donohue. Two boarders were said to have been asleep in the upper part of the house, and they had not been accounted for. Mrs. Donohue, the grocer's mother, was so badly injured that her death was momentarily expected.

On the opposite side of the street was the dwelling of Mrs. Giverson. The burning benzine ignited the clothing of Mrs. Giverson and that of her child. With the infant in her arms, she ran screaming into the street enveloped in flames. Firemen and hospital surgeons, who had responded promptly to the alarm, hastened to her assistance, and she was conveyed to a hospital in an ambulance.

It is impossible at this time to estimate the loss. Fully a hundred houses have been more or less damaged, those in close proximity to the chemical works being so badly wrecked as to probably necessitate their condemnation.

Don't Die

before your time with rheumatism or neuralgia when there is a remedy at hand. Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure will cure the most obstinate case. It is an internal preparation. Mr. W. A. Butler, porter for Canadian Express Co., Kingston, Ont., suffered with Muscular Rheumatism for three years. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure cured him completely. 50 cents a bottle, containing ten days' treatment. For sale at all drug stores.

Toronto, April 25.—The 65 G.T.R. freight handlers who went on strike have thrown up the sponge. The company will not take the discharged men back, and they will have to seek other jobs.

Energy Easily Earned.

DR. WARD'S BLOOD & NERVE PILLS

Wasted energy must be made up or the body will weaken and perhaps perish.

For a long time prior to taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my nerve system was greatly deranged and I was terribly nervous, so much so that in my business (Linesman of the Kingston Electric Light Co.,) my extreme nervousness naturally made the following of my business extremely hazardous. Before taking Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills my kidneys had been affected for some time. I had constant soreness and stiffness across my loins and the small of my back. My appetite was variable and very poor. I also suffered greatly with constant headaches. I am glad to be able to inform you that Dr. Ward's Pills completely cured me of all the above ailments and made me a well man. I have found no medicine like Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, although I have tried many different kinds. They acted quickly and effectually on my nerve system, making my nerves strong and removing all indications of nervousness. These valuable pills also removed all kidney and back trouble and restored to me a healthy vigorous appetite. I have had no headache since five months ago and feel justified in saying that they are a wonderful remedy. They not only removed nervousness, but gave me healthy kidneys, removed all soreness and stiffness from my back and loins, cured me of headache and gave me a good appetite, consequently I am highly pleased. I know of no medicine that equals Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills for nervousness, chronic headache, sore kidneys and back and loss of appetite. Yours truly, John McCutcheon, 522 Princess St., Kingston, Ont.

JAP SAILORS VS. JACK TARS.

Terrific Race of Torpedo Boats, One Manned by English and the Other by Japs.

Vancouver, B.C., April 25.—The Japanese torpedo destroyers Shinnonome and Murakuma, the former in charge of an English crew and the latter manned by Japanese, are racing in the direction of Yokosoka in a desperate attempt to beat each other. On hearing of the Murakuma's trip across the ocean with an English crew, the Shinnonome obtained permission from the Japanese Government to attempt to overtake her with a Japanese crew, and beat her into Japan from Plymouth. She overtook the British-manned ship at Colombo after a terrific race and the two boats are now speeding furiously for Yokosoka. The race is considered of international importance.

MARKET REPORTS.

July Wheat Fell Two Cents in Chicago, Although Liverpool Was Inclined to Rise - Prices.

Liverpool, April 26.—Wheat futures were inclined to go higher yesterday morning, but closed at figures unchanged from Monday's final quotations.

Chicago, April 26. — Wheat futures slumped yesterday, losing all the gain of Monday, and a good part of a cent a bushel besides. The unsatisfactory cables and the prevalence of good crop weather in the wheat belts were the depressing factors. The May option fell off 1⅛c, and the July and September options 1⅜c. The close was near the bottom for the day.

SPANISH OMELET.

While Uncle Samuel is saying "Ah-g'wan-aldo!" Spain is crying, "Ah-g'wan-aldo!"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

It is doubtful whether the Spaniards will shoot any of their generals. They couldn't hit them.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Spain is the only existing landmark of the dark ages, says J. M. Scanland in The Arena. It isn't so big a landmark as it was a year ago.—Los Angeles Express.

Spain's officials are having trouble in Palawan, an insurgent island near Borneo. It is the same old story. Cruelty and extortions aroused the islanders, and they slew the Spanish governor and upset things generally. Spain can't learn anything by experience.

Most Curious Clock.

One of the most curious clocks in the world is that which Amos Lane of Amidee, Nev., constructed some time ago. The machinery, which is nothing but a face, hands and lever, is connected with a geyser, which shoots out an immense column of hot water every 38 seconds. This spurting never varies to the tenth of a second, and therefore a clock properly attached to it cannot fail to keep correct time. Every time the water spouts up it strikes the lever and moves the hands forward 38 seconds.

IT'S TOO RISKY

To undergo an operation for Itching Piles when Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is a surer, cheaper, easier way to cure.

Cruel, barbarous methods belong to the dark ages of the past. There was a time when a surgical operation was considered the only possible cure for piles. Not so now. Occasionally there is still found a physician who adheres to this dangerous and expensive method, but to every one who still believes in using the knife, ninety and nine recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Dr. C. M. Harlan, writing in The American Journal of Health, said:

"We know that 'Dr. Chase's Ointment' meets all the requisitions of the highest standard of worth, that it will be held in high esteem wherever it is used, and consequently we endorse it to every reader."

By force of merit alone Dr. Chase's Ointment has won its way into this wide, wide world, until it has made the name of Dr. Chase familiar in almost every home, and won for the venerable discoverer the title of "America's Greatest Physician."

Dr. Chase's Ointment has never been known to fail as a cure for piles. It matters not whether blind, itching, bleeding or protruding, Dr. Chase's Ointment is an absolute and perfect cure.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment is the discovery of the author of Dr. Chase's Recipe Book, whose portrait and signature is on every box of the genuine. 50c. a box. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

YOUR LAZY LIVER

Needs stirring up this Spring.

Nothing can do this so effectually and remove every trace of impurity from the system as Laxa-Liver Pills.

The past winter has been a rather hard one.

People living indoors a good deal, eating quantities of meat and heavy foods, are likely to have their system clogged up with impurities.

No one can feel well with these poisons circulating in the blood.

The head feels heavy, the tongue is coated, appetite poor, bowels constipated—no energy, mental or physical.

Laxa-Liver Pills are what everybody needs this spring.

They relieve the constipation, act on the sluggish liver, clean the coated tongue, improve the appetite, purify the blood, clear the cobwebs from the brain and make the whole system feel buoyant and full of energy.

And they work so perfectly that they do not gripe or pain, sicken or weaken, or cause the slightest inconvenience.

Price 25c. a bottle, or 5 for $1, at all druggists. Say you want Laxa-Liver Pills, for there's nothing else as good.

GOOD HEALTH FOR WOMEN

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food Restores Weak, Sickly Women to Robust Health.

Any irregularities in the monthly uterine action is sufficient cause for women to be alarmed about their health. Whether painful, suppressed or profuse menstruation, the cause can be traced to some derangement of the nerves.

A few boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food will completely build up the exhausted nerves and restore the regular monthly action which removes from the body the clogged matter that would otherwise cause pain and serious disease.

It is as a restorative for pale, weak women that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has been singularly successful. It counteracts the debilitating diseases peculiar to women by feeding the nerves and creating new nerve fluid, the vital force of the human body.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has restored scores of hundreds of weak, sickly women to robust health. 50c. a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer tells a story to show that there is sometimes a great deal in the way of putting anything

"I understand that you said my eldest daughter was as homely as a mud fence, professor."

"You are quite mistaken, my dear madam. What I said was that your esteemed child reminded me of a mixture of terra firma and aqua pura combined in a practical boundary line."

TO CURE A FELON.

How to Treat These Dangerous and Painful Sores.

A felon is a severe and usually a most painful inflammation of the end of the finger, more commonly either the thumb or index finger of the right hand, for the reason that these are most exposed to the little wounds from which the trouble starts; but any of the fingers, or even one of the toes, may be the seat of a felon.

The inflammation starts generally from the prick of a pin or needle or from a scratch or cut, but often the wound is so slight that no notice is taken of it until the finger begins to grow sore. The soreness soon passes into actual pain, and this rapidly becomes most intense and throbbing, and sometimes is felt all the way up the arm.

It is worse when the hand is allowed to hang down. The ball of the finger is hot, red and swollen. At the same time the patient feels more or less ill, is feverish, and has a headache and rapid pulse.

When the inflammation is deep seated, pus collects beneath the periosteum, or membrane covering the bone, and this greatly increases the distress as well as the danger. If allowed to go on unrelieved, the inflammation may creep up the finger into the palm of the hand, and then the condition becomes a most serious one. In almost any case when once pus has formed beneath the periosteum more or less of the bone will die, leaving the end of the finger crippled or disfigured by a deep scar.

When the treatment is begun very early, it is sometimes possible to cut short the inflammation by cold cloths applied continuously to the inflamed part. These must be frequently renewed, for if allowed to get warm they will act as poultices and rather hasten suppuration than arrest it. At the same time the arm should be kept in a sling, with the hand raised and resting on the chest.

If the inflammation does not rapidly subside under this treatment, we must reverse it and try to bring matters to a head by means of poultices or wet cloths applied as hot as they can be borne and changed very often.

The only thing to be done when pus has formed is to cut the finger and let it out. This is painful enough for the instant, but it will prevent many days of acute suffering and all danger of severe inflammation of the hand and arm, with subsequent blood poisoning.—Youth's Companion.

ENGINEER GRAHAM,

Of Montreal, Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Montreal, April 24.—Proof positive and convincing has already been given in Montreal that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the only sure cure for diabetes. And day after day fresh evidence comes to light to make the proof more emphatic and convincing.

Engineer James Graham, 54 Victoria Square, says: "I suffered with Diabetes for six years. One of our best doctors told me I could not be cured.

"I read of Dodd's Kidney Pills and decided to try them. Three boxes made me well, and I have not suffered from Diabetes since."

Such cures as this prove the efficacy of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

The Quick Irish Lad.

When a subinspector was hearing a class of London Irish boys repeat Macaulay's "Horatius," he inquired whether three soldiers would be likely nowadays to hold a bridge against a whole army.

"Would three Englishmen, for example?" he said.

"No, sir!" said the class.

"Would three Scotchmen?"

They again dissented.

"Would three Irishmen?"

Please, sir," shouted an excitable little fellow, "one Irishman would do it!"—Cornhill Magazine.

An English Bill.

A friend has given me the following copy of a Yorkshire hostler's bill, which is interesting as a study in phonetic writing in the days when the schoolmaster was abroad:

To Oesfada	1s 0d
To Brininonimome	1s 0d
To A	0s 6d
Total	2s 6d

The interpretation is: To horse half a day, 1d; bringing him home, 1s; hay, 6d.—Leeds Mercury.

The Madrid Museum.

After the social side of life in the Spanish capital has lost some of its novelty there are always the collections to see and admire. And, after all, the crowning glory of the place is the Museo del Prado, which, if not the finest in Europe, at least ranks with the Louvre and the galleries of Dresden and Florence, says a correspondent in the Chicago Record. The gallery is especially rich in portraits of the great kings of Spain, and its chief treasures are the works of Diego Valasques, some 60 in number. The light of the gallery itself is perhaps poor, but the charm of being able to walk undisturbed and never crowded amid this marvelous collection of works by the masters is enough of itself to repay a visit to Spain. The royal collection of armor at the palace is as interesting as the Prado pictures, in a way, and after these collections come others less notable but worthy of a great capital.

SECONDHAND SHOES.

Extensive Repairs May Be Made For Very Little Money.

A sign hanging in front of a shoemaker's shop where secondhand shoes were sold had upon it these words "Secondhand Shoes With New Uppers." It seemed almost as though a pair of secondhand shoes with new uppers would be practically new shoes, but inquiry showed that this impression was not warranted by the facts. There is a good deal of fresh material in a pair of shoes thus repaired, but there is also left a good deal of the old.

The new upper thus put in is a new vamp, the front part of the upper. The old counter, or back part of the shoe, still remains. It is a familiar fact that while the counter may break down or wear out or get a hole in it somehow it is much more likely to stay sound and good. It is the front that cracks and breaks. And so in putting secondhand shoes in order new vamps are sometimes put in. But while such a shoe, which had also been soled and heeled, might easily be described as having undergone extensive repairs it would still be far from wholly new. There would remain, besides the old counter, the shank and the inner sole and the general shape and framework of the shoe, and upon these the repairs could be made.

Secondhand shoes bring various prices, depending on their original quality and their condition. A pair of secondhand shoes, resoled and reheeled and with new uppers, can be bought for as little as a dollar.

Mr. G. O. ARCHIBALD'S CASE.

Didn't Walk for 5 Months. Doctors said Locomotor Ataxia.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills Cure a Disease hitherto regarded as Incurable.

The case of Mr. G. O. Archibald, of Hopewell Cape, N.B., (a cut of whom appears below), is one of the severest and most intractable that has ever been reported from the eastern provinces, and his cure by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills the more remarkable from the fact that he was given up as incurable by worthy and respected physicians.

The disease, Locomotor Ataxia, with which Mr. Archibald was afflicted is considered the most obstinate and incurable disease of the nervous system known. When once it starts it gradually but surely progresses, paralyzing the lower extremities and rendering its victim helpless and hopeless, enduring the indescribable agony of seeing himself die by inches.

That Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills can cure thoroughly and completely a disease of such severity ought to encourage those whose disorders are not so serious to try this remedy.

The following is Mr. Archibald's letter:

MESSRS. T. MILBURN & CO.—"I can assure you that my case was a very severe one, and had it not been for the use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I do not believe I would be alive to-day. I do not know, exactly, what was the cause of the disease, but it gradually affected my legs, until I was unable to walk hardly any for five months.

"I was under the care of Dr. Morse, of Melrose, who said I had Locomotor Ataxia, and gave me up as incurable.

"Dr. Solomon, a well-known physician of Boston, told me that nothing could be done for me. Every one who came to visit me thought I never could get better.

"I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised and thought I would try them anyway, as they gave more promise of helping me than anything I knew of.

"If you had seen me when I started taking those wonderful pills—not able to get out of my room, and saw me now, working hard every day, you wouldn't know me.

"I am agent for P. O. Vickey, of Augusta Maine, and have sold 300 subscribers in 80 days and won a fifty dollar prize.

"Nothing else in the world saved me but those pills, and I do not think they have an equal anywhere.

"The seven boxes I took have restored me the full use of my legs and given me strength and energy and better health than I have enjoyed in a long time."

G. O. ARCHIBALD.

Hopewell Cape, N. B.

In addition to the statement by Mr. Archibald, we have the endorsation of two well-known merchants of Hopewell Cape, N. B., viz.: Messrs. J. E. Dickson and F. J. Brewster, who certify to the genuineness and accuracy of the facts as given above.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists, or sent by mail. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.

A NEW INVENTION!

The Newcombe Piano Has It.

It consists of a Patented Practice CLAVIER or STOP which diminishes the tone when required and saves wear on the Piano; it also does away with the old way of having to press down the pedal with the foot in order to soften the tone when running the scales or practicing. Oftentimes the young pupil on the piano cannot press down on the pedal without throwing themselves out of the proper position when they should sit erect. This invention in the NEWCOMBE PIANO will enable children to begin two years earlier on the piano. In addition to the above, the NEWCOMBE PIANO is the finest made in Canada. Children often complain about practicing; they like it if they have a NEWCOMBE PIANO. 1898 styles are gems of art, containing every late improvement; they possess that beautiful full sweet tone which lights the singer, and so pleases every musical ear. Organs of every description at Wholesale Prices.

Big Bargains now on hand in slightly used. Upright and Square Pianos of the various makes taken in part exchange for the famous NEWCOOMBE PIANOS. Every NEWCOMBE PIANO has a new registered scale and the warranty is cast in the plate. PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The individual who fulfils his promises gains public confidence, and thus holds one of the strongest levers to success. The same is true of institutions, and in this connection the SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANAD, has a record in which it can take a pardonable pride.

Instead of over-estimating the profits on its investment policies, the management of the Company has wisely based the calculations on the proper earning power of money, having due regard to contingencies that are bound to arise. As a result of this the holders of matured Endowment policies are from time to time being agreeably surprised, and not disappointed, in the results of their policies.

The following letter speaks for itself and bears the eloquent and substantial evidence of the fact that the Sun Life of Canada keeps faith with its policy holders:

To the District Manager:—

DEAR SIR,—I beg to acknowledge with thanks receipt of cheque for twelve hundred and sixty-four and 95/100 dollars ($1264.95) from The Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada to cover Policy No. 15002 on my own life.

This amount represents a return of all premiums which I have paid to the Company and three hundred and thirty-four and 80/100 dollars ($334.80) besides, or about 4½ per cent. compound interest on my investment. In addition to this the Company has carried my risk for thirteen years for nothing, all of which is very satisfactory.

TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

Provincial Boards of Trade to Discuss this Question.

Technical education, as a subject of vital interest to the manufacturing industries is now engaging the attention of the Toronto Board of Trade. At a meeting yesterday afternoon the council of the Board of Trade unanimously adopted a report of a special committee appointed to consider the matter. The report was presented by Mr. W. F. Cockshutt, as follows:

"We are of the opinion that the subject is of great importance to both this city and province, and believe that the time is ripe for action. We have waited upon the Minister of Education with regard to the matter and he fully approves of our proposed action. Mr. Ross has kindly offered to address this board at an open meeting to be held in May. Your committee would recommend that we take advantage of this opportunity to bring the subject forward, and that in conjunction with the resolution of the Ottawa Board of Trade, the various Boards of Trade of the Province be requested to send delegates. We are of opinion that technical training can be handled better as a provincial than a Dominion question just at present.

Secretary Wills will immediately arrange with the Minister of Education the date of the proposed meeting. A special meeting of the board will then be called and delegates from other boards will be invited.

THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

THE NEW MEDICAL DISCOVERY TESTED.

Results of the Test in Various Forms of Dyspepsia.

Chronic indigestion or dyspepsia, while a very common trouble, has for some time been looked upon by able physicians as a very serious thing, and that no time should be lost in treating it properly at the start, because recent researches have shown that the most serious, fatal and incurable diseases have their origin in simple dyspepsia or indigestion.

Diabetes is simply one form of indigestion, the sugar and starchy food not being assimilated by the digestive organs. In bright's disease the albumen is not properly assimilated.

While consumption and dyspepsia are twin diseases, and it is beyond question that dyspepsia makes a fertile soil for the seeds of consumption.

But the trouble has been to find a remedy that could be depended on to cure dyspepsia, as it is notoriously obstinate and difficult to cure.

This has been the question which has puzzled physicians and dyspeptics alike, until the question was solved three years ago by the appearance of the new dyspeptic cur ein the medical world known as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which it was claimed was a certain reliable cure for every form of stomach trouble.

Physicians, however, would not accept such statements without first giving the new remedy many tests and carefully observing results.

For three years the remedy has been thoroughly tested in every section of the country and with surprising and satisfactory results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can honestly be claimed to be a specific, a radical lasting cure for indigestion in the various forms of acid dyspepsia or sour stomach, gas or wind on the stomach, too much bile, undue fullness or depressure after eating and similar symptoms resulting from disordered indigestion. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were not placed before the public until this three years' trial left no doubt as to their value, and they have recently been placed in the trade and can be found at all druggists at the nominal price of 50 cents per package.

No false claims are made for the remedy. It will not cure rheumatism, pneumonia, typhoid fever nor anything but just what it is claimed to cure, and that is every form of stomach trouble.

No dieting is necessary, good wholesome food and plenty of it, and you may rest assured that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest it.

Druggists claim for it that it is a pleasure to recommend it to dyspeptics, because it gives such universal satisfaction.

Y.P.S.C.E. NOTES.

At St. Andrews Y.P.S.C.E. Monday night Mr. B. Anderson gave a talk on the topic "How Christ Makes Use of Common Lives," showing that the Christian life makes life uncommon and that anything men do for God they never know where it will end. During the meeting the pastor also spoke, urging the christian to go on cheerfully doing his ordinary work, for that though he may not be a hero to the world yet he is one of God's heroes.

Before the meeting closed Mr. Miller expressed his sorrow at leaving the church and Endeavor, having to remove from town. The society regret his loss as a worker.

The meeting closed in the usual way.

The Peterborough Juniors are going to have lots of games this year. They will probably go to Lindsay on May 24th.

At a meeting of the executive committee held last evening, a letter was considered which was received from the Association asking if the club had any objection to Georgetown being placed in the local district of the senior series. It was decided to raise no objection provided the present schedule of dates was not interfered with and on the condition that Georgetown play its first game in Peterborough during the week prior to June 23rd, on which date Brampton plays here. The secretary reported concerning the clubs with which he was in communication for a game on the 24th May and the prospects are bright for a strong team being secured.

A resolution was passed to the effect that all clubs desiring to use the lacrosse grounds for practice must pay in their fees to the treasurer before the members will be allowed upon the field.
